

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7775

charlie Wade's words secretly worried Lin Wan'er (Alani).

Although not many people know that Master Jingqing is a Buddhist monk, he is still very well-known in the Buddhist field as an enlightened monk.

Once he returns to China, his whereabouts will definitely be impossible to hide from charlie Wade.

In that case, once charlie Wade approaches him, he might be able to get the news that his mother, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), is still alive from him.

During a long talk with Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) mentioned that the reason she couldn't acknowledge charlie Wade was because Sara had always suspected that she was not dead. That's why, after Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) faked her death, she planted the scholar in the An family to spy on them.

Moreover, in Sara's eyes, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was the real threat, while charlie Wade, the boy who had been missing since he was eight years old, was not worth worrying about at all.

Therefore, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) felt that if she recognized charlie Wade, it would not only fail to help charlie Wade's path of revenge, but might even become a great disadvantage for him.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) also agreed with this point.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) has been able to ensure her safety all these years because she has not spread the news that she is still alive. Her subordinates are almost all the people left behind by bruce Wade. The few young people are all the children of these old men, with clean backgrounds and impeccable credentials.

On the other hand, Lin Wan'er (Alani) herself failed to do this, which led to problems within the team.

Given this situation, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) naturally couldn't let charlie Wade know that she was still alive. Otherwise, given charlie Wade's personality, he would definitely want to meet and reunite with his mother, which would put both mother and son in danger.

Therefore, in Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s view, she had to tell Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) that Jing Qing should not be allowed to return to the country, and even more so, Jing Qing should not be allowed to continue to show his face in public. Otherwise, once charlie Wade found Jing Qing, things would get out of control.

But Lin Wan'er (Alani) was also worried about one thing.

charlie Wade had just shared his analysis with him. If Master Jingqing then disappeared, charlie Wade would definitely suspect him.

Although she was immune to his psychological suggestion, she couldn't bear to lie to him. If he came to confront her and she forced herself to lie, even if charlie Wade didn't break off relations with her, an irreparable rift and estrangement would definitely develop between them.

With her sincere feelings for charlie Wade, she naturally didn't want the two of them to end up in that situation.

So, how can we have the best of both worlds?

Lin Wan'er (Alani) fell into deep thought for a moment.

Seeing that she didn't speak, charlie Wade couldn't help but ask, "What are you thinking about, Miss Lin?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) pursed her lips and said, "This servant is thinking about your cultivation level, young master."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7776

"My cultivation level?" charlie Wade asked, "Is there anything that might worry Miss Lin?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "Young Master has been in seclusion for more than ten days. He did not mention anything about his cultivation when he came out today. I suppose he did not gain much from his seclusion these past few days?"

charlie Wade was slightly taken aback, and then chuckled awkwardly, "That's right, if I can't concentrate, going into seclusion is just futile and I won't gain anything."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked him, "Young master, didn't you try that ring, or try the hand seals you learned under the Northern Lights in Northern Europe that day?"

"Uh...no..." charlie Wade said guiltily, like a child who hadn't done his homework and had been called on by the teacher, "To be honest, I couldn't calm down during my seclusion, so I didn't concentrate on tackling these two things."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) sighed and said, "Young Master, no matter who is behind Master Jingqing and Stephen Thompson, they are definitely your comrades. As you said, cultivators are extremely secretive about their identities. Master Jingqing is willing to risk his life to enlighten Miss Ito, which means he must believe that enlightening Miss Ito will be of some help to you. So he is willing to risk his life to help you. Why do you need to pry into his background? If you find him, since you are both cultivators, the chance of one cultivator being exposed is not that great, but if two cultivators meet, the chance of being exposed will increase exponentially. What good will that do?"

charlie Wade was momentarily speechless.

After thinking for a long time, he sighed and said, "I... I actually wanted to find my wife through them..."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and said, "I understand your feelings, young master. However, have you considered that there are two problems with this matter? First, there is no evidence to prove that Master Jingqing and Stephen Thompson are in the same camp. Master Jingqing risked his life to enlighten Miss Ito. If you rashly go to Master Jingqing, you will not only be impolite, but also bring unnecessary risks to Master Jingqing."

"The second problem is that Madam Wade left so that you could devote yourself to your revenge. You didn't care about that and only wanted to find her. But have you considered what would happen even if you found her? Not only would it make all of Madam Wade's efforts go to waste, but it might also expose Stephen Thompson and his entire camp because of the high-profile search and contact. It's like you and them were carefully hiding in the dark to avoid being discovered by Sara, but you didn't care about that and just rushed over and ripped off their cover. I think this behavior is still very dangerous."

Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s words opened up a new dimension for Charlie Wade to look at the problem.

Stephen Thompson and his group are definitely our allies.

