Chapter 871

They don't want anyone to get close to them here, including the person whose aura is very similar to Emperor Liu Yun. If they want to do anything, they will have to pay for it themselves.

If he does something like this again, after all, he will never bear all this with them.

Sometimes what Emperor Liu Ying said here will flash before his eyes. After all, this is always a reminder, but he is not sure how to proceed in some aspects at the moment.

Perhaps this is the best solution provided by a process here, but it also reminds me of some other aspects. No one can obtain eternity here.

Of course, he is the same, so no matter what kind of premise this is, it will create some trouble for himself, but despite this, Gu Shaoyang quickly thought of some methods.

At this moment, the Seven Star Long Yuan in his hand, I don't know if he understood his intention or something, but it actually released a very strong function here. If this is the case, I am completely confident to win them here.

As they slowly deepened into the environment here, they gained a bit of understanding. In fact, it may not be as complicated as they expected.

But in this process, I also feel a little confused in my heart. After all, Qixing Longyuan is indeed in my hands now, but where to get rid of it in the end, I'm afraid it still depends on luck. Come.

But Salo soon realized a trouble. What Christi maintains here is the Eight Holy Gods, which is just a name now.

If there are any other problems, he should not be responsible. After all, he can see here that he doesn't have too many ideas.

I don't plan to take any action here. If this is the case, it is very likely that I will become aware of some problems here.

Sometimes I understand what they are doing, but in fact no one is willing to understand me. In desperation, I can only start from the road in front of me and slowly deduce it, trying to identify them in the shortest possible time. direction.

But he quickly anticipated that the current problems were indeed endless, but the 7-star Long Yuan in Gu Shaoyang's hands also played a significant role.

In order to ensure that everything could be resolved smoothly, Salo also took great pains to direct Medusa from above and asked him to help with some practices.

Soon the real trouble came. Everyone here had the same concept, but because of some quarrels and frictions, other people avoided here.

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang thought of the remaining people and wished he could fly out directly in front of them.

After all, I had thought about how I would deal with the rest if any problems occurred, but I never expected that no matter how much Guo Cheng would happen here.

But the remaining stages are still very clear. If I can lean forward and work hard to solve this matter, then it's not bad anyway.

However, after Gu Shaoyang confirmed the safety of those acquaintances, he left with peace of mind. Now it all depends on luck. Who can risk all their wealth and life to predict their actions? In fact, there is no one.

I recognized the surrounding scene here and determined these directions directly. In fact, no one can cause any interference to me here.

In fact, sometimes I also wonder whether I didn't think carefully enough and created some questions for them here, but the scene that happened next cut off my current view.

If it is really like what I described, it will immediately bring about some other adjustments, and it will not be my current turn to express my feelings.

So Gu Shaoyang hesitated and shook his head here, as if he didn't quite understand their views here, but soon the 7-star Longyuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand began to emit a light.

It is constantly being pulled forward here. As long as there is a chance to solve all this, it is actually not bad, but I am afraid that nothing will work in the end.

Wouldn't that pose a big threat to yourself? There are only two things that can shake your mood here. The first is their problems here, and the second is the situation that is happening now. After all, it is easy for everyone to think of it. It's hard to do.

Now Natasha has become the key protection target here, and everyone knows that there is a special clue in her body.

This is also the only way to help them leave this route. After staying in this ghost place for a long time, several people have become a bit sloppy, and even have some uneasiness in their words.

Previously, he was worried that there would be problems on the base side, so Gu Shaoyang advocated keeping a few people here, and Medusa naturally agreed.

Chapter 872

It happened that Kristi and Natasha were left here. Of course, before continuing to guard this Venus here, I had thought about what problems might arise.

That would more or less provide him with some assistance, but it wasn't until Natasha's physical test results came out here that Christie realized that the only person she could really rely on here was herself.

Are we going to let an injured person and a person whose strength has not recovered at all take the lead here? It's a bit incredible to think about it.

But Gu Shaoyang didn't realize what kind of situation he had left in their hands. Christie and Natasha carefully searched the nearby area.

In the end, the suspicion was locked on one person. Since Venus is now prepared, he will definitely not relax.

"To be honest, have you been prepared before?"

"It's not that if Salo hadn't specifically told me what Gu Shaoyang was going to say when he left, I actually didn't realize that there would be pursuers coming here. The person who should be most grateful is Gu Shaoyang in front of me."

