Chapter 7061

There are many soldiers in Wanlong Hall. Although most of them are Chinese, the number of other ethnic groups is still over 10,000.

With such a large base, it is not difficult to find some African soldiers.

charlie Wade asked him: "What is the situation at the fishing port? Will it attract attention?"

"No." Li Yalin said: "The management of the local fishing port is very chaotic. There are thousands of large and small fishing boats. Most of them are fishermen from surrounding areas. The situation of the ship owners is more complicated. There are people from all over the place. There are only some small circles among these fishing boats, no big circles. In addition, they are all arranged by locals, which will not attract attention. Moreover, the border defense of the coastline here is also very lax. Even if the army investigates, it will mainly investigate import smuggling. As long as the ships returning to the port do not have any contraband, they will definitely not be exposed. We can buy some fish from Algerian fishermen at sea in advance and disguise them as our harvest. We will definitely be able to conceal the truth."

"Okay." charlie Wade said, "There are quite a few ships crossing the Strait of Gibraltar every day. Even if they pursue the clues to the sea, they will basically sink into the sea. Let's do it this way. The night after tomorrow, everyone will withdraw to the transfer station and start to move to the sea late that night!"

Li Yalin immediately said, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I will make all preparations and emergency plans for emergencies."

Seeing that Li Yalin had everything ready, charlie Wade was relieved and began to arrange for the elderly and women. The elderly and women to be transferred were not only the families of the dead soldiers, but also the families of these cavalry guards. The cavalry guards of the third battalion have divided these people into several groups. Each group has about 80 members. Each group takes a closed truck and only takes two hours to reach the food factory.

Since the vehicles will not arrive until the evening, the cavalry guards are working hard on mining and production throughout the day.

charlie Wade believed that none of the Duke Mining's death warriors, cavalry guards, and their families would defect. The only one who might defect was Song Ruyu. After all, he threatened Song Ruyu with AI video, but the best solution for her was to escape. As long as she could escape, she could report the situation to the Poqing Society, and the AI video would naturally have no deterrent effect on her.

Because of this, Charlie Wade asked Song Ruyu to stay with him all the time except when she went to the toilet, and warned Song Ruyu not to leave within three meters of him at any time, otherwise her cultivation would be completely abolished.

Song Ruyu knew that she was no match for Charlie Wade, so she could only surrender obediently. Charlie Wade did not rest either. He watched the death warriors set off one after another at night, and spent the rest of the time keeping a close eye on the production progress. Song Ruyu was forced to follow him.

At noon, when Charlie Wade stood on the high platform and looked at the bustling scene in the mining area in the distance, Yin Xiaoyang came to report to Charlie Wade and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, all the goods on the platform have been put into storage, and the phosphate to be shipped this afternoon has been loaded. In the afternoon, the Moroccan National Railway train will pull an empty carriage over, and then pull this fully loaded phosphate to the port of Casablanca."

Charlie Wade nodded and said: "Gather all flammable materials and keep them properly. After leaving, burn this place to ruins."

"Okay!" Yin Xiaoyang nodded heavily and said: "We have our own oil depot with a reserve of more than 200 tons. Most of them are diesel supplied to these construction machinery. In addition, there are dozens of tons of gasoline. All of these fuels are stored in underground tanks and can be pumped out at any time."

Charlie Wade hummed and said: "With so much fuel, it is enough to burn this place to ashes."

At this moment, thousands of kilometers away in Nigeria, the Grand Commander of the Right Military Governor's Office, Wu Shutong, was complaining to the Lieutenant General Andre.

On the empty tower, he said in annoyance: "If we keep waiting like this, I don't know when it will end. What if that person has already seen through this trap? Then won't we ever wait for him?"

Andre whispered: "Grand Commander, when you came to Nigeria, it was mainly because the three elders came to our Right Military Governor's Office. We can't neglect them. But now the three elders can stay here to practice in seclusion and don't need us to serve them personally. Now that we are here, it will delay a lot of important matters. The big blood exchange will start in two days, but this garrison is in the big blood exchange this time. If we stay here, we really can't play any role. We might as well ask the Lord to let us go back to Naples first."

