Chapter 1111

Gu Shaoyang was able to distribute all the medicinal materials according to proportions in just a few seconds, and then he started to move the medicinal materials in the air, and then turned them into powder.

When they turned into powder, Gu Shaoyang put them in a container and then put them aside. This was considered the completion of the powdered medicinal materials.

Regarding the medicinal effects of the medicinal materials, Gu Shaoyang also called his simple form of ecstasy powder, and divided it into two types: liquid and powder.

However, whether it is powder or liquid, their effects are the same, so Gu Shaoyang directly classified them as ecstasy powder.

2 Soon he finished refining all the ecstasy powder, but it was not over yet because he bought many different medicinal materials.

Ecstasy Powder is only the most basic of the medicinal materials he bought, and has the weakest effect, while the following ones are the most important and have the best effects.

When Gu Shaoyang placed all the refining materials for the Soul Powder on the ground, he directly put them all into the space ring with a wave of his hand.

Then Gu Shaoyang took out all the other medicinal materials.

What he was going to prepare next was something that would allow people to slowly fade away in their cultivation without even knowing it.

Gu Shaoyang specially made this medicine for the head of the Lin family inside the jar.

He had already put the medicine in when he gave him blood before, but he had to do this every day in the future.

And the closer the time is to his end, the greater the dose Gu Shaoyang will give him, so that he will not notice it.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang specially distributed the refining, and for better effect, he also added some five poisons into it.

In this way, the head of the Lin family in the jar will not only lose his cultivation level, but also become seriously poisonous without even realizing it.

Even if he had some backup then, coupled with Gu Shaoyang's suppression, it would be impossible for him to stand up.

While silently planning in his mind, Gu Shaoyang kept moving his hands, and soon several bottles of potions appeared in front of him, and he still waved his hand and put them all into the space ring.

Then Gu Shaoyang began to refine the medicinal materials to treat the children, because the injuries on the children's bodies were very important in the tree hole.

In order to directly regulate the inside of the child's body, Gu Shaoyang temporarily left the wounds on the surface of the body intact, so he had to use specific medicinal materials to refine it.

The procedures were also much more complicated. Before, he could refine the first two medicinal materials in just a few clicks, but now it took him twice as long as refining just this one medicinal material.

Moreover, in order to make the medicinal materials more effective and maximize their effectiveness, Gu Shaoyang did not hesitate to add snow worms from the snow-capped mountains and snow lotus from the snow-capped mountains to the medicinal materials.

These two kinds of medicinal materials are rare to find outside, and they are treasures that cannot be bought with money. Very few people use them to treat wounds.

Others usually use these two medicinal materials to save lives of important people, but Gu Shaoyang directly uses them to treat children's wounds. It can be said to be - rich!

Finally, after locking himself in the room for a while, Gu Shaoyang finally finished making all the medicinal ingredients, then he opened the door and walked out.

When he walked out of the room, there was no one outside the room because he had been told not to disturb him before, but Gu Shaoyang was not angry when he saw no one.

But he thought of Tian Daoping's exaggerated behavior, so he immediately shouted bossily: "Are all of you dead? Didn't you see me getting up? Why don't you come and serve me!"

Gu Shaoyang imitated Tian Daoping's behavior and stood at the door. He shouted loudly, and when the servants who were outside always paying attention to what was going on inside heard the roar, they immediately swarmed over.

Immediately, Gu Shaoyang saw all the servants kneeling in front of him, and the scene was huge.

"Master, we know our mistake!" Hearing the neat answers from the servants, Gu Shaoyang could guess with his toes that this Tian Daoping must have been putting on airs at home.

Otherwise, when he was angry, the servants had such a tacit understanding that they would not even defend themselves. When he came up, he knelt down and admitted his mistake.

The movements were done in one go, and it really made it impossible for him to find fault: "Why don't you go make me tea and serve me! Are you all kneeling and waiting for me to help you get up personally?"

After finally hearing "Tian Dao"'s instructions, the servants quickly stood up and gathered around "Tian Dao" to serve him.

And "Tian Dao" sat on a chair, holding the warm soup that the servants had brewed. It was just right to serve Longjing, and

I took a sip. Hmm! It's really different! It's really good tea!

After Gu Shaoyang took a few sips of tea, he waved to the person in front of him, wanting him to give him a massage, but then asked him to go away.

Because everyone's bones are different, and the person who often massages Tian Dao is also the person who is most familiar with and understands his bones.

Chapter 1112

Therefore, if Gu Shaoyang asked him to massage himself, he would definitely be exposed, so he immediately gave up the idea.

"Forget it, go down and let them bring me some snacks." After that, Gu Shaoyang waved to him and motioned for him to come down.

After being ordered by him, Tian Dao's masseur quickly turned around and left. Then when he left, another maid served dozens of kinds of dishes. Different snacks.

Gu Shaoyang held the tea in one hand and the snacks in the other and tasted them carefully.

The life of Tian Dao was so good! No wonder he didn't want to give up, and he liked to show off his power so much, and let so many people serve him. Sometimes he still felt Pretty good.

Gu Shaoyang sighed secretly in his heart while eating snacks, while the servants around him could only lower their heads silently, not daring to look at him.

Only when he was happy and enjoying, The housekeeper suddenly came to the hall and hurriedly walked to his side, as if there was something urgent.

