The driver smiled and said: "You, a local, didn't go home as soon as you got off the plane. Instead, you went to the antique street. You said you didn't want to pick up the missing items."

After that, the driver added: "Actually, let alone you, even I did. I want to go shopping in the antique street. We work very hard as a taxi driver and only earn 10,000 to 8,000 yuan a month. Others can earn 20 million yuan in one night. I can't make that much money even if I drive a taxi till I die. "

Jacob knew that he must be talking about Zhou Liangyun, and he felt even more uncomfortable. He said in a somewhat unhappy tone: "I went to the antique street to do business, not to pick up leaks."

The driver asked curiously: "Aren't you going to pick up leaks? You haven't heard about what happened yesterday, right?"

As he said that, the driver didn't wait for Jacob to express his opinion, and said happily: "I tell you, this thing is so magical that even a movie wouldn't dare to shoot it like this. A few idiots bought a cultural relic of high cost and wanted to deceive a boss in the antique street. Who would have thought that the fake cultural relic that these idiots bought was actually..."

Jacob was about to explode with anger. He wanted to complain about this. The talkative driver yelled that I am one of those idiots you mentioned.

But his reason still made him change his explanation: "Sorry, I've been on a plane for eight hours. I'm so tired. I want to sleep for a while."

The driver asked in surprise: "Hey, you came back from abroad? Which country?" "

Jacob closed his eyes and uttered two words: "Dubai."

The driver immediately said: "Ouch! I heard that Dubai is getting rich, isn't it? They say that the Burj Al Arab is a seven-star hotel or an eight-star hotel or something like that. I can't finish shopping in Dubai's shopping malls in a few days. Is it really that great?"

Jacob ducked into the store, took off his mask, and said nervously:
“Um...Hello, Boss Zhou...it's me, Jacob...”

Zhou Liangyun raised his head. , looking at Jacob, was stunned for a moment, and then asked pretending to be curious: “Mr. willson, what are you doing here? Do you want to take things back?”

“No, no...” Jacob waved his hand quickly and said: “How can I ask you to take things back... I came back from Dubai to apologize to you...”

“Apologise?” Zhou Liangyun smiled slightly and didn't Pretending to be stupid, he asked directly: “Mr. willson came back because of Zhang Ermao's circle of friends, right?”

Jacob was embarrassed to deny it, so he nodded and said: “Yes...”

Zhou Liangyun said calmly: “This I benefited from this matter in the end, so there's no need to apologize.”

Jacob hadn't come to his senses yet, thinking that he was being polite to him by saying he didn't need to apologize, so he quickly took out his phone and found his transfer records, hurriedly. He handed it over and said respectfully: “Boss Zhou, I know you must be very angry. After all, I did something unkind, but I have also realized my mistake. In order to show that I can correct my mistakes. attitude, I donated all the 300,000 to the Aurous Hill Charity Foundation. I also hope that you will see that I took the initiative to admit my mistake and donated even the capital and profits. You have a lot of money, so please don't think like me. , let alone bring this matter to the police...”

As he said this, he hesitated but still didn't have the nerve to kneel down, so he simply bowed deeply to Zhou Liangyun, then put his hands in front of him, nervously He looked at Zhou Liangyun, waiting for his statement. Number.

Zhou Liangyun looked at the transfer record on Jacob's phone, handed the phone back to him, and said with a smile: “Mr. willson, I'm not being polite to you. I'm really not angry, not at all;”

“And I said To be honest, I didn't plan to call the police from the beginning to the end.”

Jacob was stunned and asked subconsciously: “You really didn’t plan to call the police?”

Zhou Liangyun nodded and said seriously: “I really have no plan. If I wanted to call the police, I would have already done so.”

After saying that, Zhou Liangyun added: “Think about it, the entire antique street knows that I made 20 million by picking up missing pieces. Zhang As soon as Ermao’s WeChat Moments were posted, everyone knew the whole story. They all said privately that you are the money-spreading boys sent by the God of Wealth. If I call the police to arrest you now, the whole antique street will think that I am This person is not particular;”

“Besides, I have been in the antique business for so many years. I know the rules of our industry. It is impossible to trouble the police for this matter. Don’t say that I will not call the police after making money. Even if the compensation is 300,000 yuan, I will not call the police.”

