

The Breaking Point of Love

Chapter 865

After she hung up, Lilian asked, "Who was that? What happened?"

Wynn briefly explained what had happened. When the Lockets and Shaws heard the news, they were overjoyed.

Linda jumped to her feet in excitement, her eyes even reddening with happiness. "I knew it! Trev only loves you! Celeste is nothing compared to you!"

Ruby chimed in, "Exactly! No matter how outstanding Celeste is, Trevor never loved her before. There's no way he'll suddenly fall for her now!"

Lilian smiled as well.

To be honest, she had been utterly shocked to learn that Celeste was both a shareholder of YodaVision and Zachary's student.

She had never imagined that Celeste would somehow rise to such heights.

Celeste was now the centre of attention, admired by everyone.

Seeing how outstanding and successful Celeste had become, Lilian was genuinely worried that Trevor might develop feelings for her. After all, over the past year, his attitude towards Celeste had already changed because of her growing achievements.

That was why, over the past month or so, Lilian had frequently kept an eye on what was happening with Celeste.

She also knew that ever since Philip's banquet, although Trevor had cut off contact with Wynn, he had barely interacted with Celeste in private either.

That was precisely why Wynn hadn't completely lost her composure, even though she couldn't get in touch with Trevor.

Harvey breathed a sigh of relief. "As long as InnovaTech can stay afloat, even if something happens to Locket Tech, we won't be left with absolutely nothing."

With things taking such an unexpected turn, Linda was so delighted that she could hardly sit still. "Exactly! And now that we've received good news about Innova Tech, maybe after a while, Trev will help us resolve the problems with Locket Tech too!"

Mason burst out laughing. "Exactly!"

Holding her phone, Wynn smiled as well.

Just then, another call came in.

She answered it casually.

As with the previous calls, the person on the other end wanted to collaborate with Innova Tech.

Wynn received several more calls after that. It was nearly midnight before she finally had some time to herself.

She took a sip of water with a smile on her face. Thinking of Trevor, she hesitated for a moment before finally calling him.

However, he still didn't answer.

The smile on her face faded slightly. Fortunately, her good mood wasn't affected.

She didn't call again. Instead, she sent Trevor a message after gazing toward the window. "I received several calls about potential collaborations today. InnovaTech should be out of trouble before long."

Then, she sent him another message "Do you have any plans for the upcoming holiday? We- haven't seen each other in a while. Would you be free to meet up in a few days?"

Even after she had sent both messages and waited for a long time, there was still no reply.

A hint of disappointment flashed in Wynn's eyes. She stopped waiting, put down her phone, and went to rest.

Celeste knew nothing about what had happened with the Locket family.

However, two days later, Matthias received news that a large number of people had suddenly begun collaborating with InnovaTech.

He curled his lip and snorted. "Who else could be pulling the strings behind the scenes but Trevor? And here was thinking he could actually hold back and refrain from helping the Locket family. Ha!"

Celeste said nothing. After all, she and Matthias had anticipated this outcome from the very beginning.

Although Matthias had expected it, seeing InnovaTech show signs of coming back from the brink still left him deeply frustrated.

Unfortunately, when it came to financial resources, they were still no match for the Fleming family.
