“Moreover, most of the cultivators who were enlightened by external interference found it difficult to go far after enlightenment due to their limited talents. To become a master like the four earls, the talent requirements are also very high.”

Having said that, Song Ruyu continued: “In the eyes of the Lord Ying, the Song family is just a tool for the Wu family to pass on their family lineage. She has always looked down on them. The reason why I was able to attain enlightenment is that when I was sixteen years old, a master of the Wu family came to the Song family to investigate the girls of the right age in the Song family, and found that I had actually entered the Dark Realm, and immediately reported the matter to the Grand Commander;”

“The Grand Commander seemed to have never heard of anyone who could enter the Dark Realm at the age of sixteen. In addition to being surprised, he immediately reported the matter to the Lord Ying;”

“And the reason why he reported it to Sara is that the Lord Ying has been actively looking for talents suitable for enlightenment, or geniuses who have already attained enlightenment, for so many years, and after finding them, he will recruit them into the Poqing Society.”

“After the Grand Commander reported my situation to Lord Ying, Lord Ying asked the Grand Commander to give me a mental method and asked me to comprehend it by myself. He also said that if I could successfully attain enlightenment, he would accept me as his personal disciple.”

charlie Wade asked him: "You...you attained enlightenment with the help of a mental method?!"

Just now, Song Ruyu said that she gradually broke through to the realm of transformation with the help of a mental method. If she attained enlightenment because of a mental method, then this talent is a bit too strong.

Song Ruyu said, "Self-realization is the test of martial arts geniuses by the Queen. She no longer has the extra energy to use her own strength to help martial arts geniuses realize the truth. Therefore, the ultimate test of whether a martial arts genius can catch her eye is whether he can realize the truth by relying on his mind method. "

Speaking of this, Song Ruyu said, "After I got that mind method, I immediately realized that this was my only chance to escape the fate of marrying into the Wu family and change the fate of the Song family. So I studied that mind method as if it were a treasure and forgot to eat and sleep for six years. Finally, two years ago, when I was 22 years old, I succeeded in realizing the truth!"

charlie Wade felt dizzy after hearing this and couldn't help saying, "To be able to realize the truth in six years, this speed is unheard of!"

Then he looked at Song Ruyu and asked, "So, you are now Sara's direct disciple?"

"Not yet." Song Ruyu said in full: "After I realized the truth, the Grand Commander reported the news to the Lord of England. The Lord of England probably didn't expect that a girl who could realize the truth at such a young age could emerge from a side branch family that had always been ignored. So she immediately instructed the Grand Commander to bring me to the Right Army Commander's Mansion to start working for the Poqing Society. She also wanted to wait until she inspects the Right Army Commander's Mansion at the beginning of next year to meet me in person and then accept me as her personal disciple on the spot."

After that, Song Ruyu continued: “The Grand Commander naturally didn’t dare to neglect the Lord of England’s order. He immediately brought me to the Right Army Commander’s Mansion and granted me the position of assistant. The Lord of England also had the rapier and a small Peiyuan Pill sent to the Right Army Commander’s Mansion, and the Grand Commander handed them to me personally.”

charlie Wade nodded, raised the rapier in his hand, and asked her: “Is this the sword that Sara gave you?”

“Yes!” Song Ruyu nodded and said, “There is a mind-controlled formation in this rapier, which has greatly improved my actual combat ability, and that small Peiyuan Pill just happened to provide me with extremely precious spiritual energy.”

At this point, Song Ruyu said with a gloomy expression, “But what I never dreamed of was that although the small Peiyuan Pill sent by the Lord contained spiritual energy, it also contained a stronger strange poison. That kind of strange poison is quite overbearing. It is said that even cultivators cannot remove it, and the antidote must be taken within three years, otherwise you will die!

After hearing Song Ruyu say that she had a strange poison in her body, charlie Wade immediately used his spiritual energy to check it out. As expected, the spiritual energy in her body was the same as the strange poison in Dingyuan Bo Yun Ruge’s body.

charlie Wade couldn’t help but sigh: “Sara hasn’t seen you yet, but she has already poisoned you. It’s really her style.”

After that, charlie Wade said: “Your poison is the same as the poison in the bodies of the four earls. I may not be able to cure it for the time being, but I think I should be able to find a way to cure it before the deadline.”

