

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 170-174

Chapter 170: CEO Lin's Identity and Status Are Unfathomable!

"D*mn, our boss actually went to China to look for a young man called Lin Fan."

"No, that's called Boss Lin. Boss Lin's status is not ordinary. Even the CEO values him so much."

"Of course. Boss Lin is the second-largest shareholder of LV. In the future, he will have a lot of say in LV. I heard that he owns 10% of our company's shares."

"Boss Lin is too awesome. No one has ever been able to buy 10% of our company's shares at once..."

"Contact the LV branch in China quickly and tell the person-in-charge there that if Boss Lin comes to the company, they have to receive him well. They can't neglect him!"

Many people from LV exclaimed. The market share of LV was almost fixed.

At this critical moment, Lin Fan had become the second-largest shareholder of LV. Furthermore, he was only 2% away from being the largest shareholder!

How rich was Lin Fan?

Everyone on the board of directors had to listen to Lin Fan's decisions in the company seriously.

Lin Fan's influence was enough to affect the entire company's future decisions.

Lin Fan was equivalent to the new boss of their company in the future. His status was on the same level as that of the CEO.

If it wasn't for that, the CEO of LV wouldn't have gone to China to meet Lin Fan personally.

Not long after, the LV CEO finally sent a top-secret document to the LV board of directors.

When the board of directors saw this message, they were even more surprised.

“Oh my god... CEO Lin is not only the second-largest shareholder of LV, but also the second-largest shareholder of Chanel. At the same time, he owns 10% of Chanel’s shares.”

“How did Boss Lin do it? How much money does he have? To be able to become the second-largest shareholder of two companies at the same time, it means that Boss Lin’s assets are probably even higher than our CEO’s.”

“No, this isn’t the scariest part. What’s scary is Boss Lin’s status. The shares of our company and Chanel can no longer be easily measured with money. For Boss Lin to be able to become a shareholder of both companies at the same time, it means that Boss Lin’s background is unfathomable.”

“I understand. This is also why our CEO went all the way to China to look for Boss Lin. Boss Lin’s personal power is too great. It’s enough to shake the two largest luxury companies in Europe.”

On this day, the higher-ups of LV and Chanel were shocked at the same time!

The scene at the two Shanghai branches was equally shocking.

“Oh my god, Boss Lin is actually our company’s second-largest shareholder!”

“What did you say? Even the CEO wants to come here personally. Does our company have to receive CEO Lin with the highest etiquette and standards?”

“Hurry up and get ready. We can’t neglect Boss Lin.”

The LV and Chanel branches were both located in Shanghai.

Both branches received the news at the same time.

Lin Fan had become one of the big bosses of their two companies.

As the second-largest shareholder of the company, Lin Fan had a vital role in the company’s opinions and decisions.

Therefore, neither company dared to offend Lin Fan.

After the CEOs of Chanel and LV landed at the airport.

The two CEOs looked at each other and walked forward to shake hands warmly.

After all, both companies were top luxury brands, and the two big bosses knew each other.

“CEO Bruno, you came to China this time to see Lin Fan, right? I heard that Lin Fan has already become the second-largest shareholder of your company,” the LV CEO said.

“CEO Bernard, how did you know? Could it be...” Chanel’s CEO, Bruno, said with a hint of shock in his eyes.

“Because Boss Lin is also the second-largest shareholder of our company, that’s why I’m here to meet him,” the LV CEO said with a smile.

“Holy sh*t...”

“Boss Lin not only became the second-largest shareholder of our company, but also became the second-largest shareholder of your company?” The CEO of Chanel was shocked.

Becoming a major shareholder of two top luxury brands at the same time was not something that could be achieved just by saying it.

This required a strong background and enough financial resources.

To be able to take out 40 billion RMB at once meant that Lin Fan’s personal assets were probably at least 200 billion RMB!

With such deep assets, Lin Fan could replace any one of them and become the largest shareholder of the two luxury brands.

This was also the reason why the CEO of Chanel was shocked.

