Chapter 1791

After Li Haotian cracked the enchantment array in the forest, they seemed to see some different scenes. They saw the zombies that the four of them had used to remove their hands and feet with swords and even cut off their heads yesterday when the four of them escaped in a hurry. Although Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan were mentally prepared, they still did not expect that seeing these dead zombies would still be so shocking.

These zombies did not seem to have begun to rot, and were still the same as when they left yesterday, but the pus-like green blood had gradually solidified, so the scene looked very scary.

But they had tried their best to adjust to their nausea in a very short period of time, and devoted themselves wholeheartedly to checking the zombie costumes and whether there were any superficial wounds on the body?

Ouyang Zhengxiong thought this was a very good opportunity to train himself. He was frightened by zombies yesterday, so he fell down from the flying sword, which caused so much trouble for Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang. He thought this was a rare training opportunity, so he planned to seize this opportunity to carefully observe these zombies to see if there were any other weird wounds besides the wounds created by Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang's swords.

Although the current scene was a bit bloody, the four people still suppressed their nausea and conducted a detailed investigation. At this time, Ouyang Zhengxiong discovered that there was a corpse among all the zombies. The clothes on his body were different from the others. His clothes were obviously more luxurious and more textured than the clothes on other zombies. After careful inspection, he found that there were very gorgeous patterns on the inside of the clothes. He hurriedly called Li Haotian, Gu Shaoyang, and Sun Yulan, and told them what he had discovered.

Li Haotian carefully looked through the clothing on the special zombie and found that the pattern looked very familiar, so he turned to Gu Shaoyang and said, "Brother Shaoyang, do you think this pattern looks familiar? I seem to have seen it recently. I have often seen this pattern for a while, but I can't remember when and where I saw this pattern."

Gu Shaoyang heard what Li Haotian said and carefully observed the pattern on his clothes? He also felt that this pattern looked very familiar, but he just couldn't remember where he had seen it? It shouldn't be the closest to the pattern I've seen in the past two days, but it won't last long. At this moment, Ouyang Zhengxiong thought that when he rescued Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang, he saw such patterns on the men in black who were chasing him. It was that day when Jiang Min was dressed up to attend, and the pattern embroidered on the clothes he wore.

Ouyang Zhengxiong immediately told Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang his thoughts. He said that he might not remember it clearly, but it seemed to be this pattern. Because the pattern was particularly luxurious, it impressed him deeply and he should remember it correctly.

The patterns on the clothing of the Jiang family are extremely noble auspicious cloud patterns. They are all hand-embroidered patterns, so generally they will not be confused with the patterns of other families. Hearing Ouyang Zhengxiong's recollection, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang seemed to remember where they had seen such patterns? On that day, Jiang Min wore the same pattern embroidered on her purple robe. So what does this mean? Is this zombie incident related to the Jiang family?

After Li Haotian and Gu Xiaoyang thought for a while, they discussed this issue together. Why haven't they even investigated the case of the missing boy and girl, and the zombie case they are now tracking is actually related to the Jiang family?

Is there any huge conspiracy behind this Jiang family? Why are these series of incidents related to zombies? These things give people the feeling that there is an unfathomable network behind Jiang.

Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan looked at them from the side, frowning, thinking about the connection between the recent events, so they also followed their lead to analyze the relationship between the characters in each incident, trying to find the relationship between them. Make reasonable guesses about the causal relationship.

But Li Haotian said to them: "Then we have probably wiped out all the zombies in this forest, so let's first bury these corpses in special places and mark them!" It's not known yet. What is the nature of these zombies? Will they infect other normal people? And how do you infect normal people? They can only make complete preparations to minimize the negative impact of this incident. Gu Shaoyang said: "If it's still early, let's go around and see if there are any zombie gathering places similar to this small forest." So Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang, Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan, took care of all the zombies in the small forest. After removing the corpse, they planned to send Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan back to the guest room of the inn, and then Li Haotian and Gu Xiaoyang continued to act alone to find the surrounding zombie gathering places.

Chapter 1792

All the zombies in this small forest have been confirmed to have been eliminated by them, and their corpses were buried on a special hillside by Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang. They set up a barrier here to prevent unsuspecting people from digging here. The zombies were accidentally infected after being accidentally exposed to them.

After Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang told Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan their next plan, as expected, they received strong opposition from the two children, Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan. Because Ouyang Zhengxiong thought that he had finally overcome the fear of loss and the nausea and fear of losing a body, how could he give up so easily when he was just on the right track? This is a great shame for him. So he told Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang in a righteous and serious manner that he must go with them to find the zombie base. If they really didn't want to take them with them, he and Sun Yulan would act alone. Go look for the zombie gathering place nearby where there are zombie roars.

