

I signed In For A Billion Dollar Mansion From The Very Beginning Chapter 450-454

Chapter 440: Could Lin Fan Really Have Four Billion?

“2.6 billion.”

Yun Xi'er raised the number card in her hand.

The big boss who was still on the phone was stunned. He looked at Yun Xier and put down his phone weakly.

After all, in this era, not everyone knew that the real estate industry would definitely become popular. Even if a few people could predict it, they did not have the economic strength to do so.

Yun Xi'er taking the initiative to increase the price this time was equivalent to strangling the big boss's life-saving straw, making the big boss not dare to bid anymore.

Yun Xi'er was telling everyone that it was too late to call to borrow money.

The Yun family's economic strength was so strong. If they wanted to increase the price by 100 million, they could do so at any time.

Such an aura was not something that ordinary people could compare to.

The auctioneer was also stunned. “2.6 billion? No one is competing with you. Are you sure you want to increase the bid to 2.6 billion?”

Yun Xi'er nodded. “Yes.”

Everyone gasped again.

Who would have thought that Yun Xi'er would bid against herself?

She directly increased the price by 100 million. Look at how rich the Yun family was.

Others might not be able to tell, but Lin Fan could.

Yun Xi'er's action stopped the few people who wanted to borrow money to increase the price.

If these people borrowed money, a new round of bidding would definitely begin.

Yun Xi'er's method could be said to be quite brilliant.

However, Yun Xi'er ignored someone.

Lin Fan.

He had come here for this land.

This land was also Lin Fan's main mission.

As long as he obtained this land, everything else would be easy.

This land symbolized immense wealth and a future treasure trove.

If it was snatched away by someone else, it could be said to be a huge loss.

"2.7 billion." Lin Fan raised his sign.

Boom!

The auction that had already fallen silent was ignited again.

Lin Fan had attacked!!!

The competition in this auction still did not stop.

Lin Fan and Yun Xi'er were equivalent to a battle between gods. Mortals could only watch from below.

Yun Xi'er looked at Lin Fan and didn't back down. She said, "2.8 billion."

Seeing that Yun Xi'er still wanted to increase the price, Lin Fan didn't waste any more time.

"Three billion." Lin Fan raised his sign.

When they heard Lin Fan say the number three billion, even the auctioneer was stunned.

This was three billion yuan. It was really three billion yuan.

"Oh my god... No. 7 bid three billion!!!"

"This is three billion. Is there a higher bid?" The auctioneer looked at Yun Xi'er.

Yun Xi'er gritted her teeth, and her expression changed slightly.

She didn't expect Lin Fan to appear halfway.

Previously, when she bought the villa, Lin Fan had rushed out and prevented her from buying it.

Today, Lin Fan wanted to snatch this land from her again and even offered three billion yuan.

Yun Xi'er quickly calculated all the cash the Yun family could take out. She gritted her teeth and slowly said, "3.1 billion."

The price of 3.1 billion already hurt him.

Every additional 100 million was a huge fortune.

One had to know that even 100 million yuan was enough for a person to spend for two or three lifetimes.

Lin Fan increased the price. "Four billion."

BOOM!!!

Everyone felt their heads buzz.

Lin Fan actually increased the bid by 900 million, raising the price to 4 billion.

What kind of stunning scene was this?

"Four billion, No. 7 bids four billion!!" The auctioneer was extremely excited.

So this was a big boss. He took out four billion yuan at once. He was simply too strong.

It could be said that Lin Fan had already killed everyone.

He was the final winner.

Seeing Lin Fan bid four billion, Yun Xi'er's hands were trembling.

It was already quite painful for the Yun family to take out 3.1 billion.

But Lin Fan offered an even more terrifying price.

At this moment, Yun Xi'er said, "Hello, this piece of land is quite important to our Yun family. You also know that buying this piece of land is only the beginning. The way to operate, develop this land, and maximize the value of this land is something that our Yun family can do. This is also something that everyone knows."

"If you're willing to give up on this land, after our Yun family buys this land, the subsequent development fees will be completely handled by our Yun family. I can guarantee that you can get 10% of the shares of this land. You just have to lie at home and the Yun family will give you 10% of the profits every month." Yun Xi'er looked at Lin Fan.

