

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7440

charlie Wade had no idea he'd already been exposed.

With no time to wait for Tawana's performance to end, he greeted her agent briefly and left early with Stefanie sun.

On the way to the airport, charlie Wade told her, "Stefanie, you finally have a chance to rest. You've been busy with four performances alongside Tawana these past few days. Don't run around anymore. Just stay home and spend some time with Uncle sun and Aunt Angie."

Stefanie sun smiled and teased, "Brother charlie Wade, are you just worried I'll keep joining Tawana's tour as her guest performer?"

Tawana had scheduled twenty shows across China and had completed only eight so far—twelve more remained.

Since charlie Wade had accepted the role of Feng Shui Director, he was committed to overseeing the entire tour.

Naturally, Stefanie sun wanted to collaborate with Tawana again.

The next stop was Shanghai. She could easily fly there, perform as a guest, and spend more time with charlie Wade.

But unexpectedly, charlie Wade was urging her to stay home with her parents—as if he didn't want her coming along.

charlie Wade felt a little awkward when he realized she'd seen through him.

He tried to explain: "It's not that I don't want you to come—it's just, if you do, Tawana might ask to work with me again. I can't handle her clinging to me on stage, hugging and kissing like last time..."

Stefanie sun couldn't help but laugh, her eyes crinkling with amusement. Clearly, Tawana had been the one throwing herself at him, and charlie Wade wasn't having it.

Come to think of it, Tawana wasn't exactly a top-tier Western beauty. Compared to the Nordic queen Helena, she didn't stand a chance.

Stefanie sun knew Helena had long been infatuated with charlie Wade. She had always been chaste, scandal-free, and had no romantic history. Yet even she hadn't managed to win charlie Wade's heart—so what chance did someone like Tawana, steeped in the entertainment world, really have?

When they arrived at the airport, Isaac Cameron was already waiting.

He'd arranged for a private aviation company to fly Stefanie sun home once charlie Wade departed.

Seeing him, Isaac Cameron said a bit sheepishly, "Master, you informed me too late. First-class is sold out. Should I coordinate with the crew to prep the Wade family's private jet for your return?"

"No need," charlie Wade said, waving his hand. "It's just me, and it's only a two-hour flight. Economy class is perfectly fine."

After saying that, charlie Wade turned to Isaac Cameron and instructed, "Make sure Stefanie gets home safely."

"Don't worry, Master," Isaac Cameron replied. "The helicopter is ready, and the flight path has been approved. It'll head straight to the Jindi Building near Miss Sun's home. We also have a car waiting to take her the rest of the way."

charlie Wade nodded and said goodbye to Stefanie sun. "Stefanie, I'll head in now. Send me a message when you get home."

Stefanie sun looked a little reluctant to part, but since Isaac Cameron was present, she held back from showing too much affection. She gently held charlie Wade's hand and asked, "Brother charlie Wade, when will you come to Eastcliff to see me again?"

charlie Wade replied, "Didn't I promise to come for your final concert in Eastcliff?"

Stefanie sun pouted slightly. "But that's so far away—at least a month after the Chinese New Year."

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Let's see how things go in the meantime. I can't make any promises right now."

Stefanie sun could only nod and say softly, "Then I'll wait to hear from you."

...

After saying goodbye to the two, charlie Wade chose a window seat at check-in, cleared security, and headed straight to the boarding gate.

Due to the tight timing, the flight had already begun boarding when he arrived.

charlie Wade joined the crowd, lined up, and boarded. Once seated, he pulled out his phone and sent a WeChat message to Claire: "Wife, I'm already on the plane. It's scheduled to take off in 20 minutes."

Claire replied, "Do you want me to drive to the airport to pick you up? It'll be early morning when you land."