"The master's children have been transported to the big tree. Do you want to go and see for yourself? And there's something wrong with the quantity."

The housekeeper came to Gu Shaoyang and leaned over and said, and Gu Shaoyang slowly closed his eyes when he saw the housekeeper approaching him.

Because he knew that the housekeeper must have something, but he just pretended to be someone other than Tian Daoping. expression, and then waited for the butler to come forward and tell him what happened

"Well, I understand, let them all stand down." Gu Shaoyang, Ge You, was lying on a chair, closing his eyes and waving to the housekeeper.

After the housekeeper saw Tian Dao's actions, he immediately waved to the people surrounding him and serving him: "Go down. Well, you don't need to wait here anymore."

After saying that, the servants waiting in the hall immediately disappeared without a trace, and when they retreated, they made no sound at all. It can be said that they are well-trained, and it can be seen from this that this Tian Daoping always treats them. The requirements are very strict, otherwise they would not be like this.

After everyone left, only the butler and "Tian Dao" were left in the hall, and he just stretched out his hand lightly, and then the butler helped him very sensibly.

Then Gu Shaoyang stood up with the help of the housekeeper and walked slowly outside.

"Are the carriages and everything ready?" Gu Shaoyang asked as he walked, and the housekeeper only supported him carefully while answering his questions.

"Everything has been prepared according to your usual habits." The butler answered very respectfully, and Gu Shaoyang also nodded lightly, expressing satisfaction.

Finally, with the help of the butler, he got into the carriage and drove towards the big tree hole, but the butler could not ride in the same carriage as "Tian Dao". There was a carriage, so he could only follow on foot.

And the housekeeper who has been following the carriage has to keep a close distance from the carriage to ensure that he can hear what "Tian Dao" says.

"What quantity did you just say was wrong?" After the carriage traveled a certain distance, Gu Shaoyang, who was sitting in the carriage, slightly opened the curtains and asked.

The housekeeper who was questioned by Gu Shaoyang immediately quickened his pace and took two steps forward to answer: "The person who just transported the baby reported that there are two babies. Was robbed during transportation"

"So the number is still two short. What do you think we should do now?"

Gu Shaoyang, who was sitting in the carriage, couldn't help but raise the corners of his mouth when he heard the news: Who is this! Just did what I wanted to do! What an interesting thing!

When Gu Shaoyang admired silently in his heart, he also said: He answered the butler, but what he said was completely opposite to what he was thinking.

"What! Wrong quantity! Robbed! What do you do for food? All the experts I hired for you are of no use! Is it possible that someone could still rob him?"

"Seeing that the boss's end is coming soon! Is it possible that you don't know? Something went wrong at such a critical time! Do you feel that you have lived too long?"

Although Gu Shaoyang was very happy in his heart, he lost his temper when he answered the housekeeper, and the housekeeper was scolded bloody by him. The driver of the carriage was even more angry when he heard "Tian Dao" lose his temper. Dare to speak out, for fear that he would be implicated in the next second, and the housekeeper did not dare to speak after being scolded. He still followed the carriage at a short distance, waiting for the people in the car to continue talking.

"After going down to the tree hole, I will go to the flower shop. I have to report this matter to the boss! Also, hurry up and look for the baby in the next few days! The more the merrier!"

Pretending to be angry but helpless, Gu Shaoyang "calmed down" his anger, and then gave instructions to the housekeeper outside. After receiving Gu Shaoyang's instructions, the housekeeper's heart dropped. Finally,

"Tian Dao" was very good. Angry, but because the matter was urgent, he did not vent to him or make fun of him, but proposed a solution.

So as long as he could.

Chapter 1113

If things are done well, then "Tian Dao" will definitely not pursue the case, which means he has made up for his mistakes, but the housekeeper can only hope that he can truly make up for his mistakes.

Because "Tian Dao" hopes that the newborn baby will never be found again, and he will send more people to stop it, it seems a little difficult for the housekeeper to "make up for it"

"Okay, sir, I will definitely get things done!" The steward promised swornly, but "Tian Dao" sitting in the carriage just snorted lightly.

Then he stopped talking, and the steward and the coachman did not dare to disturb, so they could only keep quiet. In this way, the three people arrived at the big tree hole in a tense atmosphere. After arriving at their destination, the housekeeper opened the curtains.

"master? Already arrived." The butler who opened the curtains called softly, and "Tian Dao" just opened his eyes lightly after hearing it.

Then he raised his hand proudly, and the butler helped him get out of the car.

"Okay, you go and hide somewhere else first. Don't stay here all the time. If you are too showy, people will notice you."

"Tian Dao" looked around very carefully, and then said to the housekeeper and the coachman.

"Okay, sir." The coachman and the steward answered in unison. After hearing their answers, Gu Shaoyang didn't have a chance and walked straight towards the tree hole.

Then the steward and the coachman only saw his figure disappearing into the tree hole.

Waiting for "Field Road" After disappearing, the housekeeper and the coachman dared to drive away. On the carriage, although the "field road" was not there, the housekeeper still did not dare to sit in the carriage. He could only sit on the front of the carriage with the coachman and drive away together.

Another On one side, after entering the tree hole, Gu Shaoyang still saw three little boys. The last time he saw them, their faces were very pale.

