charlie Wade has never been a person who protects his shortcomings. His father-in-law's series of coquettish actions this time are indeed bad for his character, and he has no regrets. Naturally, it is impossible for charlie Wade to secretly support him again.

Therefore, I left this matter to my father-in-law, who had decided to let it go.

However, Zhou Liangyun spoke kindly for Jacob at this time and said: "Master Wade, in fact, it is understandable to a certain extent that Mr. willson did this. When he 'broke' the vase, it was actually because of my plot. I let people do it." I beat him to make the acting more realistic. It's my duty for him to hold grudges."

charlie Wade nodded and sighed: "It's okay to hold grudges, and it's okay to take revenge. It's just that this method is a bit unsightly, but Even so, I still don't think it's a big problem if he wants to save face from you, but the problem is that he doesn't understand what it means to give up when things get good."

"Before Zhang Ermao (Cade) exposed this matter, he didn't really matter. Loss, although he sold Fei a good thing, the thing itself was sold to him by someone else, and he also took away a net profit of 200,000 yuan from Uncle Zhou. The bad thing is that people are insufficient. , he knew that the bronze Buddha was sold at a high price, and he wanted to get the bronze Buddha back. If his step was not excessive, I would not let Zhang Ermao (Cade) expose this matter."

After that, charlie Wade sighed: "In the final analysis. , Still can't afford it, it's still too difficult for him to give up and accept defeat."

Zhou Liangyun said with a smile: "Most people can't accept the loss of 20 million in one thought. Mr. willson wants to do it. It's understandable to a certain extent that the things need to be returned."

After saying that, Zhou Liangyun added: "As for the subsequent impact, as long as I don't say anything about this matter and don't go to the police, there is no way for the outside world to characterize it. As long as someone helps him, he should still have a place, but the relationship between colleagues may become more tense in the future."

charlie smiled and said, "Let him go, I am not ready to interfere in this matter."

Well." Zhou Liangyun nodded and said: "For Mr. willson, his style and logic of doing things are still lacking in maturity and rigor. Maybe he has never started a business in his life and has not experienced any storms. His comprehensive ability is still compared to that of most of his peers. Too much is lacking."

Zhou Liangyun replied: "I didn't want to be so high-profile. I just wanted to open a store in the antique street and start slowly. Now it suddenly has a lot of popularity. Every day, many people come to me to appraise things. It can be regarded as a handful. It's a double-edged sword. I plan to slow down the pace a little. I will open later and close earlier every day, and I will receive fewer customers. I think the popularity will subside in another month.

" Zhou Liangyun added: "When the heat slowly subsides, I will do business like a Buddhist. Anyway, I don't want to make money, let alone make my career big. The pace of life in the city of Jinling is relatively slow. If people can slow down, , It's still very comfortable, and I plan to slowly and leisurely retire here."

charlie Wade nodded and said: "The Rothschild family is relatively controllable, but I don't know if the Po Qing Association is still paying attention to Sifang Baozhuang and you. If the Po Qing Society can be eradicated in the future, you will be completely free."

Zhou Liangyun smiled and said: "I believe that with Master Wade's ability, this day will come soon."

After that, Zhou Liangyun thought of something and was busy. Said: "By the way, Mr. Wade, you haven't had dinner yet, right? Do you want to eat something together? There is a small restaurant nearby that makes delicious local dishes and can be delivered directly to the store. If you don't mind, we can Let's have something together in the store?"

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Okay, my wife is busy with the company these days and works overtime every night, so I will have a meal with you."

As he said that, he suddenly thought of someone else. Come, he said to Zhou Liangyun: "By the way, Uncle Zhou, there is an old acquaintance of yours in Jinling. Please order a few more dishes and I will call him over!"

At the same time, Jacob was dejected. After leaving the antique street, he stopped a taxi and said to the driver: "Go to Heaven Springs."

The reason why Jacob wanted to go to Heaven Springs was mainly because he wanted to invite President Pei to have a meal there and chat while eating.

