

Ball God 611

Chapter 611

At the most crucial moment of the competition, Universe 7 was left with Son Goku.

“Be careful, this little girl is not simple.” Vegeta walked down from the arena in exhaustion. The combat suit on his body had long been broken, but there was no frustration of defeat on Vegeta’s face. He felt very satisfied to be able to carry out such an intense battle.

“Yes.” Son Goku nodded vigorously and teleported to the center of the arena.

At this time, Whis turned the divine staff. After a magical light, the broken arena was restored to a new state as if time was rewinding. Looking at the slightly embarrassed Kale, Son Goku was ready to take out the Senzu Bean to give it to the other party.

“I have Senzu Beans here that can restore strength. Do you want them?”

“I don’t need the help of an uncle like you.”

At this moment, Caulifla rushed up from below. She took out an Senzu Bean from her pocket and stuffed it into Kale’s mouth. The rich ki instantly made up for the energy consumption on Kale’s body.

After Kale recovered her energy, Caulifla patted Kale’s head. “You have to work hard!”

“Yes.” Kale’s voice was as soft as a mosquito’s hum.

“Aren’t Senzu Beans the specialty of Earth? Why do they have Senzu Beans in their hands?” Piccolo was surprised when he saw Kale take the immortal beans.

“I gave Sister Caulifla Senzu Beans.” Little Mutian explained.

Piccolo looked at Mutian and the others in surprise. He was thinking about how the people of Universe 6 would be related to them. Then, he thought of Muiyang’s identity and understood. Muiyang was the high and mighty GrandSupreme Kai. It was not surprising that he knew people from other universes. From his perspective, his vision had long surpassed the narrow universe.

As for Senzu Beans, Muiyang’s family seemed to never lack such things.

How was it not lacking? It was simply too many to bloom.

After many years of Gaia’s reclamation, the Senzu Beans and spiritual tree fruits that Muiyang had accumulated could be used as snacks and fruits to eat. In fact, the spiritual tree fruit was a fruit of a high level god.

Just as Piccolo was deep in thought, the battle on the arena had already begun. Son Goku had observed the battle between Vegeta and Kale, so he had somewhat figured out Kale’s situation. For such an opponent who grew more courageous and did not know exhaustion, Son Goku could not help but feel a surge of hot blood at the same time as he felt a deep pressure.

This was a battle that he had been pursuing for a long time!

He lifted his breath.

Son Goku directly turned into his strongest state. Compared to Vegeta, Son Goku's physique was stronger, so the Super Saiyan Blue became even stronger.

In fact, the gap between the Super Saiyans Blue and the Super Saiyans God was far less than the gap between the ordinary Saiyans and the Super Saiyans God. At most, there was a gap of one or two times. Therefore, even if Son Goku developed the Super Saiyans Blue to a higher level, the increase in energy was not particularly much.

“The battle has begun.”

After saying this in his heart, Son Goku stared at Kale with a serious expression. Then, he attacked and arrived in front of Kale as if he had teleported. Kale roared angrily, and her fist clenched the grass green light and waved it at Son Goku.

Boom!!

Son Goku walked out of the blockade. The two of them flew to both sides at the same time. Just as the tip of their feet touched the ground, a sharp whirlwind appeared. The two figures disappeared once again. They could only hear the constant sounds of collision and the rumbling of energy explosions...

“How terrifying. This is a completely different level of battle.” Krillin's voice trembled.

Son Gohan and Alex looked at it seriously and could not help but sigh. They originally had a chance to participate in the universe competition, but after watching the competition now, they felt that even if they went up, they would only be defeated in a few moves.

“The level is completely different. We have to enter the Half-God rank as soon as possible.”

On the other side, Lasuli asked Muqiu, “If I let you go up, are you confident in winning?”

Muqiu said, “It's very difficult. Although the ‘Super Saiyan God’ has a stronger recovery ability than the ‘Super Saiyan’, compared to the ‘Legendary Super Saiyan’, its ability to fight for a long time is still a bit lacking... It seems that I have to train properly when I go back this time. I have to transform the state of the Super Saiyan God into a daily form and reach the full power of the ‘Super Saiyan God’ as soon as possible.”

Android 18, who was beside him, pulled up her hair and chuckled. “I don't have any energy problems, so I can fight against Kale.”

Lapis refused to admit defeat. “I can do it too.”

“I really envy the physique of your eternal energy.” Muqiu looked at Lapis and Android 18, her eyes full of envy.

At this time, Champa also looked at the game seriously and nodded. “Well, this is more like an expert of my Universe 6. Take a good look, Kale. If you were half as open... no, a quarter of your performance, I would be happy.”

Kale smiled awkwardly. As the last of the last contestants, she felt embarrassed.

“Vados, Kale performed well. You should focus on training her in the future.”
Champa asked with a rare amiable expression. “Oh right, do you think she can win the final victory?”

Vados roughly estimated, “I hope it’s pretty big.”

After obtaining Vados’ affirmation, Champa was even more relieved. He raised his head towards the god of destruction, Beerus. His proud face was really like a villain.

The God of Destruction, Beerus, shook his legs and said fiercely to Whis, “If you lose the competition, I will settle the score with you.”

Whis was speechless. This had nothing to do with him at all. His light purple eyes looked at the competition, and his gaze stopped on Son Goku and Kale.

“Kamehameha!”

“Power Up!!”

Son Goku and Kale had already used their full strength to retaliate in the form of ki wave. Because he had absorbed the battle experience of Vegeta, Son Goku had used his full strength from the beginning. He did not hold back at all. He was clear about Kale’s special physique and his own energy. The longer the battle dragged on, the more disadvantageous it was for him.

“Thunder Shock Surprise!!” It fully unfolded, and the energy turned into a pale golden electric current. Kale’s body was paralyzed by the electric current, and his movements could not help but stiffen.

Good chance.

Son Goku laughed loudly and teleported within a radius of ten feet.

He clenched his fist, contracted, and attacked.

Bang!!

The sound of metal objects colliding rang out.

Kale angrily closed his arms to block Son Goku’s attack. Then, his body floated down and one of his feet drew an arc in the air.

Her attack landed on Son Goku’s waist and instantly sent him flying.

“Tri-Beam!”

Son Goku launched a fierce attack as his body flew up, and the oppressive atmosphere continued to descend.

“Crush the cannon!”

The grass green energy rose up and collided with Son Goku's energy cannon. With a loud explosion, the sparkling and scorching energy fell on Son Goku and Kale. The two screamed and flew backwards. At this time, the entire arena suddenly collapsed from the middle, revealing a deep and deep hole.

Son Goku and Kale fell from the big hole at the same time.

Whis and Vados looked at each other in surprise. At the same time, they stretched out their divine staffs to pull up the contestants from their respective universes. They only realized that the two of them had already fainted and had withdrawn from the transformation state.

“How do we determine the result now?”

The rules of the competition were that the last contestant standing on the arena represented the universe to win. However, now that Son Goku and Kale had both fallen off the arena at the same time and were both unconscious, it was clear that they could not continue the competition.

Whis and Vados discussed for a while, then asked for Muiyang's opinion and announced.

“The universe competition has been through matches, and now there are results. According to the final situation of the competition, the two should not be able to determine the winner, so the universe competition should end in a draw.”

Whoosh!!!

As Whis announced the results, everyone stood up.

Champa stood up unhappily. “How can this be? After working so hard for so long, it's actually a draw. Doesn't that mean that so many matches have been held in vain?”

Beerus said, “I also don't agree with this result.”

Chapter 612

It took a lot of effort. There were a lot of matches, but in the end, it ended in a draw. For this result, whether it was Champa or Beerus, they could not accept it. So when Whis announced the result, they all clearly expressed their objections.

Whis said, “This is the rule set before the competition. Since the result is out, even Lord Champa and Lord Beerus should not break this rule.”

Champa shook his head shamelessly, looking like he could not accept it. “I don't care. No matter what, I won't accept this result. There is no reason for a draw in a competition. No matter what, we have to decide the victor. Why don't we add another match and let Kale and the others compete again?”

The God of Destruction, Beerus, also nodded. “I think it's possible. Let's compete again in the last match.”

Vados frowned slightly. “This is against the rules. As the creator of the rules, Lord Champa and Lord Beerus should not take the lead in breaking the rules.”

As he spoke, a pair of pale purple eyes looked at Champa.

“But this concerns the ownership of the Dragon Ball. Without the Dragon Ball, I won’t be able to eat the egg of the Gu Gu Bird.” Champa was still a little afraid of Vados. After Vados spoke, his arrogance was suppressed a little.

Is this all you’ve got... Vados helplessly rolled his eyes when he heard Champa’s reply.

“Lord Champa, in fact, there is something more delicious than Gu Gu eggs in this world...” Vados persuaded, and Champa asked doubtfully, “Really?”

“Yes.”

