

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6786

By / May 22, 2024

charlie Wade had just hung up the phone on Matilda, and Don Albert called right after.

charlie Wade pressed the answer button, and Don Albert said nervously: “Master Wade, let me tell you something, I may have used too much force...”

charlie Wade asked him: “What’s the matter? “Are you using too much force?”

Don Albert said: “Oh, it’s your father-in-law’s business. Didn’t you ask me to leave him alone for a while? I didn’t give him any good face. He called me and said that he wanted to settle in Heaven Springs. I also refused him the private room.”

charlie Wade said, “Isn’t this a trivial matter? You are Zhang Ermao (Cade)’s boss, so you will be dissatisfied with him emotionally and rationally. It’s normal to reject him.”

Don Albert said quickly: “Oh Master Wade, I originally thought that this attitude should be very good, but their President Pei called me, and I didn’t give him a good face. I said that I would try my best to keep your father-in-law’s position as vice president, so I yelled at him and said that it had something to do with me. I didn’t think much about it at the time, so I just hung up the phone. Zhang Ermao (Cade) said that your father-in-law has resigned from the Painting and Calligraphy Association, so I guess the reason why President Pei did not protect your father-in-law is probably related to my attitude on the phone...”

“Oh... .” charlie Wade suddenly realized: “No wonder, I am also curious about why President Pei is adding insult to injury at this time. It turns out that he feels that my father-in-law has no support and has lost his use value.”

Don Albert asked in embarrassment: “Master Wade, I am. I really didn’t expect that things would turn out this way after just saying it casually, so I called you just to ask what you meant and see if I wanted to talk to President Pei again?”

charlie Wade thought for a while. , said: “No need for now, my father-in-law estimates that now is the darkest time in life, let him stay in the darkness for a longer time, maybe he can develop a pair of eyes looking for light in the darkness, and wait until he comes back from Dubai , I will try to find a way to get him to return to the calligraphy and painting association. To be honest, I wish I could put my mother-in-law into some association, so that I can have peace and quiet at home. If my father-in-law is still idle at home, there will be chaos in the house every day. Jump.”

Don Albert asked hurriedly: “Do you want me to do some work in advance? I have President Pei’s phone number. If you think the time is almost up, tell me and I will call the person named Pei immediately. call.”

charlie Wade said, “Forget it, don’t say hello to Pei. Before Old Chen was arranged to take over the position of Tang’s housekeeper in Eastcliff, did he hand over his relationship in Aurous Hill City to you?” After Stephen Thompson disappeared, charlie Wade helped Isaac Cameron to the position of the Ye family’s housekeeper. His original identity as the spokesperson in Aurous Hill was given to Don Albert. I think with Isaac Cameron’s style of doing things, he should hand over all his resources in this city and even the province to Don Albert.

Don Albert hurriedly said, “It has been handed over. Before Mr. isaac went to Eastcliff, he had already taken me to connect with the relationships in the city and the province.”

charlie Wade said, “Okay, you find the person in charge of the cultural associations in the province to see if you can figure out where President Pei wants to move up next. After figuring it out, cut off his upward path.”

Don’t think that the Calligraphy and Painting Association is just a mass organization. In fact, looking at the entire China, the nature of the groups in the literary and art circles is similar, but the larger the scale and level of the folk groups, the higher the voice and social status.

If a person can hold an important position in a large association, then his own level is also very high. This can be regarded as another alternative career path, just like most people take the normal route in the college entrance examination, while a small number of people take the art examination or physical examination route.

President Pei has been planning to take another step forward, but this person’s character does not seem to be very good now. In order to cater to Jacob, he brought him, an amateur with limited skills, to the level of executive vice president against all odds. The two of them were inseparable all day long, and they were as good as brothers.

Now, Jacob has caused a scandal and Don Albertgang has shown a little indifference, and President Pei immediately added insult to injury and drew a clear line with Jacob. This move is really not kind.

Instead of doing this, it is better to keep him in the Calligraphy and Painting Association, and then find an opportunity to let Jacob go back. The two of them continue to be brothers in distress, and no one should despise each other.

