

She Got A Better Man 121-130

"Since it's just some clowns, just crush them. There's no need to waste your energy. Eat more. Zach picked up an omelet for her

Yeah. You should eat more too. This way, the baby will be healthy and beautiful Elvira also picked up an omelet for him. The two of them began to eat healthily in order to have a healthy baby.

Before he left, Zach carried Elvira and did it again, saying that the more they did it, the higher the chance of having a baby.

Elvira's body could still take it, so she let him do whatever he wanted.

Elvira was going to meet an important client with Cole. She told Zach not to wait for her to have dinner. Zach had originally rejected a social gathering to have dinner with his wife. When he saw this, he asked his secretary to reorganize and prepare to go socializing. Elvira was a little surprised to see the company's recent client. She looked at the handsome man opposite her and took the initiative to say, "Hello, sir. I haven't thanked you for helping me and my friend out last time. I didn't expect you to be our company's important client."

Gary smiled and said, "It's nothing. I think anyone would help if they saw that situation."

Cole frowned and looked at Elvira. "You know Mr. Gary?"

"Previously, Olivia and I were pestered by a scoundrel at the bar. It was Mr. Gary who helped us out," Elvira explained with a smile.

"What a coincidence." Cole looked at Gary with a trace of vigilance. He had never thought that there were any coincidences in this world. Most coincidences were man-made, so he became vigilant next, afraid that this new big client had some scheme.

However, the subsequent collaboration negotiations went very smoothly. Even with Cole's many years of experience in doing business, he did not see any problems. He could only stop himself from thinking too much for the time being. However, this matter concerned Elvira, so he did not dare to let his guard down.

After the collaboration negotiation ended, both parties raised their glasses. Elvira replaced the wine with water. Gary smiled and said, "You can't drink, Ms. Willis?"

"That's not it. I'm planning to have a baby soon, so I can't drink," Elvira frankly explained the reason why she could not drink.

"I see. Your husband must be an outstanding person." Gary lowered her head and drank when a trace of fleeting gloom appeared in his eyes.

Elvira's expression softened when she thought of Zach. "Yes. He's excellent."

Gary tightened his grip on the glass. The gloom in his eyes intensified as he wondered, 'Excellent? Heh, he's just a bastard!'

After the collaboration negotiation, both parties left the hotel together. Cole went to get the car first. When Elvira went down the steps, she felt her feet slip. Her expression changed slightly, and she had already fallen down.

Elvira felt a chill down her spine. She and Zach had been quite diligent recently. If nothing went wrong, she might even be pregnant. She closed her eyes nervously, hoping that she would not fall so hard.

Someone wrapped his arm around her waist. Gary hugged Elvira and staggered for a few steps before he could stabilize himself. Their posture was especially ambiguous.

III

Elvira's expression changed slightly as she looked at the man in front of her. She was so frightened that she forgot to let go. She only widened her beautiful eyes and looked at the man in front of her, momentarily speechless. "Ms. Willis, are you alright?" Gary looked at her worriedly.

Elvira shook her head. Only then did she realize that their posture was inappropriate. She quickly let go of him and was about to thank him when a figure suddenly rushed over. Before Elvira could react, she saw Zach punch Gary in the face, knocking him to the ground. Elvira was stunned for a moment. She quickly came over to pull Zach, but Zach seemed to have gone crazy. He grabbed Gary's fist and punched him in the face. Gary did not resist. His eyes were filled with provocation as he let Zach hit him.

"Zach, what are you doing? Stop it!" Elvira came over to pull Zach. She could not understand why Zach was so impulsive today. Why did he suddenly rush over and hit Gary?

"Get out of the way!" Zach was furious. To him, Gary was like a poisonous snake. His appearance was definitely not a good thing.

Gary already knew that Elvira was Zach's weakness, so he deliberately approached Elvira. What was he trying to do?

It was because of the grease that Elvira almost fell on the steps just now. Now that there was grease on the soles of her shoes, she slipped and almost fell a second time.

Fortunately, Cole rushed back and saw this scene. He quickly came over to support Elvira, "Elvira be careful." Gary was deliberately concerned about Elvira.

Zach was shocked and turned to look at Elvira, He saw Elvira standing there with a pale face as if she had been frightened, His heart skipped a beat and he quickly came over to help her.

Elvira dodged his outstretched hand and asked, "Why did you hit him for no reason? I almost fell just now. He helped me up. Cole, go and help Mr. Gary up." "Elvira, I..." Zach wanted to explain.

Elvira interrupted him. "Let's talk at home. Mr. Gary, I'm really sorry about what happened."

"It's just a small matter. Ms. Willis, don't worry. I'll take my leave first. I hope we can work well together." Gary smiled at Elvira and got into the car to leave.

Zach's phone rang. After answering the call, he quickly left with his men without saying anything to Elvira.

Elvira was speechless.

Cole looked at her nervously and asked, "Are you okay? Do you need to go to the hospital?"

"That won't be necessary. I'm fine. Take me home." Elvira still had lingering fears. Cole helped her into the car and drove her home.

Zach returned home an hour later. Elvira was hungry and making pasta. She could not eat anything when eating with the client.

She watched Zach enter the house. She did not say anything and continued to do her own thing. Zach went straight into the bedroom to change his clothes and take a shower.

Elvira slapped the knife on the chopping board unhappily. She took a deep breath and continued to cook the pasta, but she was very unhappy.

Even if she was a bit close to her client today, why didn't Zach ask her what was going on? How could he hit Gary right away? Did he not trust her that much?

When Zach came out, he had already changed into home cloth. He entered the kitchen and said, "Go and rest. I'll cook

"Zach, shouldn't you give me an explanation? There's nothing going on between me and him. It's just that I almost fell and he helped me up!" Elvira turned to the man beside her to ask for an explanation.

"I know. It has nothing to do with you," Zach said as he looked at her.

"Then you..."

"That man is Gary Gilbert. He's the child of my father and another woman." Zach looked at her deeply. The last thing he could tolerate was the Gilbert family really targeting Elvira.

Elvira was stunned. She knew that the Gilbert family's situation was complicated. Her in-laws had already divorced long ago. After the divorce, Zach's mother took her daughter away and Zach stayed with the Gilbert family.

After hearing this, Elvira slammed the knife in her hand down hard. Her eyes widened in anger. Zach's heart shrank slightly as he looked at her nervously. He didn't expect her to be so angry because of Gary.

She Got A Better Man

"Elvira, he's up to no good." Zach was afraid that Elvira wouldn't believe him and would continue to work with Gary.

"I know! I'll get Cole to cancel the collaboration with that bastard now!" Elvira said with a gloomy expression. She walked out and prepared to get her phone to call Cole and ask him to immediately cancel the collaboration with Gary. She couldn't believe that Gary came to her while acting like a sp

When Zach saw that Elvira did not doubt his words at all and immediately wanted to cancel the collaboration with Gary, he was very touched. He hugged Elvira and pressed her against the refrigerator, pressing his forehead against hers. "Elvira, you're the best." As Zach spoke, he kissed Elvira's soft lips. When their lips met, he could not wait to kiss her more passionately.

Elvira closed her eyes and enjoyed the man's kiss. She felt Zach hand reach into her clothes. She quickly pressed him down and turned her head to avoid his kiss. "I'm hungry. I want to eat pasta first."

"Alright, I'll cook for you now." Zach reached out and took off the apron she was wearing. Elvira smiled and tied the straps behind him. She was going to call Cole to terminate her cooperation with Gary, so she asked Zach to cook pasta. Elvira sat on the sofa and called Cole. She directly asked him to terminate the contract with Gary. Cole agreed without asking and said that he would do it immediately.