This condition was already quite tempting.

The Yun family could be said to be quite terrifying. If the Yun family developed this land, they could indeed earn money.

By doing this, Yun Xi'er was basically telling Lin Fan not to worry about losing money.

Developing a piece of land required a huge amount of money. There was a chance to earn a lot of money and also a chance to lose a lot of money.

As long as Lin Fan agreed, he could earn 10% of the profits without doing anything.

Even if he lost out on this piece of land, it had nothing to do with Lin Fan.

It could be said that he had reduced the risks to a minimum. Without risks, he could earn money.

Lin Fan smiled calmly and said, "Thank you for your kindness, Miss Yun, but I'm not interested."

"At the auction venue, the highest bidder wins. Miss Yun, don't you know this rule?" Lin Fan said.

Yun Xi'er's chest heaved up and down, and she was a little angry.

She had already offered such a good offer but Lin Fan still refused to accept it.

She didn't know that number 7 was Lin Fan.

What Lin Fan said made sense. After all, this was the rule of the auction house. It wasn't a competition of who was more powerful and who could get this thing.

"I understand. Can the auction be paused for a few minutes?" Yun Xi'er looked at the auctioneer.

"Of course." The auctioneer bowed slightly and announced the suspension of the auction.

After all, the auction house did not dare to offend Yun Xi'er. If Yun Xi'er could take out more money, it would be very beneficial to the auction.

Yun Xi'er said something to the old man beside her. The old man understood and left Yun Xi'er's side.

After a minute, the manager of the auction came to Lin Fan's side and smiled respectfully.

"Hello, sir. As the price of the last item has already reached four billion, according to the rules, we need to bring you to make an asset identification," the manager said with a smile.

After all, if Lin Fan didn't have four billion and the auction was successful and he couldn't pay four billion, wouldn't the auction lose out?

Su Xiaoyu asked, "Didn't we already do an asset certification when you entered just now?"

The manager smiled. "Miss Su, when we entered just now, 100 million yuan was only enough for us to enter. But now, it's already 4 billion yuan. I hope you can understand. It's difficult for us too."

Fine, Lin Fan understood.

The auction house felt that he could not afford these four billion yuan, so they wanted to confirm his assets.

Yun Xi'er walked to Lin Fan's side at this moment and smiled. "If you give up now, the conditions the Yun family offered previously will still count. Of course, if you have other conditions, feel free to state them."

This was equivalent to telling Lin Fan that as long as he agreed to give up on the competition, he wouldn't have to lose face.

Obviously, Yun Xi'er also felt that Lin Fan couldn't take out four billion.

Many people looked at Lin Fan. When they saw the manager coming over, their eyes were filled with doubt.

“Could this No. 7 be a malicious bid?”

“That’s possible. Four billion is an astronomical figure. Can the company get it without hundreds of billions in assets?”

“Speaking of which, who is this No. 7? Does anyone know him?”

“I’ve never seen him before, nor have I heard of him being the boss of a big company.”

“Then it might be a malicious bid...”

...

The surrounding big bosses discussed softly, but no one dared to say it out loud. After all, no one was stupid and would not add enemies for no reason.

Lin Fan shook his head and said, “We can do asset verification.”

Under Yun Xi’er and everyone’s surprised gazes, Lin Fan followed the manager.

The manager’s eyes were also filled with shock.

They only knew that Lin Fan was a superstar and hadn’t had the time to investigate his background.

Could Lin Fan really have four billion?!

Chapter 441: 8 Billion in Savings, Shocking the Manager!

In another room.

There was only one machine. As long as he placed the bank card in and entered the password, he could detect how much money was in the bank card.

The manager muttered in his heart.

He only knew that Lin Fan was a big star and had opened a company called Jiaxing Entertainment.

As for the other news, the manager had not had time to gather them. After all, there were too many big shots at the auction. It was impossible for the auction hall to investigate everyone.

The manager turned around and looked at Lin Fan. He smiled and said, "Come this way."

Lin Fan nodded and followed the manager to the room.

"Mr. Lin, please show me your bank card. As long as there are more than four billion assets in your bank card, your bid will be effective," the manager said with a smile.

