

THE BREAKING POINT OF LOVE

Chapter 611

After the last time Trevor met with Wynn, Lilian and the family had thought it would be easy for Wynn to completely win his heart back.

Reality, however, turned out to be very different from what they had expected.

Ever since that meal, almost five days had passed, yet Trevor still hadn't taken the initiative to contact Wynn.

And even when Wynn proactively went to Fleming Group to look for him, she still couldn't see him.

They didn't believe that Trevor was simply too busy.

After all, no matter how busy someone was, they still had time to eat and drink.

If a person truly cared about someone, they could still send a few messages during mealtimes or even during meetings to update the other party on their schedule.

So, with Trevor not reaching out, and Wynn repeatedly coming up empty when she went to find him, they had already vaguely understood that Trevor was deliberately avoiding her.

What they didn't expect was that not only was he avoiding Wynn, he was now openly taking Celeste with him, along with Jordyn, to places like the shopping mall.

Could it be that Trevor's heart had already completely shifted toward Celeste, so much so that he was no longer worried about their relationship being exposed?

Once they pieced this together, it wasn't just Ruby and Linda, but even Lilian's gaze darkened.

In an instant, they all lost their appetite.

After sitting there for a while longer, they turned and left the private booth.

As they exited, each of them glanced toward where Celeste and Trevor were seated.

Perhaps because there were no private rooms available, Celeste, Trevor, and Jordyn weren't seated in a booth.

They saw Trevor attentively helping Celeste arrange the disposable tableware, fetching food for her, his attitude toward her both proactive and considerate.

Watching this, Linda pressed her lips together. She was so uncomfortable that she couldn't even speak.

Yet she didn't dare say anything, nor did she dare do anything. She simply followed Lilian and the others as they turned and left.

Celeste and Trevor hadn't noticed them at all.

In truth, Celeste and Trevor were both accustomed to frequent social engagements and weren't particularly interested in food outside, but Jordyn ate quite happily.

After the meal, they accompanied Jordyn for a bit longer until she finally started to look sleepy.

They had come in Celeste's car. For convenience, Trevor had already called for a driver to come pick them up.

In the underground parking lot, after saying goodbye to Celeste, Jordyn yawned and got into the car.

Celeste was also about to leave. But when she opened her car door, she realized that Jordyn's small backpack and Trevor's spare phone were still in her car

Before she could speak, Trevor seemed to have remembered as well. He walked over, opened her car door, and took both his and Jordyn's belongings.

After closing the door, he looked at Celeste and said, "Jo and I will head back first. Good night."

Celeste didn't say anything.

She nodded, didn't look at him again, got into her car, and just as she was about to pull the door closed, she spotted Jorge and Xavier away. .

She paused for a moment, then acted as if she hadn't seen them, closed the door, started the car, and drove off.

Following her line of sight, Trevor saw Jorge and Xavier. Calmly, he nodded at them. Jorge's expression turned cold.

Because he had clearly seen Trevor very naturally open Celeste's car door to retrieve his things.

That single gesture revealed that their relationship had already been close for quite some time.

Previously, Jorge hadn't really told Xavier much about the possibility of something going on between Celeste and Trevor.

So now, seeing Trevor and Celeste together like this, he was completely stunned.

Chapter 612

After exchanging polite greetings with them, Trevor got into his car and drove away.

Watching his car disappear into the distance, Xavier finally snapped out of it. He looked at Jorge, shocked and fired up.

"So... Trevor and Celeste both cheated? Holy shit! This is insanely explosive!"
Jorge said nothing.

It had been a long time since he'd seen Trevor and Celeste have any private interaction. He'd thought that whatever was between them had already come to an end.

Who would've thought-

His expression darkened as he turned around and got into the car.

Xavier hurried after him. Only then did he realize that Jorge didn't seem nearly as shocked as he was.

It hit him instantly. "Wait. You actually knew about this already?"

Jorge still didn't speak.

Xavier followed him into the car. "When did this start? There was something this explosive, and you never told me?"

