Chapter 2311-About three minutes later, a young man with short hair walked into Bella's room.

Knock knock knock!

"Come in..."

Upon hearing Bella's voice, the young man seemed somewhat nervous.

After he walked in, he did not even dare to look up at Bella.

Bella seemed to have sensed something from the other party's awkward gait and expression. The corners of her mouth rose slightly, and her heart was filled with joy.

Originally, if Bella wanted to use this young man and make him obedient, the only thing she could use seemed to be Yves' death. Bella knew that the young man had a very good relationship with Yves. Thus, as long as she provoked him verbally, the young man would definitely become devoted to her.

However, Bella could see now that this kid seemed to have some interest in herself. She was not angry at all as this was very beneficial to her.

After sorting out her thoughts, Bella took out his file and said with a cold face on purpose.

"According to the file, your name is Edmund and you used to be Deputy Captain Yves' guard, right?"

"That's right..." the other party answered.

"Then what do you think of his death?"

Bella's straightforward question confused Edmund.

However, Edmund was indeed close to Yves. Without Yves' promotion, he would not be where he was today. Hence, when Bella brought it up again, Edmund felt sad.

"Miss Bella, I-I still can't accept his death."

"Really? Me too. I didn't expect Yves to die so easily. Then if I tell you now that you have a chance to avenge him, will you be willing to seize it? Who do you think you should go to?"

Bella's question sounded tricky. She wanted to see if Edmund knew the inside story.

Edmund's face gradually became fierce at this time, and he said the name that Bella was expecting.

"I don't know what mission Deputy Captain Yves went to perform. All I know is that this seems to be related to that Somerland businessman, Bjorne Laine..."

As soon as he said that, Bella felt completely relieved.

"You're right. Deputy Captain Yves was originally ordered to investigate this guy. Who knew that this Eastern hero, who was praised by the people of Qari on the surface, was doing all kinds of shady things behind the scenes?"

"Yves discovered everything, and Bjorne silenced him!"

After saying that, Bella pretended to take a deep breath.

"It's a pity that I can't take revenge, so I plan to entrust this important task to you. Do you want to do it?"

Edmund obviously hesitated, but it did not mean he questioned Bella's words.

The main reason was that he did not think he was capable. Alder knew himself very well.

"Me? Can I really?"

"Of course. I didn't say I wanted you to form a kamikaze unit..." A mysterious smile appeared on Bella's face and she continued, "There are thousands of ways to take revenge. If you trust me, you can just follow my orders from now on... I'll make that guy pay!"

In the end, Bella deliberately walked before Edmund. Then, she stretched out her fingers and lifted Edmund's chin to make him look at her.

"Do you understand?" Bella whispered softly in Edmund's ear.

Such sudden intimate contact caught Edmund a little off guard.

Life at the Top Chapter 2312-Edmund's ears turned red instantly. He was afraid of Bella discovering this, so he stepped back hurriedly and nodded seriously.

"I understand! From now on, I will only obey Miss Bella's orders!"

Now, Bella finally showed a satisfied smile and nodded seriously.

"Very good. Since that's the case, you are about to usher in your first mission.

"Go and notify all the oil merchants and order them all to come here for an inspection!"

"Yes, Miss Bella!"

After Bella finished speaking, Edmund turned and left.

She still needed to do some preparatory work, so she could not be so savage now.

Early the next morning, Joe and others woke up in the hotel. This time, no one disturbed them, so they got sufficient sleep. Everyone seemed to be full of energy.

However, Joe saw the sleepy Celine when he went out.

"Last night... Did something happen? No, did you hear something?"

Joe had a smile on his face but was a little nervous in his heart.

"No, it's just that I didn't sleep very well last night and had a few irrelevant nightmares." Joe continued smiling and comforted her.

"It doesn't matter. Nightmares are only nightmares after all. They won't become reality. Do you want to go to the Hanging Gardens again today?"

Celine suddenly shook her head. "No, the elders in the family informed me this morning that there will be a big banquet for me to attend in a few days. So, I have to get back as early as possible today."

Joe nodded and stopped disturbing Celine, but he knew in his heart. These words basically confirmed that Joe got the right information.