Li Haotian heard Ouyang Zhengxiong's confusing speech, covered his forehead and smiled bitterly: "I see that you are very tired today and have achieved the goal of overcoming your fear of zombies. I want you two children to go back and rest early. Why are you still taking little Sun Yulan to follow the zombie gang? And if we go to a new place, we have no way to ensure that you two are as safe as in this small forest, because when we go to a new place, we come into contact with The environment and zombies may be new and unfamiliar, and the unknown is dangerous. Are you sure you two want to keep up?"

Gu Shaoyang also joined the team of persuasion, and said very seriously: "You feel like there is nothing today. Yesterday was so dangerous because the environment we came into contact with today was what we had experienced yesterday, and we already had a general understanding of various situations in this forest. But you see, even if we were here yesterday In the small forest, I came back today and saw that there is an extra enchantment circle, so I think there will be more unknown dangers on the next road. The two of us cannot guarantee the personal safety of you two. So this requires you and Sun Yuelai and Sun Yuelai have to think clearly about the stakes. Don't follow them like yesterday, and then put themselves in danger because of fear. This is extremely irresponsible to themselves and us." As he said

, It was getting daylight, so Ouyang Zhengxiong replied anxiously: "I know what you two said, and I know in my heart how many unknown fears there are in the future, but I can't grow if I hide behind you forever. Ah! When can I stand alone? I want to take this opportunity, while you can still protect me, to learn more and broaden my horizons. I don't want to be protected by you all the time, I also want to grow into a A man who can protect himself and others upright. It's almost dawn. If we don't go to the zombie gathering place with the roar of zombies, we will waste another day. I'm sure, I will follow you. There is no need to persuade me anymore." After he assured Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang in a serious manner, he turned back to Sun Yulan and said, "What about you? Are you sure you want to follow us? Or do you want to go back to the guest room to rest?" Sun Yulan laughed and said: "Then I will definitely go with you. What's the point of being alone in the guest room? And I'm not a weak woman with no power. I'm very witty. Maybe when you don't expect it, I can still help you. Okay, okay, let's go quickly. Ouyang Zhengxiong and I are really voluntary. No matter what happens, we are responsible for ourselves and will never shirk the responsibility to On you."

Li Haotian looked at Gu Shaoyang and shook his head helplessly and said:"Forget it, forget it, we really can't handle these children. We just need to be more careful in the next process. We can only take them with us. Two." After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang could only nod helplessly.

During the two days of observation, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang discovered a problem, that is, the zombie's habits are very strange. It only appears at night, but as soon as the sun comes out and the sky is bright, they will be silent. This means that zombies may be afraid of light, so at night, Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan should prepare a torch for self-defense. Torches are both bright and aggressive, making them the best choice. So Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang found a suitable piece of wood, wrapped it with cloth strips, and made two simple torches for them. Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan said very freshly:"Why do you know everything? And we have experienced zombie attacks together. Why can you deduce that these zombies are afraid of light, but we are not?" Li Haotian smiled and said:" Young people, you still have a lot to learn!"

Chapter 1793

After Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang prepared a small torch for them, they took them to search for nearby zombie gathering places with zombie roars. For them, since there are no other clues on the zombies, they will kill them all. In order to avoid future troubles, protect other people in the town and return the town to normal life as soon as possible

At this time, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang took Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan to a relatively quiet village. They felt that there must be a demon when something went wrong. The village at this time should be brightly lit, but there were no lights in the village at this time. There is no sound like a silent tomb. Because this village was so weird, they entered the village very cautiously. According to the characteristics of the zombies they have learned so far, the zombies will make a low roar instead of being silent.

Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang held homemade torches in their hands respectively, while Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan tightly grabbed the skirts of Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang and followed them closely, for fear of happening again like the situation a few nights ago. There were four people in the group, and everyone was very unfamiliar with this village. So the four of them were very uneasy, not at all feeling as calm as they were in the small forest just now.

Since the number and types of zombies they have come into contact with are limited, they are not sure there are no other types of zombies in the village. The surrounding environment was so quiet, it seemed like you could hear a pin drop. In such an extremely quiet environment, any sound will be infinitely amplified, so the two newcomers Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan maintained a high state of tension.

????Li Haotian felt that things were very strange, so he turned to Gu Shaoyang and said quietly:"Brother Shaoyang, why do I feel that this village does not seem to be inhabited? I can't feel the smoke and smoke of people at all, but it feels like a dead city. It feels like a dead city. There will be many unknown dangers ahead, so brother Shaoyang, let's protect a child each to avoid being in a hurry when something unexpected happens later." After listening to Li Haotian's suggestion, Gu Shaoyang nodded happily and said:"No problem, I'll protect Sun Yulan, you protect Ouyang Zhengxiong!"

????They held torches and slowly moved towards the village. Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan looked around worriedly. They found that the houses in this village were basically abandoned and no one was using them. The houses seem to have been in disrepair for a long time, but there are dried crops in front of most of the houses. It seems that the owners of these houses have not been away for a long time, or they left too suddenly.

