

BloodLine 1191

Chapter 1191: Jax, the heavily built warrior

From MC's Perspective:

"Who is going to challenge me first?" I asked the Bloodline Wizards.

There are ten among them. I'm sure everyone is itching to fight against me.

My gaze condensed. Among them, there are warriors from the Human Bloodline Faction as well.

Looks like they are going to suffer from me as well.

On the other hand, the bloodline warriors are fuming in anger. Now, Zack Lockwood's words are making them angrier.

"I'll fight you first," A middle-aged man said.

He was heavily built with strong muscles. He is from the Ancient Monster Bloodline Faction.

Hearing that his friends were taken aback. But no one stopped him. Someone had to fight Zack Lockwood today.

So they were happy that Jax is stepping forward.

"Jax, you can do it!"

"Teach him a lesson."

"I hope you don't give us a chance to step in!"

"Today he should not leave unharmed!"

The Bloodline warriors were discussing in a low tone.

Jax smiled before stepping onto the platform. The rest of the people were on the text platform and stood outside the platform's border.

"Jax, what a short name?" I replied.

"You have offended many. Especially me, I'm not going to show you mercy," Jax said in a threatening tone.

Hearing that I felt funny. But I controlled my expression. I think Jax will be my target practice today.

Meanwhile,

The arena started to fill. The Inner Hall Elders have arrived as well. Upon seeing the warriors on the platform. They were shocked.

They didn't expect the bloodline warriors to accept the challenge.

The Inner Elder doesn't know whether they got permission from their respective factions behind them.

There are chances that the Faction Leader won't like this duel.

Swoosh!

Austin arrives secretly at the duel arena. He saw his disciple and the Bloodline warriors as well. Upon seeing the bloodline warriors, he shakes his head.

"This kid has killed a humanoid foreign creature. I hope he knows mercy for others," Austin said in his heart.

If others were to hear his inner thoughts, they would be petrified on the spot.

...

Dean Office:

Dean Jerome is talking to the Purple Mark Guard. He knows what's happening around the campus. Especially, he knows what's going on with Zack Lockwood.

"This kid started his old ways again," Jerome commented.

The Purple Mark Guard is standing silently. He knows about the commotion as well.

He said, "None of them are strong enough to defeat Zack Lockwood. It would be great if they could force him to use the Inheritance power."

"You are right," Jerome replied.

Surprisingly, he was interested in this duel as well.

Knowing that the kid's opponents are from the Bloodline factions. He wonders what the reaction of Faction leaders would be.

He thinks that if Zack uses bloodline power, then a whole lot of things can happen.

"Dean, should I go and warn this kid?" Purple Mark Guard said.

Jerome replied, "Leave it to the kid. I have already told him what to do. He won't carelessly use his purple lightning and blood element power."

"If the kid wants to survive longer, he better do what I say to him," he added.

...

Human Bloodline Faction:

Francesca Ball touches her head with her hands. She didn't expect the bloodline warriors to seek trouble with Zack Lockwood.

She knows about Zack Lockwood's strength. This kid is carrying Two Ancient Inheritance powers with him. He can easily defeat others.

It's a pity that their faction warriors are going to suffer. She doesn't know whether her friend is watching it as well.

She is the Faction Leader of the Ancient Monster Bloodline Faction, Bethany Sutton.

Buzz!

The next second, she receives a call from her friend.

"Bethany," Francesca said.

"I don't like that kid named Zack Lockwood. He is bullying too much. Let's go and support our warriors. "

"Otherwise, the Thunderflame Faction guys could do something," Bethany said from the other side of the call.

"Okay," Francesca replied.

But her eyes flashed with helplessness. Zack carries the Bloodline power of the Ball Family Ancestor. His Bloodline is pure.

The other Bloodline warriors are no match for him. She thinks everyone would find it today. But it's a pity that example is going to be made out of their bloodline warriors.

Swoosh!

She then exits the room and comes across the middle-aged woman dressed in Red clothes. She is Bethany Sutton, the Faction Leader.

"Let's go, we should not be like those Elemental Faction guys," Bethany said in a solemn tone.

She knew how embarrassed the Elemental Faction Leaders were when their faction warriors were bullied by Zack Lockwood in the Outer Hall.

"Yes," Francesca replied.

Then both of them left the spot and started moving towards the Duel Arena.

...

Dark Variant Faction:

The Faction Leader, Vince, got the news as well. For some reason, he wanted to watch a duel. He knows why?

Because they have yet to find out the details regarding Zack Lockwood's Ancient Inheritance.

"Interesting," Vince uttered.

He found out that the kid hadn't used the Ancient Inheritance power previously. Maybe he could use the Ancient Inheritance power this time.

"Let's go and watch this time," Vince said to himself.

He then went with a few main elders. It didn't take long for them to reach the duel arena.

Oldman Vince thought he was the one who first came here. Then he found Clifford as well. He is with Main Elder Austin.

Then his gaze fell on the two Bloodline Faction Leaders.

"These two monsters have come as well," Old man Vince commented.

He was planning to create some scenes. But he thinks it won't happen. Then he gazes at Zack Lockwood and the bloodline warrior.

"Kid, show us your Ancient Inheritance power," Vince said in his heart.

On the other hand, Dean Jerome and the Purple Mark Guard appeared silently as well. They are standing above the duel arena.

Dean Jerome sweeps his gaze across the place. He sees the Faction Leader of the Dark Variant Faction. He was not surprised by his presence at all.

Chapter 1192: Part 1: First Inner Hall Duel

From MC's Perspective:

Dean Jerome then sees the two faction leaders of the bloodline faction. He was expecting the arrival of Francesca and Bethany.

He then sees the Faction Leader of the Thunderflame Faction and the Main Elder Austin.

"Should I inform you?" The Purple Mark Guard asked.

"There is no need. Let's see what they were up to," Jerome said.

Since he is here. He wants to know if anyone dares to create problems, especially from the Faction Leader of the Dark Variant Faction.

Meanwhile,

Thunderflame Faction Leader is looking at Zack Lockwood on the platform. Then he turned towards Austin and said, "You have come before me."

Austin's eyes flickered.

He replied, "I was worried that Faction Leader Vince might come to watch Zack's duel. Like I had guessed, he is indeed here."

Hearing that Clifford's eyes turned serious.

"Last time he sent his warriors to probe Zack's Inheritance power. His intention of coming here today is the same," Clifford said in a serious tone.

"Leader, you should stop him from pulling up some tricks," Austin said.

"Okay, don't worry. My eyes were on him," Clifford said.