Wu Shutong was silent for a moment and sighed, "I also want to go back, but I certainly can't tell the Lord this. The Lord will definitely think that I just want to leave Nigeria. After all, all the death squad bases other than here need a major change, not including the Governor's Office. Whether I stay here or go back to the Governor's Office, they are all remotely controlled, and there is no essential difference."

Upon hearing this, Andre immediately bowed ninety degrees and said ashamedly, “I was inconsiderate. Please forgive me. Governor , punish me!”

Wu Shutong waved his hands and said in annoyance, “I don’t know when this will end.”

After that, he couldn’t help but sighed, “But think about it, this is also a good opportunity for my Right Army Governor’s Office. Right now, the mysterious man or the mysterious organization has become a major concern for the Lord of England. If we can accomplish our goal in one battle here, it will be a great achievement. Even if our Right Army Governor’s Office just helped a little, it will still have some credit in it.”

Andre immediately nodded and said, “What the Grand Governor said is very true. As long as the Lord of England’s major concern is within the territory of our Right Army Governor’s Office, The plate was taken down, and we all have some credit. ”

After saying that, Andre hurriedly said with a diligent look: “Grand Commander, don’t forget that we have the genius Song Ruyu, Song Chenshi, in the Right Army Commander’s Office! Her cultivation speed is praised by even the old lady Yingzhu! Song Ruyu and the Song family were both cultivated and supported by you, and the credit is really on you. Isn’t the old lady Yingzhu coming to inspect next year? When she sees Song Chenshi, she will definitely be in a good mood and will definitely reward you then!”

Wu Shutong heard this and nodded gently, and his brows relaxed a lot.

In his opinion, Song Ruyu was a treasure sent to him by God. She could realize the truth on her own in her twenties. This kind of genius is simply unheard of. Even the four fallen earls could not be compared with her.

Not to mention the four earls, even the three elders can’t do it. None of the three elders realized the truth on their own in their twenties. If talent is counted, Song Ruyu is definitely better than the three of them.

What Wu Shutong is most looking forward to now is that the hero Sara can bring Song Ruyu to her side to train. In that case, Song Ruyu will definitely become Sara’s trusted general in the future. Maybe the four earls in the future will be headed by Song Ruyu.

It can be said that Song Ruyu’s future is bright, even bright enough to be dazzling.

Once Song Ruyu soars to the sky, as the patriarch of the Song family, he will definitely be able to get a lot of benefits from her.

After all, Song Ruyu’s people are still under his control. If Song Ruyu wants her people to live a better life, she must be respectful to him.

Even though Wu Shutong is a member of the Wu family and a high-ranking official, he still feels insecure in front of Sara. If Song Ruyu can rise to prominence by Sara's side, then he will be considered to have someone in the court to help him become an official.

Chapter 7063

Because of this, Wu Shutong has taken great care of Song Ruyu in the past two years. He not only appointed her as a deputy official, gave her various opportunities to gain experience, but also took good care of her family. Wu Shutong has even decided to marry Song Ruyu's half-sister, who is three years younger than him, to his unmarried youngest son, so that he can take this opportunity to be more closely tied to the Song family and Song Ruyu. In addition, he has also made it clear among his own Wu family that any Wu family man who marries a daughter of the Song family must treat his wife with respect and not take concubines.

Originally, men in the Wu family have always been able to take concubines. If they are not satisfied with one wife, they can marry another concubine from other collateral families three years after marriage, with a maximum of one wife and one concubine;

if they hold an important position in the Right Army Commander's Office, they can marry another wife, with a maximum of one wife and two concubines; and Wu Shutong, the Grand Commander, can marry three wives, that is, one wife and three concubines.

The main reason for limiting the number of concubines is that the Wu family has too many descendants, and even with so many collateral families, they cannot provide enough for everyone to marry and take concubines at will.

The collateral families have no status, and the wives who are married off have even less status. If their husbands want to marry more, they dare not say a word.

