Chapter 491 - 495

Chapter 491: Dying to Survive Released, Publicity All Over the Internet!

“Post on Weibo?” Lu Benkai was shocked.

This...

He did not understand his boss's thoughts.

Which publicity movie only relied on posting on Weibo?

Some people had to hold all sorts of press conferences to promote their movies in every city.

At the same time, they had to use all sorts of methods to hype up the movie online and hire a large number of celebrities to promote it.

And Lin Fan's publicity method was actually just to post on Weibo himself...

Was this called publicity?

He did not take publicity seriously at all.

Many people knew Lin Fan but they wouldn't use Weibo or see Lin Fan's posts.

If they didn't promote it, who knew how many viewers would miss it. It would definitely affect the box office.

But Lin Fan... didn't care at all.

It wasn't that Lin Fan didn't care, but that he was running out of time.

Only he knew how much it cost to film “Dying to Survive”.

He had hired thousands of extras, clothes, props, and other costs. These were all costs.

Even without the remuneration of big celebrities, just the remuneration of these ordinary extras and some basic filming costs alone had reached at least 200 million.

Coupled with the remuneration of the celebrities and other large costs, it was probably more than 400 million.

This was including Lin Fan's own acting so there was no need to pay himself a salary. Otherwise, the cost would be immeasurable.

Of course, in the system's calculations, this 200 million yuan could be used to refund.

However, there was a prerequisite. The movie had to be released within four months.

Now, it had taken more than three months to film the movie alone. Coupled with the time it took to produce it, how could they have time to promote it?

If this 200 million yuan cost was used to make a critical hit, it would be many times more profitable.

If it was released four months later, the cost would be wasted. He could not make a comeback.

As for publicity, Lin Fan didn't care.

In this world, a box office of one billion yuan was already the peak of domestic movies.

It naturally could not compare to interesting movies overseas.

The basic cost of filming this movie was 200 million. If the rebate was ten times that, it was equivalent to two billion.

If it was a hundred times the rebate, it would be 20 billion.

This was the most profitable thing. It was even more important than the release of the movie!

As for publicity, Lin Fan didn't think it was that important.

Unless he started promoting it now.

If it was for publicity, as the main lead and director, he naturally had to appear personally.

However, Lin Fan had been working for too long. He worked ten hours a day and all he wanted to do now was rest. How could he think about publicity?

After Lin Fan finished speaking, he got into the car and started to rest in the back row. He didn't even attend the wrap party.

The main thing was... he was really too tired.

Lin Fan was a big boss. It was understandable for him to get into the car and leave. After all, as a boss, he was still very busy.

As for publicity, Lin Fan really didn't care.

Lu Benkai and Liu Mou exchanged glances.

What did Boss Lin mean?

Was he really not going to promote the movie?

Suddenly, Lu Benkai shouted excitedly, "I understand! It's not that Boss Lin doesn't want to promote it, but there's no need for Boss Lin to personally do such a thing. What kind of person is Boss Lin? Every television drama and movie he filmed became popular. The name Lin Fan is what the audience looks forward to the most."

"Does Boss Lin need to personally do something like publicity? Then what are we doing? Boss Lin just said that he can post on Weibo. He's even hinting to us to use the power of Weibo!" Lu Benkai said.

Liu Mou nodded as well. "That's right. How can Boss Lin not promote the movie? His name is the best publicity, and these things are enough for us!"

"It's decided then. We'll hold a press conference and start promoting it to the audience all over the country. Then, we'll find big shots in the entertainment industry to repost the news that 'Dying to Survive' and 'Wandering Earth' are about to be released. Then, we can do some promotional videos. Anyway, it's enough to leave it to us!"

After hearing Liu Mou's words, Lu Benkai laughed. "Boss Lin is indeed Boss Lin. He's always so brilliant in everything he does. Luckily, I'm smart and understood Boss Lin's intentions. His name is the best publicity method!"

After all, publicity for movies was handed over to the staff. How could the boss personally do it?

