

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 280-284

Chapter 280: I'll Reward You~

The next day, Xu Yang was glowing. He walked out and looked much more energetic.

Lin Jingjing was still very shy and walked with Xu Yang.

As for what happened, it could not be described.

And today, the company was going to hold a script discussion seminar.

Before the script discussion seminar, Lin Fan and Xu Yang were sitting together.

Looking at Xu Yang, Lin Fan asked, "What's wrong with you? Why are you so excited?"

Xu Yang said calmly, "It's nothing. I've already become a man."

Lin Fan was helpless. "So you used to be a woman?"

Xu Yang snorted. "You don't understand?"

Lin Fan immediately understood. "Could it be that you and Jingjing..."

Xu Yang smiled and did not say anything. He looked very satisfied.

Lin Fan finally understood why Xu Yang was like this today.

So something indescribable had already happened between him and Jingjing.

Why was someone else's girlfriend so considerate?

Lin Fan sighed. He felt that life was a little loveless.

Look at his girlfriend, the cat. She was a devastatingly beautiful woman.

But he was not allowed to touch her.

Until now, Lin Fan hadn't completed his system mission.

Not to mention doing that thing at night...

He could not even think about it.

"Meow, meow?" Xia Wanqiu was standing behind Lin Fan. She looked at Lin Fan and Xu Yang with her innocent eyes and her face was slightly red.

Seeing that Lin Fan didn't move, Xia Wanqiu gently tugged at his sleeve.

Lin Fan stood up and went to a corner with Xia Wanqiu.

"Are you envious?" Xia Wanqiu placed her hands behind her back and leaned forward slightly to look at Lin Fan.

"You heard everything?" Lin Fan looked at Xia Wanqiu.

"Mmm ~" Xia Wanqiu's face turned even redder.

"Other people's wives are so considerate. Wife, do you want to..." Lin Fan smiled.

"No!" Xia Wanqiu glared at Lin Fan fiercely.

"Then why did you pull me over..." Lin Fan sighed. Different girls behaved differently. He couldn't force Xia Wanqiu.

"I'm just rewarding you for working so hard ~"

“That kind of thing will depend on your performance in half a year ~” Xia Wanqiu’s red lips gently kissed Lin Fan before turning to leave.

Looking at Xia Wanqiu’s back view, Lin Fan smiled.

Although he was indeed envious of Xu Yang and Lin Jingjing’s current relationship.

Although he was envious, Lin Fan was still very upright.

With such a beautiful girlfriend, Lin Fan was willing to wait for her.

The day she was willing to accept him completely.

Wasn’t it just getting her father’s approval in half a year? What was so difficult about that?

He had waited for her for 25 years. Lin Fan didn’t mind waiting for half a year more.

After this episode, the script discussion seminar for the second season of “Joy of Life” officially began.

Everyone in the company gathered together.

Whether it was the producers, the directing team, or the various actors, they were all seriously analyzing how to film the script and how to film it better.

“Lin Fan, the script for Joy of Life is too amazing. This is the first time we can’t find any problems with a script when we hold a script discussion seminar.”

“Even Teacher Tian Zheng praised Brother Fan’s script yesterday. The story is so moving, and the characters are also written very well.”

“Brother Fan, how should we film this part better...”

“Brother Fan, can you tell us about this part? I don’t really understand.”

In Yuehua, CEO Li was very happy to see this scene.

There were so many celebrities in the company who treated this script very seriously.

Whether it was the main actors or the supporting actors, they were all seriously studying this script.

There were even celebrities who had already memorized some of the lines.

All the celebrities in the company were united.

This was also because of a trending topic on Weibo previously.

The people from Huace Pictures were defaming Lin Fan and the others.

They said the people who filmed Joy of Life did not have good acting skills and relied on luck to become popular.

After Lin Fan took out the script, everyone was seriously studying it and wanted to act this drama out well.

It was to slap Huace Pictures in the face and let those haters see that they could still become popular after filming the second season of Joy of Life.

They did not rely on luck to make a television drama become popular, but everyone's hard work!

The news that Lin Fan was preparing to film the second season of "Joy of Life" attracted the attention of all the investors and advertisers.

Lin Qianwei walked in front of Lin Fan excitedly and said, "Boss Lin, there are many companies who want to invest in this television drama. There are so many investors, at least twenty."

"Many investors heard that the second season of Joy of Life was about to start filming and rushed over, wanting to invest in this television drama."

“There are also some advertisers looking for us to film advertisements. These investors and advertisers offered pretty high prices,” Lin Qianwei said excitedly.

To be able to make Lin Qianwei so excited, Lin Fan smiled. “How much are the investors offering in total? How many advertisers want to film advertisements with us?”

Lin Qianwei had already calculated it. “There are a total of 23 investors who are willing to invest in the second season of Joy of Life. I estimate that the total amount is 400 million.”

