Chapter 7963

4-5 minutes

Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s words were not only enlightening for Yun Rugo and Song Ruyu, but also easily dispelled their embarrassment and hesitation.

Among cultivators, the greatest gift is not elixirs or spirit stones, nor magical artifacts, but cultivation techniques.

This is like the principle of teaching someone to fish rather than giving them a fish.

charlie wade was generous even with cultivation techniques, so spirit stones and elixirs were naturally no problem. Coupled with charlie wade's past kindness, the two understood that being overly polite to charlie wade was meaningless; what truly mattered was repaying his kindness with all their might in the future.

Therefore, Yun Rugo took the lead, stood up, bowed to charlie wade in gratitude, and said, "Thank you for your guidance and care, Mr. Wade. Rugo vows to serve you with utmost loyalty and devotion for the rest of my life!"

Song Ruyu echoed, "Mr. Wade, Ruyu feels the same way as Sister Yun!"

Their gratitude was overflowing.

charlie wade smiled and said, "Alright, no need for such formalities. You two should hurry up and go into seclusion. There are still some unsolved mysteries surrounding the place where I found the spirit stones. Miss Lin is very knowledgeable, and I'd like to take her along to investigate. For the time being, you two should stay here and focus on your seclusion."

charlie wade wanted to take Lin Wan'er (Alani) to the underground city of the Doomsday Gate to see if she could go in, and also to see if she could go through the teleportation array with him. He only dared to share the secrets there with Lin Wan'er (Alani) for the time being. However, he didn't completely hide it from them and take Lin Wan'er (Alani) there directly. He was worried that that would be too abrupt, making them curious but also causing them some apprehension. In his opinion, this half-hearted approach was the best solution. Letting them stay here to cultivate while he took Lin Wan'er (Alani) there would make everything smooth and natural.

Yun Rugo didn't think much of it and immediately said respectfully, "Okay, Mr. Wade. Ruyu and I will cultivate diligently here for the time being, and wait for you and Miss Lin to return."

Song Ruyu obediently echoed, "Ruyu will definitely do her best to cultivate diligently, please rest assured, Mr. Wade."charlie wade nodded slightly and said to Lin Wan'er (Alani), "Miss Lin, let's set off immediately!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled without hesitation and said, "This servant will obey your orders, young master."

Although Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s constitution was not afraid of the cold, she was still a young girl without cultivation, and charlie wade couldn't bear to carry her on foot for over a hundred kilometers.

Therefore, he chose to travel with Lin Wan'er (Alani) in a snowmobile this time.

Fortunately, Antarctica had indeed become much calmer recently, and a snowmobile driving on the vast Antarctic ice sheet would not attract the attention of satellites.

Twenty kilometers after the two drove away from the Nordic research station, Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked charlie wade, "Young Master, is there some major event you've encountered that you can't talk about?"

"Yes!" charlie wade nodded with a smile and said to her, "I finally know where the ring you gave me came from. I'll take you there now! And I've also learned about its new function."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said in surprise, "Wasn't that ring made by my master?"

charlie wade shook his head and smiled, "With Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s cultivation level, how could he possibly have the ability to refine a teleportation array into a ring? He probably obtained that ring by chance, and since he felt he was going to die, he had no use for it, so he gave it to your father. Actually, this ring was made by a group of cultivators with great supernatural powers before the end of the Dharma era. It can not only teleport, but also has a storage space. Those spirit stones were found in the ring's storage space."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked in astonishment, "Storage space?! What you're saying, young master, is that this ring itself has a virtual space that doesn't exist in the real world?!"

charlie wade thought for a moment and said, "A virtual space isn't quite right. It's more like a high-dimensional space that someone used great supernatural powers to fold into this ring. It's about the size of two or three indoor basketball courts, used to store items." As charlie wade spoke, with a thought, a spirit stone the size of an ostrich egg appeared out of thin air in his hand, leaving Lin Wan'er (Alani) dumbfounded.

Then, with another thought, the spirit stone disappeared again, returned to the ring's space.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) exclaimed, "I never imagined that cultivators back then possessed such incredible supernatural powers."

charlie wade smiled and said, "You haven't seen the real great supernatural powers yet. You'll know when we get there."

Although Lin Wan'er (Alani) was very curious, since charlie wade wanted to keep the suspense, she forcibly suppressed her curiosity and didn't ask any more questions.

A few hours later, charlie wade drove to the ice cave that Wu Bolin (Bick) had dug. He parked the car next to the cave and said to Lin Wan'er (Alani), "This is it. Get out."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded, opened the car door, and got out. Seeing the dark hole in the ice, she couldn't help but ask, "Young Master, did you dig this deep hole?"

charlie wade shook his head and said, "The cave was dug by that elder of the Broken Qing Society. He was the one who first discovered the place we're going to, but he seems to have been blocked by the formation there, so he couldn't go in."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked nervously, "Young Master, do you want to take me in? This hole is so deep, I'm afraid I can't get down..." charlie wade smiled and said, "If I can take you in, you shouldn't need to go down into the cave to get in."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked in confusion, "Don't need to go down into the cave?"

"Yes, come with me." Charlie Wade took Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s hand and led her to the location of the teleportation array outside the cave. This was the convenient entrance and exit from the Antarctic ice sheet into the underground city. However, those who hadn't mastered the method to activate the teleportation array couldn't see or sense its existence or exact location.

Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s soft hand was taken by Charlie Wade, her heart pounding. She shyly followed him to a spot on the ice cap. Just as Charlie Wade was about to silently recite his mantra, Lin Wan'er (Alani) suddenly pointed to the snowmobile and said, "Young Master, isn't it a bit unsafe to leave this snowmobile here? Since your ring has enough space, why not put it inside?"

Charlie Wade's eyes lit up, and he smiled, "I hadn't thought of that. Let's try!"

With that, he returned to the snowmobile, placed his palm on it, and with a slight thought, the snowmobile vanished from its spot and reappeared in his ring's space.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) stared in shock, and Charlie Wade himself was also somewhat astonished. Although he knew the space was definitely large enough to hold the snowmobile, the fact that something so large could disappear into thin air in an instant still amazed him.

Afterwards, Charlie Wade returned to Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s side, took her hand again, and said, "There's a teleportation array here that can directly teleport us to where we need to go. However, I'm not sure if you can come in with me. If you can't, then we'll have to go back the way we came. If I go in alone, don't panic if you stay here; I'll come back to find you immediately."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at Charlie Wade with her big eyes and smiled gently, saying, "Don't worry, young master. If you disappear, I will stay here and wait for you to return!"
