Chapter 931

"We met. I came here just to tell you about Venus, and I also need your help." Gu Shaoyang mentioned that Venus was helpless and looked a little sad.

When Medusa saw his appearance, she couldn't help but wonder what happened between Venus and him.

"What's wrong? Did something unpleasant happen between you two? Or Venus?....."

Seeing Gu Shaoyang's sad look, Medusa thought that Venus had died in an accident, but after hearing Gu Shaoyang tell what Venus had done, she felt that Venus would be better off dead.

"Really? You said Venus, he secretly took away your third key!"

Medusa's hands on the table were clenched into fists, as if she hated iron. After hearing the discussion between Medusa and Gu Shaoyang, the snake man in the room also quickly exited.

"It's also my fault for being careless. I went into the cave with him and came out together, but I gained three things, and he had nothing. Maybe he had bad thoughts, but it was my fault that I didn't realize it immediately."

Gu Shaoyang touched his head helplessly, with a very annoyed expression, but Medusa knew that this was not his fault, but Venus's own moral problem.

"How can I blame you?" Medusa sighed deeply and felt helpless. Venus's actions only made her feel embarrassed.

"Then do you know which direction she probably went?" Medusa knew the purpose of Gu Shaoyang's trip to come to her for help, so she quickly asked

"I summoned the little beasts within a radius of dozens of miles and inquired. They all said that he went east, but I searched all the way but found no trace of him."

"So I guess he has some secret base, and that's why I wanted to ask you." Gu Shaoyang guessed silently, and Medusa nodded silently after listening to his words.

"I'll go find someone who had a good relationship with Venus and ask." After Medusa finished speaking, she stood up and walked out. When he came in again, there were two people behind her. The two people who came in behind Medusa were the people who had always been close to Venus.

"When you were dating Venus before, did you find out that he had any secret base or a specific place where he hid things?"

Medusa and Gu Shaoyang asked while sitting on chairs and looking at the two people in front of them.

"He never grew anything and had no secret base." Both of you, look at me. Let me see, your final answers are the same. There is no need for them to lie in front of Medusa.

"If you think about it again, is it really true?"

Medusa asked again without giving up, but the answers they gave were still the same.

"Forget it, no matter how many times I ask, the answer is the same. It seems that Venus has not come back, and she will not hide her things in a certain place. She should take them with her."

Gu Shaoyang covered his head with a headache. Now he just wants to find Venus quickly and get the third key back from his hand.

"Don't worry, I'll ask them to find Venus quickly. I won't let him lose the third key."

After saying that, Medusa quickly ordered a search. The snake men who received the order immediately came out of the cave, but they didn't know why they were looking for Venus. They only knew that it was an order, and Venus was lying on the bed at this time. He was resting peacefully, unaware of the danger in the room. There was always a person with a higher cultivation level than him hidden in Venus's room. He was a member of the Winged Bird Clan.

He took advantage of Venus's sleep to , he drew the magical elixir in the air, and then Venus fell unconscious. After confirming that he was really unconscious, the Winged Bird Tribe emerged from the darkness.

He came to Venus and opened it. took off his clothes, then cast a spell to break his barrier, and successfully took the third key away from his arms.

Because of the magic potion, Venus slept for another day and night, waiting for him to wake up again When I arrived, I found that the key in my arms was missing.

"Where's my key! Why is it missing?"Venus anxiously touched the key on his body, but couldn't find it.

He cast a spell to check and found that his barrier had been artificially destroyed. Only then did he realize that someone had done it deliberately.

"who! Who is it?"Venus finally got the key, but it was only on him for a few days before it was gone!

You know, he has exposed his greed in front of Gu Shaoyang for this key. If he returns to his If Medusa is found in his tribe, he will be shameless to face his tribe!

Just when Venus was upset and worried, he hurried out of the room to find the person who stole his things, but he happened to meet the tribesman who was looking for him.

"ah! Venus! You are here! We've been looking for you for a long time! I thought you were no longer in this world!"

The two people met to look for Venus together. Originally they just wanted to have a bowl of noodles here, but unexpectedly they met Venus who happened to open the door.

Chapter 932

The Winged Bird tribesman who took the third key was eating noodles downstairs. He also saw the conversation between Venus and the two people upstairs. From their conversation, he learned that Venus was a snake man, so he hurriedly Leave.

He is not afraid of Venus, knowing that he holds the key, but wants to use the third key to blackmail Medusa.

Before, Medusa quietly attacked the Winged Bird Tribe, causing them heavy casualties. Afterwards, their defense was not very good, leaving them no chance of a sneak attack.

Now that they have the third key, they have the capital to blackmail the Medusa family, so they must make good use of it.

"I just came back and was... planning to go back."

Venus upstairs didn't notice anything strange about the Winged Bird tribe downstairs.

Now he could only give a perfunctory answer to the two people standing in front of him. After all, he couldn't go back now because he had lost the key and he had to find it quickly. OK

"Have you been fine recently? Everyone is going crazy looking for you."

The Snake Man is kind and caring, holding Venus's hand and not letting go of the two-dimensional one, even if he wants to escape.

"Okay, look, it's already here. Let's not eat here. Let's go back and eat. Let's celebrate."

The snake man said, and wanted to take Venus back to the clan, but Venus was reluctant to go back.

"Oh, I'm a little uncomfortable. I'm going to go to the toilet first. Please wait for me outside the door."

Venus's eyes turned around in a circle, and then he immediately thought of a way. After saying that, he broke away from the restraints of the two and went straight to the toilet.

The two snake men didn't think much, just looked at Venus's eyes. The back figure shook his head helplessly, and then walked outside the door and waited for him quietly.