“Yes.” The LV CEO laughed bitterly.

“That’s why I’m here to see Boss Lin. I want to see what Boss Lin has to say about our company’s future development,” the LV CEO said.

“Me too. I originally thought that it was already very amazing that CEO Lin could become the second-largest shareholder of our company. Who would have thought that he was also one of the largest shareholders of your company?” the CEO of Chanel said.

“Boss Lin’s status is probably even higher than ours.”

“I can only find out about these identities of Boss Lin. There’s still a lot of information that I can’t find out at all. Boss Lin might not be a major shareholder of our companies only,” the LV CEO said.

The CEO of Chanel nodded. To be able to become a major shareholder of two companies at the same time meant that Lin Fan wasn’t a simple person.

Lin Fan might also be a major shareholder of other luxury companies. This was enough to show that Lin Fan’s businesses might be spread all over the world!

For such a person to suddenly buy into two luxury goods companies, the CEOs of Chanel and LV had to personally welcome Lin Fan.

They had to see Boss Lin’s attitude towards the two companies.

After hearing this news, the CEO of Chanel smiled and said, “I didn’t expect that our two companies would have to work together often in the future.”

The CEO of LV looked at the CEO of Chanel. “Our two companies are top luxury brands to begin with. We occupy the global market together. Boss Lin might help our two companies go further. As for the specifics, it depends on what Boss Lin says.”

In reality, the two CEOs had some worries when they arrived but they did not say them out loud.

Lin Fan might replace them and become the biggest boss of the two companies.

Lin Fan now had this kind of ability.

If Lin Fan wanted to do it, the two of them couldn't stop him. They could only obey.

But how many people were willing to do such a thing?

Other than welcoming Lin Fan as a major shareholder of the company, they also wanted to see Lin Fan's true intentions.

They had not expected that,

A young man in Shanghai, Lin Fan, had already become an important figure in two top luxury brands!

Chapter 171: The CEOs of LV and Chanel Are Crying. Lin Fan's Feast Was Too Delicious

In the Lake Heart Villa, Lin Fan was playing League of Legends.

This time, he did not choose Yasuo but the Sword Saint and ended the battle with 20 kills.

Ever since "The Legend of Sword and Fairy" was released, Lin Fan's popularity had increased exponentially.

Many fans begged Lin Fan to release the second season of "Joy of Life". Some fans wanted to see the second and third seasons of "The Legend of Sword and Fairy".

Although the story of Li Xiaoyao had already been told in the first installment of "The Legend of Sword and Fairy", the grand worldview, coupled with the rather outstanding plot, deeply attracted the audience.

Every day, when Lin Fan posted on Weibo, the comments below were all asking for updates, begging Lin Fan to write a sequel to the two television dramas.

During this period of time, Lin Fan should have had advertisements flying everywhere and received a lot of endorsement deals.

However, Lin Fan asked Lin Qianwei to reject all the endorsements and advertisements.

It was more comfortable to lie on the sofa at home.

Unfortunately, Lin Fan didn't have a girlfriend yet.

His mother had already urged him many times, but there was nothing he could do.

Lin Fan had wanted to confess to Xia Wanqiu last time but in the end, he didn't.

1

When could he make her his girlfriend?

Lin Fan smiled brightly. If that day really came, that would be good.

Just then, Lin Fan's phone rang.

"Hello." Lin Fan picked up the phone.

"Boss Lin, hello. I'm the assistant of LV's CEO Bernard. CEO Bernard has already personally come to Shanghai's LV branch. If it's convenient for you, he would like to see you." A female voice sounded.

"CEO Bernard came to Shanghai personally?" Lin Fan was a little surprised. After he became the second-largest shareholder of LV, even the company's CEO came to Shanghai personally.

"Yes, Mr. Lin. At the same time, CEO Bruno of Chanel is also in Shanghai. He wants to hear your suggestions for the company's development," the assistant said with a smile.

"Sure, but there's no need for too many complicated etiquettes. Invite CEO Bernard and CEO Bruno to come to my place personally. I'll make a feast for the two big bosses for free."