Now that the Song family has produced Song Ruyu, the golden phoenix, Wu Shutong no longer looks at her with contempt, but really wants to be deeply tied to the Song family, giving the Song family a higher status, more resources, and more respect for the Song family's wives. In this way, the two families will gradually develop from a master-servant relationship to a real in-law relationship, which is naturally beneficial to the cultivation of emotions.

Wu Shutong, who was in a much better mood, couldn't help but sigh: "The Right Army Governor's Office is proud to have a genius like Ruyu. Once a person realizes the truth, his life cycle is measured in hundreds of years. If Ruyu's future achievements can be comparable to the three elders, or even surpass them, it will be a great thing for our lineage. Even though the Lord Ying is the ancestor of my Wu family, there are too many heirs in the Wu family, and the Lord Ying will not show extra favor to us. But Ruyu is different. If she becomes a great talent in the future, we can get direct benefits."

The four former earls could all get elixirs from Sara regularly. For them, those elixirs could improve their cultivation or spiritual energy. For those who have not realized the truth, they could prolong their lifespan, which is similar to Charlie's rejuvenation pills. Song Ruyu will definitely receive the same or even better treatment in the future.

Sara would give some care to the heirs of the Wu family who held important positions, but that care was fair. If the other four great governors could get the elixir that guaranteed them to live to 120 years old, Wu Shutong would not be able to live to 130 years old.

But if Song Ruyu was willing, he only needed to give Wu Shutong some elixirs in private, and he would have a chance to live to 150 years old or even older.

Andre on the side naturally knew what Wu Shutong was thinking, and hurriedly said, "Minister Song is very respectful to the Grand Commander, so he must be a grateful person. The Grand Commander also looks up to her family, which is a huge favor to her. If Minister Song succeeds in the future, he will definitely not forget the Grand Commander's kindness!"

Wu Shutong laughed and said, “Hahaha, that would be great!”

After that, he said to himself, “I’m going to call Ruyu and ask her to take good care of this lucky general. After she completes the task of the major change, I’ll give her a month’s leave in the name of her meritorious service as a commander-in-chief, so that she can go back to the Song family to accompany her family.”

At this moment, Duke Mining in Morocco.

Chapter 7064

The heavy mining machinery from Liebherr is running at full speed. The heavy mining trucks with a load of more than 300 tons are running back and forth in the phosphate mining areas of Duke Mining, creating waves of white storms on the white land. charlie looked at these trucks that were almost three stories high and couldn’t help but feel jealous. If these things were shipped to Syria to help Wanlong Temple build a base and permanent fortifications, it would definitely be twice the result with half the effort. If Hamid got a few of them, he could take over a few hills in the base.

He also knew that these mining trucks would be burned in two days, and he definitely couldn’t take them away. He could only buy a new batch and ship them to the Middle East.

Song Ruyu, who was standing aside, had a look of despair on her face. Although she didn’t dare to escape from charlie, she really didn’t want to be coerced by charlie. Not to mention whether she would be considered a defector by the Poqing Society after he took her away, even if the Poqing Society thought she was kidnapped or killed, her people would lose their greatest support in the future. It would be difficult to change their fate.

Just when she was feeling hopeless, the cell phone in her pocket suddenly vibrated.

She quickly looked at charlie and was about to speak, but charlie spoke first: “Is it a call?”

Song Ruyu nodded and said respectfully: “It should be.”

charlie said: “Take it out and see who called. I’ll ask you to answer it.”

“Yes...” Song Ruyu responded respectfully, then took out the special cell phone. Seeing the words “Grand Commander” written on it, she immediately said to charlie: “Mr. Wade, it’s the Grand Commander Wu Shutong who called.”

charlie said: “Turn on the hands-free mode. If he asks, just say everything is normal. I want to warn you that if you play tricks, you may kill more than 10,000 dead soldiers, cavalry guards and their families. In that case, I will kill you and all your clansmen to pay for their lives.”

Song Ruyu's expression was stern, and he quickly said: "Mr. Wade, don't worry, I know how to answer."

"Okay." Charlie nodded and said, "Answer it."

