

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7107 –

Until now, Wu Shuhang still couldn't believe that the man in front of him had taken the legendary Remodeling Pill.

Just by listening to the effect, you can tell that this kind of pill is extremely precious. Even his own father might not be willing to give it to his son, not to mention that the man in front of him is the biggest enemy of the Poqing Society for hundreds of years.

However, after taking the pill, he immediately felt that the wound on his left wrist suddenly became hot and itchy, which was very uncomfortable.

charlie Wade was naturally not as considerate to Wu Shuhang as he was to Li Yalin, Ito Yuhiko or Kairi. When they took the Remodeling Pill, charlie Wade specially asked them to take the medicine in a bathtub full of mud to prevent their discomfort. Wu Shuhang naturally didn't have such a good life, so he could only bear this feeling.

Soon, his wound was like tens of thousands of ants constantly gnawing on it, painful and itchy, and it was getting more and more swollen.

Just when he was in great pain, he suddenly found that his flat wound suddenly began to bulge.

Then, a small bud-like thing grew out at the top of the bulge. The bud continued to grow and grow like a germinating seed, and then five very thin buds grew out at the tip.

At this time, Wu Shuhang had completely ignored the pain and itchiness that was scratching his heart and liver, but stared at the bud in horror. He had seen that five small buds had grown on this big bud, and it had already taken shape as a palm!

His eyes widened, staring at the miniature palm, and then looked at charlie Wade, muttering: "This... this... is this really a newly grown left hand?"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "It's genuine. In a few minutes, your left hand will be restored to its original state."

Wu Shuhang was already extremely excited in his heart!

However, in addition to being excited, the look in his eyes when he looked at charlie Wade became more puzzled. After pondering for a long time, he still asked: "This sir... I... I really don't understand, since you are an enemy of the Poqing Society, why did you give such a precious elixir to me for nothing?"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "I am not an enemy of your Poqing Society, but an enemy of Sara. In my opinion, the other members of the Poqing Society are all poor creatures who have been poisoned and enslaved by her."

After that, he looked at Wu Shuhang and said: "And I know why you lost your left hand. It must be my actions in Duke Mining that made Sara lose face, and she had to drag you out to take the blame."

When Wu Shuhang heard this, he thought to himself: "Doesn't this person know that I am a descendant of the British Lord? Does he still think that I am the same as those cavalry guards? Were you forced by the Lord?"

Thinking of this, he quickly followed Charlie Wade's words and said, "Sir, you are so right. We are in this environment and have no choice. We have to do whatever the Lord tells us to do. She wants me to use my left hand as a price, so I can only cut off my left hand obediently..."

Charlie Wade said with sympathy, "You are really pitiful to be controlled by this old witch who has lived for 400 years, don't you think?"

Wu Shuhang subconsciously did not dare to say such treasonous words, but the current situation was different. This person seemed to regard himself as a victim of the Lord and gave him an extremely precious Reshaping Pill. Although he did not dare to fight against the Lord with him, he must not say anything bad.

So, he sighed and said with a sad face: "You are so right. This person has a twisted mind and is cruel and ruthless. In her eyes, people like us are like ants on the roadside. She can step on a few of them at any time when she is in a bad mood."

As he said that, he couldn't help but look at his left hand. At this time, the granulation had completely grown into the shape of a palm, but the size of this palm was still very small, even smaller than that of a newborn baby.

However, although the palm was pitifully small, the nerves seemed to have been connected to him. He tried to control his left hand and found that the small left hand could actually make any movements at will.

This made him extremely excited.

He couldn't help but said excitedly: "Sir... this elixir is really amazing! The hand that was completely cut off can actually grow back again, which is incredible!"

Charlie Wade nodded and asked him with a smile: "I gave you such a precious elixir, shouldn't you also express your gratitude?"

Wu Shuhang quickly said: "Sir, please tell me anything. As long as I can do it, I will do it at all costs!"

At this time, Wu Shuhang had already thought it through.

Since the man in front of him could give him such a precious elixir for nothing, he would definitely not threaten his life. The biggest purpose of giving him the elixir should be to turn him against himself and make him his insider, or directly be loyal to him like those cavalry guards he took away.

If he wants to make him an insider, then he will pretend to agree to him. If he wants to take me away, then he will fool him and make him think that it is more valuable to keep him in the Poqing Society as an insider.