This time when he saw them, it was obvious that their complexions were slightly better, but However, the wounds are still on their bodies, and their skin is extremely white because they have been in dark places all year round.

It may be because Gu Shaoyang gave them medicine last time, so this time the three children looked at him with a slightly less fear.

But compared to the children, the people who were watching over the children felt particularly uncomfortable when they saw "Tian Dao".

Because the last time "Tian Dao" took off the children's clothes, they thought wrongly. So they were afraid that "Tian Dao" would fall in love with them, so they avoided him.

"Okay, go down, no one will come in without my instructions!" Gu Shaoyang once again imitated the tone of "Tian Dao".

After he finished speaking, all the people guarding the children left immediately, leaving only a bunch of keys.

Looking at them flashing away as fast as light, Gu Shaoyang was very satisfied.

Finally, after confirming that they had all left, Gu Shaoyang took out the medicine he had refined before from the space ring, and then he took off the children's clothes again. It was the same as last time. Give them medicine, and the children will keep resisting at first, thinking that the bad guy is going to bleed them again, but it turns out that this is not the case.

This bad guy they thought was going to bleed their blood. But people were giving them medicine very seriously, and they didn't dislike them at all.

They didn't beat or scold them either. This is very precious and even a luxury for children who are used to being beaten, scolded and hurt.

"Okay, you guys should be obedient here. If people outside ask about what I did with you, just say that I won't let you tell me. Do you understand?"

After a period of time, Gu Shaoyang helped the three children rub all the wounds on their bodies with medicine, and the children gradually dropped their guard against him.

"OK, we got it!"The children answered very obediently, and after receiving their affirmative answer, Gu Shaoyang was relieved a lot. After giving the medicine to the child, he took the blood bucket over and prepared to make some fresh blood. Unexpectedly, the children After seeing Gu Shaoyang approaching them gradually with a bucket of blood, their emotions immediately became very excited, their eyes were full of fear, and they murmured something wrong.

"don't want! don't want! I don't want to be bled anymore, brother, I beg you!"

When he slowly approached the child with the bucket of blood, Gu Shaoyang still didn't understand why they were like this, but when he heard the murmur in the child's mouth clearly, he immediately understood

"No! My brother won't do it!"Gu Shaoyang said and immediately threw away the blood bucket in his hand, and then comforted the children.

In the end, in order to prevent the children from getting emotional, he could only take the blood bucket far away to make it.

And the children were gone. After the threat of the blood bucket, the mood gradually calmed down. One child even looked up curiously to see the movements in Gu Shaoyang's hand.

Soon, the blood bucket Gu Shaoyang was holding had his special characteristics.

Chapter 1114

Unique materials were made into"blood water", and this bucket of blood water smelled and tasted just like real blood.

Therefore, Gu Shaoyang is not afraid of being discovered at all. Because of this, Gu Shaoyang came up with the idea of confusing the fake with the real one.

Just to stop hurting the children, not to help the head of the Lin family in the jar, and to help the evildoers!

Soon, Gu Shaoyang finished making a bucket full of blood:"Okay, come in!"

Standing up, Gu Shaoyang shouted loudly towards the door, and then the people who had just left immediately entered neatly.

"Come on someone, keep stirring." As he said this, Gu Shaoyang took the wooden stick in the blood bucket and handed it out, and among the people standing, one person immediately took it.

After the wooden stick in his hand was handed over, Gu Shaoyang continued to walk inside, because inside That was the most important thing for him today - the newborn baby!

Soon, Gu Shaoyang took the key and opened the baby room. In the baby room, there were many wet nurses taking care of them, and these babies seemed to have been fed potions..So much so that they were very quiet and did not cry, and the wet nurses were very worry-free.

Looking at these wet nurses, Gu Shaoyang could think of what would happen if these babies were refined by the head of the Lin family in the jar. The wet nurse will definitely not leave anyone alive.

There are hundreds of babies here. If a wet nurse summons two children, fifty wet nurses will die. If you add the names of these one hundred babies, one hundred more will die. Fifty people!

This number may not seem that big, but when these one hundred and fifty people stand in front of you, you can deeply understand. What a huge number one hundred and fifty people are!

"Lord Tian!" When Gu Shaoyang was still immersed in his thoughts, a wet nurse taking care of the child spoke first, bringing him back to reality from his thoughts.

"Mr. Tian, there are still two children left to go. We have an extra wet nurse here. Do you want to let her go?"

This nanny is the head of the nanny in charge of collecting, her name is Cuihua, and she is also the one who gets the most money.

At the same time, she also knows what will happen to the children they take care of, and she also knows that they will never be able to return. Get out alive.

But her only son was sick and needed a lot of money, so she had to take risks and do these things.

Although she knew that these things were unconscionable, she had to do this for her own son.

"No, just let her feed depending on which child eats more." Gu Shaoyang directly rejected Cuihua's suggestion of letting a wet nurse go.

Because once the descendants are released, their location will definitely be exposed, and now it seems that the end of the Lin family in the jar is coming.

He must not alert others and attract others' attention!

After being rejected, Nurse Cuihua did not dare to ask any more questions and just nursed the children silently. Gu Shaoyang only counted the number of children and left.

When he left , and locked the door tightly to prevent them from sneaking out.

"Okay, take care of them yourself."Going out of the room, Gu Shaoyang said to the people outside, and then walked out with the bucket of blood.

