Chapter 111: Jiang Beichen Testing Xiao Changtian i

Mu Jiu Huang had once sent people to investigate, but the origin of the black wind could only be determined to be a normal weather scene, even if they knew that the weather was abnormal.

“Black Wind Town...”

Xiao Changtian looked at the three bright red words on the archway of the town. His face was filled with doubt as he muttered.

In his previous life, he had often heard the name Black Wind.

Usually, it was a place where people robbed or bandits gathered. He always felt that this place was not safe.

“Jiu ‘er, did something happen in this place?” Xiao Changtian looked at Mu Jiu Huang.

“Something? It was just that every evening, a black wind would blow...The rest is nothing.” Mu Jiu Huang replied after thinking for a moment.

At first, she had thought that this black wind was some kind of demon cultivating. Moreover, to be able to spit out such a level of black fog, it was at least a king-level demon beast.

The Nine Phoenix Empire was not only a cultivation organization, the number one human organization on the Tian Yuan Continent. It also governed many mortal empires.

These empires were formed by mortals and were not much different from the royal families of the ancient Blue Star.

The Tian Yuan Continent was vast, and mortals made up nine-tenths of the human population.

Therefore, the dynasty was naturally in charge of maintaining order.

However, in the world of cultivation, the strong were respected. If a mortal dynasty wanted to establish itself and not be killed by any random cultivation sect, it could only rely on a large faction.

Originally, the factions that these empires relied on were relatively scattered. However, after the establishment of the Nine Phoenix Dynasty, countless mortal empires in the world all relied on it because the Nine Phoenix Dynasty was a true immortal cultivation sect that worked for mortals.

Back when Black Wind Town reported the matter of Black Wind to the Nine-Phoenix Dynasty, Mu Jiuhuang had even paid attention to it personally. If it was a great demon that harmed mortals, she would have to take action personally.

However, he did not find anything after that. It was extremely strange.

“Black Wind?”

Xiao Changtian was slightly startled. He was bewildered. Could it be a monster?

There were monsters in the world of cultivation.

Forget it, I won't go out after evening...

“Alright, let's find an inn to stay in.” Xiao Changtian said lightly.

Originally, Mu Jiuhuang wanted to invite Xiao Changtian to head to the Nine Phoenix Dynasty.

But Xiao Changtian shook his head.” I’ll go to your hometown later. I have other things to do now.””

He was prepared to wait for the data to be opened and for the Changsheng Bookstore to gain a reputation in the Victorious East Region before following Mu Jiuhuang to his hometown.

He remembered that when Mu Jiuhuang first came to his courtyard, she was dressed like a woman from a wealthy family.

What if he knew that he was an ordinary mortal and suffered the revenge of the Mu family?

He had signed a contract with Jiu ’er back then. Jiu’ er had voluntarily given up her salary and worked for him.

He simply referred to himself as a freeloader!

If the Mu family knew about this, they would say that he was black-hearted.

Thus, they settled down in an inn. Xiao Changtian was not short of money now.

Each of them had a room above them.

He spent a total of ten copper coins...

“Senior, why don’t we change to a better inn? Isn’t this place too shabby?”Chu Yiren said with a hint of disdain. She could even smell a sour stench in the space. It seemed to be athlete’s foot...

“No need. This place is quite good. Compared to my previous small courtyard, the conditions are not too bad. Look, there’s a bed.”

Xiao Changtian explained.

Alright, he admitted that he did it to save money. After all, in his previous life, he had already been overwhelmed by the mortgage and car loans. He was afraid of being poor...

This money should be saved as much as possible. He must not waste it.

Seeing that everyone was still frowning, Xiao Changtian's brain worked quickly and he said, "This is a shabby house, but I am virtuous! Moss Scar Upper Grade Green, Grass..."

Xiao Changtian directly recited the ancient lines from the Humble Room Inscription.

This was the only way to explain things.

"I'm a lowly and vassal."

"Weiwu De Xin..."

As Xiao Changtian's voice fell, Mu Jiuhuang and the others instantly muttered, still reminiscing...

Pa!

Following the heavy sound of the door closing, Xiao Changtian had already entered the room and closed the door.

He was afraid that if he continued to explain, there would be no way to explain.

"Senior is indeed an expert. Even though you're playing around in the mortal world and refining your heart in the mortal world, you're still able to temper your mentality to such a high level."

The Great Sun Immortal shook his head immediately, feeling ashamed of his inferiority!

Mu Jiu Huang nodded.

Only Chu Yiren still had a look of disdain on her face. "Senior didn't come to this inn to save money, right?"

Chu Yiren frowned, but she shook her head immediately. "What am I thinking? Senior is this kind of person?"

Everyone walked into their own rooms.

At the same time.

The young man who had followed them walked into the store with a look of disdain.

"Are you going to jump the line or stay...?"

However, before the shopkeeper could finish his sentence, he saw the young man in front of him holding a waist token. The waist token was engraved with a golden dragon totem.

"Too... Your Highness!" The shopkeeper immediately knelt down.

This waist token was the North Moon Empire's royal waist token proof!

Furthermore, the dragon totem on it was five-clawed. In the entire North Moon Empire, other than the North Moon Emperor, there was only the current Crown Prince, the rumored trash Crown Prince.

However, the Crown Prince was useless. That was the Crown Prince's business.

If he dared to provoke the Crown Prince, he would only end up dead.

“What room did the four of them stay in? They arranged for me to stay next to them.” The young man said indifferently and slowly put away his waist token.

“Yes.” The shopkeeper hurriedly agreed.

Thus, the North Moon Crown Prince, Jiang Beichen, stayed beside Xiao Changtian’s room.

“It’s rumored that during the battle of the Western Bull Continent, the genius of the Ye clan, Ye Fan, became famous and became the number one person in the Western Bull Continent...”

“This is the last year of this prince’s golden age of Immortal Cultivation.”

“In order not to be roped in by the cultivation sects, I have disguised myself as a good-for-nothing that everyone knows. I have missed several years of the golden cultivation age...”

“Originally, I wanted to imitate the Nine Phoenix Matriarch’s dao, but it’s rumored that Ye Fan’s cultivation is not inferior to the Nine Phoenix Matriarch’s. In such a short period of time, Ye Fan’s supreme being bone was dug out, and then he was born with an invincible appearance. There must be an expert guiding him from behind!”

“Unfortunately, everyone in the Western Bull Continent is blocking the news of that expert...”

“I wonder if the person who commented on the Nine Phoenix Matriarch’s calligraphy today is an expert or if he’s just pointing out the problem with the calligraphy...Forget it, we’ll know after the first test tomorrow.”

“But this test requires a sense of propriety.”

“First this, then that...”

Jiang Beichen already had a plan in his mind.

He was prepared to...

Chapter 112: Two Men Enter the Room (1)

The next morning.

Xiao Changtian got up early, but he didn't go out for a walk. The sky outside was a little gloomy. In addition to the black wind that Mu Jiu Huang had mentioned earlier,

Xiao Changtian felt that it was better to stay in the inn.

At noon, he went to contact the local printing workshop.

"Master, breakfast is ready."

After a short while, Mu Jiu Huang brought breakfast over. Then, she fed the green-haired turtle and the others.

"Jiu 'er, I'll give you a break during this period of time. You can do what you want to do." Xiao Changtian said as he ate his breakfast.

The Victorious East Continent was Jiu 'er's hometown, so it was a good opportunity for Jiu 'er to make a trip home.

"Do what I want to do?" Mu Jiu Huang was slightly taken aback. Senior, could it be that you want me to look for the Black Sky Sect's Sect Master these few days?

As expected, Senior had planned everything.

Mu Jiuhuang nodded and replied.

“Right, remember not to mention me.”Xiao Changtian added.

What if Jiu ‘er said that he had also come to the Victorious East Continent and the Mu Clan came to surround him? What should he do?

Even if he was reasonable, he could not explain it clearly. At that time, Jiu ‘er wanted to be his maidservant wholeheartedly. He did not want to take her in.

“Yes.” Mu Jiuhuang nodded.

Mu Jiuhuang finished feeding the turtles and Xiao Changtian finished his breakfast. Mu Jiuhuang bade farewell to Chu Yiren and Dayang Town.

