Chapter 7056

When all the Cavalry Guards immediately began to work overtime for mining and production, charlie Wade brought Song Ruyu, under the leadership of Yin Xiaoyang, to the underground mine where thousands of dead soldiers and their families were imprisoned.

This underground mine has three openings in total. The original design was that two were used to mine and transport phosphate ore to the surface, and the other was specifically used to ventilate the entire underground mine.

Now, the ventilation openings of the mine have been completely blocked by iron fences as thick as arms to ensure that only ventilation can be used, and no one can escape from here.

In addition, the two mine exits originally designed to transport phosphate ore are all firmly blocked with heavy iron doors. The Cavalry Guards of the Third Battalion have special people guarding here, and the control of the elevator is also in the hands of the Cavalry Guards. When the gate is closed and the elevator is closed, the dead soldiers below cannot escape at all.

Moreover, although the Death Soldiers and the Cavalry Guards are equivalent to prisoners and prison guards respectively, their fates are actually the same. The Death Soldiers cannot leave the mine without permission, while the Cavalry Guards only have a few kilometers more activity radius than them. With the mining area of Duke Mining as the boundary, none of them can leave this shackle at will.

Because of this, the Death Soldiers will not try to escape at all, because it is useless to escape. Once the antidote expires, they will surely die.

The three of them came to the entrance, and Yin Xiaoyang directly said to the Cavalry Guards guarding here: "Open the elevator, we want to go down."

The Cavalry Guards obeyed his orders and naturally did not dare to neglect them. They immediately opened the door and then supplied electricity to the elevator.

The lights inside the elevator came on, and Yin Xiaoyang immediately said to charlie Wade and Song Ruyu: "Mr. Wade, Miss Song, please come in!"

charlie Wade nodded and entered the elevator first, followed by Song Ruyu. Yin Xiaoyang entered last and pressed a button on the signal machine. The Cavalry Guards who received the signal immediately started the elevator and quickly descended to the bottom of the mine.

As the elevator was descending rapidly, Yin Xiaoyang asked charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, do I need to gather all the dead soldiers and their families here later?"

charlie Wade said, "You gather the leaders of the dead soldiers first. I will explain the situation to them first, and then let them gather everyone together. Let them explain it to their comrades and families in person. This will be more convincing, and I don't have time to detoxify everyone today. I can only detoxify the leaders at all levels first, let them trust me, and then let them organize everyone to evacuate first. After evacuating to a safe place, I will detoxify others."

After that, Charlie Wade asked him, "When was the last time everyone took the medicine?"

Yin Xiaoyang immediately said, "To reply, Mr. Wade, everyone just took the antidote the day before yesterday, so there is still plenty of time."

Charlie Wade nodded. The head said: "Okay, enough time."

The elevator traveled for about a minute. After reaching the bottom of the mine, a man came up immediately. Seeing that it was Yin Xiaoyang, he immediately said respectfully: "Commander Yin, why did you come down in person?"

Yin Xiaoyang said: "There are some important matters to communicate with you. Please summon your commander and all the thousand households and flag chiefs to the front hall for discussion." The dead soldier immediately said: "Commander Yin, please move to the front hall for a while. I will go to inform the commander now!"

Passing through the tunnel of the mine, the three came to the front hall of the dead soldier's station. This was originally a working face in a phosphate mine area. After the Poqinghui took over, it was transformed here and transformed into a must-go road to enter the station. This working face was supported and reinforced.

Now, this has become the venue for the dead soldiers to hold meetings, and it is also the place where the Cavalry Guard assigns tasks to the dead soldiers.

The front hall is brightly lit at this time. The huge space is designed like an ancient government office. There is a flat open space in the middle, and three imperial chairs are placed in front.

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 7057

At this time, there were also two death warriors guarding the front hall. When they saw Yin Xiaoyang coming, they immediately stepped forward and said respectfully: "I am honored to meet Commander Yin!"

Yin Xiaoyang nodded and said to the two men: "I have called a meeting of your commanders and leaders at all levels. You can leave first."

The two men immediately said in unison: "As you command!"

After that, they immediately turned around and left.

charlie Wade saw that these death warriors respected Yin Xiaoyang from the bottom of their hearts, and their eyes were full of respect rather than fear, so he asked him curiously: “Do you have a good relationship with these death warriors?”