Any movie or television drama directed by Lin Fan or had him in the actor's list would symbolize excellence as long as his name was used!

It did not matter what the movie's name was or what the television drama's name was.

As long as it was a television drama or movie directed by Lin Fan, it would definitely be the most interesting!

Ten days later.

The movie had been completed.

Xue Kexin and the rest of the team had long returned from Hollywood and had learned a lot of techniques. They edited the movie and added the dubbing. It was quickly completed.

The premiere was scheduled for the 29th of May!

There were only three days left until the four-month deadline.

Today was the 26th of May. There were only a few days before the movie was released.

He only had two more days to publicize.

There were many differences between this world and the real world. Furthermore, Lin Fan had a good relationship with the Yangzhou Film Administration. The review would take at most half a day to pass.

The screening at Wanda was quite fast. It could be done almost immediately.

These two days should have been the last time for publicity.

However, Lin Fan didn't care at all. He had rested at home for ten days and was playing games.

As for publicity, Lin Fan had forgotten about it.

To him, it was fine as long as the movie could be released. Hence, Lin Fan didn't even post on Weibo.

However, the employees of Jiaxing Entertainment took the initiative to post on Weibo.

[Xia Wanqiu: "On the 29th, 'Dying to Survive' is officially released all over the country. Director: Lin Fan, the main lead: Lin Fan. It's a very touching movie. I hope everyone can support it when the time comes ~"]

Su Xiaoyu: "There's no need to say anything more about Master's movie. Of course it has to be shared. 29th of May, 'Dying to Survive' is about to be released!"

Lin Jingjing: "It's said that Brother Lin Fan has to work ten hours a day for more than three months. Everyone, you have to come and take a look. On the 29th of May, 'Dying to Survive' will officially be released!"

[Xu Yang: "I don't care. I support you! I'll book the entire cinema first!"]

Lin Kexin: "I'm looking forward to the 29th of May ~"

....

What was worth mentioning was that after Xia Wanqiu posted on Weibo, all the celebrities in various places posted about it too.

Whether they were celebrities from Jiaying Entertainment or not, as long as they were big celebrities, they were spontaneously promoting this movie.

Even singers, directors, dubbing, and various entertainment companies were spontaneously promoting Lin Fan's movie.

Because...

That was a movie starring Lin Fan!

Lin Fan's first movie was about to premiere!

Then, the entire forum exploded at this moment!

Chapter 492: "Wandering Earth" Will Be Released Too!

"D*mn? Lin Fan's movie is going to premiere?"

"What's the name of the movie again? Dying to Survive? This movie looks a little different from the previous style."

"Why isn't Lin Fan promoting his new movie? When did Lin Fan film a new movie? It's going to be released in two days!"

"But I haven't applied for leave yet. I'll still be working that day. Otherwise, I really want to apply for leave and watch a movie!"

"There's nothing to say about Lin Fan's movies. They must be top-notch! All of Lin Fan's movies must be super good!"

"Ah ah ah, I saw that the big celebrities have all posted on Weibo to promote Lin Fan's movie. Xia Wanqiu, Su Xiaoyu, Lin Jingjing, Xu Yang, Lin Kexin, and many other celebrities in the entertainment industry!"

"They're all saying that they're going to watch Lin Fan's movie. This is the first time I've seen so many big celebrities in the entertainment industry promoting a movie together. Lin Fan's character in the entertainment industry is also super good."

The news that “Dying to Survive” was about to be released quickly reached the top of Weibo’s trending topics list!

Not only that, Tiktok, Zhihu, Tieba, some posts, forums, and other places had also spread.

Lin Fan didn’t promote this movie.

The cinema did not have time to promote the movie but it was about to premiere.

It was sudden for the audience.

It was even more shocking for the cinema.

They had never heard that Lin Fan was going to film a new movie.

Jiang Kun and Lin Weiwei from the Yangzhou Film Administration were also completely stunned.

Lin Fan was filming a movie... so quickly?

