

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7781

charlie wade said earnestly, "During this period, I have been deeply troubled by the stagnation in my cultivation, so I plan to go to Northern Europe for a period of seclusion to see if I can find an opportunity to open my Niwan Palace and also to see if I can find a way to detoxify you two. I hope you two can come with me."

Without any hesitation, the young Song Ruyu excitedly blurted out, "Thank you for your guidance, Mr. wade. I am willing to go with you!"

A hint of worry and disappointment flashed across Yun Rugo's brows, but she quickly adjusted her mindset and smiled, "Rugo is also willing to go."

charlie wade nodded with satisfaction and said, "In that case, I'll trouble you two to make the preparations. We'll set off tomorrow."

The two immediately agreed. Seeing that it was getting late, charlie wade decided not to bother them any longer and got up to say goodbye.

Song Ruyu and Yun Rugo saw charlie wade off at the door. After watching him leave, Song Ruyu whispered to Yun Rugo, "Sister Yun, why is Mr. wade suddenly going to Northern Europe for seclusion? Isn't his wife in Aurous Hill?"

"This..." Yun Rugo shook her head and murmured, "I'm not really sure either."

Song Ruyu smiled and said, "Mr. wade is in seclusion but still thinks of taking us with him. It seems he really cares about us."

Yun Rugo sighed softly and said in a low voice, "Mr. wade is probably afraid that we two might have other ideas..."

Song Ruyu paused slightly, then smiled wryly and said, "Is Mr. wade worried that we might be afraid of death at a critical moment?"

"Perhaps," Yun Rugo said. "If he really intends to go into seclusion for a long time, it's probably because he's worried that if we have no way to survive, we might return to the Destroy the Qing Society."

Song Ruyu said firmly, “Even if I die, I will never go back.”

After saying that, he muttered to himself, sounding somewhat annoyed, “It seems Mr. Wade still doesn’t trust us.”

Yun Rugo smiled and said, “Like you, I would rather die than go back. But Mr. Wade’s concerns are reasonable. A person’s will to survive is directly proportional to the crisis. The more dangerous the situation, the stronger the will to survive.”

Song Ruyu shook her head and said seriously, “Whether one seeks to live or not depends on what kind of life one seeks. If it is the same as before, if one has to live under the control of the Destroying Qing Society and even have to help the wicked in exchange for the antidote, then I would rather die. As the saying goes, ‘Give me liberty or give me death.’”

Yun Rugo patted her shoulder and said with a smile, “We are both people who want to break away from the Broken Qing Society, but neither of us has the ability to control our destiny, so let’s follow Mr. Wade’s instructions.”

Song Ruyu felt a pang of sadness, gently hugged Yun Rugo, and murmured, “Sister Yun, do you think we can get through this?”

Yun Rugo smiled and said, “Whether we can get through this depends on our fate. Sara’s poison is beyond our ability to cure. We still have to rely on Mr. Wade.”

Song Ruyu nodded slightly, feeling an even stronger sense of kinship with Yun Ruge, a feeling that they were both fellow sufferers.

Helena, who was far away in Northern Europe, had just finished a state visit to several friendly countries and was flying back to Northern Europe and then back to the palace.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7782

Although the royal family is a mascot in these constitutional monarchies, she has gained many supporters in her own country and around the world thanks to her personal charm and influence.

This makes her more than just a national mascot. Many things that the prime minister can’t agree on, she can. Especially in attracting foreign investment to the Nordic countries, Helena always manages to get top international companies to invest in the Nordic market willingly.

Moreover, Helena has been working tirelessly for the Nordic countries, rarely taking a break, and is even more dedicated than the Prime Minister. Her efforts and charm have been seen by the people of the entire Nordic country, and the people's support for her has reached an unprecedented level, with the royal family's presence constantly reaching new heights.

Helena didn't really love the identity and job of queen; it was just that being in the royal family was boring and lonely, so she didn't want to be idle.

Filling her life with work did alleviate her loneliness considerably, but her longing for Charlie Wade was already deeply rooted and difficult to ease.

Seeing Helena looking exhausted and listless as soon as she returned, the old empress felt a pang of heartache and couldn't help but ask, "Helena, have you taken some time to rest recently? Don't always be running around like this."

Helena smiled and said, "I feel bored during holidays. It's not convenient to go on vacation. Staying in the palace is cold and quiet all day long. It's better to be busy working outside."