Song Ruyu frowned and asked: “Do the four earls also have such poison in their bodies?”

charlie Wade nodded: "The four earls not only have the same poison in their bodies, but also a time bomb. If Sara really takes you to her side to cultivate, your fate should be the same as theirs."

As he said, charlie Wade told her about the Niwan Palace in Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s body.

Song Ruyu was stunned and asked him in disbelief: "Master Ying... Master Ying really set up a self-destructing formation in the Niwan Palace of the four earls?"

charlie Wade asked back: "Do you think I need to lie to you?"

Song Ruyu nodded, and believed what charlie Wade said in her heart.

After all, when charlie Wade first attacked her, he mentioned the matter of Niwan Palace. At that time, she didn't understand it. Now it seems that it must be true.

Moreover, although she didn't see the matter of Niwan Palace with her own eyes, she felt that it was indeed in line with the style of the Poqing Society. The Poqing Society has always been like this, squeezing out the last bit of surplus value even after a person dies.

Thinking of this, Song Ruyu's fluctuations in her heart calmed down a little.

Compared with Sara putting a formation that can turn people into human bombs in the Niwan Palace, being caught by charlie Wade doesn't seem to be a bad thing.

At this time, Song Ruyu thought of her family again. She asked charlie Wade with some trepidation: "Mr. charlie... then... will I never see my family again in the future?"

charlie Wade said: "If I can kill Sara with my own hands one day, I will give all of you complete freedom, including helping all of you to get rid of the shackles of the strange poison. At that time, you will be able to meet your family."

Song Ruyu nodded gently.

She didn't know whether charlie Wade could kill Sara, but at this moment, she was suddenly full of expectations for this day.

The tragic fate of the Song family for hundreds of years was all due to Sara. If she wanted to truly regain her freedom, it would only be possible if Sara died.

If she could regain her freedom, the first thing she wanted to do was to find her mother.

This is because her father took her away from her mother when she was one year old. Since then, she has never seen her mother again, and her memory has long been blurred, and she can't remember any fragments about her mother at all.

However, because she has not been accompanied by her mother since she was a child, she is even more regretful about her mother.

However, looking for her mother was an extremely rebellious idea before, because the Song family's family precepts clearly forbade anyone to look for her mother's whereabouts.

But now that she is no longer under the control of the Poqing Society, if there is a chance to find her mother, she still wants to try.

Seeing her thoughtful look, charlie Wade said, "The Earl of Dingyuan, one of the four great earls, has also surrendered to me, but like you, she has the strange poison left by Sara in her body. I will settle her in China to practice with concentration. When this problem is solved, I will bring you to China so that you two can meet each other. Perhaps you two can help each other."

As he spoke, charlie Wade suddenly said to himself, "Yun Ruge, Song Ruyu, Ruge, Ruyu, you two are quite predestined."

Song Ruyu was startled and asked quickly, "Mr. charlie, are you... are you going to take me to China?"

charlie Wade said, "I haven't thought about it yet. Either let you leave Morocco with the others here, or take you back to China."

Song Ruyu said quickly, "Please Mr. charlie, take me back to China! My father once told me that I was born in China! Maybe my mother is still living in China now!"

C 7053

charlie Wade asked her, "Do you want to find your mother's whereabouts?"

"Yes!" Song Ruyu nodded heavily, but soon added hurriedly: "Mr. charlie, don't misunderstand. I didn't think of going to look for my mother immediately after arriving in China. I will follow Mr. charlie's arrangements in everything."

charlie Wade said: "If you cooperate with me to complete what I want to do, I can consider taking you back to China. If you want to find your mother, I can also help."

Song Ruyu said gratefully: "Thank you, Mr. charlie! Whatever Mr. charlie needs me to do, I will do my best to cooperate!"

charlie Wade said: "All the senior executives of the Cavalry Guard are waiting in the conference room. You come with me to meet them. We will start the evacuation plan tonight."

Song Ruyu immediately said: "Okay, Mr. charlie!"

At this time, in the conference room, a group of leaders of the Cavalry Guard had been waiting here for a long time.

Yin Xiaoyang called them together, but did not tell them about Charlie Wade. He just synchronized the details of the big blood transfusion plan with them first.

When these people heard that the big blood transfusion plan was about to be implemented, they were like eggplants hit by frost, dejected and unable to cheer up at all.

They could also see the intention behind this plan, and knew that once this plan was implemented, they would be separated from their families forever.