It had been less than five months since ‘Kung Fu Hustle’ was released.

In less than five months, the movie was completed again.

The time this time was really too rushed. Jiang Kun did not even personally watch the movie “Dying to Survive” but the Yangzhou Film Administration had already approved it.

After that, they quickly decided to release the movie. The screening could be said to be smooth.

When the reviewers and cinemas saw that it was Lin Fan’s movie, they immediately let it pass and quickly finalized the release date.

The cinema was also very puzzled as to why Jiaxing Entertainment did not promote this movie, but they did not ask further. They were only responsible for releasing it.

There were only two days. Even if the cinema wanted to promote it, it was completely too late. At most, they would have to do some online publicity.

And now, without the cinema promoting it, it was already so popular.

The news of Lin Fan’s new movie being released quickly spread throughout the Internet!

One spread to ten, ten spread to a hundred, a hundred spread to a thousand...

In just three hours after posting on Weibo, there were already nearly 200 million discussions online!

The audience had just finished watching the finale of “The Legend of Condor Heroes” and had completely fallen in love with Lin Fan’s television drama.

In the end, Lin Fan’s movie was released again.

To the commoners, the most important thing was the cultural industry!

With a cultural industry, ordinary people could entertain themselves every day, kill time, and spend their days comfortably.

Therefore, novels, games, television dramas, movies...

And an outstanding work could make the audience like it even more and chase after it.

It was precisely because this movie was not promoted that all the Tieba posts were almost identical.

[Shocking. Why didn’t Lin Fan promote the movie after filming it? Is the movie Dying to Survive that good?]

[This time, Jiaying Entertainment did not promote the latest movie, Dying to Survive. Only some celebrities posted on Weibo to promote it. Why?]

[Dying to Survive, the strongest domestic movie, is about to premiere. Anyway, I’m going to watch this movie!]

....

“I didn’t expect that Boss Lin wouldn’t promote this movie and would achieve such good results instead.”

“This must be Boss Lin. His thoughts are always something that we can’t guess. In my opinion, this is the opposite of what he thinks. It’s the best publicity.”

“The audience is tired of some of the releases. This new publicity method will make the audience look forward to it more and make this movie more mysterious!”

The person in question, Lin Fan, was still playing games at home.

League of Legends!

Anyway, Lin Fan had nothing to do during this period of time. He didn’t have to worry about the premiere at all. Lin Fan could just stay at home and play games.

Lin Fan went in and immediately chose Yasuo.

Fifteen minutes later, the game ended 0-7.

Lin Fan turned off the computer and ate, showered, and slept.

Life was simply boring.

As for the movie publicity? Lin Fan had completely forgotten about it.

He had forgotten that the movie was about to premiere.

Because Lin Fan wasn't sure if the movie would become popular and he didn't care that much.

Even if he earned another billion yuan at the box office, Lin Fan would only be able to earn 600-700 million yuan. It would be better to get a critical rebate.

This could not be helped. No matter how well domestic movies did, the highest box office record was only one billion.

He still had to pay taxes, dividends, cinemas, and all sorts of costs. The company also had to operate and Lin Fan didn't have that much money.

Of course, on the other hand.

The other movie promoted by Jiaying Entertainment was about to be released!

“Wandering Earth” was about to be released!

Although Lin Fan didn't appear or direct this movie, the producer of this movie was Jiaying Entertainment and the screenwriter was Lin Fan.

In the early stages of his career, Lin Fan would occasionally look at directing. He could be considered half a director.

Logically speaking, when the movie was broadcasted, Lin Fan's name wouldn't be added to the director column. Lin Fan didn't even do much. However, Jiaying Entertainment still placed Lin Fan's name at the top!

In other words, it meant that both movies were directed by Lin Fan!

It was worth mentioning that in “Wandering Earth”, Xia Lingling, who was still studying at Beijing Film Academy, was the female lead of this movie.

The Internet exploded.

Jiaxing Entertainment's two movies were released on the same day, but the broadcast times were slightly different.

