Chapter 1561: Zhang Tie's Choice

It was hard to say when a divine dominator who had lost his battle strength fought two bizarre boas who could match heavenly knights. During the fight, if anyone else screwed him, it was not impossible for him to fall.

Even though the two heavenly knights who came over here with such great trouble didn't fully target at Zhang Tie, as long as over 10,000 ordinary knights on Zhang Tie's side were involved in such a fight, they would suffer a great loss for sure. Those knights of top sects could form tacit and coordinated battle formations which could never be matched by those ordinary knights who were not backed by top sects. If the two boas rushed into their camp, knights of top sects might escape easily; however, the reminders might be in a miserable situation. Similarly, when some ordinary people were chased by two tigers; they didn't need to run faster than tigers; instead, they only needed to run faster than their partners.

That might be how Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon thought about. As long as the two people didn't face the two boas alone, they thought the situation facing them would be better more or less even though many people were killed. It would be better if they could have Zhang Tie killed by the two boas in the chaos.

Zhang Tie didn't regard himself as a very noble person. However, he still had bottom lines in many aspects. Although being erotic, he didn't force women to make love with him. He would never bully the weak. Although he loved money, he didn't take dirty money. Although he was not broad-minded, he was never narrow-minded. Although he was concerned about his family, he didn't mean to hurt anyone for his family. In many cases, he would think carefully before saving people like how he did at Weishui River. He would never rush forward at the cost of his life.

Take this moment as an instance, Zhang Tie was not great enough to sacrifice himself for these strange people. However, at least Zhang Tie would give them a favor within his ability in case of more casualties. Neither would Zhang Tie sacrifice these people for himself. No matter what, these people were all human knights, the elites among humans and the source of the confidence of humans against demons. They were here just for treasure, despite a few of them were very vicious and cunning.

However, in the eyes of Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon, these human knights of Taixia Country even Zhang Tie could die at any time; they would instantly do it if they could kill Zhang Tie here.

As powers, they were arrogant, grim and self-important.

Watching Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon flying towards him, a killing intent rose in Zhang Tie's heart.

Only after a short while, Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon had already arrived there and converged with the knights of their own sects, closely followed by the two boas.

Many knights on Zhang Tie's side started to exclaim when the two boas approached them.

"Boas, the boas are coming..."

“Quick, run...”

Facing the two boas, the knights who had just formed battle formations hurriedly evaded. As a result, the battle formations constantly collapsed. Besides heavenly knights, who dared challenge the two terrifying boas.

Watching the two boas approaching them, which would cause great casualties right away, Bai Suxian couldn't stand asking Zhang Tie, “What should we do?”

After throwing out another spear and shattering a puppet fighter in the distance, Zhang Tie immediately made his decision.

“Do you believe in me?” Zhang Tie asked.

Bai Suxian nodded forcefully.

Pulling her hand, Zhang Tie directly rushed towards the two boas.

Watching Zhang Tie and Bai Suxian flying out of the great battle formation towards the two boas, everybody was stunned as they wondered what Zhang Tie was about to do.

Facing the two destructive boas which could match heavenly knights, Bai Suxian constantly injected spiritual energy into Zhang Tie's body as she forcefully held his hand without any panic. no17e(lb.1n

In this case, Bai Suxian completely handed her life to Zhang Tie without demur.

Zhang Tie then stopped on an eye-catching location. Watching the two destructive boas, he opened his mouth using his spiritual energy as his words spread across the entire space with rumbles.

“Forebears of Great Wilderness Sect, please receive my bow!” Zhang Tie said as he bowed towards the void.

After hearing Zhang Tie's words, all the knights who were fighting puppet beasts and were preparing to fight the two boas were transfixed.

——What is Immortal Qianji doing? Is he making a performance or having a dream? Is there anyone alive of Great Wilderness Sect? Perhaps, he mistook the two boas as the forebears of Great Wilderness Sect? That's too ridiculous!

The same thought flashed by many people's mind as they saw Zhang Tie bowing towards the void.

However, Zhang Tie just looked around with brilliant eyes as if he had not seen the two destructive boas. Chesting out, he said loudly, “Most of the knights are only for the treasures and secret books of Great Wilderness Sect, we never mean to offend Great Wilderness Sect. Because Great Wilderness Sect was thought to have been exterminated many years ago, we don't believe that there's any alive disciple of this sect; therefore, many knights think the items here have no owner. As it's in the holy war, demons are killing living beings outside, forebear, please forgive us and don't kill us; please leave some aura for Taixia Country and humans!”

After Zhang Tie finished his words, the two destructive boas had already approached him as they widely opened their bloody mouths, changing the faces of Bai Runshan and Immortal Deyang immediately as they exclaimed in unison, "Watch out..."

Clenching Zhang Tie's hand, Bai Suxian's palm had been sweaty. Facing the hollow destructive mouths, Bai Suxian was so scared that she directly closed her eyes. However, Zhang Tie still watched the two boas calmly without a blink. He didn't even mean to dodge. In a split second, the two boas had come to Zhang Tie's front as their piercing destructive qis almost touched Zhang Tie and Bai Suxian...

Chapter 1562: The Sage-level Knight of Great Wilderness Sect

Watching the two destructive boas approaching them with huge, grim mouths, not only Bai Suxian, even those people in the distance oozed sweat for Zhang Tie.

However, Zhang Tie just watched the two destructive boas calmly with a faint smile while remaining still.

When the two destructive boas were a few meters away from Zhang Tie, their mouths suddenly closed as they rushed over Zhang Tie and Bai Suxian by the corners of their garments, causing Bai Suxian's longuette to fly in the air.

After rushing over Zhang Tie and Bai Suxian, the two destructive boas turned around and flew back; instead of attacking Zhang Tie again, they started to circle around Zhang Tie.

At the same time, thousands of puppet beasts who were fighting those human knights also stopped their attack; instead, they just circled around those human knights, leaving the space, which was filled with a myriad of battle qis, calm in a split second.

Everybody became stunned.

"Alas..." a distant sigh suddenly appeared on the second floor of Dongtian, which, although being not loud, was very clear in each human knight's ears. Ordinary knights were confused while those heavenly knights at present changed their face greatly. As heavenly knights, they could directly sense the strength carried by this sigh.

In this sigh, a figure as fantastic as one under painters' brush and as visional as one in dream gradually showed up near the dome above their heads.

Given the stranger's look, he was almost at his 30's or 40's; however, his hair had turned fully white. Additionally, he smelt pretty old. He was looking downwards at all the human knights at present without any mercy in eyes; instead, only cold flames were jumping in his eyes. As for Zhang Tie, his qi was pretty strong, which was at least much stronger than that of King Abyss and Zuoqiu Mingyue. The moment he appeared, his qi had filled the entire space which was as brilliant and forbidding as a hot sun in the dark.

Undoubtedly, this person was a powerful sage-level knight.

The moment he showed up, the two destructive boas who fought heavenly knights just now had flown towards him. Only by moving one step, he had disappeared from where he stood and came to the head of the golden boa as if space didn't exist for him at all. Circling around by the silver boa, he was like a deity descending there while his strong qi field made the entire space quiet. Everyone in the space including Zhang Tie fixated onto the stranger.

"I've not imagined that someone among you could still discover me and call me forebear even after the Great Wilderness Sect had been exterminated for so many years!" Standing on the head of the golden boa, the stranger threw a glance at Zhang Tie. The moment Zhang Tie looked straight into his eyes, Zhang Tie had felt the All-spirits Tower in his mind jumping suddenly. With a humming sound in his mind sea, Zhang Tie felt his head numb while the body of the All-spirits Tower below 16 floors was giving out light and many great wilderness seals were rotating rapidly in the tower.

'F*ck!'

Zhang Tie swore inside as he immediately realized that it was a resonance brought by the same secret method. The sudden change of Zhang Tie's All-spirits Tower reminded Zhang Tie that the secret that he was cultivating Great Wilderness Sutra had known by that person. Additionally, that person must have reached several levels higher than Zhang Tie on Great Wilderness Sutra

. He might have already reached above the 20th floor. Otherwise, Zhang Tie couldn't sense such great tension.