However, Venus did not go to the toilet when he went to the toilet. He looked around, trying to find an exit that would allow him to escape..

After looking around for a long time, Venus finally found a small opening on the roof of the toilet.

Venus, who turned into a human body, could not get out, but when he returned to his original snake body, he could get through the small opening. He got out of it.

He saw Venus spinning around in circles and a green light shone on him, and then he turned into a snake.

Venus, who recovered from its original appearance, climbed directly along the wall of the toilet and exited from the hole. He got out and escaped.

The people who had been waiting for Venus outside the door had been waiting for a long time and were surprised when they didn't see him.

"What's going on? Did you fall in when you went to the toilet?"

The two looked at each other, and then stood there waiting for a while, but not long after, they noticed something strange.

"It's broken. Something happened to Venus inside. Let's go in and take a look!"

The two were worried about Venus' safety and rushed into the toilet immediately. There was no one in the toilet except for a small hole above their heads.

"How is this going?" Among them, the snake man with a higher level of cultivation used his mind to recover what had just happened. He realized that Venus left on his own and couldn't help but feel strange.

"There seems to be something wrong with Venus. Let's go back and tell Medusa quickly."

The two of them were very strange. They finally decided to go back and tell Medusa first and then let him make the decision.

Soon they returned to the clan and told Medusa and Gu Shaoyang about finding Venus.

"You said that he found a place by himself and settled in. Then quickly go and ask him who has been in contact with him for how many days he has lived there?"

After hearing that Venus was found, Medusa stood up anxiously and said that she wanted to check it out in person, but was stopped by Gu Shaoyang

"Let them check. Venus slipped away quietly, probably because he was worried that you would find him, or that he already knew that I was here. Gu

Shaoyang said his conjecture, then lowered his head and remained silent: What happened to Venus who had been carrying things for so long, but then sneaked away when she saw someone of her own kind?

Gu Shaoyang thought for a long time. There were no results, and since he learned that he had found Venus and was run away by him, his mood became more complicated.

Seeing Gu Shaoyang like this, Medusa couldn't help but feel guilty and responsible.

Medusa was Gu Shaoyang. A friend, but because of her tribe, she made him suffer the pain of losing the third key, making her blame herself.

At the same time, as the leader of the snake people, Medusa was not strict with her subordinates, allowing Venus to do such a thing , therefore feeling remiss.

For several days, the people sent out by Medusa to search for Venus still had no results.

"This Venus is too cunning."Medusa heard the report from her subordinates and slapped the table angrily.

Just when they were anxious, the Winged Bird tribe suddenly sent a peace ambassador.

"The leader of the Winged Bird Clan suddenly sent someone to say that they had what we wanted."

The subordinate stood respectfully in front of Medusa to report, but Medusa had no interest in it, because nothing is as important as Gu Shaoyang's lost third key now.

Chapter 933

"Let them go back and settle down." Medusa didn't want to hear about the Winged Birds now, so she directly asked them to send the Winged Birds away.

However, her subordinates came back after they went out to send them away.

"Why are you back and he won't leave?" Medusa looked at her subordinates very helplessly.

Gu Shaoyang also walked out at this time. When he saw the appearance of his subordinates and Medusa, he couldn't help but curiously asked: "What's wrong? This is?"

Hearing this, Gu Shaoyang asked his subordinates and immediately reported: "The Winged Bird Clan sent someone to tell them that they have the key we want."

Gu Shaoyang, who was still listless, suddenly became energetic after hearing the key from his subordinate's mouth.

Medusa, who was sitting on the chair, also suddenly stood up from the chair and walked to the subordinate in two steps.

"What!"

"The people of the Winged Bird Tribe said they had the key in their hands! What key!"

Medusa asked very anxiously, but when her subordinates saw her anxious look, they just shook their heads indifferently.

"He didn't say anything specific, he just said that if we want to know, we need you to go to the Winged Bird Tribe in person and negotiate with their leader."

The subordinate reported the exact words of the Winged Bird Tribe who came. After listening, Medusa waved his hand to let him go down.

"Why is this winged bird tribe so rampant now?" Gu Shaoyang felt very strange when he heard his subordinate's words. He remembered that when he left, the two clans were in harmony with each other, so why did it suddenly change now. Did something happen in the middle?

Gu Shaoyang looked at Medusa with a curious look on his face. It feels like she is hiding something from him

"Has anything happened between you and the Winged Birds recently?"

Gu Shaoyang asked patiently. Thinking about it now, people were never sent to stand guard at the door before, but now the people standing guard are following the time rules, repeating this.

It is really unusual!

Gu Shaoyang has been hiding the search for so long since he came back. Venus and the third key, Medusa didn't tell anything about the Winged Birds, and now she had to tell him when he asked.

"The Winged Bird Tribe has always been eyeing us. I didn't know where I learned you were not here before, and then they took the opportunity to sneak attack, causing us heavy casualties!"

"Later, in order to avenge my tribe, I also led them to attack once. Although I won a complete victory, my relationship with the Winged Bird Clan was also completely forged."

Medusa said helplessly, and then Gu Shaoyang knew what happened.

"So that person knew that we were looking for Venus and the key in his hand, so he took the opportunity to use this to threaten you, hoping to make you agree to some unequal demands."

Gu Shaoyang directly analyzed the purpose of the Winged Bird Clan and felt it was hateful.

"Okay, don't worry, since they think I'm not here, I will go with you tomorrow. I want to see what they want!"

Gu Shaoyang said coldly, but Medusa was worried and happy at the same time.

He was worried that the Winged Bird Clan would destroy the third key and what Gu Shaoyang wanted.

But at the same time, he was happy, happy to have Gu Shaoyang's After accompanying them, the Winged Bird Clan no longer dared to do anything to their clan.