When the news of the two movies being released was announced, an even greater wave was created online.

“What? Not one movie, but two movies?”

“Jiaxing Entertainment is actually going to film two movies on the same day. They're crazy...”

“Although Lin Fan didn't act in 'Wandering Earth', it was still a script written by Lin Fan. Lin Fan is also a director. This movie is also very good!”

“D*mn, I've only heard of a few movies competing with each other to see whose box office earnings are higher, but I didn't expect Jiaxing Entertainment to compete with itself!”

“These two movies... are they competing with me? Amazing... They're really amazing. I'm afraid only Jiaxing Entertainment can do this. After all, which movie company can compare to Jiaxing Entertainment's movies?”

“Ah ah ah ah ah, I'm so happy. I can watch two movies at the same time. Long live Lin Fan!”

Chapter 493: The Most Touching Movie!

The major companies in the entertainment industry also saw the two movies released by Jiaxing Entertainment.

No one had ever thought that Jiaxing Entertainment could do so well.

The two movies were released together.

What did this mean? It meant that Jiaxing Entertainment was absolutely confident in these two movies!

As the strongest entertainment company in China, Mavericks Entertainment had launched countless famous works.

Boss Tang Yuan was also very capable.

But ever since Tang Yuan met Lin Fan, he had completely failed.

“Why... is this Lin Fan so amazing?” Tang Yuan said and shook her head. “Kung Fu has only been released for less than five months and they have already filmed two movies.”

“I don’t believe that Lin Fan’s two movies can still become popular. Lin Fan, just you wait. Haste makes waste. I don’t believe that your two movies will become popular. If they do, I’ll eat sh*t on livestream!” Tang Yuan said fiercely.

Today, Jiaxing Entertainment’s status had completely exceeded that of Mavericks Entertainment.

China’s strongest entertainment company had already changed hands!

Jiaxing Entertainment.

Xia Lingling was excited, An Yi and Mu Qing’er beside her.

Mu Qing’er looked envious. “How long has it been? You’re already the female lead of a movie. I wonder what kind of results ‘Wandering Earth’ can get. I’m a little envious.”

An Yi nodded and crossed her long legs casually on the sofa. She leaned against the soft sofa and her long hair draped over her shoulders. “I’m not as outstanding as you. I don’t know when I’ll be able to film a television drama and movie.”

Xia Lingling stuck out her tongue. “I’m under a lot of pressure to film this movie. I feel that my acting skills are still very bad. Maybe this movie will fail. The protagonist of ‘Dying to Survive’ is Boss Lin. When it comes to ‘Wandering Earth’, the female lead will be me. How can I compare to that?”

Although she said that, Xia Lingling was still very happy. Lin Fan had given her such a chance.

“If the movie can become popular, I’ll treat the two of you to a feast!” Xia Lingling blinked and looked at An Yi and Mu Qing’er.

“At least Haidilao!” An Yi said.

“Sure. In two days, we’ll finish watching two movies and we can have a feast.” Mu Qing’er nodded.

The three girls were recruited by Lin Fan from Beijing Film Academy. However, Xia Lingling could film a movie first.

Such a good treatment for Xia Lingling made An Yi and Mu Qing'er feel much more at ease.

So Lin Fan recruited them because he really wanted to nurture them.

"Although I say that, I still feel that it's very difficult to become popular. There has never been a sci-fi movie in the country. This time, 'Wandering Earth' also feels like a sci-fi movie. I'm not very confident," Xia Lingling said.

An Yi patted Xia Lingling on the shoulder. "Maybe... it'll become popular! We have to believe in Boss Lin!"

Mu Qing'er nodded, her beautiful eyes filled with admiration. "Yes, he's Lin Fan. Lin Fan who has never failed."

Xia Lingling looked at An Yi and Mu Qing'er. Lin Fan... had never failed before?

Then, would it succeed this time?

...

On the day of the premiere.

Lin Fan realized that unknowingly, it was time for the movie to premiere.

"Dying to Survive" and "Wandering Earth" were released at the same time!