The old empress said helplessly, "You, I still say it, need to achieve something in your family life, otherwise this palace will always be cold and desolate for you. I am still alive now, but if I die, won't it be even more desolate here?"

Helena smiled wryly: "Grandma, haven't we discussed these things? I have my own life to live, and I don't want to settle."

The old empress sighed, "If you've made up your mind about Charlie Wade for this lifetime, then you should try to take things a step further. Otherwise, if you keep going like this, you'll only be wasting your own time. I mentioned last time that you should reconsider having a child with him. Having a child will make the palace less lonely."

Helena sighed, "Grandma, things aren't as simple as you think."

The old empress hurriedly said, "It is precisely because it is not simple that we must try our best to achieve it, otherwise it will truly be a long way off."

Helena rubbed her temples and said, "It's not so easy to see Mr. wade now... Last time he brought that little girl to Northern Europe, we didn't even have a chance to be alone."

Speaking of this, Helena recalled the time when charlie wade fainted on her bed.

She couldn't help but feel a little regretful. If she had seized the opportunity back then, would it have been possible for her to conceive charlie wade's child?

She dared not think of using a child to tie him down, but to have one of his children would be enough for her in this life.

Just then, her phone rang.

The moment the bell rang, she instantly transformed from a tired state into one of excitement and exhilaration.

Because this ringtone was specially designed for charlie wade.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7783

Upon seeing charlie wade's call, all of Helena's fatigue vanished instantly.

Holding the phone in both hands, she said happily to the old lady, "Grandma, Mr. wade is calling. I'll go answer it."

Having said that, without waiting for the old empress's reaction, he immediately got up and went back to his room.

The old empress watched her retreating figure, sighed helplessly, then looked out the window and murmured, "The royal family's status is now at its highest point since the establishment of the constitutional monarchy, but the number of its members is also at its lowest point. Is it really true that the old Eastern saying, 'One thing rises while another falls,' is true?"

As he spoke, the wrinkles on the old man's face seemed to deepen even further.

A moment later, Helena ran out happily and said to the old queen, "Grandma, Mr. wade is coming to Northern Europe!"

“Really?!” The old empress asked with some surprise, “When will Mr. Wade arrive? What brings him here?”

Helena said, “Mr. Wade will be coming over tomorrow, which is tonight, Beijing time. He’s going to his holiday home in the Arctic again and will be staying there for a while.”

The old empress was surprised and asked doubtfully, “Mr. Wade is usually so busy, why is he going to the Arctic again? Could it be that he’s bringing that little girl from last time with him? Is that little girl his lover?”

“How could that be?” Helena said without hesitation. “Mr. Wade is not that kind of person at all. Besides, it’s obvious that he and that girl could not possibly have that kind of relationship.”

The old empress smiled and said, “I wish he were that kind of person, so that even if the favors are distributed equally, you should get a share.”

Helena shook her head helplessly and said, “Grandma, I have to talk to you now. Mr. Wade needs four legal identities and a lot of daily necessities. I have to go and make arrangements.”

“Four?” the old empress asked in surprise. “Could the other three be women?”

Helena nodded and said, “They are all women.”

“This...” The old empress was also somewhat surprised and asked in confusion, “What’s going on... Mr. Wade has brought three women to the polar regions for a vacation?”

Helena said, “It’s not as bad as you think. Mr. Wade said he’s going to go into seclusion in the polar regions.”

“Seclusion?” the old empress couldn’t help but ask, “What does ‘seclusion’ mean?”

Helena said, “It’s about shutting yourself off and focusing on studying something.”

The old empress chuckled and said, “Is that even a question? He’s definitely shutting himself off and discussing things inappropriate for children with three women!”

Helena shook her head and said, “Impossible. Mr. Wade is not that kind of person. Grandma, you should rest first. I’ll go and make the arrangements.”

Helena naturally trusted charlie wade's character completely. She knew that she had tried to win charlie wade's heart many times but failed, which showed that charlie wade was definitely not a shady person. Although he brought three women with him this time, Helena believed that charlie wade must have his own reasons.

The following morning, Nanjing time.

A cargo plane belonging to Scandinavian Airlines landed safely at Nanjing Airport.

Although this aircraft belongs to Scandinavian Airlines, it is carrying out a mission commissioned by the Scandinavian royal family.