At this time, Jacob was extremely depressed and couldn't help but sigh to himself: "I never thought that after this incident, even Don Albert wouldn't want to see me anymore. If I had known this, I might as well just hold that damn thing honestly. I'll be safe with 200,000, and have a good vacation in Dubai! That way, not only will I have 200,000 in hand, but the association won't know about these bad things, and Mr. Hong won't have any objections to me..."

Jacob, who was filled with regret, was sitting alone in the back seat of a taxi, tears of grievance almost falling.

Seeing that the driver was quietly looking at him through the rearview mirror in the car, he quickly turned his face to the side, then took out his cell phone and called President Pei.

As soon as the phone call came through, President Pei asked him: "Jacob, how is the matter going? Has Zhang Ermao (Cade) done it?"

President Pei was still waiting for Jacob to find Mr. Don Albert to put pressure on Zhang Ermao (Cade). Take the initiative to refute rumors.

But Jacob knew in his heart that there was no chance of refuting the rumors, so he could only say in embarrassment: "President Pei, there is something going on with Zhang Ermao (Cade). This guy is determined to confront me now, and Mr. Don Albert has no idea what to do with him." Yes, and Mr. Don Albert also told me about the difficulty. Zhang Ermao (Cade) is his master. He is in a dilemma, so it is not convenient for him to intervene. "

President Pei smacked his lips and said: "Oh, this is a bit difficult. Done! If you can't refute the rumors, you can't stop the mouths of these people in the meeting!"

Jacob said hurriedly: "President Pei, although there is no way for Zhang Ermao (Cade) to come out to refute the rumors, what I can guarantee is that this The matter will definitely not continue to ferment. What Zhang Ermao (Cade) said about fraud is pure nonsense. It is impossible for the police to intervene. If the police do not intervene, no one can characterize this matter. And I also told Zhou Liangyun "Yes, this matter is just a misunderstanding, and Zhou Liangyun also made it clear that he will not pursue it any further."

Chairman Pei murmured: "This... this matter is neither good nor bad, and the matter cannot be settled!" "

Jacob said hurriedly: "The matter will not be settled, but it will not develop into a serious matter. After the limelight in the past few days, the popularity will probably subside. "

President Pei said: "Jacob, you think the heat has gone down, but the people in the association may not let you go so easily. The key is that you are now the second-in-command, blocking the way of many people, just like everyone is in the same toilet. When you're queuing up to go to the toilet, everyone wants to squeeze out the people in front of you, and all of them are queuing behind you. If you don't squeeze you out, they will definitely not give up. I'm afraid they won't stop by then. Noisy."

President Pei is also under a lot of pressure.

In fact, he no longer plans to let Jacob take over his position, because in that case, all the pressure will be concentrated on himself. If Jacob breaks the scandal and continues to let him take the position, those people will definitely make trouble with him and even talk about him to the outside world. Protect Jacob.

But he didn't dare to offend Jacob too much. After all, he didn't know what Don Albert's attitude was towards Jacob right now. If he offended Jacob and Jacob hated him, his future would not be easy.

Therefore, President Pei's biggest wish now is that Jacob can voluntarily give up the competition for the position of president, preferably also the position of executive vice president.

In that case, the vice-presidents would each move up to a higher level, and he could appease their emotions, and by the way, keeping Jacob in the association would not offend the public.

Jacob hadn't yet understood the meaning of President Pei's words, so he said: "President Pei, those people are just grasshoppers after the fall. They won't be able to cause trouble for a few days. When you are promoted, I will become the president. "Of course I have a way to deal with them and make them behave honestly."

President Pei said hurriedly: "Jacob, you still don't understand. It's not about whether you are allowed to do the president's job, but whether you can do it." It's about staying in the association! What they want is to remove you from the association, otherwise they will continue to make trouble, and they may even go to the city to report the situation, in case the city also feels this matter. If it damages the reputation of the association and asks you to withdraw from the association, then I can't protect you!"

Jacob suddenly panicked and even cried out in a very anxious tone: "President! I beg you to help me now! I have already lost all my money. There is nothing you can say to stop me from seeing my status in the association in jeopardy!"