On the other hand, Francesca saw others as well.

Her gaze fell on the Dark Variant Faction Leader Vince. She knows the rivalry between the Thunderflame Faction and the Dark Variant Faction.

She also knew about Faction Leader Vince's past actions against Zack Lockwood. Not only she but every other faction leader heard of it.

Everyone saw Dean Jerome reprimanding Faction Leader Vince before the secret land opening.

She thinks he won't dare to make any trouble today.

"What are you thinking?" Bethany asked.

"It's nothing," Francesca replied.

...

Duel Platform:

The duel arena is also filled. It's time for the old man referee to appear. Just as I was wondering, the Outer Hall Elder comes to the duel platform.

"Did you get permission from your faction?" He asked.

Hearing that I was stunned. It was the first time I heard about the permission.

"There is no need for that. My faction leader won't say anything," I said to the oldman.

Jax from the Ancient Monster bloodline faction also nodded his head. His faction leader would beat him if he refuses any duel.

So he was not worried about the permission. Upon getting answers from both of them, the Oldman sighed in relief. He is taking risks here.

He knows that Inner Hall Elders have long since arrived. But nobody has stopped him so far. That's why he was confident.

"Okay, we can start the duel," Oldman said.

The next second, the barrier started to cover the duel platform. Seeing that warriors seated in the arena began to cheer out loud.

The name of Zack Lockwood was loud. It was echoing everywhere.

Jax's eyes flashes with a fighting intent. No one spoke about the rule. So he has decided to use the inheritance power. His inheritance power comes from the monster bloodline.

On the other hand, I activated my perception ability. I don't want to be careless when fighting against warriors. Especially one with the Bloodline power.

I myself understood the power of the bloodlines. So I'm not going to give him any chances.

When the barrier covered the platform completely.

"Fight!" The oldman said.

Boom!

The next second, the Bloodline warrior Jax began to use his bloodline power. His body grew a few inches taller. His well built muscles become more robust.

Any attack from him would have powerful brute force.

On the other hand, my eyes gleamed with a twinkle. I underestimated his Bloodline power. Because it happens to be Physique type power.

Gasp!

The warriors seated in the arena exclaimed in a surprise. Everytime, the Bloodline warriors use their power. It gives everyone much excitement.

The warriors with other elemental power won't have such transformation.

At the same time, Dean Jerome and the Purple Mark Guard were watching the duel in secret. His eyes flashes with approval upon seeing the bloodline transformations.

"It's not easy to have transformation power at Black Mark Rank. This kid Zack is going to have a serious opponent," Jerome commented.

Hearing that Purple Mark Guard was not surprising. Because he knew not everyone can do that in the Black Mark Rank Stage.

Most of the Bloodline warriors reach such a stage in the Silver Mark Rank.

"Will Zack be going to use other Inheritance powers?" The Purple Mark Guard asked.

"He won't do it," Jerome replied.

Meanwhile,

In the duel platform, Jax charges forward to attack. His body movement is creating a force.

On the other hand, I began to use the red blood energy. The red blood energy began to cover my first in the blink of an eye.

Swoosh!

In a flash, Jax appeared in front of me. He raised his fist to punch.

Seeing that I punched forward to block the attack. In a flash, both of us came in contact with each other.

Boom!

The impact force creates a shock. It pushes both of us backward. The shock force spreads across the platform before hitting the barrier.

Boom!

The strike creates another booming sound. I stabilized my footsteps and looked at Jax in front of me in disbelief.

"This guy?" I uttered.

I had used my red blood energy. But it was not enough to strike him down. This guy managed to block the attack.

If I had used the brute force, what would happen?

On the other hand, Jax was scared sh!t. He couldn't believe someone blocked his bloodline power. He can't remember when was the last time someone did it.

Gasp!

An exclamation occurs outside. The warriors in the arena were surprised to see the result of the first move. Especially, the bloodline warriors are looking at Zack Lockwood in shock.

They knew what happened just now. It's not easy to block the bloodline power. They knew that there is rumour going around about the Ancient Inheritance power.

They think Zack Lockwood has used the Ancient Inheritance power to block the Attack.

In the platform, Jax once again uses his Bloodline power to attack.

Chapter 1193: Part 2: First Inner Hall Duel

From MC's Perspective:

Seeing that the warrior is using the same attack again. My eyes gleamed with a twinkle. I had thought it was going to be easy. But he is giving me a challenge.

I'm not going to use shock force or sealing force. I'm only allowed to use the bloodline power. I'm sure Dean Jerome is watching the fight as well.

Swoosh!

In a flash, he appeared before me, punching forward. In response, I used my fist again.

Boom!

When my fist touched his fist. I immediately felt the impact force. This time I was prepared. I used my body strength to withstand the attack.

The shock force spreads across the platform.

Jax was prepared as well. But he was still forced to take two steps backwards.

Gasp!

The audience exclaimed in surprise again. The first one can be said to be a fluke.

Now after watching the second attack of theirs, they have started to realise that both of the warriors are testing each other.

"Impossible," Jax uttered. His face was flushed. He doesn't want to give up. So he continues the attack.

On the other hand, I thought it was the right opportunity to get used to body strength. I got a sparring partner right now. It's better than practising against the puppet.

This time I decided not to use the blood energy. I want to see how long my body can withstand with pure body strength.

Boom!

In a flash, our fists come in contact with each other. It created a loud booming sound.

Tap! Tap!

The impact force pushed me backwards. But Jax stood in the same spot. His eyes flashed with surprise. Then he charges forward to attack again.

Boom! Boom!

One after another, our attacks came into contact with each other. When I'm pushing backwards. I tried to move away from the edge of the platform.

But Jax continues to launch a barrage of fist attacks. He seems to be more motivated right now. He doesn't know that I gave him false hope.

Before he could realise, I should test my limits.

The audience is watching with excitement. Some are cheering out loud. While others are watching in silence. Because something unimaginable is happening right now.

Zack Lockwood is being pushed backwards. He is now in a defensive position. This scene is shocking warriors right now.

But people with discerning eyes can tell that something opposite is happening. Zack Lockwood is using Jax as a sparring partner.

Above the duel arena, Dean Jerome and the Purple Mark Guard are watching the duel as well. Zack Lockwood's behaviour has shocked them.

"Not bad!"

"I thought that he was going to use his bloodline power right away," Dean Jerome commented.

"I guess the kid did not expect the strength of the bloodline warrior to be this strong. That's why Zack is using him to test his own limits," The purple mark guard uttered.

