After saying that, he added: "I usually drink mostly red wine, and occasionally some whiskey."

Zhou Liangyun asked again: "Then how much does a bottle of wine you usually drink cost?"

Steve thought for a while: "With food For wine, the unit price is usually between 10,000 and 50,000 US dollars. For an important banquet, the price is usually over 100,000 US dollars."

Zhou Liangyun pointed to the yellow-topped glass bottle of liquor he bought and asked him, "Guess what this bottle of wine is." How much is it?"

Steve shook his head: "I don't usually drink Chinese liquor, so I don't know much about the market..."

charlie Wade on the side smiled and said: "I'm letting you guess, not letting you understand. You have to know. How much does a bottle of this wine cost?"

Steve said quickly: "Then... I guess it's about... three thousand dollars?"

"Three thousand dollars?" Shaking his head, he smiled and said, "You won't need so much, so I'll just charge it to about seven dollars."

"Seven dollars?" Steve was stunned and blurted out, "Mr. Zhou usually drinks wine worth seven dollars?"

Zhou Liangyun laughed. Said: "When I was in the United States, I never drank such cheap wine, but yesterday I asked for a bottle in a small restaurant and found that although this wine is cheap, it tastes not bad at all."

Steve stared at himself. Filling the glass with wine, he subconsciously swallowed his saliva and said nervously: "Before drinking this kind of wine, do I need to do a test to see if there are any problems with the ingredients?"

charlie Wade and Zhou Liangyun looked at each other and smiled. Then Zhou Liangyun said, "Just drink boldly. If anything happens to the wine I took, it will be mine."

charlie Wade also echoed: "Don't worry, if something happens to you if you drink, I'll feed you a pill on the spot. Wouldn't you make a profit?"

Steve sneered and said, "Then I'll drink two more bottles. Mix a pill with you."

Zhou Liangyun said with a smile: "There is only one bottle of wine, let the three of us drink it separately. Each of us is only thirty-two cents, a little more than five ounces. With your physique, you shouldn't be able to drink much. Come on."

Steve sighed: "I know Mr. Wade's elixir is not so easy to get..."

charlie Wade smiled slightly: "That's not necessarily the case. I have always been generous to my true friends. Not to mention the elixir for your father, the rejuvenation elixir that is several times stronger than that elixir, I don't even know how many have been given away."

Steve said with a serious face: "Mr. Wade, you know, I have always regarded you as a friend."

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Really? Why didn't I feel it?"

Zhou Liangyun fanned the flames: "It's probably because Steve's friendship is more reserved."

charlie Wade nodded, looked at Steve, and joked: "Steve, we Easterners are more reserved, you Westerners should always be passionate and unrestrained. From now on, you can be more direct in your expressions of friendship." "

Steve knew that charlie Wade was teasing him, so he could only say humbly: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I will be careful not to be so subtle in the future."

After that, he quickly expressed his stance to charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, if you have any use for me in the future, just ask, and I will do my best. As the ancient Chinese said, oh, I remembered, I will go out of my way to protect my friends. I, Steve... Rothschild too!

charlie Wade called Steve over and tied him to his boat. Although this guy was not too kind, he was the second-in-command of the Rothschild family after all, so it would not be a bad thing to win over him appropriately.

What's more, as long as he sits here today and drinks and chats with himself and Zhou Liangyun, then he will be completely pulled into the water. If he knows about his son with bruce Wade and the Sifang Baozhuan taken away from the Rothschild family We had dinner and drinks with Zhou Peter, and maybe he would kill this traitor with a gun.

Although it will be difficult for him to become the heir of the Rothschild family for a while, his use value is still very high. charlie asked Helena to manipulate his father Howard, and then he personally manipulated him before going to the United States in the future. It's no different than going back to your own home.

So, charlie Wade looked at Steve and smiled: "You have this attitude, which is really impressive."

