

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6861

By / June 22, 2024

After Steve had contact with Charlie several times, he understood the oriental art of controlling people.

Sometimes, advancing is advancing and retreating is retreating, but sometimes, advancing is also retreating and retreating is also advancing.

Just now, he took the initiative to offer to bear the salaries of these people, which is a standard retreat to advance, so he and Knight were just being polite, but Knight's initiative to bear all the costs was sincere.

At this moment, Knight was quite excited.

The reason was that the distinguished Mr. Rothschild was so polite to him, spoke for him, and was also biased towards him in reason, which made him flattered.

What's more, although Rothschild did not understand the human relations and worldly affairs of China, he was too good at drawing cakes.

No one is better at drawing cakes than the Rothschild family. When they draw cakes, even the President of the United States will be excited, let alone a mere Knight Ellis.

Steve knew that Knight's ambition must not only be to build a top law firm in the United States.

The ultimate goal of every legal elite is actually to go into politics.

Running for a senator, a governor, or even a president, as long as you have a legal background, it must be easier than an ordinary politician.

Therefore, he deliberately reminded Knight in a subtle way to focus his energy on higher areas instead of focusing on these employees. On the one hand, Knight was indeed inspired to a certain extent, and on the other hand, he also felt that this was a good opportunity to get closer to Steve. It was rare for a big man like Steve to personally propose a solution to himself, which was a great honor in itself, so of course he had to give him enough face.

As for who would pay these people's salaries, Knight no longer cared.

A law firm

can only make a few hundred million dollars a year. But once you enter politics, it's not just a few hundred million dollars. The power behind it is hard to measure with money.

In the United States, the implementation of any bill may contain huge business opportunities worth tens of billions of dollars. Lawyers have seen too many such cases after working for a long time, but they can only come in as tourists to touch and look. They can never really enter and become a trader. Only by entering politics can they have a chance to share a piece of the pie.

Therefore, with this ambitious goal, the salary of these ten people is nothing to Knight.

Even if Ellis doesn't make money in the future, as long as he can successfully enter politics, this deal is worth it.

What's more, he seems to have won Steve's attention. If he does this thing well today, he thinks Steve will definitely become a noble person in his life in the future.

Steve knew what Knight was thinking, so he smiled and said, "Knight, you really impressed me."

As soon as he said this, Knight's excitement was seen by Steve, so he turned to look at the people behind Jimmy and said, "Everyone, let me be fair. As long as you accept my advice, I believe Knight can not pursue the mistakes you made before. But in this case, if you still want to get out of this unscathed, it would be a bit too idealistic. So are you willing to accept this suggestion and stay in China to work for me?" Everyone nodded in agreement without any hesitation.

For them, since it was impossible to get out of this unscathed, this solution was considered the best solution. On the one hand, they would not be stabbed in the back by Knight, and on the other hand, their salary was guaranteed, and they could also establish a certain connection with Steve and accumulate a certain number of connections for themselves. The fact that this matter could be solved in this way had exceeded everyone's psychological expectations.

Steve saw that the matter was going smoothly, so he smiled and said, "In that case, let's settle it. Knight, I'll give them two weeks to return to the United States to prepare. As for you, you should quickly let them connect the work at hand with the resources in these two weeks. I believe that you board members were all very professional lawyers in the past. Now we are short of staff, so everyone should work hard. Take over the business first. At the same time, you should also set up an internal selection mechanism and hand over some of the work to the young people below. Maybe more outstanding talents will emerge under the heavy pressure."

Knight didn't expect Steve to be so concerned, and said quickly: "Don't worry, Mr. Rothschild, I will arrange everything as soon as possible after we go back, and then let them come to China to report to you on time."

Steve nodded, and said: "Let them report to Jimmy at that time, and I will also arrange a contact person for Jimmy, and Jimmy will represent them to contact."

"No problem!" Knight said without hesitation: "These are all up to you, I obey 100%!"

Steve was very satisfied with Knight's attitude, and said with a smile: "I may have to stay in Jinling for a while. After I finish my work here and return to the United States, we will have time to have a meal together. I wonder if it is convenient for you?"