When Zhang Tie was concerned that the person would expose this secret to the public, that person shortly squinted his eyes before recovering to normal.

"As you've called me forebear, you and your company could leave here safely. I won't make you embarrassed..." that person told Zhang Tie as his voice reverberated around the space.

"Thanks, forebear!" Zhang Tie let out a sigh as he said, cupping his hands towards the stranger.

After hearing the stranger's promise, Bai Suxian on Zhang Tie's side, Immortal Deyang in the distance and Bai Runshan let out a sigh immediately. Although they didn't know how Zhang Tie discovered this sage-level knight, it was absolutely a good piece of news that they didn't have to fight an unpredictable sage-level knight in such a perilous environment.

After Zhang Tie's group received the good news, someone else had to face their nightmare.

"As for you..." that person threw a glance at those knights of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion as he pointed at Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon, adding, "have to die..."

After hearing his words, Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon changed their faces at once while all the knights nearby the groups of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion escaped away like avoiding from sheer terror in fear of being involved. In a split second, the two groups of knights of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion were isolated as they stood alone in the air.

"Who are you? How dare you be so presumptuous in front of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion? Is everything here your trap?" Celestial Swords asked loudly. With the background of Taiyi Fantasy Sect, Celestial Swords was not afraid of even a sage-level knight at this moment, "The two bizarre boas have already killed many disciples of our sects, you have to give us an explanation!"

"Explanation?" that person burst into sheer, miserable and grim laughs after throwing a glance at Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon, replying, "If I have to give you an explanation after killing some of your disciples, why didn't you give us an explanation when you joined hands to exterminate Great Wilderness Sect by killing numerous elders and disciples of us, causing their blood flow into river?"

"What are you talking about? Don't frame us!" Celestial Clouddragon urged loudly.

"I'm framing you?" that person watched Celestial Clouddragon as he continued, "That night, you two were just shadow knights in black clothes and masks. Although I couldn't recognize your look, I bear in mind the features of your battle qi. The moment you launched a strike, I've already recognized you..." that person said as he suddenly revealed an extremely icy smile, "I know that you want the Great Wilderness Sutra ; however, you might have not realized that I especially prepared this trap for you. Over these years, I knew as long as there was any news about Great Wilderness Sutra, those who exterminated Great Wilderness Sect and didn't get Great Wilderness Sutra must rush over there. Now, look, you've all been here. Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Sect; very good, very good..."

After hearing his words, all the knights around became astir and ablaze. The case of the extermination of Great Wilderness Sect shocked the entire country of Taixia Country then and had become one of the largest pending criminal cases in Taixia Country over the past 100 years. None of the knights here could imagine that this pending criminal case could be completely exposed to the public today.

"Great Wilderness Sect has already perished for dozens of years. At that time, all the members of Great Wilderness Sect had been killed. Why do you disguise as a reminder of Great Wilderness Sect to frame Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion?" Celestial Swords refuted as he didn't admit any relevance between Great Wilderness Sect and Taiyi Fantasy Sect.

"On the evening when Great Wilderness Sect was exterminated, I had just mastered the incarnation skill and was cultivating in a hidden place as a lark. I was fully immersed in it. Therefore, I forgot to attend the conference. When you were executing a holocaust, I could only watch aside helplessly. It's too late for you to make any explanation today..." that person said as he jeered at Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon, "Are you contacting the sage-level knights in your sects and urging them to come here as fast as possible? It's useless even if they could arrive here in a short period. This Dongtian of Great Wilderness Sect was a far-ancient treasure whose portals could be barely broken from outside once being closed. I will take some interests today, using your lives to console the spirits of the later members of Great Wilderness Sect..."

After finishing his words, that person immediately charged at Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon.

When that person charged at them, a green light beam extended behind him. After rushing into the sky, the light beam extended over 60 miles in the sky like a heavenly curtain. Closely after that, it fell off like a huge pot upside down. In the blink of an eye, it had fully covered Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon.

"Sage-level knight realm..." Immortal Deyang who had already come to Zhang Tie's side exclaimed while the other onlooking knights were scared so much that they all escaped away as far as possible like ducks being driven away.

Celestial Treasureflame and Celestial Woodbuilding had already come to Zhang Tie's side as they found all the knights of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion were covered by that realm.

"What should we do now?" Celestial Woodbuilding asked Zhang Tie and Celestial Treasureflame secretly, "We're not sure whether that person is our friend or not. Would he be..."

Zhang Tie knew what Celestial Woodbuilding was about to say. Therefore, he interrupted him.

"Celestial, have you seen the two flying boas outside the realm? Even if you two rush over there, which do you want, having a fight with the two snakes or being involved yourselves in that sage-level knight's realm..." Zhang Tie let out a sigh as he shook his head, "This is the vendetta between Great Wilderness Sect and them. Do you want to be involved..."

Celestial Treasureflame and Celestial Woodbuilding remained silent.

Watching Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon being covered in the realm, although it was not right for him to delight in the misfortunes of them, Zhang Tie still wanted to guffaw. This time, if that person didn't mean to fight them, Zhang Tie wouldn't let them survive here either. The current situation was the best for Zhang Tie...

As the old Hua saying went, anyone entering the secular world had to pay it back sooner or later.

The others might not know what was happening in the realm; however, Zhang Tie squinted his eyes with looming lotus flowers inside, reflecting everything in the realm onto his eyes.

Being in the Dongtian of Great Wilderness Sect, the realm of the sage-level knight was full of green mountains. All the knights of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion were surrounded by the magnificent mountains. Unknowingly, all the people inside the realm appeared to have lost their flight ability including the two heavenly knights while various fierce beasts were pouring towards them. In a split second, all the knights below two heavenly knights of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion had been surrounded while the realm was full of flying blood and flesh.

Only after a short while, Zhang Tie had seen Celestial Clouddragon's virtual image clouddragon struggling to fly off. However, before it flew off, the dragon in the cloud had been seized by a 1,000 m high giant ape before being torn into pieces.

As the virtual image collapsed, Celestial Clouddragon had already broken one hand as he was spurting blood all over. Before he shrieked miserably, he had been stomped onto the ground by the giant ape. With an earthquake, Celestial Clouddragon's fat body directly exploded into a blood mist and flesh like a balloon being popped...

'Motherf*cker; that's too violent and bloody!'

The massacre in the realm of the sage-level knight was too shocking that even heavenly knights were like clay chickens and pottery dogs. Being utterly different than the Han Zhengfang's fight in the semi-sage realm of Meng Shidao that Zhang Tie saw in Xuanyuan Hill, this fight was totally one-sided. As a result, Zhang Tie couldn't help swallowing his saliva forcefully.

"Why are you here?"

Hearing Bai Suxian's hostile cold harrumph, Zhang Tie saw Fang Xinyi flying over here with a miserably pale look.

"You owe me. I met you in Xuanyuan Hill when the turmoil broke out. I'm sure that Han Zhengfang and his two sons were killed by you. Don't deny it. I didn't mention it to anyone else, even my master. Therefore, you have to take me away today..." Fang Xinyi directly told Zhang Tie, neglecting Bai Suixian.

'What a motherf*cking debt!'

'But this woman is really something.'

Zhang Tie watched Fang Xinyi calmly.

"I'm Lord Guangnan's woman. If I died here or was humiliated, would Lord Guangnan's Mansion feel glorious?" Fang Xinyi opened her mouth as she told Bai Runshan and Bai Suxian, which forced Bai Suxian, who was going to say something, to close her mouth. As a result, Bai Suxian could only throw a glare at Fang Xinyi; Bai Runshan threw a glance at Zhang Tie as if he didn't want Fang Xinyi to die here either.

The current situation here was too perilous. If Fang Xinyi mingled with the other members of Qionglou Pavilion, it was hard to say whether she could leave out of here alive.

"From now on, don't talk or move on my side. If you dare stir up trouble for me, I don't care who's your husband as this father will rape before killing you..." Zhang Tie threw a glare at Fang Xinyi as he warned her.

Fang Xinyi nodded as she stood still not far away from Zhang Tie quietly.