Hearing these words, the two people couldn't help but look at each other in shock. Unexpectedly, the person in the end turned out to be the one she thought had changed the territory.

She didn't have to be in his shadow. Now it seems that he thinks too much. There is no such method at all. Although I have provided some very smooth directions here.

But they don't seem to be very interested. They even just tilt their heads and look at themselves here. If it were Gu Shaoyang before I definitely have to argue with them, but now that I am not on my own territory, I still have to be cautious.

Moreover, the previous man in black has disappeared without a trace. If his location can be found, the safety of the other people will not be needed. We went to discuss it.

I was afraid that in the end, it would be all in vain, no one found it, and a lot of troops were lost here. However, Natasha's side brought clues.

It said that the situation on this side has been roughly controlled. Gu Shaoyang returned the message to him, and continued walking deeper into the cave with Medusa.

Who doesn't know what will happen here, but now no one can back down, as long as they have this idea, that is The arrow has to be fired when it is on the string, and even now it is suspected of being a multi-faceted position.

If you can consider these so-called clues, then you might as well get involved in these positions. Although you can understand these so-called opinions, you cannot It means that you can use some other directions.

Sometimes I also wonder, once something goes wrong, wouldn't it be so complicated? But I immediately thought of some of the original clues.

If I were not in this situation right now, If we are categorical about this matter, it will most likely cause some trouble. So at present, I happened to learn about these so-called aspects of this matter. No one can be an eternal existence, and now the only one who can control these clues Naturally, there is only the man in front of her.

In fact, Medusa has always looked at him with an upward gaze. After all, in her heart, she has already understood these so-called situations early on. Once it really brings to herself If there are some problems, then I will soon fall into a crisis. In order to avoid such a disaster.

I have also worked hard and wish I could tell them everything here. After all, these routes are obviously for Let yourself fall into this trap actively.

But although these problems are different from what you have done, they are inevitable. These methods now are a feasible state. In order to carefully consider these clues, now I have also worked hard on myself.

Although so many people are looking at me on this route, it still puts a psychological pressure on myself. Sometimes the extent of things is not visible on these foundations.

If I can really see these The so-called situation may not be what these people think. Everyone is thinking in a different direction.

Taking this opportunity to get the same result, if this is the case, then I really don't need to say anything. Nothing special. In fact, before I changed my position, I would definitely have wanted them to take me seriously here, so that I could get some results by chance.

However, the confidentiality of the clues was not as simple as they expected. On the contrary, many people have been stagnant here.

If more questions could arise right now, maybe I wouldn't have to go through these so-called opinions, but I have to admit that these answers still stay in my heart in the end. Anyway, these questions are also special.

Chapter 873

But before that, the energy ball in Medusa's hand was still in his hand. After all, it was clear to her what choices she would face at this time.

If you have to identify these so-called problems, it still makes you feel a little uneasy. After all, no matter from which angle you look at it, you are very likely to fall into danger within the current range.

Sometimes I also wonder if there is something wrong in my thinking that has led to such a marginal situation, but soon problems arise that make me somewhat confused.

In fact, the problem was not as smooth as I thought, but some plans were always given. In fact, if it was the previous direction, I didn't know what kind of plan would be given now?

However, I have to admit that in the current process, it is very likely that it will bring some scrutiny to myself, so I have been struggling for a long time and put this issue on the side.

As for the energy ball in their hands, they actually don't have much control over it, and no one knows what to mention.

Medusa and Salo were waiting for her reveal. After all, everyone was following this stage, but soon they found a location.

This is a special cave that seems to be locked right in the middle of the two people, and they don't quite know what to do next.

I have been waiting for the man to give orders, but the other person doesn't seem to understand, and even bypasses his whereabouts here.

"Don't forget that things this time are different from what we thought before."

The person in front of her frowned, not knowing what to do at this time, but the person next to her kept staring at her closely, as if this could even out the scene on both sides.

To be honest, I had never considered this before. It was an unimportant thing. After all, it was a special scene for her. She was stopped here midway. However, the special scene carved on the cave made her somewhat confused. Why is there such a thing on this cave? An unusually special scene, but there are no other clues. Could it be that this is a completely closed cave?

But no matter how closed it is, there will still be some loopholes. In desperation, I can only try to find it from several nearby directions. Other clues.

Sometimes there are many clues given on this energy ball, but I didn't see them clearly, which led to some other problems.