Jorge's face remained grim. Before Xavier had even properly settled into his seat, Jorge slammed down on the accelerator.

Xavier was startled.

But seeing Jorge's expression, he immediately understood Jorge was worried about Wynn. And he felt sorry for her.

Realizing this, Xavier rubbed his nose.

After a moment, another thought struck him.

"But then again... If Trevor really breaks up with Ms. Locket, wouldn't that mean you finally have a chance? That'd actually be a good thing for you."

Jorge tightened his grip on the steering wheel, his heart stirring slightly.

Of course, he'd thought about that too. But whether Wynn and Trevor would actually break up...

After a brief pause, Jorge seemed to remember something and said, "They might not break up. Don't spread this around."

Xavier replied, "Alright. But we can tell Caleb, right?"

"You can, but Caleb isn't interested in this kind of thing."

About ten minutes later, Jorge's car pulled up in front of a quiet bar.

When they entered the private room, Caleb was already there waiting.

The moment he saw them, Caleb keenly sensed something off. "What's wrong?"

Xavier cleared his throat. "It's still about Ms. Locket... We just saw Trevor being pretty intimate with another woman, and that woman happens to be "

Jorge coughed lightly.

Fine. Xavier shut up.

Caleb wasn't particularly interested in Wynn's situation. Seeing their expressions, he didn't press further.

Even though the situation between Trevor and Celeste was extremely explosive there were still plenty of other pieces of gossip waiting for Xavier to dig into.

He turned to Caleb and asked, "What about you? I heard the moment you got home earlier, your family already set you up with someone. How was it? What was the girl like?"

Caleb shook his head. "I made things clear after the meal."

Xavier blinked. "Didn't like her?"

"Mm."

"Why?"

Caleb paused for a moment before saying, "I already have someone I like."

Not only did Xavier freeze, but even Jorge was stunned.

Xavier blurted out, "Holy shit-wait, you're serious? Since when? How come didn't know? Who is it? If you already like someone, why didn't you, just tell your family straight up?"

Caleb didn't answer.

Xavier hesitated, then glanced at Jorge. Suddenly, something clicked.

But he didn't quite dare believe it.

He swallowed, hesitated for two seconds, then cautiously asked, "Caleb...
Don't tell me you're like Jorge and fall for someone else's... girlfriend?"

Caleb replied calmly, "No."

Xavier was just about to sigh in relief. Even Jorge smiled.

Then, without warning, Caleb added, "She's married."

Chapter 613

Both Xavier and Jorge suspected they had misheard him.

After reacting, they still couldn't quite believe it.

Yet Caleb's reaction didn't look like he was joking at all.

And given his personality, they both knew he wasn't someone who would joke about something like this.

Xavier swallowed hard. "Then you "

The other party was already married.

What was he supposed to do about that? Could it be that... He really intended to step into someone else's marriage?

Although, given Caleb's conditions, if he truly wanted to pry someone away, it probably wouldn't be difficult, but—

Caleb said, "She's about to get divorced."

After speaking, seeing the looks on their faces, and afraid they might misunderstand, he added, "They were already preparing for a divorce to begin with."

With Caleb saying this, Xavier and Jorge naturally believed him. Hearing that, they both let out a sigh of relief.

Once their tension eased, Xavier immediately slipped back into gossip mode. "So, who is she?"

After all these years, he'd never seen Caleb show interest in any woman. He was extremely curious.

Not just Xavier, even Jorge was quite curious.

Caleb lowered his gaze and, without drawing attention to it, glanced toward Jorge. After taking a sip of his drink, he said, "I'll tell you when the timing is right."

Xavier reacted immediately, excitement flashing across his face. "So, Jorge and I know her too?"

Thinking of Celeste, Caleb smiled faintly. "You know her, but you're probably not close."

Xavier and Jorge became quiet.

They both knew her but weren't close? This range was way too broad.

They racked their brains and guessed several times in a row, but each time Caleb shook his head. Not wanting them to keep guessing, Caleb shifted the topic.