Right now, everyone is lying in ambush right under the enemy's nose. If no one makes any rash moves, everyone will be safe for the time being. But if we rashly look for the other side, or even find them, we might give the enemy the opportunity to wipe us out.

At this moment, Lin Wan'er (Alani) pressed her advantage, saying, "Young Master, I believe that Madam Wade is currently the safest person. Otherwise, if she were still in Aurous Hill, she would be exposed immediately if you were exposed, and would be in extreme danger. If you adjust your mindset and prioritize improving your cultivation and dealing with Sara, her safety would be more guaranteed. Why get caught up in endless infighting with Madam Wade and Stephen Thompson at this time?"

Charlie Wade felt enlightened and sighed, "Miss Lin is right. I didn't put the big picture first."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said softly, "Young Master, there's no need to be upset. The most important thing is to truly adjust."

Charlie Wade asked her, "Miss Lin, in your opinion, what should I do now?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) pursed her lips and pondered for a moment, then suddenly raised her head and said, "Young master, how about I accompany you to Northern Europe again, while we can still see the aurora borealis?"

Charlie Wade asked in surprise, "Go to Northern Europe? You mean, go see if there are any clues about the Northern Lights?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded emphatically: "The Arctic region of Northern Europe is extremely quiet. In addition, there are no other natives around the royal family's holiday home, and tourists are not allowed to get close. Not only will you have the opportunity to see new clues about the aurora there, but even if you go into seclusion there, you will surely be able to calm your mind. I will go with you. If you go into seclusion, I can take care of you to some extent."

charlie Wade asked her, "Do you think the people or things that manipulate the aurora are still there?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) murmured, "I have a feeling, but I haven't been able to confirm it yet."

charlie Wade asked, "How does it feel?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at charlie Wade and said something shocking: "I believe that the thing that manipulated the aurora that day was not there, but on you, young master."

"What?!"

charlie Wade's eyes widened as he blurted out, "On me? What makes you say that?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said seriously, "The aurora is a natural phenomenon caused by the interaction of high-energy charged particles with the Earth's magnetic field and upper atmosphere. In other words, the aurora is like fine sand falling from the sky, which can be easily affected by minute energy and change its trajectory and shape. Have you seen a movie called Interstellar?"

charlie Wade nodded: "I've seen it."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) explained, "Based on the knowledge I've gained over the years, the underlying logic of that movie is quite scientific. When the protagonist was in a higher dimension and trying to send a message to his daughter, he used the fine dust in the room. I think that being in a higher dimension, his energy was difficult to transmit stably to three-dimensional space, so he could only try to influence the particularly elusive fine dust that was easily changed by tiny forces."

"So, if we apply this logic, then the aurora, like fine dust, is also a good way to transmit information across latitudes."

charlie Wade suddenly realized and asked her, “You mean, it’s not that something under the aurora borealis in Northern Europe is reminding me, but rather that something inside me or around me doesn’t usually have a suitable medium to transmit those messages to me, and when we are under the aurora borealis, it just happens to give it a good opportunity to transmit the message?”

“That’s right!” Lin Wan’er (Alani) nodded emphatically with a hint of joy, and said, “That’s my deduction. Perhaps it’s the ring left by my father, or perhaps some other opportunity that’s reminding you, young master. That’s why I thought of going with you to the Arctic in Northern Europe again to verify whether this deduction is right or wrong!”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) is perhaps the person in the world most capable of persuading charlie wade.

She possesses unparalleled intelligence and an extremely rich life experience. Even though she looks like the little sister next door who is actively preparing for the college entrance examination, charlie wade, who knows almost all of her secrets and experiences, not only trusts her very much but also respects her greatly.

That’s why he felt ashamed when Lin Wan’er (Alani) asked about his cultivation progress;

When Lin Wan’er (Alani) analyzed the current situation for him, he suddenly realized that seeking help from Claire, Stephen Thompson, and Master Jingqing might not bring any benefits, but it would definitely bring a lot of disadvantages. Not only would it waste his energy and time and delay the most important task at hand, but it might even bring them danger.

When Lin Wan’er (Alani) shared her thoughts on the Northern Lights in Northern Europe that night, charlie wade suddenly felt enlightened.

The mystery may not truly lie in that polar region, but within oneself. However, the power of that mystery is limited, or perhaps constrained by some kind of restriction. Thus, it is like the protagonist in “Interstellar” who hides in a higher dimension, having countless things he wants to convey to himself, but ultimately lacking the power to do so. He can only transmit information to himself by altering the aurora.

If that's the case, then my last return was rather rushed.

Because he himself didn't know if there was any further development regarding that handprint.