Zhang Tie then fixated onto the realm of the sage-level knight again.

Only after such a short while, there were less than 5 people alive in the sage-level knight's realm...

"I don't care whether you believe me or not, but Lord Guangnan has never slept with me at all. I'm just executing my task on his side..." Fang Xinyi's voice entered Zhang Tie's ears, causing Zhang Tie's heart to race. Zhang Tie then turned around and threw a glance at her. Fang Xinyi also looked straight in his eyes. Closely after that, they moved their eyes away at the same time...

'What does she mean?'

Chapter 1563: Karma

Only after a few minutes, when the green light curtain dispersed in front of them, Celestial Clouddragon the deputy head of Heavens Holding Pavilion, Celestial Swords the deputy head of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and hundreds of knights who followed them here including some shadow knights had perished...

In this case, everybody else had long forgotten about exploring for treasures; instead, they were just thinking about how to survive themselves.

Everyone knew that they had got big trouble this time. Over hundreds of years, top sects like Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion had never suffered such a great loss. When Alchemist Devil Zhaoyuan who was renowned in the world swept over Mojiang City in Songzhou Province, Taiyi Fantasy Sect only lost one heavenly knight-level deputy head while Heavens Holding Pavilion only lost one junior head and five more ordinary knights.

By contrast, this time, excluding the late Celestial Reflectingmoons of Qionglou Pavilion, Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion lost over 100 knights respectively, including heavenly knights, shadow knights, earth knights and black iron knights. Despite being members of top six sects, Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion still suffered a great loss this time. From then on, the two top sects would never stop until they killed that culprit.

Zhang Tie had just witnessed the entire process of the extermination of the bands of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion. After the death of Celestial Clouddragon, Celestial Swords was almost dismembered by that giant ape by holding his limbs. Watching this scene, Zhang Tie could only let out a sigh inside.

That was how karma went. No matter how Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon refuted, Zhang Tie knew that the two people deserved their death. They had never imagined that someone could survive that extermination facing Great Wilderness Sect and promote to a sage-level knight. The discovery of this Dongtian of Great Wilderness Sect was totally a trap preset by him.

The power of the two bands was definitely great if they could join the battle at Weishui River as they could save a lot of people there. They could even enjoy a great honor after death. By contrast, they were all dead here silently like stray dogs with neither dignity nor benefit. Besides being used as the materials for people's topics, they were totally valueless. What a pity!

After killing so many people of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion in his sage-level knight's realm, that person stood in the air still, looking up at the depth of the dome as if he was recalling something or thinking about something. He looked lonely and experienced while the two destructive snakes were circling around him.

Almost all the people alive in the Dongtian were holding their breath as they widely opened their eyes, heart racing and feeling thirsty.

Right then, a voice appeared in Zhang Tie's mind sea through his All-spirits Tower.

"Where did you learn Great Wilderness Sutra from?"

It was the voice of that sage-level knight of Great Wilderness Sect.

This was a secret technique for people who cultivated Great Wilderness Sutra to pass the message. Through this method, people who had formed All-spirits Tower in their mind sea could communicate with each other within a certain distance. It was more secret and safer than transmitting voice through battle qi. Since Zhang Tie started to cultivate Great Wilderness Sutra, it was Zhang Tie's first time to sense this secret technique. Previously, it was impossible for Zhang Tie to communicate with people using this secret technique even if he wanted to.

"Previously, I was hunted by people in Ice and Snow Wilderness in the north of Waii Subcontinent and entered a deep valley. Fortunately, I got Great Wilderness Sutra in that deep valley. I even saw the skeleton of forebear Cloudcrane and his letter..." Zhang Tie answered honestly as he passed the message through All-spirits Tower.

"Cloudcrane...Cloudcrane didn't die either?"

That person exclaimed out of a bit excitement as his voice entered Zhang Tie's mind sea.

"Yes, Forebear Cloudcrane didn't die at that time. He just escaped to the wilderness with Great Wilderness Sutra. He found a den of mutated rats in that valley and wanted to cultivate them so that they could be used to restore Great Wilderness Sect. Pitifully, he failed until death!"

"Who else have you imparted the Great Wilderness Sutra to besides you?"

"Nobody else. In his letter, Cloudcrane mentioned the event of the extermination of Great Wilderness Sect; he also told me to not leak the Great Wilderness Sutra unless necessary; otherwise, it would bring me great unknown troubles. Therefore, I didn't impart Great Wilderness Sutra to anyone else these years. Even those on my side don't know that I'm cultivating it..."

"Have you thought about restoring Great Wilderness Sect?"

"I did before. However, as you have killed the deputy heads and so many knights of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion, you've already offended them. Unless that you could clean up the top sects of Taixia Country, it's no different than further offending them and seeking for death if anyone wants to restore Great Wilderness Sect at this moment. I still want to live a few more years. Therefore, I've abstained the thought of restoring Great Wilderness Sect. Additionally, I'm already the head of Iron-Dragon Sect in Youzhou Province. There're a lot of affairs to be solved by me across Iron-Dragon Sect. I can't restore Great Wilderness Sect alone..."

Zhang Tie put it frankly.

"It's reasonable for you to think so. However, I'm afraid that some things don't depend on you!"

"What do you mean, forebear?"

"As you cultivate Great Wilderness Sutra, you should belong to Great Wilderness Sect. As only you and I in this world have mastered Great Wilderness Sutra, according to the rule of Great Wilderness Sect, the one who had Great Wilderness Sutra have to shoulder the responsibility for the rejuvenation of Great Wilderness Sect. As you're already the head of Great Wilderness Sect, don't you dare think about not restoring Great Wilderness Sect!"

After hearing the words, Zhang Tie swore inside frenziedly.

"If so, could I give Great Wilderness Sutra back to you? I don't want it!"

"Yes, you could; but if I become the head of Great Wilderness Sect, as you've cultivated Great Wilderness Sutra and are already a knight, you should be the elder of Great Wilderness Sect and follow my order!"

'What the f*ck!' Zhang Tie goggled. Although he sighed about the karma facing Celestial Swords and Celestial Clouddragon, now he got his own...

Those in the secular world should pay it back sooner or later...

Chapter 1564: The New Head of Great Wilderness Sect

Zhang Tie felt like being drawn into a pyramid selling organization as he could only bear his dissatisfaction...

"Forebear, you mean I'm already a member of Great Wilderness Sect whatever!"

"Since you started to cultivate Great Wilderness Sutra, the relationship between you and Great Wilderness Sect had been fixed. Therefore, you only have two choices, to be the head of Great Wilderness Sect or be an elder of Great Wilderness Sect. No matter which title you choose, you have to contribute to the rejuvenation of Great Wilderness Sect..."

"What If I don't like it?"

That voice sounded like a pure threat, "If so, I will tell everyone at present that you've cultivated Great Wilderness Sutra, which is right with you!"

"If I wish to be the head of Great Wilderness Sect, will you be the elder of Great Wilderness Sect?"

"Yes, if you're the head of Great Wilderness Sect, of course, I will be the grand elder of Great Wilderness Sect!"

"Does it mean that you have to follow my order?"

"It is if you could prove that you're greater than me in battle strength!"

"If so, what's the significance of the title head of Great Wilderness Sect?"

"As the head of Great Wilderness Sect, you could determine everything about Great Wilderness Sect. You could decide the method and the time of restoration. Additionally, I could negotiate with you about anything concerning Great Wilderness Sect; but it depends on you!"

Zhang Tie understood that the opponent had determined to have him join Great Wilderness Sect; if Zhang Tie disagreed, the relationship between him and Great Wilderness Sect would be fixed too because this sage-level knight would expose this secret to the public. Therefore, Zhang Tie only had one choice, to shoulder the heavy responsibility of restoring Great Wilderness Sect voluntarily or to be forced to shoulder this heavy responsibility by that old b*stard. As for the prior choice, he still had the freedom to a certain degree; as for the latter choice, he would completely lose his freedom.

When Zhang Tie was thinking about it, that person's words made Zhang Tie's heart pound completely.