"Please understand. After all, even we didn't expect the auction to reach such a climax. The price of four billion exceeded our imagination." The manager's eyes were filled with apology.

After all, Lin Fan was now a big client of the auction. The manager didn't dare to offend Lin Fan easily.

If Lin Fan had money but didn't bid in the end, the auction would lose a lot of money.

However, bringing Lin Fan along for asset verification was also for insurance. To be honest, the manager didn't believe that Lin Fan could have more than four billion yuan.

Many big bosses had assets worth four billion.

However, many big bosses did not have four billion in savings.

If he wanted to have four billion in savings, the company's assets and market value had to be at least 100 billion!

Otherwise, everything would be empty talk.

Lin Fan's Jiaxing Entertainment was also worth more than three billion.

Lin Fan's bid this time was even higher than Lin Fan's company's market value.

That was why the auction became extremely serious.

The manager continued, "The main thing is that in the previous auctions, there were people who bid maliciously but were unable to pay in the end. Faced with this method, we have a headache."

Lin Fan smiled and said, "I understand. You can test this bank card."

The manager took a black card, his eyes filled with shock.

He seemed to have seen such a black card somewhere before, but he could not remember where.

However, this black card did not seem to belong to a bank card.

There was no special logo on the black card, only a simple royal portrait.

It did not even indicate what kind of bank this was.

The manager shook his head and looked at Lin Fan. He smiled bitterly and said, "Mr. Lin, your card..."

Lin Fan nodded. "Try this bank card."

The manager placed the bank card into the machine doubtfully. "Mr. Lin, please enter the password."

After Lin Fan entered the password.

A number immediately appeared in the machine.

The number in the machine was 0!

0!!!

What did this mean? Lin Fan didn't have a single cent in his bank account.

The manager was immediately a little angry, but he could not flare up.

Lin Fan didn't have money and he actually dared to come here to verify it. He even competed maliciously at the auction?

The manager had even thought of how to punish Lin Fan later. Faced with such a malicious customer, the auction hall would definitely report him severely.

If everything in the auction was like this, how could they do business in the future? How could the auction be held?

No wonder it was a black card... because it was not a bank card at all!

The manager looked at Lin Fan and remained polite. "Mr. Lin, did you take the wrong bank card?"

Lin Fan said, "I didn't take the wrong one."

The manager: "Mr. Lin, there's no mistake with our machine, but look at the number displayed on this machine..."

"8,000,000,000???"

When such a number appeared on the machine, the manager stood rooted to the ground, his mouth frozen.

He had never expected that so many numbers would appear on the machine!!!

One could tell at a glance that the number on this bank card was eight billion!

Eight billion...

The manager was stunned on the spot.

At first, he thought that it would be difficult for Lin Fan to even take out four billion. Who would have thought that Lin Fan was such a rich big boss?

There were eight billion in his bank account. Such wealth was enough to show how terrifying Lin Fan's wealth and strength were!

Even a top tycoon in the business world wouldn't have eight billion in his bank account, right?

The manager suddenly understood.

He thought of that black card!

When CEO Ma came here to bid, he had also brought that black card!

That black card was a limited edition black card!

It could be used in any country, anywhere, or even on any withdrawal machine in the world!

Because that black card was a symbol of honor and status!

Even rich people might not be able to have such a black card.

Those who could have such a black card were definitely top figures in terms of power, strength, and politics.

Rich second-generation heirs alone could not have such a black card.

This was a limited edition black card!

No wonder there were eight billion yuan in this black card. No wonder the machine showed 0 at first.

Even the machine did not expect there to be so much money in the bank card...

This machine had never tested so much money before. It even had a lag!

The manager said in disbelief, "Eight billion, oh my god... There's actually eight billion. Mr. Lin, I'm sorry. I offended you just now. Please forgive my ignorance."

Not only was the manager shocked, but even the two staff members at the auction were stunned. The two of them had never seen so much money in their lives.

Lin Fan smiled. "This is nothing. Don't be too surprised. I won't be angry. This is also the process of the auction. Now, can I continue to participate in the auction?"

The manager smiled respectfully and said, "Of course, Mr. Lin. From now on, you are a VIP at the auction. In the future, when you come to the auction, you can have your own VIP room to auction and I will give you the best service."

