Chapter 2191

Pierre was raving mad at Luca when he thought of the suffering he went through because of her. He wanted to take revenge right there, right then.

However, he could not afford to act recklessly in that situation.

After all, they were in Luke's territory. The explanation that he promised Luke previously had not been made.

No matter how much money he offered, no one in the company was willing to be the scapegoat.

Mr. Peralta knew what was coming and opted to resign immediately.

Pierre looked stern as he sat beside Old Master Mallory.

"Who is this?" Old Master Mallory's tone was unfriendly. He looked at Luca with contempt.

Luca frowned. She had met Madam Mallory and thought that her arrogant and domineering appearance was not at all like the demeanor of a lady.

After she met Old Master Mallory, she finally understood that Madam Mallory's arrogance came from him.

Old Master Mallory and Old Master Crawford were from the same era. They should be about the same age. However, the person in front of her had a completely different temperament compared to Old Master Crawford.

"You!" Pierre clenched his fists.

"Pierre." Old Master Mallory shook his head, indicating that he should not be impulsive. It was a long time ago, so they could not pursue it even if they wanted to. Luke had Luca's back, so they could not do anything about it.

They were there because of Percy.

"Ms. Craw, we didn't come here today to talk about the past. After all, the police can't find anything, so it's useless for us to bring up the matter. I'll get straight to the point. We know Nina is here. Hand her over and that's where your involvement ends." Old Master Mallory's tone was still somewhat polite.

After all, the Mallory family still owed the Crawford family an explanation. No matter how this woman was involved with Luke, her living here meant that Luke would back her. He did not want any unnecessary trouble.

"You're not here to pick a fight? It's hard to think so looking at your expression." Luca picked up the teacup and took a sip of the tea. Her expression was elegant.

She did her best to look calm when faced with Old Master Mallory, who appeared strong and tough.

She should not be afraid of anyone who Luke was not afraid of.

know if I'm talking nonsense. Old Master Mallory, I'm not sure if you know about Nina's past and who caused all the hurt that she had to go through?" Luca raised her hand and pointed at Pierre. "He colluded with Julian, kidnapped Nina, then imprisoned and tortured her inhumanly. He impregnated her but forced her to abort the child. Do you think that Nina went through all that willingly? The Mallory family has done bad things and paid people off to escape the punishment of the law. How can you stand in front of the public and join them in accusing Nina of being unworthy of Percy? Who was the one who ruined her life? It's your good grandson, Pierre! Let me make this clear, Nina is here in this house, but no one is allowed to take