Many of the audience were already sitting in the cinema.

As the person in charge of the cinema, Li Zhengyi increased the screening times of the two movies to 40%!

With his previous experience, Li Zhengyi increased Lin Fan's screenings to a terrifying number.

This meant that the audience could watch this movie first. After watching this movie, they could watch the next movie.

They could finish watching both movies at once!

However, because of the screening, the first screening of "Dying to Survive" was held at 13.20.

The first screening of "Wandering Earth" was at 15.10.

The two movies were still a little off.

Most of the audience bought two movie tickets and prepared to watch the two movies together.

Sitting in the theater, many of the audience were discussing Lin Fan's new movie enthusiastically.

"Sigh, I wonder how the filming of 'Dying to Survive' is going. I hope Lin Fan won't disappoint me."

"If it wasn't for Lin Fan's movie, I wouldn't even want to watch this movie. I feel that the name of this movie is average. There's nothing special about it."

"Let's take a look. Lin Fan's movie is still worth respecting. What if this movie is really good?"

After the advertisement was broadcasted, the movie officially started.

At first, when they were watching the movie, everyone was still laughing. They were just a little surprised at Lin Fan's latest role.

When the movie reached the middle stage, all the audience's expressions could not help but tense up.

Especially when they saw a leukemia patient lying weakly in the hospital, and when the doctor came to treat the patient, the heart-wrenching pain and roar made the audience lower their heads and could not bear to look.

This kind of heart-wrenching pain was painful even without the scene.

Faced with the pain of leukemia, the helplessness, the despair of not having any special medicine, he could only accept chemotherapy again and again...

The scene changed. That leukemia patient... was already dead.

A living person had turned into a black and white photo in the movie.

When the audience saw the black and white photo, they could not help but feel their hearts clench.

Then... the protagonist tried to save everyone.

To save those with leukemia.

The protagonist was on the path of breaking the law, but he had no choice. Legal medicine cost tens of thousands a bottle, but illegal medicine only cost 500 dollars a bottle.

But in order to save people...

Later on, the blonde got into a car accident to cover the protagonist's retreat.

The blond was also dead.

The protagonist was powerless and in despair.

The legitimate drug dealers started to contact the police. The police started to capture the protagonist crazily and look for him.

As for those people with leukemia, they were all protecting the protagonist and not letting the police discover him.

An old lady was even begging the police to give them a way out...

In the end, the protagonist was still caught.

Countless people stood on both sides of the road and silently watched the protagonist leave.

In the car, the protagonist vaguely saw the dead blond and the leukemia patient who liked to send oranges...

When the movie reached this point, many of the audience cried.

Many people cried.

Many girls' eyes were red as they sat on the spot weakly.

Some people thought of their deceased parents...

There were also some people who thought about their relatives who were fighting in the ward...

The movie was over.

No one moved. They sat on the spot for a long time, feeling touched and shocked.

No one had expected the theme of this movie to be so touching.

The audience did not have exaggerated expressions or intense applause. Those were too fake. They all stood up silently and walked out of the theater.

The movie "Dying to Survive" deeply touched everyone's hearts.

The audience did not speak or communicate.

But in their hearts, they had already given this movie the most beautiful score!

Chapter 494: Premiere Box Office, Shocking the World!

The first day of the movie's screening quickly ended.

"Dying to Survive" and "Wandering Earth" did not receive much substantial publicity, but many people came to watch the movie.

The appeal of celebrities posting on Weibo was still very strong. The Internet was so developed today, but many people still knew that Lin Fan's two movies were released at the same time.

After the first day of screening, the movie theaters were also tabulating the box office earnings.

Only after the statistics were calculated could the cinema know what the box office would be on the day of the premiere of the two movies.

These complicated statistics could be completed by the computer.

As the person in charge, Li Zhengyi was still guarding the company in the middle of the night. "Are the box office statistics out yet?"

Li Zhengyi really wanted to see what kind of results Lin Fan's two movies had achieved in the country.