“For advertisers, there’s 999 Cold Medicine and Haday. These two companies want to insert some advertisements into the scenes of our television drama. The two companies are willing to pay 80 million yuan for the advertisements, and each company is willing to invest another 50 million yuan in us.”

After hearing Lin Qianwei’s words, Lin Fan was a little excited.

He still remembered that when he filmed the first two television dramas, no company was willing to invest in them.

But this time, it was completely different.

All the major companies were willing to invest in Lin Fan’s television dramas.

Because... the person filming the television drama was Lin Fan.

The second season of Joy of Life was also filmed by the original cast.

At the same time, beautiful girls like Lin Kexin and Tang Xinran joined the second season of Joy of Life.

With such a luxurious lineup and Lin Fan’s script, it would be difficult for this television drama not to become popular!

With so many companies willing to invest in this television drama, it shook the entire Yuehua Entertainment!

“D*mn, that’s too awesome. There are actually so many companies willing to invest in the second season of Joy of Life.”

“That’s 400 million. A 400-million investment is enough for us to film this television drama well.”

“And this television drama hasn’t even started filming yet, but there are already 80 million yuan in it. 80 million yuan is in our hands directly. It’s too unbelievable.”

“This is a television drama filmed by Brother Fan. It’s not surprising that it can attract so much investment. After all, this television drama will definitely become popular!”

“An investment of 400 million... If it wasn’t for Lin Fan, our company wouldn’t have received so much investment.”

“Lin Fan is too amazing. This television drama will definitely become popular and slap Huace Pictures in the face!”

Chapter 281: Shocking the Entire Internet, Lin Fan’s television drama Is About to premiere!

This time, Yuehua Entertainment accepted all the investments.

A 400 million yuan investment was enough for them to create a classic television drama.

“Lin Fan, do you think 400 million is enough?”

“If it’s not enough, our company can still pull in some more investments. Not to mention anything else, just your name alone makes many people want to invest in our television drama,” CEO Li said with a smile.

Lin Fan shook his head. “There’s no need, CEO Li. This is just a television drama. There aren’t many special effects and it won’t cost that much money. This 400 million can give everyone a lot of remuneration and make filming easier for us.”

In the afternoon, Yuehua Entertainment confirmed the remuneration with every actor.

Xia Wanqiu’s remuneration was 35 million yuan.

Su Xiaoyu's remuneration was 18 million yuan.

Xu Yang's remuneration: 18 million yuan.

Lin Kexin's remuneration: 18 million yuan.

Lin Jingjing's remuneration: 8 million yuan.

The total remuneration of the rest of the staff was about 20 million.

In this scene, Lin Fan's remuneration broke past his previous record and he received a remuneration of 20 million!

He received so much remuneration for filming a television drama.

Now, Lin Fan had even better remuneration than Su Xiaoyu and Xu Yang.

CEO Li smiled and looked at Lin Fan. "All the remuneration added up to about 117 million. We can still have 280 million yuan to film this television drama."

"Lin Fan, from now on, the task of filming this television drama is all yours."

"As the director of the second season of Joy of Life, I'll also give you 20 million. I can give you 40% of the subsequent profits of Joy of Life." CEO Li patted Lin Fan on the shoulder.

To be able to give Lin Fan 40% of the profits, it showed how much CEO Li valued Lin Fan.

Yuehua had spent more than 80 million yuan on Lin Fan's scripts. Yuehua was responsible for the remuneration and the investors' investments had to be used to film the television drama.

After the television drama produced more profits, they would give Lin Fan another 40% of it.

Without Lin Fan, they would not be able to film such a good television drama.

And now, Lin Fan had already received 40 million before filming started.

This was only the beginning. If the subsequent television drama could become popular, the endorsement and advertisement fees for celebrities would be terrifyingly high.

After everything was done, the actors were also memorizing the script and lines. The director team, the camera team, the post-production team, and all sorts of staff were already in position.

The second season of “Joy of Life” was about to start filming.

Before filming started, Lin Fan had more than 200 million dollars.

Lin Fan had to be responsible for many important tasks when filming.

For example, what clothes the crew wore, what kind of places to film at, the techniques needed to film, the different camera positions, and so on.

“Brother Fan, what kind of clothes are we going to use this time? You can choose them all,” the staff asked.

“Buy the newest clothes for everyone. Don’t be afraid of exceeding the budget. The wardrobe has to be filled up, especially the clothes of the four girls. They have to be as pretty as possible and make sure there are more different styles of clothes.”

“Also, Ranran is just a little girl. Filming is too tiring for her. Give her some thin clothes.”

“Don’t save on the clothes of the film crew. Only by doing all the details well can you film a television drama well,” said Lin Fan with a smile.

