The Amazing son in law Chapter 8065

charlie wade subconsciously asked, "Many people? How many?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at charlie wade and smiled shyly, "I don't know the exact number. Young Master has so many confidantes. If they are all willing to follow you, then there will probably be quite a lot of people staying here."

She then added playfully, "However, I have no objection. Actually, I've always loved lively gatherings. But my father was focused on expelling the Tartars and only married my mother as his principal wife, never taking a concubine. Moreover, my mother passed away early, so I'm the only daughter in the family. However, I grew up in Yunnan, and many of my playmates had many siblings. Some families even had four siblings of the same age, making it quite lively."

charlie wade subconsciously asked, "Siblings of the same age? Cousins?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) covered her mouth and chuckled, looking at charlie wade with a smile. Ying said, "Young master is really dense. Of course, they are half-siblings. Her father took seven concubines, plus the principal wife, making a total of eight. It's not unbelievable that five of them gave birth in the same year, is it?"

charlie wade then came to his senses, smiled awkwardly, and said, "After all, we're from different eras. I didn't even think about that."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled shyly and said, "Young master can think about it more, and it would be best to think about how to put it into practice. If... if in the future young master could give me a concubine, then my life would be worthwhile." Although Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't care about titles, as a girl, having a title was naturally the best thing. She never expected charlie wade to marry her formally. As long as she could be given the status of a concubine, she would be satisfied. After all, coming from that era, once a man was married, becoming a concubine was the best choice.

Of course, even in that era, some men would divorce their wives and remarry, but Lin Wan'er (Alani) never entertained such a thought. Having experienced a long and arduous life, she knew very well that a man like charlie wade, in any era, would inevitably have many admirers, and she herself would be one of them. To be able to bloom for him was enough. If charlie wade needed her, she was even willing to advise him and help him transform his private garden into a vibrant garden of blooming flowers.

charlie wade felt somewhat awkward about this topic.

Although he had roughly figured things out, he was far from being able to directly discuss taking a concubine with Lin Wan'er (Alani). So he smiled and said to Lin Wan'er (Alani), "Let's talk about these things after we deal with Wu Feiyan. Once she's dead, everything will be fine. I'd even be willing to become a monk."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said, "Young master, you mustn't become a monk. Otherwise, if I and so many other girls go to the temple to see you every day, it will disturb the peace of Buddhism."

charlie wade smiled awkwardly, scratched his head, and changed the subject, saying, "Oh, let's go. This time in America, I'm going to make the entire Left Army Governor's Mansion mine."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) knew that charlie wade was a little embarrassed, so she didn't say anything more. Instead, she took his arm and smiled as she asked, "Young master, do you think Wu Yongzhen will willingly submit to your control?"

charlie wade smiled and said, "Don't worry, this man is insatiably greedy. He'll definitely suffer a big loss this time. I'll use a combination of kindness and severity, a hard and fast approach, and he'll have to accept it even if he's crying!"
