

Charlie Wade - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 7034 -

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 7034

All the Cavalry Guards are of one mind.

Many of them are generations of Cavalry Guards, and their ancestors have been comrades in the Cavalry Guards. They are an army that never retires, and the comradeship among them is deep, needless to say.

Moreover, over the years, the world has changed, and these Cavalry Guards and their ancestors and fathers have all experienced the baptism of blood donation. Every comrade will not only fight to the death to protect the safety of other comrades in war, but also take care of their wives and children with all their strength after other comrades die in battle, and treat their children as their own. This comradeship condensed by blood has long surpassed everything. The imminent blood transfusion plan will not only separate them from their families forever, but also separate them from many generations of comrades in arms. For them, the degree of unacceptability is second only to death.

The commander seemed to have a plan to deal with it, so everyone naturally trusted him completely and was completely consistent with him.

So everyone expressed their opinions and obeyed the commander's orders completely.

Then, Commander Yin said to everyone, "Everyone, go all out to unload the car first. Don't let Song see any clues. I have something to talk to this brother."

Everyone immediately bowed and said, "Subordinates obey your orders!"

After that, everyone immediately turned around and continued to move the goods, just as what happened just now did not happen.

At this time, Charlie Wade looked at Commander Yin. He did not completely control Commander Yin's consciousness. Instead, he sealed his own consciousness in his body as he did when he controlled Chen. Although the other party still had to do things according to Charlie Wade's wishes, his consciousness was completely clear.

Knowing that he could see and hear everything, Charlie Wade whispered, "Don't make a fuss. Take me to a remote and safe place, and I will talk to you in detail."

At this time, Charlie Wade not only had to avoid Song Qianshi, but also other Xiao Qiwei (Bertrand) (Bertrand). After all, he was a stranger, and everyone would have some questions when they saw him. If too many people saw him, and everyone crossed each other and found that they didn't know him, it would inevitably attract too much attention from others.

Therefore, he would rather avoid other people first and have a good chat with Commander Yin. After all, if he wants to control thousands of people to obey his arrangements, it is far from enough to just control him to do things. He must be willing to work for him from the bottom of his heart and use his prestige among these people to do this thing wholeheartedly to have a chance.

Although Commander Yin's consciousness was not under control, it was surprisingly consistent with his body. He immediately nodded heavily, turned around and took charlie Wade away from the platform.

Duke Mining's territory is very large. Commander Yin took charlie Wade out of the refinery and drove a mining off-road vehicle, carrying charlie Wade to the distance.

A few minutes later, the off-road vehicle stopped next to a completed tower, and then Commander Yin said to charlie Wade: "There is no manpower arranged within a one-kilometer radius here for the time being.

2. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 7035

charlie Wade nodded and said, "I will now take back the seal on your consciousness and talk to you directly. If you have any resistance, I will kill you without hesitation and terminate the redemption plan for all your dead soldiers, cavalry guards and their families. You will say goodbye to your family forever from the next second. I believe that your brothers will also say goodbye to their families forever in the near future!"

After saying that, charlie Wade knew that he could not respond to him with true feelings, so he directly drew back the spiritual energy from his body.

After regaining control of his body, Commander Yin took a long breath, and then immediately clasped his fists and bowed to charlie Wade, saying respectfully, "Sir! I am Yin Xiaoyang, on behalf of 911 brothers and all their families, I beg you to rescue me!"

Yin Xiaoyang is not a fool. He knows that charlie Wade was able to sneak in under the nose of Song Qianshi without being discovered, and his strength must be above Song Qianshi.

Moreover, he had a close relationship with the special envoy of his superior. He had heard him vaguely mention that all the people in a death squad station were missing. So when charlie Wade suddenly broke into Duke Mining, he immediately felt a little hopeful, thinking that charlie Wade would be able to rescue himself and other cavalry guards.

charlie Wade did not respond to his request, but asked: "How many people are there here, including the death squads and cavalry guards? Count all the family members."