After that, he picked up the wine glass and said with a smile: "Come on Steve, for the sake of the friendship between the three of us Let's have a drink."

Steve took the risk, picked up the wine glass, and said cheerfully: "Cheers to friendship!"

The 53-degree strong wine was a bit overwhelming for Steve, and he couldn't help but feel cold after taking a sip. Qi sighed: "Oh, this wine is really spicy, just like the vodka I drank at parties when I was young. It's a pity that my health doctor has long stopped recommending me to drink high-alcohol wine. Even red wine like Romanée-Conti has to be limited." Quoting, it is said that it should not exceed one ounce per day."

After that, he couldn't help but sigh: "As I get older, my fighting ability is no longer good, and even drinking is a bit boring. In the past, we drank vodka with a higher concentration than this. Don't be afraid. It's no longer possible. All kinds of minor health problems and chronic diseases, the various precautions given by health care doctors are thicker than the Oxford dictionary."

charlie Wade looked at Steve and said with a smile: "Well, people start to decline at the age of thirty. Every physical function will continue to decline. It is inevitable that there will be many problems by the age of fifty, but as long as

There is no fatal disease, and it is generally like a classic car. Although it has many problems, it can still be driven.”

Steve looked at the wine glass and sighed absently: “When people reach this stage, they will feel very hard, just like you said. In that way, it gradually aged into a classic car with many problems. No matter how much money I had, it still couldn’t change this reality. I actually have many classic cars, and because I have the best team to maintain them, I can keep them. They look the same as they were decades ago, but they are actually very fragile. Some of them can no longer be driven and can only be displayed statically. The parts that can be driven can hardly support normal intensity of use.”

charlie Wade said with a smile: “You always think that I cheated you, but in fact, I indirectly helped you determine the position of the first heir. As far as I know, before this, the Rothschild family had not really determined Who is the next heir?”

Steve said with a smile: “You are right... I am the first heir now, but my father has the elixir you provided, maybe he will live longer than me. It will still be a long time...”

charlie Wade said: “Steve, since we can sit together and have a drink and talk happily, I won’t beat around the bush with you. To me, who has a better life, you or your father? It doesn’t matter how long it takes, what matters is who can achieve better cooperation with me. At this stage, your father’s sincerity is much higher than yours, so I asked Helena to provide him with the elixir.”

Ye said. Chen asked again: “Do you know what your father is busy with in Northern Europe recently?”

“I know a little bit.” Steve said: “It seems that he is working on some kind of data center.”

charlie Wade nodded and said: “I asked Helena I gave him a new offer. As long as he can build an AI model for me in Northern Europe, I will provide him with another elixir. By then, his physical condition will be even better. If he can continue to Cooperate with my request, maybe at some point in the future, the two of you will have the same biological age.”

Steve was extremely depressed. It seemed that his father had already hugged Charlie Wade through Helena. , in the future, if Charlie Wade wants him or even the entire Rothschild family to do anything, he only needs to take out the elixir and ask Helena to send a message, and he will get a positive response from the old man. In this way, he, as the heir, may really want to be the heir. Until death.

Feeling a little desperate in his heart, he picked up the wine glass and drank most of the remaining glass in one breath. Then he looked at Charlie Wade and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, I did have some duplicity in the past, but I have become deeply aware of it. My own mistake, I beg you to show me a clear path. If I still have a chance, I will work harder. If I don't have a chance, then I will completely calm down and stop thinking about him after I go back. "

Steve knew very well that once his father's lifespan continued to extend and he got older, the next successor in the future would become farther and farther away from him. If he waited until his father was a hundred years old to hand over the reins, he would have already. At the retirement age, for the sake of the development of the family, the old man will definitely bypass himself and let his son succeed him. It is still good to let his son succeed him. What if he lets his younger brother succeed him? It was really finished, because by then, my own lineage would be destined to become relatives of the Rothschild family and gradually be marginalized.