Yin Xiaoyang introduced to charlie Wade: “Mr. Wade, we, the Cavalry Guards, do have a good relationship with the death warriors. Although we are ordered to guard them here, I have repeatedly emphasized to all the brothers of the Cavalry Guards that no one should exploit, bully, or make things difficult for the death warriors and their families. After all, we are all connected by the same fate and should sympathize with each other. These death warriors can also... They understand our situation, and we are also doing our best to provide them with some help and convenience, so everyone gets along very well. ”

charlie Wade nodded and sighed: “In the society outside, the food chain has long been formed between the classes, and exploitation and oppression are mostly passed down layer by layer. Many people who have been wronged by the upper class will vent their anger on the people below. It is not easy for you to realize that the dead soldiers and the cavalry guards are connected by the same fate and help each other. ”

Song Ruyu, who was standing aside, couldn't help but feel a little hot on her face when she heard charlie Wade's words.

She found that she was actually one of the “many people” mentioned by charlie Wade. The Song family had been controlled and oppressed by the Broken Qing Society for hundreds of years, but after coming to Duke Mining, she had no sympathy and compassion for the cavalry guards of Duke Mining. On the contrary, she was more harsh on them, and even killed innocent people indiscriminately. Now think about it, I am really ashamed.

Soon, in the alley behind the front hall, there was a uniform sound of running in a line.

A middle-aged strong man with a beard led more than 20 people to run quickly.

Most of these people have Asian faces, but there are also a few from other races. These people were abducted by the Anti-Qing Society many years ago and forced to become death warriors. So their descendants also became death warriors and received a unified Chinese education.

A group of people came quickly to the three people. The leader looked at charlie Wade in surprise, and then said loudly: “I am Qian Qiwu, the subordinate, and I meet the Lord Assistant and the Commander!”

charlie Wade looked at Song Ruyu and asked her: “Have you been here before?”

Song Ruyu nodded and said truthfully: “Mr. Wade, I came here the day before yesterday to distribute the antidote to them.”

After that, she explained: “Originally, this should have been done by the special envoy. I came here to supervise the major change, so I didn’t let the special envoy come.”

charlie Wade nodded lightly. At this time, Yin Xiaoyang on the side looked at charlie Wade and asked: “Mr. Wade, do you think I can introduce them to the brothers?”
charlie Wade said: “Okay, you introduce them.”

Seeing that Song Ruyu and Yin Xiaoyang were respectful to the young people around them, the group of assassins became a little nervous for a moment.

Originally, the highest official they could meet here was the special envoy. They felt something was amiss when they met the assistant envoy two days ago. They didn’t expect that another person who could make the assistant envoy respectful came two days later. They were even a little curious, wondering if charlie Wade was the deputy commander of the Poqing Society, or even the commander-in-chief.

At this time, Yin Xiaoyang said, “Everyone, Mr. Wade next to me has brought you an opportunity to completely get rid of the Poqing Society with your family. I wonder if you are willing to accept it?

As soon as Yin Xiaoyang said this, everyone was shocked.

They originally thought that charlie must be a higher-up of the Po Qing Society.

But who would have thought that Yin Xiaoyang would say that charlie gave everyone a chance to get rid of the Po Qing Society.

This huge psychological contrast made them completely at a loss as to how to deal with it.

Seeing everyone stunned, charlie said, “Everyone, I know that you have been imprisoned and enslaved by the Po Qing Society for generations, and have become killers of the Po Qing Society for generations. I have the ability to remove the poison in your body and provide you and your family with a safe place to stay, so that you will never be oppressed by the Po Qing Society again. I have only one condition, that is, you must unconditionally help me defeat the Po Qing Society. Once the Po Qing Society is eradicated by me, you and your family and descendants can regain your freedom. At that time, you can go anywhere, and I will not stop you.”

Everyone was still full of disbelief.

They and their ancestors have been firmly controlled by the Poqing Society for hundreds of years. In these hundreds of years, it’s not that no one has tried to fight or escape, but the strange poison in their bodies is like a curse that can never be shaken off, and no one has the ability to remove it.

And now, a strange man suddenly said that he could help them get rid of this curse, and their first feeling was disbelief.

Seeing that everyone was quite doubtful, charlie didn't say much nonsense, and said to Yin Xiaoyang: "Commander Yin, give me the water."