Although Jacob was completely defeated, he was helpless, but fortunately he still had Elaine, the sea-fixing needle, by his side.

Elaine's role is to firmly nail Jacob into a certain state. If Jacob is too good at it, she will knock him back to his original shape. Now that Jacob is too decadent, she is forcing him to smile and open his business.

And Elaine's attitude this time is also very clear. Don't say that you, Jacob, have lost your job. Even if you become a vegetable, you still have to accompany me to shopping malls in Dubai. Even if you die, I will put your ashes in a box. , you still have to accompany me to go shopping.

So under the influence of Elaine's sea-fixing needle, Jacob accompanied Elaine all day long, walking around, shopping, and taking photos, and his mood and mental state were finally relieved.

In Aurous Hill, seeing that the wedding date of hank and Matilda was approaching, charlie Wade also started to prepare for the wedding.

hank was his mother's schoolmate and his elder. As for Matilda, although she had known him not long ago, she was also a generous and decent intellectual, and her son Paul obeyed her and respected her, so charlie Wade also hoped to serve as The role of a good witness will live up to the trust of the two.

In addition to being a good witness, as the younger brother of the two newlyweds, he also had to be good at giving gifts, so after charlie Wade considered it, he decided to give each of them an enhanced version of the blood-saving heart-saving pill. They are all over fifty, so this pill must be of great significance to them.

Seeing that there were still two days before the wedding, charlie Wade's grandfather, uncle, second uncle, and Li Yalin all ended their investment trip in Eastcliff and returned to Aurous Hill on the An family's special plane.

Grandpa called charlie Wade before he got on the plane. He wanted to invite charlie Wade to his house for dinner and synchronize the latest investment targets.

charlie Wade naturally agreed and wanted to tell his wife that he was going to meet a client in the evening. However, he thought that Elaine and Jacob were not at home, and he did not want his wife to be alone, so he called Doris Young from the Dihao Group and asked her to find a reason to make an appointment. Have dinner with my wife Claire.

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Uncle Hank, don't belittle yourself. Many businessmen who have been successful in a familiar field for a long time tend to have an illusion that they can succeed in anything. Based on this mentality, they blindly expand new businesses and new tracks, but most of them end up losing all their money. If I remember correctly, real estate companies are engaged in mineral water, video websites are building cars, e-commerce websites are engaged in social networking, and social networking websites are engaged in e-commerce. The operators of these projects are all large groups with a market value of tens or even hundreds of billions, but it seems that the final results are not very good."

charlie Wade said again "You talked about new energy and overtaking on the curve last time, which was really eye-opening. I think you can definitely give them a deeper understanding of strategy and underlying logic."

Seeing that charlie Wade thought so highly of him, hank couldn't shirk his responsibility anymore, so he thought for a moment and said, "Okay, I'll show off my wit and make a fool of myself. It would be best if I can help a little, but if I can't, just treat it as a negative example."

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then give me a location and I'll pick you up."

hank said, "I'm at school. Tell me when you're almost there, and I'll wait for you at the door."

charlie Wade has always been selfish towards hank.

He wanted to dig him to be the person in charge of Yisu Shipping at first, but he didn't want to, so he introduced his daughter to him.

In order to get his daughter back from Syria, charlie Wade even took the risk of breaking into Hamid's base alone.

Fortunately, Ziva Hank's ability is really good. Yisu Shipping has developed very rapidly under the joint operation of her and Zara banks.

However, charlie Wade still thinks it's a pity for talents like hank to stay in school to teach.

Although teaching is also a very meaningful job, there is really no need for such a high-ranking professor to teach the basic knowledge of economics in college.

If he can be dug out and let him help the An family manage the domestic business, it will not only be a rare opportunity for the An family, but also a good opportunity for him.