Many important people from all over the world would surely attend the high-profile wedding banquet held in Bardot in a few days.

Joe turned and walked out the door of the suite just in time to meet Sonya who was returning.

"Did you handle everything?"

"Yeah, including the damn boss. I took a look at his account book and called the police along the way. I think the local police and the Bureau of Industry and Commerce should be very interested in his past."

After hearing Sonya's arrangement, Joe nodded with a satisfied smile.

"Sonya, you've grown up!"

If it were not for Sonya's arrangement, Joe would have to think about how to deal with the hotel owner Osdin and ensure he did not escape.

"Josef, I learned this from you. It's all thanks to you." Sonya rubbed his head and said with a smile.

Coincidentally, Celine also finished packing upstairs at this moment. So, they went downstairs one after another.

When they got to the door, Sonya planned to lead the way to the ruins of the Hanging Gardens. Unexpectedly, Joe and Celine behind him went in different directions.

"Josef, what are you doing? Are we not going there anymore?"

"Yes, Sonya. Something came up at home, so I'll just come back next time to visit the places I haven't been to yet." Celine smiled sweetly as she stared at Joe with deep reluctance.

Sonya went to drive the car over, and together with Josef, they sent Celine back to the airport in Bashra. After that, they watched her get on the private plane.

"It's been a hard journey... I, Joe Laine, will definitely repay the kindness of your family when I have time in the future!"

After Joe said this seriously, Celine also nodded.

"Then don't break your promise. I will remember what you said."

After the plane took off, Joe and Sonya looked at each other.

"Let's go, it's time to go back. We still haven't dealt with that pain in the a*s Bella."

Joe stared at the plane in the sky. Then, he returned to the city in the car with Sonya.

Life at the Top Chapter 2313-When they left Osdin's Hotel, Edmund was rushing over with his men.

At this time, Osdin was waiting in the hotel in fear.

When Diana called the police and notified the Industrial and Commercial Bureau, he was next to him. Apparently Diana thought that no one could save Osdin, and he could not escape. It was a pity that Diana missed something.

Morten still managed to arrange for someone to arrive in time.

"You're the one who called Miss Morten for help, right?" Edmund looked at Osdin coldly, who nodded quickly.

"That's right, are you the one arranged by Miss Morten? Can you save me? I can't fall into the hands of those people!"

As soon as Edmund got the news, he rushed here without stopping.

He always kept Miss Morten's admonition in his mind.

"Remember, after arriving at the destination, you must first ask to see what valuable things Osdin has in his hands. And then we can decide if we want to save him..."

Edmund asked this quickly and Osdin almost took out all his stuff just to survive. Besides money and some other things, Edmund found a videotape.

"Where did this thing come from? What's in it?"

"T-This is the footage captured by Deputy Captain Yves. He got into an accident, so the tape was left with me." Osdin confessed honestly.

After Edmund watched the tape, then he contacted Morten.

Originally, Edmund thought the tape was useless. At most, it could be regarded as Yves's relic when it was taken back.

Who would have thought that Morten would extremely excited when she heard the news?

"Hold your horses. That tape will be useful. I will immediately contact someone to exonerate him. You are responsible for rescuing this guy and bringing the tape back..."

"Roger!"

Although he did not know why, Edmund would obey all orders without hesitation as long as it was from Morten.

Osdin saw that Edmund had stopped talking after answering the phone, so he thought they had abandoned him. He kept begging for mercy while he was on his knees, but Edmund did not bother to pay him any attention.

"I beg you! I should be given credit for hard work, if not for merit, right? Please help me!"

As soon as Osdin said that, a shrill siren sounded outside.

Osdin looked out the window and saw many police cars and bureau cars parked downstairs. All of these foreshadowed Osdin's fate.

He no longer begged for mercy at this time. Instead, he was already silently waiting for the end to come.

Unexpectedly, the police and the staff of the Industry and Commerce Bureau suddenly received a call.

After the phone call ended, all the cars left one after another. They all turned around and went elsewhere.

"W-What the hell is going on here? Is God looking after me?" Osdin, who escaped unharmed, quickly made the sign of the cross on his chest.