Thinking of this, he asked Lin Wan'er (Alani), "Miss Lin, when that mysterious being transmits messages through the aurora, does it also lose its own energy? Perhaps the handprint it showed last time was only a part of the message it wanted to convey to me."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and said, "I think it's very possible. In Interstellar, the male protagonist used binary and Morse code to transmit information from a higher dimension to his daughter with the help of sand and the hands of a watch. The efficiency of transmitting information using binary and Morse code is very slow. It takes a long time to transmit a complete message. Based on this, we can infer that what the aurora showed that night might really only be a part of it. If we want to confirm this, the best way is to go to Northern Europe again while the aurora is still there."

charlie wade agreed, saying, "That's right! Once the season when the aurora disappears comes, it's like losing the channel for it to transmit information, and then we can only wait until next winter."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "It's not that bad. If the Northern Aurora disappears, there will definitely be the Southern Aurora. From September to April of the following year, the Northern Aurora can be seen in the Northern Hemisphere, and from March to September, the Southern Aurora can be seen in the Southern Hemisphere. In other words, if you don't mind the trouble, you have a chance to see the aurora throughout the year. If you can't see the aurora in Northern Europe, I will accompany you to Antarctica. In short, wherever there is an aurora, we will chase it there."

charlie wade exclaimed in surprise, "So that's how it is! It seems I was quite ignorant. I always thought the aurora only appeared in winter, but I overlooked the fact that the seasons in the Southern Hemisphere are the opposite of ours!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked him with a smile, "So, when has Young Master decided to set off?"

charlie wade gritted his teeth and said decisively, "I'll leave tomorrow!"

Seeing his resolute attitude and the fact that they were to depart tomorrow, Lin Wan'er (Alani) was overjoyed and immediately said, "Alright! Then I will immediately begin preparations and accompany you to Northern Europe tomorrow!"

charlie wade said, "I'll let Helena know that I'll need her help with my immigration status, and I'll also need to borrow her holiday home in the Arctic for a while longer."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "Young master, you'd better bring more pills and be prepared for a protracted battle. If everything is as we think, if we haven't figured out all the secrets contained in the aurora before it disappears in Northern Europe, then I will accompany you to Antarctica."

charlie wade sighed, "Antarctica... I don't know anyone in Antarctica anymore..."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "There are no countries in the Antarctic Circle, only penguins and research stations. It's normal that you don't know anyone there. However, as far as I know, the Nordic countries also have research stations in Antarctica. If necessary, you can ask their queen for help."

charlie wade was pleasantly surprised. He hadn't expected that the Nordic countries, with part of their territory in the Arctic, would build a research station in Antarctica.

If we can't explore all the mysteries before the Northern Lights end in April, then perhaps we really should go to Antarctica. Helena might be of great help then.

Therefore, charlie wade did not dare to delay and hurriedly said, "In that case, Miss Lin, please make the preparations. I will arrange the flight and notify you as soon as the itinerary is finalized."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded, smiled sweetly, and said softly, "This servant is ready to await your orders, young master."

charlie wade looked at the kitten in his arms and asked, "By the way, this trip might take a long time. How will you settle Xiao Xiao in?"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7779

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "Let Lao Zhang and the others take care of them. Lao Zhang has taken care of all kinds of small animals for me over the years. He can raise pigs, horses, cows, sheep, cats, dogs, rats, and rabbits, and he takes better care of them than I do.”

charlie wade looked up at the lush and verdant Mother of Pu-erh Tea and said, “Then Old Zhang should be able to take care of this tea tree, right?”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) smiled and said, “The Mother of Pu-erh tea has a very strong vitality, and it is not an ordinary product. It does not need the kind of soil loosening, fertilization, and pest control that we think it needs. The only two things it fears are lack of water and fire. As long as these two things do not happen, we can rest easy.”

After saying that, she murmured softly, “Since it may be a long time before I leave, I will pick more tea leaves to take with me tonight.”

Then, Lin Wan’er (Alani) asked charlie wade, “Young Master, have you decided what to bring? Don’t forget anything important.”

charlie wade thought for a moment and said, “I don’t have any special luggage to prepare for going to Northern Europe. I can ask Helena to help me prepare a lot of daily necessities. Given my friendship with her, there’s no need to be polite about this. Letting her help me prepare will save me a lot of energy. I don’t plan to bring many things with me. It’s just the Qi-Nourishing Pills that I’ve refined and the medicine cauldron that I got from Hong Changqing, the former head of Tai Zhen Dao, a while ago.”