Anyway, a judgment has been given now. If this is the case, it is really Put yourself in crisis.

After securing these clues, several people are sure of winning here, for fear that other incidents will happen here, leading to bad results.

But I have to admit that now everyone is waiting A perfect time, in order for everyone here to understand what everyone means, it also allowed me to understand some special points.

If it is really exactly the same as the clues I saw, then why do everyone still follow this standard? Maybe The current clues make people feel a little incredible. In this case, it is most appropriate to play it safe.

Otherwise, everyone will be facing the same thing here, and only I will be excluded here. Wouldn't that be wrong? It seemed very weird.

So I took great pains to say everything I should say here, but the problem lies in this choice. There are many situations that I don't quite understand.

And it happens to be in this room. , he quickly locked on to the few people in front of him. If he had been in such a crisis before, it might not have been so smooth.

But in order to avoid all these choices, he could take great pains, wishing he could get something from them. Superfluous solution.

But at the last second, he couldn't see the coffin without crying. The energy ball in his hand gave off a huge flash point, and suddenly trapped the two people inside. Salo didn't know clearly. What on earth is happening?

And behind this beam of light, it seems that it reminds me of many unspeakable opinions. In fact, no one knows what this is doing.

But only some adjustments need to be implemented here to avoid it. Some of the following situations, such as the problems I have learned about now, including some of the troubles that will follow, may make me a little confused.

In fact, if it were the previous standard configuration, I would still be a little confused. It's understandable.

After all, all these choices will definitely have to be faced in the end on these matters, but I have to admit that in the current clues, no one can understand these so-called opinions.

On the contrary, everyone is here with a vicious look. , as if doing so can say something, in order to avoid them having a dispute here.

Chapter 874

I also took great pains to explain all the methods I could provide. On some levels, I made a mistake in judgment. After all, there was some trouble at the moment.

It still makes me feel a little uneasy. If I can really do it according to the original method, then why can't I be more calm?

In the final analysis, it is because the gem in my hand is not eye-catching enough, so I cannot provide myself with all the opinions I need here.

If this is the case, then I really feel a little uneasy in my heart, after all, I want to ensure that the current clues are enough for me to understand some issues here.

But I have to admit that when all these problems really happen, all the results will be according to my own heart.

This is simply a true portrayal of myself now, but I soon realized a problem. No matter how much I said, it was of no use. I might as well seize the time and try to plan a direction here, and I would soon be able to identify the practices of these people.

In fact, I don't want to embarrass them here, but sometimes the things they do do make me a little annoyed.

So it's no wonder that everyone is working hard here. In fact, the real reason lies with him. As long as he can guarantee that all these events will happen, it will most likely lead him to become the most annoying person now.

So Gu Shaoyang bypassed the other party's world here and quickly followed the original plan, which happened to be to give some tips.

After all, who doesn't want to win some victories here, but looking at the exact events, it really makes me a little confused.

But soon Gu Shaoyang became the most powerful person here, and everyone nearby was staring at him, as if doing so would provide any alternative.

In fact, before switching to this position, everyone didn't know much about what accidents would happen at this time, but they soon brought some changes to themselves.

This is very likely to bring about some qualitative leap for myself, so in order to avoid the trouble that is occurring now, I have taken great pains, and I wish I could give him some methods directly to help him smooth out some of the incidents that happened here.

In order to ensure that everyone understands the situation, I still have a great possibility to fall into the current contemplation. After all, judging from the current situation.

In order to ensure that everyone can get a safe method here, I am currently taking great pains.

I wish I could throw all the things I expected into their arms, but unfortunately, the problem that arises is not the result I need most here, but some other opinions.

The energy ball in his hand burst out with huge brilliance in an instant. I thought I could stop some other behaviors at this time, but I didn't expect that I was thinking too much.

In fact, this path did not cause any problems. On the contrary, it created some doubts for himself. If this was the case, it would really make Gu Shaoyang feel a little uneasy now.

There are many options here, but only in this process, I don't want them to hide anything from me. After all, everyone here is a companion, and here is a life-or-death relationship.

After hearing their ending, the people in front of them couldn't help but feel a little puzzled, and then directly made some other precautions. Although they knew all this, it did not mean that they would say some unnecessary words about it.

After all, the opinions of these people are very clear in my mind. In order to avoid all this, I am currently taking great pains, and I wish I could give some other judgments here.