One of them was a movie starring Lin Fan.

The other was a movie directed by Lin Fan.

It could be said that both movies could not do without Lin Fan.

Without Lin Fan to write scripts, find photographers, actors, directors, dressmakers, makeup artists, special effects artists, and so on, it would be impossible to film "Wandering Earth".

"CEO Li, it's still being calculated, but the first-day box office earnings of a few movies are out," a girl said.

"Let me see. This Kung Fu Panda earned 6 million yuan on its first day at the box office. It's not bad."

“This Planetary Project’s first-day box office is 800,000 yuan. It’s too lousy. It’s probably a lousy movie.”

“This Cute Puppy has an ordinary name. Eh? The first day’s box office earnings are actually ten million. Not bad, it’s beyond expectations.”

Li Zhengyi looked down one by one. Sometimes, he frowned and shook his head. Sometimes, his eyes lit up.

He had no choice. Most domestic movies were like this.

What had once created history was Lin Fan’s movie ‘Kung Fu Hustle’.

It was very difficult to expect other entertainment companies to film better movies.

In China, foreign movies were more popular. There was no other way.

The Best Actor Award had nothing to do with domestic actors.

Of course, Li Zhengyi was most concerned about the two movies Lin Fan directed.

Li Zhengyi was also very nervous.

No company could guarantee that a movie would become popular.

When the audience watched movies, they would always watch the quality.

Sometimes, even if the quality was good, the box office might not be high.

Other than quality, he also had to learn how to capture the attention of the audience.

For example, every one of Van Gogh’s works was extremely expensive now.

And in that era, he could not be recognized by others.

Therefore, Li Zhengyi was very worried.

What if these two movies failed?

The box office sales could best reflect the audience’s satisfaction with a movie.

Especially on the first day, the box office sales of a movie premiere would be displayed.

If the box office sales on the first day were high, the future of this movie would be very good.

If the box office sales on the first day were very low... then this movie would most likely be a flop.

The first day was also a critical day.

Li Zhengyi waited for the final statistics with excitement and nervousness.

“CEO Li, the box office statistics for ‘Dying to Survive’ are out!” a girl shouted in surprise.

“How much?” Li Zhengyi immediately ran over and saw the number on the computer.

324,131,573 yuan!

When Li Zhengyi saw so many digits, his eyes widened.

This, this, this...

This house... was too terrifying.

It was just the first day of the premiere, how could there be so many digits?

Even Lin Fan’s movie ‘Kung Fu Hustle’, which had previously set the highest box office record in the country, had never achieved such results.

This was too exaggerated.

“10, 10, 100, 100, 100, 100, 1 million, 10 million... 100 million!” Li Zhengyi counted the numbers one by one and finally confirmed it.

Li Zhengyi could not believe it and counted again.

“Oh my god, the premiere box office earnings... 324.13 million!”

“To put it simply, the box office earnings for the premiere of ‘Dying to Survive’ are more than 320 million! F*ck, this is a box office earnings of 300 million. How is this possible? How is this possible?” Li Zhengyi was shocked.

He had been in the film industry for so many years and had only achieved such results when he was in Hollywood blockbusters. However, that was only when he saw it on the Internet.

As for meeting him in reality and obtaining such results on the first day, this was the first time Li Zhengyi had seen such a thing!

320 million yuan!

This time... it could be said to have broken all records in history!

Li Zhengyi was extremely surprised. How could there be such a magical person like Lin Fan in this world?

The previous 'Kung Fu Hustle' was just a preview.

At that time, the box office earnings of 'Kung Fu Hustle' were only over 30 million.

This time... it was tenfold!

320 million yuan at the box office was enough to crush everything!

"CEO Li, Lin Fan is too awesome... His movie created such results. Amazing, really amazing!" The girl had already screamed.

Not only that, all the staff in the cinema were stunned when they saw the box office results.

320 million. This number represented the peak of the domestic movie premiere box office!

No one could surpass him!

No movie could surpass such results!

