

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7431

charlie Wade even hesitated about the next day's performance.

He considered having Stefanie sun and Tawana replaced by other dancers, but both strongly opposed the idea.

Stefanie sun believed that no one else could achieve the same effect on stage as charlie Wade.

Meanwhile, Tawana understood that it was likely her overly enthusiastic behavior on stage the night before that had caused trouble for him.

She said sincerely, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I promise I won't go overboard today..."

Seeing Tawana's earnest attitude, charlie Wade felt that refusing her again would make him seem petty, so he nodded and said, "Alright then, it's settled. No overly intimate interactions in the upcoming performances."

Tawana nodded eagerly and assured him, "Don't worry, it won't happen again. My agent even talked to me about it yesterday..."

charlie Wade's wary expression made Stefanie sun chuckle. She covered her mouth and smiled, "So there is something Brother charlie Wade is afraid of."

Then she took Tawana's arm and teased, "I've never seen Brother charlie Wade this nervous before. I guess your boldness really gave him a scare."

charlie Wade rolled his eyes at her, muttering inwardly, "It's not just her I'm afraid of... you're no better. You've probably picked up all her bad habits."

Because the previous night's performance was so electrifying and had stayed on the global entertainment hot search for an entire day, the audience was now eagerly anticipating Stefanie sun's next performance—and especially excited to see Tawana's wild energy live.

When Stefanie sun performed the song "Assassin" again, charlie Wade's appearance on stage drew thunderous cheers from the crowd.

Though the audience didn't know who charlie Wade was, his figure, presence, and every move during the sword dance felt flawless and captivating. As the younger crowd might say—his performance radiated pure sexual tension.

Even though charlie Wade's face was hidden, his entire presence was mesmerizing. The mask added an air of mystery that only made him seem more perfect, sparking even more curiosity.

After all, everyone has different preferences when it comes to looks. Some men are handsome but lack masculinity; others are rugged but not classically attractive. Some people like long faces, others prefer square ones. Some like thick brows and large eyes, while others are drawn to single eyelids.

If Charlie Wade didn't wear a mask, there would inevitably be people who found fault with his appearance.

But once he put on the mask, there was nothing to criticize about him.

When Charlie Wade began his sword dance, it became a unique audio-visual spectacle for the audience.

As soon as Tawana stepped onto the stage, the crowd erupted into deafening cheers. The audience was eagerly anticipating passionate scenes between her and the male dancers. However, Tawana was noticeably more restrained this time. Although there was some physical contact with Charlie Wade during the performance, she ultimately held back and didn't attempt to kiss him.

As the song neared its end, the anticipated kiss hadn't happened. Fans in the audience began waving their light sticks, and someone shouted "Kiss!" in English. Soon, the entire crowd joined in, chanting "Kiss! Kiss!" in unison.

Tawana had just finished singing, and it was time for Charlie Wade and Stefanie Sun to leave the stage and let Tawana continue solo.