Although they were out drinking, none of them drank too much.

Near midnight, they prepared to leave.

As they were leaving, Xavier lowered his voice and said to Jorge, "Even though I don't think Caleb would I about this, when he says that the woman's divorce has nothing to with him, I'm not sure I buy it It's also possible that the woman herself is lying—"

Jorge understood what he meant.

That was indeed possible.

Caleb's overall conditions were excellent. There weren't many women who could truly resist him.

Xavier continued, "And did you notice? When Caleb mentioned that woman, the look on his face... You can tell he really likes her."

Jorge had noticed as well.

But this was Caleb's own business.

They couldn't interfere too much.

The next morning, when Celeste arrived downstairs at her company and had just gotten out of the Car, she saw. Caleb get out & a car hot far away and walk toward her.

Celeste stopped in her tracks.

Caleb walked up to her. "Do you have time to have lunch together?"

Celeste reflexively refused. "Sorry, I—"

Naturally, she did have time for lunch.

But because she understood the reason Caleb was asking her out, she could only pretend she wasn't free.

Yet before the words "I have something at noon" could leave her mouth, she paused when she met

Caleb's gaze. From the smiling look in his eyes, she could tell that he knew she was making an excuse.

Caleb had just returned from the military base yesterday and had contacted Matthias immediately.

So he knew that up to now, Celeste still hadn't gotten divorced.

From Matthias's words, it seemed the issue lay on the man's side.

He had always wanted to wait until after her divorce to pursue her properly.

But he hadn't expected that this wait would last half a year.

And that even now, they still hadn't gotten divorced.

Chapter 614

Celeste knew exactly why Caleb had come to see her.

She had already said everything that needed to be said. But Caleb's attitude this time...

She paused, looked at him, and said seriously, "I'm sorry. I probably won't consider starting a new relationship for quite a long time, so, Mr. Jennings, in the future—"

She didn't want to hold him back.

Caleb understood what she meant. Before she could finish, he said, "I know what you mean. But you really don't need to persuade me."

As he spoke, he gently placed the flowers he was holding into her arms. "I hope you like them."

Then, seeing her standing there without moving, he smiled and said, "You should go upstairs and get back to work. I won't disturb you any further."

Celeste looked at the flowers in her hands, paused for a moment, then shook her head and handed them back to Caleb. "Thank you, but... I'm sorry."

After saying that, she didn't say anything else and turned to go upstairs.

Caleb didn't get angry.

He watched her leave, and only after her figure disappeared from sight did he turn to leave as well. At that moment, however, he noticed Kieran standing not far away.

The two exchanged a glance. Caleb nodded slightly without saying anything, then turned and got into his car.

Kieran also didn't speak.

He had heard what Celeste said when she rejected Caleb just now.

Caleb hadn't said anything in response to her rejection, but Kieran knew that Caleb probably wouldn't give up just like that.

Once Celeste really got divorced, he would most likely take action very quickly.

Kieran knew that Celeste had been married before and had a child, but he had never really known much about her past love life.

From the way she rejected Caleb just now, he suddenly realized that during the marriage she was preparing to end, Celeste must have been deeply hurt.

Caleb had probably realized this as well, which was why he chose not to disturb her further just now...

After returning to the company and working for a while, Celeste went to Fleming Group again.

Around noon, while Celeste was still busy at Fleming Group, Wynn arrived at Fleming Group once more.

This time, Jacob was still in the office. When he saw Wynn, he paused for a moment. "Ms. Locket, you're looking for Mr. Fleming?"

Wynn brushed her hair aside and smiled. "Yes. Trevor... isn't in the office?"

Jacob nodded. "Mr. Fleming went out early this morning with Zeke to discuss some matters..."

There seemed to be a trace of awkwardness in Wynn's smile. "I see... Thank you. I'll come again when he's free."

From the fact that Wynn didn't know Trevor's schedule, Jacob already understood that the probread w between Trevor and Wynn was more serious than he had initially thought.

However, there was nothing he could do about it.

Still...