"If the bloodline warrior uses a bloodline technique. Then Zack would have no choice other than to use his inheritance power," Dean Jerome replied.

Meanwhile,

The Thunderflame Faction Leader, Clifford, saw through Zack Lockwood's intention.

He said, "This kid didn't have another place to train. Why is he having the challenge duel to train himself?"

Austin smiles hearing that. Then he replied, "He has met a tough opponent right now. His opponent from the bloodline faction is a strong warrior as well."

"Zack can't make a mistake by underestimating him," He added.

"Hmmm, I hope he wins the duel. Those two monsters were here as well," Clifford said while looking at the two bloodline factions' leaders.

Austin let out a chuckle.

He said, "Faction Leader, you should be worrying about the Dew Water Faction. I guess they must be watching the duel as well."

Hearing that old man Clifford's expression turned grave. More than the Dark Variant Faction's Leader. He is thinking about the Dew Water Faction's Leader.

"You are right"

"Watch out for them," Clifford said.

"Okay," Austin replied. He was here for that reason. He knows his disciple could use the variant water element. If it happens, then the people from the Dew Water Faction will come here.

Then it would definitely lead to some conflict.

On the other hand, the Faction Leader Francesca was quite worried. She knows what's going to happen if Zack uses bloodline power.

There is also the possibility that Zack could use Ancient Inheritance's power. But she doubts that is going to happen. Dean Jerome had already given him a warning.

So Zack Lockwood won't be able to use his other Inheritance power.

Bethany is angry. She didn't expect her faction warrior yet to realise that he is being used. Instead, his opponent is training himself.

"Idiot," She uttered.

Hearing that, Francesca said, "Don't worry, your faction warrior has yet to use the bloodline techniques. Once he does, his opponent would find it hard to defend."

"I know. It's just embarrassing that he doesn't know he is being used," Bethany replied.

Meanwhile,

Ronnie Seth is watching the duel as well. He was taken aback by surprise. He didn't expect someone could force Zack Lockwood into a defensive position.

But as he continues to watch their fight. He realises that Zack Lockwood is using the bloodline warrior Jax as a sparring partner. Upon realising that his mouth twitches.

He was too late to realise this. But what's so funny about that? Jax is yet to realise this.

On the other hand, not only the faction leaders of the Bloodline Factions and the Thunderflame Faction are paying attention to the duel.

There is also Dark Variant Faction Leader Vince. He was hoping to see a quick match. But instead, he sees a long fight.

He saw that Zack Lockwood was training himself by using the bloodline warrior.

He feels good that it's not their faction warrior. Otherwise, he would be embarrassed.

At the same time, the Elemental Factions' Leaders were paying attention to the duel as well. Zack Lockwood had humiliated their factions previously.

They wanted to see whether he was still strong after becoming the Black Mark Warrior.

Chapter 1194: Part 3: First Inner Hall Duel

Star University:

Inside the Blazing Fire Faction, the Faction Leader, Elmer Maddox, has quite a favourable attitude towards Zack Lockwood.

So unlike other Elemental Factions' Leaders, he didn't have hostile intentions.

After learning that Zack Lockwood had accepted the Ancient Inheritance. He was sure that Inner Hall wouldn't be peaceful. Like he had expected, the Inner Hall duel was going on.

The fight is taking place between Zack Lockwood and Jax, the bloodline warrior from the Ancient Monster Bloodline Faction. And the fighting is quite interesting.

He is watching the live streaming as well. Actually, he wanted to go there. But he knows others won't like it. Elmer also saw the Dark Variant Faction Leader.

He has to say he is not like the Faction Leader Vince.

"Leader Vince is really testing the patience of the Dean," Elmer said to himself.

Zack Lockwood has Ancient Inheritance. If it's true then Dean Jerome is going to protect him like other warriors with Ancient Inheritance.

So whatever Leader Vince is planning. It's not going to happen. Then his attention shifted back to the duel. Seeing that Zack Lockwood is using the opponent as a sparring partner.

He was truly impressed with Zack Lockwood's method. It was Zack Lockwood's character that had improved his attitude towards him. He hopes there are more warriors like Zack in the Blazing Fire Faction.

...

Inside the Thunderflame Faction, the Main Elder Ann is watching the duel with her other disciples. They were surprised to see someone could push Zack Lockwood to this level.

Main Elder Ann saw through their thoughts. She explains to them that Zack Lockwood is using the opponent as a Sparring Partner.

After knowing that the female warriors relaxed a lot. In one way, Zack Lockwood is representing the face of the Thunderflame Faction.

Ever since Zack Lockwood joined their Thunderflame Faction. They got more respect in the Outer Hall. Nobody messes with them. Others would fear that Zack Lockwood could attack them.

Now the same thing is happening in the Inner Hall as well.

At the same time, the other main elders are doing the same as well. Not only them, but also the whole Thunderflame Faction and the Inner Hall warriors who were present were watching the duel.

...

From MC's Perspective:

Duel Platform:

10 minutes later,

Boom!

Jax's punch was again blocked by Zack Lockwood. This time, Jax started to feel something was wrong. Suddenly, something clicked in his mind.

"I'm being used," Jax thought.

When this realization struck him. His face changes drastically.

Swoosh!

He retreated and came to the edge of the platform.

Gasp!

Seeing that audience exclaimed. Most of them figured out what was going on. But it took Jax 10 minutes before he was used.

Swoosh!

On the other hand, I came to the edge of the platform. Looking at the change in expression of Jax.

I sighed inwardly. Now, the duel is going to get serious. The opponent has woken up. Now that he has realised what happened. He might use the bloodline technique right away.

At the same time, the expression of the Faction Leaders and Main Elders who were watching became interesting as well. They too felt the duel had reached the final phase.

"Finally," Bethany uttered in relief.

Faction Leader Francesca shows a helpless smile. She thinks that the whole Star University is going to have breaking news.

On the duel platform, Jax began to use the bloodline technique. His right fist turned silver. It's the metal element covering his fist.

The strength of his fist has doubled. Any attack from the fist would be more destructive.

The audience who were watching the scenes were excited as well. Seeing his silver fist, Jax cracked a wide grin on his face.

He thinks that Zack Lockwood won't be able to block his fist again.

Swoosh!

He charges towards the opponent the next moment.

On the other hand, my eyes turned serious. I knew it was not going to be easy. He could really push me towards the defensive position this time.

Unless I decided to use the inheritance power. When he got closer. I chose to attack with brute strength alone.

Boom!

My fist comes in contact with his silver metal fist. The next second, I felt a powerful impact force, with a tearing pain.

