Chapter 591: Revealing Shen Jiaqi's Disguise

"Sis, do you remember this fan's name? Liang Liang, the one who's a classmate of Li Xiaolou, known as [The Student Who Wants to Jump off a Building Every Day]. He initially wanted to learn English through live streams with Li Xiaolou but lost a bet, so he calls Li Xiaolou dad and me Grass Fish Mama. He's that funny guy?"

"Mmmhmm." Zuzi's divine sense flickered, and a funny little chubby boy popped into her mind.

"Li Xiaolou left a comment saying that Liang Liang is recently obsessed with Shen Jiaqi. Last time when Gu Pinting had a mishap in the live stream, Liang Liang went around explaining for Shen Jiaqi, saying it wasn't her fault. Actually, it's nothing if he's not a fan of mine and likes someone else instead. The key point is that Li Xiaolou said Liang Liang is acting strange, buying a bunch of cosmetics along with Shen Jiaqi and piling them up in the dormitory! These are all things girls use—what's he doing buying so many as a single guy, unless he's opening a mini-mart! Li Xiaolou is very worried and asked if I knew Shen Jiaqi and if I could have Shen Jiaqi advise fans in the live stream to consume rationally."

"Do you think Shen Jiaqi would listen to you?" Zuzi squinted her phoenix eyes slightly, her tone lazy.

Xi Rubao's face fell: "Certainly not, the rivalry between Shen Jiaqi and me is at a fever pitch. He wants nothing more than to steal all my fans and make sure I can't sell a thing. Can he voluntarily tell fans not to spend money on him? He'd definitely scold me for meddling!"

"So do you want to meddle in this?"

"Sis, I can't handle Shen Jiaqi's die-hard fans, but Liang Liang used to be my fan. Seeing him go astray really—"

"Makes you feel uneasy?"

"Yes, yes, that's exactly how I feel! Sis, I see him and it's like seeing myself when I was bewitched by Xi Ruzhu. I really want to knock some sense into him! But I don't know what the right method is; if it's wrong, what if he rebels..."

Zuzi pondered: "Alright. As you wish, go and expose her painted skin."

"Huh? Sis, what skin exposing are you talking about? It sounds scary."

Xi Rubao looked utterly confused.

Yet Zuzi changed the subject: "Tomorrow is the family gathering Xiao Bei mentioned, right?"

"Yes, Grandpa said even the relatives from abroad are coming back. The extended Gu Family from all over the country is also heading home. Probably everyone alive in the family tree will be there. It's going to be a big event. The dining room at home won't be enough; we'll have to hold a buffet on the garden lawn. Sis, I'm already so excited just thinking about it. I've only seen big family dinners on the lawns in TV shows; we've never had one in Qingcheng!"

"Mmmhmm."

Zuzi squinted her eyes, somehow reminded of the times when the Queen Mother of the West loved lively occasions. Whenever she held an immortal banquet, the peach forest for miles would be filled with fine wines.

And even though she didn't love lively gatherings, finding a comfortable peach tree to lie under and watch Xing Tian and Gong Gong bickering was quite amusing.

If not for that handsy guy always wanting to steal the lipstick from her lips...

Ah, why am I thinking of that East Sea guy!

It must be because of the recent visit to the underground palace, which brought back old memories, making one occasionally wonder if that East Sea guy still hasn't completely died.

But the blueprint from Nangong Mo was indeed an ancestral heirloom.

The original was drawn on a parchment scroll, bearing the marks of millennia.

As for this person, Nangong Mo...

She couldn't detect any familiar scent from him, his appearance was ordinary, but each time she saw him, there was an inexplicable irritation, prompting her to avoid him.

Xiao Cheng smells much better!

Zuzi let out a soft sigh, feeling it's somewhat of a waste not to fall asleep to Xiao Cheng's scent every night.

In hindsight, she should have agreed to move in with Xiao Cheng.

An ancestor living with a young descendant, taking care of a young descendant with little time left, that shouldn't be against the rules, right?

This should count as... mercy, right?

Chapter 592: Never Let Scum Off Overnight, This Time Is An Exception!

"Sis, what are you thinking about? Were you listening to me?"

The playful and slightly aggrieved voice of Xi Rubao came to her ears.

Only then did Zuzi realize she had been so deeply lost in thought about Bao Gucheng.

"Ahem, what did you say, little grass fish?"

"Sis, Mom and Uncle will leave Qingcheng tomorrow at noon and should arrive in the capital by the evening banquet. Uncle won't let us go to the airport to pick them up, saying it's fine to meet at Grandpa's house. Sis, I felt a touch of heaviness in Uncle's voice, I'm really worried that the Gu Family might give Mom a hard time tomorrow..."

