

Best Young Master

Chapter 14 - 14 014 Exposed

14: Chapter 014 [Exposed?] 14: Chapter 014 [Exposed?] After the dinner party, Mrs.

Su and Uncle Fu first accompanied Ye Fan back to the Su Family's No.2 Villa.

As arranged by Su Hongyuan, during the period Ye Fan treated Su Yuxin, he would stay at the Su Family's No.2 Villa.

After the three of them left, Su Yuxin was called by Su Hongyuan to talk in his study.

Su Liuli wanted to follow, but was scolded by Su Hongyuan and had to give up.

Upon entering the study, Su Yuxin, as usual, began boiling water, preparing the soup cup, washing the tea, and brewing the tea with practiced movements.

"Yuxin, Divine Doctor Ye being able to treat your illness pleases me greatly," Su Hongyuan said, smiling as he accepted the Longjing Yu Tea Su Yuxin had prepared.

Su Yuxin slightly bowed: “Thank you, Grandfather.”

“Please, take a seat.”

After putting down his tea cup, Su Hongyuan signaled for Su Yuxin to sit down.

Once he saw Su Yuxin sitting quietly on the couch, he continued, “Yuxin, after Divine Doctor Ye finished treating you, he told me that he has only controlled your condition for now and that you will need regular treatment to prevent your illness from flaring up, correct?”

“Yes, Grandfather,” Su Yuxin nodded.

Seeing this, Su Hongyuan asked again, “Is he unable to completely cure your illness?”

“He can.”

Su Yuxin hesitated for a moment before deciding to tell the truth, “Grandfather, according to Divine Doctor Ye, he can treat the symptoms as well as the root cause, which is to say, he can cure it completely.”

“Oh?” Su Hongyuan looked slightly shocked, “How so?”

“According to him, he uses yang energy within his power to help eliminate the yin energy in my body, which is treating the symptoms.”

Even though Su Yuxin was usually composed and was facing an always imposing Su Hongyuan, she couldn't help but feel her cheeks heating up as she said, “As for treating the root cause, that would require...

require intimate relations with me.”

“Intimate relations?”

Su Hongyuan, who had just calmly sipped his tea, was startled by this unheard-of method of treatment.

Having experienced many ups and downs in the business world and possessing excellent composure, he was still shocked enough to spit out his tea.

“Yes.”

Seeing Su Hongyuan in such a shocked state, Su Yuxin wasn't surprised, as she knew anyone would find such a treatment method astonishing.

“Yuxin, if I am not mistaken, you are the one who refuses to cure your disease in that manner, right?”

After his initial surprise, Su Hongyuan regained his composure with a twinkle in his eyes, seemingly pondering something.

Though his tone was inquisitive, it sounded more like a confirmation.

“No...

it isn't.”

Su Yuxin steadied her emotions and shook her head, saying, “I originally planned to undergo the complete treatment, but Divine Doctor Ye refused.”

“Oh?”

Su Hongyuan was taken aback, his mind racing with thoughts, eventually feeling that Ye Fan didn't want to be involved with Su Yuxin.

This idea stemmed from the fact that Ye Fan was young, highly skilled in medicine, and had ties with Chu Ji, indicating a limitless future ahead!

As the head of the Su Family, Su Hongyuan was very aware of the immense power embodied by Imperial Physicians standing next to the top leaders at the apex of the power pyramid.

In such a scenario, although Su Yuxin was outstanding in looks, physique, and demeanor, her identity and status could not be considered top-tier in Jiangnan Province, let alone the whole of Huaxia.

It was reasonable that Ye Fan might not be interested in Su Yuxin.

“Yuxin, since Divine Doctor Ye refused to use intimate relations to completely cure your disease, you shouldn’t mention it again in the future.”

Later, just as Su Yuxin was hesitating whether to tell Su Hongyuan the reason why Ye Fan disagreed to treat her, Su Hongyuan, after a slight contemplation, said, “However...

in your future interactions with Divine Doctor Ye, try to leave a good impression on him.

This way, if he eventually takes a liking to you, he might not refuse to have intimate relations.”

“Um...”

Possibly because she didn’t expect Su Hongyuan to make such a decision, Su Yuxin was shocked, her mouth agape in surprise.

“Moreover, given your temperament, you might also prefer this method of treatment.”

Upon saying this, Su Hongyuan couldn't help but laugh.

He understood Su Yuxin's nature well and...

in his view, if Ye Fan developed genuine affection for Su Yuxin, resulting in a relationship, setting aside Ye Fan's future achievements, just the Su Family's potential connection with Chu Ji and even the Ye Family through Ye Fan was thrilling enough for him.

Originally stunned by Su Hongyuan's decision, Su Yuxin, upon seeing the meaningful smile on his face and being intelligent and emotionally astute, faintly realized that her grandfather's intense focus on her condition was probably not merely out of concern for her but rather an attempt to please Ye Fan!

Somehow, with this thought, the joy of being 'reborn' was considerably dimmed for Su Yuxin, feeling as if something sacred within her heart had been desecrated!

Later, she somewhat absentmindedly conversed with Su Hongyuan for a few more moments, then stood up to leave, returning to the Su Family's No.2 Villa with Su Liuli.

“Mom, where's Divine Doctor Ye?”

Upon arriving at the hall of the Su Family's No.2 Villa, Su Yuxin asked immediately noticing Ye Fan was not there.

"He's gone to his room," Mrs.

Su replied: "Originally, according to your grandfather's wishes, we were to prepare a separate guest room for him, but the empty bedroom has many items and it can't be cleared out promptly.

Hence, I let him stay in the Jin Emperor's room for tonight, we'll make his room ready tomorrow."

"I see..."

Mom, Liu Li, I'm quite tired, I'll go to sleep first."

Upon hearing this, Su Yuxin nodded, and feeling somewhat tired— although the yin energy in her body had been dispelled by Ye Fan's yang energy, she had been tormented by yin energy for many days, and her physical condition was far from that of a normal person.