Steve shook his head and asked tentatively: "Does he love this granddaughter?"

Charlie Wade waved his hand: "Don't your father love you as the eldest son? If he loves you, he doesn't necessarily have to pass the throne to you. , he gives you endless money, the best living conditions and material foundation in the world, isn't that also a sign of his love for you?"

Steve caught something unusual and asked him quickly: "Mr. Wade, Please help me clarify my doubts."

Charlie Wade said: "The reason why Mr. Fei is willing to pass the throne to Fei Kexin is because the condition for me to give him a long life is that he will give up the throne to his granddaughter. I won't give him the pill, no matter how much money he pays, I won't give it to him."

As he said, charlie Wade looked at Steve and said seriously: "If one day you make me feel that you are more reliable, I will also tie your father's chance of longevity to you. Just imagine, if one day your father can only obtain elixirs through you, and you ask him to give you the position of clan leader, will he refuse?"

Steve's eyes lit up and he said: "If he could choose between rights and life, he would definitely choose to take them all, but if he could only choose one, he would definitely choose the latter."

After that, he immediately said excitedly to charlie Wade said: "Mr. Wade, how can you help me get my wish?"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Steve, an indestructible friendship needs time to be tempered and verified, but you don't have to be afraid of time. If I can make you live a long life, even if you succeed to the throne at the age of sixty, you will still be the same." In forty years, if I can let you live to be 120 years old, you will be in your prime when you succeed to the throne at sixty."

Steve did not doubt charlie Wade's words at all, and his elixir was very miraculous. , it is certainly not a problem for people to live to be one hundred and twenty years old.

If it is true as he said, then he must try his best to get his help. Otherwise, once the person who lives to 120 is his father, then he will really never get ahead.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6775

Steve had already figured it out.

Since he had already been pulled onto the ship of thieves by charlie, he definitely couldn't be a prisoner on the ship who sighed and sighed all day long.

Borrowing the words of the ancient Chinese people, if it comes, then it will be safe, and the most important thing was to find a way to settle down on charlie's ship.

This was because whether or not he could be the patriarch in the future almost depended on charlie's whim.

If he didn't want himself to be, he only needed to let Helena push a little bit of pills to the old man every now and then, and he could basically sit in the seat of the crown prince until he died.

Therefore, whether or not he could be the patriarch, or whether or not he could live a long life in the future, it all depended on charlie's wishes.

Since this was the case, then why not just follow him.

Since he wanted to follow him, first of all, he had to show some sincerity, and personally coming to Aurous Hill to invest was a good way for both people and money to come over.

Seeing that Steve had made a statement, charlie smiled and said, "Aurous Hill is a good place with outstanding people, since Mr Rothschild intends to come to Aurous Hill to invest, then I, as a person from Aurous Hill, naturally welcome it warmly."

Steve was afraid that charlie wouldn't be willing to take himself for a ride, but now that he saw that he had expressed his welcome, he breathed a sigh of relief and said without hesitation, "With Mr wade's words, I'm relieved!"

charlie nodded and picked up the bottle of white wine that hadn't been poured yet, and in front of Steve, he took out a Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill, before placing the pill into the bottle.

The ebony elixir instantly melted when it entered the wine, and dyed the body of the wine a light greyish-brown colour.

Steve all looked shocked, thinking, is this this going to be for himself to drink?

Immediately after, charlie picked up the wine cup and poured some for Zhou Liangyun, then poured a little more into Steve's cup.

Steve saw that charlie poured to Zhou Liangyun's almost two fifths, and poured to his own, almost one fifth of it, and hurriedly said, "wade Mr wade I can still drink a little more....."

charlie smiled, "Steve, although the medicinal wine is good, don't be greedy."

After saying that, he poured the rest into his own cup.

Steve's eyes were greedy, but he didn't dare to say anything more, after all, this one-fifth was also for nothing, if he acted greedy at this time, he was afraid that it would make charlie resentful.