Knight was even more excited when he heard this, and said quickly: "Convenient! Mr. Rothschild, I... I am at your disposal at any time!"

"Okay." Steve nodded and said, "Then it's settled."

After that, he looked at the others and said, "This is the end of today's matter. I hope that after you go back, you can cooperate with Knight to connect the work at hand and try not to cause losses to Ellis. We are all adults. As long as we can find a balance point, many unpleasant things can be put behind us."

In the minds of these Americans, Steve's status is extremely transcendent. Such a powerful figure like Kras has now become an intimate big brother. These people are flattered and 100% convinced.

Therefore, these people nodded repeatedly, with piety and admiration on their faces, and they also regarded Steve's words as the criterion in their hearts.

Steve saw that the matter was almost done, exchanged a look with Charlie, and then said, "Okay, I won't disturb you too much for your internal meeting. Before you leave, I will invite you to have a meal at the best hotel in Jinling. Everyone must come at that time!" Knight and a group of senior partners, who were originally on the verge of a fight, are now smiling and excited, and they can't wait to celebrate.

After all, Steve Rothschild invited him to dinner, and he could brag about it for at least three years when he returned to the United States.

So, Steve walked out of the conference room with the enthusiastic support of the crowd. Charlie and Paul smiled at each other and followed him out from a distance behind the crowd. The crowd kept bowing to Steve and watched him, Charlie and Paul leave.

After walking out of Buckingham Palace, Steve immediately asked charlie with a flattering look on his face: "Mr. Wade, was my performance just now okay?"

charlie nodded: "Of course it was quite okay."

Steve chuckled: "Thanks to your guidance. China is an ancient civilization. Your yin and yang harmony gave me a clear idea at once, and the effect was surprisingly good."

charlie chuckled: "Stop flattering. When it comes to fighting with others, an old fox like you must have more experience than me."

Steve nodded and said seriously: "Although I have more experience than you, to be honest, I am not as artistic as you!"

charlie looked at Paul and said seriously: "See, they are the world's largest family. Although they are usually arrogant and domineering, they are more humble than anyone else when they should be humble. What's the idiom that says it? Be able to bend and stretch."

Paul nodded in agreement and smiled: "Mr. Wade is right. I have to learn more in the future."

Steve said embarrassedly: "Mr. Wade, please don't tease me..."

"No." charlie smiled and said, "Mr. Rothschild has a good overall control of the situation today. All parties are happy. You have finally understood the harmony of yin and yang."

Steve chuckled and said, "Mr. Wade, you are too kind."

After that, he quickly said to charlie, "Mr. Wade, I have to trouble you to talk to Don Albert later. I will book Heaven Springs and hold a banquet to entertain these people, so that they will be more loyal!"

Knight and his party did not stay in Aurous Hill for too long.

After all, they had finished all the important matters on the first day, so they put aside their past grudges and gaps and had a three-day tour in Aurous Hill.

On the last day of the three-day tour, Steve booked the entire Tianxiang Mansion and entertained these top lawyers from the United States.

During this meal, Steve put aside the attitude of the heir of the Rothschild family and the aristocratic temperament that the family had cultivated in him for decades. Instead, he replaced it with a very Aurous Hill local underworld atmosphere. He lingered in front of each table and toasted with those younger brothers. Every younger brother was flattered and respected him very much, making him look like a respected big brother on the road.

Since Steve was also a distinguished guest, Don Albert put down his work and came to Tianxiang Mansion to serve in person, but he saw a bit of his own shadow in this Rothschild young master.

After all, Steve had been in Aurous Hill for some time. He had been exposed to charlie Wade's style of doing things and had visited several of Don Albert's industries in Aurous Hill. To a certain extent, he understood the local customs and style, and now he was somewhat adapting to the local customs.

Although Steve cordially invited charlie Wade to the dinner, charlie Wade finally declined. It was not that he had any objections to Steve, but mainly because he was not very interested in Jimmy's lawyers. In the future, these people would be handed over to Matilda, so he did not want to have too much contact with them.

The day after the dinner, Knight flew back to the United States with his group. Two weeks later, Jimmy would return to Aurous Hill with ten selected senior partners to report to Matilda.