"Yes!" Yin Xiaoyang immediately handed the large bottle of pure water he brought to charlie, and then without waiting for charlie's order, he began to distribute paper cups to the standing dead soldiers.

charlie put some pills into the bottle, and after the pills melted, he immediately walked to the dead soldier in the first row and poured him a small half cup.

Then, he poured equal amounts for these dead soldiers one by one.

These dead soldiers didn't understand, but charlie didn't say anything, and the commander Qian Qiwu didn't move, so everyone held the water cup and didn't move.

charlie returned to the front of the crowd and said, "Everyone, time is running out, and there is no point in saying more. After everyone drinks the water in the cup, they will naturally understand everything. If you believe me, then take a step forward. If you still don't believe me, take a step back."

Seeing charlie's straightforward words, Qian Qiwu did not delay and immediately said, "Thank you for your care, Mr. Wade!"

After that, he raised his head and drank the water in the cup.

For Qian Qiwu, he has no freedom since birth. He is just a slave who is at the mercy of others. Although he doesn't know where charlie came from, he thinks that no one will try to murder a worthless slave like himself, so there is nothing to worry about.

After drinking the colorless and tasteless water, Qian Qiwu almost immediately felt the changes in his body.

The poison is in the meridians and Dantian, just like the originally white walls are covered with foul-smelling mud. The mud is everywhere and disgusting.

But after drinking this glass of water, all the sludge was immediately washed away, leaving no trace!

At this moment, he finally realized that charlie did not exaggerate at all. He really gave everyone a chance to get rid of the Poqing Society and break the century-old shackles!

And the brothers around him also had the same feeling as him at this moment. The poison in their bodies was completely cleared, which made them ecstatic. Many people even burst into tears uncontrollably.

Qian Qiwu was the first to come back to his senses, looked at charlie, took a big step forward, and then knelt on one knee, clasped his hands in front of his body, and said loudly: “Subordinates are willing to die for you!”

Everyone immediately stepped forward, knelt on one knee like Qian Qiwu, and said in unison: “Subordinates are willing to die for you!”

charlie nodded and said, "Since you all have no other purpose, I will start to formulate an evacuation plan. All of you must follow my plan and there must be no mistakes!"

Qian Qiwu said loudly, "Everything is subject to the instructions of the sir!"

charlie said, "Okay! Here is my evacuation plan. First of all, starting from tonight, all the dead soldiers and their families will begin to evacuate one after another. This distance is nearly 100 kilometers. In order to conceal their tracks, all the dead soldiers will start a forced march tonight. The requirement for the forced march is to complete this 100-kilometer journey within at least six hours. You are all warriors. This marching intensity should be no problem for you, right?"

Qian Qiwu said without hesitation, "No problem! We will reach our destination within six hours!"

"Okay." charlie nodded and said, "If there are family members among you who can keep up physically, they will go with you. If not, don't worry, I will arrange vehicles to transport them later."

After that, he looked at the time and continued, "It is ten o'clock in the evening now. Time is short. I will give you an hour to prepare. You go back and tell all your comrades and everyone's relatives about the whole thing, and let them prepare to leave. Then divide everyone into three groups. After an hour, the first group of death warriors and family members who can keep up with the forced march will set off first. After an hour and a half, the second group will set off. Two hours later, the third group will set off. The third group must arrive at the destination before dawn, otherwise there will be a risk of exposure. Do you understand?"

Everyone They all said in unison: "We understand!"

charlie said again: "This evacuation is to allow you to completely get rid of the Poqing Society and the previous life of imprisonment and slavery, so you must tell everyone that all personal belongings, as long as they are not necessities, should be left without as much as possible. No items should be left behind during the march. Each group of teams must have a team to explore the way ahead and a team to finish the march. The traces of the march must be erased in time and no clues should be left. Do you understand?"

Everyone answered in unison again: "We understand!"

charlie nodded and continued: "The evacuation of the entire base is divided into three steps. The first step is to complete the evacuation to the transfer station within three days; the second step is to complete the evacuation from the transfer station to the seaport; the third step is to complete the evacuation of thousands of kilometers at sea;"

"You are now in the inland of Morocco. You can only evacuate from here to the transitional transit station in three days. It will take at least one month to move from the transit station to a safe area, of which twenty days will be at sea. Once you leave clues during the evacuation, the Qing Society will likely chase you all the way. Once they catch up, everyone will face a catastrophe;”

“Therefore, during the entire evacuation process, you must follow the existing management system and control all your subordinates in place. Make sure that everyone strictly abides by discipline!”