"If there's anything, we can discuss it at my house. I'll send you the address," said Lin Fan.

The big bosses of the two luxury goods companies had personally come here. It was enough to show how much they valued Lin Fan.

Lin Fan wouldn't go out and show off brainlessly. After all, he wasn't the CEO of the two companies and was only the second-largest shareholder.

Lin Fan knew that if he went to the headquarters of LV and Chanel, both companies would receive him with the highest etiquette.

In that case, the news could not be hidden. He might even become a trending topic on Weibo.

At that time, the entire Internet would know that he was a major shareholder of both companies.

Lin Fan didn't want to be so high-profile. A peaceful life was the best. If it wasn't for his wife, he wouldn't have become a celebrity in the entertainment industry.

If he appeared in the headquarters of the two companies now, he might become famous in the business world in the future. When Lin Fan went out, he would really be surrounded by a group of aunties.

Most importantly, Lin Fan was a slacker.

He still had to drive to the two branches. He could just wait at home for the two CEOs to come to him personally.

Since the two big bosses were here in China, why not invite them to his house?

"Okay Boss Lin."

"When should they come?" the assistant asked.

"8pm tonight. I've already sent you the address." said Lin Fan.

"Alright, Boss Lin. I understand." After saying that, the assistant hung up.

Such news was also sent to the CEOs of LV and Chanel at the same time.

The CEOs of the two companies looked at each other in surprise.

They had wanted to invite Lin Fan here to receive him properly.

But it looked like Lin Fan didn't want to be so high-profile.

This meant that Lin Fan didn't want others to know that he was a shareholder of the two companies.

It was right of them to keep it a secret.

At 8 pm, the two CEOs personally arrived at the Lake Heart Villa in Blue Wave Bay.

Lin Fan had already informed the security guards in advance and the security guards let them all in.

When they arrived at the entrance of the Lake Heart Villa,

The CEOs of LV and Chanel could not help but exclaim.

This was where Lin Fan lived. It was calm, elegant, and had beautiful scenery. The surroundings were quiet and the villa was very luxurious.

The two of them also saw three expensive luxury cars parked in Lin Fan's garage.

The Bugatti and Koenigsegg One sports cars were both limited edition.

Even these two big bosses did not have these two limited edition sports cars.

When the two big bosses saw the sports cars, they nodded expressionlessly.

Those who could afford to drive limited edition sports cars were naturally not simple people.

Following behind the two big bosses were some security guards. Of course, there were also beautiful assistants following them.

Lin Fan opened the door and looked at the LV and Chanel CEOs. He walked out and shook hands with them.

Don't forget that Lin Fan's results in university were quite good. He was quite proficient in English and knew some French. He could communicate normally with the two CEOs. Furthermore, the CEOs had translators by their sides.

"CEO Bruno, CEO Bernard, welcome to China. Because I was busy, I didn't go out to welcome you guys." said Lin Fan with a smile.

"Hello, Boss Lin. Your English is really good." The LV CEO revealed a hint of surprise.

"Boss Lin, you're really young. Heroes indeed come from among the youth." The CEO of Chanel was also smiling.

This was the standard way for business big shots to meet. At the start of the meeting, they would flatter each other. In short, it was called a professional exchange of praises.

After entering the villa, only two beautiful assistants followed. The other security guards stood neatly at the door. Without orders, they would not take half a step in.

Just as they entered, a feast was already set up on the table.

They were all prepared by Lin Fan.

The two big bosses had come all the way to China. Of course, Lin Fan was very polite. It wasn't a big deal to make a feast.

"Come, let's have dinner first." Lin Fan sat down and smiled.

After the LV CEO and the Chanel CEO ate,

The two big bosses were stunned.

They hadn't expected Lin Fan's feast to be so delicious...

Just the taste alone was enough to shock the two big bosses.

Not only did Lin Fan make a Chinese feast, he also made a French feast and some European recipes.

However, due to the limited ingredients, he only made a simple dinner.