“The main reason is that our film crew is rich,” said Lin Fan.

The investment for the second season of Joy of Life was 400 million.

If these 200 million yuan were all used for filming, it would be enough to film this television drama perfectly.

When the 1986 version of Journey to the West was filmed, it was because of a lack of funds that five episodes were cut off. It became a pity.

Now that he had the funds, Lin Fan wouldn't save.

Huace Pictures kept pressing forward and often spread rumors about Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu online.

There was also a group of haters who defamed Lin Fan on Weibo every day.

The gist was very simple. It meant that Lin Fan was able to make the two dramas he filmed become popular because of luck.

They even said that Lin Fan's second season of Joy of Life could not become popular.

It was because of such public opinion that Lin Fan became serious.

After seven days of preparation, they bought the costumes for the film crew and had top-notch makeup artists.

Coupled with the fact that the film crew had a top photography team, Lin Fan and the others officially started filming after the photography stage was set up!

Lin Fan was the director and the main lead of this television drama.

As the assistant director, Lu Benkai had been helping Lin Fan do a lot of work.

During the filming, Lu Benkai and many other actors were once again surprised by Lin Fan's acting skills.

It wasn't just Lin Fan's acting skills. The acting skills of the entire film crew had improved greatly.

"Oh my god... Lin Fan's acting skills are too outstanding."

“The main thing is that the script is written too well. The script is so good that it gives every character a lot of room to act. Moreover, Lin Fan’s scriptwriting skills are very good. In addition, this television drama has more schemes.”

“Just by watching them film, I feel a little nervous. Lin Fan’s acting skills, coupled with the outstanding plot, were filmed too perfectly!”

“The relationship scenes between Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu are still very sweet. Furthermore, Xia Wanqiu’s female lead role has also been elevated. As expected of the top celebrity in China!”

“Why is Lin Kexin acting so well? Ranran is also acting super well. Especially when Lin Fan and Ranran acted together, Ranran acted too perfectly.”

“I’m a little excited now. If this television drama is filmed, I don’t know how popular it will be. We can definitely slap the faces of the haters on the Internet.”

Unknowingly, half a month had passed.

Filming for the second season of Joy of Life was carried out every day.

At the same time, on the Internet, the people from Huace Pictures were still flaming Lin Fan and the others.

A large number of haters and keyboard warriors had already been mobilized and started flaming everywhere.

The goal was to prevent the second season of Joy of Life from becoming popular and make the audience’s impression of this television drama plummet.

Lin Fan didn’t respond to these public opinions.

The people in Joy of Life were all filming according to the plan seriously.

Lin Fan was very tired. Xia Wanqiu and Su Xiaoyu were also very tired.

Unknowingly, a month had passed, and the second season of Joy of Life had finished filming.

After filming, they entered the nervous post-production stage.

After another ten days, the second season of Joy of Life was completed and it would be released soon.

On October 1st, the Weibo account for the second season of “Joy of Life” officially announced its release.

The second season of “Joy of Life” was only short of confirming the premiere platforms before it could meet the audience.

[The second season of Joy of Life is about to air. The cast list is as follows:]

[Male Lead: Lin Fan.]

[The female lead: Xia Wanqiu.]

[Lead actors: Su Xiaoyu, Xu Yang, Lin Kexin, Lin Jingjing]

[Special Performance: Tang Xinran]

[Other actors:...]

[Director: Lin Fan]

[Screenwriter: Lin Fan]

When it was officially announced on Weibo, it quickly became the top trending topic on Weibo.

Even the audience did not expect that the second season of “Joy of Life” would start broadcasting so quickly.

Previously, when they were scolding Lin Fan online, it wasn't even announced that the filming for the second season of "Joy of Life" had started.

It was going to premiere now.

What made the audience even more excited was that the second season of "Joy of Life" still had the original cast!

And the acting skills of the new characters were even better.

Lin Kexin was one of the top celebrities in China and the school belle of Beijing Film Academy. She was a big star who was popular all over the Internet and had a lot of fans. Her acting skills were very good. She and Lin Fan were actually working together to film the second season of "Joy of Life".

At the same time, photos of many actors in the second season of "Joy of Life" were exposed on Weibo.

The fans screamed even more.

Other than that, they also discovered that the special performer in the second season of Joy of Life, Tang Xinran, was actually so beautiful.

In terms of temperament and looks, Tang Xinran was actually not inferior to any A-list celebrity.

Beautiful girls were always liked, and younger girls were even more popular.

"Wow, wow, wow. The second season of Joy of Life is really going to start broadcasting. How can it be so fast? I'm not ready yet. That's great!!"

"What a surprise! Lin Fan wrote the script and directed this television drama. The second season of Joy of Life will definitely be filmed very well!"

"Oh my god, look at these stills. How can Lin Fan be so handsome? He's really too handsome."