But unfortunately, they had no way to change this situation.

As long as the order for a major blood transfusion came down, everyone had to act according to the order, otherwise the only fate waiting for them and their families was death.

After Yin Xiaoyang finished speaking, he said to everyone: "We have a chance to completely reverse this situation, but I don't know if the brothers are willing to stand with me, Yin Xiaoyang."

When everyone heard this, they immediately expressed their opinions.

For them, a major blood transfusion was the worst situation they could think of, and even more difficult for each other to accept, so as long as there was a chance to reverse this situation, everyone was willing to take a risk.

Of course, the premise of taking a risk is that the success rate must be guaranteed to a certain extent. If the success rate is negligible, these people would not dare to joke with their family's lives.

But then Yin Xiaoyang stopped telling everyone any details. He just asked everyone to wait patiently and said that they would get the chance soon.

Everyone was confused, and they were whispering to each other in the conference room, feeling very uncomfortable. They didn't know what Yin Xiaoyang meant by asking everyone to wait for an opportunity here.

At this moment, the door of the conference room was suddenly pushed open.

Everyone immediately looked at the door and saw Charlie Wade walking in, followed by the powerful Song Ruyu.

These people didn't know Charlie Wade, but they knew Song Ruyu. Seeing Song Ruyu coming, they were extremely flustered, thinking that they were discussing the reversal of the situation of the big change and were discovered by Song Ruyu.

So, everyone stood up one by one with a guilty conscience, saluted Song Ruyu respectfully, and said respectfully: "I have seen Song Ruyu!"

Seeing this, Song Ruyu said: "From now on, I will cut off all ties with the Poqing Society and will no longer be the Poqing Society's deputy. If you are willing, you can call me Miss Song."

Everyone was shocked when they heard this.

Song Ruyu is the deputy of the Right Army Governor's Office, how could she suddenly announce in front of everyone that she would break off with the Po Qing Society? ! Moreover, even if she wanted to break off with the Po Qing Society, why did she say it in front of him? ! After all, the status and strength of the Cavalry Guards are far inferior to hers!

Just when everyone was puzzled, Charlie Wade suddenly asked: "Everyone, if I give you and your family a chance to escape from the control of the Po Qing Society, are you willing to accept it?"

Charlie Wade's calm words instantly stirred up a thousand waves among the crowd. Yin Xiaoyang had just told them about the big blood exchange. At this moment, everyone hated the Po Qing Society. Suddenly, a stranger appeared and said that they would have a chance to escape from the control of the Po Qing Society. Except for Yin Xiaoyang, everyone else was full of disbelief. After all, escaping from the control of the Po Qing Society is not just about escaping from here.

The most important thing is that the strange poison in everyone's body must be removed. Otherwise, even if they succeed in escaping, they will inevitably die suddenly within a few days.

At this time, Yin Xiaoyang said: "My comrades, the reason why I gathered everyone together is to discuss the big plan with this gentleman. The gentleman went deep into this place regardless of the danger and wanted to take all of us and the dead soldiers away from here, and he will remove the strange poison from our bodies for us. In this way, you will no longer be enslaved by the Po Qing Society, and you will not be separated from your family. I wonder if you are willing to respond with me?"

Everyone was immediately excited when they heard this.

One of them stood up and shouted, "Commander Yin! All the brothers have followed you all the way here. As long as you say a word, no matter what we do, I, Li Jianghe, will obey unconditionally!"

Another person also said, "Commander Yin, as long as we can keep our families safe, I, Han Zhengguang, will sacrifice my life!"

As everyone expressed their opinions, Charlie Wade could see that these cavalry guards did not care about their own life and death. Almost all of them only cared about their families. As long as they could ensure the safety of their families, they would die immediately without any hesitation.

Seeing that everyone had expressed their opinions, Yin Xiaoyang immediately said to Charlie Wade: "Sir, from now on, I and all the brothers will obey your orders."

Everyone immediately said in unison: "Everything is under your command!"