Like I had struck a metal wall.

The shock wave spreads across the platform. In a flash, the shock wave struck the barrier.

At the same time, I pulled my fist backwards, holding my right arm with my left hand and retreated to the edge of the platform.

Gasp!

A loud exclamation occurs. The audience was surprised and shocked. It was the first time they had seen someone injure Zack Lockwood.

The pictures were clear on the big screen. Zack Lockwood's right fist was red in colour. It was a little swollen. But there was no sign of dripping blood. But it was enough to say that Zack Lockwood was hurt.

Not only were the audiences surprised. Those who were watching it from their factions were taken aback as well. Almost all of the Outer Hall Warriors were glued to their screen.

Some of the available Inner Hall Warriors were watching the duel.

Seeing that state of Zack Lockwood on the screen. Ronnie Seth was shocked. He doesn't know why Zack Lockwood was not using his inheritance power. He was confused.

There is nothing wrong with using the inheritance power against the Bloodline warrior who is using the Bloodline techniques.

But for some reason, Zack Lockwood is not using his inheritance power. Not only did he have this doubt.

Old man Daniel and his staff were discussing the same thing in their Virtual Training Lab. They don't know why Zack Lockwood was in the defensive position.

"This kid want to fight without using his element?" Daniel asked himself.

He knows it's one thing to fight across ranks below the Black Mark level. But it's hard to repeat after becoming the Black Mark Warrior.

Without Inheritance, no one becomes a Black Mark Warrior. So everyone has almost equal strength.

Very rarely, there are Warriors who can fight across ranks. So he is confused just like others.

Chapter 1195: Jax was defeated!

From MC's Perspective:

I'm standing at the edge of the platform with a serious expression on my face. My right arm is hurting. If I don't use the inheritance power, I might get seriously hurt this time.

Jax, the Bloodline warrior, is cracking a wide grin. He is feeling satisfied right now. He thinks that Zack Lockwood was not that strong.

Even if Zack Lockwood uses his inheritance power. He was sure to defeat him.

Outside,

The noise was so loud that it was deafening. But inside the fighting platform, it was absolutely quiet. Both the warriors were staring at each other.

"Let's use the inheritance power," I said.

I know that once I used the Inheritance power. There is no turning back. Everyone would come to know that my Ancient Inheritance is different.

As per Dean Jerome's order, I can only use the bloodline power with shock force integration power. So that others can think that it's a variant of the water element.

Swoosh!

Just as he made the decision. Jax started charging towards him. As usual, he covers his right fist with the metal element.

Seeing that, the audience got excited again. They were expecting that Zack Lockwood was going to use the inheritance power.

They wanted to see the power of the purple lightning element. Most of them believe that a purple lightning attack could decide the result of the duel.

In mid-air, Dean Jerome and the Purple Mark Guard were watching the duel as well. Old man Jerome is thinking that the situation is about to change.

Whatever is going to happen next. He needs to take control of it. Especially, he needs to stop the people from the Dew Water Faction.

He doesn't think that Zack Lockwood won't follow his order. He made it clear more than once to him. Compared to being targeted by the foreign creatures, it's better to deal with the situation here.

Swoosh!

In the fighting platform, I began to use the bright blue force in the dantian. The bright blue force was slightly mixed with the shock force integration power. It has a silver and golden colour.

Jax, the bloodline warrior, was a few metres away from him. His punch was about to land on him.

At the same time, I began to cover my right fist with bright blue water force. The force has shades of gold and silver.

Jax's eyes flashed with surprise. But he had made up his mind to land the punch. So he didn't withdraw his punch. He went punching forward.

At the same time, my perception was active. I could follow his attack. This time I courageously met his fist.

Both of our fists come into contact with each other.

Boom!

The bright blue force mixed with shock force integration power explodes upon contact. The power instantly blasted away Jax's right arm.

The impact force sent his body flying.

Argh!

With a loud scream, he fell to the ground. His entire right arm was bloodied. This all happened within seconds.

On the other hand, I rooted on the same spot. But the bright blue force in my hand had completely disappeared.

Gasp!

After a few seconds, a loud exclamation occurs. A look of realisation dawned on the viewer's face. They saw something incredible.

Everyone was expecting to witness a purple lightning force. Instead, they saw a blue color force. Not many elements are related to the blue force except the water element.

A fierce discussion started following the loud exclamation. Everyone is processing what they saw just now.

Jax, the bloodline warrior, was scared. His right arm bones were broken. He could feel the crackling sound. His expression was grave. He turned towards Zack Lockwood.

"What was that?" Jax asks in a trembling tone.

Hearing that my mouth curves into an arc.

"Do you admit defeat or not?" I asked him back.

Jax was taken aback. An extreme fear gripped his heart. He has lost his overall confidence. He doesn't know what happened to Zack Lockwood at the last moment.

But Jax doesn't want to confront him. If he does that then his left arm could be broken.

Jax slowly stood up under the gaze of everyone. Then he looks at Zack Lockwood before turning towards the old man who was acting as a referee for their duel.

"I lost," Jax said.

Gasp!

The audience who were surprised by Zack Lockwood's attack earlier. They were dumbfounded again. But they saw the condition of Jax's right arm on the screen.

Seeing the blessing, they realised that his right arm was broken. If he continues with the duel, then he might suffer more injuries.

The old man outside the platform heard Jax's admission. He then looks at Jax before looking at Zack Lockwood.

He said, "Zack Lockwood is the winner"

Cheers!

Hearing that Zack Lockwood's supporters let out a roaring cheer. They were worried earlier. Zack Lockwood's defensive posture earlier disappointed them.

But they were shocked to see such a turnaround at the last moment.

On the platform, I sighed inwardly. Fortunately, Jax was convinced in one move. Already, everyone must be thinking about the bright blue force.

Before it could cause further noise. I should leave the duel arena.

Buzz!

The next second, the barrier starts to recede.

Seeing that Jax, the bloodline warrior's face changes. He was unwilling. But his current condition won't be suitable for continuous fighting.

In mid-air, Dean Jerome's eyes flickered. In the end, things had happened as he had guessed. Zack Lockwood uses his bloodline power mixed with the Ancient Inheritance power.

For others, it's going to be a variant water element.

"Dean, I think that it was about time when the Dew Water Faction found out," The Purple Mark Guard said.

"It's going to change nothing. We know the truth. He will remain as a member of the Thunderflame Faction," Dean Jerome said.

Hearing that the Purple Mark Guard became silent.

On the other hand, the Monster bloodline faction Leader, Bethany, was dumbfounded.