On the surface, the plane was tasked with transporting valuable cargo, but in reality, it was to take charlie wade, Lin Wan'er (Alani), Yun Rugo, and Song Ruyu to Northern Europe.

charlie wade had Don Albert drive an inconspicuous minivan from the Champs-Élysées Hot Spring Hotel, and together with Yun Rugo and Song Ruyu, they left the Champs-Élysées and headed straight for Jinling Airport.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't have charlie wade pick her up at Zijin Villa, but instead had Qiu Yingshan(Curtis)'s servant drive her directly to the airport.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) felt that Champs-Élysées Hot Spring and the airport were both in the suburbs and not far apart as the crow flies. If she returned to Zijin Villa in the city to pick up Lin Wan'er (Alani), it would take much more time to go back and forth.

With Sun Zhidong's help in making arrangements, the airport had already given the green light.

Neither of the two cars carrying charlie wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani) passed through security or customs when they entered Jinling Airport, and no official records were left.

At the farthest remote stand in the airport, a Boeing 747 stands silently in the darkness.

Although this Boeing 747 is registered as a passenger plane, the second floor was not designed as a cargo hold, but instead a high-standard passenger cabin that can accommodate twenty people.

The aircraft was not equipped with a service crew. Apart from the two groups of pilots, the cabin service staff consisted entirely of royal butlers and servants. The pilots did not even have the opportunity to meet the passengers who were on the flight they were assigned to.

The cockpit of the aircraft was completely covered by an opaque blackout curtain, and royal staff were supervising inside. All crew members were required to remain in the cockpit and were not allowed to leave or look out.

charlie wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s cars arrived one after the other. After he got out of the passenger seat, Yun Ruguo and Song Ruyu in the back seat also got out of the car.

Immediately afterwards, Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s car arrived.

Qiu Yingshan(Curtis) and his wife also accompanied Lin Wan'er (Alani) to the airport. As soon as they got out of the car, the two respectfully followed Lin Wan'er (Alani) to charlie wade.

When Yun Ruguo saw Lin Wan'er (Alani) again, she bowed respectfully and said, "We meet again, Miss Lin."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled slightly and bowed in return, then looked at Song Ruyu beside her and said with a smile, "This must be Miss Song?"

Song Ruyu stared at Lin Wan'er (Alani), completely stunned.

Her family was originally an appendage of the Wu family, so she knew some of the top secrets of the Broken Qing Society. She had known since she was a child that the Broken Qing Society had been searching for a girl named Lin Wan'er (Alani) for hundreds of years without success. She felt that this "Lin Wan'er (Alani)" was like a legend, and she always thought that she would be an extraordinary woman.

But she never expected that when she actually met Lin Wan'er (Alani), the other party would be such a young girl, who didn't even look like an adult. Her beautiful face was full of childishness, and she looked just like a little girl.

Suppressing her shock, she said respectfully, “Young Master Lin... oh no, Senior Lin, hello... I’ve long admired your name, and today I finally have the opportunity to see you in person...”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) covered her mouth and smiled, saying, “Miss Song, you don’t need to be so polite. Just call me Xiao Wan.”

The royal butler had seen and recognized charlie wade before. Initially, seeing charlie wade accompanied by three stunningly beautiful women with vastly different styles, he wondered about the relationship between charlie wade and the women, but couldn’t figure it out no matter how he looked. So, after the women exchanged pleasantries, he stepped forward and said respectfully, “Mr. wade, Her Majesty the Queen has ordered me to come to China to pick you and the three distinguished guests up for your journey to Northern Europe. Today, all the staff in the cabin are royal personnel. We will fly directly from Nanjing to Ausu City. After arriving in Ausu City, the motorcade will escort the four of you directly to the Arctic. Her Majesty the Queen will be waiting for you at her resort villa in the Arctic.”

charlie wade asked curiously, “Helena has already gone to the Arctic? Isn’t she busy lately?”

The butler respectfully replied, “Mr. wade, Her Majesty the Queen is also taking a break for a while. Since you are going to the Arctic, she would like to offer to be your guide if you do not mind.”

charlie wade was a little surprised, not expecting Helena to also be going to the Arctic.

However, charlie wade didn’t mind too much, because Helena had witnessed his abilities at Yeling Mountain, and he didn’t have many secrets from her. Since she wanted to stay in the Arctic, he would let her be, after all, she was the true host.

So he smiled and said to the steward, “Then you’ll have had a hard journey.”

The butler said humbly, “Mr. wade, you’re too kind. It’s our duty. It’s almost time. Shall we board now?”

charlie wade nodded, said goodbye to Qiu Yingshan(Curtis) and his wife, waved to Don Albert, and then said to the butler, “Let’s go.”

