Jimmy, who was relieved, suddenly realized a problem and said to charlie Wade quickly: "Mr. Wade, I'm going back to the United States to settle my family. I won't be arrested as soon as I land, right?"

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Whether you will be arrested depends entirely on Steve."

After that, charlie Wade said to Steve: "Steve, tell your butler not to send the evidence to the FBI. If you have sent it, withdraw it and let the FBI pretend not to see it."

Steve immediately said: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I'll send him a message to tell him."

Jimmy said worriedly: "Mr. Wade, I'm afraid that my boss will not let me go. This guy is too sinister. He deliberately gave me We create opportunities for mistakes and collect evidence of our crimes, just to control us at the critical moment..."

charlie Wade said lightly: "Don't worry, even if your boss sends all your evidence of crimes to the FBI, Steve will have a way to keep you safe." Steve on the side nodded and said: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, whether to arrest or not is up to you. As long as you say to arrest, I will let him be sentenced to life imprisonment directly. If you say not to arrest, even the President of the United States can't catch him."

Jimmy knew that Steve was reminding himself not to play tricks. In fact, he was completely overthinking. Things have come to this point. Even if he was given ten courages, he would never dare to play tricks.

charlie Wade suddenly thought of something at this time, so he asked Jimmy: "Your boss is so pitting you, do you want to do him a favor?"

When Jimmy heard this, he suddenly widened his eyes and said excitedly: "I want to! I want to too much! If killing is not against the law, the first thing I will do when I go back is to kill him!"

charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile: "Since you want to, then this matter will be easy to handle."

After that, he looked at Steve and said: "Call Ellis's boss later and tell him that you just found out that Jimmy is a distant relative of an old Chinese friend of yours. As the saying goes, there is no acquaintance without fighting. You have already put aside your past grudges and become friends. Tell him not to embarrass Jimmy again in the future."

Steve looked puzzled and didn't understand why charlie Wade did this, but he still nodded very cooperatively and said: "Okay, Mr. Wade, I'll talk to him later. "

charlie Wade turned to Jimmy and said, "After you return to the United States, the boss of Ellis will definitely invite you to dinner. While inviting you back, he will take the opportunity to ask you about your specific situation. You can tell him that your former sister-in-law's current husband is Steve's good friend. You had a little misunderstanding at the wedding, and then you quickly talked it out. He will definitely invite you back to Ellis. You can say that you have promised your former sister-in-law and her husband that you will come to China to help them. Then take this opportunity to ask him to send ten experienced lawyers from Ellis to come to China with you to help. You have to select these ten people, and you have to pick the best in all aspects. The term of help is the same as yours, which is ten years. Of course, all the salaries and travel allowances of these ten lawyers in the next ten years will be paid by him."

charlie Wade said, "Oh, by the way, let him pay your salary as well, so that you don't have to come to China to work for ten years in vain. "

After that, charlie Wade continued: "But you can only take 30% of your salary, and the remaining 70% will be transferred monthly to the dog farm that Steve just mentioned. It needs funds for its continued operation, so just consider it as your contribution to the dog farm."

When Jimmy heard the word "dog farm", his heart began to beat fast, so he hurriedly said: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I will do everything you say!"

Steve, who was standing next to him, was dumbfounded when he heard this.

Ellis is the largest law firm in the United States. The lawyers who can work in this law firm are elites who are selected from thousands of people. If Jimmy is allowed to choose at will, then choosing ten top lawyers is like cutting off Ellis's aorta.

Moreover, the annual salary of ten top lawyers is not low. Counting senior partners like Jimmy, the annual salary of eleven people, plus travel expenses, at least at least 100 million US dollars a year.

Ten elites are missing, and 100 million US dollars are thrown in every year. For Ellis, it is definitely a heavy blow.

Jimmy was a little unsure at this time, and said to charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, this... this condition is indeed a bit harsh. Will Ellis's boss agree to it?"

charlie Wade said: "If it's just you who said it, he will definitely not agree, but if Steve expresses his opinion, he will definitely agree."

Steve thought to himself: "charlie Wade is too cruel. He can do such a bad thing. I have to help him be a bad guy once..."

But he said very firmly: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I will definitely put enough pressure on him. In the future, you will use Ellis as your own law firm and use it to death. If their boss dares to say a word, I will make him pay!"

"Okay." charlie Wade nodded with satisfaction: "Then this matter is settled."

After that, he turned to look at Matilda and said: "Aunt Matilda, Jimmy will bring ten other lawyers to Aurous Hill to report to you in half a month. The company is expected to be registered by then, and they can go straight to work. You will be in charge of them then."

Matilda was amazed at charlie Wade's series of unconventional operations. She was also relieved that Jimmy was treated leniently, so she quickly said, "Okay, charlie Wade, I will arrange it when the time comes."

charlie Wade nodded, and said to hank, "Hank, after the wedding, you and Aunt Matilda will go on your honeymoon as usual, and the work here will be temporarily carried out by the An family."

"Okay." hank said hurriedly, "Let's end the honeymoon as soon as possible and try to be on duty in a week."

"Don't be in a hurry." charlie Wade smiled and said, "There are still many procedures and preparations to be done in the early stage. The wade family still has to come to sign the contract and complete the press conference. You and Aunt Matilda can come back in half a month."

After that, charlie Wade looked at Jimmy again and said, "It's almost time. I will go on stage to give a thank-you speech on behalf of the bride and groom. As a guest who has come from afar, after I give my speech, you have to go on stage and tell everyone why you just made a scene in public and knelt on the ground crying for a long time. There must be a reason that can convince everyone."

Jimmy said without hesitation, "I have thought about it. When the time comes, I will tell the truth and say that I am a shameless rogue. I originally wanted to take this opportunity to snatch the shares of Smith Law Firm, so I shouted in public;"

"And I knelt down and cried bitterly because I was touched by the sincerity of my sister-in-law and her husband Mr. hank during the confrontation. They made me feel that family affection is far more important than interests, so I also deeply realized my mistakes and actively corrected them in exchange for their forgiveness. At the same time, I will also tell everyone that after being inspired by the two of them, I decided to stay in Aurous Hill and contribute to the new project they are about to launch!"

charlie Wade said in surprise: "Sure, you have understood the Chinese etiquette and human relations, so let's do it as you say!"