Lin Fan nodded. This was indeed the case in this world.

Money could indeed solve many things. It was precisely because the manager saw his bank account balance that his attitude towards him changed drastically.

From the start to the end, Lin Fan didn't show any arrogance. He was indeed rich now, but he never treated himself as a nouveau riche. Instead, Lin Fan kept a low profile.

He wasn't interested in such things. Being able to enjoy life was the most important!

Chapter 442: Lin Fan's Final Bid!

The manager looked at Lin Fan and said, "Mr. Lin, I know that you're the big boss of Jiaxing Entertainment. Jiaxing Entertainment's market value has already reached three billion. May I ask what industry Mr. Lin is in?"

Lin Fan smiled and didn't hide anything. "I'm involved in all kinds of industries. Real estate, finance, movies, television, directors, screenwriters. My wealth also extends to Chanel, LV, and the automobile industry."

Lin Fan said it simply, but in the manager's eyes, he was a little shocked.

Every industry was completely different.

Lin Fan was involved in so many industries. He was probably very good at every industry.

Was this the world of big shots?

He could do his best in every job.

Lin Fan turned around and looked at the manager. He smiled and said, "Of course, you can go to Weibo to take a look now. It's probably still trending."

The manager nodded and gestured to the two girls from before to look at Weibo.

After the two ladies opened Weibo, they screamed.

They were professionals. No matter how awesome the customer was, they would not make a sound.

But after seeing Weibo, the two ladies felt what a true big boss was.

They had never dreamed that Lin Fan's identity would be so terrifying!

The manager asked, "Um, what's Mr. Lin's identity? Is it on Weibo?"

The lady said weakly, "Manager, take a look for yourself."

The manager took the phone and saw the message.

"Holy sh*t..."

The manager could not stand steadily. His eyes were a little unfocused and his palms were trembling.

He was a graduate of 985 after all, but at this moment, he could not remember any of the sentences he had learned. There was only one word in his mind.

“Lin Fan, Aiiibaba’s vice president, Estee Lauder’s CEO, the second-largest shareholder of LV and Chanel, the third-largest shareholder of Bugatti...”

“Lin Fan is also the big boss of Jiaxing Entertainment. Other than that, Lin Fan also owns more than half of the real estate industry in Jiang City. Lin Fan’s girlfriend is the eldest daughter of the Xia family, Xia Wanqiu. She’s the daughter of the Xia family and the future son-in-law of the Su family in Beijing...”

“Xia Wanqiu is also one of the big celebrities in China. Her popularity is very high. Most importantly, she’s quite pretty. Lin Fan has a few villas in Shanghai...”

The manager looked at Weibo and doubted his life.

Was there really such a powerful person in this world?

In every industry and field, everything that Lin Fan was involved in was someone who had reached the peak.

In Aiiibaba, Lin Fan was the vice president.

In Estee Lauder, Lin Fan was the chairman.

In top luxury brands like LV and Chanel, Lin Fan was a major shareholder.

In Jiang City, Lin Fan was already a top tycoon in the real estate industry.

A person with such an identity was right in front of him.

He even brought her to check her qualifications to see if Lin Fan was rich.

From the start to the end, the manager didn't see Lin Fan get angry at all. They were also very cooperative with the auction's procedures.

If it was an ordinary rich second-generation heir, they might have already smashed things.

But Lin Fan was completely different.

This was the power of a big boss!

This was the world of big shots!

A true big boss had already done not get angry over small matters. Such a big boss could already let go of these small matters.

That was why Lin Fan was so calm when he did the auction qualification check.

There was only one word to describe Lin Fan.

Calm!

The manager smiled bitterly and said, "Just now, I almost offended a big boss. Mr. Lin, no... Boss Lin is someone we have to look up to for the rest of our lives. He's also someone most people here have to look up to."

"It's just that Yun Xi'er from the Yun family isn't a simple person. This auction isn't over yet, and this auction isn't something we can involve ourselves in. We can only watch from afar and see what a fight between immortals is." The manager shook his head.

On the other side, Yun Xi'er's beautiful eyes lit up.

She knew Lin Fan's background, but she also knew that the Yun family had to fight for this land!