This ensured their future lives.

After setting the time to meet, Gu Shaoyang felt much more at ease. His intuition told him that the first person he was looking for was The three keys are in the hands of the Winged Bird Clan.

Now he needs to wait until the two parties meet before he can get his keys back, but he is also slightly worried, worried that the Winged Bird Clan will betray him.

"Hey, it's better to go to bed quickly!"

Lying in bed, Gu Shaoyang kept thinking about meeting tomorrow. He didn't close his eyes until late at night. Finally, at dawn, he finally forced himself to close his eyes and squint for a while. Early the next morning, Gu Shaoyang got up early. After cleaning up, Medusa had also finished cleaning up.

Then the two of them went to where the Winged Bird Clan was, but Gu Shaoyang temporarily hid in the dark and did not come forward immediately. When they arrived at the door of the Winged Bird Clan, Medusa showed no fear, she turned a blind eye to the provocation of the people guarding the door.

After finally following for a while, Medusa finally saw the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe.

"Stay safe, Medusa!" After the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe saw Medusa, he still sat on the high position of the chair and looked down at Medusa.

As if she was a subordinate, Medusa still maintained a good attitude towards the contempt of the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe, and didn't take it seriously.

She sat directly on a chair nearby and poured herself tea, like a master.

Seeing Medusa's good attitude, the leader laughed directly, and then stood up from his high position. Go down and sit on an equal footing with her

"It's true that the mentality and upbringing in the hands of brothers and sisters are excellent! How ashamed!"

The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe said coldly as he stepped down from his high position, his tone seemed to be mocking, while Medusa just smiled faintly.

"Everyone respects each other. As the leader of the Winged Bird Clan, I believe you are also very good."

Medusa also complimented him. For a while, the two of them were like complimenting each other in business. You compliment me and I compliment you.

Chapter 934

"Ha ha ha ha....."

"Did Medusa come here just to praise me? Or for something else?"

The leader of the Winged Bird Clan seemed a little out of breath, and took the initiative to ask Medusa about the purpose of her trip.

However, when the leader of the Winged Bird Clan asked, Medusa revealed her purpose.

"Isn't this an invitation to come and collect my things?"

Last night, Medusa and Gu Shaoyang decided after discussion:

If the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe can take the initiative to return the key, then they will no longer care about it and can continue to maintain a friendly relationship with them, and the previous matters will be wiped out.

If the Winged Bird Tribe can take the initiative to return the key, If the leader of the clan is unwilling and wants to make excessive demands, then Gu Shaoyang will come forward to let them know why the flowers are so red!

"your things? Don't say this nonsense. May I ask you what is there in our Winged Bird Clan?"

Hearing Medusa's words, the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe still laughed, as if he was deliberately waiting for Medusa to pray to him.

"Everyone is discerning, so I won't beat around the bush. You know I came here with Venus and the key. You have what I want in your hand, and we can make an exchange."

Medusa said to him very politely. You must know that Medusa's strength is not weaker than his. In this world, the strong has always been respected. The leader of the Winged Bird Clan is actually not worthy of being on an equal footing with her based on his strength alone. Now, Being able to make him equal to her is nothing more than Medusa's respect for him.

But! The leader of the Winged Bird Clan didn't understand, and just thought she was doing this because of fear.

"If you want the key in my hand, then you have to give yourself in exchange!"The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe saw that Medusa had not spoken for a long time, so he directly made his request.

After hearing the request from the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe, Medusa was stunned for a while, and then laughed.

She didn't know it was Who gave the leader of the Winged Bird Clan such courage? He actually dared to make such an unreasonable request, and it was a matter of course.

"Although you are the leader, I think you may not be awake yet. Who do you think you are?"

Medusa's written words came out of her mouth without hesitation and she was not polite at all.

Although she did want the third key, she would never be insulted by the Winged Bird Clan or exchange it for herself!

If Medusa wanted If she wants to have a decisive battle with the leader of the Winged Bird Clan right now, the leader of the Winged Bird Clan is no match for her! What's more, there is Gu Shaoyang behind her who has not shown up! If the leader of the Winged Bird Clan knows that Gu Shaoyang is now I'm already nearby, I'm afraid I'm going to pee my pants in fear.

"you! How dare you speak like this! Aren't you afraid that I will destroy what you want most?"

The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe was very angry because of Medusa's words, but more importantly he was helpless because he really had no way to make Medusa suffer.

"You keep saying that you have what I want in your hand, so take it out and take a look!" Medusa directly questioned.

After hearing Medusa's question, the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe immediately asked someone to bring the key.

The purpose of Medusa's doing this was also to make Gu Shaoyang, who was hiding in the dark, sure that the Winged Bird Tribe's hand Is the key inside the key he has been looking for, the third key?

So when the Winged Bird tribe brought the key up, Gu Shaoyang in the dark immediately checked. When he was sure it was what he wanted, he Secretly communicate with Medusa using a secret code

"This is what I want. Let them make some conditions. As long as they are not excessive, they can agree to it."

After confirming, Gu Shaoyang and Medusa communicated with their minds. After receiving his opinions, Medusa slowly spoke.

"The thing in your hand is indeed what I'm looking for. Please make some conditions."

Medusa looked at the leader of the Winged Bird Clan and said, but after listening to Medusa's words, the leader of the Winged Bird Clan directly took the key in his hand and played with it.

"Hahaha! Weren't you very arrogant just now? Why are you asking now?"

"My request is very simple, I want your life! To make an exchange."

The attitude of the leader of the Winged Bird Clan seemed to be very tough. Medusa just smiled faintly, then stood up from her seat and walked in his direction.