Champa’s face suddenly changed, and his expression became gloomy. “You really didn’t let me eat anything delicious before.”

Vados expression was calm. “I’m doing this for the sake of Lord Champa’s figure. If Lord Champa doesn’t mind becoming the first god to catch his breath while running, I don’t have any objections. However, this way, Universe 6 will lose face.”

“But you still admitted it.” Champa was very angry.

“I think Vados’ words are very reasonable. You should change it. Looking at your big flat face, I feel ashamed for you.” The God of Destruction, Beerus, did not forget to laugh a few times. The eyes of Champa became dangerous. The two brothers did not get along with each other. Beerus’ mockery made him very unhappy.

“Bastard, what are you talking about? Say it again if you have the ability, cone face!”

“The fat bastard with a flat face.”

I am so angry,

“Lord Beerus, you are not much better.”

Beerus and Champa confronted each other. A terrible storm instantly rolled up between the two. Waves of pressure rolled over like a vast ocean. Everyone felt a chill. Although the two were brothers, they had to fight each time they met. Even Whis and Vados were in a difficult position.

“Lord Champa, Lord Lord Beerus, please calm down.”

Whis and Vados respectively came to the side of the two to prevent them from arguing again.

“Then what do you think we should do next? Do we arrange a new competition?”

“Then give me the Dragon Ball.”

Lord Beerus immediately objected, “No, that belongs to me, Universe 7.”

“Then I’ll fight you directly.”

“I’ll fight!”

Beerus was furious. Sparks flew in each other’s eyes. At this time, Muiyang’s figure came between Champa and the others. A pressure suppressed them. Only then did Champa and Beerus calm down.

“The reason why Champa wants the wishing bead is to eat a few more white boiled eggs. I know that there is something called ‘pot head’ in this world that is similar to white boiled eggs. If you want to eat it, you can go to your Namekian and get it with the Dragon Ball there.”

“As for the Super Dragon Ball, because there is no winner in the competition, the Seven Super Dragon Ball will return to their original universe. You don’t have any objections, right?”

Beerus and Champa frowned. Just when they were about to object, their eyes met Muiyang’s eyes. A great pressure was transmitted over. Only then did they remember that Muiyang was now a “Grand Supreme Kai”. His words were directly heard by the heavens. If they casually said anything to the king, they would be in trouble.

Therefore, he reluctantly nodded in agreement.

Champa twisted and said, “If the Dragon Ball of Namekian can achieve the same effect, I have no objections.”

He looked at Beerus, who pursed his lips. “I don’t have any objections.”

Muiyang nodded and said, “Then that’s it. The competition between Universe 6 and Universe 7 ended in a draw. The Super Dragon Ball will be returned to their respective universe. Of course, if the participants of your universe want to communicate privately, I can arrange a venue for them.”

“Yes.”

“That’s great! The lords haven’t fought yet!” Universe 7’s Old Kai let out a sigh of relief.

Next, Whis and Vados distributed the seven enormous Super Dragon Balls. They were prepared to send them back to their original positions. At this moment, Vados seemed to have seen something. His cold voice echoed in the air, “Lord Champa, Lord Champa, look over there...”

“What are you looking at?” Champa said impatiently.

“Look over there. Isn’t that Lord Zeno?” His slender finger pointed in the direction of the stands, and Vados had a strange expression on his face.

“What Lord Zeno... ah, it really is Lord Zeno.” Following the direction that Vados pointed at, Champa saw a short figure with an oval head in the last row of the stands. He was sitting at the end of the auditorium, shaking his little feet and looking at them. There were two thin guards beside him.

Because the seats were relatively back, they had not been discovered until now.

“Lord Zeno... Lord Zeno!!”

Cold sweat flowed down from Champa’s forehead.

When the God of Destruction, Beerus, heard the whispers of Champa and Vados, he looked at the audience with a gloomy face. In the next second, his heart skipped a beat. His expression became like Champa, and his whole body stiffened.

“Lord Zeno is here. Lord Beerus, are we not going to welcome him?” Whis said softly.

“Of course I have to welcome you.”

The God of Destruction, Beerus, straightened his body and swept across like a gust of wind. Beerus and Champa came to the front of the king and bowed respectfully. Because the speed was too fast, it even swept up a whirlwind that spread in all directions.

“Welcome my Lord!”

“Welcome my Lord!”

The two God of Destruction were frightened and bent over. Their hearts were beating wildly, and cold sweat dripped down like rain.

The situation just now shouldn’t have been seen by Lord Zeno... What if Lord Zeno has a problem with them?

Lord Zeno was pure and holy. Sometimes, he was even a little willful. If he had a problem with them because he saw their confrontation just now, it would be very bad. For Zeno, replacing the two God of Destruction was just a matter of saying a word.

When East Supreme Kai saw the God of Destruction Beerus and the God of Destruction Champa respectfully facing an oval-shaped head, he asked Old Kai in a strange manner, “Ancestor, who is that short guy? I have a bad feeling.”

Old Kai quickly covered Supreme Kai’s mouth. “Idiot, that is Lord Zeno, the highest god in the universe. Hurry up and come with me.”

As he spoke, Old Kai immediately stood in a row with the God of Destruction and bowed as well.

“Lord Zeno!!”

East Supreme Kai was shocked. In the past, he had only seen the Grand Minister when he went to the palace, but he had never seen Lord Zeno with his own eyes.

The actions of the God of Destruction and Supreme Kai of the two universes made everyone know that the person behind the stands was not simple. Piccolo turned around and looked at tLord Zeno who was constantly shaking his feet. He really could not see who the other party was. However, to be able to make the God of Destruction and Supreme Kai treat him so seriously, he must be an extraordinary god.

“I didn’t expect Lord Zeno to come to the competition site...” Melissa had seen more than one Lord Zeno among Acceleration World, and they could be considered to know each other.

“He is Lord Zeno?”

Son Hongye had heard of the terror of Lord Zeno from Elek, so she quickly hugged Plague tightly. Under Melissa’s lead, everyone left the stands and came behind the God of Destruction and the others.

Chapter 613

“Zeno, how do you have the time to come here?”

Muyang and Gaia came to Zeno’s side. Out of all the people present, only Muyang had the courage to face Zeno directly.

Zeno’s two guards looked at Muyang and retreated to the two sides without leaving a trace. Zeno jumped down from his seat and came in front of God of Destruction Beerus and the others with Muyang.

“Muyang, I heard that the Universe 6 and Universe 7 were privately holding a martial arts competition, so I came over to take a look... After all, it is forbidden to break the fight between gods. I want to see if they broke the rules. But after reading it, I find it very interesting. Muyang, you should tell me earlier. Well, I was going to change to God of Destruction, so forget it...”

The young child’s voice was a little childish, but when he heard the words of the God of Destruction Beerus and the others, he almost scared them half to death, and their hands and feet began to feel cold.

“Hey, you can’t violate the rules. If you don’t let me, I will replace you.” Zeno said to Lord Beerus and Champa.

“No, no, please rest assured, Lord Zeno.”

“En...”

Zeno nodded. “Your competition is very interesting. I kind of understand why the other Zenny is holding the ‘strength gathering’. Why don’t we hold it here when we are free? But it will be meaningless like that time. Muyang, what do you suggest?”

When Muyang heard Zeno’s words, he knew that he had the idea of holding the ‘Tournament of Power’, but he did not want to repeat the ‘Tournament of Power’ of another world.

“Let me think about it.”

“Well, if you have thought about it, you have to tell me. I want to start the game early.”

“Okay.”

“Then I will go back first. I still have a game of chessboard to play!” Zeno shook his arms. The two guards standing next to him had cold sweat dripping down their foreheads. Sometimes, once Zeno was interested, it would basically be a disaster.

However, this Lord Grand Supreme Kai should not be so irrational!

“Oh right, you can’t fight among the Gods of Destruction. Otherwise, I will replace you.” After that, they didn’t wait for God of Destruction Beerus, Zeno extended his hand and left the competition venue with the escort of two guards.

After Zeno left,

Beerus and Champa suddenly collapsed on the ground, wiping the sweat on their heads. Beerus rejoiced in his heart, “It was so dangerous. I almost thought I was finished.”

“It was too difficult.” Champa swallowed his saliva.

“Is that little guy really that powerful just now?” Master Roshi did not know how terrifying Zeno was. To people like Master Roshi and Krillin, the situation outside the universe was not something they could imagine. Even East Supreme Kai had only vaguely understood how terrifying Master Roshi was from Old Kai’s words.

“It’s not just powerful. There are a total of twelve universes in the entire universe we are in. Every universe has the God of Destruction, Supreme Kai, and Angel. These three are the highest level gods in the universe, but they are far inferior to Lord Zeno. Lord Zeno is the highest and most terrifying god in the world. As long as he wants to, he can easily destroy a universe with a thought.”