“Xia Wanqiu is so beautiful, Su Xiaoyu is so beautiful, Lin Jingjing is also a goddess. Most importantly, Lin Kexin is also a great beauty. Furthermore, Ranran is only ten years old and is already a goddess. Ranran will be my wife in the future!”

“^ Get lost. Ranran is my wife, okay?”

“Do you remember? Ranran seems to be the girl Lin Fan saved. After dressing up a little, she looks like a little fairy.”

“I love it, I love it. The cast of the second season of Joy of Life can be said to be quite strong. Look at what kind of godly lineup this is. Lin Fan and Xu Yang are working together again. There are also so many veteran actors. They all know how to act.”

“Let’s go, let’s go. I’m definitely going to watch this television drama religiously. When will it start broadcasting?”

Countless good comments appeared on Weibo.

There were too many viewers who were looking forward to this day.

Of course, there would be good comments and bad comments.

A group of haters still appeared on Weibo.

“No way, no way. Do you really think this television drama can become popular? The second season of Joy of Life is resting on its past achievements. What is Lin Fan showing off for? He’s so ugly and still resting on his past achievements.”

“Don’t tell me someone really thinks that just because an actor is a big star, he can film a good television drama? Lin Fan’s filming is so lousy. Whoever sees watches the drama is stupid.”

“Reject Joy of Life! I’ll reject watching Lin Fan’s television dramas forever. Joy of Life can get out of my screen!”

“Is Lin Kexin worthy of being an artiste? An artiste with a questionable character like her is not worthy of acting in a television drama. I beg the National Radio and Television Administration (NRTA) to ban Joy of Life!”

“You make it sound so satisfying. I’m not bragging, but Xia Wanqiu is really ugly. A group of people are just praising her awkwardly. If this television drama can become popular, I’ll livestream myself eating sh*t!”

The Internet was filled with haters.

The fans’ scolding battle had also begun.

Liu Xian from Huace Pictures looked at the comments online and smiled.

The second season of “Joy of Life” had not been broadcasted yet, but there were already ratings online. It only had a score of 4.78. It could be said to be the worst television drama in history.

Having such a score before being broadcasted meant that this television drama had already failed.

“Lin Fan, do you really think that by signing Lin Kexin, your new television drama will become popular again?”

“No matter what, it feels really good to be able to get the 300-million-yuan contract termination fee of Lin Kexin.” Liu Xian smiled sinisterly.

There were not many good people in the entertainment industry. There was open strife and veiled struggles everywhere.

Liu Xian wiped the saliva from the corner of his mouth and looked at the photo of Lin Kexin in shorts on his phone. She had long snow-white legs. He also looked at a photo of Xia Wanqiu in an evening gown. Her figure was as sexy as it could be.

He would definitely be able to get such a woman.

The prerequisite was to destroy Lin Fan’s television drama and Yuehua!

“Come on, Lin Fan. In a few days, you’ll see how your television drama will fail.”

“This time, your second season of Joy of Life will definitely not become popular!”

Chapter 282: Premiere Rights for 600 million

After the television drama was done with post-production, Lin Fan looked at the second season of “Joy of Life” and couldn’t help but smile.

As he had expected, the second season of “Joy of Life” had a total of 46 episodes. The plot was interconnected and had ups and downs.

The entire television drama had extremely high viewing value.

That afternoon, Lin Fan took a car to Tencent Arts and iQiyi.

Today’s most important task was to determine the premiere platforms for the second season of “Joy of Life”.

When he arrived at Tencent Arts’ office, he realized that the staff from iQiyi had also come.

These two video platforms usually bought the premiere rights to a television series at the same time.

When Lin Fan arrived, Tencent Arts and the staff of iQiyi walked out enthusiastically.

Many video companies would fight for the premiere rights of Lin Fan’s drama.

Therefore, Lin Fan could go and discuss cooperation with many companies.

As these two companies were the ones who bought the premiere rights for the first season, Lin Fan also came to negotiate with Tencent Arts and iQiyi.

“Director Lin, welcome to our company. Please sit down and have a cup of tea. I’ll call our manager immediately.” The staff looked at Lin Fan warmly and made him a cup of tea.

Lin Fan sat down. Lin Qianwei stood beside him with the documents.

However, it wasn't long before the managers of both Tencent Arts and iQiyi came out.

Only someone at the manager's level could talk about cooperation with Lin Fan.

When they saw Lin Fan, the managers of Tencent Arts and iQiyi warmly came over to shake his hand.

"Let's skip the pleasantries and get to the point."

"There are about seven or eight video companies fighting for the premiere rights of the second season of 'Joy of Life'. If the prices offered by the video companies are not satisfactory, the second season of 'Joy of Life' can also be broadcast on television." Lin Fan smiled.

