

Beautiful 16

Chapter 16: Investigation

Zhao Xiurong, Su Ruomei, and Jiang Yu all watched the two women leave. Although their identities were unknown to them, they must be capable enough to gain President's Ling's trust.

Next, the three stayed beside Ling Qingyu and talked a lot. Afterward, Zhao Xiurong had to go to the company to handle the chaotic situation in the company.

Su Ruomei and Jiang Yu stayed behind as planned while Ling Qingyu decided to sleep and implant the rest of the memories into her brain. Like the system had told, slow methodical was the safest, and sleeping was the best method.

Su Ruomei and Jiang Yu looked at one another and shrugged their shoulders regarding Ling Qingyu's slumber. Even though the current task was boring, they must be serious. Ling Qingyu had given them absolute trust.

Although Su Ruomei had heard of these evil deeds from her family members, she really couldn't imagine the society under the law became depraved. What if there were no laws?

She and Jiang Yu were discharged from the army for several reasons. It wasn't their desire to leave. Being kicked out of the army was a disgrace, especially for Su Ruomei even though the reason was very infuriating.

Jiang Yu felt guilty, and Su Ruomei had to accompany her because of her split-second decisions. If she had known, she would never act impulsively.

She always heard Su Ruomei comforting her, it was never her fault. Oh, how she wished it was only her who left instead of her savior having to join her.

... ..

While Ling Qingyu planned to use her sleep to regain her memories, Tang Ziyi and Xiao Yue wt out while capturing any suspicious activities in the vicinities.

None of them conversed as their topic shouldn't be heard by anyone in public. Fortunately, it seemed as far as their abilities had told them, there wer't any threats. Although their conjecture wer't 0 perct true, it was highly accurate.

The hospital wasn't crowded as one would expect except for some emergcy patits. Most people wt to the geral clinic where they would be recommded if required to check up with the specialist in the hospital.

Geral clinics were nearer to their homes; thus, everyone preferred this way. In fact, if every person came to the hospital, the staff here would be utterly devastated by confusion.

Wh Tang Ziyi and Xiao Yue arrived at the big glass sliding door trance, they were immediately relieved. There were very few people in the reception area in contrast to the chaotic congested emergcy departmt.

The depressing atmosphere even affected their mentality. As if their strong will was consumed terribly by the crowds.

Soon, they exited the hospital and came into the parking. Various types of vehicles lay here, from luxurious to mere transportation tools. This was a public hospital, unlike a private one. Various kinds of people would go in and out.

Since they arrived in this world, only Tang Ziyi brought some of her stuff whereas Xiao Yue had nothing because this world was more advanced than her world.

Xiao Yue had no idea what car Tang Ziyi had brought. She merely followed.

"Sister Tang or sister Ziyi, can I call you that?"

"Of course, Ziyi sounds better and friendlier. Besides we're now comrades." Tang Ziyi replied.

"What do you think of Sister Qingyu?" Xiao Yue asked for Tang Ziyi's opinions

"Well, we all knew what her initial personal truths were but it didn't appear too gross, right?"

"Is it like this or because she's scared of us?" Xiao Yue chuckled, and Tang Ziyi smiled at her rhetorical question. Both understood Qingyu's character as were informed by the mysterious existence who brought them here.

They were preparing for the worst but Ling Qingyu wasn't too hateful. Perhaps the gender transformation was at play here too.

They gradually came to a spot where this particular vehicle was outstanding amongst others. It was an all-black racing sports car. Different from typical racing cars like Lamborghini, Tang Ziyi's was a four-seater—Cadillac Blackwing.

No one knew this was a monster hidden under the appearance. Every part of this car was modified including the tires. Windows were made of bulletproof glass along with another layer of armor on the skin to be able to withstand most firearms.

This Cadillac apart from not having an outer shape similar to most racing luxurious cars, had every function the same. In fact, Tang Ziyi even modified the outer skins by changing the shape into a more aerodynamically sound one.

This was the beast and Tang Ziyi loved it. Xiao Yue had seen most vehicles as she walked by and the sight was addicting. Every family had the opportunity to own cars here in this world. Compared to hers, this world was indeed a paradise.

But thinking of what happened to Ling Qingyu, she realized even in paradise, humanity was still depraved. Humanity never changed.

"Get in," Tang Ziyi said opening the door and entered the driver seat, throwing her bag to the back. Everything inside looked very futuristic.

Xiao Yue followed Tang Ziyi's behavior and didn't make fun of herself. She sat down and watched strangely as Tang Ziyi pulled on the safety belts. Regardless, she did the same. She mourned she had so much to study in this world.

"Sister Ziyi, don't leave me alone at any time. My world's time is still during the contemporary era. I don't understand the common sense here." Her plea brought chuckles out from the iceberg beauty.

"I really forgot about your situation. While I'm driving tell me more about yourself and I'll tell mine."

The black Cadillac drove out of the parking lot and soon joined in the rest of the traffic, disappearing from the scene.