Seeing Medusa's actions, the leader of the Winged Bird Clan immediately said... He held it tightly in his hand: "Whatever you want to do, this is my territory!"

The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe seemed a little scared, but Medusa did not stop.

Seeing her getting closer and closer, the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe couldn't help but keep stepping back: "You, go back quickly! If you do this again! I...I will!"

The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe tried to threaten Medusa, but Medusa was not afraid. Just when she was about to walk in front of the Winged Bird Tribe leader, the action of the Winged Bird Tribe leader forced her to stop.

"Stop now! If you come here again! so I! Just destroy this key!"

As he said that, the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe really took the key and wanted to destroy it. Medusa was worried that what Gu Shaoyang wanted would be destroyed and couldn't help but retreat.

Chapter 935

"Okay, I'll step back and put the key down quickly!" Medusa stretched out her hand to try to stop her, but the more she acted like this, the more excited the leader of the Winged Bird Clan became. He had no choice but to obey his words and retreat quickly.

When she retreated to the point where the leader of the Winged Bird Clan felt safe, He completely relaxed after taking the position, and Gu Shaoyang, who was hiding in the dark, was very worried when he saw the actions of the leader of the Winged Bird Clan.

He was afraid that he would damage the key, but in fact Gu Shaoyang's worry was very unnecessary, because the leader of the Winged Bird Clan It cannot be damaged at all.

In terms of the length of time, the key has been in this world longer than any of them. If it would be damaged, then it would not fall into their hands today.

But as the saying goes, caring leads to chaos, so I haven't thought about this issue in the past few days, and when the Winged Bird Tribe tried to destroy the key, they found that they were unable to do so.

Although the key cannot be damaged, it can threaten Medusa, the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe, through the key. The purpose is achieved

"Ask one last time! Are you willing to use your life in exchange?"The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe approached forcefully. Medusa was stopped by the question and pretended to think. Then she suddenly asked

"If Gu Shaoyang appeared here at this time, would he still dare to be so rampant? Don't you think that Gu Shaoyang is not here because you are bullying us now? What if he is here?"

Medusa said suddenly, but the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe laughed out loud.

"Is Gu Shaoyang here? I have asked about it a long time ago. He has disappeared for a long time. Otherwise, why would you film so many people looking for Venus and him? Isn't it because they both disappeared together?"

The Winged Bird tribe member who found the third key heard the snake man's conversation at the place where Venus lived before, so he knew that Gu Shaoyang and Venus had disappeared for a long time.

And now he is very sure that Gu Shaoyang is not here. , although Venus has returned, she has disappeared again.

So what Medusa says to him now is all deception, just to force him to stop being so rampant. But the more Medusa behaves like this, the more he wants to Reveal her true face

"It seems that you are very well informed, but at the critical moment you did not find out that he has returned."

Medusa didn't know where the leader of the Winged Bird Clan got the news about their Snake People clan, but she couldn't deny that what he said was indeed correct, but now Gu Shaoyang has returned, and it has already spread among the Snake People clan..

If the leader of the Winged Bird Clan has not known the news that Gu Shaoyang has returned until now, then he knows that the disappearance of Gu Shaoyang and Venus did not come from within them, but from the outside. It may be that they are looking for the two. When people talk, they hear them

"I just learned the news two days ago. Now you tell me that he is back now, how can it be so fast? If you say that he is really back, then let him show up immediately and let me see."

The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe still looked unbelievable, and Gu Shaoyang, who was hiding in the dark, also received the message from Medusa.

"Do you want to come out and talk to him together?"

The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe is completely unwilling to believe it, let alone negotiate fair terms with them, and is unwilling to live in peace with them. He just wants Medusa's life, so she feels that Gu Shaoyang can come out at this time.

"OK"Medusa only saw that after Gu Shaoyang replied to her message, his figure suddenly appeared behind the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe.

"I heard that you never believed that I was back?"At this time, Gu Shaoyang suddenly appeared behind the leader of the Winged Bird Clan, possessed him and said coldly in his ear. Facing the person who suddenly appeared behind him quietly, the leader of the Winged Bird Clan was so frightened that he Smart, then turned around and took a few steps back

"you! you! how do you....."Seeing that the person behind him was indeed Gu Shaoyang, the leader of the Winged Bird Clan, pointing at him, he couldn't say a word for a long time and looked very surprised.

"Does seeing me turn you on so much? Don't you want Medusa's life? Let's do this, you take her life, and I'll take yours."

Gu Shaoyang approached him step by step, with a smile on his lips. His words made the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe as scared as if he was trapped in hell.

Moreover, in Gu Shaoyang's hand, he had already grasped a scimitar in a trance. It seems that he is going to use this scimitar to end the life of the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe.

"No! No! I was just kidding her!"

Looking at the shiny scimitar in Gu Shaoyang's hand, the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe's legs trembled with fear, and his eyes looked at Medusa as if asking for help, hoping she could help.

But Medusa saw the Winged Bird Tribe After looking at the leader, she turned her head away, not looking at him. At the same time, she picked up the little snake on her head to cover her eyes and played with it, as if she turned a blind eye. The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe could only look at this. She looked at Gu Shaoyang pleadingly, hoping that he would let her go. The adults would not remember, but the villains would.

Chapter 936

"Since this is a joke, what about the key in your hand?"Gu Shaoyang pointed to the key in his hand, then turned around and sat on the high seat on the chair, waiting for him to make a move. When the leader of the Winged Bird Clan saw Gu Shaoyang's move, he immediately raised the key in his hand over his head and respectfully said Send it to him.

Medusa, who was threatened by the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe just now, finally got away. She also sat directly on the stool and looked at the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe quietly.