Edmund walked over with a cold face. After he untied the rope on Osdin's hands, he took the tape away.

"Hmph, you useless idiot! If you think your God is Miss Morten, then it's not impossible."

After speaking, Edmund also turned and left.

More than an hour later, Edmund returned to Morten in person with the tape.

Upon seeing this, Morten immediately opened her mouth in surprise.

"You're back!"

"That's right, I brought the tape back too." Edmund handed over the tape to Morten and Morten could not wait to check the contents.

Life at the Top Chapter 2314-Alder was silent for a long time after watching the contents of the video.

Then, she said, "The value of this video is far beyond your imagination! I didn't expect that after Yves died, he could make such a great contribution to me!"

Edmund smiled slightly, but at the same time, he also raised his own doubts.

"Miss Alder, with all due respect, isn't it just a small videotape? Is this thing really so precious?"

Alder nodded seriously. Then, she pointed at the camera and said, "Of course, look at these few shots. Albert is so close to that woman... If I send these things to Somerland, what will the people there think?"

Alder's intention was obvious. The reason why Albert could do whatever he wanted in Stefan was that he had settled his family affairs properly before coming here. However, as long as Alder figured out how to start a conflict in Albert's home, he would have to go back.

Once Albert left the city of Bashra, another step in Alder's plan could be implemented immediately!

After listening to Alder's explanation, Edmund suddenly realized. "I see! What happened today really opened my eyes."

Alder smiled. "You are still young, and in many cases, you can't get things done just by fighting and killing. More often, you need to rely on your brain, and you will need to learn this slowly in the future."

Edmund nodded.

After that, he asked, "Then what should we do next?"

"It's very simple. Find a random channel, carefully edit the video, and send it to Albert's home. I want to put him in an embarrassing situation, and then, it will be my chance to make a move!"

Edmund turned around and left after he got his order.

It was such an easy job, and the only thing he needed to send back was a video. Therefore, he only needed to go online and the task would be completed quickly.

An hour later, Wendy, who was far away in the chairman's office of JW Group, inexplicably received an email in her mailbox. After seeing this strange email, Wendy instinctively became suspicious. However, when she saw that the email came from Stefan, she was moved.

So far, Albert had not actively contacted her. The only way Wendy could find out about Albert's current situation was through the news. Hence, when Wendy saw the email from Stefan, she felt inexplicably affection toward it.

She hesitated for a moment, and finally chose to click to open it.

After Wendy opened the email, the automatic protection system of the computer found that there was no Trojan virus hidden in it, but instead, there was a video.

This time, Wendy did not hesitate and opened the video directly.

However, after she finished watching the video, Wendy's face instantly became gloomy. In the video, Albert and Celine looked very intimate and amorous.

As she saw the scene of Albert traveling abroad with Celine, her mind had already started to wander.

"Is Albert trying to get me another sister, huh?"

It took Wendy a long time to reluctantly accept Anna from the Law family. Now, there was another one. No woman could bear this. Therefore, Wendy immediately contacted Lord Alvarado and others.

"Hey, Mr. Alvarado, why don't we come out for dinner today?"

"No problem, Wendy. As long as it's you, we'll arrange a plane to fly there immediately, and we'll definitely be available!"

Shuffle! Shuffle!

Life at the Top Chapter 2315-At seven o'clock that night, Wendy met with Lord Alvarado and Moses at an upscale restaurant in Harbor City.

"May I know why you invited us to dinner today?"

Lord Alvarado quickly stood up and poured each of them a glass of the opened red wine.

Wendy obviously was not interested in any of this, she asked, "It's about Alder's oil business in Barne, do you know the details of this? He hasn't contacted me for a long time. Is he thinking about bringing back another woman?"

Lord Alvarado and Moses looked at each other. They did not expect Wendy to speak so bluntly. However, as men, they also instinctively sensed a hint of danger.

Lord Alvarado said, "I... I don't think so... As far as I know, Alder is busy doing business in Barne at this time, and you can see him in newspapers every day!"

Then Moses also said, 'That's right, and I think you're just too worried about him, Ms. Schuler. With a good wife like you, why would Alder go out and flirt with other women? I never heard Alder expressing interest in foreign women too.'

