

THE BREAKING POINT OF LOVE

Chapter 744

"By the way, who exactly is the person you like, Beck? It's been so long. Are you still going to keep it a secret? Can't you at least reveal a little information?"

Beck looked at the message and only replied after a long pause, "I'll tell you after some time."

Miles immediately responded, "Deal! That's a promise!"

Beck replied, "Okay."

Wynn didn't say anything. But she knew Beck was referring to the time when Trevor and Celeste officially divorced.

The next day, Celeste returned to YodaVision after sending Jordyn to school.

Not long after, she went to Fleming Group with Kieran and the rest of her team. Unfortunately, they ran into Jorge and Quentin's group when they arrived at Fleming Group.

Jorge would at least politely greet Celeste when Matthias was around. But now that Matthias wasn't present, Jorge completely ignored her, acting as if he didn't know her, and directly entered the elevator first with Quentin and his team.

Quentin knew that YodaVision and Fleming Group had an ongoing collaboration project, but he didn't expect to run into Celeste.

However, he quickly looked away after a brief moment of surprise.

Celeste also acted as if she didn't know Jorge or Quentin, and entered another elevator with Kieran and her engineers. But they ran into each other again after they exited the elevator.

Since they were collaborating with Fleming Group on different projects, they were quickly led into separate meeting rooms by the staff to handle their respective work.

Celeste and her team stayed until the afternoon before leaving.

But, judging by the situation, Jorge's side had only recently started their cooperation with Fleming Group.

So, when Celeste's group left, Quentin and the others were still working.

By then, it was Fleming Group's afternoon tea time, and everyone had gone for a break.

Jorge went upstairs to look for Trevor.

When Quentin was about to take a break, he noticed something off in the data they had organized. So, he used Jorge's laptop to verify it again.

After checking the data and just as he was about to close the laptop, he accidentally clicked on something and opened a folder.

He immediately tried to close it, but froze when he saw the photos inside. After coming back to his senses, his expression drastically as he looked in the direction where Celeste had left not long ago.

At that moment, his colleague came back with snacks.

Quentin reacted quickly. He copied the files, closed the window, and turned off Jorge's laptop.

His colleague had already arrived and handed him his coffee while laughing. "Why are you so flustered? Anyone would think you've done something wrong."

Quentin had not yet recovered from what he had just seen. His mind was still filled with the intimate images of Trevor and Celeste embracing in the photos.

His throat tightened, and his expression turned ugly as he gripped his coffee cup tightly.

"I almost dropped Mr. Robinson's laptop just now, so I panicked a little."

His colleague was just asking casually. So, he didn't press the issue further.

Quentin lowered his head. He slowly unlocked his phone while his colleague wasn't paying attention. Then he found a discreet angle and opened the photos on his phone.

Although he didn't know whether these photos were taken by Jorge or someone else, the clothes worn by Trevor and Celeste in the photos were different outfits. So, it meant the photos were taken at different times.

It also meant that whoever took the photos had already encountered them in such "indecent" situations more than once.

However, CodeFlux and YodaVision were collaborating on a project. Jorge's attitude toward Celeste was very cold whether it was during the AI technology conference a few days ago or just now. It was as if they didn't know each other at all.

He didn't understand it before, but now...