"We understand, we understand. Can you show us a sample of the second season of Joy of Life first?" asked the managers of Tencent Arts and iQiyi.

"Sure." Lin Fan nodded and gestured for Lin Qianwei to hand the sample to the managers of the two companies.

For the next two hours, Lin Fan sat in a chair and rested quietly.

Tencent Arts and iQiyi's staff served him well.

The second season of Joy of Life had attracted a lot of investment. It was precisely because of this that the production of this television series was very meticulous.

If they did not even get their money back in the end, Yuehua Entertainment would suffer a huge loss.

The managers of Tencent Arts and iQiyi, as well as a series of staff, were watching a sample of the second season of Joy of Life.

At the start of the second season, there was mind-blowing political trickery.

Unlike the first season, every actor used the best costumes for the second season of Joy of Life.

There would never be a scene where an actor wore the same kind of clothes all the time. Even the costumes of the side characters were good.

As for the acting skills of the actors and actresses in the second season of Joy of Life, there was no need to mention them.

After watching the sample film, the many staff members of the two companies were stunned on the spot for a long time.

“That’s it? Why does the sample feel so short?”

“But it’s already been two hours. Director Lin Fan’s acting is too good in this drama.”

“Whether it’s the costumes, the effect of the images, the acting between the actors, or the plot, it’s all too exciting.”

“I feel that Director Lin Fan’s third television drama, the second season of Joy of Life, will definitely become popular. This television drama is much more exciting than the first season.”

“No matter what, we have to buy the premiere rights to this TV show. This show has a lot of big stars in it.”

“Director Lin is amazing. Every time he directs a TV show, it’s always so good. He wrote the script and directed the show. The key is that the actors in this show have very good acting skills.”

“Especially Lin Fan’s acting skills. It’s settled. We’ll spend a lot of money to buy the premiere rights of this television drama.”

After an agreement had been reached within their companies, the managers of Tencent Arts and iQiyi came in and looked at Lin Fan.

“Director Lin, our two companies will buy the premiere rights to this television series.”

“The TV series you filmed is amazing. If I could, I’d watch it all night,” the manager of Tencent Arts said with a smile.

“Yeah, the show’s second season is even better than the first. Maybe it’ll get another record-breaking number of clicks and views,” said the manager of iQiyi.

After all, there were too many fans online looking forward to the second season of Joy of Life.

With Lin Kexin’s participation, Lin Kexin’s fans would also watch the second season of Joy of Life.

“Name your price,” Lin Fan said with a smile.

“Director Lin, we won’t play games with you anymore. Tencent Arts is willing to pay 160 million for the premiere rights for the second season of Joy of Life.”

“It’s the same for us at iQiyi. We’re also willing to pay 160 million for the premiere rights,” said the manager.

The price of 160 million was almost double the purchase price of the first season’s premiere rights.

The two companies’ offers added up to 320 million yuan!

The premiere rights of Lin Fan’s television drama were worth 320 million yuan!

Anyone would probably be tempted by so much money.

But Lin Fan wasn’t.

Lin Fan shook his head. “If that’s the price, I’m afraid we won’t be able to negotiate.”

“In the second season of Joy of Life, we had a 400-million-yuan investment. We spent nearly 80 million yuan on the script. The actors’ salaries added up to 120 million yuan. In addition to the other salaries and filming costs, we spent 350 million yuan.”

“You guys have only offered 320 million yuan in total for the premiere rights of this television drama. In that case, the second season of Joy of Life might lose money,” Lin Fan said.

“Director Lin, what do you think is the most suitable price?” asked the managers of Tencent Arts and iQiyi.

They also knew the price had to be negotiated, especially for something like the premiere rights to this drama. It was incredibly important.

If a video company could buy the premiere rights for the second season of Joy of Life, their traffic would soar. It would also be a lot of good for Tencent Arts and iQiyi.

If Lin Fan walked out of the office today, other video companies would probably come to buy the premiere rights.

“Three hundred million, three hundred million for each company. A total of six hundred million will do. What do you think?” Lin Fan asked.

Actually, the second season of Joy of Life did not make much money. It could not make much money with the premiere rights. At most, it would make 100 to 200 million.

But this TV series could make big stars even more popular and have more additional income.

Of course, six hundred million in copyright fees was already astronomical.

After thinking and discussing for a while, the two companies placed the contract in front of Lin Fan.

“Director Lin, if it were any other television series, we definitely wouldn’t buy the premiere rights for three hundred million yuan each.”

“But this TV show you directed is different. This show has the potential to go viral!”

“Our two companies are paying this six hundred million together. Director Lin, nice working with you.” The managers of Tencent Arts and iQiyi smiled.

“Nice working with you.” After Lin Fan checked the contract and signed it, he shook hands with the two managers.