But sometimes at the critical moment when a problem arises, it may not be so simple to judge by yourself. If this is not the case, it will be nothing.

Anyway, this scene has already given some judgment. Although I don't want to get such a choice here, to be honest.

There are always some things that I have not expected, so the current choice must be a rare direction, but soon I will realize a problem.

Instead of hesitating here, it is better to seize some time and maybe be able to see their direction clearly here.

Judgment is sometimes a good direction, but it's a shame that someone needs to pick up on these clues here.

So from the current point of view, this is also an inevitable phenomenon. In fact, no one would have recognized all of this before, or even just thought that all of this was a difficulty.

If I could understand their understanding now, it might have nothing to do with me. In fact, sometimes I am also solving such a difficulty. I hope they can understand what I mean.

But he held the energy ball tightly in his hand without any opinion, as if all this had nothing to do with them.

If it is really exactly what you think, then why would everyone adopt such a method? In the final analysis, it is because the eyes here are different, so I have become the most suspicious person here.

Sometimes this energy ball is a good thing, but now it is just a harm to others. Is it possible for an ordinary person like me to do such a thing here?

Thinking about it, I found it a bit unbelievable, so I simply rejected him. I thought it would be solved smoothly now, but now it looks different.

In order to avoid these so-called problems, I took great pains, hoping to know the subsequent experiences in him.

But there are some events that I don't understand. Once something happens, I will definitely regret it, so no matter what I do.

I have to consider these issues now, on the one hand to gain these opinions, and on the other hand to give some redundant measures. I think I also learned about various aspects in this process.

However, the energy ball in his hand has become a starting point for everyone. In fact, he knows very well what will happen at this time.

Especially based on the foundation of these things, I originally did not plan to deal with these plans, but some embarrassing situations occurred due to the mistake of the sun. If this happens, it is very likely to bring some changes to myself.

But to be honest, there was a light flashing on this energy ball. It was true that I had to do it myself, in order to avoid such a clue.

I may have taken great pains, fearing that there might be some trouble along the way, but I am still on this path because of all these so-called things.

Sometimes I also wonder, if this energy ball successfully disappears here, does it prove that I have several routes to do everything well?

But then I realized that this problem was too prominent. Even if I had a great solution now, I still couldn't take it all into consideration.

What should Salo and the others do if these clues fall into their hands now? But to be honest, at this critical moment.

Everyone's approach has become a piece of paper. If you really want to have such ability, it's really not clear what else can be solved smoothly.

Anyway, at present, there are many kinds of problems on how to do it in the end, but it has nothing to do with you. After all, there will be special candidates here to take your place in every path.

But what cannot be said is right in front of me. If I really have this ability, I will not be in this predicament.

Anyway, many things seem to be the same at the moment. As for the outcome that I will choose in this current path, it is a route that is not very clear.

If you can say that you can clearly see the other party's views here, it is actually not very rude. After all, everyone has done the same thing. Although I know it in my heart, I still can't give myself some solid methods.

If we could understand this before, it might not be so simple, but we still have to discuss these results. It is very likely that this is the problem that is happening now.

It brought some interference to myself, but I have to admit that no matter how many questions I ask, I can't give these so-called answers. Maybe this is what I thought of before.

Soon I realized that in order to avoid these choices in the world, I quickly gave a method, even though I understood these events.

But it may also cause some problems to myself. Before switching, I definitely wanted to have everything arranged completely, but I don't know when it started to cause such problems.

It is very likely to cause some interference to yourself, so you must consider some clues. Successfully contributing to such a result is a moment that catches you off guard.

Especially now that everyone is paying attention, everyone is here. You look at me and I look at you as if you can get some clues from them.

Anyway, thinking about it this way, I have successfully understood something in my heart, although no one can have any effect on me during the current period.

Sometimes I wonder if the previous transaction with the Black Cloak was too exaggerated, so these people brought such problems to themselves.

After all, it's no wonder that they have thought carefully here. In fact, if it were me, I would definitely want to leave some traces on their bodies.

Sometimes I wonder if the problem is too prominent, so I feel a little uneasy.

But in fact, no one is here to help me. Even at this moment, I feel a little bit unbearable, if I do it according to my own ideas.

It is very possible to fall into a state of confusion. In fact, no one can be so calm, but they are now forced to return to this situation because of certain events.