Helena also gave charlie Wade feedback on the progress of the AI model. According to the estimation of the engineering staff, the official production time of the AI model would be about half a month later.

In the following days, charlie Wade was rarely relaxed, but this kind of life only lasted for two days, because his mother-in-law Elaine told him on the phone that the old couple had booked a flight ticket and were ready to return to Aurous Hill from Dubai.

Originally, the two planned to stay in the UAE for a few more days, but Elaine couldn't stand Jacob's listless and sighing appearance every day. After playing for a few days, she finally couldn't help wanting to go home. It

's no wonder that Jacob sighed every day. He had set up a trap for Zhou Liangyun with fake antiques before. Not only did he lose money and face, but he also lost his job. If it were anyone else, he would not be in the mood to travel and have fun.

Elaine and Jacob took a plane back to Aurous Hill, and charlie Wade picked them up at the airport.

Because their plane landed at 3 pm, Claire happened to have an appointment with Dihao Group to touch up the progress of the previous project, so charlie Wade had to pick them up alone.

As soon as they met, charlie Wade smiled and asked them: “Mom and Dad, how was your trip to Dubai this time?”

Jacob was desperate and said with a forced smile: “It’s okay, that’s it.”

Elaine on the side said with some dissatisfaction: “Good son-in-law, you don’t know, I’m almost annoyed to death by your father. He sighs all day long. I can even hear him sighing in the toilet when he poops. It’s really a pity.”

Jacob said with a look of grievance: “I don’t want to spoil the fun, but the key is that I really can’t be happy!”

As he said that, Jacob quickly looked at charlie Wade and pleaded: “Good son-in-law, you have a good relationship with Master Don Albert. Can you help me talk to Master Don Albert and see if he can put some pressure on the surname Pei? That old grandson has been polite to me before, but Master Don Albert stopped speaking for me, and he turned around and sold me out!”

charlie Wade nodded: “I heard about the matter. The surname Pei is indeed a bit unkind.”

“Yes!” Jacob said immediately after hearing that charlie Wade agreed with him, “Good son-in-law, this old bastard surnamed Pei is a typical person who uses people forward and does not use people backward. There is a saying, right! He is the kind of person who is told to pick up the bowl to eat and put down the chopsticks to curse!”

Then, Jacob said again, “Good son-in-law, you have to hurry up. Pei is working on a promotion recently. If he gets promoted and leaves the Calligraphy and Painting Association, it will be even more difficult for me to join the Calligraphy and Painting Association in the future. I have to ask Master Don Albert to put pressure on him and ask him to get me back before he gets promoted.”

charlie Wade smiled and asked him, “Dad, do you still want to go back to the Calligraphy and Painting Association?”

“Yes! Of course I don’t want to!” Jacob blurted out, “I’ve figured it out these days. Anyway, I’ve lost face a long time ago, so I just gave it a go. If I can go back to the Calligraphy and Painting Association, it would be great, because as the saying goes, you get up where you fell.”

charlie Wade nodded and said, “Let me find out about this for you.”

Jacob hurriedly said, "A good son-in-law must be fast, but you must not wait for him to be promoted..."

"Promotion?" Charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's impossible. With his character, I don't think he can be promoted. Maybe he can only stay in the Calligraphy and Painting Association in the future."

Jacob didn't know that Charlie Wade had already assigned a task to Don Albert, asking Don Albert to use the resources that Isaac Cameron had connected to him at the beginning to completely strangle President Pei's promotion space from above.

Since he wanted to get rid of Jacob and get promoted alone, it would be better to let him stay in the Calligraphy and Painting Association and continue to be tied to Jacob.

At this moment.

Calligraphy and Painting Association.

President Pei has been feeling a little uneasy these past two days.

Since he dealt with Jacob, he thought his future would not be affected in any way. However, in the past two days, he asked his superiors about his promotion, but they were vague and evasive, and never gave him a clear time.

According to what was originally agreed, the superior unit would interview him in the next two days to ask for his opinion on the new vacant position to see if he was willing to accept the new challenge.

Of course, these were just procedures. As long as he cooperated with the procedures, he would be able to get the important position of the superior unit.