"What's with the blue force?"

"Wasn't this kid a lightning warrior?" Bethany asked.

She totally forgot about the defeat of her faction warrior named Jax. She is totally focused on Zack Lockwood's surprising blue water force.

Chapter 1196: Bright blue force exposed!

From MC's Perspective:

Duel Platform,

When the barrier came down. I looked deeply at Jax, the bloodline warrior before walking out. The next second, the loud noise from all sides of the arena reached my ears.

I could hear the chanting of my name. I raised my head and waved at the warriors in the stand before approaching the office.

The referee immediately called the medical team. They quickly arrived and took Jax back to the infirmary.

Only then did the crowd begin to disperse. The warriors started to leave one after another.

At the same time, the Dark Variant Faction Leader Vince's eyes flickered.

"Oh my!"

"What did I see?" He asked himself.

He totally ignored the outcome of the duel. Instead, his mind was set on the bright blue force. He was sure that the bright blue force was related to the water element.

Everyone knows that kid is the lightning warrior. Then why does he have the water element? Is that kid a dual-element warrior?

A lot of questions in his mind.

But he knows this is not the place to discuss. So he turned around to leave with others back to the Dark Variant Faction.

Meanwhile,

The Thunderflame Faction Leader Clifford's face turned solemn.

"Zack exposed his water inheritance power. Now we have a problem in our hands," He uttered.

"Tell the kid to come to the main hall ASAP," He said to Austin.

"Okay," Austin replied.

Then he called his disciple to inform him.

Inside the office, I met with the staff and I'm speaking to them. I received a call from Master Austin.

Seeing that I was not surprised. I attended the call in front of the staff. The next second, I heard he wanted my presence in the meeting hall right away.

I know what this was about. So I agreed to come right away. Then I nodded to the staff before leaving.

On the other hand, Bethany was sure that something was suspicious about Zack Lockwood's element. The bright blue force was not a lightning element. It's the water element.

She turned around and looked at Francesca.

She asked, "Zack Lockwood is a dual-element warrior."

Francesca shakes her head and replies, "I don't know. Maybe the Dew Water Faction can tell. They won't be silent if Zack Lockwood has the water element."

"You are right. We are going to have exciting days ahead," Bethany said with a smile.

The duel result has completely disappeared from her mind. Then both of them left the place.

In mid-air, Dean Jerome has been watching everything play out. He saw the reactions of the Faction Leaders as well.

The Purple Mark Guard standing beside him remained silent. He thinks that Dean Jerome is going to make an important decision soon.

"That kid already has a lot of eyeballs on him. Now this will make him the centre of attention," he thought.

Dean Jerome didn't make any comments. He directly left with Purple Mark Guard back to his office.

Among the shocked people, the Outer Hall and Inner Hall were included as well. The Outer Hall Elders have seen Zack Lockwood's past duels.

Zack Lockwood was known for having powerful purple lightning. So, where does the blue colour element come from?

Like others, they have also suspected that Zack Lockwood was a dual-element warrior. But there is no way to confirm now.

The Thunderflame Faction won't tell them.

If anyone has the legitimate rights, then it must be the Dew Water Faction. They are going to wait for the response from the Dew Water Faction.

Then they started to monitor the warriors leaving the duel arena.

The Inner Hall Elders were no different. They have the biggest fear right now. They fear that they are going to see more events like challenge duels hereafter.

They were least concerned about Zack Lockwood's bright blue force. They have responsibilities to keep the Inner Hall's order.

At the same time, the warriors who were watching the live streaming from their factions and homes were shocked to the core.

More than Zack Lockwood's win. They were shocked to see that bright blue force. They know that force is the power of inheritance.

Normally, it should have been the lightning force. But they had witnessed something different. These warriors, too, thought that it was a water element.

But it was hard to accept the facts. So they are going to wait for the warriors from the Dew Water Faction to confirm it.

About 10 minutes later,

I returned to the Thunderflame Faction. On the way, I came across the members, whose faces were filled with shock and curiosity.

I smiled at them before heading towards the meeting hall. Soon, I came to the meeting hall. As I walked into the hall, I found many gazes on me.

The Faction Leader and the main elders were present inside. Everyone had solemn expressions on their faces. As if something serious is going to happen next.

Old man Clifford saw Zack Lockwood. His eyes flashed with a complicated glint.

He said, "I have told you to stay low-key. But it appears that even if you don't act, others won't stop bothering you."

"It happened the same today. You had tried to defeat him without using the inheritance power. But in the end, you were forced to use the bright blue force," Clifford added.

Hearing that I nodded to him. Fortunately, the Faction Leader had thought of an answer already. It's just that I had to act because of Jax. He was a strong opponent.

"You should not talk to anyone from the Dew Water Faction. Especially the faction leader and their main leader," Clifford said.

"Okay. Faction leader," I replied.

Clifford then turned towards the other main elders.

He said," We should think about our next plan."

"If I'm not wrong, then they should be discussing this. It would be a matter of time before someone comes knocking on our door," he added.

Hearing that the other main elders agreed.

Austin said," Leader, why don't we discuss with Dean Jerome. He must have seen this duel result."

Chapter 1197: Dew Water Faction Leader Monica

Dew Water Faction,

In the meeting hall, the Dew Water Faction Leader and the main elders have arrived. But the place was quiet. No one has started any talking.

The main elders were showing mixed reactions. Some were carrying a shock and disbelief. While others are carrying solemn expressions on their faces.

Unlike the Dark Variant Faction, the Elemental Factions were not completely against the Thunderflame Faction. But they don't have a favourable attitude towards them either.

Especially after Zack Lockwood's fight against the Elemental Warriors. He had beaten them brutally before. Including the warriors of the Dew Water Faction.

So they don't have a favourable opinion regarding Zack Lockwood either. But today's duel made them convene a meeting.

The Dew Water Faction Leader appears to be a female middle aged woman. Her name is Monica. She has black hair and eyes. Her skin tone is fair.

She was wearing combat clothing with a blue line design. She was in deep thought right now. No one is disturbing her.

"It's definitely a water element. Then why was it destructive?" Monica thought.

She is recalling the duel scenes in her mind. Zack Lockwood had covered his fist with bright blue force. When his attack touches Jax's fist.

At that time, an explosion occurs. She thinks it was from Zack Lockwood's bright blue force. Because Jax's element was metal. It's known for having sharp cutting and strong defensive shields.

But it doesn't have destructive properties. That's why she was confused. As far as she knows water element doesn't have such property. Including the known variant water element.

Yet today she saw something different. A bright blue force has destructive properties.