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7785

The moment the Scandinavian Airlines plane pierced the sky, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), far away in Japan, finally breathed a sigh of relief.

When Lin Wan'er (Alani) revealed charlie wade's suspicions about Master Jingqing to Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was momentarily flustered.

If charlie wade decides to delve deeper into Jing Qing's line of inquiry, then without a doubt, in order to ensure that he remains unexposed, Jing Qing must disappear without a trace, just like Stephen Thompson.

Although Jing Qing obeyed her every command, in essence, Jing Qing was not her subordinate.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) felt a little reluctant to ask Jing Qing to make such a big sacrifice for him.

Fortunately, Lin Wan'er (Alani) sent back good news. This woman used her unparalleled wisdom and extremely clear logic to persuade charlie wade to stop insisting on finding Claire immediately.

Hearing her persuade charlie wade to go to Northern Europe, she felt even more grateful to Lin Wan'er (Alani).

She was unaware of the Northern Lights incident in Scandinavia before, but after hearing Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s account, she shared the same conclusion as Lin Wan'er (Alani): the handprints displayed by the aurora were definitely not caused by some kind of polar power; that power must be on or around charlie wade.

Both she and Lin Wan'er (Alani) felt that the ring left by Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s father seemed to be the most suspicious.

In any case, going to Northern Europe to find out the truth about this is a very wise choice. No one knows if there are other secrets hidden behind those handprints.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) sent her a message when the plane took off, and only after the plane took off did she finally feel relieved.

So she called over Sister Sun and Jing Qing, who was about to set off to return to China but was stopped in time, and said to them, “charlie has already gone to Northern Europe with Senior Lin and will not be returning to China for a while. Jing Qing, you can finally go back too.”

Jing Qing respectfully said, “Amitabha. If Madam still has any concerns, Jing Qing can temporarily postpone his return to China to avoid delaying Madam’s important matters.”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) smiled and said, “With so many followers, you shouldn’t disappear for too long. Go back and continue to preach and debate the Dharma as usual, and spread Buddhism.”

Jing Qing pondered for a moment, then tentatively said, “Madam, if the young master finds me, I might not be able to keep it from him...”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) nodded and said, “Don’t worry too much. This time I trust Senior Lin. charlie should also focus on important matters. If he still puts Claire first and goes to find you, then I might as well meet with him and have a heart-to-heart talk.”

In Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom)’s view, Lin Wan’er (Alani) had already made her point so clearly that if charlie wade still hadn’t come to his senses, then she, as his mother, might really have to take matters into her own hands.

The reason she was unwilling to see charlie wade, her parents, and other relatives was that she knew Sara had never given up searching for her, and had even tried to force her to show herself. If she went to see outsiders, even her closest relatives, the risk of being exposed would increase exponentially.

However, if charlie wade remains obstinate, it will be meaningless whether he exposes himself or not, because only charlie wade has the chance to defeat Sara.

However, she hoped that charlie wade wouldn’t stoop to the point where she would have to step in and persuade him.

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7786

Jing Qing also understood Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s intention.

Now, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) has reached a critical point.

If charlie wade can come to his senses, he won't come looking for clues before he gets his revenge. If he can't come to his senses, even if I don't expose Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s clues, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) will still show himself.

Since that's the case, I have nothing to worry about.

So he said respectfully, "In that case, Jingqing, please make preparations and we will set off for home tomorrow."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded slightly and said, "Go."

After Jing Qing took his leave, Sister Sun also respectfully said, "Madam, if there are no further instructions, I will also take my leave."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) waved to her and said with a smile, "Sister Sun, please wait a moment."

Sister Sun nodded, walked up to her, bowed, and asked, "Is there anything else you wish to tell me, Madam?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) smiled and said, "It's nothing, I just wanted to chat with you for a bit."

Sister Sun smiled and said, "Madam seems to be in a very good mood."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) nodded without any attempt to hide it, and said, "I don't know why, but I feel exceptionally good whenever I think of Senior Lin."

Sister Sun said with a smile, "Senior Lin is very knowledgeable and learned. It's as if you two hit it off immediately and regret not meeting sooner."

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) sighed, "Yes and no."

After saying that, she looked at Sister Sun and said seriously, "She has lived for so many years and is indeed a senior among seniors. I am not qualified to say that I admire her, but I can only say that I really respect her. I still can't imagine how such a weak woman could have such powerful energy. Like water, when still, it is calm and undisturbed, but when it rushes, it is devastating. Every word, every action, every smile seems to contain indescribable and magnificent power. Even charlie , with such a stubborn personality, can be tamed by her. It is really amazing.”