Elvira knew that Cole would listen to her. She explained to Cole why she wanted to terminate the collaboration. Cole was the one who followed up on this collaboration. Now that she said that it was over, she had to give him an explanation. After the call, Elvira entered the kitchen. She hugged Zach from behind and said, "What did you do after that?"

Elvira meant that after he hit Gary, he immediately left after receiving a call.

"It's a personal matter," Zach replied as he continued to cook.

Seeing this, Elvira did not ask further. She only said, "Put some vinegar into the sauce. I feel like having something sour." Zach turned around and hugged Elvira in surprise. "Are you pregnant?"

"How can it be that soon? Stop dreaming." Elvira smiled and pinched his handsome face.

"It's not that soon. It's been almost a month. The two of us are working so hard. Perhaps the baby is already in your belly." Zach was still very confident in himself.

"Now that you mention it, I really don't seem to be on my period this month. I'll test it in a few days." Elvira calculated the time. Normally, it was time for her period.

If there was no problem, perhaps she was really pregnant.

Elvira was very happy at the thought of this.

"I'll work harder!" Zach had not had enough of these days. Now, he knew that the days of having sex were so blissful.

"The sauce is overflowing. Hurry up and turn it off." Elvira reached out and patted him. Zach quickly turned around and turned the stove off.

"Honey, give me a kiss as a warm-up." Zach hugged Elvira and kissed her again.

Elvira also smiled and hugged him, responding to his passionate kiss. The two of them hugged and lingered in the kitchen.

Chapter 129-

After dinner, Zach carried Elvira into the bathroom. Water splashed in the bathtub, and ambiguous sounds rang out.

Samson had been in an extremely bad mood recently. He also wanted to meet a nice woman like Elvira to marry and live a good life. However, no matter how hard he tried, the women he met were all weirdos. Recently, he had even started to listen to his family and go on blind dates. He had met a few rich young ladies, but they were all spoiled crazily, causing him to be very frustrated recently.

Samson's phone rang. When he answered the call, he parked the car at the side of the road and was about to smoke a cigarette before leaving.

Just as he lit his cigarette and started smoking, a loud bang suddenly sounded beside him, startling him. He turned around and saw two cars colliding at the intersection.

He sat calmly in the car and watched the show. The drivers of both cars got out on their own. There was blood on their heads. One of the drivers quickly went to pull open the back door and drag out a unconscious child.

The middle-aged man shouted at the child. The child was lying motionless. He should have gone into shock, but no one there knew how to provide first aid. The father only cared about shouting. Samson cursed speechlessly and was about to get out of the car to help.

A tall and slender figure rushed over and threw down the shopping bags in her hand. Ignoring the inconvenience of wearing a dress, she knelt on the ground and began to give the little boy first aid.

With CPR, the woman gave the child first aid while instructing people to call an ambulance.

After a few rounds of emergency treatment, the child finally woke up and cried. The driver on the other side shouted again. It was an old lady in the other car who had been frightened and fell ill.

The woman handed the child to his father and immediately turned to the other side to give the old lady first aid. She was not afraid of being dirty and did not mind the old lady. She held the old lady's head and cleaned her respiratory tract. Her serious expression stunned Samson, who was not far away. He felt as if he had found his destined one.

This girl's looks, figure, and character were all to his liking. Samson had decided that she was the one.

When the ambulance arrived, the woman explained the situation to the medical staff. The injured were all taken woman picked up the few shopping bags scattered on the ground and quietly left the scene away.

The

Samson watched as the girl took a taxi and left. He quickly drove after her and followed the taxi all the way to a complex.

He watched in fascination as the woman entered the complex. When she was out of sight, he took out his phone and called Spike.

"What's up?" Spike was bringing his men to investigate Gary. His tone was quite serious.

"Spike, I think I'm in love," Samson said with an intoxicated expression.

Spike was speechless.

He didn't even want to talk to Samson anymore, wondering, 'What can I say to him now? He falls in love a hundred times a year.'

Samson was not angry at being hung up on. He sent the photo of the woman he had just taken to one of his subordinates and asked him to immediately find out all the information about this woman. Soon, the woman's information was sent to Samson's phone. He clicked it open and saw a woman's resume.

[Olivia Santos: Gynecologist, 23 years old, unmarried...]

Samson whistled happily, thinking that this girl was simply his chosen one.

He had decided that she was the one for him.

Samson was quite anxious, so he decided to marry this woman soon as possible.

Olivia had no idea that after she had finished shopping, she had enco

She Got A Better Man

Elvira invited Olivia for dinner. Olivia happily agreed. The two of them agreed to meet at a restaurant.

Elvira looked at Olivia's listless expression and placed a piece of utton onto her plate. She asked, "What are your plans next? Don't tell me you want to stay single for Tommy for the rest of your life."

"How is that possible? My mother has already arranged a blind date for me. I'm going to start going on blind dates soon! I'm definitely going to meet a man ten thousand times better than Tommy to marry!" Olivia poked the mutton on her plate forcefully with her fork. "The mutton has been poked rotten by you. Hurry up and eat it. You've lost weight recently. It's not embarrassing to fall out of love. If you want to cry, just cry." Elvira knew how it felt to fall out of love, even if she was lucky enough to meet Zach.

She did not know Tommy very well. In her impression, that man had always been quite mysterious. There were secrets in his eyes that she could not see through..

She felt that Tommy was not a good match for Olivia. Of course she did not say this to Olivia. After all, feelings were between two people. She could not make a comment in front of her good friend based on her subjective assumptions.

"How do you know I haven't cried? I cry to sleep every night. My eyes are going blind from crying! I don't want to cry anymore. I just want to meet a man and start over," Olivia said as she ate.

"Don't imitate me. I'm lucky to have met Zach. You might not be as lucky gambling."

"Got it. It's up to fate." Olivia continued to eat in disappointment

as me in this matter. I don't support you in

Her phone rang. It was a call from her colleague. She picked it up and said a few words before putting it down. "What's the matter?" Elvira knew that the doctors were all busy. If there was an emergency in the hospital, they had to go back at any time. "My colleagues said they're holding a birthday party and have invited me," Olivia replied nonchalantly.

"Alright then. Go ahead. I have to go home later." Elvira picked up another meatball for her.

After the two of them parted ways, Elvira went home. Olivia went to a clubhouse to look for her colleagues. When she arrived, everyone was drinking happily. She came late and was asked to take three shots. Olivia happened to be in a bad mood. She picked up the shots and drank when her colleagues began to jeer.

Olivia did not notice that a male colleague had put a pill into one of the shots and handed it to her.

Olivia was not on guard against her colleagues. She took the shot and drank it. After drinking it, she felt dizzy and her body began to heat up.

She shook her head and realized that something was wrong. She got up and said that she wanted to go to the washroom. When she reached the washroom, she kept splashing cool water on her face, but it didn't get better. When she turned around and wanted to call for help, she bumped into a firm embrace.

Olivia subconsciously hugged the man. Her vision began to blur. She tried her best to see the man in front of her, but she could not.

Samson bent down and carried her out of the washroom.

In the bathroom, Samson kissed Olivia over and over again. Every time he kissed her, he would be more fascinated by her. It turned out that kissing someone he liked really felt different.

Olivia was controlled by the medicine. She wrapped her arms around his neck and her legs around his waist. She clumsily wanted more.

Samson looked at the inexperienced young girl in front of him and carried her back to the bed. His clothes dropped to the floor, and he finally could not control himself and took possession of the woman under him.