"Is it a water element or not?" Monica thought.

She then stood up from her seat the next moment.

Seeing that other main elders stood up.

"You guys wait for me here," After saying that she left the hall.

Commotion!

The next second, a small commotion occurs.

The Main Elders started discussing. They think that Faction Leader Monica is going towards the Thunderflame Faction.

Like, the Faction Leader Monica. They weren't able to confirm anything. Because they were all water element warriors. Most of their water elements are variant and different.

But it was not something like what they saw today. They had never seen a water element to dominate the metal element. That too in a destructive way.

...

From MC's Perspective:

Thunderflame Faction:

The meeting is still happening. The Faction Leader Clifford and the main elders are discussing.

I'm quietly standing and listening to others. I don't why they were so worried. It's up to Dean Jerome to make a decision.

Shortly afterwards,

Clifford senses something. He turned towards the entrance. He understood a Half-Step Red Mark Warrior had entered the faction.

He thinks the person is none other than the Dew Water Faction Leader.

Swoosh!

Monica walks into the meeting hall. She has sensed the Half-Step Red Mark Warrior in the meeting earlier. She knew Clifford was in the meeting hall.

Upon seeing her the faces of the main elder changed. They were expecting the Dew Water Faction to do something. But they didn't expect their Faction Leader to arrive here directly.

Monica ignored everyone. She even ignored Faction Leader Clifford. Her gaze fell on Zack Lockwood directly.

On the other hand, I was stunned. I recognise the Dew Water Faction Leader as well. I had seen her a couple of times before from a distance.

Now I'm seeing her face to face now. Then I found that she is trying to see through me. Unfortunately, I'm wearing the Red Mark Warrior ring. It can block the prying eyes.

Monica is trying to see through Zack Lockwood. She wanted to check whether Zack Lockwood had a water element or not but she fails.

Others saw what she was up to. Faction Leader Clifford's eyes flashed with anger.

"Faction Leader Monica, what are you doing?" Clifford asked.

Hearing that Monica recovered her thoughts. She turned towards Faction Leader Clifford.

She asked, "What's going on here?"

"How can this kid have a water element?"

"Since he is using the Blue force power. Then his inheritance must be water element inheritance," She added further.

Quiet!

Hearing that everyone has become quiet. No one is talking. Austin and Ann showed slight nervousness.

They don't want the Dew Water Faction to take Zack Lockwood.

Zack Lockwood is a member of their Thunderflame Faction.

The rest of them left the matter to the Faction Leader Clifford to deal with it.

Monica frowned. This silence only increases her suspiciousness. She thinks that Zack Lockwood indeed has a water element.

Old Man Clifford felt a headache.

He said, "Dean Jerome will tell you everything. You can leave."

"Dean Jerome," Monica was stunned.

She looks at them before her gaze falls on Zack Lockwood.

"What's going on here?"

"If Zack Lockwood has accepted the Water element Inheritance. Then he should be in our Dew Water Faction," Monica said in a serious tone.

She was not sure about that bright blue water force earlier. After looking at their silence and unwillingness to answer, she thinks it must be true.

Clifford said, "If you wanted to ask anything, then go and see Dean Jerome."

"You won't get any answer from us," He added.

Monica raises her eyebrows in a doubt. She then looks at Zack Lockwood before leaving the hall.

Phew!

On the other hand, I heaved a sigh of relief. I thought some conflict would happen. Fortunately, she left without making any fuss.

Faction Leader Clifford sat back in his seat. His tensed eyebrows eases down.

Seeing that other main elders sat back in their seats as well. Austin and Ann showed relief on their faces. The other main elders were relaxed as well.

Upon seeing everyone's reaction, I felt trouble. If not for Dean Jerome's order, I would have told them about my bloodline power.

I'm hoping that I will be allowed to reveal the truth in future. As long as I become a Silver Mark Warrior, I think my strength would be enough to reveal the truth about bloodline power.

Clifford saw Zack Lockwood standing from the beginning. He thinks that kid must be worried as well.

"Zack, you can go back to your residence," Clifford said.

Hearing that I nodded to him, masters and other main elders before leaving.

After leaving the meeting hall, I started heading back towards the residence.

On the way, I came across other warriors. As usual I nodded to them and continued to leave. But one of the warriors stopped me.

"Zack Lockwood, what's your element?"

"What happened to the Purple lightning element?"

The warrior asked. He seems to be from the Black Flame Palace.

"He is from Main Elder Leola's palace," I thought.

I smiled and replied, "Are you guys surprised?"

Hearing that others were taken aback. They were not expecting this answer from Zack Lockwood. They were expecting a straight forward answer.

Because everyone had watched this duel. It has confused them. So some of them began to wait earlier for Zack Lockwood.

They thought he would give an answer. But he disappointed them.

On the other hand, I can tell that they don't like my answer. But I don't care. So I resumed walking towards the residence.

Soon, I reached my residence. After entering inside, I locked the door and went to take a cold shower. I spent 20 minutes in the bath before stepping out.

Then I changed into comfortable clothes and went to lie down in bed.

...

Meanwhile,

Monica was in her faction meeting hall. The main elders were curious to know what happened. They knew the Faction Leader went to the Thunderflame Faction.

She then said, "The Thunderflame Faction is refusing to answer my questions. There is definitely something going on."

"Faction Leader Clifford told me to meet Dean Jerome. Dean knows what's going on," She added.

Gasp!

Someone took a sharp breath.

"So it's true. Zack Lockwood has a water element as well. He is a dual element warrior," One of the main elders said.

Others started to support this argument. Only Monica remained calm and collected. She is thinking otherwise.

She thinks that Zack Lockwood might have accepted the Ancient Inheritance of water element. This would have awakened water element talent in Zack Lockwood.

Which explains why? Zack Lockwood didn't use his purple lightning element during the duel. But she knows only Dean Jeroen can give official confirmation.

A few minutes later,

She said, "Okay, you guys can leave. I'll try to meet the Dean."

The other main elders nodded to her before leaving the hall.

Monica began to get calls from the Faction Leaders of other elemental factions. She knew others were curious about the duel.

Even though she had not made any confirmation yet. She was sure about it. But she thinks it's unwise to discuss with others before getting confirmation from the Dean.

The next second, she sends a request to Dean Jerome. She wanted to meet him. Only the Dean can clear her doubts right now. So she didn't attend any of the calls.

Chapter 1198: Not happening!

Dean Office:

Dean Jerome saw the message sent by the Dew Water Faction Leader. She has sent an urgent meeting request. He was expecting this. But he was surprised by her calm attitude.