So, he said very respectfully, "Thank you Mr wade, thank you Mr wade!"

Zhou Liang Yun was also flattered and said, "Young Master Wade this is really too much of a thank you!"

charlie smiled bashfully and spoke, "Uncle Zhou, we don't have to be so polite before, let's drink this together, just as an early welcome to Steve to Aurous Hill, after he becomes the highest investing foreign businessman in Aurous Hill, we are also considered to be contributing to the country and Aurous Hill's efforts to pull in foreign investment."

Zhou Liangyun nodded heavily, picked up his wine glass and said, "Then welcome Steve to Aurous Hill in advance!"

Steve hurriedly picked up the wine glass with both hands and said in a loud voice, "Don't worry, both of you! I will definitely do my best!"

After saying that, he immediately looked at charlie again, after all, the medicinal wine given by charlie, he wouldn't dare to drink it directly if charlie didn't say anything.

charlie smiled at this moment and lifted his wine cup, saying, "Come on, dry up."

As soon as Steve heard this, he hurriedly picked up the wine cup and drank the strong liquor in the cup.

As soon as the wine entered his mouth, the feeling was significantly different from just now!

Although drinking wine was also a hot stream, but that hot stream was spicy and stimulating, but this medicinal wine was all about the feeling of warmth and nourishment, and after drinking it, it seemed that every pore was extraordinarily comfortable.

After all, it was the Blood Dispersing and Heart Saving Pill that had been enhanced by the Medicine Cauldron, and its potency had more than doubled compared to the earliest version, so this one-fifth of a pill would also be able to bring Steve back to the state he was in two years ago in situ at least.

This time let him feel the overbearing and incomparable medicinal effect, people are not so tired, sitting on the matzah also do not feel back pain buttocks pain, even the eyes are much better than earlier, it seems that the degree of presbyopia have made considerable progress.

In short, is an unprecedented ease!

Then look at the opposite side of the Zhou Liangyun, the face is obviously more than just a lot of rosy, even wrinkles are visible much less!

When he thought about the fact that the medicine that people drank was twice as effective as his own, Steve couldn't help but feel envious in his heart.

It was also at this moment that Steve couldn't help but feel emotional: "Mr wade I kind of know why my father cares so much about your elixir This.....What you're drinking down is not medicine, it's a reversal of time!"

charlie laughed, "Steve, remember one thing, whoever lives a long time is the real winner, if you are lucky, your life is not even halfway through until now, the future is still very long and has infinite possibilities."

Steve hurriedly stood up and bowed deeply to charlie: "Mr wade said yes, I hope I can have the opportunity in the future, to always accompany Mr wade and always listen to his teachings!"

While charlie was pushing the cups with Zhou Liangyun and Steve, Jacob found a cheap express hotel to stay.

He didn't dare to let his daughter and son-in-law know that he had returned to China, and he didn't want to spend more money on accommodation, so he had to make do with a night in a shortcut hotel, and then go to the airport early tomorrow morning to fly back to Dubai to meet up with Ma Lan.

After taking a shower in the mouldy and smelly bathroom, Jacob lay down on the worn-out bed, and tears once again could not be suppressed and came out of his eyes.

He had missed quite a few good opportunities in his life, Han Meiqing was one, and the Northern Song Gilt Bronze Buddha was the second.

Other than that, he thought back carefully on his own life, and it seemed that he hadn't seized any good opportunities.

It was hard for him to get into the Painting and Calligraphy Association and become an executive vice president, but he also got himself out of the game.

Now, he has to lie on the bed, holding the mobile phone to President Pei to prepare a resignation email, but he also knows that the resignation email is to go through the motions, to show his attitude, or to President Pei to leave space for his good offices.

At this time, President Pei was not idle at home, he found the mobile phone number of Master Don Albert through many enquiries.

After hesitating for a while, he still called Master Hong Fifth.