Sister Sun quickly said, “Madam, the young master is an exceptional person. Isn’t it inappropriate to use the word ‘tamed’ to describe him...”

“No.” Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) shook her head and said solemnly, “The word ‘tamed’ is extremely apt. I can’t think of a more suitable word. Even charlie ’s own instincts, which he couldn’t control, could be dissolved in front of her, and he was willingly dissolved. She is really amazing!”

Sister Sun smiled and said, “As you said before, she was unarmed and had no cultivation, yet she was able to live peacefully for more than three hundred years while being chased by Sara. She must have many extraordinary abilities. Moreover, she was at the peak of her life for such a long time, and the accumulated knowledge would make her learning efficiency higher and higher. In these hundreds of years, the knowledge she could learn was probably dozens of times or even more than what an ordinary person learns in a lifetime.”

“Yes.” Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) smiled and sighed softly, then hesitated for a moment before saying to Sister Sun, “I suddenly have a strange feeling that I can’t quite describe.”

Sister Sun asked cautiously, “What is it that you’re having this strange feeling, Madam?”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) said seriously, “I think she is the most suitable life partner for charlie .”

Sister Sun was startled by her words and blurted out instinctively, “Madam, but she’s over three hundred years old!”

“Yes,” Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) said, “But so what? She’s over three hundred years old and still looks like a seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl. Moreover, she has been living the life that a seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl should live for the past few hundred years. She’s not one of those mythical fairies who grow old and then become young again. She’s not an old monster either. She’s just a pitiful little girl who has been stuck at the age of seventeen or eighteen for over three hundred years.”

At this point, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) felt sympathy for Lin Wan'er (Alani), but also said with some excitement, "Think about it from another perspective. She was only seventeen or eighteen years old, yet she remained stagnant for over three hundred years. If this was ordained by heaven, then think about it, why did heaven arrange for her to remain stagnant for so long?"

Sister Sun asked blankly, "Yes, but why?"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) said excitedly, "It must be so that she can stay in the same place and wait for the right person to appear, and then walk hand in hand with that person forward!"

PS:- I'm sorry everyone, my back wasn't fully healed yet, and to make matters worse, I had to have a minor surgery. I'm physically fine, but the recovery period is quite painful, which is really frustrating.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s words gave Sister Sun a real jolt.

If everything is preordained, then there must be a reason why Heaven arranged for Lin Wan'er (Alani) to remain stagnant for so long at the age of seventeen or eighteen, much like she was waiting for the right person to appear.

The fact that Lin Wan'er (Alani) hasn't taken the next step in her life despite growing older over the past few hundred years suggests that she herself is unconsciously waiting for that person to appear.

So, she said excitedly, "Madam, after hearing what you said, I suddenly feel extremely excited... Senior Lin is truly a unique and extraordinary woman in this world. If Young Master can join hands with her in the future, it would be like a divine couple described in martial arts novels. Oh no, even in martial arts novels, there has never been such a magical couple as the two of them. They are a match made in heaven!"

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) looked up at the dazzling sunrise in the east and said wistfully, "What she is waiting for is a partner with whom she can grow old slowly, or perhaps a partner with whom she can continue to live forever. If charlie

‘s cultivation cannot achieve a greater breakthrough, then he will be the one who grows old with Lin Wan’er (Alani). If charlie ‘s cultivation can achieve a great breakthrough, or even find the methods to refine the Eternal Green Pill and the Hundred Turns and Thousand Returns Pill, then Lin Wan’er (Alani) can stay with charlie for another six hundred years. No matter how you look at it, he and Lin Wan’er (Alani) are a match made in heaven.”

Sister Sun asked cautiously, “Madam didn’t like Miss Ito very much before, but now that she has attained enlightenment, perhaps she will also have the opportunity to achieve immortality with the young master.”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) smiled and said, “To be honest, I also really like Nanako, miss sun is also one of my favorites.”

Sister Sun was speechless for a moment before smiling and saying, “These girls are truly one in a million. In my opinion, they are all outstanding. It’s really hard to choose...”

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom) chuckled self-deprecatingly and said, “If I keep talking, I’ll become a wicked mother-in-law from the feudal era. Forget it, let charlie decide his own life.”

As she spoke, she couldn’t help but sigh softly, saying, “It’s just that Lin Wan’er (Alani) must have had a very difficult life all these years, unlike other girls who mostly grew up in luxury. That’s why I’m more biased towards her.”