On the high position, Gu Shaoyang took the Winged Bird Playing with the key returned by the clan leader, he cast a spell to check it and made sure it was a real key and not damaged before he reacted and accepted it.

"Can you tell me how you got this one?"After getting the key, Gu Shaoyang raised his head and asked, while the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe answered respectfully.

"This was sent back by someone from our tribe. He is a habitual criminal who often steals other people's things. This time he stole the key and said it belonged to Venus, and Venus valued it very much."

"Because we had a battle with the snake people not long ago, I wanted to use this to make Medusa surrender to me."

The leader of the Winged Bird Clan is sincere. He stated his purpose without hesitation, and Gu Shaoyang didn't mean to blame him. After all, he has got what he wanted.

And between the Snake and the Winged Bird Clan, it's up to you. In the past, they fought with each other, and neither side benefited, and he did not have to step forward to ask anyone to compensate or apologize.

However, he advocated peace and still hoped that the two ethnic groups could live in harmony and grow together: "I don't care about what you fought before, but now I hope you all stay peaceful"

"Well, let me be a witness for you. You two sign a contract not to fight for a hundred years, and to love and support each other. How about it?"

Gu Shaoyang meant that he hoped that the two tribes could twist a hemp rope and work together to develop together, but the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe seemed unwilling.

"This... I think it's better to forget it!" The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe hesitated for a while and still refused.

"I believe that one day our Winged Bird Tribe will become the largest tribe, and we don't need to join hands with others!"

The current leader of the Winged Bird Tribe is the son of the former leader. He has always been arrogant, and now he doesn't look down on Gu Shaoyang.

"From your tone, you seem to be very disdainful." Gu Shaoyang said with a cold smile. The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe did not answer his words, but he did not refute them either. It seemed to be his acquiescence.

This ungrateful thing! Since you insist on being rampant in front of me, Then no wonder I'm more arrogant than you!

Gu Shaoyang thought silently in his heart, and then directly used his mind to create pressure on the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe.

"Do you want to use strong methods if you can't persuade me?"

The leader of the Winged Bird Clan felt the pressure released by Gu Shaoyang, but he thought he was a good man, so he still refused to agree with his words and body.

"snort! How powerful do you think you are and how uncooperative you are? Will it grow stronger in the future and replace all other ethnic groups?"

"Your abacus is very good, but you have to see if you can survive until later!"

After Gu Shaoyang finished speaking, the leader of the Winged Bird Clan could only hear the screams of his tribesmen outside the door:"Ah - God! what 's wrong!"

"what have you done?"The leader of the Winged Bird Clan has always only known that Gu Shaoyang has a high level of cultivation, but he has never known how powerful he is. Now that he heard the screams of the whole clan, he was scared!

The reason why he was unwilling to sign the contract was because he wanted to He wants to slowly expand the Winged Bird Clan to replace everything else, but if the Winged Bird Clan has no future, then his ideas are just fantasy.

"It's just to release the pressure and see if your tribe can withstand it. Now I only use 10% of my strength."

"But now I slowly have to increase the pressure by 10%, 20%, 30%....."

As Gu Shaoyang spoke, the pressure increased, and the leader of the Winged Bird Clan could clearly feel the increase in pressure every time, and the tribesmen outside screamed even louder.

"You think this way, how many of your clansmen can persist until I can exert my full strength?"

Gu Shaoyang smiled evilly, looking at the leader of the Winged Bird Clan with murderous eyes. Only the leader of the Winged Bird Clan knew what he had gotten into!

But he didn't seem to have any intention of admitting defeat.

"Hahaha! You kill! I can't beat the whole clan and bury them with me! I won't lose anything this way!"

Gu Shaoyang originally put pressure on him and just wanted him to love his tribe and sign the contract, but he didn't expect that he would be so selfish and even want to cost the lives of this tribe!

How can such a person be worthy of being the leader of the Winged Bird tribe!

Gu Shaoyang is disappointed with him. Shaking his head, he took back the pressure on the Winged Birds and concentrated all the pressure on the leader.

"You want so many people to die, but I won't let you die, why don't you die yourself!"

Chapter 937

At this moment, the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe found that the screams outside were gone, but he could still feel very obvious pressure.

"If you kill me, the Winged Bird Clan will have no leader. Do you want to see them leaderless?"

After noticing Gu Shaoyang's murderous intention, the leader of the Winged Bird Clan immediately said angrily, but Gu Shaoyang still did not take back the pressure he exerted, and instead laughed.

"As long as someone is the leader of the Winged Bird Clan, you will not be the only one. If you die, someone else will naturally take over."

Gu Shaoyang's intention is very clear. He wants to directly change the leader of the Winged Bird Clan and make someone else the king.

"you dare!" After realizing what Gu Shaoyang meant, he became nervous and frightened.

All along, what he has been greedy for is power, status, and the feeling of being obeyed and feared. If he loses these, then it will be the most embarrassing thing. He thought it was something fatal.

At this time, Gu Shaoyang also discovered that this was what he really cared about.

When Gu Shaoyang and Medusa were negotiating with the leader in the Winged Bird Tribe, Venus outside also learned about the previous Winged Birds when they were fleeing. The matter of the Bird Tribe and the Snake Tribe.

He did not expect that in just a few months after he left, the Winged Bird Tribe would dare to attack their Snake Tribe and cause them heavy casualties. He did not know if any of his own family members were alive. Injured and healthy.

Thinking of these Venus made him feel particularly homesick, but at the same time he also heard that Gu Shaoyang had returned to their snake people clan. If Gu Renyang was in their snake people clan, then he would never go back, otherwise He would only be caught.