"If you could be the head of Great Wilderness Sect, I could hand all the resources in this Dongtian to you. As you've already formed All-spirits Tower, you should know that the pattern of this Dongtian is as same as that of All-spirits Tower. All-spirits Tower has 21 floors. By contrast, this Dongtian has 7 floors, which respectively represented the top 7 floors of All-spirits Tower. There're totally 28 towers of time in this Dongtian. The entire Dongtian was a top treasure that was created in Far-ancient times. It has a myriad of marvelous functions. Although I've not entered the Dongtian of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion and don't know the difference between ours and theirs, I'm sure that the Dongtian of Great Wilderness Sect could definitely match that of any existing top sect. Additionally, this Dongtian is definitely safer than any other Dongtian..."

"28 towers of time?"

Although Zhang Tie had long heard about the legends concerning towers of time of Great Wilderness Sect, Zhang Tie was still startled by the number of towers of time in it. 'Motherf*cking 28 towers of time! That's too crazy! I'm longing for towers of time so that all the people on my side could improve their battle strength as fast as possible. Here they are! 28! It's so considerate!'

By then, Zhang Tie started to doubt that he was destined to be involved with Great Wilderness Sect; he didn't believe that it was so accidental.

"Right! 1 tower of time on the first floor, 2 on the second floor, 3 on the third floor and so on. Everything in this Dongtian is under control. Even if this Dongtian was exposed, sage-level knights could barely break inside..."

'If I abandon such great resources, I would definitely be an idiot. Additionally, as I've long been intolerant about Imperial Alliance; if I didn't become the head of Great Wilderness Sect, I would turn hostile against them sooner or later. If I became the head of Great Wilderness Sect, besides various rich resources, I would also gain a lot of benefits at present. Why not?'

What was more, Zhang Tie was confident that the sage-level knight couldn't do harm to him. Even if he became the new head of Great Wilderness Sect, as long as he recovered his battle strength and promoted to a heavenly knight, he would probably surpass this sage-level knight in power. By then, everything of Great Wilderness Sect would be determined by Zhang Tie substantially. Nothing to worry about. By then, even if Zhang Tie told the people of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion that he had Great Wilderness Sutra, dared they grab it from him or frame him?

After having all situations in consideration, Zhang Tie made a decision right away, "Sure, I will be the head of Great Wilderness Sect. However, how do you plan to deal with the current situation? Don't you want to kill all of them! If so, you would offend too many forces. Later on, all the knights in the world would be the enemies of Great Wilderness Sect. By then, Great Wilderness Sect would really become mice crossing the streets like demons and Heavens Reaching Church and could barely realize its restoration..."

"As you're the head of Great Wilderness Sect, you could determine everything concerning our sect. What should we do now?"

As a light flashed by his mind, Zhang Tie instantly got an opinion.

"How about this? Let's make a performance here..." Zhang Tie expressed his thought—what should you do and what should I do, then...

"Great, that's the deal!" The moment Zhang Tie finished his words, that man had agreed before letting out a sigh, "If the former head of Great Wilderness Sect could be so smart, how could our sect deteriorate to such a miserable situation. It seems that you're the proper one to take the throne of Great Wilderness Sect..."

"Haha, thank you, forebear. Ohh, I should call you elder. May I know your name..."

"I am surnamed Xi, literally Yun Zhongzi. You could call me Elder Xi!"

As Zhang Tie and Elder Xi were communicating with each other through All-spirits Tower, the entire process was unknown to the public. Even though Celestial Treasureflame and Celestial Woodbuilding on Zhang Tie's side had not discovered any abnormality about Zhang Tie; nor did spiritual wave exist in the surroundings. Additionally, the entire process of communication was short. Being face-to-face communication between knight consciousnesses, it was one hundred times faster than that of verbal talk. They could actually exchange much information within one second. Therefore, the entire process only cost them 5-6 seconds despite rich and decisive contents.

The others in the Dongtian might not imagine that Zhang Tie had already become the new head of Great Wilderness Sect after the sage-level knight of Great Wilderness Sect killed Celestial Clouddragon the deputy head of Heavens Holding Pavilion and Celestial Swords the deputy head of Taiyi Fantasy Sect for a few seconds.

Chapter 1565: A Super Wonderful Performance

During this short period, everybody in the Dongtian was still immersed in the shock caused by the death of two heavenly knights as they dared not even breathe smoothly. However, as Yun Zhongzi opened his mouth, the entire space froze like having been blown by a cold wind.

After hiding his experienced and lonely look, Yun Zhongzi looked around at those knights who had escaped far away, saying, "Only two kinds of people could enter the Dongtian of Great Wilderness Sect; first, disciples of Great Wilderness Sect; second, dead. You've already seen how deads are. Therefore, you have 3 minutes to consider whether to join Great Wilderness Sect, serve Great Wilderness Sect and rejuvenate it together with me or die!"

Closely after Yun Zhongzi's words, the qi of the two destructive snakes circling around him instantly became precarious as they opened their huge grim mouths and stuck out their tongues. In the brilliant light, the boas expanded once again. At the same time, all the puppets which had just calmed down became restless and alive again as they flew around those human knights and were ready to attack them.

In this case, it was absolutely possible for one sage-level knight, two bizarre boas which could match heavenly knights and thousands of undying puppets to kill all the human knights here. As the bands of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion were exterminated as a whole, none of the rest doubted the decisiveness of this sage-level knight of Great Wilderness Sect to kill all of them; nor did they feel that their lives were more dignified than that of deputy heads of two of top six sects in the eyes of Yun Zhongzi.

As a result, those knights turned astir and ablaze at once due to shock. Actually, both choices meant dead ends for them. If they joined Great Wilderness Sect, it denoted that they were about to turn hostile against Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion. However, the power of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion were much greater than that. The total number of sage-level knights of the two sects was definitely greater than that of Great Wilderness Sect, not to mention others. If they joined Great Wilderness Sect, it was nothing different than to be killed by powerhouses of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion. However, if they didn't agree, they could barely pass it for the time being.

"Ahh, what should we do? What should we do..."

"Ahh, how about fighting him..."

"We can't defeat him. If we would like to have a duel with him, before he launched a strike towards us, the two boas and these puppets would have already killed us all..."

"Do you have to join Great Wilderness Sect?"

"But it's nothing different. It's just a matter of the location of death, here or outside..."

Many knights had lost their mind at such a critical moment.

At this moment, Celestial Treasureflame and Celestial Woodbuilding had both released their battle qis in case of being attacked by Yun Zhongzi.

"Forebear, you said you would not make me and my partners embarrassed and could have us leave here safe and sound, are you serious?"

Zhang Tie's sound started to reverberate around the space when everybody's heart raced.

Disguising to be unpleasant, Yun Zhongzi watched Zhang Tie with a frown, "Of course, gentlemen never go back on their words!"

"That's good. I've got too many partners with me. This is my wife the princess of Lord Guangnan's Mansion; this is my second uncle; this is Immortal Deyang from Heavens Fortune Sect. They're all my partners!" Zhang Tie said as he pointed at those people on his side.

"No problem, all of them could leave!" Yun Zhongzi spoke frankly.

"Thanks, forbear!" Zhang Tie made a deep bow towards Yun Zhongzi as he triggered his trivial disguising talent again. It was so vivid that nobody else could identify that he was making a performance with Yun Zhongzi, "I've got some more. This is Celestial Treasureflame of Demons-kill Valley. I've long appointed with the little princess of Demons-kill Valley to marry her one day. Therefore, Demons-kill Valley is also my relative. Additionally, we've already coordinated with each other before coming down. Therefore, disciples of Demons-kill Valley are also my partners!"

The moment Zhang Tie opened his mouth, all the disciples of Demons-kill Valley including Celestial Treasureflame looked at Zhang Tie with appreciative eyes. None of the disciples of Demons-kill Valley were afraid of death as they all stuck to the principle of seeking for truth through killing. Even so, given the sharp contrast in power between the two forces, it was nothing different than seeking for death if they just rushed forward. Of course, disciples of Demons-kill Valley and Celestial Treasureflame were rational as they didn't want to die here out of no reason. After hearing that Zhang Tie treated them as their partners, they all held that Zhang Tie was righteous. It was really useful for Demons-kill Valley to get along well with Zhang Tie these years.