Outside the tree hole, the coachman had already set the time and was waiting for him outside. The housekeeper was no longer there, and it seemed that he should have gone back.

Finally, driven by the driver, Gu Shaoyang arrived at the flower shop.

Still using the old method of delivering flowers, Gu Shaoyang took advantage of the cover to enter the bottom of the pond for a long time, and finally respectfully poured the"bloody water" in the blood bucket into the big bucket. After doing this, Gu Shaoyang immediately knelt in front of the head of the Lin family in the jar.

"What's wrong?"I only heard a suspicious sound suddenly coming from the jar, but no one was seen above the jar.

I think the head of the Lin family who came inside must have soaked himself in the jar.

"There are not enough children, and they lost two, so I came here to report to you."

Gu Shaoyang pretended to be Tian Dao and said in a low voice. When the head of the Lin family in the jar heard the news, his head immediately popped out of the jar.

"What! The child is lost! Are they eating free rice? How to do things!"

The head of the Lin family inside the jar was very angry, and Gu Shaoyang knelt underneath without daring to breathe. When the head of the Lin family was tired of scolding and had a break, he immediately interrupted and said: "Don't worry, I have sent people to look for the child again. I believe that the child will be found before your death!"

Gu Shaoyang promised, and the head of the Lin family just touched his forehead helplessly after hearing his words of assurance.

Finally, he sighed deeply, waved to him, and signaled him to leave.

After finally seeing the actions of the head of the Lin family, Gu Shaoyang immediately retreated..After Gu Shaoyang walked out, he immediately breathed a sigh of relief: Fortunately, he didn't care!

Chapter 1115

After leaving the pond, Gu Shaoyang returned to the carriage. After returning to the carriage, Gu Shaoyang had a gloomy face and looked very unhappy.

The coachman driving the carriage noticed the gloomy mood of "Tian Dao" and did not dare to provoke him. He just drove the carriage straight back to the farm house.

When "Tian Dao" returned to the house, the servants were very discerning and noticed that his mood was not right, so they all took a detour.

Try not to meet Gu Shaoyang to avoid unnecessary trouble.

In fact, Gu Shaoyang couldn't be happier!

The number of babies was not enough, and the head of the Lin family in the jar did not pursue such an important matter!

Moreover, he just secretly looked at the face of the head of the Lin family. After he used the potion he specially prepared, his face had changed.

And he could also clearly feel that the spiritual power of the head of the Lin family had increased, but this was only temporary.

I believe that in a few days, his cultivation level will suddenly drop, and he will only think that his end is approaching soon.

Seeing the plan being carried out slowly step by step, Gu Shaoyang became more and more nervous. The more critical the moment, the less he could make mistakes.

Moreover, there were so many children in the tree hole. In addition to the baby and the three children tied outside, there were many abducted children in other rooms.

What Gu Shaoyang had to do was to ensure that they had sufficient physical strength, so that when he sent people to rescue them, they would have the strength to escape.

Now Gu Shaoyang was going to save the three children who were tied up outside the tree hole first.

Because they were tied up outside and had already been bleeding several times, if they could continue bleeding, it would definitely arouse their suspicion.

So now he wants to let him "die" so that he can hide his eyes from others.

"housekeeper! Prepare a car! Go to the tree hole!" After saying that, Gu Shaoyang got up and walked towards the door. After seeing him, he immediately ran to the door to prepare.

When Gu Shaoyang walked to the door, the carriage and the housekeeper were already waiting at the door.

"Let's go!" After getting into the car and sitting down, Gu Shaoyang said. When the carriage started to drive, Gu Shaoyang quickly took out a mold from the space ring and started carving.

Finally, when the coachman drove the carriage to the tree hole, The mold in Gu Shaoyang's hand was already ready, but he quickly put it away when he was about to get off the car.

"Okay, you go back, I will go back by myself later. After saying that, Gu Shaoyang went straight into the tree hole, and after covering the "field road", the driver drove away.

Gu Shaoyang's arrival was silent, and left the people in the tree hole unprepared, so for a while None of them were prepared and they were all lazy.

When Gu Shaoyang entered, what he saw was that the people inside were gathering together to play cards and gamble.

Seeing this scene, Gu Shaoyang immediately pretended to be angry and showed his momentum in an instant: "What are you doing? you! Did I raise you just so you can play cards here?"

As he spoke, Gu Shaoyang raised his feet and slowly approached them step by step.

When he heard the sound of "Field Road", the people in the tree hole were frightened from their stools and sat down on the ground, and some were even scared to the point of peeing.

But seeing how scared they were, Gu Shaoyang didn't feel any pity at all: "Get out of here and hand over all the things you have on you to confiscate them!" If I find out that you have something secretly hidden, don't blame me for sending you down!"

As he spoke, Gu Shaoyang had a warning look in his eyes. After hearing "Tian Dao"'s words, whoever dared to hide it secretly took out all the treasures on their bodies.

After letting them all hand it over, they stood there obediently and waited. "Tian Dao" reprimanded them next.

They thought that even if they didn't die after doing such a thing, they would definitely lose their skin, but who knew that nothing happened?

"Get out!"

With uneasiness, they were waiting to be punished and finally heard a very incredible but very familiar voice.

Just when they hesitated and stood still, Gu Shaoyang immediately grabbed the one closest to him. The person was thrown out directly.