And the premiere rights for the second season of “Joy of Life” were sold.

The cost of the premiere rights had set a record in the industry!

Tencent Arts and iQiyi each paid 300 million!

Chapter 283: Lin Fan Made Big Money Again. He Received 80 Million.
Yuehua Entertainment.

The many shareholders sat together.

“CEO Li, why did you let Lin Fan discuss the cost of the premiere rights? Shouldn’t this be our company’s business?”

“If Lin Fan doesn’t negotiate a high price, our company might lose money.”

“I wonder what kind of price Lin Fan can negotiate. However, we’ll most likely suffer a loss for the second season of Joy of Life. At most, Lin Fan can negotiate a premiere rights fee of 200 million yuan. Our television drama already has more than 300 million yuan in investments.”

“Sigh, there’s no choice. Fortunately, this television drama can become popular. If it becomes popular, the subsequent profits won’t be bad.”

“But it’s not too clear whether it will become popular or not. After all, Huace Pictures is still targeting our company. There are still so many haters online who don’t think this drama will become popular.”

“If this drama doesn’t become popular, our company will really suffer a huge loss.”

After Lin Fan returned to the company, Lin Qianwei had to hand over the contract to the company’s legal department and report to CEO Li.

“Qianwei, how much in copyright fees did Lin Fan negotiate this time? Which video websites are he working with?” CEO Li asked.

“Six hundred million, and he will be working with Tencent Arts and iQiyi,” Lin Qianwei said.

Hearing Lin Qianwei’s words, the shareholders of the Yuehua Group all looked at her in disbelief.

Even CEO Li was a little dumbfounded.

None of them had misheard right?

Six hundred million in copyright fees. Was that possible?

Over the years, it was already very terrifying that the copyright fee for the premiere of a television series could reach 100 million.

After all, these video websites had to be profitable.

As they were working with two video websites, the premiere rights for the first season of Joy of Life were sold for more than 100 million.

As for the second season of Joy of Life, the investment was very large and cost a lot of money.

Although most of the money came from investors, Yuehua Entertainment still needed money to buy scripts, pay the actors’ remunerations, and hire the relevant staff.

A lot of money had to be earned from the follow-up income generated by celebrities.

When they heard that Lin Fan had negotiated such a high premiere rights fee, everyone in the company was deeply shocked.

“Qianwei, repeat yourself. How much did the two video websites pay us for the premiere rights?” CEO Li asked again.

“CEO Li, the copyright fee is 600 million yuan. The contract has been handed over to the legal department, and the copyright fee should be transferred to the company’s account soon,” Lin Qianwei said.

After Lin Qianwei finished speaking, the people in the company finally recovered.

“Six hundred million. How is that possible? How is that possible? Who knew that Tencent Arts and iQiyi would be willing to pay six hundred million!”

“Oh my God, six hundred million. That’s a sky-high price. Lin Fan is too awesome. How did he negotiate that price with the two video companies?”

“If we let our company’s professional negotiators negotiate the price, it won’t reach six hundred million.”

“Who would believe that? It’s just premiere rights and all our company’s costs have been recouped.”

“Right now, it doesn’t matter if the TV series goes viral or not. We won’t lose anything. In fact, we might even make nearly two hundred million dollars.”

“Although we still have to pay taxes, our company can still earn about 200 million yuan. All of this is thanks to Lin Fan.”

“Is Lin Fan even human? He can actually negotiate such a high price for the premiere rights. I knew it was the right decision to let Lin Fan negotiate the price.”

Everyone in the company spoke with a hint of shock in their eyes.

They didn’t know how Lin Fan did it, but there was really an additional 600 million yuan in the company’s account.

Although they still had to pay taxes in the future and had to pay a lot, the company had still made a profit of two hundred million.

During this period of time, Yuehua Entertainment had also contributed a lot. Filming a television drama required the cooperation and help of many people. Yuehua Entertainment had also put in a lot of effort.

Although Lin Fan was the director of the second season of “Joy of Life”, the entertainment company behind it was also going to take a lot of money.

After all, many staff had to be paid, and the company also needed money to operate.

“CEO Li, it’s all thanks to Lin Fan that we have so much money. We must reward Lin Fan well.”

“I think we can promote Lin Fan. Lin Fan is our company’s top screenwriter and top director. How can we not promote him?”

“Lin Fan must be in need of money now. We must thank him properly. Lin Fan is too strong.”

Many of the company’s shareholders were shocked. Lin Fan had obtained such a high premiere rights fee, so everyone in the company could earn profits.

“Contact the finance department and transfer eighty million yuan to Lin Fan’s account. This is what he deserves.” CEO Li smiled.

This was the company’s reward for Lin Fan.

Of course, as for Lin Fan being short of money, these shareholders did not know Lin Fan’s background, but CEO Li did.