However, the originally agreed thing had not happened for a long time, which made him feel very insecure.

After struggling in the office for a long time, he finally called the key person. As soon as the call was connected, he smiled and said, "Chairman, I'm sorry to bother you. I just want to ask you, regarding the previous job vacancy, when will we go through the interview process?"

The other party smiled and said apologetically, "Old Pei, I'm really sorry. This matter has been changing in the past few days, so I didn't give you a clear answer. Just now, we just had an internal meeting and discussed a clear result."

Upon hearing this, Chairman Pei became excited and said quickly, "Chairman , since there is "Is there a clear result, then is there a clear plan for when to have the meeting?"

The other party smacked his lips and sighed, "Oh, Lao Pei, although the matter has a result, the result may not be what you want."

President Pei's heart skipped a beat and he quickly asked him, "President Chen, what do you mean?"

President said, "It's almost the end of the year, and we have discussed the work arrangements and job settings for next year. In principle, we will reduce some positions next year and streamline the entire team. Unfortunately, the position reserved for you is on the layoff list..."

"Positions eliminated?!"

When President Pei heard this, his heart skipped a beat, and he quickly asked nervously: "President , our department is so big, connecting the literary and artistic work of our entire province, how can such good positions be eliminated just like that?"

President sighed on the other end of the phone: "It is precisely because the department is too large that we have to streamline and slim down, and I have no choice."

After that, he didn't want to continue discussing with President Pei, so he said: "Old Pei, I'm really sorry about this matter, and you don't have to be too anxious, just preside over the calligraphy and painting association for a while, and if there is a new opportunity, I will definitely tell you as soon as possible."

President Pei is a smart person, and naturally understands what President means. Although he is very depressed, he still said very politely: "Okay, President , you have worked so hard on this matter. If you have any news, please tell me as soon as possible."

"No problem." President readily agreed, and then said: "Okay, Old Pei, I won't talk to you for now, let's talk when we meet."

"Okay, goodbye, President ."

"Goodbye."

After hanging up the phone, President Pei was very annoyed. He was about to start his new job at the new unit, but he didn't expect that the new position would be abolished!

He was very unwilling at this moment. Although he was the president of the Calligraphy and Painting Association, the Calligraphy and Painting Association was still too small. Being the top leader here, he only managed more than 20 people. He had little power and very little money. More importantly, the promotion space for this position was very narrow. He could only be promoted to the provincial or higher-level associations. Apart from that, there would be no other good opportunities. If he missed this opportunity, he didn't know when it would be reopened.

President Pei didn't know that the reason he lost the opportunity for promotion was that Don Albert cut off his promotion channel behind his back.

In addition to cutting off his chances of advancement, Claire also planned to let him find a way to get Jacob back to the Calligraphy and Painting Association.

On the way home from the airport, Jacob asked Claire uncertainly, "My dear son-in-law, are you not so close to Master Don Albert now? If you ask him to help me with this matter, will it work?"

Claire said casually, "He used to ask me to look at Feng Shui and help others, but we haven't had much contact recently. How about I ask him to see if he can help?"

Jacob nodded like pounding garlic, and blurted out, "Yes, yes, yes! My dear son-in-law, call him quickly to see if there is any chance of mediation. I think the only way to have a chance is if he asks to put pressure on Mr. Pei..."

"Okay, I'll ask him." Claire said, then picked up his phone and called Don Albert.

As soon as the call was connected, Don Albert said very respectfully on the other end of the phone: "Master Wade, you are looking for me."

Claire hummed and deliberately said: "By the way, Mr. Albert, I want to ask you for a favor, I wonder if it is convenient for you?"

Jacob, who was sitting in the back row, quickly leaned over and whispered: "Good son-in-law, turn on the speaker!"

Claire believed that Don Albert would definitely be able to hear the clues, and he was not afraid that he would say something wrong, so he turned on the speaker directly.

When Don Albert heard Claire call him Mr. Albert, he knew that it must be not so convenient for him to speak now, and there must be other people around him, so he also cooperated with a smile and said: "Master Wade, what is the relationship between the two of us? If you have something to ask me, just ask, I will definitely do my best to help!"