“Follow this person and see where she is going.”Watching Mu Jiuhuang leave, Jiang Beichen, who was in another room, said to a guard who had just rushed over.

This guard was someone that the North Moon Emperor had paid a huge price to hire to protect Jiang Beichen’s life.

He was a Golden Elixir realm expert.

However, ever since he found out that Jiang Beichen had a cultivation talent that would not appear in ten thousand years, this expert volunteered to follow Jiang Beichen because Jiang Beichen’s future was definitely bright.

“Yes.”

The ninth-stage Golden Core expert followed Mu Jiu Huang.

Although the Nine Phoenix Matriarch's name resounded throughout the entire continent, many people had no idea that they had never seen her before.

Those who knew the Nine Phoenix Matriarch were basically all tribulation passing cultivators.

The Great Sun Immortal had not met him by chance before.

"Next, let me test your depth." Jiang Beichen watched as the guards left. He then stood up and prepared to execute his plan.

Inside the room.

Xiao Changtian was thinking about how to make a genius who was determined by his talent in cultivation become his disciple.

This was much more difficult than opening a bookstore.

"This is very difficult. We can only take it step by step."

"Dog system, you're really a dog..."

Xiao Changtian cursed in his heart. He had no idea why a genius with the highest cultivation talent would want to be his disciple.

For what?

Great success in painting and calligraphy?

Sigh...

"It doesn't seem impossible." Suddenly, Xiao Changtian's eyes lit up.

That's right, he had neglected a condition. That was, this genius, who was determined by his cultivation talent, did not have to learn to cultivate to become his master!

She could be his art tutor...

Music, chess, calligraphy, painting, cooking, tea art, brewing wine, carving, forging... He was proficient in all eighteen martial arts.

Becoming a disciple didn't necessarily mean that one had to cultivate.

"System, does this count as accepting a disciple?" In order to prevent the system from denying it, Xiao Changtian even asked again.

After a full 15 minutes, the system gave a "ding" sound, obviously agreeing.

"Then this will be much easier." Xiao Changtian was instantly filled with confidence.

"However, how do I know if the other party is a genius cultivator?" Xiao Changtian asked again.

"Ding! The system would automatically notify him when he discovered a genius with extraordinary cultivation talent." The system's voice sounded again.

"I see." Xiao Changtian nodded.

Dong dong dong...

At this moment, someone knocked on the door.

“Come in.” Xiao Changtian, who was taking out a brush and preparing to write, heard the knock on the door. He thought it was the Great Sun Immortal and let him in.

“Ding! He had discovered a genius who was extremely talented in cultivation.”

Xiao Changtian, who was writing, suddenly heard the system notification. He was delighted. Could it be that the genius had appeared near the inn?

“Perfected Great Sun, please follow me to find...”

Xiao Changtian opened his mouth, wanting to invite the Great Sun Immortal to find that genius.

Things would be easier now that he had found her!

However, the moment he raised his head, he was stunned.

Who was this person? It wasn't the Great Sun Immortal!

“And you are?” Xiao Changtian looked at this young man with sword-like eyebrows and starry eyes. He walked with an indescribable noble air. He was obviously a young master from a big family or a big force.

“I'm Jiang Beichen!”

Jiang Beichen replied calmly, his gaze sweeping across Xiao Changtian's room.

A turtle, an old hen, a dog, a white cat, and a bear...

He immediately frowned.

Why did this person bring so many animals with him?

Could this person really be a mortal?

However, mortals did not carry so many strange animals with them.

Jiang Beichen was extremely confused. His face was filled with disbelief as his gaze finally fell on the calligraphy on Xiao Changtian's desk.

As for the Black Tortoise and the other beasts, they glanced at Jiang Beichen with a serious expression.

"Jiang Beichen?"

Xiao Changtian silently recited this name in his heart. Very good. It seemed that the genius determined by the cultivation talent mentioned by the system was Jiang Beichen.

"Why are you looking for me?" Xiao Changtian asked indifferently. He didn't reveal all his eighteen weapons immediately.

He still knew how to play hard to get.

Anyone would be wary if he rashly proposed to take the other party as a disciple.

Only by slowly revealing his abilities and letting Jiang Beichen dig out bit by bit could he make the other party willingly acknowledge him as his master before he admired him.

“There’s a cabinet in my room that’s too much of a hindrance. I can’t move it alone. I wonder if I can ask you for help?”

Jiang Beichen said.

In fact, the Golden Core Cultivator had already set up an array in his room.

As long as he was a cultivator, he would be able to detect it. The detection stone was now in his palm.

When mortals enter a room, the room will be lit up with a white light.

As for the Immortal Cultivators, they would light up with a green light when they entered...

As long as Xiao Changtian was invited in, if he was an immortal cultivator and dared to give pointers to the Nine Phoenix Great Emperor’s calligraphy, it proved that he must be an expert!

Stronger than the Nine Phoenix Matriarch!

He had directly taken her as his master on the spot!

No matter what, he had to beg the expert to accept him.

If it was a mortal, it would just be a farce...

“Alright.”

Xiao Changtian agreed. The first step of taking in a disciple was to establish a relationship between the two parties.

Soon, Jiang Beichen led Xiao Changtian into the room..

Chapter 113: Is He Really a Mortal? !

Xiao Changtian and Jiang Beichen were two men, one in front and one behind...He walked into the room.

Compared to Xiao Changtian's room, Jiang Beichen's room was more luxurious. The walls were inlaid with crystals, and even the floor was paved with marble, making it look shiny.

Most importantly, there was a luminous pearl!

The light was extremely obvious, and the field of vision was extremely wide.

"Whether it's a mortal or an expert, we'll know soon enough." Jiang Beichen stared at the gemstone in his hand with anticipation.

He hoped that the gemstone could light up with a red light so that he could learn to cultivate from an expert.

Jiang Beichen stared at the gemstone in his hand.

However, after a few breaths, the gemstone did not change at all. It did not work at all.

Neither the white light used to detect mortals nor the red light used to detect cultivators lit up.

"There are no cabinets in this room?"

It was only when Xiao Changtian turned his head and asked in puzzlement that Jiang Beichen quickly averted his gaze and smiled sheepishly.

“Maybe the waiter from before moved it away for me, waiter!”

Jiang Beichen shouted downstairs. He had already informed the waiter beforehand that he would only need to wait for Jiang Beichen’s signal to answer.

“Oh, I’ve moved your cabinet down for you. I’ll change it to a bigger one later.”

The waiter pretended to be serious and did not reveal any flaws.

Seeing her acting skills, Jiang Beichen nodded in relief.

“I’m sorry for making you come all the way here for nothing. This is just a small token of my appreciation. Please don’t stand on ceremony.” Jiang Beichen took out a piece of gold from his sleeve and handed it to Xiao Changtian.

This was also his first step of probing.

There had been no changes in the formation just now, and Jiang Beichen was at a loss.

However, after thinking about it, he came up with a way to test Xiao Changtian.

And that was to pay!

Gold!

” All Immortal Cultivators regard gold as dirt in the secular world. It’s impossible for them to accept it, and they don’t even bother to accept it.” “As long as you accept it, you’ll be a mortal!”

“Since you’re a mortal, this piece of gold will be my apology. Apologize for your probing.”

Jiang Beichen thought to himself as he stared into Xiao Changtian’s eyes.

“Then it would be a great honor.” Xiao Changtian was delighted when he saw the gold.

He didn’t expect this young master to be so generous.

In his previous life, there were also a few second-generation young masters on the Blue Star who were generous and spent thousands of dollars.

It seemed like that was indeed the case!

After a simple farewell, Xiao Changtian returned to his room. Looking at the gold in his hand, he was extremely satisfied.

He could get a piece of gold just by doing a favor, not to mention that he hadn’t even contributed. He didn’t even dare to think that such a good thing could exist in the world.

Now he believed it.

Watching Xiao Changtian leave, the man returned to his room and sat on the crystal chair with a frown.

“I can’t? Was this the array that had been tested several times before? Could it be that the spirit stones have been used up?”

Puzzled, Jiang Beichen opened a dark box on the table. It was the array core.

A milky-white crystal that was glowing with a clear light lay quietly in the center of the formation.

It was the core of the formation.