However, such a dinner made the two big bosses want to cry.

They had lived for most of their lives and had eaten all sorts of feasts.

As the big bosses of the two largest luxury brands in Europe, they had eaten all sorts of exquisite banquets and feasts prepared by the top chefs.

But when they ate Lin Fan's feast, they really felt that they had lived their lives in vain.

They had never eaten such delicious food in their entire lives.

Lin Fan was only a Chinese man, but the European dinner he made was even better than that of the top chefs in Europe!!

Chapter 172: This Is Lin Fan's Style. LV and Chanel's Big Bosses are Impressed

The two CEOs looked at Lin Fan in admiration. The shock in their eyes deepened.

Lin Fan's identity and status were not ordinary. This was already important enough for the two CEOs.

The two big bosses personally coming to Lin Fan's house represented how much they valued him.

This was like Jack Ma and Ma Huateng taking the initiative to visit you at your house. How impressive.

Furthermore, these two big bosses were very top-notch people in Europe. They didn't need to deliberately suck up to Lin Fan. After all, they were the biggest shareholders of the two luxury companies on the surface.

They had come here to test Lin Fan and talk to him about their companies.

Although they valued Lin Fan, they weren't that surprised.

Lin Fan had only made one dinner and it had already made these two big bosses prostrate themselves in admiration.

They were already big bosses. They had so much money that they could not spend it all in a few lifetimes. When the company was not busy, they would go out to experience life.

Other than traveling, the most important thing in life was to eat.

Everyone had to eat.

The two big bosses had already tried all the delicacies in the world but they never expected to eat such delicious food at Lin Fan's house.

They had lived for most of their lives, but this was the first time they had eaten such a delicious meal.

When the delicious food entered their mouths, it had an excellent texture. The two big bosses could not help but give a thumbs up at the same time.

"This feast is too delicious."

"This is the first time I've eaten such a delicious meal in my life."

"Boss Lin, I finally know what delicious food is today. This is true delicious food. What I've eaten before is on a completely different level from what you cook!"

“Boss Lin, if only I could eat your feasts for the rest of my life. This is the first time I’ve seen such a feast.”

“That’s right. I wonder who will be lucky enough to be your wife in the future. She must be very happy.”

The two big bosses smiled. They praised Lin Fan’s culinary skills mainly because the dishes Lin Fan made were too delicious.

The current Lin Fan had god-level culinary skills. Even the best chefs couldn’t compare to the feasts he made.

This was already beyond the ordinary realm. Perhaps only the best chefs in the country could make truly delicious food after years of accumulation.

The two big bosses didn’t talk about work while eating. They understood each other very well. They were both envious of Lin Fan’s future wife.

Lin Fan couldn’t help but think of Xia Wanqiu.

Lin Fan smiled brightly and became even happier.

These people had hit the nail on the head. When he thought of the cat, Lin Fan’s smile curled up.

Xia Wanqiu was so beautiful and cute. Anyone would like her.

“Eat first. I have some good red wine here too. Romanée Conti. It tastes pretty good too,” said Lin Fan with a smile as he took out a few bottles of red wine.

“That’s great, Boss Lin. Haha, then let’s get drunk today!” When the two big bosses saw the good red wine, they smiled.

In their hearts, they praised Lin Fan even more.

Lin Fan’s hospitality, the naturalness they could see from him, and his humility made them feel that he wasn’t an ordinary person.

Only a true big boss would reach such a realm and return to one's original nature.

He was not like those nouveau riche who wanted the entire world to know that they were rich.

Lin Fan's status was already so high, but he was still so low-profile.

The smell of dinner wafted out.

The two beautiful assistants stood at the side, drooling.

They were all very cultured. Not to mention a feast, even if there were millions of yuan in front of them, their hearts would not be moved.

To be able to become the assistants of the two big bosses, they had seen all sorts of things.

But the two girls lost their composure today.

This was because Lin Fan's feast was really too delicious.

Just the smell alone made the two female assistants unable to resist.