????The village was not very small, so they planned to look at it from house to house. Because there must be a reason why all the people in such a large village suddenly disappeared. Whether it is relocation or other reasons, there should be clues left. Judging from the current situation, the possibility of relocation is not high. Because the general relocation of farmers will take away all the usable things in the house, especially the farmers' food. They will not waste any crop products, because they have worked hard to grow them.

????The four of them did not dare to search all the houses separately, because they were afraid of encountering an emergency. One or two people would not be able to deal with it well, so they still planned to find the secrets of the village together.

????From the first few houses they searched, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang felt that things were strange, because the furnishings in the house were very normal, as if the owner of the house only went out briefly and left the house later. Will come back the same. But when he checked the table, floor, and some of the cabinets, there was thick dust, which meant that no one had lived here for a long time. So it means that the owners of these families left home suddenly and were not fully prepared. They even had no time to pack their luggage and settle down the things in their homes. Some farmers' chickens and sheep starved to death in their pens, so this means that this village must have suffered some sudden disaster before.

????Gu Shaoyang told Li Haotian very calmly:"I think we need to take a closer look at all the farmers in this village today. I think there is definitely something weird about this village. It may not be zombies, but it must be related to zombies." We can go out and look for other zombie gathering places with roaring sounds in other nights, but for the strangeness of these farmers, we can investigate them clearly during the day. After the matter is completely investigated, we Go back and rest. What do you think?" Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan nodded heavily after hearing this.

They felt that in such a strange village, it would be easier to find clues during the day. At night, their eyesight would be better. Not very good, it is very likely that some important clues will be missed.

Chapter 1794

Unknowingly, during the search, the sky gradually became brighter. Then Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan extinguished the two torches they used for lighting, and then saved them. Since the sky was getting brighter and the light was getting brighter, they no longer had the fear they had at the beginning, so they relaxed a little bit. They went door to door to check the homes of these farmers. Trying to recreate the scene of their departure from their homes. Most farmers' homes are fully equipped with all kinds of daily necessities, which means they were not ready to travel far away when they left. Maybe he just went out to do some farm work, but unexpectedly he never came back. But this is just a simple conjecture made by Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang, and there is no evidence that their conjecture is true.

????Just when the four people in the group were unable to explain the quietness of the village, Ouyang Zhengxiong seemed to hear subtle movements in a small woodshed. He was not sure whether it was people or livestock raised by farmers. So he raised his sword very carefully and slowly moved into the woodshed to check the details inside.

???Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang were right next to them. Since they wanted to give Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan a chance to practice, they did not take the lead and defend them against the unknown dangers they would face sooner or later. So just stay by their side to avoid finding anyone to rescue them when they can't cope with the danger they encounter.

???Sun Yulan pulled Ouyang Zhengxiong's sleeves tightly because they didn't know where the subtle movements in the woodshed came from. They didn't even know whether they were humans or ghosts.

???After Ouyang Zhengxiong experienced the last two experiences, he gradually became calmer. He entered the woodshed very carefully and found that in addition to some animal carcasses, there was also a strange-sized wooden box inside. At this moment, a brick suddenly fell from the roof of the woodshed and smashed to the ground with a bang.

????Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan were frightened by the sudden sound, while Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang on the side did not react much. Both of their eyes were on the strange wooden box. Due to the loud noise just now, the wooden box suddenly shook when Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan were frightened. It was as if the objects in the wooden box were also shocked by the falling bricks. Is there really someone in this wooden box?

????Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan quickly recovered from their frightened state. Ouyang Zhengxiong stared at the wooden box. He turned around and motioned to Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang with his eyes:"Can I open this wooden box directly?" In the end, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang were worried about the danger, so they handed him a sword and asked him to use it to open the wooden box. Because if you use a sword, there will be a certain safe distance between Ouyang Zhengxiong and the box. It will not be like opening a box with your hands. If you encounter danger, you will not be able to escape in time.

????So under the protection of Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang, Ouyang Zhengxiong carefully opened the box with the sword they handed over. They found a shivering little boy in the box. When Sun Yulan saw a normal little boy in the box, she wanted to touch him, hoping to calm his trembling body. But her behavior was immediately stopped by Ouyang Zhengxiong, because Ouyang Zhengxiong was worried that this little boy was dangerous. He grabbed Sun Yulan and wanted to reach out and touch the little boy's hand. Sun Yulan's heart trembled, why was he so ignorant of etiquette? But Ouyang Zhengxiong didn't seem to realize what was wrong with this behavior. He just thought why Sun Yulan was so reckless?

???Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang also planned to stop Sun Yulan's behavior because they were still unable to determine the attributes of the little boy. Fortunately, Ouyang Zhengxiong did become more cautious after these two experiences, and was able to stop Sun Yulan's behavior in time. This is when Li Haotian asked the little boy:"Kid, why are you here alone? Where are your parents? And where are the other people in this village? Why have they all disappeared?" When the little boy heard Li Haotian's words, He slowly raised his head and said tremblingly:"Don't kill me, don't kill me!"