Watching Wynn lower her gaze as she prepared to leave, he hesitated for a moment, then couldn't help but say, "If there's anything you need my help with, please feel free to let me know."

Wynn smiled. "Thank you, Mr. Collins. If I need help, I'll ask you."

Only then did Wynn turn and leave.

As she went downstairs, she happened to run into Celeste and Lazarus's group.

Lazarus and the others, believing they already understood Trevor's feelings, immediately felt a bit awkward when they saw Wynn and then looked at Celeste.

Celeste completely ignored Wynn.

Wynn did the same.

With a smile on her face, as if nothing were wrong, she greeted Lazarus and the others. Once she got downstairs, she turned and left directly.

After returning to the company, before she even said anything, Lilian already knew the outcome when she saw wynn come back so early your still didn't see Trevor?"

Wynn sat down and replied calmly, "Mm."

Chapter 615

Hearing this, Ruby frowned anxiously. "T-Then what should we do? If Trevor doesn't help, it'll be almost impossible for us to secure this government bid."

That was right. The reason Wynn had been looking for Trevor this time was precisely to ask for his help in winning a government tender they had their eyes on.

Because of this matter, Wynn had already called Trevor that morning, but no one had answered on his end. That was why she had personally gone to Fleming Group again earlier.

She just hadn't expected to come back empty-handed once more.

This matter was extremely important, and Harvey was also waiting for news from Wynn.

For that reason, he personally came to InnovaTech as well. Seeing that it wasn't even 1:00 pm yet and Wynn had already returned, he had already guessed the outcome. "You didn't see Trevor?"

Wynn lowered her eyes. "Jacob said he went out to discuss some matters."

Harvey frowned.

He had basically been informed as soon as problems arose between Wynn and Trevor.

Like Ruby and the others, he initially thought the issue wasn't serious.

But recently, Wynn had been unable to get in touch with Trevor, while Trevor and Celeste seemed to be growing closer and closer...

Thinking of this, as the common father of both Wynn and Celeste, Harvey's mood became rather complicated.

He glanced at Wynn, who looked noticeably thinner recently, and for a moment didn't say anything.

Seeing the dejected expressions on everyone's faces, Linda felt extremely uncomfortable and ground her teeth in hatred.

"Celeste clearly already has Matthias, yet she still comes to stir up trouble between Trev and Wynn. I think she's doing it on purpose!"

No one responded to that.

If Trevor and Celeste were already divorced, they might still be able to do something openly and legitimately. But Celeste and Trevor hadn't divorced yet.

Linda looked toward Harvey and snorted. "Uncle Harvey, why don't you go talk to Celeste and tell her not to go too far!"

If the relationship between Trevor

continued to eveninda didn't say anything?

bet
Harvey would still go talk to Celeste

He nodded. "I'll find some time to have a talk with her in a few days."

Then he looked at Wynn. "Wynn, try to contact Trevor again later. There are still two days left there's no need to rush too much..."

As he spoke, he gently patted Wynn on the shoulder and comforted her. "Besides, I think Trevor treats you differently. Things between the two of you shouldn't just end like this, so don't be too anxious."

Wynn nodded. "I know. I will."

Harvey nodded as well, then reassuringly squeezed the hand of the silent Lilian before leaving InnovaTech and heading back to his own company.

That afternoon, Wynn called Trevor again.

This time, Trevor picked up. "Sorry, I was busy earlier and didn't notice your call."

He then asked, "What's the matter?"

Faced with Trevor's response, Wynn lowered her eyes. After a brief pause, she said, "Are you busy?"

"Yes. I'm still out of town right now."

Wynn paused when she heard that.

Trevor seemed not to notice her hesitation and continued, "I'll be quite busy these next two days probably won't be back until couple of days later.

"I see..." Wynn said softly.

Trevor then asked again, "Is there something you needed?"

In the past, when she needed Trevor's help, she never had to bring it up herself-he would always offer first.

Now, seeing that he seemed completely unaware, Wynn clenched her phone. After a long moment, she finally said, "I..."