Sister Sun nodded repeatedly, and she actually understood and even empathized with Lydia (Ava) (Charlie’s mom)’s feelings.

Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s life can be described as both magnificent and arduous, inspiring both admiration and pity.

At this moment, charlie wade on the plane had no idea that his mother was trying to arrange a marriage for him.

Inside the cabin, after the royal staff served the group their meals, they all moved out of the crew rest area to await further instructions. Gazing at the rising sun outside the window, he silently resolved, “Claire, wherever you are right now, please wait for me there. Once I've cleared away all the dangers, I will personally bring you back and tell you everything..."

Lin Wan'er (Alani), who was standing next to Charlie Wade, was silently reading an ancient book. Yun Rugo and Song Ruyu, who were on the other side, were also silently looking out the window, just like Charlie Wade.

Their feelings were quite complicated. Leaving Nanjing and China felt like entering an unknown black hole, with no idea where their fate would lead them.

However, both of them knew in their hearts that if the worst happened, they might never have the chance to return to Aurous Hill.

Today may be my farewell to Aurous Hill.

After a ten-hour flight, the plane arrived in Ausu, the capital of Northern Europe, at 10:00 a.m.

Helena had already arrived at the royal family's vacation villa in the Arctic. She set off ahead of time, bringing not only a large amount of daily necessities but also the royal family's cleaning and repair team. She planned to get the house in the best condition before Charlie Wade arrived and then have all the staff withdraw so as not to disturb Charlie Wade.

After Charlie Wade and his three companions disembarked from the plane, they bypassed the Nordic customs and, accompanied by members of the royal family, left Osu City by car, heading straight for the northern polar regions.

In March, the Nordic countries are already warming up. Even as the car travels north, the temperature is still cold, but not too harsh.

The days are much longer now than when I last came.

Last time we came, it was already past noon and the sky was starting to get dark. This time, the convoy drove until 4 p.m., and when we arrived at the Royal Resort Villa in Lingen, the sky was still bright.

Charlie Wade began to worry that even if he could still see the aurora in this weather, it would be a rare sight.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) seemed to know his worries and whispered to him, "Young master, don't worry. If we encounter a large aurora zone that can stretch for thousands of kilometers, we only need to catch up with a section of it to confirm our previous guesses."

Charlie Wade nodded and said, "Since we're here, let's make the best of it. Let's see what happens tonight; it should be getting dark soon."

The convoy arrived at the resort villa halfway up the mountain before dark. Following Helena's instructions, the royal staff escorted the four to the villa's gate and respectfully said, "Mr. Wade, Her Majesty the Queen has instructed all of us not to wait to enter. Please go in on your own."

Seeing that it was Helena's arrangement, Charlie Wade nodded slightly.

The four people got out of the car, and the convoy immediately began to retreat down the mountain without any delay.

Helena received a report from her subordinates and immediately came out of the villa to greet them.

Today, Helena wore a pure white, knee-length fur robe, her fair legs exposed to the cool air without any cover.

She wore a pair of short white fur-lined snow boots, walking through the snow. The thick snow crunched under her feet, making a pleasant sound.

Because her subordinates had already reported this, she wasn't surprised to see Charlie Wade appear with three beautiful women. In fact, she quickly recognized the prettiest girl among them as the one who had come with Charlie Wade last time.

The other two women were naturally very beautiful, and both possessed a distinctly Eastern charm. However, Helena sensed a subtle, unapproachable aloofness about Yun Rugo and Song Ruyu.

When Yun Rugo and Song Ruyu saw the stunningly beautiful empress running towards them, they were shocked and couldn't help but exchange a glance.

They were all women, and they could see the undisguised joy in Helena's expression, almost as unashamed as a young girl experiencing first love.

They usually paid some attention to international affairs and knew that this was the Nordic Queen who had been very active and highly regarded on the international stage recently. Seeing the Nordic Queen rushing towards Charlie Wade with great admiration like a young girl, the two of them were so surprised that they couldn't speak.

In her own country, in her own palace, Helena had no intention of paying attention to royal etiquette. So she happily came to Charlie Wade, and before she could catch her breath, she looked at him and said softly, "Mr. Wade, you must be tired from your long journey!"

Song Ruyu sighed inwardly, "Well, there are four of us here, but in the eyes of the Queen of the North, it seems that only Mr. Wade is there, and the rest are like air..."