“To him, replacing a god of destruction is just a matter of a few words.”

The God of Destruction, Beerus, could not calm down.

Champa continued, “Legend has it that there were a total of eighteen universes at the earliest time in the entire universe. Now there are only twelve left, and the six that disappeared were crushed by Lord Zeno. Even those that survived, the God of Destruction on the inside has changed countless times.”

After what Zeno had done, he felt that the result of the universe competition was meaningless. If he could choose, he hoped that there had never been any universe competition, so that he would not invite Zeno.

“Oh right, what was the ‘Tournament of Power’ that Zeno had mentioned before?”

“That was another parallel universe where Zeno held the competition. In order to eliminate the backward universe, apart from the four universes that were ranked in the top average, there were a total of eight universes that finished the ‘Tournament of Power’ competition. This was actually a punishment competition. Each of the eight universes sent out ten players to fight, and only one universe could win in the end!”

“What was the result of the victory?” Beerus hurriedly asked.

Muyang said, “Like here, you can obtain a Super Dragon Ball, and the failed universe will be completely cleared out by Zeno.”

Beerus gasped, “The other seven universes have been cleared out?”

“That’s right. Let me explain this in advance. Universe 6 and Universe 7 have both participated in that competition.”

Then one universe must have been cleared out, and the worst result would be that two of them were cleared out together.

“We absolutely can not allow Lord Zeno to have the idea of holding a ‘Tournament of Power’, or else we will all be finished.” Beerus shuddered and said, “The reason why Zeno raised the ‘Tournament of Power’ was because the gods of the various universes didn’t work hard, causing the development of the universe to slow down. Speaking of which, this is still your responsibility, Beerus.”

“Don’t talk nonsense.”

The God of Destruction Beerus’ face flushed red. Just in case, he would definitely nurture Universe 7’s experts as soon as he returned.

“Whis, hurry up and wake Son Goku up... Also, let Kais and Kamis of the various galaxies take action. As long as all the humans with potential are found for me to nurture, this is a matter that concerns the survival of the universe. Some particularly outstanding people can also be sent to Supreme Kai and God of Destruction Planet to be nurtured. This is called preparing for the future.”

Old Kai said, “I can develop potential for people.”

Whis shrugged and said, “If Lord Beerus is not afraid of God of Destruction Planet’s noise, I have no objections.”

“How can we care so much at this time? We have to do things well before the other universes react,” Beerus said sternly.

Champa rolled his eyes and said to Vados, “Our Universe 6 also wants to do this.”

This matter concerned their own lives, and even handkerchief had to take it seriously.

“Hmph, let’s end this competition like this. Vados, let’s hurry back to God of Destruction Planet. By the way, take Kale, Caulifla, and the other Saiyans with you. I want you to train them well.”

“Yes, Lord Champa.”

Barbara flashed a gentle and elegant smile. Then, she bowed politely to Muiyang and the others before using her divine power to bring the participants of Universe 6 out of the martial arts arena.

After Vados and the others left, Whis kept the four Super Dragon Balls that belonged to Universe 7 and said, "We will also return to Universe 7."

Universe 7's God of Destruction Planet.

A burst of light flashed, and Whis, Muiyang, and the others all came out of the green grass.

"Lord Zeno has high expectations for the 'strength gathering'. It will be very difficult to dispel this idea. We need to be strong when forging. All we can do is to improve the strength of our universe as soon as possible."

Although Universe 7 seemed to have a lot of experts now, yes, there were a lot of Half-God Level, including Son Goku and Vegeta. However, the problem was that there were too many Low-Level Planets in Universe 7, and each population above a planet is calculated in terms of "100 million".

No matter how strong an expert was, if they spread out a planet, they would be able to increase their power level to a single digit.

Although the index to measure the strength of the universe was not necessarily power level, and it was also possible to consider the comprehensive factors, power level must be one of the key factors.

"I can lend you Planet Wudao."

"That's great." Whis smiled after hearing this. Lord Beerus did not know much about the situation of Planet Wudao, but seeing Whis smile, it must not be a simple place.

At this time, Son Goku said to Broly, "By the way, you are also the legendary Super Saiyan. How is it compared to my Super Saiyan Blue Form?"

Broly looked at Son Goku and said, "The Super Saiyans are the same as the ordinary Saiyans. Their transformation states are also divided into several categories. From weak to strong, they are roughly divided into four types: Base Form, Golden Eyes Form, Super Saiyan, Legendary Super Saiyan. The Legendary Super Saiyan of the universe 6 that you are fighting with is Legendary Super Saiyan."

"If it is me, the Golden Eyes Form can rival your super red state. Super Saiyan is slightly flatter with your Super Saiyan Blue form, and the Legendary Super Saiyan Form can be directly crushed until you can't resist!"

Son Goku's eyes lit up, and his fighting spirit was excited. "You are always a little stronger than me. It seems that I still need to work harder!"

"In terms of combat strength alone, Broly can rival Lord Beerus," Whis said with a smile.

"Is that so? Why don't we compete here?" The God of Destruction, Beerus, was suddenly interested.

Broly nodded. "Sure."

Chapter 614

When the God of Destruction Beerus saw that Broly readily agreed to his challenge, he immediately laughed happily. He curled his lips with interest. Beerus took a few steps forward, about a meter away from Broly.

“Use your strength.”

“Of course.”

Broly was taller than Beerus. When he spoke, he lowered his head, and in the next second, Broly lowered his head, releasing an overwhelming pressure.

The energy of the Legendary Super Saiyan surged out crazily, as if the world were exploding. The grass green energy formed a tornado, causing the God of Destruction Planet to tremble violently. It was as if he was in a vast ocean, and he could capsize at any time. The aftermath made Son Goku and the others standing on the side unsteady. The entire God of Destruction Planet trembled under the terrifying aura of Broly.

“So strong!” The God of Destruction, Beerus, felt a great pressure. His skinny cheeks twitched, and he seemed very excited.

Broly’s green-haired super power far surpassed Kale. Beerus knew in his heart that his opponent’s strength was already comparable to his own.

“Hahaha... Come on, I haven’t been so excited for a long time. If I met you when I went to Earth last time, maybe I would be more satisfied.” Out of respect for the strong, God of Destruction Beerus also let go of his hands and feet to confront Broly.

The two terrible pressures collided at close range, and the air was torn apart in an instant, making a “chi” sound.

God of Destruction Beerus and Broly confronted each other, and then slowly rose into the air. When they were more than a hundred meters away from the ground, the two suddenly retreated to both sides at the same time, and the next second began to approach again, quickly colliding in the light of the stones.

Bang!

The battle between Lord Beerus and Broly began. There was a loud bang. The movements of the two people were so fast that it was impossible to see clearly. At this time, not to mention Son Hongye and Son Goten who were a little weaker, even Muqiu and Amelia, who were stronger, had a hard time watching.

“Crack!” Beerus swooped down from the sky and stepped on the ground. The strong force penetrated the ground, penetrated the star nucleus, and then went out from the bottom of planet core.

The God of Destruction Planet trembled violently, and it seemed that he was going to collapse.

When Whis saw this, he quickly waved his divine staff to protect God of Destruction Planet. He glanced at Supreme Kai and Old Kai who were powerless to resist the strong pressure and set up a protective shield to protect them.

“Thank you, Mr. Whis.” Old Kai said gratefully.

It’s just a small matter.

“Terrifying. Just the aura alone is enough to make me unable to breathe. It turns out that Lord Beerus is actually so powerful.” East Supreme Kai once again felt the terror of the God of Destruction. Compared to him, Majin Buu that he feared back then was nothing at all.

“What is even more terrifying is that Broly. He can actually fight against Lord Beerus with his mortal body.”

Old Kai knew very well how powerful Beerus was.

The battle between Beerus and Broly was definitely at the level of God of Destruction. In the original story, Broly’s strength was slightly inferior to that of the Super Saiyan Blue Gogeta, but he was also absolutely powerful. At this time, Broly had been trained by the angels and Muiyung for many years, and his actual strength was stronger than Broly in the original story. Even if the God of Destruction, Beerus, did not use the power of God of Destruction, it would be difficult to defeat him.

Different from the other powerhouses in the universe, the “Legendary Super Saiyan” Broly walked a completely violent and crazy path of strength. In terms of realm, Broly might not be very high, but he focused on one thing. He used his strength to break through ten thousand techniques. Even the level eight God of Destruction would not be able to gain any benefits.

Peng, Broly clenched his fist and smashed it at Beerus. Beerus’ face was serious as he resisted.

Rumble!

In the fierce battle, a corner of the base that destroyed the four-pointed flowerpot of God of Destruction Planet was scraped off, and a large amount of soil and stones were thrown into the void.

Beerus jumped up from the ruins, twisted his neck, and looked at Broly with enthusiasm. His eyes were full of appreciation and strong fighting spirit.

