

The amazing son in law - The Amazing Son In Law

Chapter 7110

“Not really.” charlie Wade smiled and said, “After he took the Remodeling Pill and his left hand grew out, I chopped off his right hand.”

“Ah?!” Li Yalin exclaimed, “You...you chopped off his right hand?”

“Yes.” charlie Wade smiled and said, “I don’t know him, so I can’t give him a pill for nothing. Didn’t Sara have someone cut off his left hand? Then I will let his left hand grow out, and then cut off his right hand. I want to let Sara know that she can’t beat me. If she is not convinced, she can give Wu Shuhang another Reshaping Pill, and after his right hand grows out, I will cut off his left hand again. Otherwise, everyone who sees Wu Shuhang will think that she lost to me in front of Wu Shuhang’s two hands. I just want to use Wu Shuhang’s grown left hand to slap her, Sara’s face.”

Li Yalin patted his forehead and said with emotion, “Mr. Wade, you really spent a lot of money to slap Sara in the face...”

As he said that, he couldn’t help but praise, “But this should be the most magical slap in the face I have ever heard of in my life. If it really gets out in the Poqing Society, Sara’s prestige will be greatly affected. From this point of view, your pill is still worth it.”

Ten minutes later, Andre rushed back from the city center.

He had finally bought a non-practical prosthetic hand for Wu Shuhang. The prosthetic hand was made of silicone and could be put on the wrist. It could not be used for grasping or holding. It was just like an artificial eye, and it was just for aesthetics.

At this time, Wu Shuhang was about to faint and was extremely weak. Fortunately, when he lost too much blood, the wound on his wrist suddenly stopped bleeding by itself, allowing him to breathe a sigh of relief.

Just when he felt that the power that was restraining his vocal cords was gradually disappearing, he heard a knock on the door outside, and then he heard Andre say outside: “Grand Commander, your subordinates are back.”

Wu Shuhang shouted at the top of his lungs: “Commander-in-Chief Yuan, hurry up! Save me!”

When Andre heard the voice calling for help from inside, he was so frightened that his whole body shuddered, and then he kicked the door open and rushed in.

At this time, the room was already filled with blood. Grand Admiral Wu Shuhang was slumped on the ground, holding his right wrist with his left hand, his face full of pain.

Andre did not see any signs of fighting inside, but saw Wu Shuhang holding his wrist covered with blood. He did not react for a moment, and subconsciously asked: “Grand Admiral, what’s wrong with you? Didn’t the Great Elder treat the wound on your wrist for you? Why is it bleeding again?”

Wu Shuhang cursed angrily: “Open your dog eyes and see which hand this is!”

Andre stood opposite Wu Shuhang, and his left hand was facing his right hand, so he said confusedly: “Isn’t this the left hand? Grand Admiral, what’s going on with you?”

Wu Shuhang cursed: “Look carefully! This is the right hand! It’s the right hand! Just now, that mysterious man came and cut off my right hand!”

“This...what on earth is going on...am I dreaming?!”

Andre was stunned. After he distinguished Wu Shuhang’s left and right hands, countless questions suddenly surged in his mind. The biggest question was that before he left, his left hand was broken and his right hand was fine. After he came back, he said that his right hand was cut off by a mysterious person, but wasn’t his left hand cut off by the great elder before? How did it appear now? Is it possible that he is dazzled? It’s no wonder that Andre was stunned. If anyone else were to encounter such a thing, they would probably have the same feeling as him, that the world seemed to be crazy, so crazy that he could no longer tell whether it was a dream or reality.

Seeing that he was still stunned, Wu Shuhang angrily scolded: “Why are you still standing there! Pull me up first! I want to report to Lord Ying immediately!”