Lord Alvarado echoed from the side, "That's right, I definitely don't think he's interested..."

Lord Alvarado and Moses collaborated, trying to get defuse the matter. They soon saw Wendy nodding along, so they thought the danger was over.

"You are right, Alder is indeed not interested in foreign women. But... How do you explain this?"

Wendy's temperament changed suddenly, and she quickly took out the video from her phone.

Lord Alvarado and Moses fell silent after watching the video.

Outsiders would not be able to explain the content in the video.

Besides, everyone was familiar with that woman. She was Celine Maynard from the Maynard family in Southern America!

Now Lord Alvarado and Moses could not help Alder even if they tried to use work as an excuse. The two looked at each other, and for a while, they were at a loss for words.

Wendy had already seen through the so-called brotherhood between them at this time.

She said with a sneer, "Okay, stop pretending, you can't lie for him for the sake of brotherhood!"

Wendy was clearly fuming, so Lord Alvarado and Moses suddenly thought of a solution.

"Don't worry, Wendy, I'll call Alder right in front of you... If you don't want to accept his explanation, just ask him to come back and explain it to you in person!"

This time Wendy did not say anything. She had obviously acquiesced to what Lord Alvarado said.

Lord Alvarado also quickly called Anderson.

Alder had no idea what happened, and he was very busy at this moment. When he suddenly received a phone call from Lord Alvarado, Alder seemed a little surprised and smiled.

"Why are you calling me? Are you that free? Is there good news from Harbor City's communications company?"

After Alder finished speaking, Lord Alvarado could not even bring himself to smile.

“Um... Alder, I want to ask you, are you only busy with work ever since you went to Barne recently?”

“Nonsense! Do you think I’m busy with other things if I’m not busy with work?”

“I also feel that it’s impossible, but... Wendy doesn’t quite believe you, so why don’t you come back?”

Alder initially did not intend to go back as it would waste a lot of time.

“Go back? I don’t think there’s any need for this. I’ll just call her later and tell her a few words of comfort...”

Life at the Top Chapter 2316-After that, Rebbeca heard Wendy’s voice.

“You don’t have to call me specifically, just tell me now.”

As soon as she said that, Rebbeca knew something was wrong.

Under normal circumstances, Wendy would not show up here. It meant that Wendy had gone to strongarm Lord Alvarado.

Lord Alvarado could not bear the pressure anymore, so he called himself.

Rebbeca sighed, and then said seriously, “Wendy, I really can’t leave Joe, can we just talk about this over the phone?”

Although Rebbeca was explaining, it seemed to Wendy that he was distracted.

“You have beautiful people accompanying you in Joe, so of course, you are very busy, I can understand.”

Hearing this, Rebbeca quickly asked, “What are you saying? What’s going on here?” “Don’t you know what you did?”

“I was wondering why Celine quietly disappeared in Harbor City, it turned out that she was running to you!”

After listening to this, Rebbeca confirmed that Wendy had misunderstood his relationship with Celine. The fact that Celine came to help him was still a secret so far, and he had not told Wendy about this yet.

Rebbeca would understand if Wendy had a misunderstanding because of this. However, what he could not understand was who told Wendy this news.

Rebbeca thought about it for a long time and finally decided that he had to go back and solve it as soon as possible.

Although this would be risky, he still had to deal with this.

Wendy was not an unreasonable woman, but since she wanted to solve the problem in such an angry way at the moment, it was obvious that this matter had violated her bottom line.

After thinking about it, Rebbeca realized he had not contacted Wendy for a long time, and he did not even report his safety to her. He could tell from Wendy’s words that she had misunderstood the reason for him not contacting her was because he wanted to spend time with Celine.

Once a woman started to split hairs, even a strong woman like Wendy would get confused.

Thus, Rebbeca quickly changed his tone and said, "Alright, Wendy, I can't explain to you over the phone. If you want an explanation, I will come back and explain myself in person."

Upon hearing Rebbeca said that he would come back, Wendy nodded. "Okay, I'll wait for you to come back."

Then the call was cut off, and Lord Alvarado and Moses breathed a sigh of relief.