Qian Qiwu immediately said respectfully: “Please rest assured, sir, I will strictly instruct all the responsible persons not to leave any clues during the evacuation!”

After that, Qian Qiwu hesitated for a moment and asked: “Sir, I have a question. I dare to ask you to explain it!”

charlie said: “You say.”

Qian Qiwu asked hurriedly: “When can you detoxify the other dead soldiers and their families?”

charlie said: “You don’t have to worry about those comrades and their families. After the first phase of the evacuation is completed in three days, I will concentrate on detoxifying everyone at the transit station. ”

Qian Qiwu immediately said gratefully: “On behalf of all my comrades and relatives, I kneel down to thank you for your great kindness!” Ye

Chen nodded, and said with a rather serious expression: “Hurry up and prepare. The elevator can only carry a limited number of people each time. Let the first batch of brothers start as soon as possible!”

Qian Qiwu said hurriedly: “Sir, I and other comrades have never left the station soberly in our lives. Except for the destination of the mission, I don’t know what the outside of the mine looks like. On the march, can you arrange a few people to guide us? ”

charlie smiled and said, “Don’t worry about this, I will definitely arrange it. ”

After that, he looked at Yin Xiaoyang on the side and said, “Commander Yin, I will tell you the coordinates of the transfer station later. You choose a few smart brothers from the Cavalry Guards and let them lead the way for these brothers. I will also arrange people to meet them in advance. ”

Yin Xiaoyang said respectfully: “Don’t worry, Mr. Wade, I will make arrangements!

Yin Xiaoyang said respectfully: “Don’t worry, Mr. Wade, I will make arrangements!

Half an hour later, the first batch of dead warriors who were leaving here took the elevator to the ground one after another.

Since there were hundreds of kilometers of forced marches in one night, the elderly and women could not keep up with such a high intensity, so the dead warriors set out with children between the ages of two and ten.

In order not to add trouble to the evacuation of the elderly and women behind, these dead warriors planned to carry these young children on their backs. After all, they were all well-trained warriors, and Charlie Wade did not allow them to bring any luggage and valuables, so it was no pressure for them to bring a child.

These dead warriors and children who had never walked out of the mine in a sober state, did not care to feel it well, and immediately began to line up under the organization of their respective team leaders, and then began to set off towards the transfer station under the leadership of the Xiaoqiwei.

From here to the food factory bought by Li Yalin, there are phosphate production areas along the way. As long as you take a little detour, you can avoid the crowded areas.

Moreover, since the dead warriors are all warriors, their physical fitness is much stronger than that of ordinary people, so they avoid the main road all the way and march directly on the gullies where phosphates are accumulated, which is almost unmanned.

Moreover, warriors are much more sensitive than ordinary people, so they can detect people along the way in advance and avoid them quietly.

A large number of dead warriors ran all the way with children on their backs. Li Yalin also arranged for members of the Wanlong Hall to pick them up in advance. A few hours later, these dead warriors arrived at the food factory one after another under the cover of night.

At this time, the food factory had prepared everything they needed for a temporary stay. Moreover, these dead warriors and children had lived under high-intensity military management all their lives and were highly disciplined. More than 2,000 people arrived one after another, and there was no chaos in the entire food factory. Everyone was extremely disciplined, and tried not to talk or move as much as possible. When necessary communication was also deliberately kept in a low voice. Even if someone passed by the entrance of the food factory, they would not believe that more than 2,000 people gathered inside at this time.

All the assassins arrived at the food factory before dawn. After Li Yalin informed Charlie Wade of the situation, Charlie Wade was relieved and asked him, "Inspector Li, how is the logistics company?"

Li Yalin said, "It has been bought. Just like the food factory, I signed an installment payment agreement with the boss, leaving him a loophole. After we leave, the logistics company will still belong to him, and he will definitely keep it a secret." After that

, Li Yalin asked him, "Mr. Wade, when are the others going to withdraw? I can arrange a vehicle to pick them up."

charlie Wade said, "It was only after I bought the Skyline that I found out that there are remote sensing satellites everywhere in the sky. Countries with a little bit of strength have their own military satellites, and many companies also have their own civilian satellites. These satellites are all taking pictures when the light and visibility are good. If we leave from Duke Mining during the day, we might be captured by a satellite, which is too risky, so we put the transportation work at night. You arrange the vehicle and set off to Duke Mining after dark."