“So powerful, is this power of Broly?” Son Goku was so excited that his voice began to tremble.

Because outside of the energy protection of Whis, Son Goku now needed to transform into a Super Saiyan Blue to be able to resist the energy impact produced by the battle between Beerus and Broly.

Heavens!

Just the aftermath of the energy needed the Super Saiyan Blue strength to resist. If he were to fight with Beerus or Broly, a hand knife might be knocked out.

“Borly’s words are true. The current me is far from being his match.”

Son Goku stared unblinkingly at the battle between Borly and Lord Beerus. His trembling hands showed the excitement in his heart.

Now he once again experienced the feeling he had when he first faced Frieza. He was simply unable to resist. However, facing such an expert, it aroused his fighting spirit even more... There was such a wide road ahead waiting for him to walk. What was more exciting than this!

“Borly, who never shows himself, is actually so terrifying.” Vegeta had long known that Borly was hiding a lot, but such a huge gap still shocked him.

Shasley nodded in amazement. “It should be said that their family is all monsters. Look over there.”

Following the direction that Shasley pointed, Vegeta saw the situation of Muqiu and the others and his pupils could not help but shrink.

At this time, Muqiu and Amelia had already transformed into Super Saiyans. Their fiery red hair was raised high, and their eyes were red. They were different from the Vegeta’s Super Saiyan God Form, Muqiu’s Super Saiyan God. Their hair was directly the appearance of Super Saiyans.

“Super Saiyans in the form of Super Saiyans!”

“That might be the real Super Saiyans God,” Said Shasley.

Compared to Muqiu and the others, their Super Saiyans Red were at most called the “God of Saiyans”.

“Those people are not simple either.”

His eyes glanced at Lazuli, Lapis and Android 18 around Muqiu, Vegeta’s eyes were full of complex emotions.

Of course, at this time, the performance of Muiyang, Melissa, April, and Gaia had already been passed by them. Those people were the real big shots.

Can’t compare.

“This Broly is simply a monster. If I want to defeat him, I must use the power of the God of Destruction.” As he pondered, a ball of purple energy condensed in Beerus’ hand.

With the support of the destructive god energy, Beerus’ strength had almost doubled. And after Beerus completely used the destructive god energy, the grass green light on Broly’s body became even more dazzling. At the same time, with a silver-white light, when the purple destructive god energy collided with the silver-white energy, the energy of each other began to disappear. Beerus and Broly each flew hundreds of meters back.

“What is this energy?” Beerus was shocked.

To be able to offset the destructive god energy, it must be at the same level as the destructive god energy.

A trace of surprise flashed in Whis' eyes. He said to Muiyang, "This is Acceleration World's universe origin energy?"

"Yes, there are twelve universes in Acceleration World now. Broly is also managing one of them for me." Muiyang smiled lightly. When Acceleration World only had six universes, Broly was not the manager of the universe. Now that the world had advanced, Broly also shared a part of his duties.

"Yes." Whis nodded silently. After making up for the lack of energy level, Beerus' destructive power was no longer able to cause harm to Broly.

From this point of view, Broly was no different from a real God of Destruction.

Adding on the violent power of the Super Saiyan, Whis felt that Beerus was going to lose.

Chapter 615

Boom!

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

After a series of brilliant attacks, Broly launched a crazy attack on the God of Destruction. The God of Destruction, Beerus, responded in a flurry. Beads of sweat appeared on his forehead.

The intense battle continued for half a day. The chaotic energy in the air gradually calmed down. Broly and Lord Beerus both collapsed in the huge impact pit, panting heavily. They spread out their hands. Around them, there were countless large and small impact pits. The land covered in the emerald green grassland had become full of holes and holes.

"Amazing, this is fun. Your strength is enough to match most of the God of Destruction." The God of Destruction, Beerus, said breathlessly.

"It seems to be a draw." The energy on Broly disappeared.

After the battle ended, Whis floated over. The crystal ball tapped on their bodies for a while and soon restored their physical strength.

Looking at God of Destruction Planet, who had been destroyed beyond recognition, Whis said with a headache, "It will take a long time to repair God of Destruction Planet. Lord Beerus, you are really good at causing trouble."

God of Destruction Beerus snorted twice. He was in a good mood and did not quarrel with Whis. After telling Whis that he had to train Son Goku and the others well, he returned to his temple alone.

The battle just now had given him a rare feeling, and he needed to organize it properly.

After Beerus left, Whis began to make arrangements for Son Goku and the others. Because he was worried that something would happen to Universe 7 in the future, increasing the strength of the universe as soon as possible became an urgent matter. Old Kai and East Supreme Kai followed the meaning of God of Destroying Beerus and ordered all the galaxy experts in the lower realm to improve their overall strength before the other universes.

On God of Destruction Planet's side, other than Master Roshil and the others who were sent back to Earth, Son Hongye and the others were allowed to train in God of Destruction Planet.

In fact, apart from Son Hongye and a few others, the likes of Elek had long accepted Whis' guidance, and it was actually the same for God of Destruction Planet to train on Planet Wudao.

After arranging everyone, the training began normally.

Whis sat next to the lake and a glass cup with an Oracle Fish floated beside him. "Oracle Fish, the big event that you predicted previously involved Universe 7, is it the 'tournament' that Lord Lord Zeno is going to hold?"

"I don't know," The Oracle Fish said as it lay at the mouth of the glass.

It doesn't seem like it.

Whis frowned. "Isn't that so? Is there something else important?"

"I'm not sure. Whis... don't worry about this. We'll eat something later. I'm hungry." The Oracle Fish soon forgot the topic. It was also a glutton like Whis. It often stole delicious food behind Beerus' back. The only person who dared to speak so impudently to the God of Destruction, Beerus, was Whis. Only the Oracle Fish was there.

Whis wasn't a god who worried too much. In any case, even if the sky collapsed, it wouldn't be able to smash onto his body. Thus, he happily prepared delicious food with the Oracle Fish.

In Acceleration World's palace, Muyang sat cross-legged in his own palace hall. The surroundings were filled with waves of multicolored light and dense clouds. It was as beautiful as a fairyland, as if he had entered a painting of the ink and ink mountain.

The carved and jade palace of Muyang floated over ten thousand meters in the sky. Around the dazzling and resplendent divine palace floated twelve small balls. These small balls directly communicated with the twelve satellite sized shadows outside the Planet Wudao. They were the key to Muyang controlling the twelve universes.

Suddenly, through the deep space and time, Muyang seemed to see the situation outside of Acceleration World. His consciousness gradually rose, and he witnessed the space where Acceleration World was for the first time.

It was a dark and lightless void space, and the entire space was dim and lightless. Acceleration World was like a lonely little ball floating in this space. After his line of sight widened, the void began to open up. The originally flat and calm space also became turbulent.

On the scale of macroscopic view, the entire void space was no longer flat. The space was distorted, and from top to bottom, there seemed to be a giant pillar. Acceleration World was constantly moving around this giant pillar.

Suddenly, there was a light in the distance of Acceleration World. Muyang's consciousness followed this light, and then he saw another world that was moving around the giant pillar like Acceleration World. There were four blue water balls in that world, and each water ball had twelve universes.

“That is four whole universes, and the space that exists in the entire universe is the sea of time and space. It is the world covered by Zeno system.” Muyang thought in his heart.

Zeno system was the same as his own Acceleration World. It existed in a more advanced world of HTC. In this world, whether it was Zeno World or Acceleration World, they all revolved around the giant pillar in the middle. Supreme Kai's “Time Nest” was probably also in this space.

“In the past, Acceleration World existed in my consciousness. This time, I have seen a real body.” Muyang snickered.

Whether it was the current Acceleration World in his consciousness or the Acceleration World in the void space, Muyang could not be sure. However, most of the time, it was likely that Acceleration World grew up in his consciousness first. Only then did the void space have the existence of Acceleration World.

Muyang continued to explore this void space. Other than the world beyond the system of the king system, he gradually discovered several worlds that were similar to Zeno system. A huge world appeared in front of Muyang. His consciousness went deep in and he actually saw a huge divine realm inside. Then, there were all kinds of connected universes scattered under the divine realm.

These universes were connected to each other, and the form was a bit like the world fragments in the sea of time and space.

However, the scale was even larger. Every universe was a third of Universe 7's size.

“This is a world that is not weaker than the entire Zeno World. There are also high-level angels and gods...” With a slight sweep of his mind, Muyang obtained the basic situation of that world.

...

Outside the distant space-time.

This was another world. Zeno here were enough to suppress the timeline, so the highest God Realm was not affected by the timeline like Zeno. The people inside would not split up because of the separation of space-time.

A temple floated above the blue planet.

It was just like God Mu Palace on Planet Wudao.