Yin Xiaoyang immediately replied: “Sir, Duke Mining, including me, has a total of 912 cavalry guards, 3,047 family members, a total of 3,959 people. There are a total of 1,548 death squads in the mine, 5,836 family members, a total of 7,384 people, the two together should be more than 11,000 people.”

“11,000...” charlie Wade couldn’t help but take a breath after hearing this.

More than 11,000 people, this is a few thousand more than the highest number he predicted.

Originally, he thought that there would be at most 6,000 to 7,000 people, and no more than 7,000 to 8,000 people. But now there are more than 11,300 people. It would be a challenge to transfer so many people quietly.

Then, he asked Yin Xiaoyang, “What is the background of that Assistant Song?”

Yin Xiaoyang said respectfully, “Sir, Assistant Song is the Assistant of the Right Army Governor’s Office. He is second only to the Lieutenant General. He has a very high status. It is said that the family background of Assistant Song is not ordinary. She is from the side branch of the Wu family.”

The Wu family is Sara’s family. As long as a family continues, it must continue to intermarry and have children, so there must be a branch family.

However, charlie Wade knew very little about the Wu family, and had no clues about the side branch families of the Wu family.

So he asked Yin Xiaoyang: “Do you know what is the full name of this Song Chenshi? Where is he from?”

“I don’t know...” Yin Xiaoyang answered truthfully: “Duke Mining has had the highest-level officer here before, and that was the Special Envoy. This Song Chenshi was brought here by the Special Envoy a few days ago. He said that she would supervise the upgrade and transformation of Duke Mining. In addition, she would also complete a major change in Duke Mining.

2. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 7036

charlie Wade asked: “The big blood change should mean separating you from your family and brothers, right?”

“Yes.” Yin Xiaoyang nodded and said: “This move is insidious and vicious. I guess the Lord is worried that we, the Cavalry Guards, will defect, so he took our families as hostages. Moreover, if we want to reunite with our families in the future, we have to fight to the death to make meritorious deeds. Therefore, this strategy can not only cut off our rebellious hearts, but also make us fight to the death to make meritorious deeds for the Lord.”

charlie Wade nodded, and asked him: “Will the death soldiers participate in the big blood change?”

Yin Xiaoyang said: “I really don’t know about this. According to the woman surnamed Song, the current big blood change should only be the Cavalry Guards. After all, the death soldiers are larger in size than the Cavalry Guards, and they are more difficult to operate.” After that, he looked at charlie Wade, and asked nervously and expectantly: “Sir, please save us! As long as you can get us out of the clutches of the Po Qing Society, we, the Cavalry Guards, are willing to serve you all our lives!”

charlie Wade pondered for a moment, and said: “I can save you, The reason why I came here is to take all of you out of here. I don’t need you to serve me all your life. I just need you to help me deal with the Po Qing Society when I need you. After the Po Qing Society is eradicated, you will be free again. This is not an empty promise, because if the Po Qing Society is not eradicated, even if I give you freedom immediately, you will not be able to escape death. So if you want to live freely with your family in the sun, you must first eradicate the Po Qing Society. “

Yin Xiaoyang said without hesitation: “I understand what you said, sir! As long as the Po Qing Society is not eradicated, my family and I will never have peace!”

After that, he suddenly remembered the toxins in his body and asked quickly: “Sir, I dare to ask, you...you should have a way to get rid of the evil toxins in our bodies, right? If the evil toxins are not eliminated, all of us will be exposed in a few days. “

charlie Wade nodded and said calmly: “Don’t worry, I have a way to completely remove the toxins in your body, otherwise I wouldn’t do this useless work.”