Chapter 876

Sometimes I think about some questions, why the events are different from what I thought, and I seem to suddenly have some explanations. After all, everyone is doing their own thing here, and it's not just a day or two.

If you really have this kind of skill, you might as well seize some opportunities to see if you can try to balance all of this. Sometimes you have some thoughts about this incident, and to a certain extent you have identified these directions.

In this position, I quickly figured out some methods.

Perhaps this is the brightest light on this energy ball. In fact, if I follow some of my previous actions, it is very likely to cause some problems to me, so in order to avoid the current ending, I also saw a route.

Medusa was holding this thing in her hand at this time, and carefully looked to the side to see a route. To be honest, why did she recognize these scenes here.

That's all because of some clues around these scenes. If it comes to nothing, then it's really unfair in my heart.

After all, everyone has worked hard, how could it be possible that things like this are still happening step by step until now? Let's not talk about anything else, I must be a little concerned about it.

So I tried every means to bypass their route here, trying to solve the problem at once. Anyway, at present, various lines represent specific problems.

As for whether the orange gem in his hand can be traded with the black cloak, he actually doesn't know very well.

After all, the current stages are all different. If you can really get these questions, it may bring you some other opinions.

Although in the end it was all in vain, I still won't avoid these problems. It is very likely that these are some of the opinions I have now.

But despite this, he still needs to get a balance point. After all, there must be some feasibility in the current situation, but Salo heard a burst of footsteps next to him, quickly grabbed Medusa, and stuffed him next to him. among the gaps.

He chased here alone and looked at the disappearing figures in front of him. Look at me and you, no one dared to rush over.

Not only because of the premises of these things, but also because of some other practices.

If these people are really capable, then there is no need for everyone to worry here. It is not all because these things cannot be solved to that extent, so they are worried like this now.

However, the problems that occurred during the process were still quite obvious. In order to ensure these results for the funeral, I took great pains, hoping to find some problems in them.

But I have always been unable to take this step, not only through my previous ideas, but also out of some goals in front of me.

There are always some things that are very different from what I imagined, so I have taken great pains to avoid the troubles that are occurring now.

Try to solve this matter once and for all, but you still have to take this step. In fact, sometimes I also seize the time.

I'm afraid that something will go wrong along the way, but sometimes I have to make sure that other problems can happen smoothly. After all, I can't just leave them here.

I thought that by dragging people back directly during this process, all the incidents this time would be solved, but I never expected that the current matter would not be as easy as I thought. The purpose of these people from the beginning was not that of others. Just yourself.

Anyway, the Eight Holy Gods are now in the hands of others. If it continues like this, it is very likely to cause some threats.

So now I am taking the initiative to take action under everyone's gaze. In fact, I must have been frightened before. After all, in some process, I must be divided into an area.

Although the problem didn't seem as sudden as he thought, the gem in his hand instantly emitted a huge light.

If it was because of the previous situations, then I would definitely like to let everyone know who is the most dominant person here.

But I soon discovered that this situation had caused some problems for me, and everyone's impressions were based on this.

But the footsteps were getting closer and closer to me. I really didn't expect this kid to do it so fast. Anyway, everyone is taking care of these conditions now.

If you really have the ability, then why would you bother to take such action? Not because all of this results from the direction they are giving now.

In fact, sometimes, no one can guarantee what kind of dangers there will be on this route, but it is still quite smooth. After all, in the end, it will be all in vain, or it has been predicted in advance.

Chapter 877

It depends on who is faster, Salo or it. As long as the person who arrives here first can have a certain advantage, it is precisely because of this idea.

So when the steel Medusa kept urging Salo, he would wait for the two people to come back in this gap, but who knew that just after he left, this small corner turned out to be the place where people were captured. surveillance area.

If it were the situation before, everyone would still have a somewhat incomprehensible look, but what can we do at this moment? Is this how you divide everything into complete parts?

Thinking about it, it feels a bit unbelievable. If I had this time, I would be more sensible and shouldn't make those so-called actions here. But even if there is such a problem, there is still no way to cause some interference to them.

Especially for Salo, after all, the last incident also gave a rough idea, and sometimes he wondered if it was too sudden.

This is why everyone ignores themselves here. After all, sometimes they are also judging whether the scene is the same as they judged.

If he really had this ability, he would definitely rush over and try to dodge the matter at once, but he soon realized that all these choices were not that simple.

Hearing the footsteps of the other party, he dodged directly into the space next to him. Unexpectedly, he happened to bump into the person next to him this time. The two of them were flirting here.