When others saw this, they immediately swarmed towards the door, and soon only Gu Shaoyang was left in the room.

After everyone left, Gu Shaoyang directly took the three tied children out of the room. was put down on the pillar.

Freed from the restraints, the children looked at "Tian Dao" with doubts in their eyes, and at the same time there was some fear and suspicion in their eyes.

But they thought of what "Tian Dao" had given them medicine before, so the three The child gradually relaxed

"Don't ask anything, you will know when the time comes." Gu Shaoyang knows that the children must be full of doubts now, but there is no time now.

He is not allowed to explain more, so Gu Shaoyang can only wait until the matter is done before telling the children the cause and effect.

Chapter 1116

Then Gu Shaoyang took out three pills from his arms and handed them to the three children.

"If you eat it, you will be suspended in suspended animation. I will take you out when the time comes."

While Gu Shaoyang was speaking, the children had already taken the pills in their hands, but they did not take them immediately but looked at each other.

Gu Shaoyang saw the children's hesitant movements and did not urge them.

Because it had always been the case before. "Tian Dao" personally abused them, so now they are a little suspicious of the "Tian Dao" disguised as Gu Shaoyang.

Although this "Tian Dao" has helped them twice, they still don't believe it

"I'll explain it to you later, but now it's almost too late."

Gu Shaoyang didn't want to force the children, so he could only tell them carefully. Under Gu Shaoyang's persuasion, the children finally took the pills in their hands.

After the pills were taken, they soon fell to the ground one by one. The ground was lifeless.

When the children all fell down, Gu Shaoyang stepped forward to check their breathing. After confirming that they were dead, Gu Shaoyang waited for a long time.

Because he needed to make some wounds on the children's bodies, and also needed He took out the molds he had made in advance and traced the characteristics of the children.

Finally, Gu Shaoyang worked hard and finally finished the molds of the three children. After he was done, Gu Shaoyang opened the door to imprison the children. room.

Entering the room, Gu Shaoyang found that there were dozens of children inside, and they were all huddled together, comforting each other and keeping each other warm.

Facing the sudden arrival of Gu Shaoyang, they seemed very uneasy, and some of the children, Gu Shaoyang also found the wounds from the whip. It seemed that they had been abused.

And looking at the wounds on their bodies, they should have been abused and tortured from time to time. They should have suffered when they were carrying him.

Seeing the wounds on the children The wound made Gu Shaoyang feel unspeakably distressed, but in the end he covered up the distress in his eyes.

Then he pretended to be indifferent and looked around, and finally locked his eyes on the three children who were gathered together. On their bodies.

The reason why Gu Shaoyang chose them is because Gu Shaoyang did not find any wounds on their bodies. In such an environment, several children can still protect themselves. It seems that they still have some abilities..So

Gu Shaoyang found them and tied them to pillars outside, so that they could cope with it well and not suffer too much.

"You guys get out!"Gu Shaoyang pointed at the three children and asked them to go out on their own. When the pointed child was about to say something, Gu Shaoyang had already turned around and left. He didn't leave any time for them to talk. Just after Gu Shaoyang walked out , the three children had no choice but to follow them out.

In the end, only the remaining children in the room were left, blinking their big eyes, looking at them with great sympathy and fear.

When the three children walked out, Gu Shaoyang They tied him to a pillar and then took out the whip from his space ring.

"Seeing as you are like this, you should be quite eloquent, and you won't suffer too much if you think about it."

Gu Shaoyang said, while also lashing the whip in his hand on the three children. When the three children saw the whip in "Tian Dao"'s hand flying towards them, they were immediately frightened. They closed their eyes and waited for the pain to hit their bodies, but it turned out that there was no pain as they thought. Why didn't it hurt?

The three children were filled with doubts at the same time, so they tried to open their eyes. , I saw that "Tian Dao" was indeed waving his whip, but it did not fall on them.

Instead, it fell on the "dead" person next to them.

After seeing this scene, the three children became even more excited. He was scared, but Gu Shaoyang directly picked up one of the molds from the ground.

Then he placed it directly in front of one of the children and asked: "Do you think they are real people? Or a fake person?"

Because Gu Shaoyang was wearing Tian Dao's human skin mask, when his eyes were staring at the children, the children only felt eerie and terrifying.

"Really... really... really!"

The child who was asked stammered an answer, and Gu Shaoyang was very satisfied with the child's answer, but this answer was not the best answer for the three children in front of him.

"So do you want to be like him?" Gu Shaoyang said as he let go of the mold in his hand and threw it to the ground. Then he pointed at the three molds on the ground with the whip in his hand. The three children who were tied to the pillars were already confused when they saw the "corpse". I saw them shaking their heads numbly, with rejection written all over their faces.

They didn't want to become a corpse, lying lifelessly on the ground.

Chapter 1117

"After he died, he would be whipped to death. The method was extremely cruel!"

"Let us go, brother, look at you, you are so handsome, you look like a blessed person!"

Just when Gu Shaoyang was about to stop, the voice of the boy tied to the pillar rang in his ears.

After one of them spoke, the other two people immediately echoed: "Yes! Look at you, you have a tall figure and good facial features! At first glance, you are a blessed person!"

"Not only is it blessed! This noble man must be the reincarnation of a real dragon! Everything will go well in this life and your family will be happy!"