You can try walking past a few restaurants serving delicious food when you're hungry after school at noon. The smell was simply one of the greatest pleasures of the mortal world.

The two female assistants were still trying their best to hold it in.

The fragrance of dinner spread all the way to the door.

Many of the security guards standing at the door could not help but purse their lips.

They remained where they were, in good posture.

Everyone experienced their first test in their professional lives.

And this test was actually the test Lin Fan's feast gave them.

Who could resist such a delicious thing after smelling it?

All the security guards were quiet.

The saliva flowing out the side of a fat man's mouth had already betrayed him.

This f*cking... smelled too good.

If only he could be Lin Fan's security guard.

Almost all the security guards had the same thought.

After dinner, the two big bosses wiped their mouths and looked at Lin Fan.

Although they had drunk some red wine, they were not drunk.

After dinner, it was time to get down to business.

Lin Fan perked up.

"CEO Bruno, CEO Bernard, as everyone knows, LV and Chanel are the top luxury brands in the world. Such products have long formed a brand effect."

"Although I've become the second-largest shareholder of LV and Chanel, I have no interest in the internal affairs of these two companies. The future direction of the companies has already been set as well. I don't need to make any changes."

“Also, I believe that under the leadership of CEO Bruno and CEO Bernard, both companies will develop better and better. This is also why I chose to become the second-largest shareholder of your companies,” said Lin Fan as he looked at the two CEOs.

The two CEOs were shocked and nodded silently. Indeed, Lin Fan had the ability to become the largest shareholder of the two companies.

This meant that their previous guess was right. The number of companies Lin Fan was a shareholder of and his assets were definitely not just what they seemed on the surface.

“What I want to tell you guys here is that please don’t worry. I won’t interfere with any of the company’s matters. Every year, the company will distribute dividends to me according to the corresponding number of shares I hold. I have a universal bank card here. The company can transfer all the money into the card.”

“Second, I don’t want anyone outside your companies to know that I’m a shareholder of your two companies. I don’t like to be high-profile,” said Lin Fan with a smile.

The two CEOs looked at Lin Fan and nodded.

When Lin Fan said these words, the two CEOs were shocked.

This was Lin Fan’s style.

Even if he became the second-largest shareholder of the two companies, he was not interested in the internal development of the companies.

Lin Fan’s words were not only to tell the two major shareholders that he wouldn’t fight with them for power in the company, but also to tell them that the things Lin Fan had behind him might far exceed those of these two luxury brands!

Chapter 173: I Have No choice but to pamper my wife

Lin Fan looked at the two big bosses and continued, “Of course, since I’ve become a shareholder of the company, I don’t have many requests. I hope that Chanel and LV can choose a Chinese female celebrity to be their spokesperson.”

Lin Fan smiled and revealed his true motive.

Lin Fan wasn't interested in managing the tedious matters of the company, participating in market competition, or even participating in business wars.

It would be too tiring to do so.

Although Alibaba and Tencent's CEOs were very rich, they were usually very tired from work and did not have much free time. They were the center of attention wherever they went.

Lin Fan just wanted to lie at home quietly and collect rent. He also wanted to collect the company's dividends. Then he would manage his finances and look at the numbers change in his bank account.

He could even make time to accompany Xia Wanqiu and watch movies or television shows with her, have dinner with her, go on a Ferris wheel with her, watch the sunrise and sunset with her, sleep in the villa with her and make a baby with her.

Such a life was filled with joy.

Ordinary people could still work from nine to five. They might occasionally work overtime, but a big boss like CEO Ma probably did not have any time to rest.

Lin Fan wasn't interested in that kind of life.

It would be great to be with Xia Wanqiu.

Lin Fan wanted to accompany her to see her parents, get married, and have children with her.

When he was bored in the future, he could hug his wife's long legs to sleep at home, or hug her while watching television and raise a few kittens.

Lin Fan could imagine his future.

Actually, he could do that now.

As long as he could woo Xia Wanqiu, the money he and Xia Wanqiu earned would be enough for the rest of their lives.