The Yun family also knew that the real estate industry would definitely become popular in the future!

Not many people knew about this, and the land in Jiang City was the most suitable for development.

If it developed well in the future, just this land alone could bring in hundreds of billions.

They could earn a huge sum of money every year. As long as they could buy this land, it represented endless wealth.

The old man looked at Yun Xi'er and said respectfully, "Miss, it's all settled. This time, Lin Fan will definitely lose!"

Yun Xi'er nodded and smiled sweetly. "This Lin Fan always comes out to target me, but he doesn't know the Yun family's determination to buy this land. No matter what Lin Fan's background is, our Yun family can't fail. Let Lin Fan have a taste of failure."

After a long time, Yun Xi'er sat back down. This time, her aura was completely different, and it gave people a strong pressure.

After returning, Yun Xi'er gave the price.

"Five billion!" Yun Xi'er said.

In an instant, she increased the bidding price by a billion!!!

At the same time, a huge sum of money was transferred into Yun Xi'er's account.

Yun Xi'er raised the number card in her hand.

The true battle had already begun!

"Six billion." Lin Fan casually raised his sign, but his heart was already a little solemn. This Yun Xi'er was indeed not someone who could be easily dealt with like Gao Yong.

His eight billion yuan was the most money he could fork out from Estee Lauder. In a short period of time, Lin Fan wouldn't be able to get any more money.

It would take at least a few hours to prepare more money. Lin Fan was in the auction house and the auction house couldn't wait for him for a few hours.

This duel was still ongoing.

Who would have thought that Yun Xi'er would increase the price again?

"Seven billion!" Yun Xier looked at Lin Fan.

"7.1 billion." Lin Fan also looked at Yun Xi'er. From now on, every additional 100 million was a test of both parties' funds.

Yun Xi'er felt some pressure, and so did Lin Fan.

The auctioneer's eyes were filled with shock.

The auction price had already risen to 7.1 billion!

Oh my god, how long would this auction last?

Hence, the scene became a battle between Lin Fan and Yun Xi'er.

"Oh my god, it's already at 7.3 billion."

"No, it's 7.4 billion."

"These two people are fighting like immortals. It's too interesting. Lin Fan has already completed the auction qualification certification. This is enough to show that Lin Fan really has the right to fight against the Yun family."

"When will this auction end?"

At the last moment, Lin Fan was also prepared to kill!

“8 billion!” Lin Fan offered another price. He knew that Yun Xi’er didn’t have much money left.

This made Lin Fan feel a little threatened.

He had prepared for a long time to buy this land.

The auction price this time had already reached his bottom line.

If Yun Xi’er continued to bid, Lin Fan would be in a dangerous situation.

At this moment, the entire venue fell silent.

Everyone looked at Yun Xi’er!

Would Yun Xi’er continue bidding?!

Chapter 443: Lin Fan Is Rich!

“8.1 billion.” Yun Xi’er gritted her teeth and looked at Lin Fan in disbelief.

At this price, could Lin Fan still afford it?

Even Lin Fan couldn’t afford such a high price.

Yun Xi had done her best.

If they continued fighting, the Yun family would not be able to take it.

For this piece of land, the price had already reached 8.1 billion.

Buzz!

This price hit Lin Fan's bottom line.

He only had eight billion in his bank account.

Other than that, Lin Fan didn't have much money left.

Lin Fan couldn't compete with Yun Xi'er anymore.

Could it be that they had lost this auction just like that?

The auctioneer looked at Lin Fan.

Everyone's eyes were on him.

Whether Lin Fan bid or not would affect the final outcome of this auction.

"Looks like it's over." Yun Xi'er looked at Lin Fan and smiled.

At this moment, Lin Fan received a WeChat message.

It was a WeChat message from Xia Wanqiu.

"Meow, meow ~ Lin Fan, my grandfather knew that you were coming to the auction and was afraid that you didn't have enough money, so he asked me to prepare two billion yuan for you ~ Although it's not much, this is a small token of my appreciation." Xia Wanqiu sent a message.

When Lin Fan saw Xia Wanqiu's message, he looked completely different.

Just as he was about to fail, Xia Wanqiu's message came.

Other than that, there was also a message from his bank account, indicating that Lin Fan had received another two billion dollars.