Venus, who was very worried about the situation of his family, hesitated for a long time near the snake people. Finally, he bribed a groundhog and asked him to help find out about the snake people.

"You must not be discovered, and if you are discovered, you must not say that I asked you to pry." Venus told the groundhog in every possible way, and only after making sure that he remembered it did she let him go.

"I'll be waiting for you here at the same time tomorrow." After the explanation, Venus left in a hurry, and the groundhog also dug a hole in the ground to explore inside the Snake People.

On the other side, Gu Shaoyang still put pressure on the leader of the Winged Birds: "The Snakes and the Winged Birds have long made an agreement. , we will never invade for thousands of years, but you broke this agreement, and now you are asked to sign it again, but you are still unwilling!"

"I even want to sacrifice the lives of my entire clan to be buried with you. People like you are really not worthy of being a leader!"

Gu Shaoyang was heartbroken for the leader of the Winged Bird Clan in front of him. The former leader was sensible, knowledgeable, and put the development of the entire clan first in everything.

This is also an important reason why Gu Shaoyang respected the Winged Bird Clan, but he did not think about the current Winged Bird Clan. The leader of the clan could not learn half as much as the previous leader!

"So what if as their leader, I can decide their life or death? Even if I let them die, they must surrender to me!"

Although he was pressured by Gu Shaoyang, he still refused to beg for mercy. Medusa took this opportunity to inquire about the details of the current leader.

It turned out that he was not raised in the clan since he was a child, but was the son of the previous leader who was lost outside. , was already resentful towards the previous leader.

Therefore, after taking over this time, the tribesmen spoke harshly, made no contribution, and even hurt innocent people.

Medusa told him the news she had learned through her and Gu Shaoyang's exclusive signal, After learning about this, Gu Shaoyang could only secretly resent the previous leader's soft-heartedness and lack of wisdom. The position of leader can be said to be the inheritance of the throne, but it is also occupied by the capable! He must lead the development of the ethnic group, this is a A very important position is definitely not a child's play!

But these people did not look like this to the previous leader. It seems that he was also a bit of a monarchy.

"You said you can decide their life and death, then in this world the winner is the king and the loser is the bandit. Since you can't defeat me, then you are my loser! I want you to have a baby! If you want to die, you will die!"

After saying that, the pressure released by Gu Shaoyang was directly increased to three points, and the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe suddenly screamed and was forced to reveal his true form.

"The last leader left you out just because the Winged Bird Clan has always given birth to children, but you are resentful and take people's lives carelessly. Such a person is not worthy of leading the Winged Bird Clan!"

"Today I have to do justice for God! Help the Winged Birds change their appearance!"

After saying that, Gu Shaoyang took out the wing knife given to him by the previous leader. He directly used the wing knife to cut the throat of the current leader. After a short time, he disappeared into astigmatism. The leader of the Winged Bird Tribe disappeared because of them. All the tribesmen can sense it, so they all knelt outside the door to pay tribute. They knew that there was someone inside who killed their leader, so they wanted to avenge him.

Although this leader treated them badly, the leader who killed them was right. The blasphemy of their entire tribe was something that was absolutely not allowed.

But when they saw the person who came out holding the winged sword of the previous leader who succeeded the leader, they immediately surrendered.

Chapter 938

The Wing Knife in Gu Shaoyang's hand is the weapon of the previous leader of the Winged Bird Clan. Owning the weapon of the previous leader represents the right to own the previous leader, and can also be treated directly as the leader of the Winged Bird Clan.

In other words, now Gu Shaoyang has the right of the previous leader to kill the current leader of the Winged Bird Clan. If he has a legitimate reason, then not only is he not guilty, but the people of the Winged Bird Clan must also thank him

"Your current leader of the Winged Bird Tribe is overbearing! autocratic! Arrogant and unreasonable! Killing innocent people indiscriminately! Burning, killing and looting! Do no evil! He is really not worthy of being your leader. Now I will subdue him here as the previous leader!"

"I declare that the Winged Bird Tribe will once again elect a leader fairly, justly and openly. The leader must always be considered for the Winged Bird Tribe, and the development of the Winged Bird Tribe must be given priority. His ability cannot be lower than that of the previous leader."

After Gu Shaoyang's words came out, the people of the Winged Bird Clan started to discuss heatedly: "This...how does this person know so much about the situation of our Winged Bird Clan? And he still has it in his hand The leader's winged sword!"

"I heard that the former leader made friends with people during his travels and gave him a wing knife as a gift. Could it be that he is the person in front of him?"

"I heard that this man is friendly with the Snake People. Is he doing good for us, the Winged Bird Clan, or does he want to help the Snake People get rid of us completely?"

Everyone has various speculations. Some are worried that the tribe will suffer such a catastrophe, some are worried that they will die because of it, and some are angry and dare not speak out about Gu Shaoyang's actions, thinking that he has hurt the face of the Winged Bird Clan.

In short, everyone is worried I had my own guesses and worries, so I didn't dare to trust his words for a while. Did he take any physical actions?

"I know everyone is worried, but you also know that Wing Blade will recognize its owner. Unless the former leader voluntarily gives it to me, it is impossible for me to control him."

After saying that, Gu Shaoyang threw the wing knife in his hand directly, and when he spread his hands again, the wing knife flew back to his hand obediently. After repeating this action several times in a row, the wing bird tribe below completely believed him. words.

After confirming that Gu Shaoyang was not a bad person, the people of the Winged Bird Clan looked at each other, and then everyone knelt down towards Gu Shaoyang in unison.

"What are you doing?" Looking at the Winged Bird tribe members who suddenly knelt down towards him, Gu Shaoyang suddenly felt confused. He walked down and wanted to help the people closest to him, but they directly stretched out their hands and saluted with both hands.