However, Xia Wanqiu had her own dreams. Her dream was to act. Therefore, Lin Fan wouldn't stop her from chasing her dreams for his own hobbies.

Since she liked acting, he would accompany her into the entertainment industry.

Until the day she didn't want to do it.

When Lin Fan said his true motive, the eyes of the LV and Chanel CEOs lit up.

There was no need for Lin Fan to say this. They also wanted to sign a superstar as their spokesperson in China.

It was just that there was never a suitable candidate.

After all, LV and Chanel were both internationally renowned brands and the top choices for the world's richest people.

"Boss Lin, we've received your suggestion. To be honest, we also want to choose a Chinese spokesperson, but we've been too busy for so long and haven't had time to develop the market here."

"However, it's not easy to choose a spokesperson in China. First of all, this celebrity needs to be famous and popular, and she needs to meet the requirements of LV and Chanel. Secondly, this female celebrity must be beautiful and have a good temperament. In that case, she will receive a lot of good reviews in the market here," the CEO of Chanel said.

What the CEO of Chanel said made sense.

He couldn't possibly look for Sister Feng to be his spokesperson in China, right?

Even if there were no heavenly beauties like Bao Si, Diao Chan, or Xi Shi, the celebrity had to at least be good-looking and have a good figure. These were all basic standards.

Otherwise, it would damage the brands of LV and Chanel and become a laughing stock in the industry.

The LV CEO was extremely smart. He did not say the same thing as the CEO of Chanel.

The LV CEO could tell that after Lin Fan became a major shareholder of the two companies, he didn't say anything and wasn't interested in the companies' development.

However, Lin Fan only emphasized one thing. He wanted to help LV and Chanel find a spokesperson in China.

This meant that Lin Fan valued this matter very much!

In fact, Lin Fan already had a candidate for this position in his heart.

However, the CEO of Chanel said the criteria for choosing a spokesperson.

She had to be pretty, have a good temperament, and be famous.

The CEO of LV already knew. Lin Fan didn't say this because he needed their opinions. Instead, it was equivalent to informing them directly.

However, his tone was more polite. The words of the CEO of Chanel definitely couldn't enter Lin Fan's heart.

When the LV CEO came, he had already searched for information on Lin Fan.

Lin Fan was a big star in the country. He was an outstanding actor and a scriptwriting master. He also had strong directing skills.

Lin Fan was a superstar, so there must be beautiful female celebrities around him.

This meant that Lin Fan had long thought of who was suitable to be the spokesperson for these two companies.

The CEOs of LV and Chanel were both top-notch bosses. Their IQ and EQ were also very high. However, the two of them focused on different perspectives. Of course, they would follow Lin Fan's words.

Immediately, the LV CEO smiled and said, "Boss Lin, we should find a big star to be our spokesperson in China. However, we don't really understand the market here. You happen to live here. Why don't you recommend someone? No matter who you recommend, we will do as you say!"

Look at the LV CEO. His words were so comforting.

The LV CEO was very smart. He knew that Lin Fan wasn't a fool.

How could Lin Fan let Sister Feng be the spokesperson of a top luxury company?

Lin Fan would definitely find a beauty. However, the effect would be the same no matter which superstar he found.

As long as the big star put on some makeup, lights were shone on her properly, a filter was turned on, and her photos were edited, no matter how ugly she was, she could become very pretty.

As for who would be the spokesperson, was it really that important?

This was a good opportunity to rope Lin Fan in.

Lin Fan had only made this request. Of course, the LV CEO would try his best to satisfy it.

After the Louis Vuitton CEO finished speaking, the Chanel CEO also reacted and hurriedly said with a smile, "CEO Lin, it's like this. If you name a candidate, this matter will be settled. Our two companies are also willing to pay a high endorsement fee."

The CEO of Chanel was also a smart person. He knew that he had said something wrong and immediately corrected himself.

When Lin Fan heard that, he smiled calmly.

It was simple and comfortable to talk to smart people. There was no need to beat around the bush.

