Chapter 69: Plans for her bodyguards

"Care to take a guess what I'm going to say next?"

Tang Ziyi and Su Ruomei exchanged a knowing glance. Even though Tang Ziyi and Su Ruomei had some grasp, they shook their head playfully.

Since you wanna play, we'll play along. Don't you want us to be curious, we'll pretend to be uninterested. Tang Ziyi and Su Ruomei had the same thought.

When Ling Qingyu discovered her confidantes not showing any interest, she pouted. Looking over at Xiao Yue, Ling Qingyu found her, tilting her head, her expression totally like a bystander eating melon seeds.

The onlooker's face watching the appearance of a fool pretending a play. That's exactly Xiao Yue's face. Ling Qingyu's playful energy drooped and she leaned back, the back of her head touching the top edge of the sofas, gazing at the ceilings.

Her hopeless reaction drew waves of laughter.

Xiao Yue added. "Of course, you're going to say important information. Not to mention you just locked the door. Even idiots will realize something."

Ling Qingyu almost forgot Xiao Yue's wisdom. Naturally, anyone might be aware already due to her action. Nonetheless, one mustn't forget Xiao Yue's past.

She appeared most of the time like a little girl. But her history told her ability to think through conspiracies. There was the de-facto strategist beside her. How fortunate Ling Qingyu felt.

Ling Qingyu regained her energy and introduced the topic. "Alright, enough with the acting. It's about my grand plan."

Everyone became serious, paying attention. Ling Qingyu continued: "In the coming days, along with our business, I think we should also grow our strength. That meant increasing the size of our female guards—both in the company and manor."

Su Ruomei cut in puzzled. "But why do you need to expand the size, President Ling? I believe the number is sufficient for the required securities and putting in more also might pressure your finance."

Ling Qingyu nodded at Su Ruomei's reason. "That's before. Now, particularly after my accident, I'd rather burden my wealth, both for my safety, my family's, and the safety of every staff of mine."

"The assassination implies one message. The enemy's in the dark while we're on the bright side. This is already a disadvantage. Although Sister Tang and Sister Xiao here had solved an immediate threat, the remaining dangerous factors from the consequences still linger. Not to mention, we still don't know who's trying to hurt me and why." Ling Qingyu continued.

"Besides, Sister Su should have heard about the mess in the past few days. The undercurrents between gangs." Ling Qingyu's eyes wandered between Xiao Yue and Tang Ziyi.

Su Ruomei captured Ling Qingyu's eye movement and went deep in thought. She wasn't stupid to miss the hidden message here.

She heard one of the gang groups got beat in the face these days—some killed and many injured. A lot of ordinary people were applauding the courageous ones and hoped they got away easily.

Her pupils constricted at the understanding of a possibility. Don't tell her these two before her were the culprits who turn the tire Province N upside down.

Combined with what Ling Qingyu already stated, these gangs were also responsible for the assassination. Now she totally understood the reason why Ling Qingyu felt urged to upgrade her fist.

Ling Qingyu was satisfied Su Ruomei grasped the meaning quickly and smiled when she heard her say. "President Ling, I have to say, we should implement your plan as soon as possible."

Ling Qingyu nodded. "I hope you search for more female soldiers, who exited the military life. Even those female bodyguards without background are fine too because Sister Ziyi will be responsible for training them into an elite tier. Funding is not a problem—I can give you my word."

"If Sister Ziyi becomes an instructor, that would be the best." Su Ruomei agreed. "I wouldn't be surprised mere street ruffians couldn't stop Sister Ziyi and Sister Yue here after experiencing myself."

Tang Ziyi smiled back when Su Ruomei glanced in her direction.

"Presidt, I think I can also include male soldiers." Su Ruomei added her thoughts after a short pause.

Ling Qingyu also considered the option but decided to push it away. She didn't want uncontrollable factors inside her team.

Although Tang Ziyi might be able to handle them, she didn't have time for those momts.

What's more, having stronger ladies a was more pleasing to her eyes. Unless a last resort, Ling Qingyu would never step into this choice.

In addition, she refused to believe with Tang Ziyi's training and her cheating system, her plan couldn't transform a group of wom into warriors.

"First, try recruiting from these wom and we'll see the results. And I find it hard to imagine some of these m willing to work under a female boss before my action could persuade them. I don't have the time and ergy to care about those dilemmas. But your suggestion could be regarded in the future." Ling Qingyu put her chin on her palm as she spoke.

"Anything else," Xiao Yue asked. Everyone in this room was clear, this wasn't everything.

"If the primary plan works well, there'll be a pltiful supply of equipmt related to those security tasks, including riot police ones—shields and armor. Once Tang Ziyi's and my calculation wt in the way we've hoped for, firearms ar't impossible."

Su Ruomei stood up and exclaimed. "Firearms! I didn't mishear, am I."

It was funny to see Su Ruomei asking for confirmation from everyone. Ling Qingyu nodded with a serious face. "Yes, firearms. You heard it right."

Su Ruomei sat back down. "How's that possible under a strict firearm provision?"

"We have a relationship to work out." Ling Qingyu and Tang Ziyi exchanged a knowing smile. Su Ruomei folded her arms, expressing dissatisfaction with being left out while Xiao Yue remained nonchalant.

Police Captain Yang Qingyue was the key to her upcoming moves. As long as the policewoman stepped up, Ling Qingyu was certain of success.

Even if Yang Qingyue acted differently, Ling Qingyu was well-prepared.

For Su Ruomei, Ling Qingyu was a good boss, as every employee desired. She fulfilled every demand Su Ruomei pressed.

To be frank, Su Ruomei could proudly claim the female security group she led was the most equipped in Province N.

Tasers, baton, pepperspray. Every utility was available to every guard.

Having another opportunity to handle firearms excited Su Ruomei. Although she was no longer a member of the military, she still longed to touch those weapons.

If Ling Qingyu could provide a legal channel, Su Ruomei was sure the rest of the units would also be exhilarated.

But one thing Su Ruomei knew was Ling Qingyu's plan must never be simple. Although their secrets felt not so private wh others could glance through the glass, this meeting was merely a preliminary stage; the true climax must come from the latter part, Ling Qingyu would further explain.