After a while, the three teenagers who were tied to the pillars began to pour out blessings and praises, and after hearing their conversations and their knowledge,

Gu Shaoyang could also roughly estimate that these three children He should be a child of a wealthy family, and should be a child from a very knowledgeable and well-educated family.

And these three children got to know each other in a place like this. It was destined to happen in three days. Look at these three children. The knowledge of these children will definitely be extraordinary in the future!

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel pity for talents, but they are treated specially in this special period.

Just because they are eloquent, the three of them work together to be eloquent. It might save them from being beaten, so Gu Shaoyang deliberately sent them out.

With the three of them dealing with people outside, they might suffer some physical pain, but this experience will also temper their psyche. For them, It was a good thing for himself.

So Gu Shaoyang didn't feel so distressed, but looked forward to what these three children would become in the future.

Just like that, Gu Shaoyang stopped what he was doing, and the corners of his mouth raised a faint smile. smile, but his smile seemed abnormal to the three children.

So when Gu Shaoyang approached them, they immediately shouted loudly, and even the people standing outside could clearly hear what was going on inside. Screams.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang stood in front of them despite the screams of the three children. Although the screams of the three children made him very unhappy, he even wanted to cast a spell to shut them up.

But in the end, Gu Shaoyang still endured it. down, because he just wanted people outside to hear the child's screams and think he was torturing the child, so that they would not torture the three children when they came in later. The scene Gu Shaoyang wanted to arrange could It was even more believable.

Standing in front of one of the children, Gu Shaoyang once again took out his special ointment from the space ring, and then directly took off the children's clothes.

And he was naked, and then he Apply the ointment on the child's body.

After all three children had applied it, Gu Shaoyang raised the whip again and waved the whip fiercely at the clothes taken off the child.

And these three children were very smart. When Gu Shaoyang applied ointment to them, they discovered that the ointment would look like a wound when applied to the body. They already understood what Master Gu was thinking.

So when Gu Shaoyang waved the whip to slap their clothes, they all screamed in cooperation, and It got louder every time!

It wasn't until the three children's voices became hoarse that Gu Shaoyang stopped, and then put the clothes back on the children.

After putting on the clothes, Gu Shaoyang continued to apply ointment on the tears in the clothes. , to create the appearance of a wound.

After finishing all these, Gu Shaoyang leaned against the wall and closed his eyes to rest slightly.

After about thirty seconds, Gu Shaoyang slowly opened his eyes.

And the three people in front of Gu Shaoyang The children looked at Gu Shaoyang's tired look and did not bother him. They just stayed where they were and waited.

Finally, after Gu Shaoyang opened his eyes again, the fear in the eyes of the three children looking at him was obviously reduced.

"Brother, are you here to save us?"Perhaps due to his desire for life, this child was very cautious when asking questions.

Moreover, his voice was also very quiet, obviously unbelievable and lacking confidence.

Although his voice was as quiet as a mosquito, But Gu Shaoyang's ears were very sensitive, so he accurately captured the child's problems.

"Yes! But you can't say anything, and you must keep secret what just happened, otherwise we will all die."

Gu Shaoyang said very seriously, and the children looked at his expression and knew that the brother in front of them was not in the same group as the outsiders.

So now if they want to survive, they cannot reveal it publicly, otherwise they will die. , after having this understanding, the three children became more alert.

"Okay, I can't stay here for too long. You three must take good care of each other. I'll come see you next time."

Gu Shaoyang said and was about to call the people outside, but when he left.

Chapter 1118

A child suddenly interrupted him.

"Brother, you said you were here to rescue us, but look at the two people lying on the ground. Did you just kill them?"

One of the three children raised this question, and when this question was raised, it immediately aroused the thinking of the other two children.

And the trust that the children had just established in Gu Shaoyang immediately became Suspicion.

In order to dispel the children's concerns, Gu Shaoyang had to take the real three children out of the space ring.

When the real three children appeared naked, the three children tied to the pillars were a little surprised. for a while, but soon returned to normal

"They are not dead. The things on this earth are fake and I use them to deceive people outside."

Originally, Gu Shaoyang did not intend to explain to these three children, but the performance of these three children really satisfied him, and they were smart and alert.

Therefore, they would do things in a measured way. With such three children, even if Gu Shaoyang would Tell the three of them the truth of the matter, and they won't worry about being exposed.

After listening to Gu Shaoyang's explanation, the three children also suddenly understood:"So that's the case, then don't worry, we will definitely keep it a secret, but you When will they be able to pick us up?"

The innocent eyes of the three children were fixed on"Tian Dao", and the question of being stared at by the children really made him think deeply.

But now he doesn't have the answer, so he can only perfunctory:"I will definitely do it as soon as possible. I'm here to pick you up, but you must ensure your own safety, got it?"

Gu Shaoyang could only comfort him. After all, what the children who were tied up outside would experience would definitely be more painful than what the children who were imprisoned in the room would experience.

Soon, after Gu Shaoyang handed over to the three children He asked them to pretend to be unconscious, and he just let in all the people he had just kicked out.

When they came in, what they saw were the bodies of three children lying on the ground. He changed people and was The child was newly tied to the pillar, and his body was already covered with scars, and he had fainted.

Some people who were familiar with these three children instantly recognized that they had never been beaten before, because they had always been very They are eloquent and can make them happy.