“Ta, ta, ta, ta, ta...” Light footsteps. A priest dressed in red walked along the corridor of the palace. After entering the palace, he saw a beautiful woman with flax-colored hair sitting on the highest throne. Under the illumination of the light, her flax-colored hair was actually filled with some gorgeous bright red light.

“Red King, why did you look for your subordinate?”

The woman named Red King opened her eyes, and her red eyes flashed with light.

“Just now, I felt a consciousness sweep through this world. That consciousness is very unfamiliar, but to be able to enter here, the other party’s background is also extraordinary. Segari, you go and investigate. Maybe there are children again.”

“By the way, keep an eye on the people in Universe 0. Don’t let them keep causing trouble.”

“Understood!” The priest named Segari nodded respectfully and retreated.

After the red-haired priest left, the Red King looked up at the bright stars in the sky above the palace and suddenly smiled. “A new world seems to be close to the Seno World. If the Sky King knows, he might be interested...”

Chapter 616

The world controlled by the Red King was vast and boundless, and there were countless universes under the God Realm.

There was one universe among them that was facing a great crisis that swept through the universe.

Because the people of this world used the Dragon Ball randomly, the Dragon Ball of Earth underwent a mutation during the adjustment period. Cracks appeared on the Dragon Ball, and black smoke came out of the cracked Dragon Ball, forming a black smoke Shenron.

Then the black smoke Shenron split into seven, and turned into seven evil Shenron s that wreaked havoc throughout the world.

If Muiyang was here, he would find that what happened in this universe was very similar to a story called “Dragon Ball GT.” in his previous life, and the incident had already developed to the “Shadow Dragon Saga”.

The Dragon Ball GT was a story that was different from the main story of the Dragon Ball. It told the story of the DMajin Buu incident ten years later. The reason was that the three of them sneaked into the Lookout and stole the Black Star Dragon Ball that was stored in the Lookout. They began to use the Ultimate Shenron in the Black Star Dragon Ball to turn Son Goku into a child under the wishes of Emperor Pilaf as the opening story, and then a series of adventures began.

Although there were many logical defects in the story, it was also a direction of development in the Dragon Ball World.

Compared to the system of the entire universe, the GT universe paid more attention to the development of strength. The realm was only secondary, and the development of the pure strength path was.

...

The vast universe was filled with stars. Suddenly, there was a wave of movement in the void. It was like a wormhole connecting to another world in the distance. A majestic divine palace slowly appeared in the void. It was a palace that was almost the same as the God Mu Palace. It was carved with jade and was glorious and magnificent. However, its scale was much smaller.

“Father, is this another world? The rules of the outside world are different.”

Muqiu, who had inherited Muiyang’s handsome appearance, looked at the outside world curiously. His red hair kept fluttering, and his bright eyes were full of excitement.

“According to the Grand Minister, this is the world controlled by the Red King. Because it is a pure path of power, there are no requirements for the realm. If you train here, you might be able to obtain unexpected gains.” Muiyang controlled the temple to fly in the universe, and his mind constantly scanned the surrounding starry sky.

When he inadvertently discovered the other world outside of the universe and Acceleration World, Muiyang went to ask the Grand Minister and learned a lot from him.

It turned out that the space with the giant pillars was called the “Macro World”. It was a world larger than the entire universe. There were several worlds that were similar to the scale of the entire universe. In addition to Zeno, there were other worlds that were similar to Zeno, such as the Red King, the Sky King, and the Supreme Kai of Time. Each one of them was a Level 10 Dimension’s High Level God.

Muiyang’s Acceleration World had already entered the “Macro World”. In the future, in the position of the supreme, there might even be Muiyang.

After knowing that there was a wider world in the outside world, Muiyang suddenly had the idea of going out to see it. Because he had Acceleration World’s twelve universes as his backing, the Grand Minister was not worried that Muiyang would encounter any danger. After giving him some information about the “Macro World”, he did not care anymore.

After leaving the Grand Minister’s place, Muiyang began to build the palace to the outside world. After everything was prepared, he brought his family into the “Marco World”.

The first stop was the world that the Red King was in charge of.

This was a world that was relatively close to the entire universe.

In a universe under the command of the Red King World, Muiyang scanned his surroundings. Soon, he discovered several powerful auras in this universe.

According to the standard, he had already reached the Half-God Level.

Compared to the Half-God Level experts in the entire universe, the auras of the people in this universe were extremely violent. The Half-God Level did not have any characteristics of restraining their inner breath. This was probably the difference between the “realm path” and the “power path”. The realm path pursued the meticulous application of the realm, and the strength path was a bold and decisive path, suppressing people with force.

“The strongest energy in the universe is gathered in that direction. It seems that there is an intense battle. Universe 7 is only a third of his size, but he actually gave birth to such a powerful expert.” Gaia held a blue pillow in her hand, and her golden eyes were very curious.

Muyang smiled faintly and looked in a direction with Gaia’s sense. In the next moment, his stunned expression showed that he actually saw a familiar star field in the direction of that star field.

His mind swept over that star field again, and he confirmed that the star field was exactly the same as Universe 7’s galaxy.

Another universe similar to the original world of the Dragon Ball?

Muyang stopped and thought for a moment. He found that the universe under the jurisdiction of the Red King was the “GT World”. The two auras that were discovered by them were the Omega Shenron and Super Saiyan 4 Son Goku.

“Very interesting!” Muyang whispered.

There was Universe 7 in the entire universe, and there were planets similar to Earth in the fragment world. And outside the universe, there was actually a world similar to the galaxy. The “Marco World” he was in really loved Son Goku and the others!

“There are two strong people in this universe. Maybe Muqiu’s Super Saiyan God’s is no match for them.”

Muqiu was in disbelief. “No way. My strength has reached the ‘Super Saiyan God Full Power’. Even Son Goku, who is in the Super Saiyan Blue, is no match for me. Father, are you sure there are people stronger than me?”

“There is also a Son Goku in this world, and the current time period is 11 years after the Majin Buu incident. With Son Goku’s growth, it is hard to say who is stronger between the two of you.”

The combat power system of the GT World is different from the entire universe, but if we were to compare it, the black-haired Super Saiyan 4 that just transformed is probably similar to the Super Saiyan Red. The red-haired Super Saiyan 4 is similar to the Super Saiyan Blue. When Son Goku fought with the Omega Shenron, he had already reached the level beyond Super Saiyan 4. Compared to Muqiu, who is “Super Saiyan God Full Power”, it might not be much different.

Of course, in actual combat, because the system is different, there are many aspects that need to be discussed.

Next, Muyang told them what he knew about the situation of the GT World. When he knew that above Super Saiyan 3, there was also the direction of the Super Saiyan 4 advancement, Muqiu and the others were shocked.

After Broly and Melia heard this, they also felt a sense of familiarity...

This Super Saiyan 4 was somewhat similar to their rumored Super Saiyan Golden Eyes state. They were normally able to lock onto the Great Ape’s power.

“The Super Saiyan 4th stage Son Goku, I really want to see it for myself.”
Muqiu’s face flashed with great interest.

Pulling her hair up, she smiled and said, “There is also Android 18 in this world? She actually married that baldy Krillin. Her taste isn’t very good.”

Android 18 nodded. “I agree with this.”

Muqiu looked at Android 18 and said, “If we hadn’t brought you from the Universe 4 last time, you would probably have married him.”

Android 18, Lazuli, sneered, “I am such a blind person?”

Even if Muyang’s family did not enter the Universe 4, with the world without Cell Game pattern, it would be strange for him to like Krillin. Android 18 believed in her own aesthetic sense, so she was definitely not the original version of herself in this universe.

“No matter which world’s Lazuli is from, they are all greedy.”

Muqiu said lightly, and his words immediately attracted the angry eyes of Lazuli and Android 18.

Chapter 617

At this time, Amelia said to Muyang, “Dad, although this world is much smaller than Universe 7, why are there only three Half-God Level experts...”

Closing his eyes, he sensed the energy in the universe. Only three streams of energy that burned like the sun were stronger. The other energies in front of them were like the light of fire under the moon, insignificant.

It was clear that the timeline was several years later than Universe 7, but there were so few Half-God Level experts.

Son Goku, Vegeta, and the evil guy who was said to be Shadow Dragon.

“I think the divine dragons in this world are very powerful. The Black Star Dragon Ball on Earth can turn Son Goku’s body into a child.” Melia frowned and said. It should be known that even if the Dragon Ball was countless times stronger than the Earth Dragon Ball, when transferring Son Goku to the Super Saiyan stage, it needed his own consent. The Black Star Dragon Ball was overbearing, and it did not need his consent at all.

“I also feel that it is unreasonable. After the Earth Dragon Ball made a wish, it actually scattered into the entire universe. Does it think it is a Super Dragon Ball?” Melis shook his head.

Muyang said, “Just take it that the rules of the universe are different.”

If one were to really compare it, there were indeed many problems in the GT World.