???After listening to the little boy's words, Li Haotian immediately turned to look at Gu Shaoyang. He said softly to him:"Brother Shaoyang, you see there is really something fishy in this. It seems that everyone in this village has been captured by some other force." He left or was brutally killed. This little boy must have been left behind by luck, right? He looked very frightened. I wonder if I can get the detailed information about this village from him."

????Perhaps girls are more experienced in dealing with children. Sun Yulan knelt down and said very gently to the shivering little boy:"Kid, don't be afraid. We are all good people. Can you tell me Me? Why are you here alone? We won't hurt you. You can look up and see sister, we are all really good people."

Chapter 1795

The trembling little boy calmed down a little after hearing Sun Yuelan's gentle voice, and he slowly raised his head. Only then did Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang realize that this little boy had sunken cheeks and black eyes. He was also dirty and could even smell the fermentation odor on his body.

?????When Sun Yulan saw the miserable state of the little boy when he raised his head, she felt even more sorry for him, so Sun Yulan suddenly burst out with maternal instincts, and her voice became gentler when she asked the little boy. Ouyang Zhengxiong saw this scene from the side and felt very strange. Why was this little boy the only one in Nuoda's village? And how did she survive alone until now?

?????Sun Yulan didn't notice the strange expression on Ouyang Zhengxiong next to her, but asked the little boy more worriedly: "What's your name? How old are you now? Why are you alone in this wooden box?" The little boy didn't look like Sun Yulan. Bad guy, so he braved his courage and replied tremblingly, "My name is Ergoudan. I am eight years old this year."

?????As he spoke, he began to tremble all over. He was too cold and had not eaten for a long time. Sun Yulan hurriedly looked for anything in his luggage that could be used to satisfy his hunger. But he didn't find anything on his body that could be given to the little boy, so he turned around and asked Ouyang Zhengxiong, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang.

?????After Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang heard Sun Yulan's inquiry, they shook their heads decisively, because they both like to carry food with them. But Ouyang Zhengxiong searched his pockets seriously. He thought he had nothing on him, but he actually took it out of his right sleeve and found a piece of mung bean cake. Sun Yulan hurriedly took the piece of mung bean cake from Ouyang Zhengxiong's hand. When the trembling little boy saw the mung bean cake in Sun Yulan's hand, he couldn't restrain himself and swallowed crazily. He was really hungry. He hadn't eaten for a long time. However, the little boy did not grab the mung bean cake in Sun Yulan's hand. Instead, he looked at the piece of mung bean cake in Sun Yulan's hand pitifully. He couldn't take his eyes away, which made people feel distressed.

???Sun Yulan quickly handed the mung bean cake in her hand to the little boy, and comforted her: "You eat first, and after you finish eating these, we will take you to eat other delicious food, but you must know what you know Tell us everything." After listening, the little boy nodded heavily. So Sun Yulan did not hesitate and handed the mung bean cake in her hand to the little boy.

????After the little boy got the mung bean cake, he couldn't wait to open the candy wrapper outside the mung bean cake and wolfed it down. Unfortunately, he was so hungry that the mung bean cake was not enough to fill his teeth. But after eating something, his condition improved a little and he stopped shaking all the time. Sun Yulan, after seeing that his condition had improved a little, asked him what happened in this village?

????The little boy had to start recalling all that had happened to him. After he struggled to swallow the mung bean cake in his mouth, he looked at Sun Yulan pitifully and gently replied to her: "People in our village have been living here for several years. Generations of people have lived here, and everything has always been peaceful. But just a few days ago, my father and mother went out to do farm work as usual, and my brother and I fed the pigs and chickens at home, and then played and laughed together. Then I waited for my father and mother to come back and cook dinner for us after they finished their farming. But that day, just after my father and mother came back, a group of strangers suddenly broke into the yard. They were wearing expensive-looking clothes and all had money in their hands. Wearing weapons. My brother and I happened to be feeding pigs in the pigsty. After hearing the noise, I hid in the woodshed in fear. In the gap of the wooden box, I saw this group of people taking away my father, mother, and brother. , I wanted to rush out, but I was very scared. My brother finally looked at the woodshed and kept shaking his head. He should have used his eyes to indicate that I should hide well and not come out easily. So I covered my mouth, not daring to make a sound, and waited until everyone. After the people left, I dared to come out, and I was in the wooden box. I could hear that it was not just our family, it seemed that other people in the entire village had suffered the same thing.

I don't know who those people were? And I don't know why that group of people took away my father, mother, and brother. After they were taken away, I didn't dare to go out. I only dared to move around in a small area of the village, looking for everyone and their families to eat. But I can't cook myself, so I just finished eating the sweet potatoes stored by the folks at home."