Lin Fan’s prowess was enough to make people revere him.

He still remembered that the 100-billion-yuan Huo Corporation, which went against Lin Fan, had been severely crippled for some reason.

This had to do with Lin Fan.

The background behind Lin Fan must be terrifyingly strong.

....

At this moment, Lin Fan was playing Chinese chess in the office.

There were many celebrities around. Su Xiaoyu, Lin Jingjing, Xu Yang, Lin Kexin, and Tang Xinran.

“Damn, have you guys heard? The premiere rights for the second season of Joy of Life have actually sold for 600 million!”

“This is f*cking shocking. The company has just posted on Weibo that the second season of Joy of Life can be broadcasted tonight. It will be serialized for eight episodes a week!”

“And they’re all being serialized simultaneously by the two video companies, iQiyi and Tencent Arts. I wonder who can sell the premiere rights to 600 million yuan.”

“I found out that Brother Fan was the one who negotiated the premiere rights. Brother Fan is awesome!”

“Holy sh*t, really?!!”

Xu Yang was amazed. He had not expected Lin Fan to know how to negotiate other than knowing how to write scripts and direct.

Is this man omnipotent?

The key was that when he went to negotiate, he also negotiated a sky-high price of six hundred million.

The company was making a killing.

A true killing.

600 million was a sum that many people could not earn in their entire lives.

“Ahhh, Master is so awesome!” Su Xiaoyu ate her ice cream with an excited and happy expression.

“It’s really amazing. 600 million. Who would be able to negotiate such a price?” Lin Kexin also looked impressed.

“Brother Lin Fan is the best.” Tang Xinran looked at him with admiration. In her eyes, Lin Fan was an indomitable idol. Nothing could stop him.

“Lin Fan, tell me the truth. How much will you get after getting the premiere rights fee to 600 million?” Xu Yang asked.

While everyone was excited, Lin Fan was still playing Chinese chess with the computer.

Lin Fan was very calm about how much money was involved.

Actually, how much money could there be? The cost of filming the television drama alone was 350 million yuan. There were also other miscellaneous costs, tax deduction, insurance and the salary of the company’s employees which added up to a considerable sum.

When Lin Fan said nothing, Xu Yang shook his head helplessly.

He didn’t know if Lin Fan was possessed or what, but he played Chinese chess every day.

It was then that Lin Fan’s phone rang.

A text notification. It was a text from the Construction Bank.

[Your platinum black card bank ending in 6115 was transferred RMB80,000,000 at 5pm on October 3rd.

Xu Yang was dumbfounded when he saw the news.

Lin Fan went to negotiate...

and actually got 80 million!!!

Chapter 284: Living Together?!

“Damn, 80 million... you got 80 million just like that?” Xu Yang looked at Lin Fan with envy and jealousy.

“What? Eighty million?” Lin Jingjing was also stunned, her beautiful eyes filled with shock.

“Look, Master is amazing. He got 80 million yuan in one go.” Su Xiaoyu did not come over to take a look and just ate her potato chips.

Celebrities should take good care of their figures. They would definitely gain weight if they ate potato chips. However, Su Xiaoyu could not gain weight at all for some reason.

“80 million yuan. How terrifying. Lin Fan, I feel that you’re like a major shareholder of the company. After selling the premiere rights of the television series, you’ve earned so much. I’m envious,” Xu Yang said.

After all, an A-list celebrity like him was only paid 18 million yuan. The rest was earned through endorsements, variety shows, filming various advertisements, and so on.

It was hard to get rich via a single TV show in this world.

This was also one of the better parts of this world. Even the A-list celebrity, Xia Wanqiu, only earned 30 million yuan.

If it was like modern times, where a celebrity would have hundreds of millions in remuneration for filming, how could one have the funds to film a television series if they hired a few big stars?

“Is this Brother Fan? 80 million at once. Amazing!”

“I’m so envious that I’m crying. Brother Fan is earning money too quickly. Together with the remuneration, he has probably already earned 100 million yuan!”

“Damn, Brother Fan is really fierce. He made 100 million!!”

“That’s right. Brother Fan’s the one who filmed this television drama after all. In addition, he hired all the big celebrities. Brother Fan is also a director. It’s not surprising that he can get so much money.”

“Brother Fan, please treat us to a meal!”

Many celebrities looked at Lin Fan with admiration.

Lin Jingjing, Xu Yang, Su Xiaoyu, Lin Kexin, and Ranran sat together and smiled at Lin Fan.

However, Xia Wanqiu was still not here. She was still working outside.

“Sure, it’s just treating you guys to a meal. Come to my house for a feast tonight.” Lin Fan smiled and looked at everyone.

Unfortunately, that daily mission had yet to be completed. Otherwise, Lin Fan would have been able to obtain the 300-million-yuan Tomson Riviera villa.