Melis said, “In any case, I have never heard of the existence of negative effects after using too many Dragon Balls in the entire universe.”

In the entire universe, the use of Dragon Balls was very casual. It was just like how angels used their divine power. They were both a type of application of the laws of the entire universe. For example, Whis could easily reverse time and revive dead people without any side effects.

In comparison, this universe was completely different.

“After the Shadow Dragon Fusion in this universe merged, it gave birth to an Omega Shenron. I can see that Son Goku’s ki is gradually weakening. He must be in trouble.” Muqiu closed his eyes and sensed. This universe was convenient. The energy aura of the Half-God Level was like a searchlight. He could sense it easily.

Then, with a whoosh, Muqiu directly teleported to Earth. His sister, Amelia, followed closely behind, and also quickly disappeared.

Seeing the disappearing figures of the Mu siblings, Lazuli and Android 18 also wanted to follow, but they did not move instantly. Moreover, Acceleration World’s universe rules could not be used here, so they looked at Melia and others for help. Melia smiled and took them to Earth.

After the few anxious people left, the remaining people did not have the heart to rush. They quietly waited for Muyang to drive the temple to Earth.

“Let’s go over as well.” Muyang smiled. The entire God Mu Palace instantly lit up with a dazzling and colorful light. It was like a colorful light ribbon that tore through the void and headed straight for the galaxy where Earth was located.

...

On Earth.

The evil aura covered the sky. Under the tyrannical power of the super one-star dragon, the entire world fell into despair.

Right now, only Son Goku was barely able to hold on to the battle. However, Son Goku was only one person after all. After the intense battle, he did not have much energy left on his body.

His eyelids drooped. Son Goku half opened his eyes. The strength of Omega Shenron was beyond imagination. Previously, he had fused together with Gogeta. However, a few minutes later, the Gogeta was separated because of the excessive energy. Only in this world, the Planet Metamor Fusion Technique would have an upper limit because of the power level intensity. The entire universe would not have this situation.

“It’s over. I no longer have the strength to stop him.” Son Goku had a bitter smile on his face.

The only person who could help him was Vegeta.

But at this time, Vegeta was already seriously injured... As for Son Goku and the others, Son Goku smiled bitterly. Ever since the world peace, other than him and Vegeta, who persisted in training, everyone else had adapted to peaceful days. Even the Black Star Dragon Ball incident a year ago did not make them realize the arrival of crisis.

The martial arts of this world had developed to this point, and as the Dragon Ball warriors gradually aged, they would soon fall into decline again.

“Damn it, even Super Saiyan 4 is no match for him.” Far away, Vegeta was heavily injured as he lay on the ground in the ruins and pounded the ground bitterly.

The Super Saiyan 4 in the red-haired state of the Gogeta should have been able to rival a Omega Shenron, but the time of fusion was too short, and the next fusion would require a period of time to cool down.

In a place far away from the battlefield, Son Goten and Son Gohan had dejected expressions. In front of a great enemy, the strength of the Super Saiyans was incomparably weak. If they had not given up on cultivating in their early years, there might be a chance of helping their father.

“We can’t rely on our father to protect the earth alone.”

“But we don’t even have the ability to get close.”

Son Goten smiled bitterly. Years of peace had completely “compared” the two brothers. Perhaps Trunks was already stronger than them.

“I’m going to help Grandfather!”

Pan was about to rush into the battlefield when Trunks grabbed her arm, “Don’t go over. You’ll only be a burden if you go now.”

“But what do we do now? Grandfather doesn’t even have any Senzu Beans left.” Pan’s eyes held tears.

“Sigh...”

Everyone lamented silently.

“It’s over. There’s no way to save him this time.” Krillin closed his eyes.

“Grandpa...” Pan muttered worriedly.

On the other side of the battlefield, Omega Shenron stepped on Son Goku’s chest with one foot. Seeing Son Goku struggle, it laughed happily, “No one in this universe can stop me anymore.”

“Go to hell!” The Omega Shenron laughed wildly and released an energy wave at Son Goku.

“Shit!”

Son Goku closed his eyes in pain. However, it was at this moment that a beam of light descended from the sky and scattered the energy waves of the Omega Shenron. Chaotic energy scattered everywhere, and the light rays completely distorted.

“Who is it?” The Omega Shenron growled with a gloomy face, but he didn’t find any powerful aura around him.

After the turbulent flow of energy dissipated, two beautiful figures, a man and a woman, appeared in his sight. The two had bright red hair, red eyes, and looked like Super Saiyan. The only thing that surprised the Omega Shenron was that he didn't feel any aura from the two of them.

“Super Saiyan?” No, Super Saiyan couldn't have no aura. “Son Goku forced open his heavy eyelids.

“My name is Super Saiyan God...” A clear sound rang out, and Muqiu stepped forward.

“Super Saiyan God?”

Son Goku had never heard of this name.

Muqiu looked at Son Goku with his golden eyes. Apart from his head, chest, and palm, his body was covered with red body hair. His body was strong and full of the beastly nature of the Saiyan people. “This is the Super Saiyan 4 that my father mentioned? His hair is dark red. It is beyond the state of the ordinary Super Saiyan 4.”

Muqiu judged that Son Goku was now a little stronger than the Super Saiyan.

However, it was not as powerful as his Super Saiyan God.

One thing in this world was good. The energy contained in this world was exposed and not hidden deeply like in the universe.

“Brother, let me practice with this horned white monster.” Without any explanation, Aiya attacked the Omega Shenron. With a bang, the super one-star dragon was sent flying by Amelia before it could think.

With no breath as reference, he had no idea how he was hit.

“What happened?” The super one-star dragon looked at the part of his body that was hit with shock, his expression incredulous.

This woman with red hair was not tall, but her methods were amazing.

More importantly, he did not feel the aura on her body.

Glancing at the other red-haired youth standing at the side, the super one-star dragon's heart thumped. His pupils contracted violently, and an ominous shadow suddenly shrouded his heart.

At this time, Melia and Melis brought Lazuli, Android 18 and others, just to see Omega Shenron sent flying by Amelia.

Chapter 618

Lazuli watched with great interest as Amelia launched an attack on the Omega Shenron. Because she had the advantage of her opponent not being able to sense her own aura, Amelia's attacks were always successful, and the Omega Shenron could only deal with it in a sorry state.

But after a while, the Omega Shenron adapted to this kind of battle mode, and his sharp insight allowed him to see the way Amy attacked, making her immediately fall into a passive state.

“That Shadow Dragon has grown in battle.” Lazuli licked her lower lip.

Melia said, "In the end, he is the strongest in this universe. After the initial discomfort, he gradually adapted to the combat mode without any aura. He has the same strong learning ability as the Majin Buu."

The energy of an Omega Shenron might be a bit stronger than the "Super Saiyan God of Full Power" Amelia. After all, it was famous for pure strength, and strength was their forte.

Soon, the Omega Shenron blocked Amelia's attack.

"Who the hell are you?" The Omega Shenron had a gloomy face.

"Lazuli, Lapis, you go and help Amelia." Melia ordered his two nieces. The two girls nodded and took a step forward. Her graceful figure instantly arrived next to Amelia. The three women glanced in the direction of the Omega Shenron and attacked at the same time.

Facing the attacks of the three women, the Omega Shenron's expression was sinister, and his heart could not help but be covered with a layer of shadow.

"Where did these people come from? Why are all of them so strong?" After fighting with the three women, the Omega Shenron had suffered several attacks. The attacks of the other side were very strange. He could not sense the aura on his body, and even the position of the attacks were fluctuating. Every attack caught him off guard and fell into the rhythm of the other side.

He could not help but feel a sense of retreat in his heart, but he was proud and did not want to admit defeat easily, so his expression was stiff and stiff.

"So powerful, an Omega Shenron is actually not their match."

Son Goku crawled on the ground, looking at the battle of Amelia and the others with a shocked face.

"Who are the two golden-haired sisters? Why do they look so similar to Android 18?" Countless doubts appeared in Son Goku's heart. Muqiu looked at the battle in the distance and handed a Senzu Bean to Son Goku. "Eat it. You should know the function of the Senzu Bean."

"Thank you."

Son Goku took the Senzu Beans and immediately recovered his health. On the other side, Vegeta also recovered his strength with the help of Melis.

"Thank you so much. Speaking of which, who are you guys? Why didn't I know that there were experts like you in the universe?" Son Goku thanked them gratefully and then asked Melia and the others about their identities. Whether it was Son Goku or Vegeta, they were full of curiosity about Melia and the others who suddenly appeared on Earth.

“We are travelers passing by this planet,” Melia explained calmly.

“... In short, thank you. If not for you, the entire universe would be in danger. Next, let me and Vegeta deal with the Omega Shenron. “

After Son Goku recovered his strength, he wanted to continue fighting the Omega Shenron. Melia stopped them and said, “Super Saiyan 4 is no match for that guy. The battle just now has confirmed this point. Unless you two fuse again, you should not be able to fuse right now.”