"Join the new boss! I hope that the new leader will lead the Winged Bird Clan to prosperity forever!"

It turned out that when they confirmed Gu Shaoyang's identity, they identified him as the new leader, because they saw from Medusa's eyes and behavior that Medusa obeyed Gu Shaoyang's orders. If they had Gu Shaoyang as their leader, then the snake people would They will not dare to attack again, and they will definitely be respectful to them.

In this way, they will neither need to take revenge nor elect a new leader, and the current leader will be very kind to them and can lead them to develop, isn't it? Killing two birds with one stone.

But this was just their own idea. Regarding their actions, Gu Shaoyang just waved his hands repeatedly and shook his head at everyone. Then when they were all quiet, he slowly opened his mouth and received

"I know what everyone is thinking, but I have something to do. I was entrusted by the former leader to save everyone from the fire and water, so I hope that the Winged Bird Clan can get along well with the Snake People. Soon I will also leave."

Gu Shaoyang refused directly and also expressed his attitude of leaving. The people of the Winged Bird Tribe and Medusa were very surprised after hearing his words.

"Where are you going?" Medusa hurried forward, grabbed his arm and asked anxiously. She never knew he would leave. She thought he would never leave after he came.

"I have five keys to collect, so I'm off to find the next one."

Gu Shaoyang patted Medusa's hand and whispered to her in secret. Only the two of them could hear it. Then he turned around and said to everyone in the Winged Bird Clan.

"I want to travel around and see more of the beautiful places in the world. If I serve as the leader of the Winged Bird Clan, it may just be a burden to me, so someone with the ability should take the position."

Gu Shaoyang's attitude was very firm. The people of the Winged Bird Clan felt a little uncomfortable after hearing this. After all, they finally recognized him, but they were rejected the next second.

"I have notified everyone of the matter. I will rectify everyone's internal situation in the recent period. The day of electing the leader starts from now. Everyone who has their favorite person can vote for it. The final candidate will be selected several times. The game will be finalized."

Gu Shaoyang told everyone the rules, and then led Medusa directly to leave and return to the Snake Clan, allowing the people of the Winged Bird Clan to discuss it within the clan.

"Do you really want to leave?" On the way back to the Snake Tribe, Medusa tilted her head and looked at Gu Shaoyang's face, and couldn't help but ask.

Chapter 939

"Well, I will leave after the election of the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe."

Gu Shaoyang told Medusa an approximate time, but he himself didn't know how long it would take to elect the leader of the Winged Bird Tribe.

"Do you really not want to stay for a few more days?" Regarding Gu Shaoyang's imminent departure, they were very reluctant along the way. On the other side, the Winged Bird Clan talked a lot after Gu Shaoyang and Medusa left, and everyone began to go home in groups to discuss whether they were willing to leave immediately. who is the new leader

"Who do you think is more suitable to be our leader now?"In a small home, the family is discussing who they think is suitable, but they still have no clue.

"There are actually not many people who want to have a cultivation level that is not much different from that of the previous leader, but there are even fewer people who want to meet the character that Gu Shaoyang said."

"Yes, it is rare to see such a person in a century, having both ability and political integrity, but also caring about our Winged Bird Tribe."

The whole family has a headache thinking about this matter, but they must come up with a rough candidate within tomorrow. Otherwise, if they choose the wrong one, they will be the unlucky ones of the Winged Bird Tribe."

"I think only Vigo and Ling Yun are more suitable now."

In the crowd, one person suddenly expressed his opinion, and then everyone stared at him closely, waiting for him to tell the reason.

"The cultivation levels of Vigo and Ling Yun are similar to those of the former leader, but Vigo is very good at teaching people, and Ling Yun is very good at taking into account the overall situation."

"Both of them put the Winged Bird Tribe first in everything, but they just don't know if they will when the real disaster strikes."

A person gave his opinion and then fell into silence.

After waiting for a whole day and half a day, when Gu Shaoyang returned to the Winged Bird Clan again, the results of the number of candidates had come out.

Gu Shaoyang held the list. Looking at the crowd, he quickly identified where the people on the list were standing in the crowd. Although he didn't know them, he could roughly get an idea of what they looked like from the descriptions of the Winged Birds. people

"Okay, the list of candidates has come out, and the top three are Lingyun, Vigo, and Pterodactyl."

Gu Shaoyang read out the list directly, and then saw only three people whose names were read out from the crowd and stood next to Gu Shaoyang.

"I hope one of you can live up to expectations and be elected as the new leader of the Winged Bird Clan."

Gu Shaoyang looked at the three young people in front of him with hope in his heart, but one of them, Ling Yun, seemed to have less courage and a little inferiority complex compared to the other two.

"Our competition starts now. Next, I will set up a fantasy world for you, as well as a jungle test and an emergency response test. The first level is the jungle test."

After speaking, Gu Shaoyang pointed to a large forest behind them.

"I give you 12 hours. I will wait for you here during the 12 hours. You need to go from the starting point to the end point and then back to the starting point."

"Don't be lazy. I have done some work on every place in it. Whether you have been there, I can feel it without going in."

Gu Shaoyang's words directly interrupted their thoughts of cheating. Then he looked at the time and asked them to set off at almost noon.

"Okay, the time is almost up now, you can set off, remember that I am waiting for you here, life and death are determined by fate, wealth is in the sky"

"Whether there is no return depends on your personal destiny."

After Gu Shaoyang finished speaking, he slowly raised his hand. When everyone opened their eyes, the three of them had arrived at the entrance of the forest.