At this point, charlie wade suddenly thought of something and blurted out, “Besides these things, we might need to bring two more people with us.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) asked in surprise, “Who is the young master taking with him?”

charlie wade sighed, “One is Yun Rugo, the Earl of Dingyuan before the Qing-Breaking Society, and the other is Song Ruyu, the former Vice Commander of the Right Army.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) suddenly realized and said, “Is the young master worried that if we go for too long this time, something might happen that could delay the detoxification of the two of them?”

charlie wade thought to himself, “Smart,” and said frankly, “That’s right. They both genuinely want to join hands with me to fight against the Po Qing Society. However, the poison in their bodies doesn’t have much time left. I’ve been having them cultivate in seclusion for the past few days, but judging from my state during seclusion, I imagine it’s difficult for them to concentrate. If we’re going to be gone for a long time, I’m worried that it will delay my detoxification efforts, and I’m also afraid that if they don’t see me for a long time and feel that the hope of detoxification is getting slimmer, they might consider returning to the Po Qing Society for survival.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s expression immediately turned serious, and she said earnestly, “Young Master’s consideration is very correct. As people get closer to death, their mentality will mostly change. If they are at the critical moment of life and death, the only hope for survival is Sara’s antidote. It is normal for them to want to go back. Moreover, if they go back, they can exonerate themselves by saying that they were only captured by Young Master and did not leave the Po Qing Society. On the other hand, bringing back news about Young Master will definitely be a great achievement, because this is extremely important strategic intelligence for Sara.”

charlie wade nodded and said, “So it’s still more appropriate to keep them by our side.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) said, “I think so too.”

charlie wade smiled slightly and said, “In that case, I’ll take my leave now. I’ll inform Miss Lin as soon as the itinerary is finalized.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) was also quite straightforward, smiling as she said, “This servant will see you off, young master.”

After saying that, she beckoned to the kitten in charlie wade’s arms: “Little one, come here quickly, young master is leaving.”

Whether the kitten understood Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s words or her gestures, it immediately got up from charlie wade’s arms and hopped over to Lin Wan’er (Alani) in a few quick movements.

charlie wade got up and walked out, with Lin Wan’er (Alani) and Xiao Xiao, a cat and a person, following behind.

As charlie wade exited the gate of the top-floor villa, he said to Lin Wan’er (Alani), “Miss Lin, please stay. There’s no need to see me off any further.”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and said, "Then I will wait for your news, young master."

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7780

Since Claire left, Charlie Wade's sense of belonging to Aurous Hill has faded considerably.

It wasn't that he had lost his feelings for the city, but rather that the city no longer held him back by an invisible rope that made him reluctant to leave.

Now, he's like a bachelor with freedom of time and finances; once he decides where to go, he can set off immediately, and he can say he has no ties in Nanjing.

My friends in Nanjing are all doing very well now. In this city, they might have been business competitors, but because I've been connecting them over the past few years, they've become good friends, taking care of each other in life and helping each other in business.

Interestingly, the people who used to compete fiercely for resources actually earned less than those who now humbly yield to each other.

Although they are all business elites, their perspectives are sometimes constrained by territoriality. They see everyone outside themselves as rivals, which leads to serious internal friction. Once they work together to eliminate this friction, the situation will naturally improve.

This situation is somewhat similar to that of the European Union. Before the EU, Europe was devastated by both World Wars. Germany and France, longtime rivals, had been fighting since the 17th century until the end of World War II. Neither of them could establish themselves as a world power. Later, they came to terms with each other, abandoned their past prejudices, and banded together for mutual support, which led to a much brighter future.

Aside from his friends, Charlie Wade's maternal grandparents' family no longer requires his attention. After all, his maternal grandparents' family are now successful businessmen who have returned from overseas to contribute to the development of the motherland, and China attaches great importance to them.

Unless Sara is tired of living and intends to fight to the death, she would never dare to lay a hand on them again.

Moreover, he has a large pool of martial arts talents at Champs-Élysées Hot Springs, and these people in Aurous Hill can ensure the safety of his family and friends.

This is one of the many reasons why charlie wade was able to leave with peace of mind.

Upon returning to Champs-Élysées, he did not immediately go to his villa on the hillside, but instead visited the villa where Yun Rugo and Song Ruyu were in seclusion.

These two women, who had shared many hardships, had become inseparable best friends after spending time together. They were overjoyed to see charlie wade's sudden visit and warmly invited him into the living room.

After sitting down in the living room, charlie wade asked the two women, "Miss Yun, Miss Song, how have you both been lately?"

Yun Rugo smiled and said, "Thank you for your concern, Mr. wade. I have been enjoying my time with Ruyu these days."

Song Ruyu also lost her usual coldness and arrogance, and said with a smile, "Sister Yun is very good to me, like a real sister. We have both agreed that if we are lucky enough to survive, we will live and cultivate together. If we don't survive, we will trouble Mr. wade to choose a scenic place in Aurous Hill to bury us together."

charlie wade was slightly surprised, but smiled and said, "It's too early to talk about death now."

Yun Rugo smiled easily and said, "Mr. wade, time flies like an arrow, and a year will pass quickly."

charlie wade nodded and said to the two men, "Gentlemen, I've come here today to discuss something with you."

Yun Rugo immediately said seriously, "Mr. wade, please speak."

Song Ruyu, who was standing to the side, also sat up straight, staring at charlie wade without blinking, waiting for him to continue.