Son Goku scratched his head. “The fusion skill requires a cool down of 30 minutes. Then watch carefully. My wife and sister can definitely deal with that Shadow Dragon.”

Muqiu said to Son Goku.

Vegeta looked at Muqiu and Melia doubtfully. Then, he cast his realization into the distant battle. Soon, he was stunned by the battle between Lazuli and the others.

“How can there be no aura on these people? Even I can’t feel any energy... And these red-haired people, they look exactly like Super Saiyan.”

Super Saiyan couldn’t hide his aura, so Vegeta believed this point.

Son Goku asked, “Your state is called ‘Super Saiyan God’. How do you cultivate it?”

What? They are also Super Saiyans?

Beretta could not help but tremble when he heard this, and his eyes revealed a look of disbelief.

The corners of Muqiu’s mouth twitched, and he revealed a smile. “To train the ‘Super Saiyan God’, you need to comprehend the realm. That is different from your so-called ‘Super Saiyan 4’ path. It is too difficult for you.”

Muqiu had a deep understanding of the hardships of the realm path. In this universe, the realm path was definitely more difficult than the simple path of strength. Of course, this was also decided by the environment. For example, in the entire universe, it was absolutely not easy to take the path of strength.

As long as the Super Saiyan 4 knew the trick, basically all the Super Saiyan people who reached the peak of Super Saiyan 2 could first pass through the Great Ape Transformation and then reach it. To put it bluntly, Super Saiyan 4 was actually a Super Saiyan in the giant ape form. In actual operation, as long as one overcame the beast form of the Great Ape, the difficulty would not be great.

However, the Super Saiyan God was different. Putting aside the non-existent Super Saiyan Red, if he wanted to truly reach the realm of Super Saiyan God, he could only bitterly cultivate and comprehend it. There was no other way.

This was basically impossible for Son Goku and the others who had never come into contact with the realm.

“So other than Super Saiyan 4, there are other ways to become stronger... but it is too difficult.” Son Goku had a bitter face. After truly understanding the concept of Super Saiyan God, he thought about it and realized that it was really impossible for him to comprehend it.

First of all, he could not conceal his aura in the state of a Super Saiyan, let alone a more mysterious and unknown concept of realms.

Just as Son Goku and the others were sighing over the mysteries of the Super Saiyan God, the battle between Amelia and Lazuli had come to an end. The strength of the Omega Shenron was the strongest in the entire universe, but when facing Amelia and the others, they could only swallow their hatred.

Why are these people so strong? The consciousness that the Black Smoke Shenron gave me does not have them... Could it be that they are from the higher realms?

The Omega Shenron had the ambition to rule the universe, but the strength of Amelia and the others gave him a head-on blow. Thinking that the other party might be from the higher realms, the Omega Shenron's face was stern and full of fear. These women were definitely from the God Realm.

“Damn it, didn't the gods of the upper realms never care about the affairs of the lower realms? Why would they suddenly intervene”

The Omega Shenron kept retreating. He instinctively felt threatened by Amelia and the others. If he continued to fight, he would definitely lose his life.

The Omega Shenron was a Black Smoke Shenron. Although it was a combination of negative energy, it was a life formed under the operation of the universe. Therefore, it had some understanding of the framework of the entire world. Above the vast universe, there was a magnificent God Realm. There were even more powerful people living there. It was just that the God Realm had always been indifferent to the matters of the lower realms.

Even if the universe was destroyed, the God Realm never interfered with the affairs of the lower realms.

This was the rule since ancient times.

Chapter 619

“I can feel the timidity in your heart. It seems that you, who are powerful, do not have a heart that can rival this strength. Your realm is far from that.” Amelia blinked her crystal-like red eyes and mocked.

Lazuli and Lasuli surrounded them from both sides. The battle just now only caused a slight injury to their clothes, and their pretty faces were not tired at all.

“No, I can't die here.” The Omega Shenron let out an angry roar, turned around, and fled into outer space.

At this time, Muqiu teleported to the top of the Omega Shenron. He cupped his fists and punched, and the Omega Shenron fell straight from the sky. With a long tail behind him, a gust of wind spread in all directions.

With a bang, the Omega Shenron hit the ground, and thick smoke rose up. Suddenly, a deep and horrible impact pit appeared on the ground. The Omega Shenron lay in the middle of the impact pit in a sorry state, and his whole body was buried by earth and stones.

“Great, the Omega Shenron is not their opponent at all.” Son Gohan and Son Goten revealed smiles after surviving a disaster.

“Who are they? Why haven’t I heard Supreme Kai mention them?” Piccolo had a puzzled expression.

There were a total of six people on the other side. Just three of them were able to defeat a Omega Shenron without being able to fight back. It could be imagined that the other three were not weak either. However, why had he never heard Supreme Kai mention them before?

Trunks and Pan had traveled in the universe for a year in search of the Black Star Dragon Ball, but they didn’t know the identities of Muqiu and the others.

“Those two women with golden hair look exactly the same as Android 18. Hey, Android 18, do you have any other sisters besides Android 17?”

Android 18 gazed into the distance and said snappily, “No, I only have Android 17 as my brother.”

However, when she looked at the two, even she herself suspected that there was no such person in the world. In the GT World, the relationship between Android 17 and Android 18 was that of the two siblings, not siblings. Moreover, Android 18 had short hair cut at this time. She still looked young and beautiful. Standing together with a gray-haired Krillin, she looked very disharmonious.

“Could it be that Android 18 in a parallel space is the same as the Trunks from back then?” Yamcha suggested a possibility.

“It must be like this,” Krillin tapped his palm.

Android 18 of the parallel space is actually so powerful. It looks like even Goku isn’t a match for them.

“...”

“Videl is actually an Android. It’s reasonable to say that he’s a bit powerful.”

They were certain that Lazuli and the others came from another parallel space, but the origins of Muqiu and the others could not be explained.

...

At this time, the Old Kai and Kibito Kai in Sacred World of the Kai pay close attention to the situation on Earth.

When he saw Amelia and the others surrounding the Omega Shenron, he wiped his eyes hard with a look of disbelief. “These people are so strong. Do they really come from another parallel space?”

Old Kai looked at the lower realm through the crystal ball. “Impossible. Even in other universes, it is impossible to give birth to such a powerful expert. They have a very profound temperament, which is definitely not something that ordinary people can have. Could it be that... they are from that legendary place?"

As the highest god in the universe, Old Kai vaguely knew that there were even higher level gods above them. Different from the entire universe, the Supreme Kai of this universe did not have a Level 8 Dimension, nor was he connected to the life of the God of Destruction. At best, he was a bit higher level than the Grand Kai of the entire universe, and he was unable to come into contact with the secrets of the top universe.

"Ancestor, look, there are changes on Earth again..." Kibito pointed at the crystal ball and shouted.

In the image that appeared in the crystal ball, the dim sky was suddenly illuminated by a dazzling golden light. Then, the clouds broke apart, and a dazzling, giant palace crossed the space and slowly descended. The momentum was extremely great.

"Something big has happened. It seems that a high-level god has arrived on Earth."

Old Kai's expression changed greatly. At this time, an infinitely heavy pressure suddenly came from the camera. The two of them were shocked, and they were pressed to the ground by the vast pressure.

"Ancestor..." Kibito panicked.

"Quick, follow me to Earth."

The level of the gods in the world of the Dragon Ball was distinct, and it could not be crossed between different levels. When they found out that there was an even higher level god descending, Old Kai and Kibito, who were the rulers of this universe, had to personally welcome him, even though they did not know who the god that descended into this universe was.

On Earth.

The God Mu Palace landed in the sky above the ruined city. Muiyang, Broly, and the others arrived late. When they came out of the palace, they saw the scene of Amelia and the other girls crushing the Omega Shenron.

"A few more people have appeared. Even Android 17 is among them. They must be from a parallel space."

The appearance of Android 17 made Yamcha believe in their judgment even more.

"Launch is also, and looks young. The man standing next to her looks a bit like Broly, but Broly obviously is much thinner than him."

"Strange, they don't have any aura on them."

The appearance of Muiyang and the others shocked everyone. Krillin and the others looked at the lofty palace in the air, and they were so nervous that they were speechless.

April flew to Melia's side and pointed to Omega Shenron. "That guy is the life of the Black Star Dragon Balls transformation?"

“Yes,” Son Goku replied.

April’s eyes lit up. She was very interested in negative substances. Her graceful figure flashed and she came to the side of Amelia and Lazuli. Her brown hair danced in the wind. “You guys retreat. Let me study this guy.”

“Okay, Mama April.”

“Yes, Auntie.”

Amelia and Lazuli listened to her words.

“Another strange guy came.” The Omega Shenron’s heart became more and more sad, and a strong uneasiness stirred his nerves.