"Hmm, yeah, they'll definitely make things difficult."

In a big family, with so many people and so much gossip, there's always someone odd, especially since back then it was a mistake leading to expulsion, leaving is easy but returning is hard. Gu Qiusa wanting to come back grandly is not that simple.

"Well, we're really outnumbered here, let me count, okay? The whole of the third branch is quirky and will surely vote against us. Adding Gu Shiyin, that's four votes against us already, and we don't even know how those overseas relatives are thinking... Mom getting full approval is too difficult! If not for fighting for a breath of dignity, I'd rather give up, can't bear to see Mom suffer like this, only to be crushed by the end."

"Well, every cloud has a silver lining, everyone has to go through this, little grass fish."

"Ugh, I get it, but... sigh, alright then, Sis, let's not worry about Mom for now, let's deal with Shen Jiaqi tonight first? You asked me to take action earlier, Sis you direct, I'll do the work, what's the plan?"

"Tomorrow night."

"Huh? Sis, didn't you say that scum shouldn't be left to survive overnight? Not even a moment's chance?"

"Yeah, tomorrow night, it's more fun that way."

"???"

Xi Rubao couldn't fathom the immortal sister's way of thinking!

==

Evening.

Before sleep, Bao Gucheng routinely video-called Zuzi.

His concern was also the Gu Qiusha's return to the Gu Family the following day for the 'judgment.'

"I have the list of everyone in the Gu Family Tree, should I interfere?" Bao Gucheng in a bathrobe, seemingly fresh from a shower, with glistening water droplets on his short hair.

Zuzi squinted a little, finding the boy right out of the bath really refreshing, looking like he smelled great.

Not sure when it started, but he'd always video-call her after his shower.

On the contrary, she remembered to put on her pajamas before accepting the video call.

It's nice to admire him too.

She waved her hand casually, "No need to forcibly intervene, Xiao Cheng. You just focus on your work."

Bao Gucheng felt a bit let down.

Every time she told him to "go be busy," it felt like he couldn't quite exert his strength.

"Those Gu Family branches, if I give them enough benefits, they'll surely vote in favor, this isn't interference, it's understanding human nature and going with the flow." Bao Gucheng was still trying, after all, the funds were ready to make the purchase, as long as the little woman nodded, he'd start buying votes tonight.

Zuzi chuckled lightly, "Xiao Cheng, you've learned to be naughty, even bribery now."

Bao Gucheng cleared his throat, "I'm no saint." For you, I can use any means necessary.

Zuzi's ruby lips curled up, "But the Ancestor doesn't want you to waste money, alright. If you really want to do something, how about you prepare a motorcade..."

She gave him a task.

At least she gave him a minor role.

Bao Gucheng's disappointed look slightly softened, "Alright."

"Goodnight, Xiao Cheng."

"You sleep first, I'll work for a while... no need to turn off the watch."

"Mm-hmm."

The little ancestor who didn't need sleep, slept soundly under the boy's gaze.

Instead, it was Bao Gucheng who needed rest, staring at the girl's sleeping face on the little screen, reluctant to sleep for a long time...

Chapter 593: Boss of Ma Jia is about to be Exposed by the Ancestor Again!

Late at night.

The computer screen flickers with a blue light.

On the screen, a man wearing a mask is holding five or six different lipsticks, demonstrating swatches.

The man applies the lipsticks on his upper and lower lips, and the remaining on his chin and arm.

Because most of his face is covered by the mask, the exposed chin seems particularly soft, but the voice reveals that it's a man, a fairly young one.

He carefully introduces each lipstick shade, concluding with the suggestion: "You all must collect these; this time, the shades are a special summer edition, released only once, definitely worth buying to collect. Plus, I suggest buying ten sets if you can, as gifts for family, gifts for friends, stylish and classy... Enough said, the lowest price across the entire internet, trust Brother Qi and buy quickly, it will be taken down in two minutes."

This is Shen Jiaqi's livestream.

He has already broadcast over fifty items today, and he's still going in the deep night.

On the desk, there's a Jade Token, emitting a faint glow in the dark, making his face appear especially radiant.

On the other side of the screen is a narrow boys' dormitory.

Zhao Liang is craning his neck, staring intently at the screen, and as soon as Shen Jiaqi mentions the two-minute countdown, he goes into a frenzy, typing away furiously with his ten fingers.

He managed to grab ten sets of lipstick gift boxes in six different colors.

Satisfied.

Just about to yawn and shut down the computer.