Then, charlie Wade said: “Some time ago, I took away an entire garrison of cavalry guards, death warriors, and their families from Cyprus. Those people are now placed in a very safe place by me. If nothing unexpected happens, I will also place you there, but there are a lot of people here, and it is inland, so it is difficult for me to take everyone away at once without being exposed. “

Yin Xiaoyang said nervously: “Sir, according to what the woman surnamed Song said, the big change may start in three days. After three days, even if we haven’t replaced people here, other garrisons will have people replaced. If we are delayed for one day on the road, someone will come at the latest in four days. If we are there before that If we can’t evacuate all of them before the end of the war, we might be exposed.”

charlie Wade nodded and said, “Time is really tight. I have already arranged a transfer place. I originally wanted to send people out one after another in the next period of time, but now it seems that I don’t have much time to prepare. Tomorrow, or even tonight at the earliest, we have to send the first batch of people out.”

At this point, Charlie Wade said again, "Next, I need you to cooperate with me with all your strength. Not only must you divide everyone into batches and evacuate them one by one, but you must also make sure that everyone obeys the command 100%. When you formulate the evacuation batches, you must ensure that someone works in the refinery until the last day, because the phosphate you send to the port of Casablanca every day cannot be stopped. Once it stops, the Moore Trade in Casablanca will notice it and rush over from there. It takes more than two hours to drive there at the fastest. "

Yin Xiaoyang solemnly assured: "Don't worry, sir, I will coordinate the personnel. Since you want to take us away with the death squad, you can let the death squad and their families go first, and we will stay and work overtime to mine enough phosphate ore first, and then let the refinery work overtime to produce enough finished products, and finally leave a transport team here to stand the last shift and send the last truck of phosphate smoothly!"

Seeing that he was willing to let the death squad evacuate first and at the same time he could sort out the things very clearly, Charlie Wade had some affirmation of his character and ability to do things, so he nodded with satisfaction and said: "Okay, as long as we do everything to the extreme, we will be able to make these 11,000 people disappear from Morocco under the nose of the Po Qing Society!"

2. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 7037

Although Charlie Wade was confident, Yin Xiaoyang was somewhat uneasy. He couldn't help asking Charlie Wade: "Sir, how do you plan to deal with Song Chenshi? Her strength is unfathomable. If you need it, I can organize the strongest brothers in the Cavalry Guard to kill her together!"

Charlie Wade said: "Since she is a senior official in the Right Army Governor's Office, she is still useful to me. I can't just kill her."

After that, Charlie Wade said: "What is the organizational structure of your Cavalry Guard?"

Yin Xiaoyang said: "The Cavalry Guard is divided into three battalions, nine flags, and twenty-seven teams. Each of the three battalions has a chief captain and a deputy chief captain. Each flag has a chief captain and a deputy chief captain. Each team has a captain and a deputy captain."

Then, Yin Xiaoyang continued to introduce: "Among the three battalions, the first battalion is responsible for mining, the second battalion is responsible for production, and the third battalion is responsible for logistics and security. The brothers you saw on the platform when you came are the brothers of the third battalion. They are mainly responsible for patrol and security. In addition, they are also responsible for transportation and loading and unloading. In addition, there are many brothers in the third battalion who are working overtime to rush to build a watchtower. This is also a requirement issued by the superiors, and we need to strengthen our defense. “ charlie Wade nodded and said, “Gather all the leaders of the third battalion and the nine flags. I will go to meet Song Qianshi first. After I deal with her, I will bring her to see you. “

Yin Xiaoyang asked hurriedly: “Sir, do you not need the help of me and the brothers?”

“No need.” charlie Wade said calmly, “Her strength is indeed good, but she is not a threat to me.”

Yin Xiaoyang clasped his hands and said respectfully, “There are more than 10,000 people here, and everything depends on you, sir!”

charlie Wade nodded slightly, and then said, “Drive to your office building.”

“Yes, sir!”

Yin Xiaoyang agreed and drove back immediately. When the car arrived at the downstairs of the office building, charlie Wade used his spiritual energy to isolate the space inside the car and said to Yin Xiaoyang, “You call them to the meeting room, but don’t tell them anything about me before I show up.”

Yin Xiaoyang immediately said, “I understand!”