Song Yuru immediately pressed the answer button and turned on the speakerphone, and said to the phone, "Grand Commander, what instructions do you have for your subordinates?" Wu Shutong said with a smile, "Mr. Song, I called to ask about your preparations for the big change."

Song Ruyu said, "Everything is ready. The first batch of big changes will start on time in two days. Please rest assured, Grand Commander!"

Wu Shutong smiled and said, "I am naturally a million times more confident in Mr. Song's work. I called to tell you, Mr. Song, that after the big change is successfully completed, you will return to the Governor's Mansion to report to the Tongzhi. After reporting, you can get a one-month vacation and go back to see your family. You have been in the Governor's Mansion for two years, and you haven't been back yet, right?"

According to convention, if someone from a collateral family takes up a post at the Governor's Office, they are generally not allowed to go home.

After all, the Po Qing Society is not an ancient government office. Even if an outsider holds an important position, he is equivalent to a slave of the Wu family. Naturally, he is a slave, so there is no concept of free vacation.

Moreover, once an outsider enters the Governor's Office, he is considered to have mastered the core secrets and cannot leave at will.

Wu Shutong wants to give Song Ruyu a vacation, which is considered a special matter and a backdoor. He also has to take certain risks for her. If she encounters any trouble during her return home, or if it brings any bad influence to the Po Qing Society, Wu Shutong will be responsible for it.

Even though Song Ruyu is very talented, she is still a girl in her early twenties. She has been away from home for two years and is definitely homesick. For her, being able to go home for vacation was something she didn't even dare to think about before.

If it were in the past, Song Ruyu would probably jump for joy when she heard the news.

But now, when she heard the news, she was not excited at all, but extremely sad.

Now that she was in Charlie Wade's hands, there was no way to escape, and it was completely unknown whether she could see her family in the future. With sadness in her heart, Song Ruyu naturally did not bother to respond to Wu Shutong's words.

Wu Shutong heard that there was no movement on the other end of the phone, and thought that Song Ruyu must be excited and surprised, so she couldn't speak, so he smiled and said: "Ruyu, you don't have to be too excited. If the old lady Yingzhu appreciates you and is willing to bring you to her side to train, your family will surely be prosperous. By then, maybe you can go home often."

Then, Wu Shutong said: "Ruyu, if you become a celebrity around Yingzhu in the future, don't forget the training and care of the Right Army Governor's Office for you!"

When Wu Shutong painted a pie for Song Ruyu, he naturally didn't know Song Ruyu's current situation.

When Song Ruyu heard what he said, she felt even worse.

Seeing that she was silent, Charlie Wade on the side immediately pointed to the mobile phone and gave her a look.

Song Ruyu knew that Charlie Wade wanted her to respond, so she didn't dare to act rashly, so she hurriedly said: "Thank you, Grand Commander! Please rest assured, I will do my best and live up to the expectations of the Lord and the Grand Commander!"

Wu Shutong smiled with satisfaction and said: "Okay, I'm glad you have this determination!"

After that, he asked Song Ruyu: "How is the preparation for the big change at Duke Mining going?"

Song Ruyu hurriedly said: "Reply to the Grand Commander, the batch list of the big change has been drawn up, and I have already communicated it clearly to the Cavalry Guards. I am waiting for your next notice."

"Okay." Wu Shutong said, "The night after tomorrow, the first group of members from your side will board the plane. The plane will be waiting at Casablanca Airport the day after tomorrow afternoon. You don't have to worry about how to send them out. Moore Trade has prepared the vehicles. They will arrange for cars to pick up people at Duke Mining. Our statement to the outside world is that Duke Mining arranges outstanding employees to go abroad for vacation."

Wu Shutong said, "In addition, the first batch of Cavalry Guards who will be exchanged to your side will arrive in Casablanca in the second half of the night after tomorrow. Moore Trade will be responsible for transportation at that time. You just need to receive them at Duke Mining."

Song Ruyu said, "I understand, please rest assured, Grand Commander!"