He had expected some ruckus to happen at the Thunderflame Faction. But nothing like that had happened. He then gave her permission to come.

He is also thinking about sending Zack Lockwood on an official mission later. He thinks that if that kid stays here, he could be forced to fight more duels.

Shortly afterwards,

Monica arrived at the office. Dean gave her permission to enter. She then walks inside with a tensed expression.

Dean Jerome smiled and said, "Sit."

Hearing that Monica sits in the chair opposite him.

"Dean, what's going on here?"

"That kid is using bright blue force. It's definitely related to the water element but none from the Thunderflame Faction were opening their mouths," Monica said seriously.

"Zack Lockwood has accepted an Ancient Inheritance. But that Ancient Inheritance is a variant water element type. During the trial, he has awakened the water element in him," Jerome replied.

"I knew it," Monica uttered in surprise.

She had thought about possibilities earlier. It was one of them. But this type of possibility was rare. Now that kid has a variant water element inheritance. Then he can be considered a water element warrior.

She then looks at Dean Jerome.

She said, "Dean, what's this kid doing there in the Thunderflame Faction?"

Jerome asked, "Zack wanted to be in the Thunderflame Faction. So I said okay. He can still use the lightning element."

Quiet!

There was sudden quietness.

Monica doesn't know what to say. She wanted to recruit Zack Lockwood into the Dew Water Faction. But if that kid was not willing, then it's impossible to force him.

She doesn't know what to say next. So she stood up and decided to leave. Before leaving, she nodded to the Dean.

When she was gone. Dean Jerome called the Thunderflame Faction Leader, Clifford, and informed him. He told him that he is going to assign a mission for Zack Lockwood.

Time passed,

Monica returned to her faction. This time she didn't convene a meeting. There is no point in arranging the meeting.

But she has asked the main elders to drop this matter and not discuss this issue anymore. The main elders were obviously shocked and surprised.

They knew the faction leader had gone to meet the Dean. But they don't know what happened. But she refused to disclose the details.

The Other Elemental Faction Leaders were still calling the Faction Leader Monica. But she was not responding to them.

Because she knew what they wanted to ask.

If she tells them, then they will definitely do something to get Zack Lockwood. It would cause conflict with the Thunderflame Faction.

She doesn't want that to happen. Because she has found out that Dean Jerome is supporting Zack Lockwood.

Their hostile actions could offend the dean. So she is not going to inform them for a reason. But she forgot about the main elders.

The other Elemental Faction Leaders saw that Monica was not responding. They realised that the Dew Water Faction is doing this deliberately.

Then they asked their main elders to contact the Dew Water Faction's Main Elders. It didn't take long for their main elders to collect information from the Dew Water Faction's Main Elders.

Then they informed their respective faction leaders. The other faction leaders understood something. They were looking for Monica to verify whether the blue force was a water element or not.

Now that she has come from the Dean's office. They thought she would reveal something. But instead, she had asked her main elders not to talk about this topic again.

The Faction Leaders had decided to do something. They got a good opportunity to target the Thunderflame Faction. They won't let go of this opportunity.

They too suspect that Zack Lockwood has water element inheritance

They immediately ordered some of their Inner Hall Warriors to cause trouble for Zack Lockwood.

If Zack Lockwood uses bright blue force many times, then they would be able to figure out whether the bright blue force is a water element or not.

...

From MC's Perspective:

The following day,

After getting out of bed, I started my daily morning routine. The routine lasted for 30 minutes. Then I went to take a bath.

I spent 20 minutes in the bath taking a shower. Then I walked out of the bath and changed into uniform clothes.

I don't know what's going to happen today.

Buzz!

Just as I was thinking, I received a call from someone. When I saw the contact name. I was surprised.

The person who is calling is none other than Dean Jerome.

Seeing that I attended the call.

"Go to the Inner Hall Mission Desk. I have assigned a mission for you. It's time for you to participate in the battle," Dean Jerome said.

"Okay," I replied.

Then the Dean ended the call. Seeing that I sighed inwardly. I was wondering what to do today. But I never expected it would be a mission.

After getting ready, I exited the room. Then I started walking towards the exit. While walking, I sent a message to both of my masters about the mission.

They must be waiting for me. Shortly afterwards, I got a reply back. Both told me to stay safe and watch my back.

While walking, I came across other warriors as well. But none of them told me to ask questions.

Their eyes flashed with doubt as well. They wanted to know about the bright blue force. It's the main topic being discussed currently among the warriors.

Unfortunately, they don't know the answers.

Soon, I came to the exit and walked out. Then I started going towards the Inner Hall. Someone posted a picture of Zack Lockwood in the online media.

It immediately attracted attention. There are more warriors paying attention to Zack Lockwood. The Inner Hall Warriors are especially curious.

They wanted to know the truth about the bright blue force.

Chapter 1199: Accepting Special mission!

From MC's Perspective:

Inner Hall,

Soon, I reached the Inner Hall. When I entered the hall, I started walking towards the mission hall. I came across the inner hall warriors along the path.

They were going about their business. But each one of them recognises my face immediately. I had this feeling that someone would come to make trouble soon.

But for now, I'm focused on the task at hand. I'm aware of the route to the mission hall. So I'm heading in that direction.

On the other hand, the inner hall warriors were curious. They saw which direction Zack Lockwood headed. They found out that it was a direction to the mission hall.

Some thought Zack Lockwood was going to take a mission to avoid the current limelight. It's a good idea. Some started following him to the mission hall.

While others took their devices out and started sending messages to others. The news about Zack Lockwood is a trending topic among the warriors.

Everyone is discussing it. The warriors were especially curious about the bright blue force. They know it's the force from the Inheritance power. But they were confused about the element.

The curious warriors even confront the Dew Water Faction. But the warriors of the Dew Water Faction don't know about it. So they started following Zack Lockwood to find some clues.

On the other hand, I reached the mission hall building. It's a separate high tower building inside the inner hall. After appreciating the structure, I walked into the building.

My gaze swept across queues before finding with less people. I stood behind that line and waited for my chance to come. One after another people accepted the mission and left the place.

Not long after, I stood in line. I found a few more people walking into the place. But they were not here for the mission. They were here for me.

After finding out that I had a headache. These people might have wanted to know about my mission. But it's a special mission assigned by the Dean.

I doubt they would dare to leak the content about it.

About 20 minutes later,

My turn came. I looked at the female staff and told them my name. The staff was taken aback. Then she recalled a special mission given by the Dean to this person.