After that, he said to charlie Wade, “Sir, I will take you to see the deputy minister Song first!”

charlie Wade waved his hand, “No need, I know where she is.”

After that, charlie Wade withdrew his spiritual energy, pushed the door and got out of the car.

At this time, there were not many cavalry guards in the office building. Since the production was non-stop for 24 hours, except for a few people who were resting in the dormitory area, most of the rest were at the forefront of the work. Only a few responsible persons were waiting in their offices.

Song Chenshi was in the office on the fifth floor at this time. Her office was divided into two rooms, the inner and outer rooms, each of which was nearly 100 square meters in size and luxuriously decorated.

The outer room was mainly used for office and reception, while the inner room was a place for living, resting, and practicing meditation. It was also equipped with a complete toilet and bathroom. During the few days that Song Chenshi came to Duke Mining, she worked and lived here.

This office was originally prepared for special envoys. Every time a special envoy came, he would stay here for a few days. It was the best room in the entire Duke Mining, so Yin Xiaoyang naturally arranged Song Chenshi here.

Song Chenshi's real name was Song Ruyu. He just turned 24 this year. He was the first cultivator of the Song family in hundreds of years and the greatest hope of the Song family in hundreds of years.

The fate of the Song family has been bound to the Wu family for hundreds of years, and the fortunes and disasters depended on each other.

At first, they had a daughter who married into the Wu family and gave birth to offspring for the Wu family. Later, the Qing-breaking Society grew stronger and stronger, and the Wu family had more and more secrets. Sara asked the Wu family to develop the family of marriage into a collateral family so that it could be permanently tied to the Wu family.

Sara's method of tying up these collateral families was also very direct, that is, poisoning.

The collateral families just had to be honest and attached

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 7038

Wu family, they can get a steady supply of antidotes, as well as money, power and status, but if they dare to disobey the Wu family, the only outcome is the extermination of the entire family.

The reason why Sara wanted to tie up these collateral families is that as her life gets longer and longer, the Wu family's secrets are increasing, and the future Wu family will be less and less suitable for casual marriages with other families from outside.

The Wu family is Sara's mother's family, and Sara can't let the Wu family's incense be affected, so she instructed the Wu family to develop many collateral families like the Song family into the Wu family's reproduction machine.

According to Sara's requirements, the girls of the Wu family must not marry and must serve the Wu family for life, and the boys of the Wu family can only marry suitable girls from the collateral families. For hundreds of years, the biggest task of the Song family has been to continuously send girls of the right age to the Wu family to marry with the Wu family's descendants.

Since the two families have been reproducing synchronously for hundreds of years, the gene tree has already branched out, so the blood relationship between the offspring born by the Song family and the women outside and the descendants of the Wu family has long been negligible, far beyond the scope of close relatives marriage, so that the normal continuation of the Wu family's genes can be ensured.

In order to ensure that the Wu family is provided with girls with good genes, the men of the Song family need to find excellent Chinese women in the outside world to give birth to offspring; and in order to protect family secrets, the men of the Song family are often top scumbags.

They will use fake identities to talk about love and marriage with suitable women in the outside world, and one day after the other party gives birth to their children, they will disappear with the children.

If it is a boy, he will be brought back to be cultivated into the new generation of the Song family; if it is a girl, she will be cultivated completely according to the preferences of the Wu family. If she can be selected by the Wu family and marry a man of high status in the Wu family after she grows up, she can bring more wealth and opportunities to their family. If she cannot be selected by a man of high status in the Wu family, she will inevitably marry those male descendants who are not valued or even despised in the Wu family.

After all, even if they are male wastes in the Wu family, they are still members of the Wu family. The Wu family cannot let them be single for their whole lives. Even if they have no future, they must at least have a family and offspring to give an explanation to their parents and even grandparents.

In order to keep the secrets of the Wu family, they can only marry women from collateral families.

Therefore, in collateral families like the Song family, almost 80% of the eligible women will be selected by the Wu family.