Now there are still more than half of the spirit stones in the army.

“Then what’s the problem? Is the array broken? It’s not working?” Puzzled, Jiang Beichen tested it several times at his own door.

He walked in, walked out, and walked in again...

He tried it over a dozen times, and every time, the crystal would emit a white glow.

The white light lit up, proving that he was indeed a mortal.

“What’s the situation now?” Jiang Beichen was puzzled.

However, when he thought about it and took out the gold, Xiao Changtian’s eyes revealed a trace of joy.

That joy came from the gold.

However, it lacked greed.

This was very strange...

“All the probing is still ambiguous. We still need to probe...”

Xiao Changtian’s eyes darkened as he thought of a new plan.

At the same time.

Outside Black Wind Town, something strange happened today.

The black fog became thicker again, as if someone had knocked over an ink bottle. The black wind whistled and blocked their vision.

Even the roof of the house seemed to have the sound of tiles being blown.

“Everyone, quickly return to your rooms and hide.”

The innkeeper shouted loudly, and many of the innkeepers hurriedly ran back to their rooms and stayed in their rooms seriously.

Xiao Changtian was also surprised when he saw this.

“Could there be some demon causing trouble? It was safer to stay with the Great Sun Immortal.”

Xiao Changtian grabbed the tortoise and white tiger with each hand, the remaining old hen, Alpha, and Fatty Rongrong followed Xiao Changtian to the front of Daoist Big Sun’s room.

“Senior?”

The Great Sun Immortal, who was staring at the black fog with a frown, heard Xiao Changtian calling him to open the door. He quickly got up and opened the door.

“Senior, what are you doing?”

Seeing Xiao Changtian bring the Black Tortoise and the other divine beasts, he was confused.

“This black fog is not simple. I’ll go to your room first.”Xiao Changtian said lightly.

The Great Sun Immortal was a big shot in immortal cultivation. Even if there were any demons causing trouble, it would be safe for him to follow the Great Sun Immortal.

“This black fog is not simple? Senior, you mean...”

The Great Sun Immortal muttered in his heart.

When he was staring at this black wind, he sensed a dangerous aura.

Currently, he was in the Incarnation Realm.

To be able to make him feel threatened, it must be at least a powerhouse in the Heavenly Arrival State.

Could it be that this black wind was created by a demon beast?

So Senior thought that I was in danger, so he came to my room to protect my life?

“Senior is such a mighty person, but you are willing to do this for me. I, Great Sun, will give my life to you!”

“From now on, if Senior wants me to climb a mountain of blades or enter a sea of fire, I won’t even blink.”

The eyes of the Great Sun Immortal’s old face sparkled with excitement.

When Xiao Changtian entered the room of the Great Sun Immortal and told him that the black wind was not simple, he was coincidentally seen by Jiang Beichen, who had pushed open the door.

Instantly.

Jiang Beichen shook his head.

“If he’s a real Immortal Cultivator, what’s so scary about a mere Black Wind?”

“Looks like this person is really a mortal! It’s my wishful thinking.”

Jiang Beichen sighed and closed the door again. He returned to his room and considered leaving Black Wind Town as soon as his subordinates returned. He would head to the West Bull Continent to look for Ye Fan. If he could become Ye Fan’s disciple, that would be his opportunity.

However, as soon as he entered the room, a pair of green eyes stared at him coldly....

Chapter 114: Quickly Run, the Black Wind Demons Are Not to Be Trifled With!_i

What kind of eyes were those?

It emitted a faint green light. The green light was terrifying and carried endless killing intent. It was as if a vicious wolf was staring at its prey, making Jiang Beichen feel as if he had fallen into an ice cave.

Outside his window, a huge demonic beast was staring at him through the window.

The two green eyeballs were half the size of the room.

“You... What kind of demonic beast are you?”

Jiang Beichen turned pale with fright. He was still a mortal. He had no way to fight back against the demonic beasts. He could only be controlled and devoured.

However, he was not someone who was willing to wait for death.

He placed his hands behind his back. His white robe fluttered in the wind, and his expression was calm.

It looked like he was calmly waiting for death.

In fact, he was taking out the magic treasure that the Golden Core guard had given him from his ring.

This dharma treasure was the Golden Core guard's natal dharma treasure. It could withstand the attack of a Divine Transformation Realm expert with all its strength.

Jiang Beichen did not want to die. He still had a lot of time. He possessed a talent that only appeared once every ten thousand years. He wanted to embark on the path of martial arts and reach the peak of the Immortal Dao!

He could not die!

"Coo coo!"

Outside the window, the huge flying demon beast roared in a low voice. It stretched out its thick claws that were like the trunk of a tree. With a light tap, the array in front of the window was broken.

At the same time, another claw clawed at Jiang Beichen.

It was a monster, and it usually hid its body, transforming into a human and hiding in the crowd.

Therefore, no one discovered it.

However, when Jiang Beichen arrived yesterday, it immediately stared at him. It sensed the cultivation talent and bloodline in Jiang Beichen's body.

Therefore, he directly created a black wind to block everyone's vision.

Now, only Jiang Beichen could see it.

"Human, obediently let me devour you. I will help you use this body of yours to the extreme."

In Jiang Beichen's mind, the monster's cold and greedy voice rang out.

"In your dreams!"

Jiang Beichen frowned, his expression determined. Steeling his heart, he produced an icy blue ice needle in his hand. With a flick of his wrist, it flew out.

Although he had yet to start cultivating, he still knew some basic martial arts.

"I hope this demon's realm isn't too high."

Jiang Beichen thought to himself as he looked at the flying needles.

Although he was nervous, Jiang Beichen was still very confident in the flying needles given by his guards.

After all, being able to follow a cultivation genius like him would definitely bring that guard unparalleled benefits in the future.

The flying needle shot out and turned into a cold light. Its speed was extremely fast, like a cold light flashing across the sky, causing a sonic boom in the space.

In an instant, it stabbed into the head of the flying demonic beast.

Jiang Beichen was overjoyed.

He had actually stabbed it! That was great!

The silver needle that could kill an Incarnation Realm expert could severely injure the demon beast even if it couldn't kill it!

During this period of time, he could use it to escape.

However, the next scene made his heart sink.

With a crack, the ice-blue silver needle instantly shattered into countless ice shards.

"How is that possible? Diremonsters that are above the Incarnation Realm?"

Jiang Beichen was in complete despair. He could only close his eyes and wait for his death.

"My life is over!" Jiang Beichen said dejectedly. If he had known earlier, he would have cultivated earlier and entered the immortal sect.

Who would have thought that his one-in-a-million cultivation talent would actually be devoured by a flying demon beast today?

He could already feel an extremely cold claw clawing at him.

He held his breath and waited for death!

"Boom!"

However, at this moment, a silent voice sounded. It seemed that the ground was trembling.

The claw that was approaching him seemed to have disappeared, and its aura was getting further and further away.

Jiang Beichen could not help but open his eyes.

Only then did he see that two cultivators were passing by and happened to see the demon harming people. They immediately attacked and sent the demon beast flying.

“Your Highness, don’t worry. With us here, this demonic beast won’t be able to hurt you.”

The two middle-aged cultivators said.

“Thank you, Xuanjia and Daoist Xuanyi.” Jiang Beichen was overjoyed. The middle-aged cultivator in front of him was an elder of the Xuantian Sect, an immortal sect that was on good terms with the North Moon Empire. His strength was at the Saint Realm.

It was extremely terrifying.

It could definitely subdue demonic beasts.

“Roar!”

“You’ve angered me!”

The demon was sent flying. It jumped up angrily and roared angrily. Its body enlarged, revealing its true appearance.

Immediately after, a violent aura was like a storm. It opened its bloody mouth like a black hole, and a huge suction force seemed to want to devour everything in the world.

“What is it? This demonic beast’s cultivation level was tribulation transcendence!”

Elder Xuan Jia and Elder Xuan Yi were instantly shocked. They immediately looked at each other and apologized to Jiang Beichen. They were about to escape.

However, before Jiang Beichen could finish listening to their conversation, the two elders, Xuan Jia and Xuan Yi, were instantly swallowed by the demons that had erupted.

Blood splattered everywhere!

The two Saint Realm experts were directly torn into pieces by the demon’s mouth.