After hearing the little boy's answer, Sun Yulan looked at the little boy with great distress. What he just said, a group of people whose clothes look expensive is probably Jiang's group. She was very unsure, so she asked the little boy again:"Did you see any patterns on the clothes of the group of people who captured your father and mother?" The little boy thought for a moment. Later, she replied to Sun Yulan and said:"I don't remember if there are any patterns? But it seems that they did have some white patterns embroidered on their clothes. They are very beautiful, like clouds. But I was too scared at the time and I didn't have time to look carefully.."

Chapter 1796

After Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang listened on the sidelines, they were able to piece together a complete truth about what happened in this village. Ergoudan'er was the only one who was lucky enough to survive this disaster, and he only survived under the protection of his clever father and mother.

Although they now speculate that the people who looted this mountain village should be the Jiang family, they have no evidence to prove it. And why would the Jiang family do such a thing? What's in it for them?

A series of unsolved doubts lingered in the hearts of the five people present. For Ergoudan'er, his little mind could not understand at all, why his father and mother? And his brother will be taken away without doing anything. He doesn't know his father and mother, and where will his brother be taken? What will it be used for? Are they still alive? He couldn't figure it out, but he also knew that the most important thing for him now was to live well, so he tried his best to find food, hoping to support himself until he could survive or be rescued. He knew very clearly that his father, mother, and brother would never come back.

???After Ouyang Zhengxiong heard the little boy's narration, he was deeply touched because his experience was so similar to his own. Without any precaution, just like every ordinary day, suddenly all the relatives around me disappeared, leaving only me alone and helpless in the world. And they all faced this unknown world alone with a very immature mind. He was very sad. On the one hand, he was sad about the tragic experience of the little boy, and on the other hand, he felt sad for his childhood self. He looked at the little boy in front of him as if he saw his old self, but luckily he met Brother Haotian and Brother Shaoyang, and his father also left a Xuanwu Sect for him. These people all inherit the spirit of their father, which means that he is not alone in this world.

???But Ouyang Zhengxiong did not fall into sad memories for too long. He continued to ask the little boy: "Can you still clearly recall your parents and the scene when your brother was taken away? Can you give us the details? Tell me? Some of the characteristics of the people who captured them. If possible, a few of us can help you find your parents and brother. Even all the folks in your village, would you like to see you? Why don't you tell us everything in detail?"

The trembling little boy, after hearing Ouyang Zhengxiong's words, thought deeply for a while, then raised his head and told him firmly: "I can tell him what I know. I'll tell you everything, please help me find my father, mother, brother, and other villagers, okay?" Sun Yulan was very moved when she heard the little boy's answer and wanted to touch her head, but the little boy shrank back very aggressively, probably because he didn't fully trust them yet!

????The little boy spoke slowly: "The group of people who rushed in that day all had swords in their hands, and we didn't dare to move. But dad wanted to resist, but the man put the sword on dad's neck, and the sword is very sharp, and your head will fall off if you're not careful. During the process of taking away my father, mother, and brother, the group of people didn't say anything. They didn't tell us where they were going to take them. And they didn't say anything about taking away my father and mother. Dear, what are you going to do with me? If I hadn't escaped quickly, I would have been arrested along with me."

????Li Haotian was very surprised after hearing what the little boy said. He was amazed that the little boy's thinking was so clear and his narrative was so coherent. He turned to look at Gu Shaoyang, hoping to hear his opinion about the little boy, but found that Gu Shaoyang was staring at the little boy carefully, as if he was worried about something strange happening to the little boy.

Li Haotian gently asked Gu Shaoyang: "Brother Shaoyang, do you think what this little boy said is true or false? I think his logic is very clear, unlike ordinary children in ordinary families. He can narrate so clearly at such a young age. Something doesn't feel right?"

After listening to Li Haotian's words, Gu Shaoyang thought for a moment and replied to Li Haotian: "I don't think it's the little boy's problem. After all, he watched his father, mother, and his brother being raped that way. A group of people were taken away, so from the moment they were taken away, until now, there may be no way to forget that scene. Maybe even eating, sleeping and dreaming are all about this scene, because for a little boy of this age, The grief of losing loved ones and family is difficult to forget."

When Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang were discussing the little boy, the little boy suddenly behaved strangely, and the four of them were panicked.

Chapter 1797

The little boy who was alone was obviously fine just now, but as he was talking, he suddenly started to twitch all over. Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan were closest to the child, so they rushed up to check the little boy's physical condition. Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang had never seen such a scene before, and they didn't know what to do for a moment. But Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang relied on their keen intuition to grab Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong. The four of them were seen standing not far away from the little boy, watching the little boy's body twitching and his skin gradually turning black. After seeing this scene, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang looked at each other. My skin is getting darker, what does it mean?