Lin Fan said, "Since you've said so, let me recommend a candidate. This girl has hundreds of millions of fans in the country and is very famous. She's also very pretty. I believe she fits the requirements of the two companies for a spokesperson."

"There are a few photos of her here. You can take a look. If she's suitable, we'll settle on her. But don't tell her that I'm a major shareholder of the company," said Lin Fan with a smile. Since he had become a major shareholder of LV and Chanel, he had found the most suitable spokesperson. He had no choice but to dote on his wife.

Then, Lin Fan took out two photos and handed them to the CEOs of Chanel and LV.

These two photos were of the same person.

When the two CEOs saw the girl's photo, they were stunned.

The girl in the photo was simply too beautiful. She was devastatingly beautiful, had a unique temperament, and looked a little cute.

If they used her as their spokesperson, it would be perfect!

It was Xia Wanqiu!

Chapter 174: My Wife Is So Beautiful, I Have to Get Her!

When the CEOs of Chanel and LV saw Xia Wanqiu's photo, they could not help but be shocked.

The main thing was that Xia Wanqiu was too beautiful.

She was completely qualified to be the spokesperson for LV and Chanel.

"Boss Lin, this must be your girlfriend. Your girlfriend is really pretty. She shall be our company's spokesperson," the LV CEO said.

"That's right, Boss Lin. Your girlfriend is really devastatingly beautiful. Her figure, temperament, and looks are all too good. I agree that she should be the company's spokesperson," the CEO of Chanel said with a smile.

“Thank you,” said Lin Fan with a smile. He didn’t refute the words of the CEOs of LV and Chanel.

Was there a need to say that his wife was pretty?

Looking at the entertainment industry, there were many beautiful women such as Lin Jingjing, Chu Yaoyao, and Lin Kexin.

Lin Fan had many pretty girls around him, such as Xu Shiyin, Zhao Lele, and his other high school classmates. Even his sister, Lin Yushi, was very pretty.

These people were all girls with looks above 90 points. But in Lin Fan’s eyes, they couldn’t compare to Xia Wanqiu.

Su Xiaoyu was also very pretty, and her cuteness was not inferior to Xia Wanqiu’s. However, her breasts were small, so her overall score was not as high as his wife’s.

Don’t ask how Lin Fan knew that Su Xiaoyu had small breasts, and don’t ask how Lin Fan knew that Xia Wanqiu had big breasts.

Lin Fan wasn’t interested in the future development of LV and Chanel.

He just needed these two companies to give him money. It would be so comfortable to lie at home and earn money.

Some time ago, many endorsements in the country sent Xia Wanqiu a contract termination notice. Xia Wanqiu might even have to pay a huge compensation fee.

These people had a way of kicking someone when they were down. It was because of this that Lin Fan wouldn’t let Xia Wanqiu work with these endorsements a second time.

Even if he lost twenty endorsements and tens of millions, Lin Fan didn’t care.

Tens of millions of yuan was indeed a lot, but Lin Fan didn’t want anyone to bully Xia Wanqiu.

In the past, he did not have the ability to do so.

Now that he had the ability, it was fine to lose tens of millions for Xia Wanqiu.

Coincidentally, Lin Fan had helped Xia Wanqiu become the spokesperson for the game "The Legend of Sword and Fairy".

At the same time, Lin Fan contacted LV and Chanel.

Since the CEOs of these two companies had come, Lin Fan would make his request.

It was a win-win situation to be the spokesperson for LV and Chanel.

On one hand, these two companies also needed to develop China's market. On the other hand, if Xia Wanqiu could endorse these two products, not only could she earn money, but she could also surprise everyone.

Not everyone could endorse luxury goods from such big brands.

After settling the endorsement, the CEO of Chanel looked at Lin Fan. "Boss Lin, since she's your girlfriend, we won't lower the price. The company is willing to pay the highest endorsement fee in the industry. We will pay 60 million a year to invite Miss Xia Wanqiu to endorse our Chanel products."