It was only then that Jiang Beichen finally saw the true face of the monster.

It was a huge boa that was a thousand feet long!

Its entire body was pitch-black and covered in pitch-black scales. On its body, there were even two ugly claws.

The huge boa opened its bloody mouth and swallowed the two Saint Realm experts.

“Hehe, these two people suddenly ambushed me and caught me off guard. Do they really think they’re my match?”

The giant boa waved its claws and shouted angrily, its voice echoing in Jiang Beichen’s mind.

This time, Jiang Beichen was truly in despair. This giant boa could even devour a Saint Realm expert, let alone a mortal like him.

Unless an expert came to save him!

After experiencing the ups and downs of his emotions, Jiang Beichen did not know how to face the giant boa.

In a trance, he seemed to see a handsome young man walking over with a medicine box on his shoulder. The muscles on his body were extremely clear and orderly, and his posture was still.

However, there was no aura fluctuation around him.

“A mortal? He seemed to be picking herbs. He must have lost his way in the black wind.” Jiang Beichen thought.

“Forget it. I’m going to die anyway. I’ll save as many as I can.”

Jiang Beichen looked at the handsome young man. He was still nearly a thousand meters away from where he was. As long as he could stall for a while longer, he should be able to let the young man escape.

Immediately, Jiang Beichen wanted to remind the young man to run away.

“Leave quickly, there are demons here! Run!”

Jiang Beichen shouted anxiously.

However, the young man seemed to have not heard him and continued walking in that direction..

Chapter 115: Isn't It Just an Earthworm? !

The young man was getting closer and closer. A faint smile hung on his handsome and resolute face.

...

If it wasn't Wang Miaoshou who had rushed to the East Victory Continent to pick the herbs, who else could it be?

"It's over."

That was the only thought in Jiang Beichen's mind when he saw Wang Miaoshou walking over.

Even two Saint Realm experts had been swallowed. Moreover, the two Saints had said that this was a tribulation transcending demon.

Tribulation Transcendence was an existence that stood at the peak of the entire continent.

So what if a mere mortal didn't die?

"Forget it, I tried to persuade you, but you didn't listen. Even if you die, you can't blame me."

Jiang Beichen closed his eyes and waited for death for the third time.

However, as soon as he closed his eyes, an extremely frequent sound of attacks rang out. It was as if a hammer was hammering. It even seemed that the painful screams of the demonic beast could be heard.

What was going on?

Jiang Beichen opened his eyes again.

This time, it was as if he had been struck by lightning and was stunned on the spot.

He saw the handsome man waving his fist and punching the huge boa, making a hammering sound.

The sound was extremely violent, as if the earth was shaking.

The hundred-foot-long boa was unable to withstand the barrage of fists, and its body kept rolling and struggling on the ground.

However, Wang Miaoshou's other hand was firmly gripping the huge boa. No matter how the huge boa rolled, it was unable to escape.

"Hiss hiss hiss!"

Within a few breaths, the huge boa had turned into the size of an earthworm. It let out a painful scream and then fainted.

"Flaha, not bad medicinal ingredients." Wang Miaoshou picked up the "little earthworm" and put it into her medicine box. She smiled faintly.

"Hiss ~!"

This time, it was Jiang Beichen's turn to let out a hissing sound. He sucked in a breath of cold air and stood rooted to the ground for a long time, not daring to move.

It was too terrifying!

This mortal...No, a mighty figure actually used his fist to knock out a huge tribulation passing boa?

Heavens!

Moreover, through the window, he could vaguely see that the expert seemed to have walked into this inn and was about to go upstairs.

Jiang Beichen only snapped out of his daze after a long while and hurriedly turned around to open the door.

He wanted to thank this senior for saving his life. Without this senior, he would already be a dead soul in the mouth of the giant boa.

However, when he opened the door, Jiang Beichen was even more shocked!

“Master, I’m here to pick herbs.”

Wang Miaoshou stood respectfully in front of the room of the Great Sun Immortal and called out respectfully to the young man whom he had tested earlier.

“It’s fine. It’s good that you’re here.” Xiao Changtian said lightly. The black wind outside the window had just dispersed. His disciple should not be in danger.

“Master, I found a medicinal catalyst. Can you see if it can be used to make the Zhuang Yang Pill in the prescription?”

As Wang Miaoshou spoke, he took out the ‘little earthworm’ that the huge tribulation transcending boa had transformed into and humbly asked for advice.

“Let me see.”

Xiao Changtian stared at the little earthworm and observed it for a while. He nodded and said, “It’s possible, but it’s still a little lacking. The effect will be greatly reduced.”

According to the records in the prescription, it was best to use a flood python to refine this pill.

The little earthworm was much weaker.

“Yes.”

Wang Miaoshou nodded respectfully. He originally thought that a first level Tribulation Transcendence boa should be enough. However, according to his master, it was indeed not enough! The medicinal effect could not be exerted to its maximum extent.

“Hiss!”

Jiang Beichen sucked in a breath of cold air again and hurriedly closed the door that had a small gap in it.

He slumped to the ground. The shock in his heart was indescribable.

The mortal carrying the medicine box was a Tribulation Transcendence realm expert. He had even killed a Tribulation Transcendence realm giant boa with a pair of fists.

However, the mortal he had tested earlier was actually the master of such a senior.

In other words, that senior was at least a high-level Dujie expert.

In addition, that senior said that a huge boa at the Tribulation Transcendence realm was not enough to be used as a medicinal catalyst. There were also the three words that judged the Nine Phoenix Matriarch previously...

“Could it be that this senior is a Mahayana cultivator?!”

Jiang Beichen was instantly overjoyed. His face was filled with pleasant surprise. If that was really the case, then wouldn’t he have found an opportunity?

Immediately.

Jiang Beichen calmed his emotions and wanted to go out and find that senior to take him as his master.

To be able to follow by the side of a Dacheng senior, this was a supreme opportunity.

At this moment.

Xiao Changtian pinched the earthworm and thought for a while. He decided to forget about it. It was too small. It was not enough to fill the gaps between his teeth.

“Whoever gets it will get it.”

Xiao Changtian directly threw the ‘little earthworm’ on the ground and let Black Tortoise, Phoenix and the others go to snatch it.

“Coo coo coo!”

The old hen immediately cried out and was about to fight for it.

However, the green-haired turtle was not inferior.

Even Alpha, who had never fought for anything, joined the ranks.

Wang Miaoshou watched this scene and felt cold sweat run down his back. He was silently mourning for the giant boa.

This was Senior Black Tortoise and Senior Phoenix...How terrifying would it be to be squeezed in the middle of these mighty figures?

However, at this moment, Black Tortoise and the others were still restraining their aura. The little earthworm thought that Wang Miaoshou had let down his guard and hurriedly ran out of the door.

In the blink of an eye, he ran away.

“Coo!”

“Caw!”

“Woof!”

The three animals followed suit.

The huge boa was running away, but it was extremely excited. As long as it could get out of that person’s sight, it would have a chance to escape.

Jiang Beichen, who had opened the door to his room and was about to come over to take her as his master, saw this scene.

“Not good, the giant boa has run out!” Jiang Beichen’s face was filled with shock. He had seen the giant boa, and it had also seen him. It was flying toward him in a frenzy.

Jiang Beichen’s heart turned cold again!

However, what made him even more desperate was yet to come.

Behind the huge boa, a Xuanwu phantom that was as tall as the sky suddenly appeared. There was also a phoenix that was surrounded by an endless fire domain, and a divine dog that could devour the world...

His legs went limp. If he hadn't been leaning against the door frame, he would have collapsed on the ground.

The phoenix phantom bit down and instantly roasted the huge boa in the Endless Fire Domain. Then, it swallowed its lower abdomen.

"Hehe, ugly turtle, you can't do it."

Phoenix laughed at Black Tortoise. The three of them put away their Dharma Idols at the same time.

Black Tortoise was furious. He was actually one step faster than Phoenix. He deserved to die!

He was very depressed. He turned around and left, walking into the room.

Alpha didn't care. He shook his head and went back.

As for Phoenix, she raised her proud chicken head and rolled her eyes. She stared at Jiang Beichen with disdain before leisurely walking into the room..