It seemed that he was hinting at what the other party should do, but Gu Shaoyang calmly gave Salo a gesture, and the two parted ways here.

If it had been a good direction before, it would have been a waste, and no one would be able to capture him. Wouldn't that be terrible?

So now Gu Shaoyang is also hesitating whether he has thought too much about the fact that such an insignificant thing happened, but he quickly focused on several other people.

After all, every time something like this happens, they will become a witness here, if they say that they are unreasonable here.

Then they will chase and intercept them, not for anything else, but just to say something to themselves.

Every time after experiencing the baptism of their bankbooks, I feel a little overwhelmed. The opportunity may bring some interference to me in the current process, otherwise who would do these things for no reason? Useful actions.

However, I soon realized some problems. If it was exactly the same as I had judged, then why did everyone still keep their clothes at arm's length? Could this be an explanation?

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang shook his head at her, indicating that he should not move forward. He would only anger those people here. After all, he had already understood what these people would do in the end.

In order to avoid everyone having a head-on confrontation here, a few people quickly evaded to the sidelines, fearing that something would go wrong here, to be honest.

If it were before changing, I would definitely have to talk to him constantly, and at least give him some methods.

But now it is obvious that they will not be tolerated doing this kind of thing. Everyone's route is reasonable, but now someone needs to be here to resolve all this.

The notebook waved to the person in front of him, telling him to go to the passage next to him and wait for him to go with him. However, he didn't expect that while the other person was dodging, he happened to be caught by the person on the opposite side. The man in black rushed forward like this. He laughed.

It could be seen that the other party's malice was quite strong, so I glared at him here, and then immediately turned around and pounced to capture her here.

If I wasn't sure before I started doing it, whether I could have such an accurate direction, but now I have no choice but to take a gamble and see what kind of glory comes out in the end.

After all, it's not just a day or two for everyone to do their own thing here, but I don't want to see all this. On the contrary, I am eager for them to bring some changes to me here.

Sometimes the more things you do, the more you will face these scenes here. In fact, no one would understand what they meant here before doing it, but it is because of some changes they have made that they have brought them caused a huge disturbance.

In fact, everyone has an unforgettable experience, but what will happen to them in the end will vary from person to person.

After all, not everything can be solved smoothly now, especially when problems like the present occur, it is even more confusing.

In fact, if it were before, I would have been eager to let them make some predictions for me, but now it suddenly doesn't seem so important.

Chapter 878

After all, there are many kinds of results that I need to get, but I don't want them to get these so-called opinions. It's just that everyone does their own thing and it's not just a day or two, but they still need to give some solutions here.

After all, who doesn't want these so-called incidents, but the more so, the more difficult he is now.

Is the current choice the next ending? It is still very fast at this stage. In fact, many clues have already revealed the truth.

As for the remaining incidents, it depends on everyone's own destiny. After all, not everything can be solved just right, especially through the current stage. In fact, there are many times when I fall into confusion. Case.

Maybe sometimes I was hesitant as to why I was in such a situation, but soon the real trouble came with my own judgment.

This is just a preliminary step here. As for the remaining choices, who can make a complete judgment here?

That depends on everyone's ability. After all, who here doesn't know about these so-called incidents, but it is precisely because of these problems that are happening right now.

If I had followed it before, I would definitely have wanted to face it here calmly and happened to have given myself some methods. But in fact, the current situation is not as simple as expected.

It is indeed true that everyone can escape unscathed here, but soon someone needs to be equal here, so that such a result can be discussed fairly and justly.

But it can be seen that each of them has a different method, including the moments they are aiming at here.

"Don't worry, go forward here, and you will soon see the people greeting you, but I hope you don't come back with Medusa and the others."

"Is this true again?"

Saluo was a little lost, and muttered something in his mouth. The other person seemed to not understand him when he saw him at this time, why he didn't leave here yet.

But the other person's eyes were very empty, as if he was looking through him. The other person, Gu Shaoyang, was somewhat interested, so he tilted his head and looked at him.

I don't know what he was hesitating about at this moment. After all, at the current stage, he had quickly locked onto these issues.

But Black Not to mention the side of the cloak, he has his own plan, but Natasha has been conveying information to their side.

After all, the remaining four holy gods have chased and intercepted them. Who is the mastermind behind the scenes? Who is it? In fact, Gu Shaoyang already has the answer in his heart.