After looking around Celestial Treasureflame and the disciples of Demons-kill Valley, Yun Zhongzi nodded, "Hmm, now that they're your partners, they could leave too. I won't make them embarrassed!"

Zhang Tie threw a glance at Celestial Woodbuilding as he found the latter was looking at him appreciatively as if the latter had too many words to say.

After Celestial Treasureflame left, there was only one heavenly knight Celestial Woodbuilding of Jiang Clan among the explorers, who would be more lonely and could never defeat Yun Zhongzi. Therefore, Celestial Woodbuilding's mood could be imagined. Compared to others, Celestial Woodbuilding actually had to face greater intentions. As the founder of Jiang Clan, once Celestial Woodbuilding fell, the entire Jiang Clan would deteriorate and lose its current position.

"This is Celestial Woodbuilding of Jiang Clan. Jiang Clan has already engaged one of my elder brother's kid. Just now, Celestial Woodbuilding was also fighting puppets with me just now. Forebear, you must have seen it. This celestial is also my partner. Hopefully, forbear could also promise the Jiang celestial to leave with me!"

Of course, Jiang Clan had not engaged with Zhang Yang's kid. However, Celestial Woodbuilding was clear about Zhang Tie's meaning. Closely after Zhang Tie's words, Celestial Woodbuilding had hurriedly nodded, "Yes, yes, yes, Jiang Clan and Jinwu Palace are already a family. We're partners; we're partners..."

Yun Zhongzi then fixated onto Celestial Woodbuilding and the other Jiang knights around Celestial Woodbuilding silently for a few seconds while icy flames were jumping in his eyes, causing great tension to them. It appeared that Yun Zhongzi had already seen through Zhang Tie's "trick". As Yun Zhongzi looked at them, the two destructive snakes appeared to have sensed his thought as they both turned around at them and intended to charge at them...

As Yun Zhongzi didn't express his attitude, Celestial Woodbuilding and those knights of Jiang Clan became so intense.

"Besides Jiang knights, who else are your partners..." Yun Zhongzi asked Zhang Tie with a bit discontentment.

Chapter 1566: Elder Sanguang

According to the agreement that Zhang Tie and the sage-level knight had agreed on, Zhang Tie was about to say no. Right then, a person suddenly flew out of over 10,000 knights towards Zhang Tie at his full effort as he exclaimed exhaustively, "Master, master, and me, and me Fang Sanguang. Don't you remember me..."

'What is he doing?'

The sudden appearance of this person caused Zhang Tie to forget to reply Yun Zhongzi; instead, Zhang Tie kept his eyes on that strange human knight who was flying towards him.

All the others beside Zhang Tie were shocked as they watched Zhang Tie and thought whether Immortal Qianji had arranged moles among those standalone so as to acquire the latters' intelligence in case of emergency. It was not a big deal.

Only after a short while, that person had already arrived in front of Zhang Tie.

He was a strange black iron knight whom Zhang Tie had not seen before. Only after throwing a curious look at that guy using his lotus-flower eyes, Zhang Tie had found that he was wearing a disguising mask, beneath which was also a strange look. Although his figure looked normal, in fact, his muscles and bones were abnormal when Zhang Tie looked at them seriously. Zhang Tie judged that this person might have applied a secret method similar to bones shrinking skill to himself.

This stranger didn't possess any perilous qi while his battle qi could also be neglected by Zhang Tie. 'Who's that guy?' Zhang Tie became puzzled.

"Who are you? I don't think I'm familiar with you." Zhang Tie asked as he stroked his jaw after throwing a glance at him.

"Head, you must have forgotten about it. I'm A'Guang..." Fan Sanguang grinned brilliantly as his passionate gesture and sweet words made Bai Suxian and Immortal Deyang quiver a bit. Zhang Tie felt goosebumps all over.

"But I don't know you. You must have mistaken the wrong person!"

"I've mistaken the wrong person? No, I would never make such a mistake..." Fan Sanguang became thrilled as he instantly burst into tears and sobbed, saying, "Aren't you the world-renowned Immortal Qianji and the head of Iron-Dragon Sect? Since head fought demons at Weishui River, you have always been my idol and lifetime beacon. I miss you day and night and couldn't wait to join your sect one day. Fortunately, when I was about to set for you, I was told that you have arrived at South Border. Therefore, I followed you all the way here. It's my lifetime dream to join Iron-Dragon Sect. As long as I could join Iron-Dragon Sect, I would be happy even guarding the mountain gate for you. To tell you the truth, after knowing what you had done at Weishui River, I had already treated myself as a member of Iron-Dragon Sect. I've long determined to serve and die for Iron-Dragon Sect..."

Fan Sanguang's words made Zhang Tie dumbfounded. Even Immortal Deyang and Bai Runshan had felt goosebumps all over. Watching Fang Sanguang's face being covered with tears and nasal mucus, Bai Suxian who had been holding Zhang Tie's hand was scared one step back in fear of being touched by Fan Sanguang's tears and nasal mucus.

All the others beside Zhang Tie had figured it out that this guy was absolutely a shameless guy who came here for a relative at the critical moment. His face was even thicker than the protective battle qi of heavenly knights.

Celestial Treasureflame frowned as he squinted at Fan Sanguang with a disgusted look as if he was looking at a puddle of mud or sh*t. Given his look, as long as Zhang Tie agreed, Celestial Treasureflame couldn't wait to kill this guy by palm at once.

Zhang Tie was also wondering how to deal with this guy as he remained silent...

Looking straight into Zhang Tie's eyes, Fan Sanguang directly unveiled his mask, revealing a swollen face like that of a pig. Meanwhile, his skeletons and muscles transformed with abnormal sound, completely revealing his original look. Fan Sanguang tried his best to look at Zhang Tie sincerely as he pointed at his swollen face, asking, "Head, do you remember me? It's not our first time to meet each other. A few days ago, we've already met each other on the way. At that time, you were with Princess Bai. You two flew over the sky like a celestial couple at a pretty high speed, scaring me off all the way from the sky to the earth. I had already recognized you at that time, from when I followed you all the way to the Centralpillar Mountain to express my love...oh, pah, pah, pah..." Fan Sanguang spat out saliva for consecutive three times as he corrected his words, "to express my sincerity. I've not imagined that I could finally get such a rare opportunity until now..."

Zhang Tie thought for a few seconds as he really remembered such a thing. When Bai Suxian and Zhang Tie flew towards Centralpillar Mountain, Zhang Tie indeed remembered that a guy appeared being scared so much by their great speed who then lost his balance and fell off. 'Could it be this guy...'

"Erm, you look much fatter..."

"Aah, head, you finally remember me; you finally remember me..." Fan Sanguang burst into tears once again. However, this time, his tears were caused by extreme pleasure. The fast change of his expression could even match a film star, making Zhang Tie who had awakened his disguising talent embarrassed. "After falling off the sky, I was bitten by a venomous animal. Therefore, I look swollen now. However, in order to follow you, head, and express my sincerity and admiration to you, I kept moving after you. Even at the risk of losing my life, I would still stick to your footstep which symbolizes brilliance, not to mention such a bit injury..."

Zhang Tie stood him quite a while. When Fan Sanguang spoke the last sentence, Zhang Tie finally couldn't stand him anymore as he felt this guy was definitely a top weirdo among knights.

Zhang Tie threw a deep glance at Fan Sanguang before asking, "Do you want to join Iron-Dragon Sect and be restricted to me?"

"Yes, I do; I do..." Fan Sanguang kept nodding his head like how a chick pecked rice as he appeared relieving a heavy burden, "I do even if I'm only requested to hack firewood and cook food for Iron-Dragon Sect every day..."

Zhang Tie nodded as he told Yun Zhongzi, "Besides Jiang knights and this...Elder Sanguang who has just joined Iron-Dragon Sect, I have no more partner here..."

The moment Zhang Tie finished his words, all the other knights had abruptly realized that it was too late for them to imitate Fan Sanguang...