Olivia pushed him away in pain and cried for him to go away. Samson was pleasantly surprised. He did not expect it to be her first time. The real sense of separation fascinated him even more. He hugged her even tighter and began to do it fiercely, over and over again. The next day, when Olivia woke up, she felt pain all over her body. There was also a heavy object on her waist. She thought that the cat at home had sneaked in to press on her again. She wanted to push it away and flip over to continue sleeping. Suddenly, she felt a warm embrace behind her and heard a man's mumble. "Stop moving around. Sleep a little longer."

Olivia opened her eyes in shock. She thought that she was dreaming, but she knew that she was not dreaming when what happened last night came to her mind. She did not even dare to look back as she reached out and removed the man's hand, wanting to escape. Samson was also completely awake. He reached out and pulled her back. "Sleep for a while more."

Olivia really wanted to die. She remembered that she had been drugged by her colleague yesterday, so this man was at most her antidote.

Um... About yesterday... How much do you want?" Olivia almost bit off her tongue, regretting what she had said.

Samson was stunned for a moment before he could not help but laugh. What kind of peerless cutie had he met? She had slept with him and actually wanted to give him money.

"I don't want money. I want you to be with me," Samson said with a smile.

Olivia suddenly turned around and met a pair of beautiful eyes. The man was really handsome and eye-catching. She could not help but be a little dazzled. However, she was not stupid enough to fall in love at first sight with the person whom she had a one-night stand with.

"Don't joke around. I was drugged yesterday. Thank you for helping me with it. I'll give you two thousand dollars. We're even." Olivia did not know how much it cost to sleep with him for a night. She felt that two thousand dollars would be enough. Samson instantly put on an aggrieved expression and said, "This is my first time. I don't want money. I want you to be with me. You have to be my girlfriend."

Olivia pushed him away. When she turned around, she felt the pain in her body. When she turned around again, she found that the two of them were naked. Her face turned red. She quickly pulled the blanket over her and said, "We don't even know each other. How can I be your girlfriend?"

"Don't we know each other now? My name is Samson Lawson. What's yours?" Samson extended his hand to her with a bright smile. His handsome face coupled with his slightly curly hair made him look innocent under the sunlight. "Olivia Santos. Eh? No. I mean..."

Samson looked at the cute appearance of the woman in front of him and could not help but push her onto the bed. He said, "Try my skills again. If you're satisfied, we'll start dating!"

Before Olivia could react, the man had taken her again. Soon, ambiguous sounds sounded in the room.

Samson trapped Olivia in bed for half a day before letting her go. Olivia was embarrassed and angry, but she did not have much strength. She could only let him do whatever he wanted until he was satisfied.

Samson personally bathed Olivia, applied medicine, and prepared clothes for her. After washing up, he brought her to eat. Olivia was indeed satisfied.

As she ate, she looked at the considerate man beside her and suddenly had a bold idea. Since she and Tommy had broken she might as well date this good-looking man. After all, she had nothing to lose.

1. up.

When Samson heard that Olivia was willing to date him, he smiled happily. He immediately held Olivia's hand and took a photo. He could not wait to announce their relationship on his status on WhatsApp. Samson used to fool around, but he had never announced his relationship on his status on WhatsApp. This was the first time, so his friends burst into an uproar.

She Got A Better Man

Although Olivia had agreed to date Samson, she would not let go of the colleague who had harmed her. She remembered who was the one who had given her the alcohol before she was rugged! However, when she arrived at the hospital, she was told that the male colleague had resigned and had already taken everything away, Olivia tried to look for the male colleague, but she could not find him. In the end, she could only admit that she was unlucky.

Tracy moved back to her own manor. That night, Zach and Elvira returned to Tracy's manor together.

When the two of them arrived, they heard voices inside. After Zach pulled Elvira in, his expression instantly darkened when he saw them. He turned around and was about to leave.

"Zach, come back. Even if anyone has to leave, it won't be you!" Tracy's expression was not very good. It was obvious that she did not welcome these uninvited guests.

Zach did not leave after hearing his grandmother's words. He pulled Elvira into the living room with a cold expression.

When Alice saw Elvira, she immediately ran towards her. She did not hide her love for Elvira.

Elvira hugged Alice and kissed her tender little face. She carried Alice and looked at the three women and two men in the living room.

She did not know anyone else, but Gary knew her. Gary smiled when he saw her. "Elvira, we meet again."

Elvira frowned and ignored him. Her previous good impression of this person had also disappeared.

"Hey, my brother is talking to you. What kind of attitude is that?" Mandy looked at Elvira with disdain.

Elvira was also quite unhappy. She knew that Zach's parents had also divorced, and he had a bad family relationship with his father. That was why Tracy lived alone with Zach. Why did these people still have the cheek to come over?

"Tracy, how many dogs do you have in your house? They're barking quite happily, but they're too noisy. If there's really no other way, just beat them to death." Elvira was no longer a pushover. Since these people were so shameless, Elvira naturally would not be polite. "You! Who do you think you are? How dare you call us dogs!" Mandy stood up angrily and pointed at Elvira.

Zach glared at Mandy. The killing intent in his eyes was so intense that Mandy shivered in fear. She quickly lowered her hand as if she was afraid that Zach would chop it off if she was a second late.

It was not that he had never done such a thing before. This person was a lunatic!

"Looks like those animals know their place." Elvira smiled and pulled Zach to sit down. She hugged Alice and coaxed, "Alice, which fruit do you want to eat?" "Impudent!" A loud shout was heard. Samuel looked at Elvira with an ugly expression, as if Elvira was a heinous person.

Elvira did not even look at Samuel. If Zach did not care about them, she would naturally not either. Moreover, she was not frightened, so it was useless no matter how loud Samuel shouted. Elvira gently comforted the frightened Alice. The smile on her face was calm and beautiful. She did not care about the roars of others.

"What are you shouting for? Your mother is not dead yet. Are you trying to scare me to death, you unfilial son? I'll let you shout, I'll let you shout!" Tracy was also shocked by her son. She picked up a plate beside her and started beating her son up without caring for his pride.

Samuel did not dare to retaliate even after being hit by his own mother. He could only say with a dark expression, "Tracy, don't do this in front of everyone else."

"You still know how to feel embarrassed? You've already embarrassed yourself when you gave birth to your illegitimate child! Scram, scram, seram. You're not welcome here at all!" Tracy chased them away angrily.

"Tracy, even if we were in the wrong back then, the children are already so big now. On account that I gave birth to three children for the Gilbert family, shouldn't you be appeased?" Helen looked at Tracy with an aggrieved expression.

"What three children? Who wants your three children? Take your children and scram. I only have two grandchildren, Zach and Grace. I don't care about the rest!" Tracy reiterated.

When Zach saw that Elvira and his grandmother were unconditionally on his side, he felt very comfortable. If it were not for the fact that he had promised his grandfather before he died to keep these people alive, he would definitely not let these people off! When the family of four heard that the old lady was still as stubborn as before, their expressions did not look too good. Only a young woman sitting at the side had been looking at Zach affectionately.

Elvira noticed the woman. She looked gentle and delicate. She looked harmless, but Elvira did not know if she was really harmless inside.

The Gilbert family's men were still chased away by Tracy. Nina also stood up and said to Zach, "Zach, I have something to tell you in private. Can you come out for a while?"

Zach frowned at her and said, "If you have something to say, say it here."

"But this matter concerns my sister. I think it's better to tell you alone," Nina said gently as she glanced at Elvira.

Zach frowned even more when he heard her words. Just as Elvira was curious about Nina, Zach said, "I'll be back soon."