Due to the huge disparity in the strength of the two families, girls who marry into the Wu family have almost no status to speak of. It is normal to be despised by their husbands, and it is common to be wronged. In serious cases, they will even be killed by their husbands. But even so, the natal family dare not have any doubts or dissatisfaction. After all, their lifeblood is all in the hands of the Wu family.

And those girls who are lucky enough not to be selected by the Wu family, the Song family will not allow them to leave the family and marry and start a family, because they must stay in the Song family, guard the secrets of the Song family and the Wu family for hundreds of years, and be tools for life.

Song Ruyu is the only cultivator in the Song family for hundreds of years. It can even be said that she is the only one from all the collateral families combined. Therefore, she carries the hope of the entire Song family.

Song Ruyu knows the power of the Poqing Society and the Lord of the Lord. In addition, she dares not have any rebellious thoughts against the Poqing Society. She only knows that if she wants to change the fate of the family, there is only one way, which is to continuously improve her strength and constantly let herself play a more important role in the Poqing Society.

Once her strength can enter the eyes of the Lord of the Lord, the Song family will definitely be able to get more preferential treatment, and maybe one day, there will be a chance to get rid of the fate of a reproductive machine.

Based on this heavy burden, Song Yuru is loyal to the Poqing Society and only hopes to have more opportunities to make meritorious contributions to accumulate more capital for herself.

2. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 7039

This time, the Governor's Office allowed her to be responsible for the blood transfusion work of the entire garrison alone, which was also a manifestation of greater trust in her. She thought to herself: "As long as I have no mistakes in this mission and complete it smoothly and on time, the Governor's Office will definitely give me more and more important tasks in the future. At that time, it will be a good opportunity for me, Song Ruyu, to make achievements!"

Just when Song Ruyu was looking forward to the future in her heart, she suddenly heard someone knocking on the door, disrupting her hopeful thoughts.

She came to her senses and asked in a cold and disgusted voice: "What's the matter?"

Outside the door, Ye Chen said: "Chen Shi Song, the commander asked his subordinates to pass on a message."

"Pass on a message?" Song Ruyu said disdainfully: "He is just a commander. He didn't come to see me in person when he had something to do, but sent someone to pass on a message. He is really so arrogant!"

Ye Chen hurriedly said: "Chen Shi Song, there is some problem with the goods, and they may not be completed on time. Commander Yin dare not delay and has summoned all the thousand households and flag chiefs to study countermeasures. He really dare not withdraw and delay the progress, so he asked his subordinates to report to you."

"What did you say?" When Song Ruyu heard Ye Chen say that there was a problem with the goods and even affected the progress, she was immediately furious.

As soon as she thought about it, her spiritual energy sensed that Yin Xiaoyang was indeed in this office building, and that many leaders of the Cavalry Guards were gathering towards him, so she immediately used her spiritual energy to open the door instantly, looked at Ye Chen outside the door, and said coldly: "Tell me clearly what the problem is! If anything happens that affects the progress, I will chop off the head of the first person in charge first!"

Although Song Ruyu is young, she has regarded human life as worthless since she was a child.

This is not because she was born cold and ruthless, but she knows very well that the Wu family has always regarded the lives of the Song family as worthless.

From childhood to adulthood, she accidentally heard about the murder of women from the Song family who married into the Wu family, and there were no less than five times.

These people were her elders, and the reasons why they were killed by the Wu family were also very far-fetched. Some were because they could not give birth to boys, some because of accidental miscarriages, some were simply disgusted by their husbands, and some were even just because they were greedy and ate more food, which caused their figures to be out of shape.

Contrary to the fact that the Song family was treated as worthless by the Wu family, the Song family also disdained the women they found outside, and even treated them worse than the Wu family treated the women of the Song family.

Song Ruyu's eldest brother had entered the world a few years ago to disguise himself and find a suitable woman to reproduce. He first had a child with a woman, and the woman found out that the eldest brother had a family in another city, so the eldest brother killed her to silence her.

