

THE BREAKING POINT OF LOVE

Chapter 739

Trevor looked at Wynn.

It seemed he had noticed that she was in a bad mood, so he declined the invitation. "I have another arrangement. Maybe next time."

Wynn could tell that Trevor was taking her feelings into account, so her mood immediately improved. A faint smile slowly appeared on her face.

Jorge and Quentin also noticed that Wynn actually didn't want to have lunch with Celeste and the others. So, they felt relieved after seeing how considerate Trevor was toward her feelings.

The organizers did not insist since Trevor had said he was not going.

As for Celeste and Matthias, it didn't matter to them whether Trevor and Wynn were going to lunch with them or not.

Of course, they would be happier if Trevor and Wynn chose to skip after all, the couple was indeed quite an eyesore to them.

There was still no interaction between Celeste, Trevor, and Wynn for the rest of the day, even though they were all at the venue.

In the evening, after Celeste and Matthias were done with their work and returned to the hotel, they unexpectedly ran into Nathan on their floor.

Nathan was also slightly surprised after seeing them. He greeted them with a smile, "Mr. Yoder, Ms. Rodriguez, what a coincidence."

Celeste and Matthias nodded silently.

It really was a coincidence.

However, most guests attending the technology conference were staying at nearby hotels. So, running into each other was normal.

Nathan was about to say something more when Matthias spoke first, "We're going back to rest now. Mr. Lackspur, please excuse us."

After saying that, without waiting for Nathan's response, he turned slightly and said to Celeste, "Rest well. See you tomorrow."

Celeste hummed a response.

After that, they each entered their rooms across from each other.

Nathan was slightly surprised.

They were not staying in the same room?

After returning to his room, Nathan received a call from Narcissa, who said she had left something behind and asked him to have someone send it to her.

Narcissa, including Trevor and Wynn, had originally been staying in the same hotel as Celeste and Matthias.

But after learning that they were there, Trevor had someone arrange for them to switch hotels.

Narcissa also moved with them after learning about it. She knew that Wynn had been in a relatively low mood that day.

Then, she said to Nathan, "Celeste first stole the opportunity to enter YodaVision and repeatedly interfered to prevent Professor.

Newman from accepting Wynn as a student. That's how she got the guidance of both Matthias and Professor Newman, leading to her current achievements.

"All these opportunities should have belonged to Wynn. On top of that, she stole all the spotlight today, with everyone around praising her.

"How could Wynn not feel upset? If it were me, I wouldn't be able to get over it either."

Nathan didn't want to get involved in the situation between Celeste and Wynn. Since he had no real relationship with Wynn. So, he did not respond after hearing that Narcissa then asked, "Did you run into them?"

"I did."

Nathan paused and then said, "However, they are not staying in the same room." Hearing this, Narcissa was also stunned and slightly surprised.

But she quickly figured it out.

"She and Trevor haven't divorced yet. Even though she and Matthias are on good terms now, others can only see appearances.

"Since everyone is staying in nearby hotels, they're probably worried that if Trevor and Wynn find out, they might use it against them.

"She's just being cautious and guarding against Trevor and Wynn. She really is quite careful."

Hearing that Trevor and Celeste were still legally married even though they had signed a divorce agreement, it was only understandable that she would be Cautious of Trevor
