Chapter 7066

Wu Shutong hummed and then hung up the phone, while Song Ruyi stared at the phone, biting her lower lip, without saying a word.

charlie Wade on the side said to himself: “Your Grand Commander asked you to go back and report to the Tongzhi, which means that he may not be able to go back for a while.”

Song Ruyi said: “The Grand Commander has important matters to attend to.”

“What bullshit important matters.” charlie Wade said disdainfully: “It’s nothing more than going to Nigeria to be a servant for the three elders.”

Song Ruyi exclaimed: “You...how do you know?”

charlie Wade said casually: “Of course I know, Sara arranged for the three elders to go to Nigeria, is it to lure me into the game? But she never dreamed that I was not targeting Nigeria, but Morocco.”

Song Ruyi couldn’t help but look up to charlie Wade’s strength.

She didn’t expect that charlie Wade actually knew about this matter. She was not qualified to know about this matter. It was the Grand Commander Wu Shutong who made an exception and told her before.

Of course, she also knew that Wu Shutong had repeatedly made exceptions for her just to win her over. Originally, she also planned to accept Wu Shutong’s favor and hoped that he would take better care of the Song family in the future. Now it seems that everything is in vain.

Thinking of charlie Wade’s strong personal strength and intelligence ability, and the fact that he was able to organize the secret evacuation of tens of thousands of people, it seems that there must be strong human, material and financial resources behind him, and he should be able to compete with the Poqing Society. So an idea suddenly flashed through her mind, and then she knelt down directly in front of charlie Wade, begging: “Mr. Wade, you have great magical powers, and you can break the strange poison in the body of the Cavalry Guard. I beg you to save my family from the water and fire! As long as Mr. Wade can save my family, I am willing to work hard for you all my life and follow your lead!”

charlie Wade asked curiously: “Do you want me to take all your family away from France?”

“Yes!” Song Ruyi nodded heavily and said with great expectation: “The Poqing Society has been using strange poisons to control the Song family, so there is no supervision over the Song family. If you can arrange for someone to take them out of France and help them detoxify, they can get rid of the fate of being played by the Wu family forever!”

charlie Wade said: “If I take you away alone, Sara will still think that you were killed or kidnapped by me. If I take your family away, she will clearly realize that you have betrayed her. Have you ever thought about those people in your Song family who have married into the Wu family? Even if I can take your family in France away quietly, I don’t have the ability to take those who are in the Wu family away. Aren’t you afraid that Sara and the Wu family will be angry and take them out on them?”

“This...” Song Ruyu struggled all of a sudden.

The adult female members of the Song family have basically married into the Wu family. Once the Song family defected, these married family members would inevitably be implicated.

With Sara’s vengeful character, she will definitely kill all the Song family members to set an example.

When Song Ruyu heard this, her face, which was originally full of expectation, suddenly turned pale.

There are many women in the Song family who are married out. As charlie Wade said, once the Song family defected, these people would die.

Thinking of this, Song Ruyu murmured dejectedly: “Mr. Wade is right. I haven’t considered it enough. It would be best for them if I disappear.”

Seeing her worried face, charlie Wade said calmly: “Miss Song, don’t worry too much. When we evacuate, I will leave your sword here. By then, this place will become a ruin. The Po Qing Society will definitely think that you have been killed by me. By then, in their eyes, you will also be regarded as sacrificing your life for the Po Qing Society. They will definitely treat your family well. After I kill Sara and the three elders, I will definitely help you reunite with your family and give freedom to all your clansmen.”

At this point, charlie Wade changed the subject and reminded: “But if you are fickle and wavering, all my promises to you will naturally not be fulfilled. I also hope that you can recognize the situation and correct your mentality.”

Song Ruyu knew that charlie Wade was hitting her. It seemed that her entanglement and struggle made him dissatisfied, so she said respectfully: “Mr. Wade, don’t worry. In addition to obeying your orders, I will not think of anything else!

As night fell, several container trucks from logistics companies quietly drove into Duke Mining.

These vehicles were coming from the direction of Casablanca, with each vehicle leaving a gap of about ten minutes between them. After the vehicles arrived at Duke Mining, the families of the deceased soldiers who were waiting there began to board the vehicles according to the divided queues.

Due to the tight time schedule and heavy workload, everyone had to temporarily squeeze into the container, but fortunately the journey was not far and the arrival time was two hours at most.

Abbas also arrived at Duke Mining with the first truck.

When he saw charlie, he clasped his hands together and said respectfully: “Mr. Wade, the food factory has been settled, and the people who went there tonight are also ready to receive them.”

charlie nodded and asked, “Are there enough food and daily necessities over there?”