Jacob breathed a sigh of relief. What he was most afraid of was that he would be jailed. Now with Zhou Liangyun’s sincere answer, he can. not worried.

However, just when he breathed a sigh of relief, he suddenly realized something: “Since Zhou Liangyun was not prepared to call the police from the beginning to the end, wouldn’t my donation of three hundred thousand be in vain?”

Thinking of this, He almost broke down and cursed secretly: “Damn, my hands are really cheap! Why are you so eager to donate money? You should stop donating in a hurry and wait to see Zhou Liangyun’s attitude before making a decision! Donate all the money now I’ve been gone for ten hours, I wonder if I have to come back?”

Immediately, an anxious Jacob took his phone away from Zhou Liangyun, couldn’t wait to find the 24-hour donation hotline of Aurous Hill Charity Foundation, and called directly. past.

As soon as the phone call came through, the operator on the other side said politely: “Hello, this is Aurous Hill Charity Foundation, may I ask...”

Jacob didn’t wait for the other party to finish speaking, and asked impatiently: “What, what? I accidentally made a mistake today and donated 300,000 yuan to your foundation. Can you refund the money to me?”

As soon as Jacob said the words, Zhou Liangyun on the side couldn't help but laugh.

He had never heard of people who donated money to charity and regretted it and wanted to get it back. Today was an eye-opener.

However, the operator was obviously more experienced than him, and he only listened to the other person's slow explanation: "Sir, according to relevant national regulations, public welfare donations donated to charity, disaster relief, and poverty alleviation cannot be canceled at will..."

Jacob said quickly: "I really accidentally clicked the wrong one. I originally wanted to donate 30,000 yuan, but I accidentally pressed an extra zero and donated 300,000 yuan. Please tell your leaders how to report it. Just refund me 270,000 yuan."

The operator said apologetically: "I'm sorry, sir, we have strict financial regulations here, which means that we don't have the right to use the charitable donations in our account at will. Expenditures require a clear approval process. If you think there is a major misunderstanding in your donation, you can hire a lawyer to submit an application to the court. If the court supports it, your donation will be revoked in accordance with the law. At that time, we can rely on the court to As a result of the judgment, the money will be returned to you."

"Is it so troublesome?" Jacob said anxiously, "It only takes a long time. I donated too much, so you can refund the amount I donated. Can't you just give it to me? It's my money, isn't it natural?"

The operator explained: "Charitable donation itself is a very serious and very strict matter, and since there are regulations on tax-deductible donations, we must follow the corresponding procedures in accordance with the law. Think about it, if a company donates 10 million to us at the end of the year to avoid taxes, saving the company several million, and tells us after the tax year that it was a wrong donation, the money will be lost. If we return it, wouldn't we be helping this company to evade taxes?"

Jacob blurted out: "But I am an individual, not a company!"

The operator added, "I am also involved in tax issues, as is my personal income. If you are subject to personal tax, if you donate the portion of your income that is subject to personal tax, and then ask for it back on the grounds that you donated it by mistake, we cannot bear the legal liability involved, so if you want to return your donation, the only option is The way is to cancel it through the people's court or an authoritative arbitration institution."

Jacob suddenly became a little desperate and said depressedly: "I have to go to court to get the money back, and I will be busy for years and months. My money is life-saving. Yes, my wife is sick and needs this money for surgery, can't you make some accommodations?"

Jacob hurriedly came forward and said with a flattering face: "Boss Zhou, I believe you must have seen Zhang Erfa's WeChat Moments. To be honest, that WeChat Moments had a very bad influence on me and has already affected me. The foundation of the Calligraphy and Painting Association has been established. You see, you have made a lot of money this time. Even if you donate 10 million, don't you have 10 million left? The net profit is still 9.7 million, so I want to ask you to help me distribute it. A rumor was spread in a circle of friends, saying that what Zhang Ermao (Cade) posted on his circle of friends was false.

Zhou Liangyun thought to himself: "The reputation of being suspected of fraud will definitely have a great negative impact on Jacob. If we don't help him thoroughly." If he can get rid of this suspicion, he will really have a hard time in the Calligraphy and Painting Association, and he may even be expelled. He is charlie Wade's father-in-law, so I should leave him some room."

But thinking of this, he realized another problem: "Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s exposure must have been charlie Wade's intention. This shows that charlie Wade deliberately wanted to teach his father-in-law a lesson. If he let Jacob go without charlie Wade's consent, he might end up with charlie Wade. Chen's idea runs counter to..."