Unexpectedly, Shen Jiaqi on the screen pulls out another pencil-like set and starts introducing: "This is an imported brand eyeliner, a set of twelve colors, you can complete a rainbow, and tonight your Brother Qi has secured the world's lowest price for you..."

Zhao Liang's eyes light up again, just like all the young girls in the livestream, filled with enthusiasm, jumping back into the shopping spree...

Even though he doesn't know the difference between an eyeliner and a pencil.

He doesn't even know who he would give them to.

But that masked face inexplicably triggers an urge to buy and buy.

Meanwhile.

Gu Family.

Sun Jiao from the third house is doing the same action.

Staying up late watching the livestream, placing orders, and shopping.

Like a spinning top, she simply can't stop...

The next morning.

Shen Jiaqi's overall search ranking on the internet is still far below that of Little Grass Fish.

But the sales figures exceed that of Little Grass Fish by a long shot...

Xi Rubao: "I'm not angry, I'm really not angry, I will soon be able to see Mama."

Zuzi: "Change tonight's 9 PM livestream to start at 7 PM instead."

"Sis, are you afraid my fans will stay up too late?"

"Uh-huh."

"Okay, sis, no problem. Wait, sis, that's not right, at 7 PM we'll just arrive at Gu Mansion waiting for the banquet to start, how can I stream?"

"Use your phone, stream as usual."

"As you command!"

That night, as Xi Rubao stepped into the Gu household, she realized her immortal sister truly had foresight.

The place was packed with people, crowded in the small garden, all of whom were unfamiliar.

The second house was busy with greeting guests and didn't have time to introduce them to other relatives.

Instead of wasting time here with boring socializing, it was better to hide in the study for the livestream, waiting until Mama and Uncle arrived, then go out later.

Xi Rubao took the opportunity to stream.

In the garden.

Gu Shiyin, dressed in a beautiful blue evening gown, was mingling among relatives, exchanging pleasantries, when her phone vibrated.

It was a message from Liu Jing, the general manager of Shark Live:

"Damn, that salted fish has surprised us again by streaming two hours early, is she trying to steal the audience early, Qi hurry up and start! Quick quick quick!"

Chapter 594: Little Ancestor Warns: You Will Regret Not Casting a Favorable Vote 【Extra for Tianqing-se Colored Rain】

Liu Jing constantly kept an eye on the movements from the Xiao Caoyu side.

After all, if the rival's stream is thriving, it means their own traffic decreases. The market pie is only so big; we absolutely can't let the rival take a bigger slice.

So, he immediately pushed the news about Xiao Caoyu to Shen Jiaqi, urging him to act quickly and grab the traffic!

Gu Shiyin's gentle eyebrows skimmed over this information, soft light receding somewhat.

A sweeping glance revealed, indeed, there was no sign of Xi Rubao.

No idea where she's hiding to stream!

That little sneak knows how to find the time, slipping in whenever there's a gap, huh.

Gu Shiyin put away her phone, and with a smile, she said to the aunts and uncles nearby, "There are a few urgent papers in the school research lab that need my review. I'll excuse myself for a moment. Aunt, Uncle, you continue chatting."

Praise erupted around her—

"Xiao Liu is truly the old master's most outstanding daughter, attending a PhD program and staying on to teach at such a young age, and in the booming biomedical field no less. Her prospects are truly bright!"

"Ah, as far as I know, our Shiyin isn't just skilled in medicine, she's multi-talented. She's proficient in music, chess, calligraphy, and painting, and secretly juggles many professions. What's that term in the country for it?"

"Boss of Ma Jia! That's what it's called!"

"Our Shiyin is truly capable!"

Gu Shiyin pretended not to hear, curling her lips slightly, she walked with a steady and light pace upstairs.

Behind her, as everyone praised Gu Shiyin, naturally, they pulled Gu Qiusha out for comparison—

"Actually, back then, Sha Sha wasn't bad herself, wasn't she studying art? She was quite excellent too, right, Third Aunt-in-law?"

"Excellent, what excellent? It's wasted! She married some country bumpkin tycoon; what future can she have?"

"Exactly, otherwise she wouldn't have reached this point, being removed from the genealogy, requiring a full family vote to come back."

"Oh, truly a pity, they originally were such an equally excellent pair of sisters..."

"Huh, equally? Eighth Aunt, you know, right? Shiyin was a test-tube baby conceived after Sha Sha's mistakes caused the old master's heartbreak, meticulously selected and nurtured. Her genes are incredibly strong. Moreover, the old master was so heartbroken by Sha Sha that he wanted this youngest daughter; of course, Shiyin is more outstanding!"

"Indeed, I've heard that test-tube baby technology allows choosing the better developed..."