But now they have been caught by"Tian Dao" and beaten severely. Seeing the appearance of these three children, they can almost think of what they will look like in the future.

"You guys quickly find a straw mat and get rid of these three children."

""Tian Dao" said to the men around him. While he was talking, he also kicked the three children who had fallen to the ground without"breath".

And "Tian Dao"'s men heard his words. After giving the order, he immediately started to clean up, for fear that if they delayed for a second longer, they would make a mistake and be dealt with by "Tian Dao".

Gu Shaoyang was very satisfied with their deft movements, and he used grass on the three children who fell on the ground in a few seconds. The mats were wrapped up and neatly stacked outside, not in the eyes of "Tian Dao"

"Okay, you can throw this out later, and I will cut the blood tomorrow myself. If someone commits suicide without my permission, then don't blame me for tying her up!"

"Don't think that even though I'm not here all the time, I don't know what you are doing behind my back! You must know that you are just a dog I raised!"

"A dog actually dares to carry out torture behind its owner's back. I think you may have lived too long and want to visit the underworld!"

Gu Shaoyang deliberately pretended to make Tian Dao unhappy and threatened, and sure enough, after these people heard Gu Shaoyang's words, each of their faces showed a look of fear.

Gu Shaoyang only stopped talking after seeing their facial expressions, but before he left, he looked around fiercely and carefully looked at the faces of the people inside.

It was like a scrutiny, more like a threat, and it was not until "Tian Dao" left that the people in the tree hole People didn't dare to mess with the children for several days.

At the same time, the three children selected by Gu Shaoyang were also very smart. When they should shut up and be quiet, they would never say a word at most.

Therefore, people outside would not deliberately They were in trouble, just because they were tied to the tree, so no one would give them food, because they were already dead to the people guarding them, and there was no need to eat. On the other side, Gu Shaoyang was leaving the tree After the cave, he took off Tian Dao's human skin mask and returned to his original true body.

The reason why Gu Shaoyang did this was because he was about to send the three children he had just rescued from the tree hole to a safe place. The place is where many children gather.

The reason why he is so fast now.

Chapter 1119

He returned to his true form because he wanted to pass by the innkeeper who had stayed at the inn before and tell him that he was fine and there was no need to worry.

And when the shopkeeper saw Gu Shaoyang who was safe and sound, he would definitely know that the children he saved before were also safe and sound.

In this way, the shopkeeper can rest assured that he will not do anything dangerous or expose himself.

Thinking like this, Gu Shaoyang had already arrived at the door of the shopkeeper's inn, and he deliberately slowed down when passing by the shopkeeper's inn because he needed to let the shopkeeper see him.

Finally, Master Gu's thoughts were not in vain. The shopkeeper was still sitting at the door, and he saw Gu Shaoyang at a glance, and the two of them even looked at each other.

But because they were in a hurry, Gu Shaoyang and the shopkeeper only glanced at each other briefly, and then Gu Shaoyang left.

After leaving, Gu Shaoyang ran towards the forest. No one followed him along the way. Maybe it was because his clothes were too ordinary or because he had been here too short, no one noticed him at all.

In short, Gu Shaoyang hid himself so well that he has not been discovered until now.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang came to the place where the children lived, and this time when Gu Shaoyang came, he also found that the children had grown a lot taller, and their clothes had to be made again.

Looking at the shortened fabrics on the children, Gu Shaoyang suddenly thought of the many fabrics of different colors and materials that he had bought while investigating fabrics.

Now we can just find someone to make clothes for the children, but there are no children in any house in Dongcheng, so we can only find people we can trust to sew clothes for the children.

When Gu Shaoyang was thinking in his mind, a person suddenly appeared in his mind.

The person booked by Gu Shaoyang was the guard's wife and the baby's mother. She knew how to sew and tailor clothes, and she would never expose the existence of the children, so she was the best candidate.

After deciding on the candidates, Gu Shaoyang began to measure the children's sizes. After all, tailoring clothes requires specific measurements.

"Children, I have brought you a new playmate today!" After Gu Shaoyang arrived at the place, he shouted loudly at the children in the room.

After hearing that the voice belonged to Gu Shaoyang, the children all came out of the room one by one and surrounded Gu Shaoyang.

"elder brother! You finally came to see us!"

"Brother, are you leaving later?"

Almost every time Gu Shaoyang comes, the children will ask the same questions, but Gu Shaoyang will answer them very patiently every time.

"My brother will leave after a while, but he has brought three new friends to play with you."

Gu Shaoyang touched the heads of the children in front of him with great pity, and then took out the three children who were still in suspended animation from the space ring.

After being taken out, Gu Shaoyang fed them the antidote, and then the three children The three children slowly recovered from the state of suspended animation.

The three children looked at the unfamiliar environment and were startled when several of their own children surrounded them. They were also full of defensiveness.

Until they saw The three children gradually relaxed when they were given a "field path" to apply medicine in the tree hole.

"Where is this place? Who are you?" The three children huddled up to Gu Shaoyang and asked, pointing at the children surrounding them, but Gu Shaoyang pulled the head of one child and asked him to explain to the new child.

"We were all rescued by my brother. This is the home that my brother placed for us. There are also vegetables we grow outside. We have been here for a long time."

"Now you are also welcome to join our big family!"