Elvira smiled. "Go ahead."

Zach followed Nina to the side hall.

Tracy quickly explained, "She's the niece of my unfilial son's mistress. Zach won't like her!"

"Tracy, I know." Elvira smiled at Tracy, indicating that she did not mind.

She knew that Zach did not like Nina, but she was a little curious about the sister that Nina mentioned.

Zach seemed to treat her sister a little special.

However, if Zach did not take the initiative to tell her, Elvira would not have asked. She felt that it was meaningless. Husband and wife should take the initiative to confess and not let the other party ask. If that was the case, it was better not to ask.

"That sister of Nina is a pitiful person. It's said that she's not the Miller family's biological daughter. Later on, she seemed to have disappeared. I don't know if she's dead or lost. What a pitiful child." Tracy did not know anything else. She was not interested in the matter of her unfilial son's mistress' family.

Zach came back very quickly. He probably did not say much to Nina. When he left, Nina looked over a few more times before she was willing to leave.

Elvira could tell that it was true that Zach did not like Nina. It was also true that Nina liked Zach.

Elvira and Zach stayed behind to accompany Tracy and Alice for dinner before returning to their own homes.

On the way, Elvira received a call from Olivia, who told Elvira that she was married.

111

Γ

Elvira was shocked and asked nervously, "Are you joking with me?"

"No, I'm really married. Elvira, congratulate me!" Olivia originally wanted to get married in a flash like Elvira. Since she got along well with Samson, she felt that a flash marriage was nothing.

She Got A Better Man

Besides, Samson was very sincere to Olivia. He had given her 20 million dollars as a betrothal gift. Now, she had more money than she could spend.

Elvira was speechless.

Elvira really could not congratulate Olivia. Now, she finally understood how Olivia felt when she told Olivia that she had gotten married in a flash. It was a heart-wrenching feeling. Elvira wanted to know which bastard had stolen Olivia away. If it was a scumbag, Elvira would definitely beat him up until his mother would not recognize him.

"Where are you now? Where is your husband? I want to see him immediately!" Elvira could not wait any longer. She had to see the man that Olivia had just gotten married to.

Zach saw that his wife suddenly flipped out. He glanced at her and asked, "What's wrong?"

"Olivia also got married in a flash." Elvira hung up the phone worriedly and entered an address in the navigation system for Zach to drive over.

Zach obediently adjusted the route.

"Don't worry too much. Since she's willing to get married in a flash, she naturally has her reasons," Zach consoled his worried wife.

"Let's see the man first." Elvira gripped her phone tightly. She was really afraid that Olivia would meet a scumbag.

Seeing that she was anxious, Zach sped up the car. The two of them quickly arrived at a western restaurant. When the four of them met, Elvira was stunned. Zach's heart skipped a beat. Samson also looked at the two people who appeared opposite him in surprise. Only Olivia asked, "You know each other?"

"He's the one you got married to? Samson Lawson?" Elvira felt a little dizzy. Samson was a playboy! Previously, she was almost beaten up by his ex-girlfriend. It was said that Samson changed girlfriends faster than girls changed clothes!

"Elvira, Zach, I have something to tell you in private! Please!" Samson was also a little flustered. He looked nervously at his curious little wife beside him, afraid that Olivia would expose his secret in public.

"What can't you say in front of me?" Olivia frowned and looked at her newlywed husband.

"I have a few very important words to say. Olivia, please wait for a moment." Samson forced Zach and Elvira to leave.

When they were outside, Samson immediately raised his hand and swore, "Elvira, I swear to you that I've really given up. Olivia is the love of my life. I promise I won't find another woman in the future. If I do anything to let her down, I'll become an eunuch!" Elvira stared at him with an ugly expression and did not say anything. She was thinking about what to do.

When Samson saw that Elvira was unmoved, he looked at Zach and begged, "Zach, help me plead. I really liked Olivia before I married her. I've already sworn to myself that she's the only woman I want in my life. I know what I did in the past was ridiculous, but I'll definitely treat Olivia well alone in the future."

Zach saw that he was serious, so he looked at Elvira and said, "I think we can give him a chance. It's because he used to be a playboy that he knows what he wants."

"That's right. I've really had enough of my previous lifestyle. I've really fallen in love with Olivia. I just want to spend the rest of my life with her and never let her down!" Samson raised his hand and swore.

Elvira knew that what was done was done. It was useless even if she objected. She asked with a dark expression, "Are you sure you don't have venereal disease?"

Seeing his wife ask such a straightforward question, Zach could not help but turn his head and cough lightly.

Samson was about to cry. "Elvira, I don't! I really don't!"

"I'll give you a chance. Confess to Olivia about your ridiculous past. If she's still willing to be with you, I'll give you my blessings." Elvira still felt that Samson and Olivia were not suitable. "Alright, alright, I'll definitely confess!" Samson was filled with regret. If he had known earlier, he would have learned from Zach and Spike.

Samson was really afraid now. He was afraid that Olivia would abandon him and leave him.

When the three of them returned, they had different expressions on their faces. Olivia had already ordered their food. She smiled and said, "Let's eat first. Everyone must be hungry, right?"

"I've already eaten. If you're hungry, eat quickly. Being a doctor consumes a lot of energy. Eat more." Elvira picked up some food for Olivia.

"Olivia, eat more." Samson also put food into Olivia's bowl.

Zach picked up some vegetables for Elvira and said, "Since you're here, have some more."

Elvira did not refuse. The few of them finished the meal with different thoughts.

After returning home, Elvira took a shower and went to bed. She saw Olivia's message. "Elvira, don't worry about me. I know Samson Lawson's past. I just broke up with Tommy. Actually, the two of us are about the same. Neither of us is taking advantage of the other." Elvira knew what Olivia meant. Olivia did not love Samson now. She only wanted to find someone to marry and start a new life, no matter who that person was.

Therefore, it was caused by the scumbag, Tommy.

Calvin was obviously a scumbag, but Tommy was not a good person either!

When Gary barged into Elvira's company, Cole was talking to Elvira about letting the company's brand enter a shopping mall. When Cole saw Gary, he stood up and stood in front of him. He said coldly, "Our company won't work with you anymore. Please leave immediately, or I'll call the police."

"I'm just here to chat with my sister-in-law. Don't be so nervous. Gary smiled and sat down on the sofa.

Elvira frowned at him. "I have nothing to say to you."

"Really? What if it's about my younger brother?" Gary smiled evilly and placed his leg on the coffee table. Elvira frowned even more. She looked at Cole and said, "You can go out first. I'll listen to what he has to say." "Alright, I'll be at the door. Call me if you need anything." Cole glanced at the man sitting there and left. "If you have something to say, just say it." Elvira leaned back in her chair and looked at Gary.

"Do you think Zach really loves you? I can tell you that he has someone else in his heart," Gary said with a smile.

"Sowing discord is useless against me. If there's nothing else, you can leave now," Elvira ordered coldly.

"You don't believe me?"

"Compared to you, I believe what he said to me more!" Elvira looked at Gary seriously.

Gary smiled and said, "Then do you know that ever since my cousin went missing, my younger brother has been thinking of ways to find her? As long as there's any news about her, he won't let it go."

Elvira looked at him coldly and said, "Are you done? If you're done, you can leave. I'm not interested in what you're talking about. You've made a mistake."

"You really don't care?" Gary was really puzzled. He did not believe that a woman would not care that her husband had another woman in his heart.

"Whether I care or not is my own business. It has nothing to do with you. If there's nothing else, leave. Zach and I are husband and wife. His enemy is also my enemy." Elvira did not want to bother with Gary.

