At this moment, An Qishan stared at charlie Wade and said in a loving tone: “charlie, for the An family, revenge for your parents is not the most important thing for the An family and the Wade family. The most important thing for our two families is that you must live in peace. So you must remember that revenge is important, but it must be under the premise of ensuring your own safety. If you need to risk your life, grandpa would rather not take this revenge.”

Then, An Qishan said: “charlie, you are the only blood left by your parents. Your mother is the best of all my children. Your father is in your grandfather’s eyes. “It must be the same in the An family, so the blood in your body is the best blood of the An family and the Wade family. No matter what, this blood cannot have any accidents, otherwise it will be an immeasurable loss to our two families!”

Lord Wade couldn’t help but agree and said: “charlie, your grandfather is right, revenge is not the most important thing, living well is.”

charlie Wade understood what the two old men meant, but for him, since he was eight years old, he regarded revenge for his parents as the ultimate goal of living. He had been forbearing for so many years in order to kill his enemies one day. If he gave up just because of the danger, he would never forgive himself in his heart.

However, in front of the old man, he naturally could not express his idea of fighting to the death with Sara, so he followed the words of the two and said: “Grandpa, Grandpa, don’t worry, I will be absolutely careful.”

The grandmother on the side couldn’t help but said: “charlie, you heard what your grandpa said just now. The blood in your body is the only inheritance of your parents. You are not young anymore. You must hurry up and pass on your bloodline!”

After that, the old man asked again: “charlie, when do you and the girl from the Willson family plan to have a baby?”

charlie Wade touched his nose awkwardly and said euphemistically: “Grandma, we... don’t have this plan for the time being.”

“How can this be...” Grandma said anxiously: “You are almost thirty years old. Even if you want a child now, you will be thirty years old when the child is born. It’s too late. Why don’t you hurry up and plan?”

charlie Wade naturally couldn’t tell his grandmother that his marriage with Claire was originally an arranged marriage by the old man of the Willson family. Claire got married with him out of filial piety, but after marriage, the two of them have always been respectful to each other. In the past few years, the relationship between the two is not like lovers, but more like relatives.

Therefore, let alone his marriage with Claire, which was not normal, even if it was a normal marriage, he would not dare to have a child at this time. If he was exposed one day, his child might be the next one.

So, he said to his grandmother: "Grandma, it is not a good time to have a child recently. The AI model built by the Rothschild family for me will soon be put into use. At that time, I will take the initiative to attack, and together with Inspector Li, I will find a way to use AI to find the bases of the Po Qing Society around the world. The AI model has strong computing power and can obtain information on a global scale, and then analyze and calculate that information. Once I can find the base of the Po Qing Society from the massive amount of information, I will find a way to take it down. At that time, I may have to run around the world. At this time, how can I consider having children?"

charlie Wade's words, except that he had no time to consider having children, were a white lie.

In his opinion, although the Po Qing Society was a behemoth with a history of 400 years, no matter how big the Po Qing Society was, as long as it continued to weaken its strength, there would be a day when it could trample him underfoot.

charlie Wade cannot face Sara directly now, but at least he can completely eliminate the Broken Qing Society's bases around the world one by one, just like the previous raid on Cyprus.

In that case, Sara's external strength will be continuously weakened.

Moreover, this is the only way to attack instead of defend.

Judging from Sara's extremely cautious character, the faster and more powerful his actions are, the more she will shrink and be more cautious. Otherwise, once he no longer shows up and no longer causes her heavy damage, she will probably target the An family again.

Although charlie Wade still doesn't understand why Sara has been thinking about exterminating the An family, he knows that Sara will definitely not give up easily.

When grandma heard charlie Wade say he wanted to take the initiative, she said with a worried look on her face: "charlie, didn't you just promise us that you would put your own safety first? Why are you taking the initiative again?"