“Sufficient.” Abbas said, “Inspector Li has thought it through. When we came from Casablanca, we also purchased a batch of food. We have also chosen a disposal site for the domestic waste in the next few days. After we evacuate, we won’t leave any clues. No one will be able to tell that thousands or even tens of thousands of people once lived in the food factory.”

Abbas then added, “By the way, Mr. Wade, Inspector Li asked us to fetch some drinking water from Duke Mining. He said that if the food factory consumes too much tap water in the next few days, there will be some hidden dangers.”

charlie smiled and said, “Inspector Li is really thoughtful. I will have someone tell them to prepare some drinking water to be transported with the truck.”

Abbas continued, “Mr. Wade, Inspector Li also asked me to help collect some facial and body features of the Cavalry Guards, and then give them to the AI to generate the video.”

charlie nodded. Li Yalin planned to fabricate the illusion that a part of the Cavalry Guards escaped through the port to confuse the audience. Naturally, the more realistic the character effect, the better. As long as there are detailed physical characteristics of these people, it will be difficult to distinguish between the real and the fake.

Then, charlie pointed at Song Ruyu beside him and said to Abbas: “Abbas, let me introduce you, this is Miss Song Ruyu Song.”

After that, he said to Song Ruyu: “Miss Song, this is the master of the Wanlong Palace, Abbas.”

Abbas said to Song Ruyu very politely: “Hello, Miss Song!”

Song Ruyu was a little surprised. She didn’t expect that the man who was so respectful to charlie was actually the master of Wanlong Palace.

She had heard about the situation of the Wanlong Palace before. Although its strength was far inferior to that of the Poqing Society, in the field of mercenaries, its strength was second only to Blackwater, and it was considered a very powerful force.

But I didn't expect that Wanlong Palace would actually work for charlie.

Surprised, Song Ruyu also said to Abbas very politely: "Hello, Palace Master Wan."

charlie looked at Abbas and said, "Abbas, Miss Song is a martial arts master who reached the realm of perfection at the age of sixteen. If there is a chance, communicate more with Miss Song in the future to see if you can gain something."

charlie's plain words sounded like thunder to Abbas!

charlie’s plain words sounded like thunder to Abbas!

He asked in shock: “Mr. Wade...you...you said Miss Song had already reached the state of enlightenment at the age of sixteen?!”

charlie nodded: “That’s right, she entered the realm of enlightenment at the age of sixteen, and attained enlightenment at the age of twenty-two. Miss Song’s talent is truly unique in my life.”

Abbas’s heart was already filled with turmoil at this moment, and he felt extremely ashamed.

When he first attacked Ye Ling Mountain, it was the proudest and most arrogant moment in his life. At that time, he was just an eight-star warrior and had not even reached the great perfection of the Ming Realm.

And his master Qiu Zhiyuan was stuck in the state of great perfection in the bright realm for thirty years. For thirty years, he was unable to break through to the dark realm!

But this seemingly delicate girl in front of me could actually reach the state of perfection at the age of sixteen!

Bright Realm, Dark Realm, Transformation Realm, Grandmaster Realm. Even breaking through to the Dark Realm is as difficult as ascending to heaven. What kind of genius must one be to break through to the Transformation Realm? !

Besides, he had never seen a master who had reached the state of enlightenment in his entire thirty years of life!

Abbas was extremely shocked, and suddenly felt a little depressed.

He felt that compared with Song Ruyu, he was really not up to par. The other person reached the realm of transformation at the age of sixteen. If he didn't have Charlie's help, it would still be unknown whether he could break through to the dark realm at the age of sixty. The gap between them was simply like heaven and earth!

Seeing his frustrated expression, Charlie said calmly: "Abbas, there will always be a gap between people. Don't be too self-deprecating. This is true for cultivation and even more so for life. Many people are still poorly clothed and hungry when they are sixty years old, while some people have inherited trillions of assets since they were born;"

"Some people are worth over 100 million yuan when they are 60 years old. Looking at the world, they can be said to be successful, but compared with those Internet tycoons who are worth hundreds of billions in their twenties, there is still a world of difference."

At this point, Charlie paused for a moment and continued, "Some people make an average of one hour more money than many people can earn in their entire lives. This is how people are. No matter how far or how fast you go, you will find at some point that there are people who have gone further and faster than you. At this time, you don't need to feel sorry for yourself. Just walk your own way. This is true for making money and practicing. You need to have a positive attitude."