????The two of them suddenly thought that among the morphological characteristics they saw in the small forest a few days ago were dark purple skin and green eyes. Is this little boy also a zombie? But for such a long time, the little boy was a normal person!

????Countless doubts lingered in the hearts of Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang. They were not sure whether the little boy was a human or a zombie. Therefore, for the sake of safety, we could only hold Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan to prevent them from being bitten when they were unprepared. The little boy was seen twitching all over, and then slowly subsided, and then his body made a strange sound of bone reorganization. The clicking sound startled Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong, and they subconsciously took a few steps back. Could this little boy have been infected all along? Is it only now that his zombie qualities are showing?

?????Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong were shocked by the sudden change in the little boy. Just when the four of them were at a loss, the little boy suddenly opened his eyes. Sure enough, just as Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang had guessed, the little boy's eyes were indeed glowing green, which meant that the little boy had completely mutated. Became a zombie. Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong didn't know what to do, so they had to slowly retreat behind Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang.

???Sun Yulan asked Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang anxiously:"Brother Haotian, brother Shaoyang, what should we do next? Why did this little boy suddenly turn into a zombie? Can we still save him?"

????Li Haotian remained silent. In fact, the four of them already had the answer in their hearts. Seeing that Li Haotian was unwilling to tell Sun Yulan this fact, Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to stand up and tell Sun Yulan:"We have no way to save this little boy anymore. Judging from his current characteristics, he should have completely mutated into a zombie. We There is no other way but to kill him. But we should leave him a whole body as much as possible, and then check if there are other wounds on her body, and try to restore how it was infected by other zombies."

???Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong were shocked when they heard this. How could a little boy who was fine just now suddenly turn into a zombie? They couldn't believe this fact. Ouyang Zhengxiong was extremely angry because he felt that the little boy now was a smaller version of himself. He felt that the little boy had also met Brother Haotian and Brother Shaoyang, as well as himself and Sun Yulan, and he should no longer be so lonely and helpless. And an extremely miserable life. But they still didn't save the little boy. Just after the little boy told them everything about the village, such a tragic thing suddenly happened.

???No one knows how zombies can turn back into humans. It's probably an impossible problem to solve in the first place! If turning humans into zombies is not a natural disaster, but someone deliberately does it, they will not even spare children. This is really something that a crazy person can do! Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan seemed to understand why Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang had always wanted to find out the truth about the kidnapping of boys and girls between the ages of eight and twelve. Because it is too cruel to watch these children die in front of you. Any compassionate or moral person would be very sad and angry when seeing such a scene! Ouyang Zhengxiong clenched his fists tightly. He really wanted to find out the person behind these zombie incidents. No matter what the purpose of this person is in creating these zombies, he should be cut into pieces and plunged into a place of eternal destruction.

While they were watching the little boy change and be at a loss, the little boy had gradually calmed down from the initial twitching all over his body. After opening his eyes, the little boy seemed to have changed into a different person and completely lost consciousness. Like a walking corpse. Her skin also turned into that of a zombie in the woods, her body was black and purple, and her eyes were glowing green. The originally dark and shiny pupils also turned into a lifeless green.

Moreover, the little boy gradually stood up and looked blankly at Ouyang Zhengxiong, Sun Yulan, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang. At this time, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang looked at each other and seemed to have made up their minds to do something.

Since the little boy has now completely turned into a zombie, if he is not killed ruthlessly now, he is likely to infect more other people. But for Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong, this is an extremely cruel thing, because they have just established an emotional foundation with this little boy.

But the current situation is already very urgent. If we don't take action, no one knows how far the little boy's fighting ability will be. Therefore, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang had to deal with him quickly while he was still in the adapting stage. Whether it is for the little boy himself or for Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong, "cutting the mess with a quick knife" is currently the best choice. However, killing this little boy with their own hands was a very cruel thing for Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan. So after Li Haotian and Gu Xiaoyang looked at each other, Li Haotian quickly pulled out his sword and inserted it straight into the little boy's heart. Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong were frightened by Li Haotian's sudden move. After Li Haotian pulled out the sword, the little boy fell down. The blood flowing from his heart was still red. It's not like the zombies in the forest that ooze green pus-like blood. I don't know if it's because the little boy has not completely mutated into a zombie, or because the little boy himself is not the same as an adult zombie.

After the little boy fell to the ground, he lost all vital signs. His heart stopped beating and his pulse gradually died down. This seems to him It's also a kind of relief. Maybe after leaving this miserable world, he can go to another world to reunite with his parents and his brother, right? Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong looked at the little boy lying straight in front of them, and they didn't realize what happened for a moment. They couldn't believe that the little boy who was chatting with them just now died like this.