Chapter 116: Your Highness, the person you want me to follow is the Nine Phoenix Matriarch!

Jiang Beichen was frightened.

...

After Phoenix left, the door to the room closed automatically. His body was like a sponge as he slid down the edge of the door frame and sat on the ground.

“Uncle Li, come back first. There’s no need to follow.”

With great difficulty, Jiang Beichen took out a Communication Talisman from his sleeve and sent a voice transmission to the guard following Mu Jiuhuang.

The guard’s name was Li Jie. At that moment, out of fear, Jiang Beichen no longer dared to address the guard as Li Jie. Instead, he addressed him as Uncle Li.

However, there was no reply from the other end of the communication talisman.

“Did something happen to Uncle Li?”

Jiang Beichen closed his eyes helplessly.

On the other side.

Li Jie was following Mu Jiuhuang, but as he followed, something was wrong.

He actually followed her all the way to the Nine Phoenix Dynasty.

Knowing that this woman might not be simple, Li Jie immediately turned off anything that would expose his whereabouts.

This included the communication talisman on his body.

“Come out. You followed me all the way. Do you really think I didn’t notice you?!”

Mu Jiuhuang turned around. Her face was silent and cold. Her voice was extremely solemn. At this moment, she was the empress who controlled life and death!

“You... You found me?”

Li Jie’s expression changed drastically. He knew that it was useless to hide anymore. He could only walk out with fear and disbelief on his face.

He believed that he had concealed himself very well and did not leak a trace of his aura. How could he be seen through by the person in front of him?

“In front of me, Mu Jiuhuang, no one can hide!”

Mu Jiuhuang said domineeringly. The aura around her exploded like a brilliant mountain, instantly pressing down on Li Jie.

In an instant, Li Jie’s legs could no longer bear the weight and he directly knelt on the ground.

With a crack, the ground sank several meters.

Li Jie’s body was directly buried in the pit.

“You... Are you the empress?”

“Empress, please spare my life! I was just confused for a moment. I didn’t mean to offend you!”

“Spare me!”

Li Jie turned pale with fright and hurriedly begged for mercy.

Mu Jiuhuang was the name of the empress.

In the territory of the Nine Phoenix Dynasty, no one dared to call the empress by her name, except for the empress herself.

Coupled with the terrifying pressure in front of him, how could Li Jie not understand that the person in front of him was the Nine Phoenix Matriarch!

His heart was filled with shock. He couldn't understand why the person before him was actually the Nine Phoenix Matriarch.

An empress following a mortal as a maid?

No.

That was not right.

In just a moment, Li Jie reacted.

How could that mortal be a real mortal? He was clearly a supreme existence, a supreme existence that even the Nine Phoenix Matriarch had to respect!

"Oh no, could something have happened to the Crown Prince?"

Li Jie cursed in his heart.

He had already offended the Nine Phoenix Great Emperor. If the Crown Prince offended that senior, the consequences would be unimaginable...

"Please spare my life, Empress!"

Li Jiexin felt like he was dead. At this moment, he felt that there was nothing he could do. He could only beg for mercy and hope for a chance of survival.

“Don’t worry, I won’t kill you. I’ll explain everything clearly.”

Mu Jiu Huang said lightly. Li Jie had only followed them along the way and did not have any evil intentions. She could sense it.

“Yes, yes, yes...”

Li Jie hurriedly explained the cause and effect of the matter.

Fifteen minutes passed.

Mu Jiu Huang finally figured out the cause and effect. Only then did she understand that the North Moon Empire’s Crown Prince had peerless talent, but he did not have a master who was strong enough.

He happened to hear his master’s discussion and wanted to test if his master was an expert.

“Go back and tell Jiang Beichen that my master is a supreme existence and cannot be offended.”

“If he really wants to become Master’s disciple, he should go and ask Master.”

“As for whether Master agrees or not, it’s Master’s decision. Do you understand?”

Mu Jiu Huang said sternly. Her voice was solemn. With a wave of her hand, a powerful law pulled Li Jie out of the pit again.

“Understood, understood!”

Li Jie hurriedly nodded.

Seeing that Mu Jiuhuang had entered the Nine Phoenix Empire, Li Jie hurriedly left. On the way, he reopened the restriction of the communication talisman.

To his surprise, he realized that Jiang Beichen had already contacted him.

But now, Jiang Beichen's communication talisman seemed to have been cut off.

"Oh no, did something happen to the Crown Prince? Could it be that he offended that expert?"

Li Jie was shocked and he quickly rushed back to the inn.

The black wind dispersed and disappeared completely. The sun shone brightly once again.

Xiao Changtian carried the white tiger and walked out of the inn.

He asked the innkeeper that the only printing company within a hundred miles was called Pingshang Enterprise.

He was going to head to Pingshang Enterprise to discuss with the owner of Pingshang Enterprise. He wanted to do a batch of printing in the East Victory State to test the waters.

After all, he couldn't guarantee that the books that sold well in the North Barren State and the South Port State would have a 100% market in the East Victory State.

At any time, practice was the only standard to test the truth.

He wanted to test the waters first. If he printed 10,000 sets and no one bought them, wouldn't he be losing money?

Very quickly.

Xiao Changtian arrived at the shop on the plateau.

The shop was quite spacious, but people came and went, making it extremely noisy. It was as lively as a vegetable market.

“Sir, what business do you want to handle?”

A voluptuous woman in a low-cut dress walked over with a professional fake smile on her face.

“I want to contact the trading company and publish a few books.”

Xiao Changtian said lightly.

“Book publishing? Sir, do you have the funds? Our Pingshang Mall doesn’t do business at a loss.”

The woman faked a smile, but her tone was filled with disdain.

She looked at Xiao Changtian, who was wearing a plain green robe and holding a white cat in his arms. She didn’t think that Xiao Changtian was a rich man.

“Here, this is the deposit.”

As a transmigrator, Xiao Changtian understood the maid’s thoughts. He immediately took out the piece of gold that Jiang Beichen had given him.

“This is just the beginning.”

Xiao Changtian's eyes were calm as he spoke to the maid.

Seeing the gold, the maid's attitude changed 180 degrees.

He wished he could stick his body to Xiao Changtian. This was a sugar daddy, a big sugar daddy!

"Alright, bring me to your manager."

Xiao Changtian said impatiently. He came to the publishing office, not to wash his feet...

"Yes."

However, the maid did not feel the slightest bit of displeasure. Instead, she happily agreed to lead the way.

At the same time.

Li Jie had also rushed back to the inn, only to find that Jiang Beichen had fallen asleep and had thrown the jade communication talisman aside.

He woke Jiang Beichen up.

"You're back?" Jiang Beichen's face lit up. Finally, there was a normal person.

However, what Li Jie said next almost made him faint again.

"Your Highness, the woman you asked me to follow is Nine Phoenix the Great Emperor!"

Chapter 117:1 Won't Let Him Sell a Single Book (1)

“Oh.”

...

However, the Jiang Beichen that Li Jie had imagined did not appear. On the contrary, Jiang Beichen only replied with an extremely calm “ Oh.”

It seemed that he was not surprised by this result.

Li Jie frowned. He didn’t understand.

She was the empress, a powerful figure of her generation. Yet, she had become someone else’s maid, and the crown prince was not surprised at all?

This was not right!

Li Jie looked at Jiang Beichen and touched his forehead. He realized that Jiang Beichen didn’t have a fever.

“Could it be an internal injury?”

Li Jie was puzzled again. The divine voice instantly covered Jiang Beichen, and his face revealed a puzzled expression.

Then, he scanned Jiang Beichen’s body with his Divine Telekinesis and saw through Jiang Beichen.

He found that there were no internal injuries.

“Uncle Li, don’t waste your energy. I’m not sick. I’m just used to it.”

“After you left, a black fog appeared around the inn. After that...”

Jiang Beichen recounted what had happened after Li Jie left.

“What? Is there such a thing?”

“A demonic beast undergoing tribulation was smashed by a few punches! Is it not qualified to be used to refine medicine?”

“There’s also the Divine Beast Black Tortoise, the Phoenix, the Divine Dog...”

This time, it was Li Jie’s turn to be shocked. Every existence could kill him with a snap of his fingers without any effort.

Now, so many big shots were actually gathered together.