The CEO of LV also looked at Lin Fan and said, "Boss Lin, LV is also willing to offer the highest endorsement fee in the industry, 60 million a year, to invite Miss Xia Wanqiu to become the future spokesperson for LV products."

"CEO Bernard, CEO Bruno, nice working with you." Lin Fan smiled and shook hands with the two big bosses.

"CEO Lin, it's a pleasure to work with you. Furthermore, you're also the second-largest shareholder of our two companies. You have the right to choose the spokesperson for the Chinese market. We all believe in your judgment," the LV CEO said with a smile.

“Boss Lin, if you have any suggestions for the company’s development in the future, or if you need anything, you can contact us. Chanel will try our best to satisfy you,” the CEO of Chanel said with a smile.

“As will LV.” The LV CEO looked at Lin Fan.

“Haha, that’s good. Next time I ask for your help, you’re not allowed to reject me.” Lin Fan smiled. For some reason, the television dramas he filmed often didn’t have investors anymore. He might even face such a situation in the future.

If there were investors who wanted to sleep with Xia Wanqiu or Su Xiaoyu in the future, Lin Fan could just invest in his dramas himself.

Now, Lin Fan had two more financially strong companies behind him. These two companies were equivalent to Lin Fan’s companies. Although they weren’t under Lin Fan’s name, he already had a very important position in the companies.

If he wanted to make a decision, as long as it was not particularly ridiculous, the two big bosses would usually accept it.

The doors of LV and Chanel would forever be open to Lin Fan!

“Alright, Boss Lin. We’ll be coming to eat your feast next time. You can’t reject us.” The LV and Chanel CEOs smiled. When they thought of the feast, they still had a lingering taste and couldn’t forget it.

“Of course.” Lin Fan smiled. It wasn’t bad to build a good relationship with the two big bosses. He hadn’t actually paid much.

“We’ll let the person-in-charge of our branch company sign the contract with Miss Xia Wanqiu. It won’t be convenient for the two of us to appear. Otherwise, it will cause a stir in the business world again,” the LV CEO said.

“Sure.” Lin Fan nodded.

After everything was settled, the two CEOs left very quietly.

The person in charge of the Shanghai branch could totally sign a contract with Xia Wanqiu.

After all, the two big bosses couldn't appear easily. Lin Fan didn't want Xia Wanqiu to know that he was a big shareholder of the two companies.

It was mainly because it was not easy to explain it to Xia Wanqiu.

He couldn't possibly say that he had a system that allowed him to sign in and receive large companies' shares and beautiful ladies and lolis...

If that was the case, Lin Fan would probably be bitten to death by his wife.

The next day, Lin Fan woke up, signed in and received a bottle of mineral water and received a call from the LV and Chanel branch managers.

"Hello, Mr. Lin. I'm the manager of the LV branch in Shanghai. May I ask if we can sign the endorsement contract with Miss Xia Wanqiu today?" the LV branch manager asked.

"Sure. Come to Yuehua Entertainment at three in the afternoon. I'm in charge of Wanqiu's endorsements. Come to the company and officially sign the contract with her," said Lin Fan with a smile.

"Alright," the LV branch manager said respectfully.

Others might not know Lin Fan's identity, but the LV branch manager knew.

Even the CEOs of LV headquarters and Chanel headquarters personally went to Lin Fan's house.

With Lin Fan's status, how could he dare to offend him?

Lin Fan was the one who decided to sign a contract with Xia Wanqiu.

In order to prevent others from not doing things well, the manager of the LV branch in Shanghai wanted to personally handle this contract signing. He had to do what the CEO had personally instructed him to do well!

At the same time, the manager of the Chanel branch called. Lin Fan had also decided on the same time.

After everything was done, Lin Fan drove the Bugatti and prepared to go to the office. Lin Fan was even looking forward to it.

If Xia Wanqiu knew that he had helped her settle two endorsements worth 120 million yuan, he wondered if she would reward him again.

As for the money, his wife's money was equivalent to his money anyway.

If there was still a reward from his wife this time, Lin Fan wouldn't tolerate it. He had to seize the opportunity to woo her!