Li Haotian saw that Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong were still unable to accept this fact, so he apologized to them very embarrassedly: "I'm sorry, I couldn't say hello to you in advance, because I see that you two are in a very surprised state, and you can't do it yet." Accept the fact that this little boy has completely turned into a zombie. In order to end this matter within our control, I have no choice but to end his life as soon as possible. When he mutates to the point where we have to, When taking tougher measures, I think it may be more difficult for you to accept psychologically. It will be more painful to wait until then to make a choice, so I have no other choice. I am very sorry for brutally killing this person in front of you. Little boy. But I hope you can adapt to this kind of life as soon as possible, because you may have to make such a choice one day. The people you want to kill may not be people you have only known for a few hours, but also people you have known for a few hours. It may be your good partner who gets along day and night, or it may even be a few of us"

Gu Shaoyang saw the two of them dumbfounded and knew that it was the first time for them to experience such a thing, so it was difficult for them to digest it in a short time. He gently patted Ouyang Zhongxiong and Sun Yulan on the shoulders, and comforted them softly: "I am very cruel to tell you two children, to directly kill this little boy, I came up with it after discussing with you two brothers, Haotian." The best solution we have come up with. We know very well that you two may not agree with this solution, but this is indeed the best solution we can think of at the moment. And I think you two are so dumbfounded right now that there is nothing you can do. Don't do it. What you do is meaningless to this dead little boy. Because I think what this little boy wants more is that you can find out the truth behind this zombie incident and find the person who captured his father and his wife. Mother and his brother's group of people. And if you really cherish him as a person, you should find out the reason for his death from his body. Because a person will not become a zombie for no reason, he Something different must have happened to cause such a change. During the time when we just found him, he was still a normal human being, and his behavior and the logic of his words were very clear, so It's also a big mystery that he suddenly turned into a zombie. If you do nothing and just look at him like this, you can't solve any problems. If you are stuck in a sad mood, you can't do anything for him."

???Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan were still in a state of sadness and couldn't help themselves, but after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, they felt that it made perfect sense. What could the two of them do if they just stared at the little boy's body? No matter how distressed and reluctant they are, there is nothing they can do about it, because they all know in their hearts that there is no resurrection after death.

Chapter 1799

When Li Haotian met Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan, they had not yet recovered, so he stopped putting too much pressure on them. So Li Haotian turned to Gu Shaoyang and said:"The two of them have no way to recover from the sudden change and death of this little boy. Then the two of us will check first to see if there are any other weird wounds on the little boy's body. Right? After all, his death is indeed worthy of us finding the reason. I think a normal person will not become a zombie for no reason. Brother Shaoyang, what do you think?" After hearing Li Haotian's analysis, Gu Shaoyang nodded heavily. He nodded, and then said to Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan:"Do you want to check this little boy's body with us? Maybe its body will have the reason for his death. If the reason is not found out, there will be no way to avenge him."

???Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan still stayed there, because it was too cruel for them to step forward to check the little boy's body. Ouyang Zhengxiong still has no way to accept that he was a living person just now, talking and chatting in front of him, but now he is a corpse like a zombie, lying upright in front of him

???After Gu Shaoyang persuaded them, Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan still didn't respond, so like Li Haotian, they planned to check first, and then discuss the reasons behind the sudden change of the little boy with them after they had completely recovered.

???Li Haotian slowly approached the little boy lying on the ground, and then used his sword to remove all his clothes. Because they are not yet sure what method will infect normal people into zombies, they have to make complete preparations and avoid direct contact with zombified people or corpses in all aspects.

Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan were shocked when they saw Li Haotian cut open all the little boy's clothes, and their eyes widened. On the other side, Li Haotian felt the gazes of Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan, scratched his head in embarrassment, and asked them both very gently: "Do you think I'm too cruel? Too inhumane? And I just realized that it seems that this little boy died in my hands, and I poked the hole in his heart. Although his sudden transformation into a zombie has nothing to do with me, he did die in the end. If it's in my hands, will you two hate me?"

When Gu Shaoyang heard what Li Haotian said, he snickered secretly beside him and thought to himself: "This guy learns secretly very quickly. I'm afraid he will be better than his master in a few days."

Li Haotian knew what he said, just to force them to make another decision, but he has no other way. Only in this way can Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan come out as soon as possible. Because there are too many things like this, and this little boy is just a little boy who met by chance. If he can't overcome this, then if he sees something happens to him or Gu Shaoyang in the future, will he continue to be depressed like this?

Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan were very frightened after hearing Li Haotian's words. Ouyang Zhengxiong waved his hand quickly and said to Li Haotian: "Brother Haotian, you misunderstood. I just can't accept such a sudden death for the time being, and I feel that he is the same person I was back then, so I feel very close to him. Brother Haotian Brother Shaoyang, I know that you two are trying to protect me and Sun Yulan, so you made this decision. You directly dealt with this little boy without consulting us, because you know that the two of us will be hesitant, Is Duan constantly suffering from this disorder? So I can understand your difficulties. When this little boy suddenly changes, it means that he is dead. Killing him is actually giving her a kind of relief. I think He himself doesn't want to harm others." After hearing Ouyang Zhengxiong's answer, Sun Yulan nodded vigorously and said to Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang: "Brother Haotian, brother Shaoyang, I'm sorry, we didn't mean it. I just thought that I had just handed him a piece of mung bean cake and told him that he could take her to eat more delicious food later, but he suddenly turned into a zombie in front of me, and then turned straight in front of me. died. I couldn't accept it so quickly. I'm really sorry. I couldn't deal with my emotions quickly. It made Brother Haotian and Brother Shaoyang wait for us and it took so long. I have time to comfort Ouyang Zhengxiong and I. I'm really sorry."