Helena, dressed in a white robe, with her graceful figure, long golden hair, and azure eyes, and surrounded by a snow-covered landscape, surprised Charlie Wade slightly. In this fairytale-like Nordic scene, Helena blended perfectly with her surroundings, complementing each other, just like a dazzling princess who stepped out of a fairytale.

However, he quickly calmed down and said with a smile, "Helena, you're too kind. We've come to bother you, and we've troubled you to come and prepare in advance. I should be the one thanking you for your hard work."

Helena smiled sweetly and said, "Mr. Wade, there's no need to distinguish between you and me. As long as I'm here, Scandinavia is your second home. Coming here is like coming home; this is your home."

Upon hearing this, the three women around him were stunned.

Good heavens, the Queen of the Nordic countries is so direct and unrestrained? She's already asserting her dominance after just meeting her?

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7789

Helena's enthusiasm, outgoing nature, and directness are quite different from the reserved nature of Eastern women. However, Lin Wan'er (Alani) could understand Helena's behavior. She knew Helena's feelings for Charlie Wade, and seeing that Charlie Wade had brought three women here, even without a sense of crisis, she would definitely feel a competitive spirit.

However, Yun Rugo and Song Ruyu were still somewhat unaccustomed to it, feeling that Helena's directness towards Charlie Wade made them feel like they shouldn't have come along as third wheels.

Charlie Wade was also a little embarrassed. He vaguely knew that he and Helena might have had some unclear and ambiguous things happen. However, he had no memory of it at the time and could only guess based on Helena's reaction and some details in her boudoir. They kept quiet about it afterward, which was an unspoken understanding. So he did not pry into it.

Seeing that Helena was even more direct and proactive than before, he felt that living with these women here might be more troublesome than he had imagined.

Led by Helena, the group arrived at the royal polar villa. The house had clearly been cleaned and furnished very carefully, and it looked much more refined than when Charlie Wade last visited, no longer having the feeling of having been idle for a long time.

Inside the living room, the fireplace was already lit, and the crackling sound of the burning firewood echoed throughout the room, creating a particularly comfortable atmosphere.

Helena invited them to sit on the sofa by the fireplace, then said with a smile, "This villa has a total of five rooms, three upstairs and two downstairs. Mr. Wade's room is the master bedroom on the first floor, and the three ladies' rooms are on the second floor. I'll take you upstairs to see them later, and you can discuss how to allocate them."

Song Ruyu thought to herself, "This Nordic queen is shameless. She has the audacity to arrange her room on the same floor as Mr. Wade. Even if it were a choice among the four people, it would be reasonable for Miss Lin and Mr. Wade to share a room. It's not her turn."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) had no objection to this arrangement, and then said to Song Ruyu and Yun Rugu, "Miss Song and Miss Yun, please go and choose first. I don't care where I stay. You can leave the remaining room for me after you've chosen."

Yun Rugu and Song Ruyu both knew Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s background and held her in awe. So they both said, "Miss Lin should choose first. We're fine with either of us."

Seeing that the three of them had tacitly agreed to stay upstairs, Helena felt a little smug and then said with a smile, "The three of you, I had a lot of ingredients prepared when I came. Because I was worried about disturbing you, I didn't leave any servants. Also, considering that everyone's living habits and tastes are different, we may need to prepare meals together in the next few days."

Yun Rugu raised one hand and said, "Your Majesty, I have been practicing abstinence from grains for many years and only need drinking water."

Song Ruyu also raised her hand and said, "I'm also practicing fasting."

Helena looked bewildered: "Excuse me, what does 'Bigu' mean?"

charlie wade explained, "The two of them, like me, are cultivators, and their bodily functions no longer need to rely on food for energy."

Helena didn't know what cultivation was. She only knew that charlie wade had many mysterious and powerful abilities, which, in Western terms, could be considered supernatural abilities, but she didn't know the specifics of them.

However, when she heard charlie wade mention the word "cultivation" today, although she didn't understand it, she was very happy because, in her opinion, it meant that charlie wade had decided to confess this secret to her, and it also meant that there was less distance between them.

So, she looked at charlie wade and said softly, "So Mr. wade's strength belongs to the cultivation path. It seems that this must be a supernatural power unique to the East, which is probably the same as the magic and witchcraft in Western legends."

Song Ruyu muttered, "Magic and witchcraft are probably just things used to fool children in movies and fairy tales, right?"

