

However, very quickly, Quentin felt that Matthias was merely pretending to stay calm.

He gave a mocking smile and pointed toward the large screen behind him. "Oh? Is that so? Then, what exactly do you think regarding all of this? I'm actually very curious."

Even someone as experienced and knowledgeable as Philip was still completely shocked at this moment. He had never imagined that there was such a relationship between Celeste and Trevor.

His gaze also turned toward Celeste, Trevor, and the others below the stage. And it wasn't just him. Everyone present, including Jorge and Xavier, was looking at Matthias.

Xavier stared at Matthias without even blinking, afraid that he would miss the most exciting moment.

When the photos had appeared on the screen earlier, Jorge had also noticed Wynn's devastated and disbelieving expression.

But right now, his eyes were cold.

Back when he had sent the photos to Matthias, Matthias hadn't shown the slightest reaction. Now, he wanted to see what kind of explanation Matthias could possibly come up with.

He also wanted to see exactly what kind of excuse Celeste had used to convince Matthias despite the evidence being right in front of him.

Under everyone's watchful eyes, the smile in Matthias's eyes deepened.

Looking at Quentin, he spoke, "My thoughts? Ha, Mr. Yallop, your question is actually quite funny.

"A married couple-" Before Matthias could finish speaking, a sudden voice interrupted him.

"Dad!"

Jordyn suddenly ran toward Trevor. The moment she finished calling out, she threw herself into his arms.

Trevor was startled by her sudden appearance. He handed his wineglass to someone beside him before reaching out and catching her.

Everyone in the banquet hall had been waiting for Matthias to continue speaking. So when they suddenly heard a child's voice, they were all stunned.

Their attention immediately shifted toward Jordyn.

While everyone was wondering who had brought their child to the banquet, they saw the little girl run straight into Trevor's arms.

Many people knew that Trevor had a daughter.

Someone quickly reacted. "Is that Mr. Fleming's daughter?"

"She should be, right?"

Caleb, Kieran, Beck, Miles, and Jorge also noticed Jordyn very quickly.

After realizing that the person she had called "Dad" was Trevor, Caleb and Kieran both paused. They simultaneously turned their attention toward Trevor.

Jorge and Xavier were also stunned.

Xavier whispered, "What is going on? Why did Trevor's daughter come here? Is Matthias still going to continue?"

Jorge frowned.

The other guests were also growing anxious. Everyone was worried that Jordyn's sudden appearance would cause Matthias to stop speaking.

After all, Trevor's daughter-the daughter of one of the people in those photos-was now standing right there. It would be awkward to father's relationship with another woman in front of his child.

publicly discuss ward

Quentin had a similar thought. His expression darkened as he looked toward Trevor. He also believed that this was Trevor's doing.

He thought Trevor simply didn't want to explain his relationship with Celeste in front of everyone, so he had deliberately brought his daughter out as a distraction.

At that moment, Jordyn, who was about to be picked up by Trevor, suddenly noticed Wynn. She was just about to call out to her when she saw Celeste standing not far away.

Her eyes lit up with surprise the moment she saw Celeste. She immediately stopped Trevor, who was about to carry her. Then she ran toward Celeste after pushing his hands away.

"Mom!"

Everyone's attention was still focused on Trevor and Jordyn. So, when they heard that sudden cry of "Mom" many people—including Quentin, Jørge, and Xavier froze again.

Jorge and Xavier knew that Jordyn seemed to have a very good relationship with Wynn. They were wondering whether Jordyn had called Wynn "Mom".

At the same time, everyone else was trying to figure out who the little girl was calling. Then they saw the scene unfolding in front of them—

Jordyn ran straight past Wynn. And threw herself into Celeste's arms. "Mom!"