Gary had indeed wanted to sow discord between Elvira and Zach. He did not expect Elvira to not fall for it. He had no choice but to leave.

When Gary left the company, he looked back. He did not believe that the feelings between Elvira and Zach could really be indestructible.

Elvira asked Cole to continue planning to move into Haven Plaza. This mall had been gaining momentum in recent years. The two of them agreed that if their brand's jewelry could move in, it would be of great significance to the company's development. After the two of them discussed, Cole sent the application to the other party's email. At the same time, he asked the relevant colleagues in the company to contact the other party to discuss the accommodation..

The house that Elvira bought had already been finalised. Zach said that he could not bear to part with the original house. It was personally decorated by Elvira, making him feel like he had a home.

Elvira felt that since she had already bought the house, she should move. Otherwise, her Hence, she found a moving company and planned to move all her things to her new home. would have been wasted.

Elvira was tidying up the new house when she received a call from Cole. Cole said, "Haven Plaza said that Kennedy Jewelry is also moving in. The mall feels that our style is similar to Kennedy Group, so we can only choose one of two. The mall has already decided to let Kennedy Group move in. They said that their brand is more famous."

Elvira instructed the people to hang the curtains and asked, "Send me the information on Haven Plaza. The most important thing is the person in charge."

After hanging up the phone, Cole sent the information about Haven Plaza over. The boss of the mall was called Jason Stone Elvira sent this person's information to Zach and asked, "Do you know this person?"

Zach replied quickly, "He should have business dealings with the company. Why are you looking for him? Wait a moment, I'll ask the relevant department."

Elvira waited for a while before calling.

"Honey, are you cleaning up your new home?"

"That's right. A busy person like you doesn't have time. I'll have to do it myself," Elvira said with a smile.

"You've worked hard, honey. I'll treat you to a big meal tonight."

"I'm not in the mood for a big meal now. Can you contact Jason?"

"Our company has a few brands that have counters in Haven Plaza. The person-in-charge of the company said that Haven Plaza will hold a charity banquet the day after tomorrow. It's said that the brands that are invited will be invited to participate. Our company has also received an invitation. If you want to go, I can accompany you." Zach was very supportive of Elvira's career.

"That's great. I love you." Elvira was not a pedantic person. Her husband was the person-in-charge of the Gilbert Group. She knew how powerful he was. She would be a fool not to use her husband's power to deal with people.

Zach's heart softened when he heard Elvira's words. He smiled and said, "I love you too, honey."

After hanging up the phone, Elvira happily hummed a tune. Zad was now her backbone, allowing her to expand on the spot!

If not for the fact that Calvin and Judy's actions were too shameless, Elvira would not have wanted to go against the Kennedy Group. However, Calvin knew that Judy was an imposter, but he still let her impersonate him. He deserved to suffer the consequences.

Zach accompanied Elvira to the venue of Haven Plaza's charity Banquet. The luxury car that the two of them were in stopped at the entrance to the hotel. The bodyguard opened the door, and Zach got out of the car first. He reached out his hand, and Elvira helped him out of the car.

The combination of a handsome man and a beautiful woman instantly attracted the attention of many people. Everyone looked at the two of them and sighed. How could there be such a perfect person in this world?

Calvin and Judy's cars arrived later. The two of them frowned when they saw Zach and Elvira walk in.

"Calvin, aren't those my sister and brother-in-law? Why are they here at the banquet today?" Judy asked with a frown.

"Why else? I'm just taking advantage of the banquet!" Zoey stared at Elvira with disdain. The way she looked at Zach was exceptionally different.

Calvin said in frustration, "What's wrong with Elvira? How dare she bring her swindler husband around at a time like this! Isn't she embarrassed? Also, where did she get the money to rent a car and hire someone after so long?"

Recently, Calvin had been trying to contact Elvira to get her to work at his company. However, it was very difficult for him to contact her now. Even if he did, Elvira ignored him, which really made him angry.

"Sigh, Elvira is too much. The last time she caused a scene at home, she took about 10 thousand dollars and returned them to her family, saying that she had cut ties with her family. Even now, her family can't contact her, even if they wanted to. Today, I will definitely talk to her properly and ask her to go home quickly. We are all thinking about her," Judy said with a helpless expression, as if Elvira was being unreasonable.

"I have to make her leave her poor husband today! Hurry up and find a proper job!" Calvin said in frustration.

Zoey, on the other hand, had not given up on Zach. She only wanted Zach!

Zach haunted her dreams. Now, she could dream of him every night. In the dream, he was as passionate as fire towards her. It made Zoey unable to stop her feelings!

Recently, she had found several young models, but none of them were as handsome and imposing as Zach. Every one of them made her feel bored. She felt like she was going to be depressed!

She had to win over Zach today!

The three of them had different thoughts. They got out of the car and entered the hotel.

After Zach arrived, Jason received the news. He immediately informed the person in front of him and hurriedly came to welcome Zach.

When the guests saw that Jason had personally gone to the door to welcome the guests, they were all curious about the identity of the person.

Calvin and Judy followed closely behind Zach and Elvira. When the two of them saw Jason, the CEO of Haven Group, walking towards the door with a serious and respectful expression, their backs subconsciously straightened. They felt that Jason was not as cold as the rumors said. He was quite tactful to welcome them personally.

Calvin quickly took two steps forward and reached out his hand to shake Jason's hand. However, Jason did not even look at him. He quickly walked to Zach and extended his hand enthusiastically. "Mr. Gilbert, it's an honor to have you. Welcome, welcome!"

Zach also reached out to shake his hand and said, "I'm here with my wife. You don't have to be so polite, Mr. Stone." "You must be Mr. Gilbert's wife. I've heard so much about you, Mrs. Gilbert." Jason smiled and shook hands with Elvira.

Elvira also smiled politely. "Mr. Stone, you're too polite. It's my honor and my husband's honor to be able to attend your banquet."

She Got A Better Man

The two of them exchanged pleasantries enthusiastically, Calvin who had extended his hand, watched this scene with a stiff expression. He felt that it was extremely ridiculous!

Especially when there were so many pairs of eyes watching. Jason was actually not here to pick him up. He thought that Jason was here to pick him up. His hand was still in midair, but Jason actually shook hands with Elvira's husband. Calvin, always considered a prodigy, had never experienced such treatment. He felt extremely embarrassed!

He glared at Elvira as if the person who embarrassed him was Elvira.

Judy was equally shocked. Everyone knew that Jason was cold and aloof. He did not care about anyone. Why was he so enthusiastic about Elvira and her husband?

Seeing that her cousin was being ignored, Zoey immediately stepped forward and questioned loudly, "What's wrong with you? Can't you see that my cousin wants to shake your hand? Why are you so rude?"

She wanted to use this method to attract Zach's attention. Her eyes kept glancing at Zach.

Jason's attention was on Zach and Elvira. When he suddenly heard this shout, he frowned and looked over. When he saw the three people standing at the side, his expression turned cold for a moment before he continued, "Mr. Gilbert, please go in first."

"Wait, you can't leave until you've made yourself clear!" Zoey immediately blocked the three of them. She raised her chin slightly, as if she had no choice but to give an explanation.

That posture was no different from that of a shrew from the countryside. Those who could come here were all people of status. They were all shocked by Zoey's shameless behavior.

Zach was not here to pick her up, which meant that she was not important enough. How could Zoey run in front of Zach and shout at him? This was too embarrassing.

Jason was already displeased in his heart. He did not know where this shrew came from to criticize him. Now, she actually blocked the path of him and his esteemed guest. This was simply ridiculous.