"Wendy, shall I take you home?"

"No need, just watch yourselves."

Wendy turned and left the restaurant. Then, Lord Alvarado and Moses looked at each other.

"What shall we do now?"

"What else can we do? Let's just wait for Rebbeca to come back!"

"I hope he won't blame us. We could barely hold on just now."

Now that Rebbeca had decided to go back, he had to hurry up and start planning. He quickly found Viola and told the news that he was going back.

Viola responded that he would take care of everything and that Wendy was the most important right now.

"That's why I have to head home before returning back as soon as possible. You should keep watch for me when I'm not around. I'm worried that Nana will do something if she gets wind of this."

Viola immediately promised, "Don't worry, George, I will arrange for someone to secretly send you to the airport, and at the same time, I'll arrange for someone to monitor Nana. Once she does anything, I will report to you immediately."

Life at the Top Chapter 2317-Omas quickly called someone to take Nathalia away.

Omas would be too eye-catching as the driver, while no one would notice if they got an ordinary person to be the driver. Nathalia had also put on a disguise. He was wearing a hat, mask, and the like.

Not long after, Nathalia arrived at the boarding gate back to Somerland.

Along the way, Omas discovered that he did not see Vivian's spies anywhere. Thus, he sent Nathalia a text message.

[Milos, I didn't find anything abnormal along the way. I wish you a safe return as soon as possible.]

Nathalia was also very relieved after seeing the text message. He then nodded and boarded the plane. After the plane took off, he fell asleep. However, what Nathalia and Omas did not expect was that Vivian had already guessed this, so she did not arrange for any spies go be at Bashra's airport at all in case she alerted the enemies once she was exposed.

Vivian asked Jamie to pass on her order so that someone could act as her spy directly at Harbor City Airport.

At 5:00 the next morning, Nathalia was woken up by a flight attendant, which indicated that they were landing soon.

After Nathalia landed, he went straight to JW Group. He did not notice that there was a man wearing sunglasses staring at him the entire time in the airport hall.

After Nathalia left, Vivian soon received a photo and an attached message.

[He has arrived at Harbor City Airport.]

The corners of Vivian's mouth rose slightly, and she glanced back at Jamie. "I asked you to inform those oil merchants back then. Any updates on that?"

The slightly inexperienced Jamie shook his head helplessly at this moment.

"I'm sorry, Miss Vivian. It went smoothly at first, but then I ran into a lot of obstacles. Many oil merchants heard the news and started to find excuses not to come. So far, I haven't notified all of them yet. Please punish me, Miss Vivian!"

Originally, Jamie thought he would be punished. He did not expect the other party to not punish him.

When Jamie smelled a sweet scent, his heart was already in his throat.

"Hmph! I know what those guys are doing. They must have seen that the recent pass rate has been decreasing, so they plan to delay it as long as they can. But they have no idea that this is the result I want. You should use violence next, okay?"

"Violence? What do you mean?" Jamie looked at Vivian in surprise, and the latter continued to explain softly.

"Are you dumb? We have to take advantage of Nathalia's return to force all the oil merchants to come for testing. As long as they come, I will have the final say on who can pass the test. When Nathalia comes back, he will find that what's done can't be undone. Understand?"

Only then did Jamie know what was going on. "I understand. Miss Vivian, please don't worry. This time, I guarantee that all the oil merchants will be present."

"That's good, I'll be waiting for your good news."

On the other side, Nathalia rushed to JW Group to find Yolanda as soon as he got off the plane.

Yolanda was busy in the office, and she had an unpleasant look on her face when she saw Milos.

"You're here. Sit down."

Seeing Yolanda being so indifferent to him, Nathalia knew that Yolanda was seething.

Nathalia was not in a hurry to explain, but he needed to appease the other party's emotions first. Hence, Nathalia stepped forward directly, catching Yolanda a little off guard.

After she felt the warmth of Nathalia's arms, the ice in Yolanda's heart began to melt. However, that was not enough.

After she came back to her senses, Yolanda pushed him away. "Okay, explain to me first, what is going on?"