Chapter 1567: Kind and Evil

"Now that you and your partners are all here, you could leave then. As for the rest, it has nothing to do with you..." Yun Zhongzi said distantly as he pointed at the petals of lotus flowers which hung downwards. The petals then gradually opened, revealing one of the former entrances while all the other stamen-like entrances were still closed. "You could leave from this tunnel. When you reach the first floor of Dongtian, you would see the exit open for you too. Quick, leave out of here and don't come back..."

After hearing Yun Zhongzi's words and watching the only exit, over 10,000 knights felt cold at once as they felt being dogs to be beaten with the door closed. If Immortal Qianji and the two Celestials of Demons-kill Valley and Jiang Clan were at present, the remaining ones might still have a bit confidence; however, after Zhang Tie, representatives of Lord Guangnan's Mansion, powerhouses of Demons-kill Valley and Jiang Clan left here, the highest level of the rest was just shadow knight. Therefore, they were all disappointed in this case.

Only when they were in a despair did they realize Fan Sanguang's greatness. Fan Sanguang's ability to seize the opportunity and make a decision to join Iron-Dragon Sect shamelessly in a split second couldn't be matched by commoners.

At this moment, Zhang Tie didn't waste time anymore. After Zhang Tie threw a glance at those on his side, all the knights around him started to fly towards the only exit on the dome, including that barbarian shadow knight Serila.

Watching them leaving out of here, all the others became restless.

"The exit reappears, Immortal Qianji and his partners are about to leave out of here. Let's follow them up. If we could rush out of there, we will survive..."

"That's right. Why could only Immortal Qianji leave out of here? We should leave too. Let's rush out..."

"Even the sage-level knight couldn't block us; Let's rush forward..."

Someone among over 10,000 knights also wanted to follow Zhang Tie's group away as they booed and stimulated to urge all the others to rush out of here with them.

"You're seeking for death!" Yun Zhongzi sneered as he punched out, exploding a knight's body into pieces over thousands of meters away. As Yun Zhongzi launched his attack, the two destructive boas beside him also charged at them, turning some leading the rebels into ashes.

A sage-level knight and two destructive boas which could match heavenly knights were absolutely one-sided holocaust facing some knights, whose highest level was only shadow knight. As a result, dozens of people who incurred trouble were immediately killed.

All the puppets had been alive again while cracking down those restless knights.

Watching someone jumping out of over 10,000 knights at this moment, Zhang Tie only sighed inside, 'When it's a natural disaster, it could still be forgiven; if a person wants to find trouble, it couldn't be forgiven.'

Zhang Tie and Yun Zhongzi had long predicted this situation. Even though Zhang Tie and Yun Zhongzi were just performing, Yun Zhongzi still killed those rebels mercilessly. Those who dared jump out at this moment deserved death.

Those people knew that everything in this Dongtian was under Yun Zhongzi's control and Yun Zhongzi could close the exit whenever he wanted. When they saw Zhang Tie leaving out of here, those people also urged to leave here, what did they mean?

To be honest, they wanted Zhang Tie to die with them.

If Yun Zhongzi was infuriated or couldn't control the current situation, as long as he closed the exit, Zhang Tie's group couldn't leave here either. By then, Zhang Tie and the other heavenly knights had to save them out of there or to die with them.

As long as Yun Zhongzi became shortly hesitant, they would be able to mingle with Zhang Tie's group and escape out of here.

It was the darkest side of people in dilemma—If I couldn't survive myself, you would die too. In other words, you have to take me when you escape.

Not every one of over 10,000 knights had their bottom line. There were always some b*stards and rubbish. In this case, those gloomy and evil knights would jump out for sure.

Zhang Tie and Yunzhongzi had reached an agreement on dealing with this situation in the script.

Such knights were definitely rubbish and b*stards. Even if they could leave here, they might not do good things; nor would they appreciate Zhang Tie. Therefore, Zhang Tie and Yun Zhongzi preferred to have them seek for death at this moment. Those who jumped highest, exclaimed loudliest were the gloomiest and should especially be killed. By killing such people, they were actually resolving evil persons for the human world. By the way, their performance would appear more vivid.

Zhang Tie didn't feel guilty about Yun Zongzi's deed.

"Sh*t..." Noticing the situation behind him, Celestial Treasureflame of Demons-kill Valley instantly released his killing intent as his eyes turned bloody.

He was definitely not complaining Yun Zhongzi; instead, he was swearing those knights who found the trouble as Celestial Treasureflame understood those people's intention right away.

"How evil they are..." Immortal Deyang threw a glance backward as he let out a sigh.

"Let's talk about it later when we leave here..." Zhang Tie said in a muffled voice as he approached the exit ahead of the others rapidly by throwing only a glance backward.

Behind them, the two destructive boas were giving vent to their dissatisfaction while crushing all the evil knights who tried to follow them into ashes and ice scums. Yun Zhongzi didn't sympathize these evil people at all. With some flashes in the air, some knights who exclaimed loudliest had already been killed by him.

What comforted Zhang Tie most was that more knights were not bewildered by the minority as they were conscious about the outcome of the turmoil.

Some knights were even roaring furiously, "Don't move, Immortal Qianji has already tried his best. In the first floor of Dongtian, he helped four freak sages; he had just stopped a massacre and had already saved a lot of people. He's trying to take away as many knights as possible. If we create troubles now, even Immortal Qianji couldn't leave here. We could only cause Immortal Qianji to die with us. Are we knights of Taixia Country just merciless and unrighteous timid rabbits? This father is never afraid of being beheaded as it's just a scare in the shape of the bowl. Who the f*ck dares to move, this father Zhuo Feiyang would chop off your head first..."

"Yes, we should be real men even if we die..."

“Fine, before Immortal Qianji’s group leave here, anyone who dares move should pass us first. We owe Immortal Qianji for that. We should be real men of Taixia Country!”

More knights responded to their call while those who intended to arouse troubles were submerged in the furious crowds before Yun Zhongzi launched his attack...

Chapter 1568: Zhang Tie’s Return

Only after a short while, Zhang Tie and his partners had arrived at the exit on the dome. Zhang Tie and Bai Suxian entered it first, closely followed by many others.

By then, many people finally let out a sigh of relief.

However, when Zhang Tie entered the exit, he let go of Bai Suxian’s hand at a stroke. Floating in the sky, he told Bai Suxian solemnly, “You and the others leave out of here first. I will leave soon too...”

Watching Zhang Tie’s hesitation, Bai Suxian and all the others stopped.

“Aah, what are you going to do?” Bai Suxian asked.

“I want to return!” Zhang Tie said calmly after throwing a glance at everyone else.

“Return?” Zhang Tie’s response caught everyone by surprise.

“True, I want to return. If not, the remainders would face a great risk, which might arouse great chaos across the country in the future. By then, demons might seize the opportunity to bring us trouble. Therefore, I have to return and stop it.” Now that it’s a performance, Zhang Tie couldn’t ruin it. He then added seriously, “If I return, the remainders might be able to survive!”

“I will be back together with you!” Bai Suxian said at once.

Celestial Treasureflame and Celestial Woodbuilding then exchanged a glance with each other. After a short silence, Celestial Treasureflame opened his mouth decisively, “I will go back with you too. I could give you a hand!” Celestial Treasureflame nodded too.

People’s heart could be judged at critical moments. It was really great for two heavenly knights to face difficulties or retreat together with Zhang Tie in this case. They were almost sacrificing for Zhang Tie. It mainly owed to Zhang Tie’s great mores, personality and abilities. Undoubtedly, Zhang Tie had acquired everyone’s trust and favor in this situation.

Zhang Tie forcefully pinched Bai Suxian’s hand and threw a glance at Bai Suxian, before telling the others in the tunnel, “Thanks for your kindness, two celestials. But I’m not returning to fight that sage-level knight. If you go back, the situation would go worse and uncontrollable. You’d better take the others out of here first. I have methods to protect myself. That sage-level knight couldn’t do harm to me. I was fine at Weishui River after being hurt by the nirvana thunder, not to mention this situation. If I failed, I would converge with you!”