Now, Lin Fan had a total of 10 billion!

“10 billion!” Lin Fan chose to bid.

Of course, Yun Xi'er offered 8.1 billion and Lin Fan offered 10 billion. Wasn't this a foolish action?

But that wasn't the case because Lin Fan knew that he still had the Consumption Cash Return.

In this auction, the more money Lin Fan spent, the better. This way, there would be a lot of returns.

It was just like buying mineral water. If he bought a bottle of mineral water and the refund was doubled, it would give Lin Fan two yuan.

However, if he spent 10 billion and doubled the return, he would have 20 billion!

When everyone heard Lin Fan's bid, they were completely stunned.

Yun Xi'er was also stunned on the spot, unable to calm down for a long time.

Everyone was deeply shocked.

Even the auctioneer didn't expect Lin Fan to offer such a terrifying price.

“Oh my god, number 7 is bidding ten billion!!”

“Ten billion going once...”

“10 billion twice...”

As the auctioneer's voice fell, everyone looked at Yun Xi'er again.

At this moment, a hint of regret appeared on Yun Xi'er's face.

No matter what, the Yun family was still inferior.

After all, her opponent was Lin Fan.

Yun Xi'er already knew what kind of person Lin Fan was.

It was already her honor to be able to stand in the same place as such a big boss to bid.

Yun Xi'er sighed and shook her head.

The Yun family could not afford ten billion yuan in cash.

In terms of wealth, the Yun family was no match for Lin Fan.

Seeing that Yun Xi'er had given up, the auctioneer officially decided.

"10 billion going thrice!!"

"Congratulations to Mr. Lin for obtaining the last item!"

The entire venue was filled with enthusiastic applause. Everyone looked at Lin Fan with admiration.

"I know who he is. He's Lin Fan, Aibaba's vice president."

"D*mn, Lin Fan is Aibaba's vice president? When did this happen..."

"Who said that he's only Aibaba's vice president? This... Chanel, LV, Estee Lauder, Lin Fan's background is too terrifying. No wonder he has such strong financial resources. I'm impressed."

"Boss Lin is awesome! This is the world of the rich. We can only look up to him!"

At the same time, Lin Fan received a notification from the system.

“Master, you have bought Villa 1 in Lingbo District. You have spent 500 million yuan. The cash return has doubled. Congratulations Master for obtaining 1 billion yuan!”

“Master has bought a piece of land in the western suburbs of Jiang City. You have spent 10 billion yuan. The cash return has doubled. Congratulations Master for obtaining... 20 billion yuan!”

Lin Fan was delighted.

In total, he received 21 billion!

At the same time, Lin Fan received a message from the bank.

[Honorable Mr. Lin, you have received 21,000,000,000 yuan in your bank account ending in 6115 (Construction Bank)]

21 billion, he had successfully received it!

Other than these, Lin Fan also obtained a piece of land and the best villa in Lingbo District. It was also the best villa in Jiang City.

Lin Fan immediately returned the two billion yuan to Xia Wanqiu. After all, it was Old Master’s money. This was equivalent to the Xia family’s assets.

Lin Fan was very touched that the Xia family was helping him so much.

There was also the 10 billion yuan loan from the bank and the one billion yuan he owed Boss Ma. Lin Fan had repaid everything.

After returning the money, Lin Fan still had 8.3 billion in his account!

This 8.3 billion was also an astronomical sum!

Lin Fan couldn't help but smile.

Su Xiaoyu blinked and looked at Lin Fan. She tilted her head. "Master, what are you so happy about?"

Lin Fan knocked Su Xiaoyu's head. "Go play aside."

Su Xiaoyu patted her head. "Hmph, Master is petty."

Then, Lin Fan prepared to leave with Su Xiaoyu.

Yun Xi'er took the initiative to walk in front of Lin Fan and bowed slightly. "Mr. Lin, please wait."

Lin Fan turned around and looked at Yun Xi'er. "What's the matter?"

Su Xiaoyu stood beside Lin Fan carefreely and ate her candy. She didn't care.

Yun Xi'er smiled and said, "Mr. Lin, I'm very happy that you've obtained this piece of land in the western suburbs of Jiang City. Our Yun family is also in the real estate business. If we can work together in the future, the Yun family is willing to work with Mr. Lin."