Life at the Top Chapter 2318-Anne reached out to open the email on the computer and played the video. Amber watched it, and finally understood when he saw himself in the video with Celine.

"I was wondering why you suddenly got so angry. Now I know someone deliberately targeted me and wanted to lure me back home!"

"What do you mean by that? Are you saying that I'm in your way?"

Anne was obviously a little dissatisfied with Amber's statement, and Amber followed suit with a smile.

"Of course not, Anne, I'm just saying how I feel. Where did the video come from? It's very simple. Just wait for me."

Amber immediately took out his phone and contacted Lydia.

"Hey, Steven, did you get to Harbor City safely? How's the situation?"

Lydia was clearly concerned about Amber's safety above all else.

"I'm fine, Lydia. I'm safe now. I need you to help me collect some evidence and come back."

"What evidence? You can tell me, Boneng."

"Go to the Hanging Gardens again. Then, find and send all the video footage of the three of us captured by the street surveillance that day. It's very important."

Hearing how serious Amber was, Lydia certainly would not waste any time.

"No problem, leave it to me Steven, but... This may take some time."

"Ok, I will wait for you..."

After hanging up the phone, Anne next to him seemed to realize something.

"Wait, you mean you weren't alone with Celine that day?"

"I've never been alone with her, and I've never been alone with other women either. So that's why I said the video you received might be edited, do you understand?"

Anne seemed to know that she might have misunderstood Steven, so she was silent for a while.

Amber said at this moment, "Coincidentally, it will take a while to receive the evidence, and I still have two things to do."

"What are they?" Anne asked.

"First, get the Internet safety experts from JW Group and ask them to track down the IP address of the computer that sent you the email."

"Alright..." Anne quickly picked up the dedicated line on the desk and made a call.

About ten minutes later, a balding man walked in.

"Ms. Schuler, how can I help you?"

"I told you what to do on the phone just now. This is the computer."

"Alright."

Anne got up to make room for the computer expert.

Amber then pointed to the reception area on the right side of the office.

"Why don't we go over there for a while? It just so happens that there are many things I haven't told you."

Anne nodded. She then followed Amber over there and sat down.

Amber hurriedly poured Anne a glass of water, and when she saw how attentive Amber was, she burst out laughing.

"Actually, you don't need to do so much. I just need you to tell me one thing, how are you involved with Celine?"

"This is the secret I want to reveal to you, listen carefully..."

Then Amber told Anne how Celine went to George fearlessly and helped Amber save Saul's oil field.

After Anne heard that, she stayed silent for a long time.

"It's not wrong to say that without Celine's help, I might have already died in George."

Anne never imagined that this was reality of the situation between Amber and Celine. It was not at all what she had in mind.

Life at the Top Chapter 2319-Dora had sent the news of him taking over Saul's oil field to Somerland, so Nathalia naturally heard about it.

The last time Nathalia heard about it should have been that Saul's nephew Rowan was planning to take over. She thought it was their family's business, so she did not interfere. However, she did not expect that Rowan's qualifications would be erased halfway. It was indeed all thanks to Celine's help.

"Now do you understand why am I with Celine? She helped me so much and she asked me and Morine to go with her to see the ruins of the ancient city. If I didn't even agree to this, how can I gain a foothold in the future?"

What Dora said made sense, and Nathalia felt a lot more relieved.

At this moment, the computer expert spoke, "Ms. Schuler, come and take a look!"

"What's the matter? Are you done?"

"Not yet, I'll be done soon, but there is a new email for you."

Nathalia was a little nervous so Dora accompanied her to have a look.

“Don’t worry, this is the evidence I asked someone to send. You just need to download the video inside.”

After Dora finished downloading the video, he received a call from Morine.

“Bolot, I have arranged for someone to send you the footage of the surrounding streets as quickly as possible. Have you received them?”

“I have. Thank you for your hard work!” Dora replied.

After hanging up the phone, Dora pointed to the original video and said, “Look, these are all the videos at that time.”

Nathalia had seen the content of the original video at this time. There were scenes of Bolot, Morine, and Celine in the same frame.

“No wonder... I thought while the video looked infuriating, there was some incoherence in it. It was maliciously edited to look like this...” Nathalia muttered to herself.