In an instant, he suddenly felt that it wasn’t unacceptable for the empress to become someone else’s maid.

“Your highness, when the Nine Phoenix Matriarch released me, she told me something. She said that if you want to acknowledge a master, you have to follow the etiquette and ask the seniors.”

Li Jie relayed Mu Jiuhuang’s words.

Since the Nine Phoenix Matriarch said so, there must still be hope.

“Alright.”

Jiang Beichen nodded. He regained his fighting spirit and stood up.

“Since it’s a matter of acknowledging a teacher, the ceremony of acknowledging a teacher can’t be abandoned. I need to prepare properly.” “However, what gift should I prepare?”

Jiang Beichen was confused.

Gold? No way, no way!

Previously, the reason why Senior had accepted his gold was because he wanted to hide his identity as a peerless expert.

Such an expert has returned to his original state and is hiding in the mortal world. He wants to seek peace, so he didn’t let me disturb him.

What about spirit stones? No!

Experts did not lack this.

“Then what gift should I give him?” Jiang Beichen looked confused and extremely puzzled.

“Your Highness, I feel that you only need to have a sincere heart.” “According to my understanding, when a master takes in a disciple, besides talent, the most important thing is sincerity.”

“Only sincerity can move an expert!”

“Is that so?” Jiang Beichen still couldn’t believe it.

“The key is that we don’t have anything now.” Li Jie spread his hands.

"Alright," Jiang Beichen replied.

She tidied up her clothes and regained her composure. At the same time, she made a draft in her heart.

Jiang Beichen mustered up his courage and came to the door of Daoist Da Yang's room, knocking lightly on it.

"Come in."

A vigorous voice came from the room.

Jiang Beichen was delighted. He pushed the door open and entered, but after entering, he found that Xiao Changtian was not there.

"Seniors, is the expert not here?"

Jiang Beichen asked, puzzled.

"Oh, Master went to the shop on the plateau to check on the shop and hasn't returned yet. It will probably take a few more hours." Wang Miaoshou replied indifferently. He was currently refining the medicinal formula. His expression was focused and he did not say much.

"Sorry to disturb you two."

Jiang Beichen nodded respectfully and closed the door.

"The shop on the plateau? Go!"

Jiang Beichen did not even think about it. He walked directly to the shop on the plateau. Since he was sincere about learning from a master, he naturally could not wait for the master to return before he went to learn from him.

Now, he needed to go and find his master. Only then could he let his master feel his sincerity!

In the shop on the plateau.

Under the guidance of the plump maid, Jiang Beichen arrived at a secluded cubicle.

The cubicle was built in a unique way. Even the floor was paved with glass. The table was made of high-quality golden nanmu. The chairs were all made of special craftsmanship and inlaid with precious stones. They were extremely luxurious.

"Let me briefly introduce myself. I am the young master of the flat shop. My name is Chen Pingping. I am in charge of publishing books."

Sitting opposite Xiao Changtian was a woman in a light blue dress. Her beautiful eyebrows accentuated her big, watery eyes.

She was holding a book in her hand. It was obvious that she was reading it before she came in.

Since he was someone who liked reading, this matter was easy to handle.

"I'm planning to publish a book first to test the waters in the market of the Victorious East Continent."

"This is my draft."

Xiao Changtian took out a draft of Longevity and placed it on the table.

"Alright."

The woman nodded and picked up the draft. The more she read, the more surprised she became. She even screamed as she read.

“It’s really well written!”

An hour later, Chen Pingping finally finished reading this book, but his mood still could not calm down. His mind was still filled with the plot of the book, and his breathing was fluctuating like the mountain peak.

“Why do you want to hand Pingping over? One point, all unfair, ah, a, a,

Xiao Changtian pondered.

He could understand Chen Pingping’s state. This was the first time the online novels of his previous life on the Blue Planet had come to this world.

Just like when he first read a novel, he was amazed!

But now, he was already numb.

Looking back at the novels of the past, he could even awkwardly deduct three rooms and one living room from his toes.

“Mister Xiao, I need to report this matter to my father, the real owner of the business on the plateau. Sorry, excuse me for a moment.”

Chen Pingping stood up, took the draft, and walked straight into a dark room at the back.

“Father, I found a huge business opportunity. If we can reach a deal, the profits of the Pingshang Enterprise will double again! No, it’s even more than twice as much.”

Chen Pingping walked in and spoke to a middle-aged man wearing a long robe embroidered with golden threads.

The middle-aged man held an abacus in his hand. He kept looking at the account book and calculating while listening to Chen Pingping's description.

After hearing that, a hint of greed flashed in his eyes.

"Pingping, leave this matter to me. Father will discuss it."

"I'm good at lowering the price."

"If that person doesn't agree, hur hur, then I'll use my own methods to make sure that he won't be able to sell a single book in the North Moon Empire, or even the entire Victorious East Continent."

As the middle-aged man spoke, he put down the abacus in his hand and picked up the draft.

"But, Father, isn't this a bad idea?" Chen Pingping frowned slightly.

"Hehe, Pingping, you have to understand that there are only benefits in this world." The middle-aged man sneered and walked out..

Chapter 118: Expert, Please Take Me As Your Disciple (1)

"Xiao Changtian, I am the owner of the shop on the plateau. I will talk to you about this book."

...

Chen Qian narrowed his eyes slightly. A sinister smile hung on his face like a poisonous snake, giving people the feeling that there were needles hidden in cotton wool.

However, Xiao Changtian didn't care about his fake smile.

He came here today to seek cooperation.

As for his book, he hadn't decided whether or not to publish it in this shop.

They could only wait for all matters to be discussed before they could enter the market to test the waters.

"Then let me be direct. I will pay for the printing of this book myself, and your business will be responsible for distributing it to me. You will take 10% of the profits." Xiao Changtian went straight to the point.

He didn't want to continue chatting. According to the previous time, he should be taking a nap.

At this moment, a wave of sleepiness hit him, making him want to find a place to lie down and rest for a while.

"Ten percent?"

"Mr. Xiao, I think you've misunderstood. The mode of cooperation between our companies is that we're responsible for the entire process. After all, no one can guarantee that anything will happen during this process."

"Since we are responsible for the entire process, and Mr. Xiao, you are only providing a story, so between us, we should give 90% of the profits and you get 10%."

Chen Qian smiled like a poisonous snake, staring at Xiao Changtian. His eyes were murky, as if he wanted to see through Xiao Changtian's heart.

However, Xiao Changtian stood up and picked up the draft.

“It seems that your business is not sincere. Let’s forget about this matter.”

Xiao Changtian held the white tiger in his arms and prepared to leave.

“Haha, Mister Xiao, I think you still don’t know one thing. The businesses on my flat are all over the North Moon Empire. The businesses that cooperate with us basically have a beneficial relationship. As long as I say it, Agister Xiao, even if you want to find other businesses to cooperate, it’s impossible.”

The smile on Chen Qian’s face disappeared as he threatened.

He wasn’t lying. The business on the field was very big.

“Oh.” However, Xiao Changtian just nodded his head indifferently and continued to walk out of the shop.

Seeing that Xiao Changtian didn’t buy it, Chen Qian’s face turned cold.

“Hmph, then don’t leave.”

Chen Qian snorted coldly and clapped his hands. In a flash, two black shadows landed and blocked Xiao Changtian’s path.

“What’s wrong? You still want to force me to buy and sell?” Xiao Changtian smiled and sent a message to the Great Sun Immortal through the communication jade talisman.

It seemed like it was time to teach these black-hearted merchants a lesson.

The white tiger in Xiao Changtian's arms had a cold expression. These two ants dared to block its master's path. Did they want to die?

Immediately, the white tiger was about to rush out and tear the two of them apart.

However, Xiao Changtian stopped him.

"Xiao Xi, don't be anxious. Since someone is hospitable, let's stay for a while." Xiao Changtian sat down again.

Anyway, he wasn't in a hurry. He would teach these black-hearted merchants a lesson when the enlightened person of the Great Sun arrived.

"Boss Chen, why don't you tell me what your forces are?"

Xiao Changtian sat down with a calm expression. It was just the right time to let the Great Sun Immortal wipe out all these forces.

"Hehe, since things have come to this, I'm not afraid to tell you that my entire Chen Family has people in the North Moon Empire."

