

BloodLine 110

Chapter 110 - Going Back Home

Following the completion of the report. "Strange!" was the first thing she said. She is aware, though, of the gravity of the situation. And quickly deployed a five-person crew.

They're all Elite Warrior. Eagle Squad is the name of the squad. In their Tier -7 city, this team is one of the most successful. They were all enrolled with the Army Federation.

She responded to the Message. Mr. Alvin was reassured by her. The Eagle Squad will travel as quickly as they can. It will, however, take several hours. She urged him to hang on as tight as he could. After the message has been sent.

She's thinking something. "This is a unique situation. What exactly is going on?" She said something to herself. She was well aware of the level 4 Monster at Mid-level.

"What were they up to before? This elderly gentleman is dedicated to his work. He isn't going to miss it. If there is a level 4 presence at an early stage." She pondered in her head.

This is why she was perplexed. She shook her head, thinking that dealing with that Monster was more essential just now. There would be a lot of casualties if this did not happen.

She made the decision to keep an eye on the situation. In the meantime, however. In a few hours, the Black Forests crew arrives in Station town. It's past midnight.

Mr. Dawson took a step out of the car. He informed his team that he needed to make preparations for Zack. They nodded as well. Zack shouldn't be here because he's in danger. It's possible that the level 4 Monster will go berserk.

As a result, no one will be looking after Zack when that happens. Mr. James took a step towards the house.

The rest of the team went to their communication office instead of going home.

In the meantime, Zack was sound asleep in his room. However, he did not have a restful night's sleep. He occasionally wakes up in the middle of the night.

Mr. Dawson doesn't want to wake up Zack in the middle of the night. He made the decision to notify him in the morning. Meanwhile, he needs to finalize some details for his return to the Red Stone city.

Mr. James was initially accompanied by Zack. Earlier, Mr. James had scanned his credential. And utilized his access code for this journey.

Zack couldn't come here alone because he didn't have permission.

Consider the seriousness of the situation. Mr. Dawson made the decision to seek approval from the Administration. Mr. Dawson walked into his room. From his sci-fi, watch, he swiftly accessed the server and dialed Mr. Alvin.

Mr. Alvin, on the other hand, is currently reading a message given by a good friend. He was relieved that she took prompt action and dispatched the eagle squad.

His heart began to calm as he realized that he now had to maintain control of the situation. Until the Eagle Squad arrived. Mr. Alvin did not send any warriors to help Mr. James.

It's a good thing Monster is currently focused on regaining control of its energy.

It's not a smart idea to send lower-level Warriors there. The Monster at level 4 is intelligent. If it reacts, it's because it's seen too many people. It will simply increase the number of victims on our side.

In the meanwhile, He just hoped Monster wouldn't act. While he is analyzing the situation. The server had sent him a fresh message. According to the report, the rest of the investigating team arrived safely. Seeing that, he breathed a sigh of relief.

Mr. Alvin received a call from Mr. Dawson. The investigation's vice-captain, a few moments later. Mr. Alvin picked up the phone after seeing his name on the caller ID. Mr. Dawson told Mr. Alvin of everything.

Mr. Alvin responded with a nod and sent him a unique pass to depart the Black Forests. He sent the digital card with Zack's name on it through the server.

In the morning, a few hours later. Due to a lack of sleep, Zack awoke sooner.

"It's been a long time, and I'm having trouble sleeping," I grumbled. I was rubbing my temples at the time. After yesterday's Ant Queen Episode. I was expecting a restful night's sleep.

It would be simple to sleep soundly, I reasoned. Because I'm mentally fatigued. With that in mind, I shook my head.

I made the decision to meditate and practice lightning energy cultivation.

At the very least, it might help me with my headache. Time passed, and I dutifully practiced for a few hours. This yielded positive outcomes and calmed my nerves.

I stood up from my meditation mat a few moments later.

I'm getting ready to make breakfast for myself. Everyone embarked on a mission. I'm all alone, so it's a good thing I picked up a few tips from Granny Park. As I was pondering. I made my way to the kitchen.

But I came to a complete stop. I saw Mr. Dawson. I was taken aback. "They said the task would take a few days to complete." I had a thought in my head.

"Mr. Dawson, where is my uncle?" I inquired as I approached him. I suddenly realized I had sent a message to Uncle James the day before. However, I did not receive a response.

If he's with him, that is. He would have gotten in touch with me. Zack's question was heard. Mr. Dawson arrived well-prepared. He was well-versed in dealing with such a situation. "It's a never-ending mission." I returned to get high-level equipment.

We had previously assumed that it would not be required. As a result, we left it here." He said it in a laid-back manner. He doesn't have a suspicious expression on his face. Seeing Zack, he isn't suspicious of him. "Oh!" he continued.

I completely neglected to inform you. Mr. James has asked me to say something to you. We had anticipated that the task would take a few days. However, looking at the continuing mission. It could take many weeks.. As a result, He advised you to leave the Black Forests and return home."