"Okay." Wu Shutong smiled cheerfully, "Okay, I won't bother you any more. I will go back to report after I finish the big change. I'll hang up first."

Song Ruyu said respectfully, "Please hang up first, Grand Commander.

Song Ruyu said respectfully, "Please hang up first, Grand Commander."

Wu Shutong hummed and then hung up the phone, while Song Ruyu stared at the phone, biting her lower lip, without saying a word.

Charlie Wade on the side said to himself: "Your Grand Commander asked you to go back and report to the Tongzhi, which means that he may not be able to go back for a while."

Song Ruyu said: "The Grand Commander has important matters to attend to."

"What bullshit important matters." Charlie Wade said disdainfully: "It's nothing more than going to Nigeria to be a servant for the three elders."

Song Ruyu exclaimed: “You...how do you know?”

charlie Wade said casually: “Of course I know, Sara arranged for the three elders to go to Nigeria, is it to lure me into the game? But she never dreamed that I was not targeting Nigeria, but Morocco.”

Song Ruyu couldn't help but look up to charlie Wade's strength.

She didn't expect that charlie Wade actually knew about this matter. She was not qualified to know about this matter. It was the Grand Commander Wu Shutong who made an exception and told her before.

Of course, she also knew that Wu Shutong had repeatedly made exceptions for her just to win her over. Originally, she also planned to accept Wu Shutong's favor and hoped that he would take better care of the Song family in the future. Now it seems that everything is in vain.

Thinking of charlie Wade's strong personal strength and intelligence ability, and the fact that he was able to organize the secret evacuation of tens of thousands of people, it seems that there must be strong human, material and financial resources behind him, and he should be able to compete with the Poqing Society. So an idea suddenly flashed through her mind, and then she knelt down directly in front of charlie Wade, begging: “Mr. Wade, you have great magical powers, and you can break the strange poison in the body of the Cavalry Guard. I beg you to save my family from the water and fire! As long as Mr. Wade can save my family, I am willing to work hard for you all my life and follow your lead!”

charlie Wade asked curiously: “Do you want me to take all your family away from France?”

“Yes!” Song Ruyu nodded heavily and said with great expectation: “The Poqing Society has been using strange poisons to control the Song family, so there is no supervision over the Song family. If you can arrange for someone to take them out of France and help them detoxify, they can get rid of the fate of being played by the Wu family forever!”

charlie Wade said: “If I take you away alone, Sara will still think that you were killed or kidnapped by me. If I take your family away, she will clearly realize that you have betrayed her. Have you ever thought about those people in your Song family who have married into the Wu family? Even if I can take your family in France away quietly, I don't have the ability to take those who are in the Wu family away. Aren't you afraid that Sara and the Wu family will be angry and take them out on them?”

“This...” Song Ruyu struggled all of a sudden.

The adult female members of the Song family have basically married into the Wu family. Once the Song family defected, these married family members would inevitably be implicated.

With Sara's vengeful character, she will definitely kill all the Song family members to set an example.

When Song Ruyu heard this, her face, which was originally full of expectation, suddenly turned pale.

There are many women in the Song family who are married out. As Charlie Wade said, once the Song family defected, these people would die.

Thinking of this, Song Ruyu murmured dejectedly: "Mr. Wade is right. I haven't considered it enough. It would be best for them if I disappear."

Seeing her worried face, Charlie Wade said calmly: "Miss Song, don't worry too much. When we evacuate, I will leave your sword here. By then, this place will become a ruin. The Po Qing Society will definitely think that you have been killed by me. By then, in their eyes, you will also be regarded as sacrificing your life for the Po Qing Society. They will definitely treat your family well. After I kill Sara and the three elders, I will definitely help you reunite with your family and give freedom to all your clansmen."

At this point, Charlie Wade changed the subject and reminded: "But if you are fickle and wavering, all my promises to you will naturally not be fulfilled. I also hope that you can recognize the situation and correct your mentality."

Song Ruyu knew that Charlie Wade was hitting her. It seemed that her entanglement and struggle made him dissatisfied, so she said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, don't worry. In addition to obeying your orders, I will not think of anything else!"