"Who brought this lady here? Is she an invited VIP? How can she be so rude?" Jason suppressed his anger and questioned.

Although Calvin had been humiliated, it was impossible for him to be rude in such a place. He immediately pulled Zoey don't back and said, "Zoey, don't mess around. Mr. Stone, I'm really sorry. My cousin is young and insensible. I hope you lower yourself to her level."

"That's right, Mr. Stone. I'm really sorry. I apologize on her behalf." Judy also stood up and apologized with a smile.

Jason looked slightly better and said, "Please help yourselves, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert. Please come in."

Jason completely ignored those three people.

"Mr. Stone, I'm honored to be invited to your banquet. I have something to ask you," Judy said with a smile that she thought was very charming.

Jason had been interrupted several times and was already very unhappy. He asked, "Who are you?"

Judy's smile froze on her face. Calvin's expression turned even uglier. Jason actually did not know who they were.

The surrounding guests could not help but laugh when they saw this. How shameless was this person to actually stick to Jason? He actually did not even know who they were. It was really too funny.

"Mr. Stone, you sure know how to joke. Kennedy Group has just entered Haven Department Store," Judy wanted to regain her dignity. She definitely did not want to embarrass herself in front of Elvira!

Especially Elvira, who was standing at the side and looking at her with a faint smile.

"There are thousands of brands in our mall. How can I remember all of them? I welcome the three of you to come. Please help yourself. I still have to entertain important guests here, so I won't talk to the three of you first." After Jason finished speaking, he looked at Zach. "Mr. Stone, have you been cheated? What kind of distinguished guest is he? He's just a poor liar!" Calvin could not stand being ignored because of a poor liar.

"That's right, Mr. Stone. You have to open your eyes and not be deceived. Elvira is my sister, and this is my brother-in-law. However, my brother-in-law is not Mr. Gilbert. He's just an ordinary worker," Judy explained.

Jason looked at the two of them in shock. "What nonsense are you two talking about? This is Mr. Gilbert of the Gilbert Group! The world-renowned Gilbert Group! Are you really sure that Mr. Gilbert is your brother-in-law? You don't even know your brother-in-law's identity?"

This time, it was Calvin, Judy, and Zoey's turn to be shocked. The three of them looked at Elvira and Zach in disbelief. When Elvira saw how the three of them changed their expressions, she felt extremely happy. She smiled and said, "I've already cut ties with the Willis family. Don't address us as your sister and brother-in-law anymore. Isn't it disgusting to call me that? It sounds disgusting to me! I've told you long ago that my husband isn't poor. You just didn't believe me."

In just a short while, several CEOs of listed companies had already come to greet Zach, and everyone was humble in front of him.

This made Calvin and Judy believe that Zach was really the CEO of the Gilbert Group that they did not even dare to think about!

Not only did Elvira marry a rich man, but she also married into a top-notch wealthy family!

Judy's heart was bleeding. She clenched her fists so tightly that her nails dug into her flesh to prevent herself from losing her composure!

Calvin felt like a mouthful of blood was stuck in his chest. He almost suffocated to death.

Zoey, on the other hand, was very excited. She felt that Zach was not an ordinary person. His temperament was especially extraordinary. Her taste was indeed good. She had actually taken a fancy to the heir of a wealthy family.

"Can you move aside now? Mr. Gilbert, please come in. Please come in." Jason looked disgusted and speechless. He quickly invited Zach and Elvira in.

In comparison, Calvin and Judy were like a joke. Jason did not even know who they were, but they still stuck to him, thinking that he was here to pick them up.

Judy was almost unable to stand still. The thing she was most afraid of had happened. The thing she was most afraid of in her life was that Elvira was stronger than her! But now, she was actually married to the heir of the Gilbert Group!

The Gilbert Group was at a height that the Willis family and Kennedy family combined could not reach!

Judy felt flustered and short of breath. Her vision darkened and she fell onto Calvin's body. She held Calvin's hand and said, "Calvin, why did Elvira marry the heir of the Gilbert Group? Why didn't she tell her family?"

How would Calvin know? He was also very annoyed now!

Previously, he thought that Elvira had not married well, so he did not feel anything. Now that he knew that she had married into a top wealthy family, he felt that he could not accept this reality at all.

11:09 Mon, Nov 25 BB.

The two of them were still hoping that Jason had been deceived. However, when they saw that more and more people were gathering around Zach and Elvira, and that they were all the most famous figures in the business world, the dirty hope in their hearts was completely destroyed.

O

She Got A Better Man

Even if they did not want to accept it, they had no choice but to accept this reality. Even if Jason recognized the wrong person, how could everyone?

Calvin's expression was extremely ugly. Judy's footsteps were unsteady. Zoey was quite excited. After all, she was still thinking about Zach. In her dreams, she could marry into a rich family and become the young mistress.

This time, Elvira really felt it. Zach, as the president of the Gilbert Group, came with great honor. Even she, a poor little girl who had been through so much since childhood, was greatly respected.

Especially when she saw Calvin and Judy's ugly expressions, she had to say that she felt quite good.

Elvira did not immediately mention her brand of jewelry entering Haven Plaza. Instead, she quietly listened to Zach and Jason's conversation. She was a little thirsty, so she said, "I'm sorry, you guys chat first. I'll go find something to drink." "I'll go with you, Mr. Stone. I'll accompany my wife to drink something first. Let's arrange a time to talk about the collaboration with your company." Zach naturally had to accompany Elvira first.

Jason was a little surprised. He had always wanted to see Zach to work with him further, but Zach did not have the time. Today, he actually took the initiative to make an appointment with him. This was really too surprising.

He agreed repeatedly. Zach took Elvira and left the social scene first.

Zach took a bottle of water and opened it for Elvira. Elvira took a sip and said, "Thank you."

"Why are you being so polite with me? Are you tired? If you are tired, take a rest." Zach put his arm around her shoulder and asked softly.

"I'm not tired. I'm not that delicate." Elvira continued to drink water.

"Do you need me to tell Mr. Stone about your matter?" Zach still hoped that he could help Elvira.

"There's no need for that. You've already helped me a lot by bringing me here today to meet him. As for the rest, I'll do it myself. If I really want to enter his mall, I'll do it based on my own capabilities. I won't put any strings." Elvira quickly rejected. Zach looked at her serious expression and his eyes were filled with pride and admiration.

"Elvira, Zach, you're here. Zach, why didn't you tell us that you're the CEO of Gilbert Group?"

Calvin and Judy walked over with Zoey beside them. Zoey had learned her lesson this time. She knew that this was useless against Zach, so she planned to use a roundabout tactic.

She was no longer as crazy as before. Instead, she became reserved and elegant, looking like a rich young lady.

Zach did not even look at her. He only focused on Elvira.

"I have nothing to do with the Willis family anymore. Can you stop making your presence known in front of me? It's really annoying," Elvira said to Judy without showing any mercy.

"Elvira, what are you talking about? Both of us have the same blood flowing in our veins. We're biological sisters. How can we break up? Zach, don't you think so?" Judy called Zach with extreme sincerity. She looked at Zach with admiration. It was completely different from her previous disdain and arrogance.

"I'll only listen to Elvira. I'll acknowledge whoever she acknowledges. I won't acknowledge anyone she doesn't acknowledge," Zach said firmly.

11:09 -

"Elvira is just throwing a tantrum at home. Elvira, Zach, why do you guys go to our house for a meal tomorrow? Judy invited enthusiastically, completely unbothered by Elvira's rejection.

Elvira was speechless.