After Sun Yulan said these words, Ouyang Zhengxiong glanced at Sun Yulan and happened to meet Sun Yulan's eyes, so they both bowed to Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang. He bowed and expressed his deep apology. Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang hurriedly helped Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan up. Li Haotian hurriedly comforted them and said: "No need to be polite, you two are still children. It's the first time you encounter such a thing and have such a reaction." normal."

The sky is getting brighter, but around this village, you can't hear the crowing of chickens or the barking of dogs, or the smoke and smoke of people getting up to start a new day. The entire village was shrouded in thick silence, especially in this house. Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan looked at the small body on the ground with disappointment. Li Haotian and Gu Zhaoyang also felt very lost. They originally thought they could save the child and even find his parents and brother for him.

But he didn't expect that this poor child would die in front of the four of them. Sadness enveloped the four people present, but there was no way. The four of them still had a lot of business to do. First, they had to help him find out the reason why he suddenly turned into a zombie. After Li Haotian took off all the clothes on the little boy, he took Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan, who had recovered from their sadness, to carefully examine every wound on the little boy's body.

It's really weird for a little boy to suddenly turn into a zombie. Because when the little boy was first found by Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan, he must have been a normal child, but for some reason, he suddenly mutated into a zombie after talking to them for a while. From the time they found the little boy until the time when the little boy mutated into a zombie, the little boy was always under the noses of Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang, so it was impossible for anyone else to care about this poor little boy. attack

Because of this, the cause of the little boy's death became very strange. Li Haotian took a rough look at the little boy's body and found that there were no strange wounds on the surface of his body, but his skin turned red, like that day in the small forest. The zombies I saw were black and purple. Since the little boy was already a zombie before death, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang did not dare to touch its eyes with their hands, but they wanted to open his eyes to see what changes were happening in the pupils inside. This is Ouyang Zhengxiong. He saw a small wooden stick next to him, so he picked up the wooden stick and said to Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang: "If we can't touch it directly with our hands, then use this wooden stick to gently poke it open." Then throw it away after use. If it doesn't come into direct contact with our skin, there should be no problem, right?"

After listening to Ouyang Zhengxiong's method, Li Haotian thought for a while, nodded and said, "I think this method is very good. It can avoid direct contact with the little boy's body, and it can also help us check changes in other parts of his body." So Ouyang Zhengxiong picked up the small wooden stick, and then approached the little boy's body lying on the ground. He carefully used the wooden stick to gently open the eyelids of the little boy's corpse. You could see that their eyeballs had completely transformed into green. Before the little boy was killed by Li Haotian's sword, his eyes could even glow green. When Ouyang Zhengxiong, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang were checking the changes in the little boy's eyes, Sun Yulan saw that the little boy seemed to be holding something tightly in his hands. She quickly reminded Li Haotian, Gu Shaoyang and Ouyang Zhengxiong: "Look at this little boy's hands." What is he holding? Do you want to use a small wooden stick to open his hand and take a look?"

????After Sun Yulan's gentle reminder, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang turned around and discovered that he seemed to be holding something in his hand. The four of them were very curious, so Ouyang Zhengxiong found two wooden sticks and held his hands open. The four of them stared at the little boy's hands nervously, fearing that there was something in the little boy's hand that could cause infection. But when Ouyang Zhengxiong carefully opened her hand, he discovered that what he was holding tightly in his hand was the small candy wrapper wrapped with mung bean cake. Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang exhaled heavily after seeing it was a candy wrapper. Fortunately, it was not a very dangerous thing. However, when Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan saw the small candy wrapper used to wrap the mung bean cake in the little boy's hand, they felt infinite emotion in their hearts and felt very sad. He just ate a piece of mung bean cake and left this world. This little boy obviously has the opportunity to follow them to see more scenery, eat more delicious food, and experience more exciting life! His beautiful little life had just begun, and it ended so abruptly. How heartbreaking!

????Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang have seen too many such joys and sorrows, and they have experienced too many more tragic and sudden misfortunes than this. Therefore, compared to Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang did not have much turmoil in their hearts. But they understood Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan very well. They had such strong reactions because Sun Yulan was a relatively delicate girl, while Ouyang Zhengxiong because the little boy's experience was so similar to his childhood experience.. It will bring itself invisibly.