Seeing the slight disdain in Song Ruyu's attitude, Helena wasn't angry. Instead, she smiled and said, "Whether it exists in reality or not, I wouldn't dare to say for sure. But since the East has this kind of supernatural power, it wouldn't be surprising if the West had something similar."

charlie wade asked with great interest, "Has your royal family never had any related legends or records over the years?"

The Amazing son in law Chapter 7790

Helena truthfully stated, "There are legends and records, but many of them are from the Middle Ages, so it's difficult to verify their authenticity."

At this moment, Lin Wan'er (Alani) spoke up: "What the West calls magic is actually just Taoist cultivation in a different package. The underlying logic is almost exactly the same. It involves manipulating spiritual energy in various ways and then transforming it into all sorts of spells. It's like how Easterners turn dough into steamed buns and flatbreads, while Westerners turn dough into bread and pizzas."

charlie wade asked in surprise, "So, Miss Lin witnessed it with her own eyes?"

Yun Rugo and Song Ruyu couldn't help but look at her. They both knew that Lin Wan'er (Alani) had lived for nearly four hundred years and must be very knowledgeable. So they waited for her to answer their questions.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and said casually, "Actually, many fields are not unique to the East or the West. For example, the East uses the I Ching and Bagua for divination, while the West has astrology, tarot cards, and crystal balls. It's hard to say which is more advanced. It's just that in the last two hundred years or so, both Eastern and Western societies have undergone modernization, industrialization, and technological revolutions to varying degrees. The West did this more thoroughly during the Industrial Revolution, so there may be fewer people in these fields who have inherited these skills than in the East. For example, the masters of the past could use tarot cards to divine in countless ways, with unparalleled mystery and accurate predictions. But now, so-called masters are mostly charlatans who only know a little bit. Times have changed, and some things have gradually been eliminated."

charlie wade had never heard of the idea that Western magic and Eastern cultivation shared the same underlying logic before. However, upon closer reflection, since spiritual energy was the purest and most refined energy in the world, if Easterners could find a way to control it, Westerners should be able to as well.

Upon closer examination, Western legends about magic do indeed share some similarities with Eastern cultivation practices, and could even be described as having a striking resemblance.

First, everyone has the ability to mobilize supernatural energy and transform it into wind, rain, thunder, lightning, and various forms of attack;

Secondly, everyone also has various magical artifacts that can enhance their strength, as well as various medicines that can improve cultivation or bring special effects;

Secondly, the jade tablet I obtained from Zhang Ermao contained a large amount of spiritual energy. Now that I think about it, it must be what is called a spiritual stone in cultivation. In magic legends, there are also magic stones containing super strong magic power. Ultimately, they should be the same thing.

Helena was surprised to find that Lin Wan'er (Alani), the youngest among them, seemed to have more knowledge. Even Charlie Wade had to consult her, and she looked very humble and eager to learn. Helena couldn't help but wonder, and asked her, "Miss Lin, have you... have you ever met a magician?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "I have indeed seen you."

Helena exclaimed, "So that means magicians still exist?"

Helena didn't know Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s age and thought she was seventeen or eighteen. Since she had seen a magician when she was seventeen or eighteen, then there must be magicians in the world.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) simply smiled and said, "Your Majesty, I have indeed seen the magician, but I am not sure if he is still alive."

Helena couldn't help but feel somewhat disappointed, and she had doubts about the veracity of what Lin Wan'er (Alani) had said.

Charlie Wade didn't think much of it. He understood the meaning behind Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s words. Lin Wan'er (Alani) had probably encountered a magician when she came to Europe more than two hundred years ago. But after so many years, most cultivators would hardly live to such an old age. It seemed that the threshold for longevity for magicians was also very high.

By this time, it was completely dark outside. Lin Wan'er (Alani) went to the French windows and looked out, exclaiming in surprise, "Young Master, it's the aurora borealis!"

Upon hearing this, Charlie Wade stood up and looked out. Indeed, a faint green light and shadow had appeared on the distant horizon.

It's already the tail end of the aurora season in Northern Europe. The aurora in the distance is not as clear and dazzling as it was last time I came. It seems to be much smaller in scale and farther north than last time.

However, this is a good opportunity to see if the source of the aurora's change is here or within oneself. If one catches up with the aurora in the distance, the aurora will undergo further changes, and the source will likely be within oneself!

So, he turned around excitedly and said to Yun Rugo and Song Ruyu, "Miss Yun, Miss Song, the reason I brought you to the polar region this time is not only for secluded cultivation, but also to help you understand the mysterious changes here. If you are interested, why not come with me to explore it!"