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "My last name is Wade, you can call me Mr. Charlie, because the big change will start in three days, and we must transfer everyone from here in an orderly manner within three days. Since this place needs to continue to operate and continue to provide finished phosphates for Moore Trade, all the cavalry guards responsible for production will need to speed up production at full capacity. At the same time, I will evacuate all the dead soldiers and their families here first, and then evacuate the families of all the cavalry guards, and the cavalry guards will evacuate last. The whole process must be in full swing. Drum, orderly, the most important thing is the cooperation of everyone, so it requires the reasonable division of labor by Commander Yin and the full cooperation of everyone present. ”

After that, he took out a rejuvenation pill and a nourishing pill, and took a bottle of drinking water from the corner of the conference room, took a little from the two pills, and then put it in the water, and then said to Song Ruyu beside him: “Help me get some water cups.”

Song Ruyu immediately turned around and took some disposable water cups. Charlie Wade poured the drinking water mixed with pills into the cups, only half a cup in each cup, and then said to Yin Xiaoyang and others: “Drink this cup of water, and the poison in your body will be eliminated.”

Everyone passed the cup of water doubtfully, and drank it all under the leadership of Yin Xiaoyang.

Then, everyone immediately felt that the fierce and strange poison mixed with the true qi in their bodies was quickly disintegrated in a very short time.

Instead, it was a very surging and natural energy.

Strictly speaking, the poison that Sara prepared for the death squad and the cavalry guards was a mixture of uncontrolled true qi and spiritual energy, in which true qi accounted for the vast majority, with only a small amount of spiritual energy mixed in.

When this mixture of true qi and spiritual energy is in their bodies, it can improve their actual combat capabilities, but the true qi itself is also a time bomb. If they fail to take the antidote on time, the true qi will attack their meridians and internal organs, causing them to die instantly.

Charlie Wade's pill contains pure true qi and a little spiritual energy. After taking it, the two will work together on the uncontrolled true qi and completely disintegrate it.

The uncontrolled true qi has long become a shackle that imprisons their souls and bodies. They can feel the existence of the shackles at all times, so when the shackles instantly disintegrate, they immediately realize that the shackles that have been in their bodies since birth have finally disappeared completely at this moment.

For a time, everyone was ecstatic, and many people even hugged and cried.

The greatest wish of their lives, as well as their ancestors, is to be able to break this shackle.

Unfortunately, because the poison is mixed with a little spiritual energy, these warriors cannot break it with their own strength. Only by using stronger spiritual energy can the poison be offset.

Although Charlie Wade's strength is much worse than Sara's, Sara needs to control too many people. In order to save spiritual energy, she only left a little spiritual energy in these cavalry guards and death warriors. For Charlie Wade, it is not difficult to detoxify them.

Yin Xiaoyang was very excited. He was a little skeptical about whether charlie Wade could detoxify them. Now, after personal experience, he has no worries at all.

So, he took the lead and walked to charlie Wade, knelt on one knee, bowed his hands and said: "Mr. charlie's great kindness, I will never forget it!"

Others immediately stepped forward and knelt on one knee.

charlie Wade said, "Time is tight. Everyone, hurry up and lead your men to speed up production. Commander Yin, come with me to meet the dead soldiers here."

Yin Xiaoyang immediately said, "Okay, Mr. charlie."

After that, he said to the others, "Tell the brothers to do their best to mine and produce. Han Qianhu, you transfer all the brothers of the third battalion to the mining area to support, first help the first battalion to mine, and then help the second battalion to produce!"

Han Qianhu, that is, Han Zhengguang, who just expressed his loyalty to charlie Wade, is the Qianhu of the third battalion and the number one commander of the third battalion. In Duke Mining, the third battalion is mainly responsible for security, transportation, loading and unloading, and maintenance. These support work, the men under his command are flexible and mobile. Recently, his men are mainly busy building watchtowers in the mining area and installing subsequent monitoring equipment.

However, these tasks can be completely stopped at the moment. If he transfers manpower to support the mining area and everyone increases the intensity of work, the mining work in the next three days can be completed within 24 hours.

In this way, in the next 24 hours, we can focus on the production of the refinery. As long as the refinery can produce all the production capacity of the next three days within the next 48 hours, most of the Cavalry Guards can be withdrawn the day after tomorrow, leaving only Han Zhengguang to leave a loading and unloading team to load the last truck of phosphate and complete the docking and delivery with the Moroccan National Railway.

Han Qianhu immediately said: "Commander Yin, rest assured, I will personally lead the brothers of the third battalion to the mining area for support!"

Yin Xiaoyang nodded and said loudly: "From now on, all brothers must unite as one and go all out. Whether our families and future generations can escape the fate of being prisoners for hundreds of years depends on the next three days!