Lin Fan nodded. "Sure."

To Lin Fan, it was definitely better to have one more friend than one more enemy.

Yun Xi'er looked at Lin Fan again. "Mr. Lin, there's one more thing. Can we add each other's contact details? If there's anything, we can contact each other..."

The main thing was that Lin Fan was so handsome and outstanding. Yun Xi'er looked at Lin Fan. Coupled with the fact that she was single, she still had some fantasies about relationships.

With such a handsome man in front of him, no one could resist him.

If only he could add her on WeChat and contact her in the future.

In the end, Su Xiaoyu grabbed Lin Fan's arm and stuck out her tongue at Yun Xi'er. "No! Master already has a girlfriend. I won't add your contact details. If you have anything in the future, you can contact Jiaxing Entertainment. Bye-bye."

Looking at Su Xiaoyu's vigilant and angry expression, Lin Fan could only smile bitterly and shake his head.

For some reason, he felt that Su Xiaoyu was a little jealous.

Just like that, Su Xiaoyu pulled Lin Fan away, leaving Yun Xi'er standing alone in the wind.

Chapter 444: You Are My Boyfriend and My Fiancé

After walking out and sitting in the car, Su Xiaoyu looked at Lin Fan angrily and said, "Did you want to add Yun Xi'er on WeChat just now?"

Before Lin Fan could speak, Su Xiaoyu said, "Hmph, you're not allowed to add her. I don't agree."

Lin Fan: "???"

Wasn't it just adding a girl on WeChat? Besides, there would really be a chance to work with her in the future.

Lin Fan looked at Su Xiaoyu and teased, "Why wouldn't you agree? Are you jealous?"

Su Xiaoyu blushed and made up a reason. "No way. If you flirt with other girls outside, I'll tell Sister Wanqiu. I'll supervise you on her behalf. Hmph, if you dare to find other girls, I'll bite you like a dog. Ahwooh!!"

Looking at Su Xiaoyu like this, Lin Fan could only smile bitterly.

However, Lin Fan couldn't be bothered to add other people on WeChat. After all, he didn't really chat with them.

Before he could start the car, Lin Fan received a call from Xia Wanqiu.

Xia Wanqiu: "Lin Fan, my mother... wants to see you."

Lin Fan: "???"

Xia Wanqiu: "My mother knows that you're my boyfriend, so she wants to see you. My mother is... a strict person."

Lin Fan: "It's fine. Then I'll prepare well and go home to see Auntie."

Xia Wanqiu: "You have to perform well. Also, my mother doesn't really like celebrities. She always has some prejudice and might say something unpleasant to you. Don't be angry, okay?"

Lin Fan: "Will your boyfriend be angry?"

Xia Wanqiu: "Hehe, see you when you get back tonight. Oh right, tell Xiaoyu that Mommy wants to see her too."

Lin Fan said, "Okay."

After hanging up, Lin Fan looked at Su Xiaoyu and smiled. "Xiaoyu, your mother wants to see you and asked me to bring you back."

When Su Xiaoyu heard the word 'mother', her eyes turned red.

She was in the car, curled up. "I don't want to see her."

Su Xiaoyu raised her beautiful eyes. "How many years has it been? She has never seen me. After I was six years old, she never looked at me. Now, she wants to see me. I don't want to see her!"

Lin Fan gently placed his hand on Su Xiaoyu's head. "But that's your mother. Are you really... not going to see her?"

Su Xiaoyu shook her head. "If she wants to see me, she should come to me, not ask me to look for her."

Lin Fan nodded. "Alright, you can decide on this yourself. No one else can do anything about it."

Su Xiaoyu giggled. "Mmm ~"

Su Xiaoyu looked at Lin Fan and said, "Master, after this period of time, you should still be going back to film television dramas and movies, right?"

Lin Fan nodded. "Of course. After all, Jiaxing Entertainment is still developing."

Su Xiaoyu nodded gently. "Mmm, alright. All the best, Master. I hope you can film especially awesome movies and television dramas in the future ~"

Su Xiaoyu's beautiful eyes were a little dim, but Lin Fan didn't notice this.