"Hey, keep it down, have you received a call from the third family, asking us to vote against?"

"Yes, yes, they even offered us benefits. But it's not about being greedy for their benefits, it's just that if someone who made mistakes easily returns, wouldn't it make the genealogy seem unserious?"

"So, how do you plan to vote later? Shouldn't we come to a common agreement; otherwise, if just a few of us vote against, won't it be awkward? Better to oppose together..."

Third Aunt-in-law led the suggestion, and Eighth Aunt and the others were hesitating.

Suddenly, a white figure sliced through the crowd, walking with brisk steps.

The mouths gossiping were suddenly zipped tight as if by a zipper, rendering them speechless.

The woman in white showed a gentle smile, nodded slightly at everyone, "Make sure you vote in favor of Xiao Sha, otherwise you'll lose your fortune and regret it."

Everyone felt a mysterious jolt in their hearts.

It seemed as if what this woman said was an oracle, and they felt a weight of a thousand catties pressing on their hearts.

Zuzi glided gracefully through the crowd, heading to the bar filled with exquisite wines, sniffed lightly, and showed slight disdain:

"Xiao Bei's wine is rather bland..."

Chapter 595: The Little Ancestor Striving to Adapt to Modern Society!

A group of aunts and uncles behind almost couldn't stand: "..."

This wine is bland?

This is plainly Mr. Gu's treasured edition of Hennessy, limited edition national Moutai, and his exclusive thirty-year-old aged daughter red wine...

Every bottle is very very very expensive, okay?

Everyone couldn't help but point and gossip—

"Who is this little girl's family? Which branch?"

"She looks quite pretty like a fairy. Is she the third family's celebrity, Gu Pinting?"

"Definitely not. Third sister-in-law hasn't gone to the film set to pick up her daughter, has she? Her wife Sun Jiao said she went to the kitchen to check on snacks but hasn't been seen since. Otherwise, we would ask her."

"Who cares who she is, her tone is so bold, actually saying we will regret if we don't vote in favor?"

"I really want to see how we'll regret it. I've never taken a regret pill in my life!"

"Hey, why are you, Auntie Third, picking a fight with a little girl?"

"Exactly, exactly, let's continue talking about Sha Sha. Did she come back with that husband from the countryside?"

"Hey, no, she's divorced!"

"Ah? Divorced? What proper woman gets divorced? How did Sha Sha fall to this state?"

"Tell me about it. It's really embarrassing. In our socialite circle, whose family isn't a mess? Yet we struggle to maintain it. Yet, where do women get divorced lightly, so immature..."

"So, did she come back this time because she's broke and wants the Gu Family to support her countryside husband?"

"We absolutely won't agree! I have shares in the Gu Family business too!"

"Not agreeing!"

"Absolutely not agreeing!"

"Anyone who agrees is a fool!"

The relatives were gossiping fervently.

Gu Qiusha and Gu Yuzhi had just gotten off the plane and were on their way from the airport; Mr. Gu hadn't slept all night, his head was a bit dizzy, and with so many relatives around, he felt even dizzier, so he simply rested in his bedroom, instructing the servants to call him down when Gu Qiusha arrived.

At this moment, Zuzi was leaning alone against the bar, waiting for the crowd to bring her ancient perfect brew, finally raising her glass and cheerfully looking around the room.

"Ancestor, these people are so unappreciative, gossiping about Xiao Sha behind their backs, let Xiao Jin show them some colors!"

Let them eat a few piles of gold droppings, humph humph.

Zuzi's red lips curled slightly, seemingly in a good mood: "No rush, a good show is about to start, drink with Ancestor, Xiao Jin!"

"Caw!" The little crow had long craved that wine, smacking its lips, poured itself a glass, stretched its long beak, stretched... hey, it mistakenly took a champagne glass and couldn't drink it!

Fu Xiqin laughed beside him with a hint: "Brother Jin, you can throw little stones in!"

The little crow: "Pfoeey! Am I such an ungraceful bird?"

It was looking around, trying to find some sugar cubes to float the wine a bit...

"Plop." Zuzi pinched a straw with her jade fingers and tossed it into the glass.

"Ancestor is wise; neither I nor dumb Qin thought of using a straw!" The little crow held the straw and drank the wine.

Zuzi spoke earnestly: "Xiao Jin, you must try to adapt to society today."

She drank happily alone, sat on the table with her long legs dangling beneath, just like sitting on a peach branch, the elegant white dress swinging, swinging...

Causing passing servants and relatives to glance over, shivering slightly.