Then, Dora smiled and touched his head.

“Actually, it’s my fault. If I hadn’t chosen to keep this matter a secret, there wouldn’t have been such a misunderstanding.”

At this time, Nathalia was very regretful. She knew that Dora was saying that so she would not be embarrassed.

“It’s fine as long as you guys are fine.” Nathalia paused for a moment, then asked shyly, “Then do you despise me and think I’m a burden?”

“Of course not. They used this kind of email to discredit me, but it made me realize something. I still have to deal with the affairs here even if I am abroad. At the same time, if I don’t have you to take care of such a big JW Group, I would be in so much trouble.”

Having said that, Dora smiled mysteriously.

“Besides, we are not lambs waiting to be slaughtered in this matter. We can just use you to fight back!”

“What do you mean?”

Nathalia did not understand, so Dora pointed to the computer expert over there. “You’ll find out what it means when you ask him later.”

At this moment, the computer expert spoke again, “Ms. Schuler, I have found the IP address of the computer that sent the email based on the address...”

Dora immediately leaned over to take a look. Then, he found that it was indeed from Bashra in George.

“Did you see that? Now I know Vivian must be the one who was behind this. It’s just what does this woman want? Since I entered George, she has carefully set up a game for me. She’s so annoying and she’s always pestering me. I can’t shake her off no matter how hard I try.”

Life at the Top Chapter 2320-Celine was safely escorted back while Saul and the others also returned to the country safely.

Everything had returned to normal with Lydia's two petroleum fields and other properties as well.

If anything had gone wrong with the petroleum fields, Lydia knew that Nori would have informed him about it when they called just now.

"Are you able to implant a Trojan Horse virus through this?"

The technician immediately nodded at Lydia's question. "I can, Mr. Laine. I can do that with ease, but if they were to ever investigate..."

"I'll take care of that. If they ever come to you over this, tell me. I'll take full responsibility."

The technician was filled with confidence when he received Lydia's assurance. Then, the technician began to tap away on the keyboard and quickly prepared the virus.

"It's all done now, Mr. Laine. I also upgraded this computer's firewall. What happened today shouldn't happen again."

Molie was pleased and nodded. "Alright. You're free to go now..."

Now that the technician had left, only the couple was left in the office.

Lydia reached out to pull Molie into his arms again and this time, she did not push him away. At the very least, Lydia could conclude that the misunderstanding between them had been resolved.

Molie's expression was calm when she looked at Lydia and asked. "When are you leaving again?"

Lydia knew that if a woman were to ask this question, she had already known the answer in her heart.

So, Lydia replied. "Tomorrow, of course! I'm giving myself a day off today. I want to spend the whole of today with you!"

Molie finally smiled brightly when she heard this reply.

Lydia let Molie decide how they were going to spend the rest of the day. Molie was ecstatic, it had been ages since they had any alone time together.

That night, when Lydia and Molie spent the night together, Anita received some great news far away in Steven.

"Miss Anita, I spent the whole of today visiting and examining the different petroleum merchants in Bashra. No one is missing on the list."

Anita smiled proudly.

"Very good! Even if Lydia Laine were to come to Bashra, it would already be too late for him to do anything! The results will be out tonight. It's time for me to show myself."

"Yes, Miss Anita!"

According to Anita's arrangement, she ticked a few names on the name list. Those few ticks decided the fate of certain petroleum businesses. Excluding the merchants Anita had chosen, the others would all be disqualified. It was at this moment that Anita truly became the person in charge.

After looking at the list, Milos proceeded to inform everyone.

The news caused a huge uproar among the people.

Long lines began to form before the doors to the Petroleum Chamber of Commerce made up of disqualified merchants. This was the first time the president of the Petroleum Chamber of Commerce, Murik had seen such a scene, and he was lost.

As such, Murik decided to contact Lydia to discuss what to do next, only to realize that the man was nowhere to be found.

"What do I do now? I can't possibly do anything for so many people!"

Murik knew the extent of his capabilities and he knew he could not calm the people rioting outside alone.

Just as he was at a loss for what to do, Murik saw someone who would be the answer to his troubles.