The Omega Shenron, who was struggling to escape from Earth, let out a hysterical roar. Suddenly, it waved all its energy to attack April. The sharp whirlwind formed a storm, and the earth suddenly exploded.

“Uh...” April smiled and stretched out its palm, instantly transforming into the form of a Majin.

Peng, a sonic boom pierced through the air, and the attack stopped abruptly!

A slender palm was placed in front of the Omega Shenron’s fist, preventing him from moving forward at all.

“What”

Being stopped, the Omega Shenron was dumbfounded. His all-out attack had no effect.

“No, impossible...” The Omega Shenron could not believe it.

Even Super Saiyan 4 could not face his attack head-on. This strange woman in front of him was actually able to block it. Not good, then the Omega Shenron felt a trace of powerlessness. His power was being absorbed by the other party. He looked at the figure shining with pink and white light in horror, only to see that the other party was looking at him simperingly.

“The energy of the negative side is a bit similar to the energy of the majin. It’s a great supplement!”

April had a face full of expectation. She was happier than eating the dessert.

“Monster!” A strong sense of unwillingness welled up in his heart. The Omega Shenron struggled with all its might, but it was of no use. He could only watch as his energy flowed into the other party’s body.

“Cough...”

After burping, April completely absorbed the Omega Shenron. A hint of redness appeared on her fair face. She lifted her pink and white hair, and April contentedly removed her demon form.

“No way. The one-star dragon was actually absorbed.”

Son Goku was a little dumbfounded. He shivered all over and looked at April as if he had seen a demon.

A powerful expert like a Omega Shenron actually had no ability to resist in the hands of the woman in front of him! The whole person was completely absorbed. This extremely strong impact was fixed in their hearts. Who exactly was the other party?

His eyes turned to the always calm Muiyang. Son Goku's face was complicated.

These people were stronger than an Omega Shenron. If they wanted to harm Earth, they could not stop them at all. Fortunately, there were Launch and Android 18 in the crowd of people. They should not be evil people.

Chapter 620

The strength that April and Amelia displayed was shocking. The shock they caused to the Dragon Ball Warriors on Earth was extremely huge. It was only after the Omega Shenron was sucked in for a long time that everyone came back to their senses in shock. Their minds were still a little slow.

They carefully approached Muqiu and the others. Everyone looked at the majestic Lookout floating in the sky in shock. The Lookout in the Earth Heaven Realm was also very majestic, but compared to the Lookout in front of them, be it in shape or scale, it was extremely small.

“Grandpa!” Pan ran towards Son Goku in excitement.

Son Goku chuckled and patted his granddaughter's head. The death of the Omega Shenron had relieved him of his burden. His body had also returned to normal from the state of Super Saiyan 4. At this time, Son Hongye stared at the little girl in front of him. She was almost ten years old. She had black hair and a tender face. She was very similar to her daughter, Plaque.

“Auntie.” Pan was embarrassed by Son Hongye's stare. She blushed and called out.

Son Hongye was stunned for a moment. Pan was the daughter of Son Goku in this world. Other than the time and space relationship between him and Son Gohan, which was messy, this girl should be her niece.

“You look very similar to my daughter Plaque.” Son Hong and Plaque carried their daughter over. Pan looked at Plaque curiously, feeling very familiar.

“They really look alike!”

“Everyone, thank you for saving the world.” Piccolo coughed lightly and expressed his gratitude to Muiyang and the others.

Muiyang shook his head. “It's no big deal. We passed by this planet. Since we saw someone using power to bring disaster to the universe, we naturally can't pretend that we didn't see it. Getting rid of that evil dragon is just a matter of convenience.”

“No matter what, you guys have helped us greatly. If not for you guys appearing in time, the earth might have suffered a disaster.”

The Dragon Ball Warriors were terrified. With Son Goku and Vegeta's situation back then, it was basically impossible to defeat the Omega Shenron. The outcome was obvious. The Omega Shenron would destroy the entire world.

What they did not know was that even if Muiyang and the others did not appear, in order to defeat the Omega Shenron, Son Goku would not hesitate to merge with the Dragon Ball in exchange for a powerful force. Although the final outcome was to destroy the Omega Shenron, they had to leave the current universe with the gods and enter an unknown realm.

In short, Son Goku and the others were full of gratitude to Muiyang and the others, treating them as heroes who saved the earth.

“Are you from another parallel space?”

“And they... Are they the same me from another world?” Android 18 hesitated for a moment before walking up to Muiyang.

“You can put it that way, but there is still a fundamental difference between you and Lazuli and the others. They can train.”

Muiyang's words stunned Android 18. Android 18 nodded and said, “No wonder they are so much stronger than me.”

“The Androids of another world can actually cultivate. The power they displayed just now was even stronger than Goku.”

“I wonder how he train.”

“Perhaps it's because the universe is different.”

Everyone discussed animatedly. After figuring out the identity of the women, the original restraint naturally disappeared. Only, the eyes that looked at the women became curious. At this time, Piccolo invited Muiyang and the others to the Divine Hall as guests. Muiyang wanted to understand the situation of this world, so he readily agreed.

In the Divine Hall, Kami and Mr. Popo waited for a long time. After Muiyang and the others arrived, they took out tea to entertain them.

After going through many battles, Earth finally welcomed its final peace.

After the lesson of abusing the dragon bead, the reconstruction work would be done by manpower. Even with Earth's current technology, wanting to rebuild Earth was a huge project. It was estimated that it would take a long time.

“I noticed the young man standing next to Launch just now. He looks like a person called 'Broly'. Is he Launch's husband? By the way, is Launch married?” Son Goku paid attention to Broly for a long time.

“He is Broly, Launch's husband.”

“What? It really is Broly, but his aura is completely different from that of our world’s Broly...” Everyone was shocked. The Broly they had met before was completely a madman. Anyone who saw him would go crazy and attack. Usually, he looked like a drug addict who had taken drugs. He did not have the strong appearance of the man in front of him at all.

Moreover, Launch was actually with Broly!

These two people were completely unrelated to each other. Son Goku sighed and began to be interested in other worlds. It seemed that the other worlds were completely different from them. Not only were there mysterious Super Saiyan Gods, but even their social encounters were different.

I really want to go over and take a look!

Then, the two sides gathered in the Divine Hall and chatted about their respective information.

Lazuli and Lasuli were more curious about the situation of Android 18, so they gathered together and learned about her and Krillin from Android 18, while Son Hongye was more interested in Son Goku and his brother.

“Really, you are Half-God Level... To be honest, how can there be so few super Saiyan 4 experts here? Logically speaking, with Son Gohan and Son Goten’s potential, they should be able to transform. If there were a few more Super Saiyan 4, they wouldn’t have to put in so much effort to fight against the Shadow Dragon.”

Son Hongye sat opposite Son Goku with his daughter Plaque in his arms.

Son Gohan said awkwardly, “I only want to become a scholar. I haven’t trained for many years.”

“The Black Star Dragon Ball incident a year ago didn’t wake you up? Danger lurks everywhere in the universe. Strength is the most important thing.” Son Hongye frowned. With such a huge threat in front of them, could they all live peacefully?

“You obviously have talent that ordinary people can’t reach, but you waste your talent. If you two continue like this, you will be hopeless.”

Son Hongye placed all his hopes on Son Goku and Vegeta. To be reasonable, Son Hongye was very disappointed with the Son brothers in this world.

It seemed that in the GT World, other than cheering from the side, they would not play any other role at all. Even when Son Goku was seriously injured and in trouble, he did not know to go forward to help. Sometimes, he would even stop other people’s help. It was a good name to believe Son Goku, but he did not know that doing this would make everyone fall into a desperate situation.

Listening to Son Hongye’s straightforward reprimand, Son Gohan and Son Goten’s faces were flushed and they were particularly ashamed.

“You are right.”

“Auntie, Dad and the others know their mistakes.” Pan had been nurtured by Son Goku since she was a child, so her love for martial arts was even stronger than Son Goku and the others.

Son Hongye glanced at Son Gohan and his brother with disdain. “Your understanding is not even comparable to a little girl.”

After all, they were actually a brother of different dimensions. Son Hongye still gave them some face. At this moment, the Divine Hall shone with a light. Old Kai and Kibito came to the Divine Hall Square. As soon as they appeared, they prostrated themselves in front of Muiyang.

“The God has come to this world, and this little God has come to greet you.”

“Old Kai and Kibito...” Muiyang glanced at the respectful expressions of the two Supreme Kai, his divine sense swept over them, and he clearly understood their situation.

In the GT World, Supreme Kai didn't have an apprentice in the Universe 7. His dimension was only a little higher than the Grand Kai and had yet to reach the Level 7 Dimension.

Perhaps it was because there were too many universes in the Red King World, but the number of top level gods in a single universe was not very high.
