

THE BREAKING POINT OF LOVE

Chapter 740

The next morning, not long after Trevor and Wynn arrived at the conference venue, they prepared to leave and return to Baumond.

Narcissa knew that Trevor and Wynn had originally planned a two-day trip. But when she learned they were leaving early, she didn't try to persuade them to stay.

Instead, she glanced in Celeste's direction and curled her lips after seeing that Celeste was still surrounded by people.

"You and Trevor have already achieved everything you came here for. Leaving early isn't a bad idea. At least you won't have to look at certain people and get annoyed."

Wynn hummed in agreement.

Jorge and Quentin had also heard that Trevor and Wynn had moved to another hotel because they didn't want to run into Celeste and her team.

Now that they found out Wynn was leaving early, Quentin specifically came over to say goodbye.

He had also guessed that Wynn was probably having trouble coming to terms with all the attention Celeste had been receiving.

Otherwise, why would Wynn and Trevor suddenly decide to leave early with such a valuable opportunity to interact with others within the industry?

That was why he didn't try to persuade her to stay as well.

After all, even as an outsider, he was furious seeing Celeste receive so much admiration and praise despite all the underhanded things she had done.

He could only imagine how hurt and dejected Wynn must have felt, as someone directly involved in the matter.

So, he simply said, "Let's get together sometime in Baumond."

Wynn smiled and nodded. "Okay."

Not wanting to disturb her any further, Quentin turned and left.

It was only yesterday that Narcissa learned that Quentin was the person who had introduced Wynn to YodaVision.

When Quentin had come over to catch up with Wynn yesterday, she had not thought much of it. But now, watching his retreating figure, she smiled and lightly nudged Wynn with her elbow.

"I think your senior likes you."

Wynn frowned. "Don't be ridiculous."

Seeing her refusal to admit, Narcissa was about to say something when she spotted Kieran.

Kieran saw them as well.

When he noticed Narcissa was there, he simply nodded in greeting before turning around and leaving.

This was

this not the first time Narcissa and Wynn had seen Kieran during this At technology conference, They just had not spoken to each Narcissa also realized that Kieran's attention was now completely focused on Celeste.

The thought left a bitter taste in her mouth.

She then said with a frown, "I didn't expect him to move on so quickly. Furthermore, he still ended up falling for her after knowing perfectly well that you and Celeste don't get along."

Saying that Kieran had moved on quickly was somewhat unfair. After all, when he returned to the country and joined yodaVision Wynn and Trevor had already been together for around two years.

Wynn said nothing. She simply tightened her grip on the water bottle in her hand.

Just then, Trevor walked over. "Are you done informing your friends?"

Wynn smiled. "Mm, let's go."

Trevor just nodded.

After saying a few words to Narcissa, he and Wynn turned and left the venue.

Neither Celeste nor Matthias paid any attention to Trevor and Wynn leaving early. In fact, they didn't even know about it at first.

It was only when someone wanted to talk to Trevor and searched for him that they learned he and Wynn had already left ahead of schedule.

"Didn't he say he was staying for two days? Why did he leave early?"

"I heard Mr. Fleming's girlfriend hasn't been in a very good mood. That's why they left early."