Elvira really had to give it to Judy. Judy's skin was thick to a certain extent, and she was so pretentious. No wonder Elvira had always been at a disadvantage with Judy.

It was as if Judy could not understand human language at all. She would always live in her own world and talk to herself.

"Did your family raise donkeys and fish when you were young?" Zach could not help but look at her curiously.

Judy was stunned for a moment and shook her head subconsciously. "No, why would you ask that?"

"Your brain must have been kicked by a donkey. All the water in the fish farm has been poured into your brain. I can even hear the sound of the waves from here! If you don't understand human language, go back home! Elvira said that she has cut ties with the Willis family. Don't you understand? You're talking nonsense with your brain that's kicked by a donkey and filled with water! I feel ashamed for your family!" Zach said sharply.

Judy was stunned by Zach's sarcastic words. She could not believe that he, the dignified CEO of the Gilbert Group, would dare to scold her in public!

Calvin's expression was ugly. He questioned indignantly, "Elvira, are you sure he's the CEO of Gilbert Group"

"What does it have to do with you? We're having a good time here, and you guys are trying to get close to us. Don't you know that you guys are really annoying?" Elvira rolled her eyes speechlessly and pulled Zach away.

She really did not want to talk nonsense with these people.

"Elvira, I'm just here to say hi to you because we're sisters. Do you have to disown your own sister after marrying into a rich family?" Judy looked at Elvira with an aggrieved and helpless expression.

"Biological sister? Are you sure you want to talk about the relationship between biological sisters with me here?" Elvira looked at Judy with a mocking expression. She felt that Judy was so stupid that she could not be saved. When had Elvira ever cared about Judy? Judy actually came up to her!

Judy thought anything else.

how Elvira had exposed her past in public. Her face flushed a little and she bit her lip, not daring to say

"Mr. Gilbert, are you really the CEO of the Gilbert Group? How can you prove that you are?" Calvin did not give up simply asked Zach himself. He really did not believe that Elvira could marry the CEO of the Gilbert Group.

Zach glanced at him sharply with a cold gaze. "Do you really want me to prove it?"

and

"Of course! If you can't prove it, it means that you're a fake!" No matter what, Calvin could not accept the fact that Zach was the CEO of Gilbert Group and that the man Elvira found was stronger than him.

Zach smiled and nodded. He turned to look at Jason and a few reputable CEOs who were paying attention to him and said, "Whoever wants to cooperate with the Gilbert Group will immediately terminate cooperation with the Kennedy Group."

The few CEOs were overjoyed when they heard that. Compared to the Gilbert Group, the Kennedy Group was nothing. They immediately took out their phones and ordered that if there was a collaboration, it would end. If there was no collaboration, they would never collaborate.

Calvin did not expect Zach to be so despicable! He actually used such a method to prove his identity. Calvin's expression was extremely ugly as he said anxiously, "Are you crazy?"

"Mr. Kennedy, today is my banquet. Mr. Gilbert and Mrs. Gilbert are my VIP guests. You guys are too rude. Forgive me for not being able to entertain you guys anymore. Please leave quickly. It won't look good if you're chased out by the bodyguards." Jason was a smart person. He could already tell what was going on, so he immediately came over to chase Calvin and the other two away in order to appeal to Zach.

She Got A Better Man

hapter 129

Calvin's expression turned even uglier. Judy's expression changed. It was extremely embarrassing to be chased out of such a banquet!

Zoey's expression changed as well. She looked at Zach aggrievedly. "Zach, can you not chase us away on my account?"

"Elvira, aren't you being too cruel? How could you let someone do this?" Judy looked sad and angry.

"It's not wrong to say that your brain was kicked by a donkey. I was the one who chased you away! It has nothing to do with Elvira!" Zach immediately came out to defend Elvira.

Everyone also found it interesting. Judy was too fake and pretentious. It was clearly them who had been chasing after Zach and Elvira and asking questions, questioning Zach's identity, and even asking him to prove his identity. Now that Zach had proven it, Judy and the rest were starting to feel aggrieved again

Who should feel more aggrieved?

In the end, Calvin, Judy, and Zoey were chased out. The three of them left with their faces down. They felt utterly humiliated.

Judy was so angry that she was trembling. Calvin and Judy got into the car. Zoey was still looking inside. Calvin asked angrily, "Are you leaving?"

"No, I'm not leaving yet. You and Judy can go back first." Zoey did not want to leave. It was not easy for her to meet Zach. She wanted to wait for him to come out and say a few words before leaving.

Judy looked at Zoey, who kept looking inside. Her eyes were filled with disdain. Zach had already made it very clear that he was not interested in Zoey, but she still wanted to throw herself at him. How cheap! Judy looked down on Zoey from the bottom of her heart.

Calvin had really suffered enough today. He was too lazy to care about his cousin anymore. Moreover, Zach was ruthless enough to directly get someone to terminate the collaboration with his family. He could even predict that there was another mess to clean up at home. His mind was in a mess now, and he did not have the mood to care about this infatuated cousin. He ordered the driver to drive back.

After the eyesores left, Elvira was in a much better mood. She even ate more food. Zach stayed with her throughout. Anyone could tell that Zach loved Elvira very much.

Elvira wanted to go to the washroom. Zach also wanted to accompany her, but she rejected him.

"I'm just going to the washroom. I won't be lost. Go and have a chat with everyone. Those people are looking forward to it." Elvira smiled and nudged him.

"Then come back quickly." Zach squeezed her palm.

Elvira nodded in agreement and went to the washroom.

After relieving herself, Elvira felt dizzy when she came out to wash her hands. She cursed inwardly. There was a scent in the toilet. She had come out with Zach today and did not bring the antidote pill that Olivia had given her.

Elvira quickly turned around to ask for help, but the toilet door was locked. She could not open it at all.

In the next second, she lost consciousness and fainted completely.

Zach waited for about ten minutes, but Elvira still did not return. He was worried and went to the bathroom to look for her. He shouted Elvira's name outside, but he did not hear Elvira's answer. He was shocked and immediately called the waitress over to take a look.

"Sir, there's no one in there," the waitress said nervously.

Zach's expression changed slightly. He immediately barged in. After confirming that there was no one inside, he immediately called his bodyguards to find someone.

When Elvira woke up, she was in a car. She had no strength at all. She frowned and looked at Gary, who was sitting at the side. She frowned and questioned, "Gary, are you crazy? Why did you catch me?"

Gary's hand reached out to Elvira. Elvira wanted to hit him, but she could not even raise her hand. She could only let him raise her chin and watch as Gary laughed evilly. "Elvira, do you think Zach will still want you if I force myself on you?"

Elvira secretly scolded him for being a pervert. "Gary, calm down. What you're doing won't do you any good! You're a rich young master after all, and you don't lack women. Why do you have to do such a harmful thing?"

"A rich young master from a wealthy family? Have you seen a rich young master who has nothing? That rascal, Zach, snatched the company away and didn't leave anything for us! Even my good-for-nothing father can only live under his nose! I want to disgust Zach and make him unhappy!" As Gary spoke, he pounced on Elvira and kissed her.

Elvira was disgusted to death. She felt that the food she had just eaten was surging in her stomach and was about to make her vomit.

"Gary, calm down! I don't think you're a brainless person. How can you do such a brainless thing?"

Gary did not care. It was as if he had gone crazy and wanted to take revenge on Zach.

The person in charge of the Gilbert family had always been Benjamin. Ever since his mother brought him into the family, Benjamin had chased his parents out of the Gilbert family's old residence, leaving Zach alone to care for him. Gary and Zach were both the Gilbert family's grandchildren, and Gary was still the eldest grandson. Why did Benjamin only care about Zach?