The leader of the children, the King, gave a very enthusiastic introduction. After listening to his introduction, the three new children completely believed in "Tian Dao".

"Okay, kids, brother has to go. Next time he comes, I will bring you new clothes, okay?"

The purpose of Gu Shaoyang's trip has been achieved, and he can't leave for too long. After all, everyone knows the time he came out of the tree hole.

So if he returns to Tianzhai too late, he will definitely attract attention. And in order not to Exposed, Gu Shaoyang had to leave quickly

"Okay brother, see you next time!" The children seem to have become accustomed to the fact that Gu Shaoyang will leave after coming for a while, so when he brings it up again, the children will not try too hard to stay.

Because they know that if Gu Shaoyang is leaving, they will stay no matter what. If you don't come down, you can only let it go.

However, Gu Shaoyang still keeps his promise and often comes to see them, which makes the children quite satisfied.

Moreover, Gu Shaoyang brings things for them every time he comes, so the children are very happy. expectations.

Chapter 1120

But this time, when Gu Shaoyang left, there were still three children who were reluctant to leave him. These three children were the three who had just arrived here.

Because they have just come here now, they are not familiar with the surrounding environment and the people here.

Apart from Gu Shaoyang, they only have each other, so they least want Gu Shaoyang to leave.

But Gu Shaoyang had other things to do, so he couldn't agree to the children's request to stay.

"Children, my brother promises you that after he beats all the bad guys away, he will eat with you, okay? Now my brother has things to do, so he can't accompany you."

Gu Shaoyang patiently said to the children, and although the children did not understand very much, they did not say anything more.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang left the forest and headed towards the guard's home.

Since the last time Gu Shaoyang wanted to let the guard After the couple helped him, he never went to their home again.

And he never contacted them. I think the couple must be very anxious now, and they must also want to know the current situation of their children.

And this time, Gu Shaoyang was ready to tell them the news about their child, and at the same time, he could ask the guard's wife to sew clothes for the child.

In Gu Shaoyang's inner plan, he quickly arrived at the door of the guard's house, and now he was at the door of their house There was no longer anyone around to monitor them.

So Gu Shaoyang could easily climb over the wall and enter their home.

When Gu Shaoyang entered the guard's house, what he saw was the guard's wife holding her child's clothes and looking at the sky in trance.

Even Gu Shaoyang's arrival was not noticed, and after Gu Shaoyang approached the guard's wife, he patted her twice.

Then the guard's wife was immediately startled, and her eyes were wide open, and she was dead. Staring at the person in front of her.

When the guard's wife found out that the person standing in front of her was Gu Shaoyang, her tears instantly flowed out, and she suddenly knelt on the ground.

"Brother Gu! Please, let me see the child! Is my child still there?"

Facing the sudden burst of tears from the guard's wife, Gu Shaoyang was not surprised. He just helped her up from the ground, and then took out a piece of paper with the sizes of the children on it.

It also included the sizes of her children.

"Don't worry, the child is fine and has grown up. He can no longer wear the clothes he used to wear. Now I'm here to ask you to make new clothes for him."

Gu Shaoyang said to the guard's wife, and when Gu Shaoyang answered the guard's wife, the guard who was busy in the kitchen also heard his wife's cry.

So he walked out in a hurry, only to hear Gu Shaoyang's words.

"Brother Gu! Is the child really still there?" The guard's eyes were a little unbelievable, but Gu Shaoyang could only reassure him again and again.

In the end, the guard and his wife reluctantly believed it.

"Since you have more than one child, you may have to sew a few more clothes. In addition, you can only sew clothes by yourself, and absolutely no others can participate!"

When Gu Shaoyang was leaving, he suddenly told the guard's wife very seriously, and the guard's wife also nodded heavily in agreement to Gu Shaoyang. Of course she knew Gu Shaoyang's concerns. If she let others help sew clothes, it would inevitably be unavoidable for others. Will be curious and talkative.

And once others know that there are children, their children and Gu Shaoyang will become very dangerous. Therefore, for the sake of the overall situation, even if it is tiring to guard your wife, you must not let others do it for you.

"Okay, I have other things to do. I'll come back to get my clothes when I'm free. You guys take care of yourselves."

After the matter was explained, Gu Shaoyang stopped staying for a long time, and the guard and his wife did not try to stay. They just watched him leave, mentally hoping that he would come back quickly. It would be better if he could give them the child when he comes next time. Send it back.

After leaving the guard's home, Gu Shaoyang put on Tian Dao's human skin mask in a deserted corner.

After changing it, he walked directly on the street, and then arrived at the gate of Tianzhai.

When outside When the doorman saw that the visitor was his master, he immediately knelt on the ground respectfully to welcome him, and the door immediately opened. When Gu Shaoyang saw this, he just raised his hand to them and motioned for them to get up, and then Gu Shaoyang walked in directly. Inside the house.

After walking in, Gu Shaoyang went directly back to the room, and he walked out of the room not long after he stayed. After the housekeeper heard that Tian Dao had returned, he immediately came to his door to wait. I was afraid that he would give me orders again.

After the housekeeper waited at the door for a while, he only saw "Tian Dao" and opened the door directly.

"Sir, do you have any orders?" As soon as the housekeeper saw Tian Dao's door open, he immediately stepped forward and said with his head buried in respect.