Apart from him, no one can do such a thing with one hand, but he did not intend to face such a problem before, after all, it is very likely to cause some interference to him , so now is also a stage where victory is inevitable.

But now I must be prepared. No matter who is waiting for me here now, I must split it open.

But the moment I saw that woman , I froze in place, not knowing how to examine these issues, and sometimes I also thought about it.

Is the thing I thought of too extreme, and it actually attracted their attention here? No one knows , who will stand out next here.

And become the successor to everyone. In fact, sometimes I also wonder if I really caused some problems, so I don't need to end it myself.

So I have been causing myself He fell into a situation where he couldn't move forward, but he soon discovered some problems. The energy ball in Medusa's hand had sucked everyone in here before. Does that prove that they are now here? A rather abrupt place, this is an eternal area, but I cannot guarantee these so-called views.

Therefore, before practicing, I must work hard to see clearly what clues everyone has now, although the rest of the questions are not It works so well.

But I must also find a feasible route, at least let them realize that they are a person who has potential and can cause problems.

If it were changed, I would still be very aware of these views, but now I am taking great pains to The thing is not through the choice in front of me, but around some other corners.

I have to admit that everyone here has a special number on an area behind the neck. I carefully looked at the person in front of me. The woman then secretly remembered that number in her heart.

Soon a few people arrived at the next cave. No one knew what would happen here. As long as they didn't say it, no one knew what went wrong before..

If there is a dispute here, I will not admit it, and others will not bite this sentence. But then I realized a problem. Now all I can ensure is the two lines next to it. If I draw water from a bamboo basket, It's all in vain, that's what I hate the most.

Chapter 879

So now no matter what, I have to identify their location as soon as possible, not only to mention some opinions here, but also to give them some help. Even if something happens now, what will happen.

From the moment before, when he stood in this cave, he could no longer retreat. After all, Fu Ruosha's choice was already clear to him.

Including the many traps that Xun can't leave now, it is most likely to find some opportunities here, but if you think about it, you will know

Now these clues are not clear at all. If I have to forcefully involve them in this matter, it is very likely that I will get into a car crash.

"You remember, this string of numbers I gave you, if someone comes over, you tell him this string of numbers. If he still wants to fight you, you just turn around and run away."

The person in front of him nodded thoughtfully, but the notebook did not observe his small movement. Now he needs to look nervous to identify the direction of several other people.

If they are for a moment different from what he saw before Otherwise, he would be in crisis, but in order to avoid the other options, he was a little panicked, but soon Medusa next to him extended a helping hand to him

"I know a few roads from here that can lead to leaving here. Are you willing to believe me for once?"

I don't know if he remembered the real map or carried out the memory of the previous life here, but I have to admit that he doesn't want to lock in front of them in this aspect.

After all, everyone is doing their own thing, and this is not the first time. In the current state, in order to avoid these problems, I can take great pains.

During this transition period, everyone can be aware of these so-called problems, but someone needs to be here to maintain balance, hoping to get their adjustments.

But exchange, exchange must be rewarded by giving, so there are several people here, you look at me and I see the expressions on your faces are somewhat reluctant to do this.

It is nothing more than reading for yourself. So Gu Shaoyang, not at all He hesitated and hit Salo directly. He entered the cave with one horn, and then jumped down here. He turned to look at Medusa and stretched out her hand to pick him up, but Salo next to him climbed up from the ground. Here stretched out his hand to pull Medusa over.

But Gu Shaoyang just smiled indifferently. Anyway, what the two of them do now has nothing to do with him. As long as they don't know the trouble, then thank God.

"The energy ball is in your hands. You should be hunted here. If you have any problems, just do what I just told you. Salo can only follow me during this process."

The person in front of him was a little surprised. Did he really intend to leave Medusa alone?

But the person in front of him shook his head. In fact, sometimes taking the long term to catch the big fish is what he needs to do most here. The events that happened included the sacrifice of Medusa.

Sometimes I wondered if there was something wrong that was different from what I thought, otherwise why would so many things happen to everyone.

Soon Medusa was holding it in her hands. He held the note very tightly in his hand. It recorded some of what the two people had talked about before.

Including the string of numbers, he actually did it for his own good. After all, he always felt that there were still some mysteries about him. Not opened.

But he has refused to tell himself. Instead, he wants to let himself survive from here, and then understand these so-called truths by himself.