Some bosses have limited abilities and cannot build a real big stage. If they have a tiger general who can stand up and fight, they may be too talented and not get a real opportunity to display their talents.

hank must have his own ambitions, but these ambitions may be very big, so big that he can't find a stage or opportunity at all, but the An family is different. The financial resources of the An family can also be ranked among the best in the world. What's more, charlie Wade himself has now accumulated hundreds of billions of assets. In addition to the Wade family's industry, it is almost comparable to the An family. If the two parties join forces, they will definitely be able to manage larger projects. For hank, it may be a new opportunity.

So, charlie Wade called his uncle back and told him that he would bring a guest to his home for dinner in the evening, and then drove to the University of Finance and Economics to pick up hank, who was about to get married.

The two met, charlie Wade asked the puzzled question in his mind: "Uncle Hank, you are getting married soon, why are you still working? Didn't you take a wedding leave?"

hank said: "The teaching workload is heavy, and it is not easy to take too long a leave. What's more, I have to go on a honeymoon after getting married. If something happens in the school during this period, I will definitely not be able to come back. So I should try to finish the work at hand before I leave."

charlie Wade nodded and asked him: "The wedding is the day after tomorrow. You and Aunt Matilda have almost prepared, right?"

"Almost." hank said: "We are going to keep everything simple. There will be no bride-picking session at that time. We will hold the ceremony directly at Shangri-La.

With that said, hank said again: "By the way, charlie Wade, there is something I want to ask for your opinion on."

charlie Wade said politely: "Uncle Hank, please tell me."

hank said: "Your true identity, I Ziva Hank knows it well, but your Aunt Matilda and her son Paul don't know. Paul is smarter. Although he can't guess your actual background, in his heart, you have always been a person with great wisdom and supernatural powers. , I respect you very much and admire you every time you mention it."

As he said that, hank paused slightly and then said: "Now your Aunt Matilda and I are going to start a new family. As her husband, I personally hope that we can Be honest with her in all aspects, but I have to ask for your opinion about your identity. If you think

I can explain your identity to Aunt Matilda and Paul, then I will find an opportunity to explain it to them, But if you think this is inappropriate, Ziva Hank and I will respect your wishes 100% and keep your identity secret.”

charlie Wade didn't expect that this was what hank wanted to ask for.

Hearing him say this made me feel more confident about his personality.

Many people have ulterior secrets, and even the person next to him will hide and deceive. However, it can be seen that hank did not want to deliberately conceal anything from Matilda, and he had absolute respect for her;

and hank came to Asking for your own opinions and being willing to use your own opinions as a guideline is also a sign of respect for yourself.

Although my identity is sensitive, today, many people know my identity, but those who know are reliable or controllable.

As for Matilda and Paul, through this period of contact, charlie Wade is very sure of the character of their mother and son. Before, he felt that there was no need to tell them his true identity, but now he feels that there is no need to hide himself in front of them. identity of.

Seeing that charlie Wade didn't mind revealing his identity in front of his future wife and stepson, hank was relieved.

He had been open and honest all his life, and he loved Matilda sincerely. He just wanted to spend the rest of his life with her, so he didn't want to think that every time he faced charlie Wade in front of his wife, he would treat him as the son-in-law of the willson family who knew a little Feng Shui and made friends with some local dignitaries with Feng Shui and Zhouyi.

He was not good at acting, and lying was even worse.

But if charlie Wade declined, he could completely understand and respect it, but he didn't expect charlie Wade to agree so readily.

At this time, hank didn't know that charlie Wade actually wanted to take all four of his newly formed family under his command.

With a relaxed and happy mood, he and charlie Wade came all the way to the hillside villa of Champs Elysees.

Grandpa's family had already prepared a banquet and were waiting. From the moment they saw Charlie Wade's car going up the mountain, the three uncles, aunt and Li Yalin all went out to wait for him.

The old man and the old lady wanted to go out, but the temperature in Aurous Hill had dropped a lot in recent days, and the sky had darkened. The children were afraid that they would catch a cold, so they refused to let them go.

Before the car stopped, Charlie Wade saw the five people waiting for him.

He was a little surprised and a little overwhelmed. After all, they were all elders, waiting for him here together. This scene was indeed a bit too heavy in terms of etiquette.