Later on, Benjamin only supported Zach. He even stripped Gary's father of his position in the company. In the end, when Benjamin died, he even gave all his shares to Zach. Benjamin did not leave any shares for Gary and his father! Benjamin was ridiculously biased!

Gary hated Zach. He would snatch everything from Zach, but Zach was too smart. Gary could not snatch anything from him at all!

In recent years, Zach had been so detached that he was almost emotionless, with not a single weakness to be found. But now, the appearance of Elvira has given Zach vulnerability!

Today, Gary would destroy what Zach cared about the most!

With a ripping sound, the dress on Elvira's body was torn open. Her snow-white skin was so fair that it dazzled the eyes. It was beautiful and seductive, making Gary's eyes light up and emit wolf-like greed.

Elvira screamed, but there was nothing she could do. She could only keep shouting for help, hoping that someone would come and save her. When the man's lips roamed over her body, she felt as if a poisonous snake had crawled over her. It was cold and disgusting. "Go ahead and scream. By the time Zach rushes over, I'll already be done! I'm going to destroy what he cares about the most today!" Gary was extremely excited. He unbuckled his belt and quickly unzipped his pants.

Elvira quickly closed her eyes and turned her head away. She only regretted that she was too careless and did not bring the pill that Olivia gave her. She actually let Gary, this bastard, take advantage of her.

Elvira could not accept this reality at all!

Just as Gary was about to take over Elvira, there was a loud bang Gary's car shook violently from the impact. He lost his balance, cursed, and turned around. He saw a black SUV passing by his car and drifting beautifully in front of it.

Gary was so angry that he cursed loudly. He had planned today matter for a long time. It was impossible for Zach to chase after him. Who was the one who ruined his plans?

She Got A Better Man

In the darkness, a black figure got out of the SUV. He walked quickly to the car behind him. The driver and bodyguard got out and tried to stop the other party, but they were knocked down by the other party with a single blow. They could not even get up.

As soon as Gary got out of the car, the door was opened. The person reached out and grabbed him, throwing him into the smelly ditch by the roadside.

Gary had already fallen heavily in the car. Now that he was thrown again, he felt dizzy and nauseous. He had not even put on his pants when he bumped his manhood. It was so painful that tears came out of his eyes. He felt that he would not be able to do it in the future. After the man got into the car, he immediately took the clothes at the side and covered Elvira. He ignored her questions and carried her out of the car to his own car.

"Who are you? Let go of me!" Elvira did not recover her strength at all. She was as soft as a puddle of water. She glared at the man who was hugging her in exasperation.

The man ignored her and threw her into the back seat of his car. He closed the door, quickly got into the driver's seat, and drove away

It had only been a minute since he appeared. By the time Gary's bodyguards arrived, the car's rear lights were already gone. Everyone hurriedly pulled Gary out of the smelly ditch. Gary was so angry that he scolded, "Which bastard ruined my plans? Hurry up and chase after him! If you catch him, you have to kill that bastard!"

Elvira lay weakly in the back seat of the car, trying her best to think of a way to save herself. Unfortunately, she really had no choice.

"Who are you? Where are you taking me?" Elvira continued to question the man driving in front.

The man was wearing a black hoodie. The hat covered the upper half of his face and the mask covered the lower half of his face. She could not see the man's face at all.

The man ignored her. He slowed down after driving for a while, and the car became much more stable.

"Are you mute? Can you say something? What are you trying to do by arresting me?" Elvira continued to question.

However, the man seemed to be determined to ignore her. Elvira asked a few more questions. Seeing that he still did not speak, she could only shut up. She thought about how to recover her strength. She did not know what medicine that bastard Gary had given her. It had been so long, but she still had not recovered any strength.

Elvira knew that she could not do anything now. Even if this man wanted to do something to her, she did not have the ability to resist. Therefore, she simply calmed herself down and did not say anything. She just lay there. It would naturally be best if she could recover some strength. If not, she would accept her fate. However, she would definitely take revenge!

When the car stopped, Elvira's heart was in her throat. Her nerves were tense again. She realized that the psychological preparation she had done for herself was useless. When she really faced this criminal, she was still trembling in fear.

At the thought of being violated by a strange man, she felt so disgusted that she wanted to vomit.

The man reached out and pulled Elvira out to hug her. He carried her out of the car and into a courtyard.

"Who are you? What are you trying to do? Let me tell you, if you dare to touch me, I will kill you!" Elvira threatened with red eyes.

However, with her current appearance, she really did not have much deterrence. It would only make people think that she was fierce and cute.

When they reached the living room, the man placed her on the sofa and finally said, "Let's make a deal"

"Alright!" Elvira agreed without hesitation. As long as the other party had a request, it would be easy. She would agree to anything as long as he did not violate her.

The man was surprised that she agreed to his request so readily he did not expect her to be so calm in such an unbearable situation. This surprised him greatly.

"Aren't you going to ask what the deal is?" the man asked curiously.

"I'm in a situation where I'm at the mercy of others. You're giving me a chance. Of course, I'll agree. Hurry up and tell me!" Elvira's clothes had been torn apart by Gary. Even if she covered herself with one piece of clothing, she would feel very insecure. After all, there was a high chance that the other party was a wolf.

The man pondered for a while and said, "I can let you go and promise not to hurt you, but you have to promise me that you won't tell Zach that Gary was the one behind what happened today. Let him go this time."

Elvira was also stunned by his deal, but she quickly agreed. "Okay, I promise you."

The man was speechless.

"Are you sure you can do it?"

Elvira agreed too quickly. The man felt that she was not sincere at all.

"I'm sure. As long as you let me go, I'm sure I can do it. Otherwise, I swear!" Elvira said seriously.

The man still did not believe her. He took out his phone and walked towards her. Elvira was so angry that her face turned red. She questioned, "What are you trying to do? You're the one who went back on your word!"

The man ignored her words and reached out to lift the clothes covering her. Elvira screamed, but the man ignored her and took a photo of her with his phone. After taking the photo, he quickly turned around and covered Elvira with the clothes. "What are you trying to do?" Elvira asked through gritted teeth.

"If you tell Zach about what happened today and let something happen to Gary, this photo will become popular all over the Internet!" After the man threatened, he took a pill and stuffed it into Elvira's mouth.

After doing all this, the man left without looking back.

Elvira was left speechless.

The man sat back in his car and removed his mask and hat, revealing a handsome face that bore a 50 percent resemblance to Zach. His face and ears were red.

Thinking of the photos on his phone, he threw the phone aside as if it was a hot potato.

Elvira recovered a little. She quickly found her phone and called Zach.

Zach was going crazy looking for her, but it was as if she had disappeared into thin air. There was no clue at all. When he received her call, Zach was about to cry tears of joy and rushed over crazily.

Elvira regained her strength. Her body was still sore. When she saw Zach, her tears finally fell uncontrollably. She rushed towards the man, who was also running towards her, and reached out to hug him tightly. Her voice was choked as she said, "Zach, you're finally here. I was almost scared to death."

Elvira cried very sadly. Ever since he got together with Elvira, Zach had seen Elvira in any way, but he had never seen her cry. At this moment, she was crying very miserably, like a child who had been wronged. He felt that his heart was about to break.

He hugged Elvira nightly, but he was afraid that he would hurt her too much. He did not know what to do. Elvira was still crying. Gary had almost violated her. She was really too afraid!

This was also the first time Samson and Spike had seen Elvira cry like this. In the past, she had always been independent and sober. Suddenly, she cried like a child, making their hearts ache
