

MISS BEAUTIFUL C.E.O AND HER SYSTEM

Chapter 4: System

"System?"

[Yes? By the way, you can speak with your mind; there's no need to say it out loud.]

Quickly glancing left and right as Ling Qingyu worried someone had heard her even if she was alone inside the room.

'Who am I? Why did you change my gender?'

[Hmm...You're Ling Qingyu. Aged 4. President of a 'Spirit Beauty Co.Ltd'. Successful entrepreneur on the wealthiest female lists.]

The short introduction of this body stunned Ling Qingyu. Her name wasn't too confusing with her previous life as those memories were diluted. She really regarded herself as Ling Qingyu.

Now she knew why there was admiration from the doctor she met prior. To be able to stand out from many and also with a female body was no easy task. This showcased previous Ling Qingyu's talent and hard work.

The initial discomfort of transformation dissipated as she was happy to live inside this body. Being a president sounded very brilliant albeit she remained concerned with her gender.

[You were chosen by luck and after sifting through your memories, the system put your soul into this body.]

'Ahh, why? I'm a man and I should become a man right.'

[Everything is for a reason.]

Ling Qingyu was exasperated by the wanton excuse given by her system. She wondered if the system was here to punish her instead of helping her life. She had absolute trust in herself, she made no grave unforgivable sin in her previous life.

[Yes your tire life, you didn't commit bad deeds but you had no merits either.]

[You were sort of a misogynist, who believed wom should stay inside the house. Wom must serve m. Although you never degraded a woman once and treated them kindly, your belief annoyed many females, including your frids.]

[Since woman meant wife of a man, you believed a woman marrying a man is their ultimate happiness. You also participated in Internet war whenever this topic arises.]

[You convinced yourself, the world would be better if the woman stay in their roles. Maybe you don't admit it yourself but you see wom functioning more as reproductive tools.]

Ling Qingyu's mouth twitched after listing to the system's gibberish. It became more and more unbearable.

'Okay, stop! So you let me become a woman as punishmt?'

[Correct! The system wants to test whether your belief still stands to prove yourself here personally.]

[Nothing is better than being able to experiment in person. Congratulations!]

'Congratulations my ass! In a man's heart, becoming a woman is blasphemy although I don't complain about this body...So, I am not your master th.'

[Yes but no reward. I'm merely a Watcher.]

Ling Qingyu's hands were beating the blankets underneath her in frustration. If someone outside saw this scene, the nurses would be frightened. Patients who rectly suffered an accident shouldn't move too much.

[At least, I st your soul into a wealthy president. You won't suffer a lot. Hmm...I think so.]

'My heart felt unwell hearing you say you think. What do you mean you think? You're still unsure!'

Ling Qingyu breathed deeply to calm herself and got to the main point. Otherwise, this system was born to rub her face on the g. Every word was her nemesis. Becoming a woman, what's the worst that could happen?

She comforted herself, her wealth was enough to live without working. At least, she thought so.

'About the car crashing dream, was it real? This happened to my body.'

[Yes.]

She heard the system's reply and was instantly alert because the answer meant she already had enemies who wished her dead. Even though the real owner died, she lived in her place. If she didn't want to cause disturbances in the hospital, she would have sworn out loud.

'You are the omniscient system, right? You can help me out of this situation, please?'

[Of course, although this system said to punish you, you're not without a chance. But your enemies are really strong for you at this moment. The system promise to give aid.]

Ling Qingyu sighed in relief and quickly realized her current situation was a bit wrong. She felt quite unlike someone who recently had an accident and asked the system.

'How long was the accident?'

[The system knows your doubt. One day and one night. The system helps you heal your body quickly without any hidden consequences and made you twice as strong. You are no longer as fragile as before.]

Even with an increase in strength, Ling Qingyu was sure she was weaker than in her previous life. She reckoned her strength physique could merely wrestle more with an above-average man.

'System, is there no available memory to help me?'

[You'll receive them a little every night you slept. The system wants to see you facing trouble and solving them.]

'You! Why don't you just inject me the whole inside my brain?'

[Because your soul is small and fragile.]

'Fuck! You mean I'm stupid. I dare you...'

[What? Not satisfied, Come and bite me?]