Everyone felt that... Lin Fan was too amazing!

The person in question, Lin Fan, hadn't even said a word to promote the two movies!

Lin Fan didn't even post on Weibo, although he had forgotten to.

However, the results they obtained broadened everyone's horizons.

This was probably a legend!

"Did the data go wrong?" CEO Li asked with a trembling voice.

"CEO Li, the data is absolutely accurate. There's no mistake. This is already the sixth time we've verified it. We've even confirmed the box office earnings to single-digit accuracy," the girl said excitedly.

As a theater practitioner, anyone would be excited to see such results.

In just one day, he had 320 million yuan.

Such a record was unprecedented!

Of course, although there was still a difference from top foreign blockbusters, this also represented a huge improvement!

“Awesome, Lin Fan, you’re really too awesome!”

“I’m convinced. I, Li Zhengyi, am really convinced today. Hahahahaha...”

“Come, announce this news. I want the entire Internet to be shocked by this news!”
CEO Li laughed.

He did not even pay attention to the box office earnings of the premiere of the Wandering Earth.

He was completely stunned by the box office sales of the premiere of “Dying to Survive”.

The second movie that Lin Fan personally directed had such results.

Such results were enough to shock the entertainment industry, even the entire country, and the entire world!

Chapter 495: F*ck, This Is A Miracle!

Just as Li Zhengyi was dancing excitedly and preparing to announce such results online, screams sounded again.

This scream was even more exciting than before.

Li Zhengyi frowned.

Everyone had already been excited just now. Was there a need to be so excited now?

There was a limit to excitement. Although Lin Fan had indeed created a very amazing result, there was no need for everyone’s reflexes to be so exaggerated, right?

It was like the news of the successful 2020 Olympics...

How many years had passed? Why was she still cheering? Everyone would only think that she was a fool.

CEO Li was in this mood.

Furthermore, as a staff member, there was no need to live like this on such an occasion.

Li Zhengyi frowned and turned to look at the screaming crowd. "What a fuss. You've already screamed just now. Why are you still screaming now? Calm down and quickly announce this news. In the future, you have to be calmer. At least as calm as me."

The girl who had cheered just now looked at CEO Li and stuttered, "Ah ah ah, CEO Li, you... you... come over and take a look..."

When Li Zhengyi saw the girl like this, he frowned even more. "It's not like I didn't see it. The box office sales of 'Dying to Survive' are indeed very high. You don't have to stammer and scream like that, right?"

The girl was very anxious and wanted to say everything, but the more she wanted to say, the more she couldn't. "CEO Li, you... come and see..."

Li Zhengyi shook his head. "Alright, what's there to see? I remembered the number. It's more than 320 million..."

However, seeing how anxious the girl was, Li Zhengyi still walked to the computer with his hands behind his back.

He was still thinking that these people were too strange.

He had long seen what these people were called.

It seemed like these employees were still far from him.

As a leader, he had to be so calm.

Li Zhengyi silently saw the numbers on the computer.

There were only four big words and a string of numbers below.

"Wandering Earth" premiere box office earnings: 432,214,523.

These numbers had already been marked red.

There were even eye-catching photos below...

The box office earnings of the premiere of Wandering Earth exceeded 430 million!

It was 110 million higher than the box office earnings of "Dying to Survive"!

Li Zhengyi looked at it seriously, turned around, and closed his eyes.

It was fake. It had to be fake.

He must be dreaming.

This was impossible, absolutely impossible!

All of this must be a dream!

As long as he opened his eyes, he could return to reality.

Li Zhengyi turned around and opened his eyes again.

The number... still did not change.

The screen showed the same words as before.

“Wandering Earth” premiere box office earnings: 432,214,523.

Then... Li Zhengyi screamed too!

He didn't want to...

However, with such results, anyone who came here would cry out.

“Ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah!!!!”

Li Zhengyi also joined the screaming crowd.

What composure? What calmness? They were all gone.

What was a miracle...

This was a f*cking miracle!