"Okay." Li Yalin said without hesitation: "I asked the soldiers of Wanlong Hall to prepare in advance, and all the vehicles will be driven by them."

charlie Wade asked again: "Has the route from the food factory to the sea been arranged?"

"It has been arranged." Li Yalin said: "Yisu Shipping has ships in and out of the Strait of Gibraltar almost every day. Some of the soldiers brought by Lord Wanlong this time are from Morocco and several surrounding countries. Some of them will disguise themselves as crew members looking for job opportunities and mix into the fishing port. I have also arranged for several Moroccan soldiers to go to the dock to look for fishing boats. The deals will be made in the next two days. At that time, these fishing boats can be used to send people to the route where the freighters pass, and everyone can be sent away within ten days."

There are many soldiers in Wanlong Hall. Although most of them are Chinese, the number of other ethnic groups is still over 10,000.

With such a large base, it is not difficult to find some African soldiers.

charlie Wade asked him: "What is the situation at the fishing port? Will it attract attention?"

"No." Li Yalin said: "The management of the local fishing port is very chaotic. There are thousands of large and small fishing boats. Most of them are fishermen from surrounding areas. The situation of the ship owners is more complicated. There are people from all over the place. There are only some small circles among these fishing boats, no big circles. In addition, they are all arranged by locals, which will not attract attention. Moreover, the border defense of the coastline here is also very lax. Even if the army investigates, it will mainly investigate import smuggling. As long as the ships returning to the port do not have any contraband, they will definitely not be exposed. We can buy some fish from Algerian fishermen at sea in advance and disguise them as our harvest. We will definitely be able to conceal the truth."

"Okay." charlie Wade said, "There are quite a few ships crossing the Strait of Gibraltar every day. Even if they pursue the clues to the sea, they will basically sink into the sea. Let's do it this way. The night after tomorrow, everyone will withdraw to the transfer station and start to move to the sea late that night!"

Li Yalin immediately said, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I will make all preparations and emergency plans for emergencies."

Seeing that Li Yalin had everything ready, charlie Wade was relieved and began to arrange for the elderly and women. The elderly and women to be transferred were not only the families of the dead soldiers, but also the families of these cavalry guards. The cavalry guards of the third battalion have divided these people into several groups. Each group has about 80 members. Each group takes a closed truck and only takes two hours to reach the food factory.

Since the vehicles will not arrive until the evening, the cavalry guards are working hard on mining and production throughout the day.

charlie Wade believed that none of the Duke Mining's death warriors, cavalry guards, and their families would defect. The only one who might defect was Song Ruyu. After all, he threatened Song Ruyu with AI video, but the best solution for her was to escape. As long as she could escape, she could report the situation to the Poqing Society, and the AI video would naturally have no deterrent effect on her.

Because of this, charlie Wade asked Song Ruyu to stay with him all the time except when she went to the toilet, and warned Song Ruyu not to leave within three meters of him at any time, otherwise her cultivation would be completely abolished.

Song Ruyu knew that she was no match for charlie Wade, so she could only surrender obediently. charlie Wade did not rest either. He watched the death warriors set off one after another at night, and spent the rest of the time keeping a close eye on the production progress. Song Ruyu was forced to follow him.

At noon, when charlie Wade stood on the high platform and looked at the bustling scene in the mining area in the distance, Yin Xiaoyang came to report to charlie Wade and said respectfully: “Mr. Wade, all the goods on the platform have been put into storage, and the phosphate to be shipped this afternoon has been loaded. In the afternoon, the Moroccan National Railway train will pull an empty carriage over, and then pull this fully loaded phosphate to the port of Casablanca.”

charlie Wade nodded and said: “Gather all flammable materials and keep them properly. After leaving, burn this place to ruins.”

“Okay!” Yin Xiaoyang nodded heavily and said: “We have our own oil depot with a reserve of more than 200 tons. Most of them are diesel supplied to these construction machinery. In addition, there are dozens of tons of gasoline. All of these fuels are stored in underground tanks and can be pumped out at any time.”

charlie Wade hummed and said: “With so much fuel, it is enough to burn this place to ashes.