If this is the case, then he can handle it in the direction he wants most, but now There are many ways to do it without compromising.

But now I just don't want to be the most redundant person. Sometimes I wonder if everything can be separated, will that be enough to prove myself? Where is his innocence?

But then he realized a problem. If everyone is gathered in the same area, it is very likely to attract the attention of other people.

If you are alone in front of you, those people may attack faster. Since If she made this choice, then she must cooperate, but he couldn't. Salo next to her was a little reluctant, but Medusa stared at her and she didn't dare to say anything here. Growing up, Salo Luo is like a bodyguard next to Medusa.

He is here to protect him from all disasters, but he never hopes that he can turn around to protect himself. But at this moment, he suddenly realizes that there is something wrong with him. They also have the same bloodline.

This place is in the hands of the Snake Man. He cannot let others have opportunities here because of some unilateral judgments of his own. After thinking about it now, he took a deep breath and walked directly to the side, as if Exploring the surroundings for clues.

Chapter 880

But I have to admit that he is not the only one here. No matter how capable he is now, he still has to give an explanation.

Otherwise, if he were so confused now, wouldn't he be causing trouble for himself? But the other party didn't seem to think much about it, and just turned his head here.

If he had followed the original direction, he would have been willing to give him a judgment, and at least he would have resonated with him in the process, but the person in front of him ignored him.

Instead, I bypassed the other party's behavior and went directly to the other side. Sometimes I also wonder if there are too many problems, otherwise why would everyone look at me in such a way.

Anyway, in the final analysis, it is just a difference. If you really have the skills, you might as well consider other points. It happens that a direction in which you can struggle is given here.

But unfortunately, this is not the first time such an incident has happened, but for me it is a non-medical matter.

A few people could only keep the distance here silently, trying to reason with them, but unfortunately, such a thing did not work.

On the contrary, it would bring them endless trouble. It was also because I had worked so hard here that I wished I could tell her all the results directly.

After all, Medusa must make preparations. He will be the only one who can get out of here alive, so no matter what trouble he encounters later, he must leave without changing his face. He can't do it just because of a few of them. Continuously delaying time here is simply unscientific.

Medusa soon became the person that everyone gathered around here. After all, as a central point, he still attracted a lot of attention here.

But the people next to me didn't seem to think anything was wrong, and even caused some other incidents here. I originally thought that these people could be dealt with well, but looking at it now, I am afraid that I was thinking too much here. too much.

In fact, before the change, Black Cloak put forward some opinions here, which is not an exaggeration, and may even become the reason for everyone to fight for it here.

But the question is whether you can survive the current difficulty. In fact, there are many different choices.

As for where to start, that is where this clue begins, but unfortunately, problems and choices do not coexist.

Everyone of us must be prepared now, but we have to admit that at this stage, we must determine these issues.

Maybe sometimes I don't think so smoothly, but sometimes it brings me great help.

Anyway, things in the process are no longer so clear. If you can let yourself know the follow-up problems, then everything seems not so complicated.

I'm afraid that when the time comes, I will be in the most embarrassing situation by attacking the bamboo basket from front to back to get nothing.

However, I have to admit that the problems Gu Shaoyang is worried about now are indeed a relatively conspicuous problem. Everyone's existence is meaningful, but the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand quickly exploded at this moment. light.

The stars above also shone one after another. If it had been before, no one would have known why this place had developed into what it is now.

But soon I realized a problem. These aspects may not be what I thought at the moment, but it may be because of various aspects that caused the remaining problems.

No one knows what direction they will take in the next journey, and no one knows what they are doing at the moment.

Even though I might not understand it a little before, the various events that actually happened made me take a deep breath and feel a little reluctant.

To be honest, before this, everyone would have been speculating on each other, but in order to avoid being blinded by all this, I also took great pains.

But it is still a pity that a more appropriate approach was not given in this matter, as if these people knew what they were here for this time.

If this is the case, I am afraid that it will cause some interference to myself, so I am also hesitant about which route I can use to accurately find this person.

In fact, the previous black cloak also brought a lot of interference to myself. Before, everyone was hesitating whether someone had done something here, which is why now everyone is watching what they have obtained. a chance.

However, I definitely don't know what the snake people in the outside world are doing, so there are a few of them here, you look at me and I look at you.

No one knows what is going to happen, including the people around you. After all, sometimes you can think of it, but others may not know it.