Luckily, more explosive news soon shifted everyone's attention—

"Have you heard? That Shen Jiaqi has broken records again tonight, truly the top influencer!"

Chapter 596: The Top Streamer's Enchantment!

The crowd's attention suddenly shifted to this online celebrity—

"Really, I've watched his livestreams even when I'm abroad. Many wealthy ladies around me are his fans too, often buying his things in bulk to give as gifts..."

"I thought he only sold the cheapest cosmetics online, are wealthy ladies actually buying too?"

"Of course, they might not use them themselves but can give them as gifts, and his livestreams are really persuasive, making people want to buy. Plus, today he's selling loose diamonds, and the diamonds are at the lowest price online, doesn't that tempt you?"

Loose diamonds?!

A favorite among wealthy ladies.

The well-off aunts and relatives were instantly drawn in, quickly opening up the Shark livestream app on their phones.

At this very moment.

Sun Jiao, hiding in her bedroom watching the livestream, was also staring at the screen, eyes sparkling.

She couldn't even bother with the family gathering, having only exchanged a few pleasantries before realizing Shen Jiaqi had started the stream early and rushed to watch it.

The glittering diamonds on the screen looked so enticing she nearly drooled on her keyboard.

If it weren't for her useless husband, whose failed investments left them drowning in debt, she could have bought out all of Brother Qi's stock and become the most dazzling woman on the internet alongside him!

But now...

Counting the credit cards maxed out this month, Sun Jiao knew she couldn't buy anything tonight.

Yet on the screen, the masked man's voice was soft yet enticing: "Women should treat themselves better. If you don't spend your money on yourself, will your husband spend it on another woman outside? Dress yourself up beautifully, and your husband will keep his eyes glued to you..."

Each word seemed to strike right at Sun Jiao's heart.

Her husband, Gu Pingzhi, had been going out every day recently, saying he was doing business to make money and pay off debts. Who knew if he was out partying and seeing another girl?

No, she had to treat herself better!

Sun Jiao's eyes were gradually drawn to the glittering diamonds on the screen, unable to pull away.

She rummaged through drawers and found the credit cards of Gu Pingzhi and Gu Pinting, and then entered the account numbers backstage, excitedly trying to snatch up the loose diamonds.

Those were the lowest-priced loose diamonds online!

Eight hearts and eight arrows, dazzling fire, highly rated!

Brother Qi said buying them could be an investment, appreciating in value, maybe even helping to pay off her family's debts by reselling them...

Sun Jiao maxed out all the credit cards, spending a total of 1.74 million.

Meanwhile.

In the boys' dormitory.

Zhao Liang was also racking his brains to gather money. He'd just called home claiming he needed money for an English crash course, getting his father to transfer 20 thousand.

Just enough to buy the smallest piece, a few points worth of loose diamond.

"Not even a full carat, I'm really embarrassing Brother Qi..." Zhao Liang muttered, staring at his heavy dark circles.

He looked like a lovestruck fool who felt guilty for not being able to afford better support.

Behind him.

Li Xiaolou watched with worry: "Liang Liang, what's the point of buying diamonds? You're even deceiving your dad, he earns that hard-earned money working in a coal mine. Does he know you're spending it on a streamer? And on someone who just urges you to buy, buy, buy? We have some pocket money, wouldn't it be better to tip Teacher Cao Yu, where we can actually learn something!"

Zhao Liang didn't turn his head, completely immersed in the livestream screen: "You don't understand, you don't understand, Jiaqi is the person who treats me the best in this world..."

Li Xiaolou glanced at the screen and was momentarily dazzled.

There seemed to be something on the screen, glowing dimly, pulling him in.

Frightened, he quickly looked away.

It was terrifying.

No wonder Zhao Liang was obsessed.

If it weren't for his habit of watching Teacher Cao Yu's refreshingly styled livestreams and not being accustomed to the flashy, sparkly style, building up immunity, he might have been pulled in too.

What to do, how could he save his friend?!

He messaged Teacher Cao Yu, but the teacher only replied with four words "Wait for tonight!"

Just as he was about to despair.

Suddenly.

The screen filled with loose diamonds, glittering brightly, suddenly dimmed!

Then came an exclamation—

Chapter 597: Heartless Ancestor Exposes the Disguise: Gu Shiyin Again and Again Loses Her Cover on the Spot!

"Brother Qi, you, you, what's happening? Are you doing some magic trick?"

Zhao Liang exclaimed.

The hand about to pay twenty thousand for a loose diamond trembled, dropping the keyboard to the ground in shock.

Li Xiaolou looked over, even more breathless: "Oh my, Shen Jiaqi, he, he, she..."

At the same time.