After hearing Zhang Tie’s words and sensing his decisive belief, none of the others spoke anymore given his great reputation and remarkable military exploits.

"Immortal, you could tell that person. If he dared hurt you, Demons-kill Valley would absolutely fight him to death. When I come back, I would request the elders of our valley in reclusion to avenge for you!" Celestial Treasureflame promised Zhang Tie solemnly before leaving.

Bai Runshan gnashed his teeth as he took out a brightly green jade knife from his portable space-teleportation equipment and passed it to Zhang Tie, saying, "This is the token of Lord Guangnan's Mansion in South Border. Everyone in South Border is clear of it. When in need, you could present it. If that person dared hurt you, he would be the enemy of Lord Guangnan's Mansion!"

Immortal Deyang also let out a sigh as he took out a tan eight diagrams token and passed it to Zhang Tie, saying, "This is the token of Heavens Fortune Sect. Anyone who possesses it would be protected by Heavens Fortune Sect. You could present it when necessary so as to scare that person!"

"If immortal needs me later on, Jiang Clan would do the same as the others do!" Celestial Woodbuilding expressed his gratitude solemnly too.

"Thank you so much!" Zhang Tie said as he cupped his hands towards the others after taking the tokens of Bai Runshan and Immortal Deyang and putting them away in his own portable space-teleportation equipment, "You'd better leave here as fast as possible. No matter what, I would come out alive to converge with you!"

As knights were all straightforward, after Zhang Tie's persistence conquered those heads of top sects, especially Bai Suxian, all the others left there after reaching a brief agreement with Zhang Tie on the location of convergence. Conversely, Zhang Tie went back.

At this moment, as Zhang Tie couldn't use his battle qi and spiritual energy, he could only rely on the Liezi bloodline that he had awakened to fly. Liezi was one of the sages in ancient times in Taixia Country. The story of how Liezi flew by wind had been spread across the country for thousands of years. The greatness of Liezi bloodline was that one could float and fly in the air without external force as long as it was activated.

According to the record of an ancient book in Taixia Country, Liezi flew by wind by his spiritual energy without external force. Only sages could do it!

The state of Liezi flying by the wind was similar to the flight state of knights. However, its speed was not as fast as that of knights.

It was a bizarre flight state by activating Liezi bloodline. Being different than birds, driving a plane, or that knights flew by their running chakras, this state was as follows as Liezi had described—qi flew across one's whole body. After that, one's eyes were like one's ears; ears like the nose; nose like a mouth; one would focus on one point and forget about his physical figure; one would not feel relying on anything as he would feel stepping on the void and moving by wind like dried wood, leaves or shells. It was uncertain whether one was flying by wind or the wind was flying by that person.

Such was a free state. Zhang Tie felt dissolving in the void. The moment he thought about it, he would move forward.

Almost the moment Zhang Tie returned, Yun Zhongzi and all the others had discovered Zhang Tie on the second floor of Dongtian.

Of course, in this case, even though Zhang Tie flew at a low speed, nobody cared about it.

When Zhang Tie returned, the chaos and turmoil had just been suppressed, during which process, about 100 people who wanted to mingle with Zhang Tie's group were killed by Yun Zhongzi and the two destructive boas in an overwhelming way. The bloody smell in the air had not fully dispersed yet. The atmosphere in the space was as intense as steel wire while the reminders were ready for the duel.

"Immortal Qianji, why are you back?" Yun Zhongzi asked Zhang Tie with a frown, eyes sparkling in a distant way, "Do you think that you could come and go casually?"

Closely after Yun Zhongzi's words, the huge lotus-flower petal on the dome had closed again. As a result, even Zhang Tie could leave here.

Watching Zhang Tie's reappearance, many knights who were already in despair revealed brilliantly hopeful eye lights again.

At this moment, many hopeful eye lights fixated onto Zhang Tie.

With hands on the back, Zhang Tie arrived as free as the wind calmly with a compassionate look.

"Despite the vicious, ruthless and terrifying deed of Taixia Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion on exterminating Great Wilderness Sect, it's just the vendetta between three top sects. It has nothing to do with others. Forebear, we don't need to have so many innocent knights involved in the conflicts and wars between the top sects!"

The moment Zhang Tie opened his mouth, the crime that Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion joined in the extermination of the Great Wilderness Sect had been exposed to the public...

Chapter 1569: A Big Bet

"Now that these people dare intrude in the Dongtian of Great Wilderness Sect for the sake of our rarities, don't blame me for trouble!" Yun Zhongzi said coldly while full of killing intent as his tone sounded a bit infuriated, "Additionally, there's no absolute reason and justice in the secular world. If there is, Great Wilderness Sect which didn't mean to compete with the other top forces would never suffer such a catastrophe while many people were killed miserably. Who would speak for Great Wilderness Sect? In this case, as I could determine whether they are alive or not, my words are fixed rules. If anyone disagrees with me, you could fight me..."

Looking up, Zhang Tie let out a deep sigh like a righteous envoy, "Now that forbear has said that, I have to argue about rules with forbear!"

"What! I've told you that I won't make you embarrassed. But do you want to fight me?" Yun Zhongzi watched Zhang Tie as he released his battle intention. The two destructive boas in the distance turned around and started to brandish their claws and exposed their long fangs towards Zhang Tie at a stroke.

"I don't want to fight you, forbear. However, in order to prevent forbear from killing more innocent people, I'm afraid that I have to witness your sage-level realm!"

After hearing Zhang Tie's words, all the knights were shocked as they were moved too much inside.

“Hahaha, I’ve long heard that your ability as a divine dominator is world-renowned. It’s not bad for me to try it today!” Yun Zhongzi burst into laughter. Closely after that, he reserved his smile as he said distantly, “Do you want to exchange for the lives of over 10,000 knights here with your own ability? That’s too naive. At this moment, everything here is under my control. If I don’t open the tunnel, over 90% of people here would be starved to death within 1 month. Even sage-level knight couldn’t leave here without my order. You’re already under my control. Why are you so confident to fight me in this case?”

“You’re right, forebear. If so, forebear, dare you to bet with me?”

“What bet?”

“I will exchange myself with their lives. If I failed my challenge, I would join Great Wilderness Sect and follow your order. Forebear could also deal with them as you will. But if I win, forebear, please let them go in case they were involved with the vendetta between Great Wilderness Sect and other sects. What do you think, forebear?”

“If you lose, you will join Great Wilderness Sect?” Yun Zhongzi’s eyes flickered as if he was moved by Zhang Tie’s proposal.

“Right!” Zhang Tie said frankly.

“Now that it’s a bet, why not make it a big one?” Yun Zhongzi said and looked straight into Zhang Tie’s eyes as he added, “It’s said that Jinwu Palace controls the recipes of fiery oil and all-purpose medicament, the profits of which rank first in the world. Additionally, Jinwu Palace also has tens of millions of square miles’ bounty land. How about joining Great Wilderness Sect together with the recipes of fiery oil and all-purpose medicament as well as your bounty land if you lose? In this way, Great Wilderness Sect would rejuvenate and be on the equal footing with the other top sects again. Dare you?”

“Hahaha, forebear, you’re really ambitious!” Zhang Tie burst into laughter too as he added, “Forebear, you also know that the profits of fiery oil and all-purpose medicament rank first across the world. Besides joining Great Wilderness Sect myself, I should also hand the recipes of fiery oil and all-purpose medicament of Jinwu Palace to you. Forebear, you know that fiery oil and all-purpose medicament are the foundation of Jinwu Palace. Besides myself, Jinwu Palace also includes my elder brother and my parents. If I take the foundation of Jinwu Palace as the wager, how could I explain it to my parents and elder brother if I lost it? I’m not akin to these knights. I just want to save them for the sake of righteousness and maintain a bit aura for the country and humans. Neither do I want to say anyone being killed here innocently. Forebear, do you think I’m an idiot or that an intelligent man could be bullied casually?”

Zhang Tie didn’t agree with Yun Zhongzi at once; instead, he refuted Yun Zhongzi righteously and solemnly which appeared real and could better move the reminders. In this case, if Zhang Tie instantly agreed to take Jinwu Palace as a wager and disguised as a saint, it would be too excessive and would bring him a converse effect. Zhang Tie’s refusal felt more reasonable and more touching. In the hearts of those knights, Immortal Qianji was the number one tough man across Taixia Country.

