

THE BREAKING POINT OF LOVE

Chapter 671

After greeting Nadine, Celeste looked around and realized that she didn't recognize most of the guests visiting Zachary and Nadine's home.

However, she was somewhat surprised to see Jorge there.

Jorge had come under instructions to pay a visit to Zachary and his wife.

When he arrived earlier and saw Matthias but not Celeste, he had assumed she wasn't coming. He didn't expect that she would show up on her own later.

The Robinson family was also very busy that day, so he didn't stay long. After putting down his gift and exchanging a few pleasantries with Zachary and his wife, he left.

Celeste and Matthias, however, stayed at Zachary's house for quite some time. They even went out with Zachary and his wife for a meal.

Over the next few days, Celeste spent two days visiting relatives with the Rodriguez family and then went out for leisure for another two days.

By the sixth day of the New Year, however, she became busy again due to work arrangements and started attending business engagements together with Matthias.

That day, while she and Matthias were discussing a potential collaboration with someone, Miles—who had come out to dinner with Trevor and Beck—happened to pass by the private room they were in.

When he saw Celeste and Matthias, he raised his eyebrows and couldn't help but stop to take a closer look.

After the waiter finished serving and was about to close the private room door, he noticed Miles staring inside and couldn't help asking, "Sir, is there something you need?"

Hearing the voice, Celeste and Matthias turned their heads toward the door. When Matthias saw Miles, he gave a half-smile that didn't quite reach his eyes.

"Oh, it's Mr. Quinton. Is there something you need?"

Miles waved his hand.

"Nothing. Just happened to pass by. Carry on."

With that, he smiled and turned to leave.

When he returned to his own private room, he discovered that Trevor and Beck had already arrived.

Pulling out a chair, he sat down.

"You're both here already. Pretty punctual."

Before they could say anything, he tilted his chin toward the door.

"Guess who I just saw?"

Trevor and Beck both calmly picked up their teacups and drank tea, neither answering.

Miles grew impatient.

"Come on-can't you at least give me some kind of reaction?"

Trevor was the first to set down his teacup.

"Who did you see?"

"Celeste and Matthias." Miles poured himself a cup of tea.

"They're really dedicated. It's still the New Year holiday, and they're already back to business."

Beck lowered his eyes and remained silent.

The moment Miles began speaking, he had already guessed that he must have seen Celeste.

But he hadn't expected Matthias to be there as well.

Trevor listened and replied calmly, "Oh? Is that so?"

Miles curled his lips.

"YodaVision belongs to Matthias, not Celeste's. Yet she's putting so much effort into it. It almost looks like she treats YodaVision like a family business run by her and Matthias as husband and wife."

Trevor simply smiled and didn't respond.

Beck, however, set down his teacup and said, "I'd like to go over and say hello."

Trevor, want to come along?"

By saying that, he was implying that he would be greeting them

of the business cooperation because

between their companies tent

Since Fleming Group was now closely workin

revisor could als

with

go

them if he wished.

Trevor shook his head.

"No. You go ahead."

"Alright."

Beck nodded and left the private room.

When Celeste and Matthias heard the knock and saw that the visitor was Beck, both looked somewhat surprised.

Beck said, "Miles mentioned that you were dining here as well, so I came by to say hello."

After speaking, his gaze rested on Celeste, and he said gently, "Happy New Year." Celeste nodded. "Happy New Year."