On the Gu Family's backyard lawn.

A group of wealthy ladies, seven aunts and eight aunts, were eagerly holding their phones, snatching loose diamonds, competing over whose phone had faster internet speed, and who could secure more diamonds.

To them, money was merely numbers, and this buying frenzy over diamonds felt thrilling, like grabbing cabbages.

Besides, the host was Brother Qi, number one across the internet, making them love the game even more.

Even if the girl in white sitting at the bar, swinging her long legs, smiled and reminded them, "Buying things recklessly will make you regret it, kids."

They only dismissed Zuzi as crazy, ignoring her.

At their age, did they need a kid to tell them what was good or valuable?

However.

Just as they were most excited from snatching diamonds.

In an instant, everyone stopped, stumbling and almost knocking over the wine rack, exclaiming in shock: "Brother Qi, how did you become a woman?"

In the livestream, Shen Jiaqi was energetically introducing the most expensive loose diamond, priced at 8.88 million, as big as three pigeon eggs.

The livestream sales were reaching an all-time high, with news releases by Shark flying everywhere, drawing countless passersby into his stream.

The livestream's followers were about to surpass the 90-million record of "I am a Little Grass Carp."

Suddenly.

The lights in the stream dimmed.

The lampshade above his head fell with a "bang," smashing onto his mask.

The mask fell to the ground, along with the lampshade.

And Shen Jiaqi's true face was completely exposed to everyone, uncovered.

It was a woman's effeminate face.

Wearing a man's wig!

No matter how one looked at it, it seemed awkward, especially under the dim night lighting, giving off a bit of an eerie feeling!

Frightening the audience working hard to boost Brother Qi's sales in front of their screens.

Frightening even more the wealthy ladies on the lawn, competing over who bought more loose diamonds.

They were more shocked than the average fans and audience.

Because that effeminate and awkward face—they recognized it!

"Isn't this, this, isn't this the Gu Family's Sixth Miss, Shiyin?"

"That's right, it's her. Half an hour ago, she was chatting with us. I just saw her—this exact face, just with a wig!"

"But didn't Sixth Miss say she had urgent matters in the school lab, dealing with some thesis review stuff? We even praised her as a top student; did you all forget?"

Of course, they hadn't forgotten.

The seven aunts and eight aunts were all sharp as a tack.

How could they forget? Because they remembered, discovering Gu Shiyin lied, appearing in the stream, and luring them into buying diamonds under a false identity made them feel uneasy!

Their closest relative deceived them with empty words!

This feeling of betrayal was worse than that of fans and viewers miles away!

On the internet.

The barrage was overwhelming, nearly drowning the stream—

"Brother Qi, you're a woman!"

"Brother Qi, you deceived me!"

"Brother Qi, what else have you lied about?"

"Brother Qi, you can't do this. Return my money, compensate for my feelings!"

Seeing the fans' outcry becoming uncontrollable.

Gu Shiyin bit her lip desperately on camera—

Chapter 598: The Mischievous Little Ancestor, Extremely Calm

"Sorry, I was just trying to make a joke earlier and ended up scaring the Qi fans. It's my fault, I won't make such jokes next time."

The slightly soft male voice came through the microphone.

Gu Shiyin rotated the Jade Token on the table, its dim light aimed at the camera, and continued, "I was just using a new mask made with my good friend Miss Gu's face to liven up the atmosphere in the livestream. Sorry for scaring everyone, I'll switch back to my usual mask now!"

Saying this, she took a deep breath, made a motion of tearing off a facial mask, and then quickly and calmly put on the mask.

Damn it, how unlucky was it that the broken lampshade fell and hit her during the livestream.

Luckily, she reacted quickly. As long as she insisted it was a mask and not her real face, there would be no way to verify it.

Due to the glaring light of the Jade Token, her mask-changing action flashed by in the livestream footage without arousing the audience's suspicion.

The audience, whose minds were already a bit unsettled, were once again dazzled into a slight trance by the Jade Token:

"Ah, Brother Qi, you're really funny..."

"Brother Qi, you're so cute, pretending to be a girl to scare us, but you forgot to remove your Adam's apple, haha..."

"No regrets being a fan of Brother Qi!"

"Shopping with Brother Qi, the happiest!"

Liang Liang in the dorm room sighed in relief, ready to proceed with a 20,000 purchase for a diamond.

Sun Jiao, hiding in the bedroom, patted her chest, saying to herself, how could it possibly be Sister Six? Brother Qi is so handsome, buying for him is worth it! A diamond for 1,740,000 is such a deal!

Even the wealthy ladies on the lawn, the shrewd aunts, relaxed a bit:

"Ha, it was just a joke!"