After thinking about this, Zhou Liangyun said tactfully: "I'm sorry, Mr. willson, I may not be able to agree to this matter. After all, I don't know what the whole situation is. I don't know whether what you said is right or what Zhang Ermao (Cade) said is right, and I have no way of verifying it."

Jacob said quickly: “Zhang Ermao (Cade) is a slanderer. He is used to deceiving people in the antique street. He has a mouth. There is not a word of truth, you must not believe him!”

Zhou Liangyun nodded and said: “To be honest, I really don’t want to get into this muddy water, and I don’t want to find out who is the real one between you and him. Who is fake? If you insist that the content he posted is untrue, then I suggest you confront him face to face. As long as you can defeat him in the confrontation, you will naturally be innocent and your reputation will not be affected. Any influence.”

Jacob said awkwardly: “I...I have broken up with Zhang Ermao (Cade), I don’t want to confront him.”

After that, he looked at Zhou Liangyun and begged: “Boss Zhou. , you see, I am definitely more reliable than Zhang Ermao (Cade). Zhang Ermao (Cade) cheats and kidnaps him all the time. Will he donate to charity? No! But I will!”
As soon as he said this, Jacob realized The call I made to refund the money just now was a bit embarrassing, so I quickly went back to smooth things over and said, “Of course, I can donate 300,000 yuan in one go. My financial situation is really not very supportive, but you heard the call I made just now. I am If you are willing to donate 30,000 yuan, this is not a small amount!”

“Yes...” Zhou Liangyun sneered and said, “It’s not bad to donate 30,000 yuan. After all, love can’t just be taken. Measured by the amount of donations.”

After saying that, he turned around impatiently and left the antique street, planning to find a law firm for consultation.

When Zhou Liangyun saw him leaving, he returned to the store. In fact, he had no intention of leaving. He just said he wanted to leave because he didn’t want to get entangled with Jacob.

However, in order to avoid trouble, he still hung a closure sign outside the door and locked the door from the inside.

At this time, a man suddenly walked out of the door and asked through the glass door: "Boss, can I show you something else?"

Zhou Liangyun didn't even look back. He was about to refuse when he suddenly realized that the person speaking was Charlie Wade.

So, he quickly turned around and saw Charlie Wade standing outside the store door.

A smile appeared on his face, he took two quick steps to open the door, and asked with a smile: "Mr. Wade, we haven't seen each other for a long time!"

Charlie Wade knew that Zhou Liangyun was continuing his own personality. According to his current With this identity setting, he naturally knew himself, but since he was expelled from Ji Qingtang, he had no contact with him anymore.

So, Charlie Wade also smiled and said: "Boss Zhou, long time no see, you are your own boss now."

Zhou Liangyun said very humbly: "It's a small business, it's not worth mentioning. I wonder why Mr. Wade comes to visit you?"

Charlie Wade casually took out an amulet made of Tridacna and said: "I got something by chance, and I would like to ask Boss Zhou to take a look."

Zhou Liangyun nodded, made an invitation gesture, and said: "Mr. Wade, please come in. "

Charlie Wade stepped into the store, and Zhou Liangyun closed the door again, and then said to Charlie Wade with a smile: "Master Ye, does your father-in-law know that you are here?"

Charlie Wade said with a smile: "He doesn't. You know, I was at the teahouse opposite and came down after he left."

After that, he asked Zhou Liangyun: "Uncle Zhou, what did my father-in-law say when he came to you?"

Zhou Liangyun said with a smile: "First he said he donated all the money. I begged me not to call the police. I told him that I had no intention of calling the police. He quickly called the charity again and wanted them to return the money. The other party said that he needed to go through legal channels, so he planned to find a lawyer and thought before leaving. He asked me to help him refute Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s circle of friends. I didn't agree to it, but I didn't completely block the possibility."

charlie Wade shook his head and said with a smile: "It seems that the country is easy to change and the nature is hard to change. I thought he could. I really realized my mistake, but I didn't expect that the only thing on my mind was the position."

After saying that, charlie Wade said again: "Uncle Zhou, you don't have to talk to him anymore, and don't leave any room for him in this matter. He must be able to do it. It's his job to get the donated money back, but as for his reputation, it will be stinky if it stinks."