The woman didn't even have time to accuse the eldest brother of a single word before she was shot to death by the eldest brother. The reason was very simple. The eldest brother and the Song family could not take any risks. They originally intended to find an opportunity to disappear with the child after the woman gave birth and before the child turned one year old. Since they were discovered, they would just kill her directly to eliminate future troubles.

Song Ruyu was influenced by such an environment, and killing people had long lost any psychological burden for her. These Xiaoqiwei were far inferior to the status of the Song family. They were just a group of slaves raised by the Poqing Society. Naturally, she didn't care about the lives of these people. Once someone provoked her or affected her, she would just kill them!

Seeing her murderous look, Ye Chen was quite surprised. Such a young face, such an extraordinary appearance and dress, coupled with such a majestic and bloody murderous look, was indeed quite shocking.

Seeing that Ye Chen did not answer her question within three seconds, Song Ruyu's tone immediately became more serious. She stared at Ye Chen and said sternly, "If you don't speak quickly, I will chop off your head and ask that Yin myself!"

Ye Chen was speechless. Looking at Song Ruyu's murderous expression, he chuckled and said, "Little girl, where did you drink tonight? You are so drunk that you want to chop off my head."

2. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 7040

charlie's joking question made Song Ruyu a little stunned for a moment.

She saw that although charlie was a stranger, she could tell from his clothes that he was the Cavalry Guard of Duke Mining.

Besides, she had always been in charge here, and it was impossible for other people to sneak in.

So, the main reason for her surprise was that how could a mere Cavalry Guard have the courage to talk to her like that? !

Feeling that she was being bullied, Song Ruyu looked at charlie with anger and coldness in her eyes. Then, she immediately used her spiritual energy to sacrifice her long sword, and the sword tip rushed straight to charlie's neck.

In Song Ruyu's eyes, charlie was already dead. She looked at charlie silently and said lightly: "You are too high to die under my sword."

charlie smiled: "Confidence is a good thing, but being too confident will backfire."

As he said, he saw the sword tip coming straight at him, and he was not panicked at all.

The long sword is driven by spiritual energy, which is almost invincible to ordinary warriors, but to charlie, this kind of spiritual energy is almost no threat.

When Song Ruyu was waiting for charlie to bleed on the spot a few meters away, charlie suddenly stepped towards the sword and walked into the room.

When charlie stepped over the door frame and entered the room, the long sword had already flown in front of him, and the sword tip was shining with a pale light, unstoppable.

charlie showed no fear, and the spiritual energy that had been restrained suddenly surged to his right arm. The surging spiritual energy was no longer blocked, and the powerful aura made Song Ruyu's face instantly become extremely horrified!

She could never have imagined that a mere cavalry guard could have such a powerful strength. If her own spiritual energy was a gurgling stream, then the spiritual energy released by charlie was like a surging river! At this moment, she immediately understood that this person was definitely not a cavalry guard!

At this moment, there was a crisp sound in the air, and her slender silver sword was easily caught in charlie's hand. The sword seemed to be struggling, and the sword body trembled violently, but even so, it could not break free from charlie's hand, and even charlie's wrist could not tremble!

charlie easily grasped Song Ruyu's sword in his right hand, and closed the door with his left hand. Then he strode towards Song Ruyu who was standing there, and asked with a smile: "Little girl, what killer moves do you have next? Did Sara teach you the skills of opening the Niwan Palace?”

“You...you...” Song Ruyu has only been enlightened for two years. She has not even had the opportunity to meet the Yingzhu Sara, and naturally she has no chance to be taught the so-called self-destruction “skill” of opening the Niwan Palace by Sara. What terrified her was that the man in front of her was not much older than her, but he could have such a terrifying strength!

What made her even more unbelievable was that the other party dared to call the Lord by his name. This was an absolute capital crime within the Poqing Society, and no one was exempt. Even members of the Wu family and their direct descendants would never dare to be so presumptuous!