Abbas nodded slightly and said respectfully: "Your subordinate... Your subordinate understands!"

Charlie smiled calmly and said to Abbas, "Okay, hurry up and send them over one after another. Two days later, we will give Sara a big surprise!"

Soon, vehicles loaded with the families of the deceased soldiers and drinking water left Duke Mining one after another.

Abbas did not leave with the car, but asked Yin Xiaoyang to gather a group of cavalry guards. He turned around and took a 360-degree video of each person.

After the first batch of logistics convoys arrived at the food factory, they immediately rushed back with empty trucks to take over the second batch. By dawn, all the families of the deceased soldiers had been transported to the food factory.

In order to avoid being captured by satellites, all transfer operations were stopped before dawn. Li Yalin ordered all logistics vehicles to leave the food factory before dawn, and then required that no one in the food factory leave the factory.

These assassins and their families had long been trained by the Anti-Qing Society to have extremely high levels of discipline and obedience. Although everyone was extremely excited about escaping death, they still carried out Li Yalin's requirements to the letter.

Chapter 7069

The food factory is quiet during the day. Although it is a bit crowded with thousands of people here, the order is maintained very well. Even if you pass by the door, you won't notice that there are thousands of people crowded here.

In order to minimize the risk of outside notice, Li Yalin built a soundproof room within a room in the factory. Babies under two years old live here with their mothers to ensure that the occasional crying of the babies will not be heard outside the food factory.

For safety reasons, the food Li Yalin provided to all the suicide soldiers and their families was basically fast food.

The food factory itself had a large stock of canned sardines, and Li Yalin also prepared bread, biscuits, canned red meat and fresh vegetables that did not need to be heated or cooked for them in advance. In this way, there was no need to make a big fuss about eating for thousands of people. Food and drinking water were distributed to each person in a fixed amount, and there was also a sealed bag for garbage. After everyone finished their meal, they consciously put all the garbage in the sealed bag, which was then collected and summarized by the person in charge of each group.

All the domestic waste generated during the day will be loaded into logistics vehicles after nightfall. There happens to be a landfill on the way to Duke Mining. The soldiers of Wanlong Palace will quietly send the waste to the landfill on the way, and burn and bury it together with the large amount of waste in the landfill, so that it can be done seamlessly.

The refinery had already produced the phosphate that needed to be delivered on the last day, one day in advance, on the night of the second day, and then all the cavalry guards in charge of production of the Second Battalion evacuated.

All the families of the Cavalry Guards, as well as the vast majority of the Cavalry Guards, were evacuated before dawn.

Time has passed, and it has entered the last day of the plan.

At this time, the only people left at Duke Mining, besides charlie, Abbas and Song Ruyu, were the transport team from the third battalion.

The Cavalry Guards of the Third Battalion were loading the last batch of phosphates into empty railway cars, waiting for the afternoon train to arrive and transport them away.

In order to prevent the outside world from noticing anything unusual, the First Battalion also left behind dozens of cavalry guards responsible for mining, who continued to pretend to work in the mining area. After all, it would be somewhat abnormal if mining in such a large mining area stopped during the day.

At noon, Yin Xiaoyang received a call, and then immediately came to report to charlie: "Mr. Wade, the people from Moore Trade just contacted me. They will come to pick up the first batch of members for the major replacement at twelve o'clock in the evening. Let me be ready."

charlie nodded and asked him: "Have you confirmed what time the Moroccan National Railway train will depart?"

Yin Xiaoyang replied: "The national railway will arrive around four o'clock, and the goods have been loaded."

After that, Yin Xiaoyang asked charlie: "By the way, Mr. Wade, when are we going to withdraw?"

charlie said: "After dark, you will immediately arrange for everyone to gather all the engineering vehicles to the office building. The oil stored in the underground oil tanks will be pumped out half and poured into the wells, and the other half will be pumped into all the buildings. How long will it take to complete this?"

Yin Xiaoyang thought for a moment and said, "Two hours at most."

"Okay!" charlie nodded and said, "After you finish, evacuate immediately. I will stay here and wait for the people from Moore Trade to arrive before starting the fire."

Yin Xiaoyang asked: "Mr. Wade, isn't it too risky for you to stay here? Why don't we just set this place on fire at ten o'clock and evacuate together? What do you think?"

charlie said: "Although the results are the same, I hope that when they first arrive here, they will find that there is no one here. When they are confused, they will see that the entire Duke Mining is engulfed in flames in an instant. They will be shocked and horrified. They will definitely take a close-up first-hand video as soon as possible. I want Sara to take a good look and see it clearly!