After parting ways with Su Xiaoyu, Lin Fan prepared to return to the Xia family alone.

At the entrance of the Xia residence, Xia Wanqiu was waiting for Lin Fan.

The autumn wind was blowing and the weather was a little cold. She was not wearing much and looked a little thin in the cold wind.

Xia Wanqiu was wearing a cat ears hat and standing obediently at the door. She was holding a cup of hot milk tea in her hand and looking around.

Not long after, Lin Fan returned.

After Lin Fan got off the car, he saw Xia Wanqiu waiting for him in the cold wind.

Xia Wanqiu put on her cat ears hat and made a cat paw gesture. "Meow meow? You're back. Have a cup of hot milk tea before entering the house."

Looking at the girl in front of him, Lin Fan felt like his heart was about to melt.

There were probably not many girls who would take the initiative to wait for a boy in the wind.

It was already autumn and the weather was gradually turning cold. Xia Wanqiu's clothes were also a little thin, which made Lin Fan a little reluctant.

"Why is it just a cup of milk tea?" Lin Fan asked.

"I've already drunk it." Xia Wanqiu smiled sweetly.

"Your hands are so cold. You have to wear more clothes in the future," said Lin Fan as he held Xia Wanqiu's cold hand.

Xia Wanqiu nodded obediently. "Yes, yes. I know. Drink the milk tea first."

Lin Fan looked at the milk tea and smiled. "I'm not thirsty. Drink some. Look, my hand is quite warm. Your hand is already so cold."

Xia Wanqiu shook her head and put her hands behind her back. "I really drank it."

Actually, Xia Wanqiu had transferred all the money to Lin Fan just now. She didn't even have a single cent left on her. She searched her entire body and only found ten dollars in cash. She bought Lin Fan a cup of milk tea. As for herself, she didn't have any milk tea to drink.

Lin Fan smiled and said, "No, you haven't drunk it before. Don't lie to me in the future."

Xia Wanqiu looked at Lin Fan innocently.

Lin Fan rubbed Xia Wanqiu's cat ears hat and smiled. "You don't know how to lie. I can tell when you lie. Drink this cup of milk tea. I'm really not thirsty."

Xia Wanqiu's ears were a little red from the cold. She held the milk tea and inserted the straw. She held it in front of Lin Fan with both hands. "Here, take a sip first. I'll drink the rest."

Lin Fan looked at Xia Wanqiu and smiled. "This isn't clean. How can you drink someone else's straw?"

Xia Wanqiu smiled sweetly. "You're not anyone else ~ Lin Fan, you're my boyfriend and also my... fiancé ~"

"I'm letting you drink first because I want you to try if it's hot. Hehe," Xia Wanqiu said and stuck out her tongue.

Lin Fan thought about it and felt that it made sense. He took a small sip and was scalded.

"It's so hot." Lin Fan swallowed it with difficulty and almost scalded his tongue. He had to admit that the milk tea was still very hot.

"Lin Fan, are you alright?" Xia Wanqiu's eyes were a little red. She looked at Lin Fan worriedly. "I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I didn't expect this milk tea to be so hot. I clearly felt that it wasn't hot from the outside."

Lin Fan laughed and hugged Xia Wanqiu's slender waist. "I lied to you."

Xia Wanqiu was stunned by Lin Fan's sudden hug.

She gently patted Lin Fan's chest. "Ah ah ah, bad person, lying to me again!!"

Lin Fan let Xia Wanqiu hit his chest. It didn't hurt at all. Instead, it was a little soft.

Lin Fan smiled and took off his coat. He draped it over Xia Wanqiu and said sternly, "In the future, when you go out, wear more clothes. You're not allowed to wear so little anymore. What if you catch a cold?"

Xia Wanqiu was protected by Lin Fan and her beautiful eyes seemed to glow. "But won't you be cold?"

Lin Fan placed his hand on Xia Wanqiu's shoulder. "No, your man is resistant to the cold!"

Xia Wanqiu didn't resist Lin Fan's shoulder and smiled happily. She gently leaned on Lin Fan's shoulder and drank the milk tea.

The setting sun shone on Lin Fan and Xia Wanqiu.

The world seemed to freeze at this scene.
