

After saying that, Quentin looked at Matthias with a meaningful smile.

"You've really been good to her. But unfortunately, I'm afraid all your devotion and all the lengths you've gone to protect her will end up making you nothing more than a laughingstock."

Everyone present-including Wynn, Lilian, Narcissa, and the others froze for a moment.

Before anyone could figure out what Quentin meant, he suddenly tapped his phone, making the giant screen behind him flicker. The next instant, several photos appeared.

Gasps erupted throughout the banquet hall the moment everyone saw them.

They were photos of... Celeste and Trevor. The two were unmistakably intimate. In one of the pictures, Trevor was even seen taking Celeste home late at night to spend the night.

This...

The guests were so shocked their jaws nearly hit the floor. No one had ever imagined that Trevor and Celeste were having an affair.

Caleb, Kieran, Jorge, and the others had been quietly watching the confrontation between Quentin and Matthias.

When Matthias mocked Wynn by saying that Zachary had judged her to be "too ordinary," Jorge had been just as furious as Quentin. He had wanted to step forward and defend Wynn.

After all, if someone with Wynn's credentials could be dismissed as ordinary, then what did that make everyone else? Idiots?

But before he had the chance to speak, Quentin had already thrown the photos of Celeste and Trevor onto the big screen for everyone to see.

The moment Jorge saw them, he was briefly stunned. Especially when he noticed that several of the photos had been taken by him.

Still, he quickly regained his composure. He finally understood why Quentin had dared to publicly stand up for Wynn at an event like this.

Caleb and Kieran were no less shocked. Seeing the photos felt like being struck over the head.

Both men instinctively looked toward Celeste and Trevor.

But just as Caleb turned to look, something suddenly clicked. He abruptly took a step backward.

In that instant, he understood everything.

He stood there, frozen.

It had simply never occurred to him to connect Celeste with Trevor.

So, Trevor was... her husband. The husband she had never once been willing to talk about.

Xavier and Jorge had already known about the "affair" between Celeste and Trevor So neither reacted much after the initial surprise at seeing the photos displayed publicly

What they did notice, however, was Caleb's expression.

Seeing him standing there in utter shock, unable to believe what he was seeing, they assumed he had finally discovered Celeste's "true colors".

Although Jorge had no desire to kick someone while they were down, he still looked at Caleb and said quietly, "I've known about this for a long time. This is what Xavier and wanted to tell you earlier.

"Caleb, she's really not the person you thought she was."

Xavier immediately nodded beside him. "Exactly. That's what we've been trying to say."

Kieran was equally stunned when, saw the photos of Celeste and Trevor His mind went blank for a moment. But very quickly another possibility occurred to him,

What if Trevor was actually the husband Celeste had always refused to talk about?

But if that were true, then Trevor hadn't officially gotten divorced yet.

And if he was still married... Then what exactly was going on between him and Wynn?

At that thought, Kieran immediately turned to look at Trevor and Wynn.

Meanwhile, Beck and Miles had also been watching the confrontation between Matthias and Quentin.

When the photos suddenly appeared on the screen, they, too, were completely stunned.