"The current Minister of Revenue is my brother."

"Do you understand now, Mr. Xiao?"

Chen Qian's expression was arrogant. With the Minister of Revenue as his backer, this was the greatest reliance for a businessman like him.

"I see." Xiao Changtian nodded.

"Master, the Minister of Revenue is here." At this moment, a servant shouted in surprise.

As soon as he finished speaking, he saw a man with a big belly. He had a fierce face and was wearing the official uniform of the North Moon Empire.

“Big brother, you come.”

Seeing this person, Chen Qian immediately ordered the two servants to retreat.

“Yes, I heard that there seems to be someone here who is not convinced. The Pingshang Enterprise is such a conscientious place, but it is actually said that it is not conscientious. As the Minister of Revenue, I have to exercise my authority,” said Chen Youqian.

Chen Youqian and Chen Qian were only one name apart.

However, they were twins.

The two brothers looked at each other and smiled knowingly.

Fifteen minutes ago, Chen Qian had informed Chen Youqian that it was rare for his family to have a chance to make a fortune.

Hence, the current scene had occurred.

“Looks like you really can make me unable to sell a single book.” Xiao Changtian smiled calmly.

When the Great Sun Immortal came, he would directly charge into the North Moon Empire and get rid of this Chen Youqian.

Xiao Changtian drank his tea and slowly got to know Chen Qian and those forces and backers. He was never tired of it. After all, they would be destroyed in the end.

He was not using violence. He was exterminating the violent and bringing peace to the good, enforcing justice for the heavens.

While everyone was chatting, the shop on the plateau had already been sealed.

No outsiders could pass through.

However, he could clearly see the situation inside the shop through the door.

Jiang Beichen had arrived at the same time.

“Expert?”

Looking over, Jiang Beichen saw Xiao Changtian drinking tea and chatting merrily.

Then, he walked in.

“The assistant minister of the Ministry of Revenue is included.” Two soldiers stopped Jiang Beichen.

“What is it? Irrelevant people? Chen Youqian, how dare you stop me?” Jiang Beichen was enraged. He was the Crown Prince, yet he was being stopped by the Assistant Minister of Revenue?

Hearing Jiang Beichen’s voice, the assistant minister of the Ministry of Revenue, who was talking to Chen Qian, was stunned. He looked out and saw Jiang Beichen at a glance.

“Crown Prince’s Palace?”

Shocked, Chen Youqian hurriedly stood up and went out to welcome him.””You must be blind. This is His Highness the Crown Prince, and you dare to stop him? You don’t want to live anymore!”

“Your Highness, please.”

Chen Youqian smiled awkwardly.

As an insider, he knew that the current Crown Prince was not a good-for-nothing on the surface. On the contrary, he was a genius with peerless talent in cultivation and would be the future Crown Prince.

However, Jiang Beichen did not even spare him a glance. He merely snorted coldly and walked toward Xiao Changtian with a perturbed expression.

If an expert was here, he would take him as his master!

However, the assistant minister of the Ministry of Revenue followed closely behind Jiang Beichen with a smile on his face.

Xiao Changtian was curious when he heard that the Crown Prince had arrived. He turned around and saw Jiang Beichen kneeling before him.

“Master, please accept Jiang Beichen’s bow!”

“Jiang Beichen, please accept me as your disciple!”

Jiang Beichen’s voice was loud and clear, resounding throughout the entire business. His voice was deafening!

Then, his head hit the floor heavily with a thud...

Chapter 119: The Third Disciple!

Thump!

...

The dull sound of kowtowing rang out. In the small shop on the square, it was like a deafening heavenly sound.

Originally, the shop on the field wasn't small.

However, the Crown Prince was kowtowing to a mortal!

Chen Youqian and Chen Qian, who were still arrogant and despotic before, instantly broke out in cold sweat. Their entire faces had already twisted into the color of pig liver.

They wanted to escape, but they couldn't.

They were actually blackmailing the Crown Prince's disciple!

It was over!

There was no turning back in this matter. The Minister of Revenue, Chen Youqian, was so angry that his huge body fell heavily to the ground and fainted.

As for Chen Qian, the corners of his mouth were twitching non-stop on his liver-colored face.

"Expert, please take me in as your disciple!"

Jiang Beichen knelt on the ground and kowtowed heavily. His forehead was almost broken, and blood was flowing down from the top of his head, dyeing his white clothes bright red.

“You want to take me as your master?”

Xiao Changtian was stunned.

This wasn't right!

I haven't conquered my disciple yet? His disciple was about to acknowledge him as his master? Was there a misunderstanding in the middle?

Xiao Changtian frowned and sized up Jiang Beichen.

He had also heard the Minister of Revenue, Chen Youqian, address Jiang Beichen as the Crown Prince.

“Good heavens, this disciple is even a crown prince. How can I make a move...Take in a disciple?”

Xiao Changtian frowned even more.

He had also heard of the North Moon Empire. It was a mortal empire.

In a world of cultivators like the Tian Yuan Continent, they were like ants. Any powerful cultivator could destroy an entire empire.

But even so, to Xiao Changtian, it was still a terrifying existence.

After all, he was just an ordinary mortal.

Although he had a good relationship with the Great Sun Immortal, the Great Sun Immortal could not protect him forever.

However, he still had to complete the system's mission. He still had to open the path of invincibility and become a supreme existence!

"What a contradiction..."

Xiao Changtian frowned and weighed these two things. He thought about it and looked at Jiang Beichen, asking, "Why do you want to take me as your master?"

The most important thing was to figure out why Jiang Beichen would acknowledge him as his master.

It couldn't be Jiang Beichen's own strategy, right?

It can't be, right? It can't be, right?

"Master, I want to learn from you." Jiang Beichen answered sincerely.

Only by following such an expert could one learn the most powerful Dao in the world and forge a supreme foundation.

Only by forging a supreme foundation could one go further in the future and have a higher upper limit.

Jiang Beichen's gaze was firm, and his eyes were burning. He had to acknowledge an expert as his master today. He wanted to begin his path of cultivation today.

"Learn from me?"

"What do you want to learn?"

"I have many paths here. You have to choose one. After all, you can't bite off more than you can chew."

Xiao Changtian asked.

It turned out that Jiang Beichen had taken him as his master in order to learn from him.

It must be because Jiang Beichen had entered her room to ask for help and saw the calligraphy she had written on the table.

He must have felt that his calligraphy was as graceful as a swan and as agile as a dragon. He was more than a level higher than the calligraphy masters on the Tian Yuan Continent, so he wanted to learn calligraphy from a master.

However...

He was proficient in all 18 martial arts, such as zither, chess, calligraphy, painting, poetry, wine, tea, forging and raising...Omnipotent!

Other than cultivation!

"An expert wants me to choose a path? Looks like there's a chance."

Jiang Beichen's face was filled with joy. Since the master had asked him to choose a path, he must have wanted to take him as a disciple.

However...

Jiang Beichen thought for a moment and shook his head.

He was still a mortal and did not know much about immortal cultivation, let alone building a supreme foundation.

He wasn't clear about the path of invincibility of his seniors, so he had no choice.

After a moment of silence, Jiang Beichen looked at Xiao Changtian and said, "I don't know. I have no choice."

Jiang Beichen wanted to ask for Xiao Changtian's opinion.

"I see. You can learn calligraphy from me." Xiao Changtian thought for a moment and said directly.

From his point of view, he believed that Jiang probably knew a little about music, chess, calligraphy, and painting. As the son of the emperor and the crown prince of the dynasty, it was only natural for him to have an extraordinary background.

However, because he had studied too much, he wasn't sure which path he should focus on.

Since that was the case, he would choose calligraphy for him.

"Calligraphy?"

Jiang Beichen was stunned.

Why calligraphy? Didn't he want to cultivate?

However, on second thought, why would such an expert teach him these mortal things? There must be a deeper meaning behind it!

"Could it be? Calligraphy is also a great Dao?"

"That must be it."

Jiang Beichen was overjoyed when he figured out the crux of the matter. His face was filled with surprise.

He kowtowed to Xiao Changtian and said, ""Thank you, Master."

"Yes." Xiao Changtian also nodded. This disciple of his was very sensible!