"Brother Qi and Shiyin are friends, huh? Then we can ask for an autograph later!"

"Oh, quick, the 8.88 million diamond is about to go on sale!"

Watching Gu Shiyin pacify the fans with just a few words.

Zuzi sipped a little wine, with her feet kicked up, shaking her head and sighing, "Ah, even Ancestor offers you a remedy for regret and you won't take it, truly hopeless."

Xi Rubao sent a message: "Sis, can we take action now? I'm about to burst!"

Seeing Shen Jiaqi's fan ratings about to surpass hers.

And Shen Jiaqi has already been exposed, but still tenacious, the little fish can't stand it!

Zuzi remained calm: "Mhm, you count down ten seconds."

Xi Rubao was stunned.

Counting down ten seconds?

Isn't that the timing for Shen Jiaqi's last 8.88 million diamond and the remaining big diamonds to be auctioned?

Is Ancestor planning to continue revealing after these diamonds have been auctioned?

If that's the case...

Xi Rubao looked down from above, slightly pitying those crazy-faced, phone-tapping wealthy ladies competing to buy.

Pathetic. You lot.

Ten seconds.

Nine seconds.

Eight seconds...

The final moment!

The diamonds in Shen Jiaqi's livestream were snatched up in an instant!

Gu Shiyin, livestreaming from her bedroom, was completely relaxed.

Tonight, she should firmly be the top influencer in the whole network, both in sales and total fan value, breaking historical records.

It's something that little fish can never surpass.

The crazy diamond selling scene tonight will go down in history.

She was about to turn off the livestream camera.

Ready to head to the garden to mingle with relatives and find out if they managed to snag any diamonds while subtly hinting them to vote against Gu Qiusha.

However.

A row of fan comments made the eyebrows beneath her mask twitch—

Chapter 599: The Ancestor Had Made Arrangements Long Ago; You Are Guilty of a Most Heinous Crime!

"Brother Qi, the Herbal Fish next door said you're fake from head to toe!"

"Brother Qi, that Herbal Fish is too much, attacking you openly on the livestream!"

"Brother Qi, she even said she would personally expose you!"

"Brother Qi..."

The fans anxiously reported the activities of the neighboring Herbal Fish's livestream to Shen Jiaqi.

Gu Shiyin, however, wasn't worried at all.

Heh, the outcome is already decided, no matter how Xi Rubao jumps around trying to smear her, it's useless.

Unless Xi Rubao can publicly... Suddenly, Gu Shiyin realized a terrifying possibility. As clever as she was, she immediately thought of a loophole tonight: "Xi Rubao is livestreaming in some room at the Gu Family mansion, and so is she. If that town girl suddenly comes over... No, she's too dumb to think of this..."

However, realizing this was already too late.

The bedroom door behind her was kicked open with a "bang—".

The sturdy door lock somehow became feeble at one kick, and before Xi Rubao entered, the sound of her holding the phone live-streaming had already burst in:

"Fish fans, I've always been advising you earnestly not to get addicted to buying, buy moderately, but you say that Shen Jiaqi, this man, has magic, you can't resist buying whatever he sells, right?"

"I even heard, tonight a male fan, for Shen Jiaqi, took his father's hard-earned money and prepared to buy the bare diamond he recommended! Really, Herbal Fish is furious!"

"Herbal Fish never attacks peers, doesn't care about rankings, but meeting someone like Shen Jiaqi, I can't help but get rough!"

"Today, I'm going to thoroughly expose Shen Jiaqi's true face for you!"

Gu Shiyin uttered a "damn" inwardly, raised her hand to cover her face, intending to run out.

But the bedroom was only so big.

Xi Rubao was clearly prepared, after all, the Ancestor had arranged this long ago. As soon as she entered the room, her phone frantically shooting at Gu Shiyin: "See that, fish fans, I'm in Shen Jiaqi's livestream now! You really want to know how I got here, right?"

"Because Shen Jiaqi's last name is Gu, she's my grandfather's daughter. Yes, you heard me right, Shen Jiaqi is a woman! When she dropped her mask just now, what you saw wasn't another mask, but her real face!"

Gu Shiyin felt like strangling Xi Rubao.

Xi Rubao barging into her livestream room made not only Xi Rubao's fans see but her Shen Jiaqi's fans saw even more clearly!

She quickly reached out to end the livestream.

But the computer keyboard seemed frozen, not moving an inch.

She could only continue trying to escape, but Xi Rubao heavily blocked the door. As she walked over, Xi Rubao suddenly took off her mask, giving a big close-up—

"Everyone see it clearly, this is her true face! She's been lying all along!"