After sending them to the entrance, Gu Shaoyang did not look back. Leaving, the people of the Winged Bird Tribe looked at the three people who had arrived at the entrance of the forest and were very worried. The place the three went to was indeed a jungle, but it had another name: The Way of the King of Hell. As the name suggests, there is no return once you go!

There are many small beasts in the jungle, and there are countless evil beasts with medium cultivation levels, not to mention many mythical beasts with high cultivation levels. Although the three people have high cultivation levels, they will definitely be unable to face the many mythical beasts.

Gu Shaoyang The task given to them is to go from the starting point to the end point, and then back to the starting point. It seems simple, but it is actually very difficult to do it.

Because they will encounter many jungle beasts from the starting point to the end point, and their taste will be different when they return to the starting point. Being familiar with the mythical beast inside will double the risk.

So this seems to be one task, but it is actually two tasks, and the difficulty is doubled.

"Will these three members of our Winged Bird Clan never return? If they really went and never came back, wouldn't we have lost three generals?"

Some older members of the Winged Bird tribe were slightly worried when they saw the direction in which the three people were leaving. They were also worried about the future of the Winged Bird tribe. If possible, they would also like to participate in the selection of the leader, but as they age, they are really unable to do what they want.

After leaving, Gu Shaoyang did not return to the Snake Clan. Instead, he practiced quietly and waited in the hall of the Winged Bird Clan.

Most of the Winged Birds were waiting for the return of the three people at the entrance of the forest, while some were watching Gu Shaoyang in the hall.

Everyone has their own plans in mind. People looking at Gu Shaoyang want to know what plans he has for these three people.

Is he more optimistic about who, or who he thinks is better? But Gu Shaoyang kept his eyes closed when he came to the hall, and others really couldn't guess what he was thinking.

The people guarding the entrance to the jungle on the other side want to see who can come out successfully when the time is up and who is the first.

Everyone stayed where they wanted to know without disturbing each other. Although the three people who entered the jungle knew that this was to elect a leader.

But they did not fight, but relied on each other to advance and retreat together. They did encounter many dangers in the jungle, but each time the three of them worked together to resolve them.

When they finally arrived at the finish line, the three of them were together.

The person guarding outside informed Gu Shaoyang when the three people arrived at the finish line, but he still had no reaction after hearing it.

The three people in the race did not stop. After reaching the finish line, they returned to the starting point again.

Just as the three of them were returning to the starting point, Medusa suddenly came to the Winged Bird Clan in person to look for Gu Shaoyang.

The Winged Birds were very wary when they saw the leader of the snake people coming to their Winged Birds, because they still remembered when Medusa led her people to attack them.

"Where is Gu Shaoyang? Take me to him quickly."Facing the fear of the Winged Bird tribe, Medusa rarely ignored it and gave direct orders.

However, their cultivation was not as good as Medusa's, and Medusa was on good terms with Gu Shaoyang, so they could only obey obediently.

After a while, Medusa arrived. In front of Gu Shaoyang, he was practicing at this time, and there were many people standing around him. Medusa was very unhappy when she saw this situation.

Because you must be quiet when practicing in seclusion, otherwise it is easy to go crazy, and these winged bird tribes around There were so many people surrounding him.

"It's okay, you all go out! What are you all doing here?"Medusa drove everyone away and gave Gu Shaoyang a quiet atmosphere. Gu Shaoyang also heard her voice and slowly stopped working.

"How did you come?"Gu Shaoyang was a little surprised when he saw Medusa appearing, because when he came to the Winged Bird Tribe, he specifically told her not to come because there was nothing wrong with her, because the two tribes have not signed a contract.

If she keeps coming to the Winged Bird Tribe, The Snake Clan would inevitably overthink it, and the Winged Bird Clan would not be happy, but now she is here in a hurry.

"There's news from Venus."Medusa looked at Gu Shaoyang, then lowered her head very guiltily and said.

They have been looking for Venus for a long time, but there has been no news, but now the news of Venus suddenly appeared

"Where is he?"Gu Shaoyang didn't want to pay attention to it, but Medusa blamed herself very much for this. If he didn't express his position personally, I'm afraid she would blame herself for the rest of her life, so he had to come forward.

"He hasn't found it yet, but he found a groundhog to secretly inquire about our internal situation. However, the groundhog entered the barrier I set up and was caught by me. After interrogation, I found out about him."

Medusa truthfully informed her of the situation she investigated, and Gu Shaoyang immediately made arrangements after hearing this.

"Since they are inquiring about information, they must communicate. Did the prairie dog tell them where they agreed to exchange information?"

Gu Shaoyang thought carefully. Medusa didn't notice this at all. When he brought it up, Medusa hurried back to interrogate, and Gu Shaoyang was not practicing.

He also had to think carefully about Venus. Yes, after all, he is a member of Venus. Although his key was stolen, the key has been recovered and nothing major happened.

So if the punishment is not likely to hurt his life, but if it is just a small punishment, I am afraid that it will not serve as a warning. As a result, if the snake people see Venus doing this and the punishment is not serious in the future, rest assured they will follow suit.

Therefore, we must think carefully about the punishment of Venus and take Medusa into consideration. To save face, it must also serve as a warning to the tribe.

Just as Gu Shaoyang was sitting on the chair and struggling, the whole day had passed, and the noon hour had arrived.

He and the three alternative leaders of the Winged Bird Tribe The time agreed upon by the person has arrived, but he forgot, so the person outside the door couldn't help but knock on the door to remind him

"senior! Our three young men are back! Please come out at most!"An older man outside the door who once sat next to the former leader knocked on the door respectfully and said.

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang quickly got up and opened the door:"Is the time up?"

He looked at the time in the sky, and then looked at the direction of the jungle, and then he witnessed their return with many Winged Bird tribe members.