"From now on, you are our third disciple."

"You still have two senior brothers. One of them is called Ye Fan, and he's still in the West Bull Continent."

"Second Senior Brother is a physician. I believe you have seen him in the past two days."

"If you become my disciple, I guarantee that your calligraphy will reach the peak of the Tian Yuan Continent."

Xiao Changtian said lightly.

"Eldest Senior Brother. It's actually Ye Fan!"

"Ye Fan's master is the master in front of me?"

In an instant, Jiang Beichen understood what had happened.

No wonder Ye Fan was able to be invincible in just a few months after his supreme being bone was dug out!

It turned out that he had taken the expert in front of him as his master!

So that was the case.

It seemed that my intuition was right. Taking this expert as my master would indeed allow me to obtain supreme opportunities!

“Disciple Jiang Beichen thanks Master.”

Jiang Beichen said delightedly. He even wanted to kowtow to the Suan’s.

The joy in his heart to be able to acknowledge such a master as his master had already covered up the pain.

“As my disciple, there’s no need to harm yourself.”

Xiao Changtian held his shoulder with one hand and stopped him from kowtowing. If he did, his head would shake slightly.

It was not easy to take in a disciple who was extremely talented in cultivation. If his disciple became a grandmaster in martial arts in the future, wouldn’t he be very blessed?

“Bang!”

At this moment.

Outside the shop on the square, a dull collision sound was heard. The Great Sun Immortal’s momentum was vigorous, and he stepped on all the soldiers who tried to stop him.

He had also received Xiao Changtian’s message and hurried over.

It was his honor that the senior had used him.

As the saying went, there was no need to use a sledgehammer to kill a chicken. The Immortal of Great Sun felt that it was best to use him to deal with these small fries.

"I'm here. They didn't offend you, right?" The Great Sun Immortal hurriedly walked over and said respectfully..

Chapter 120: Black Sky, I'm Here to Find You

"Offended? They wanted to kill me."

...

"They even threatened that if I didn't agree to their arrangements and threats, I wouldn't be able to sell a single book in the entire North Moon Empire."

"They even sent Immortal cultivators to kill me."

"It's the two of them."

Xiao Changtian pointed at the two people in front of him as he spoke.

These two people had helped the wicked bully the innocent. Xiao Changtian didn't plan to let them go.

If the person who was tricked today was not him but another mortal, without an Immortal Cultivator friend like the Great Sun Immortal, he would definitely end up in a miserable state.

He could not let such a person off!

“Hmph, you two, go to hell!”The Great Sun Immortal snorted coldly, his face filled with monstrous anger.

Who was this senior?

Two Golden Elixir realm ants dared to offend a senior!

Behind the Great Sun Immortal, his true essence was extremely violent, and the scorching temperature directly formed a sun!

The Great Sun emerged from the east, its brilliant pressure unstoppable!

A terrifying power instantly enveloped the two of them. In the scorching sun, the two of them were directly destroyed.

“All!”

The entire shop was filled with the painful screams of these two people. Their screams were heart-wrenching!

Terrifying beyond compare!

The officials and soldiers who came with the Minister of Revenue were instantly scared silly. The weapons in their hands fell to the ground with clattering sounds.

This person was a cultivator!

Moreover, he was a very powerful cultivator.

“Shopkeeper Chen, you previously said that I can’t sell a single book in the North Moon Empire?”

Xiao Changtian looked at the two people being killed. Although he felt that the method was cruel, after all, he was from the Blue Planet in his previous life.

However, there was only a sense of satisfaction in his heart.

It was a carefree feeling of exterminating evil.

If he didn't have a friend like the Great Sun Immortal today, he would have ended up worse than these two.

Although he wasn't a great demon who killed people like flies, he knew how to eliminate evil.

He turned his head and held a cup of tea. With a smile on his face, he looked at Chen Qian indifferently.

"Spare me, master! Spare me!"

Chen Qian shivered and knelt on the ground, kowtowing and apologizing, begging for Xiao Changtian's forgiveness.

"I deserve to die, I deserve to die!"

"Expert, I was just blinded by greed for a moment and wanted to obtain more money. I didn't really want to make a move."

"I deserve to die! But I don't want to die. Please spare my life. I can give my daughter to you as compensation."

"Pingping, quickly beg for mercy from the expert."

Chen Qian shouted for mercy and kept slapping himself. The aircraft carrier was filled with endless fear and regret.

If he had known Xiao Changtian's identity was so powerful, he wouldn't have dared to provoke him!

However...

Before Chen Pingping could kneel, the people outside the shop all knelt down and shouted.

"Expert, please help us. This shop is a master who eats people without spitting out the bones."

"Master, Chen Qian has forcefully taken my brother!"

"Master, please let us make a decision. This Chen Qian colluded with the Minister of Revenue and said that he had swallowed all our relief money two years ago."

"Expert..."

Shouts sounded.

The commoners outside the shop were agitated and filled with righteous indignation. Their voices rose and completely drowned out Chen Qian.

The voices of these commoners made Xiao Changtian furious.

As a mortal, he knew how difficult it was to survive in this world of cultivation.

However, a tyrant like Chen Qian was notorious for bullying others.

Just by threatening him, he must have done such things in the past.

Now that the public's resentment had erupted, those who dared to be angry but did not dare to speak up before also took this opportunity to speak their minds.

Xiao Changtian took a deep breath to calm himself down and looked at Jiang Beichen.

"Disciple, you are the Crown Prince of the North Moon Empire. How will you handle this matter?"

Xiao Changtian stared at Jiang Beichen.

As Xiao Changtian's disciple, he must have a kind and sincere heart.

If the Jiang Beichen in front of him was a muddle-headed son of an emperor who could not see the sufferings of the commoners clearly and did not have the slightest pity in his heart, then he would be able to do so.

Then he would expel Jiang Beichen from the sect.

Even if he could not complete the system's mission, he would not accept such a disciple.

Even if he couldn't open his path to invincibility, he had no regrets.

He came from the Blue Planet and had his own bottom line!

If he gave up his bottom line for the path of invincibility, then what was the point of becoming an invincible existence or a supreme expert?

Become a living fossil?

The meaning of life had disappeared from the moment he gave up on being a human.

Xiao Changtian's expression was extremely serious, even more serious than when he was talking about the Dao.

Instantly.

Jiang Beichen knew that his master was a true expert!

He had the heart of the world and an invincible cultivation.

At that moment, Jiang Beichen was sincerely respectful to his master.

"Master, Chen Qian is just a chess piece in this matter. Chen Youqian, who is behind him, and those existences in the court are the true evil."

"As the Crown Prince, I promise you, Master, and all the people of the Moon Back Empire that I will clean up the court tomorrow."

"Anyone who has been wronged, tell me face to face. I will investigate within two days."

"Those involved in this matter will definitely be killed, regardless of whether the royal family participated or not."

Jiang Beichen's voice was deafening and echoed throughout the entire shop.

At the same time, he picked up a long saber that had fallen to the ground. He raised the long saber, and his eyes became very fierce.

The cold blade slashed down at the Minister of Revenue!

Slash!

With the sound of flesh being torn apart, the Minister of Revenue, Chen Youqian, died instantly.

“Good!”

” Your Highness the Crown Prince is mighty!”

“As expected of the Crown Prince. I have been wronged and I want revenge.”

” We all support the Crown Prince.”

A series of supportive voices sounded, and everyone’s faces revealed a look of joy.

With the assurance of the Crown Prince, they believed that their grievances could be cleared.

“Disciple, first settle the matters of the North Moon Empire, then come and see me at the inn.”

Xiao Changtian gave his order and left.

Jiang Beichen nodded in agreement.

On the other side.

The Nine Phoenix Matriarch secretly brought some people and sneaked into the Black Sky Sect.

This time, she wanted to capture the Black Sky Sect’s sect master without batting an eyelid. She wanted to capture all the information regarding the secret chamber of darkness.

Hence, he decided to do it.

She brought a few people, taking advantage of the darkness, and quietly arrived at the secret room where the Black Sky Sect's sect master cultivated.

"Hei Tianqiong, I'm here to find you."

Mu Jiuhuang's figure was like a ghost. In an instant, she arrived in front of Hei Tianqiong..