At that time, Lin Fan would be able to move. Compared to Tomson Riviera, the Blue Wave Bay District was still slightly inferior.

“Wow, we can eat Brother Lin Fan’s feast.” Tang Xinran looked at Lin Fan with her small eyes and touched her stomach.

“That’s right. Lin Fan’s cooking is too delicious. I wonder how his culinary skills have improved recently. He has to treat us to a feast.” Xu Yang smiled.

“Let’s have barbecue tonight. We’ll barbecue together. After all, we’ve been filming a television drama for more than a month. Everyone has worked hard.” Lin Fan smiled.

With everyone cheering, they headed to the Lake Heart Villa in the Blue Wave Bay District.

When Lin Fan reached the gate, the security guards were greeting him.

When these security guards saw the people around Lin Fan, they swallowed their saliva.

The life of a big star was awesome...

Lin Fan was surrounded by celebrities.

And many of them were pretty girls.

Only by seeing these celebrities in person would one know how beautiful these girls were.

Every one of them was devastatingly beautiful.

Su Xiaoyu's cuteness, innocence, and Lin Kexin's beauty as the school belle of Beijing Film Academy.

There was no need to mention Tang Xinran's looks. Although she was relatively inexperienced, her looks were not inferior to other female celebrities.

Xu Yang was also very handsome. He held Lin Jingjing's hand and came to Lin Fan's house.

"Good afternoon, Brother Fan." The security chief straightened his body and looked at Lin.

"Good afternoon. Would you like a cigarette?" Lin Fan handed over a few boxes of cigarettes. After all, Lin Fan was quite familiar with these security guards.

"Thank you, Brother Fan." The security chief accepted the cigarettes with a smile.

The cigarettes Lin Fan gave were all good ones. Even if the security guards earned a lot of money, they couldn't bear to buy such expensive cigarettes.

Lin Fan would occasionally send some wine over. It was quite good to build a good relationship with the security guards.

With these security guards around, Lin Fan would not be surrounded by fans at home. The security here was very good.

“Then, I’ll bring you guys some more wine and some bread I made at home.” Lin Fan smiled.

“Brother Fan, you’re too kind,” the security chief said, quickly wanting to refuse.

“No, no. I have too much wine at home. If I don’t drink it, it might expire. Also, the bread is the same. I’m usually busy with work and there are few people living in the villa. I can’t finish those things. Don’t stand on ceremony with me, or I’ll fight you.” Lin Fan smiled.

“Sure, Brother Fan. Call us if you need anything. I guarantee that we’ll do everything well.” The security captain was happy to accept it.

The Blue Wave Bay District was filled with rich people, but this was the first time the security captain had seen someone as nice as Lin Fan.

Lin Fan was not pitying these security guards. He also found a suitable reason to build a good relationship with them. He could also look for them when something really happened.

Many of the security guards in the Blue Wave Bay neighborhood were retired veteran soldiers with good skills.

After entering the Lake Heart Villa, Lin Kexin’s beautiful eyes were still filled with amazement.

The last time she’d been here, she’d been too preoccupied to enjoy the view.

Only now did she realize that Lin Fan’s place was really luxurious.

Even she did not know how long she would have to work to buy such a villa.

When filming with Lin Fan, he could produce a very popular drama in just over a month.

In other crews, it might take months, even six months, to earn ten to twenty million in remuneration.

As a result, it was extremely difficult for Lin Kexin to buy a house here.

Housing prices in high-end neighborhoods were ridiculously high.

Needless to say, Tang Xinran was pulled into the room by Lin Fan.

After entering the villa, it was an eye-opener for everyone.

Lin Fan's villa was still as luxurious as ever.

This was the world of the rich.

Especially Tang Xinran. She had never seen such a huge house before.

After entering the villa, it was a completely different world.

There were flowers and plants in the villa.

"Lin Fan, where's Xia Wanqiu? Aren't you going to ask her to eat with us?" Xu Yang asked.

Lin Fan smiled and said, "Wanqiu is working. She'll know when she comes back. There's no need to specially inform her."

After all, it was just dinner. Lin Fan would cook dinner every night, eat with Xia Wanqiu, and watch television with her.

Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu were already a couple. Although they couldn't be too intimate, they could still have a meal together.

When Xu Yang heard this, he felt that something was wrong.

That doesn't make sense.

Why would Xia Wanqiu come to the Lake Heart Villa without being informed about the dinner gathering?

Xu Yang was stunned when he thought of this.

There was only one possibility.

That was... Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu were already living together!

For some reason, Xu Yang felt miserable.

Last time, he even looked for Lin Fan to show off that his relationship with Lin Jingjing had improved.

So Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu had been living together for a long time...

As for what happened,

They were already living together. Was there a need to ask?