The livestream's comment section went crazy.

"Ahhhhh disillusioned!"

"Give me back my Brother Qi!"

"Deception is unforgivable!"

"Give me back my sincere heart!"

Seeing Gu Shiyin's embarrassment, for a moment, Xi Rubao felt she was quite pitiful too, after all, fans turning on her is like having a fan be worth ten haters; even she, the so-called competitor, was almost scared to death seeing Gu Shiyin's mask fall tonight under the Ancestor's arrangement, let alone the fans.

But this brief pity lasted only two seconds.

When Gu Shiyin realized the situation was hopeless and forced a defense, "Cross-dressing, I'm not the first in the world, why are you targeting me?"

Trying to lead everyone to suspect Xi Rubao was targeting her for commercial competition and trying to smear her.

But Xi Rubao narrowed her eyes, continuing mercilessly: "Gu Shiyin, it's one thing to cross-dress, but as a streamer, you have an even greater sin—"

Chapter 600: Ancestor's Light Tip-Toe Shattered Her Heart!

To be honest, Gu Shiyin is not the only big shot disguising herself as a man.

Previously in the Empire, there were also quite a few famous female big shots using men's aliases, who became legends even after their true identities were revealed.

But Gu Shiyin's crime wasn't in pretending to be a man, it was her mad greed in using a man's alias to shamelessly make money!

Xi Rubao didn't think twice. She rushed to the live broadcast camera of Gu Shiyin, picked up the naked diamond just introduced for 8.88 million, and said to the tens of millions of viewers on the other side of the screen, "Look closely, this so-called naked diamond, I'll identify it for you right here!"

Gu Shiyin felt her heart skip a beat.

At this moment, it was definitely too late to stop Xi Rubao.

But fortunately, she still had her amulet.

Her gaze swept over the dark Jade Token on the table.

As long as that Jade Token existed, the people in front of the camera would see a halo over everything she recommended, believing whatever she said.

That Jade Token is called the Filter Jade Token, and it was one of a set of jade items she bought from Master Wu Ming.

It was nourished slowly with some of Gu Pinting's flesh that she had part of, brought back from the cosmetic surgery hospital.

So ever since Gu Pinting had her flesh cut away, Gu Shiyin's live streaming career had been a smooth sail, with fans skyrocketing, infatuated with her regardless of gender. Who wouldn't be, with this Filter Jade Token being so magically enchanting?

Even if Xi Rubao now says on camera that her face, her diamond are fake... it wouldn't really shake the fans' passion for her.

The disappointment of the fans would only be fleeting. As long as the Jade Token was there, they would involuntarily come back to her again!

Can't you see that the fans in her live room haven't decreased but increased, already exceeding a hundred million?

Just when Gu Shiyin was feeling extremely assured inside.

Xi Rubao paused in her speech.

Instead of rushing forward to dismantle, she swept across the table, "Bang—!" and knocked a piece of green jade out of the window.

Everything happened so unexpectedly!

After all, she kept saying she was going to identify the fake diamond, and no one anticipated she would suddenly shift her attention to a seemingly inconspicuous little jade piece.

Gu Shiyin's confident expression instantly cracked a little.

Her legs went weak as she dashed towards the window in panic, "My jade—"

Outside the window.

An arc traced the air, and the jade smashed to the ground at Little Ancestor's feet.

The little Ancestor smiled, lightly stepping on it with her toe, and the jade immediately shattered like a spider's web.

An eerie wisp of smoke billowed out, like a dying sigh, "Spare me, Ancestor..."

"Go back to where you belong." Zuzi's smile took on a sharper edge, sipping some wine, her legs still elegantly crossed, lazily perching on the bar.

It was as if all she had crushed was a chunk of dirt.

But.

At this moment, Gu Shiyin's heart felt utterly crushed!

It was a very, very, very expensive thing.

A small piece with ultimate effectiveness, unparalleled in the world, something not easily masterable by most, only to exert its supreme power here with her, now so utterly destroyed by the Zuzi sisters.

Closing her eyes, Gu Shiyin hadn't yet had the chance to taste bitterness fully.

Behind her, Xi Rubao had already made a big move—

"Come, come, come, fans baby, let me identify for you what your so-called Brother Qi sold you!"

"Looks dazzling, right?"

"Here, let me cut it."

"Do you see that?"

Xi Rubao left a cut mark on Gu Shiyin's "diamond"!!!

You know that the hardness of a diamond cannot be cut by ordinary blades, otherwise, it wouldn't deserve to be called the hardest gem, not worthy of the name "A diamond lasts forever, eternal."