“Now that I agree bet with you; of course, I will make you reassured. As you’ve taken fiery oil and all-purpose medicament as the wager, I would take something else as the wager too. If you win, the top rarities across this Dongtian of Great Wilderness Sect and Great Wilderness Sect as a whole would belong to you. I would hand the controlling power and the rarity in the control center to you. All the treasures in this floor and all the others below and those collected by Great Wilderness Sect in South Border would be determined by you, including over 20 towers of time in this Dongtian. What do you think about my wager?”

After hearing Yun Zhongzi’s words, all the onlooking knights swallowed their saliva as they goggled and dared not even breathe smoothly. Such a wager really drove people mad. The entire Dongtian, over 20 towers of time and treasures and rarities of Great Wilderness Sect. That was amazing!

“Forebear, by the top rarities of Great Wilderness Sect you mean the Great Wilderness Sutra?”

“No. I won’t give you the Great Wilderness Sutra!” Yun Zhongzi said as he pointed at the golden boa and the silver boa, continuing, “The top rarities of Great Wilderness Sect are them. They’re species from far-ancient times—Snakes of destruction as is called in South Border. They’re overlords among magnificent mountains in South Border, the only ones of their kind among humans. Each of them could match the heavenly knight in battle strength. If you win, I will gift them to you along with all the others of this Dongtian!”

Yun Zhongzi’s words revealed fake news—Great Wilderness Sutra was with him. He would not gift the Great Wilderness Sutra to Zhang Tie. Therefore, nobody would doubt that Zhang Tie possessed the Great Wilderness Sutra.

Zhang Tie gazed at the two boas for quite a while as if he was a bit moved, “These two boas are too powerful and weird. If they could serve me, of course, it’s like how a tiger gets wings. But how could I control them?”

“If you win, of course, I could let them identify you as their owner!”

“Forebear, what about the details of our duel?” Zhang Tie lowered his voice as if he had made his decision.

“It’s simple. I will contain the two destructive boas into my realm. As long as you could resist the common strike from me and the two boas in my realm with your ability as a divine dominator and could exit it alive, you would be the winner...”

Chapter 1570: Within the Sage-level Realm

“As long as I could withstand the strikes of forbear and the two destructive boas and break your realm, I would be the winner and you would allow these people to leave here safe and sound; additionally, you should hand this Dongtian of Great Wilderness Sect and the two destructive boas to me!”

“True. Conversely, we will set one day as the time limit. If you couldn’t break my realm within 24 hours, I would be the winner and you should join Great Wilderness Sect; additionally, fiery oil and all-purpose medicament of Jinwu Palace would belong to Great Wilderness Sect. Do you agree?”

“Haha, forebear, you know that I never lost a bet even with the King Abyss of demons!” Zhang Tie said with great interest.

“I’m different than him. If you’re brave enough, you could have a bet with me. If you win, I would leave this place to you!”

“Fine, that’s the deal!” Zhang Tie looked around in a pretty heroic manner as he added, “Let’s have the other knights at present as our witnesses. Let’s see whether I could break forebear’s realm or forebear could win everything and rejuvenate Great Wilderness Sect within one day!”

“Fine!” Yun Zhongzi said with shred eyes as a green light beam extended from his back like how he did when he swept over the knights of Taiyi Fantasy Sect and Heavens Holding Pavilion just now. After he activated the sage-level realm, the two destructive boas instantly entered his realm, closely followed by Zhang Tie. Instead of entering the realm himself slowly, Zhang Tie was actually brought in by the extension of the realm...

In the blink of an eye, Zhang Tie, Yun Zhongzi and the two destructive boas had already disappeared. Within the Dongtian, there was only a large realm covering 600 square miles in the shape of a green ball.

Over 10,000 knights were goggling at the mysterious sage-level knight on one side as they held their breath, waiting for the result of this “duel” between Zhang Tie and Yun Zhongzi.

“This is the most merciful, righteous, wisest and bravest deed. From now on, I only admire Immortal Qianji across Taixia Country...” a knight was so thrilled as he said with tears.

“Our five righteous men of Qilian Mountain have not received such a great favor from others. I’ve not imagined that Immortal Qianji wants to save us at the risk of his life in South Border...”

“From now on, Immortal Qianji would be the great benefactor of all the barbarians among numerous mountains in South Border...” a band of barbarian knights exclaimed out of excitement.

Some other knights didn’t speak as they just looked around for exits. However, before they moved, those puppets had become alive as they circled around all the human knights in the air. Anyone dared break the border would receive endless strikes of those puppets at once...

“No matter what, if immortal died for us here, we will fight that person to death...”

“Yes, fight to death...”

“Immortal is always favored by God. He could even survive the large-scale war at Weishui River, he would definitely be safe this time too...”

“But that’s one sage-level knight and two heavenly-level fierce beasts...”

After hearing that, many people among 10,000-odd knights looked a bit worried. Although Zhang Tie’s military exploits at Weishui River was world-renowned, everyone knew that Zhang Tie didn’t fight King Abyss face-to-face although he could kill a heavenly knight by striking it with a rod for 9 times. In this case, they were not sure which one was greater, Zhang Tie or Yun Zhongzi...

The green light curtain blocked their vision. Unless one had lotus-flower eyes, nobody could see through what was happening in the sage-level realm even sage-level knight.

Whereas, if someone could see through the realm, he must be extremely startled...

"Aah, what a sage-level realm..." Zhang Tie widely opened his eyes like Grandma Liu who entered Da Guanyuan, the official mansion of Jia Mansion, one of the top four mansions in the story A Dream of Red Mansions, for the first time. He just looked around everything out of curiosity. Zhang Tie had hardly ended the performance and entered the sage-level knight when he let out a sigh of relief and became relaxed.

It was like another world within the realm. After entering this world, Zhang Tie felt it was utterly different than that outside using his lotus-flower eyes.

When Zhang Tie looked at it from outside, Zhang Tie found this realm was full of undulating ranges like another world. After entering it, although everything remained unchanged like how he saw outside, the undulating ranges and landscape became more fantastic as they all looked true or false while the woods and rivers looked completely real. However, Zhang Tie was conscious that it was not real; instead, it was a sage-level realm. Everything in front of his eyes possessed four elements, which were completely composed of the four elements, earth, water, wind and fire according to certain rules. This world was full of changes and killing intent. However, it seemed to be lacking something compared to the realm world.

Yun Zhongzi accompanied Zhang Tie as he started to observe Zhang Tie with bizarre eyesight.

Neither of them launched any strike; instead, they took this sage-level realm as a garden as they started to wander and chat inside.

"Why do you watch me this way?"

"Head, your intelligence is really out of my imagination. Additionally, it seems that you're a bit different than that in gossips!" Yun Zhongzi commented calmly.

"Haha, you're smart too. Some gossips are not real. Don't pay heed to them!" Zhang Tie burst into laughter as he commented, "You've got a good performance too..."

"Just now, I just constantly reminded myself that everything in front of me was real!"

At this moment, the two destructive boas flew over there and wandered around them like two docile kitties without any killing intent.

"Oh, could you please make this place a bit more cloudy and mysterious in case outsiders see through what we're doing inside."

Yun Zhongzi slightly frowned as he said, "Besides those in the sage-level realm, nobody else could see through it!"

Zhang Tie then let out a sigh inside. In this world, even sage-level knight couldn't imagine about some things. Additionally, the so-called powerhouses always had a fixed mindset and arrogance. This might be the fatal weakness of many powerhouses.

“Oh, do you think so?” Zhang Tie rubbed his nose, saying, “However, how you stomped Celestial Clouddragon to death in the shape of a giant ape was really terrifying...”

No sooner had Zhang Tie finished his words did Yun Zhongzi goggle his eyes as he watched Zhang Tie as if Zhang Tie was a ghost...

According to Yun Zhongzi’s experience, Zhang Tie couldn’t see what happened within his realm at all from outside...