After Li Zhengyi saw the box office sales of “Dying to Survive”, he had subconsciously forgotten that Lin Fan had directed two movies.

When Li Zhengyi saw the words “Wandering Earth”, he remembered that Lin Fan had directed a movie.

Yes, “Wandering Earth” was also a movie directed by Lin Fan.

“D*mn, d*mn, d*mn, d*mn. This, this... on the day of the premiere of ‘Wandering Earth’, there were actually 430 million yuan. Is this possible? How many movies have never achieved such results in their entire lives?”

“Lin Fan, you’re a god!”

“This is the first time I’ve seen such a monster. F*ck, 430 million. Who can withstand that?” Li Zhengyi felt like worshipping Lin Fan.

This was not a movie becoming popular, but two movies becoming popular at the same time!

The results created by “Dying to Survive” were already unprecedented.

And the results created by “Wandering Earth” were simply shocking and terrifying!

Such terrifying results could not be described with words. They should be described as super invincible and terrifying!

Although there was no difference, Li Zhengyi could not think of any other words.

However, he was not cultured enough and only had one word in his mind.

Seeing such results, who could remain calm?

320 million.

430 million.

In total, it was more than 770 million.

This was only the first day!

Their results on the first day had reached such a scale.

Didn’t that mean that the box office earnings of the two movies, “Dying to Survive” and “Wandering Earth”, could exceed billions?!

After the cheers, Li Zhengyi smiled excitedly.

“Immediately, immediately, announce the news to the public!”

“We’ll send the news to the Yangzhou Film Administration first, then to Jiaxing Entertainment. Then, we’ll distribute it to the entire Internet!”

“Also, Twitter. Announce it to me on Twitter too. Let those foreigners see it. Let the people in the country see what a domestic movie is and what awesome is!”

“If a movie can produce billions in box office overseas, our country can do the same!”

“Remember, when promoting, place Lin Fan’s name first. This is a movie directed by Lin Fan. Only Lin Fan can create such results!”

“Also, stay up all night tonight. It’s my treat. Let’s have a feast!”

Li Zhengyi patted his chest. He felt great.

With such results, Li Zhengyi would definitely get a salary raise.

Furthermore, this represented the improvement of an era!

The top entertainment company in the country, Jiaxing Entertainment!

The top director in the country, the top screenwriter, Lin Fan!

Such results were enough to shock this era!

Soon, the box office sales of the two movies were announced.

The first to receive the news was the Yangzhou Film Administration.

When Lin Weiwei received this news, her eyes were filled with disbelief.

She immediately contacted Chief Jiang Kun.

“Chief, the results of the two movies are out,” Lin Weiwei said on the phone.

“How much?” Chief Jiang, who was still resting, was immediately not sleepy. He knew that Lin Weiwei would only contact him when something big happened.

“It’s fine. It’s normal to fail. Comfort Lin Fan...” Chief Jiang had just opened his mouth.

After all, it was common for movies to fail.

Just like how authors wrote novels, who hadn’t read a few novels before?

Lin Weiwei quickly said, “Chief, it’s been confirmed. The premiere box office of ‘Dying to Survive’ was more than 320 million yuan, and the premiere box office of ‘Wandering Earth’ was more than 430 million yuan.”

Jiang Kun was indeed the leader of Yangzhou’s film bureau. He was different from Li Zhengyi.

He was calmer.

“Are you sure?” Jiang Kun asked.

"I'm sure." Lin Fan nodded slightly. He was already cheering for Lin Fan in his heart.

"Honey, get up," Jiang Kun said and hung up.

"What are you doing so late at night?" Jiang Kun's wife asked.

"Get up. I'm not sleeping tonight. I'm going to watch a movie!"

"Lin Fan's two movies... have simply created a miracle. If we don't snatch the movie tickets now, I'm afraid we won't be able to," Jiang Kun said.

Jiang Kun was not an ordinary person, and he believed in Lin Weiwei's news.

All he knew was...

The era of domestic movies was about to change!