The female staff noticed the people as well. Seeing that they were here to trouble.

She said, "I'll send the mission details to your ID now. Just accept the mission from your device."

After saying that, she asked for the student ID number. Hearing that, I told her my ID number, and then sent a special mission to the ID.

I took my device out to check the notification. Then I saw the special mission sent by her. She simply forwarded the mission sent by the Dean. So it was a real mission, not a fake one.

I opened the mission details to read.

Outside,

The warriors are disappointed. They don't know what's going on. They were curious about Zack Lockwood's mission. But no one has the guts to ask him.

The scene of Jax's right arm, turned bloodied, was still clear in their minds. They don't want to offend Zack Lockwood right now.

A few minutes later,

My mouth twitches. This time it's going to be a solo mission. But the mission was not dangerous. It's the task of assisting the Black Mark Warriors on the battlefield.

It's also the task of letting me experience the battlefield. Once I get enough experience, I think that the dean will allow me to participate in the direct battlefield.

Then I accepted the mission and showed it to the staff. The female staff nodded her head. She also did something on the monitor.

I put the device back in the storage ring before leaving. The female staff were sincere. She won't divulge the details. Because it's the direct mission sent by the Dean. She won't even dare to break the rules.

The warriors saw Zack Lockwood leaving the hall with a smile on his face. They felt something was wrong and got irritated. They deliberately stood behind the lines to speak with her.

But they don't know she is not going to tell them anything.

Meanwhile,

I came to the transport service area quickly. I was about to pick one of the vehicles. But I suddenly felt a piercing gaze on my back. The gaze was so powerful that I thought someone was going to attack me.

I slowly turned around and followed the source. Then I found a familiar person waving at me. The person was none other than the Purple Mark Guard.

Seeing that I rushed to his side. Upon arriving there, I asked him, "Elder, what's going on?"

The Purple Mark Guard smiled and said, "I have told you before. I'm going to be your protector."

Hearing that my mouth twitches. I know he could take me to the destination at a fast speed. But I wanted to travel in the cab. I wanted to enjoy viewing the passing scenes through the window.

I told the Purple Mark Guard about my idea.

The Purple Mark Guard smiled and said, "But the driver doesn't know about the destination."

"The battle zones are a secret place. The general public isn't aware of it largely. Even those who returned to their civilian life were forbidden to leak this news," he added.

Hearing that my eyes flashed with an understanding.

"I was reckless," I uttered.

"It's okay, you will learn more rules in the coming days. Now let's go to the destination," After saying that the Purple Mark Guard grabbed Zack Lockwood's shoulder and left the place.

In a flash, they left Star University and started flying towards Star City. It didn't take long for them to cross the huge Star City and start going towards the destination.

Here, the news about Zack Lockwood began to trend. The warriors were shocked to learn that Zack Lockwood is taking up the mission right away.

Because it would take time for the new Black Mark Warriors to get adapted to their strength.

So Zack Lockwood's actions surprised them.

Chapter 1200: Camp 424

From MC's Perspective:

The Purple Mark Guard is taking Zack Lockwood to the destination. On the other hand, I could only see the blur in front of my eyes.

But I'm used to this kind of travel. So I calmed down quickly.

About 20 minutes later,

The Purple Mark Guard brought Zack Lockwood to a place that looked like wilderness. The nearest city was miles away. There is no human activity here.

Tud!

I landed on the ground and started looking around the place. I could only see the barren land. There aren't even enough trees here.

"Where is this place?" I asked.

"There is a Teleportation platform here," After saying that the Purple Mark Guard started walking forward.

Seeing that I started following him from behind. After walking further, there is a cave-like structure with an iron door.

A look of understanding dawned on me.

The Purple Mark Guard walked up to the door. He then takes out the key to unlock the door. It was an old-school method. But it was the safest one.

If there was any forcible movement on the door from outside, then they would know.

Creak!

The metallic door opens. The Purple Mark Guard asked Zack Lockwood to come.

Seeing that I started walking towards the cave. When I got there. I found a single large platform inside.

"Zack, listen to what I'm going to say next. Once you are teleported, you will find yourself in Camp 424. That camp was one of our Star University camps "

"The Supervisor of the Camp is a Gold Mark Warrior named Bobby. Under him, there are 50 Silver Mark Warriors and 200 Black Mark Warriors. "

"Dean Jerome has already informed him. Once you arrive there, go and meet Supervisor Bobby. He will tell you what to do," The Purple Mark Guard said.

Hearing that I was shocked to the core. Finally, I began to get nervous. The seriousness of the mission was slowly dawning on me.

Purple Mark Guard saw this reaction. He smiled. He knows what's going on.

So he said, "There is no need for you to get worried. The foreign creatures above Black Mark level won't appear. The presence of Gold Mark Warrior and 50 Silver Mark Warriors was to face any unforeseen situation."

Hearing that I sighed in relief. He should have told me this first.

"Okay," I replied.

"Good, now step inside the platform," The Purple Mark Guard said.

Hearing that I took a step inside. I stood on the platform.

The Purple Mark Guard activated the Teleportation platform without saying anything.

Swoosh!

The next second, something flashes before my eyes. I disappeared from the spot.

When I opened my eyes. I found myself inside the white room. Then I saw two people entering the room. I looked at their uniform and found that they were Star University Warriors.

"Are you Zack Lockwood?" One of them asked.

Both of them were above middle-aged and Black Mark Warriors. I nodded to them.

"Come with me. Supervisor Bobby wanted me to teach you." After saying that, one of them started taking me towards the Supervisor's office.

I'm walking in the corridor on the 4th floor. It's the top floor in this building. When I turned to look outside.

My expression turned worse. I could only see charred land and smoke rising from the ground. The picture was an exact depiction of the Inheritance Trial.

I stopped for a couple of seconds. The Guard who walked a couple of steps forward noticed it.

"Since it's your first time here. You will get used to it soon," The Guard said.

Hearing that I recovered my thoughts and turned towards the Guard.

"I understand," I replied.

Then he started taking me to the Supervisor's office. Soon, we reached the office. It was located at the end of the corridor.

Before the Guard could say something. The door opened automatically.

"You can enter inside," The Guard said before turning around to leave.

Hearing that I thanked the guard for showing me this place. Then I walked into the room.

I saw a middle-aged man with short black and white hair sitting behind the desk. He has a well-built physique and fair skin. Upon seeing me, he smiled and asked me to take a seat.

"I'm Bobby, the Supervisor of Camp 424. We have a total of 500 Black Mark Rank Camp. These 500 Camps were operating under the Dean Jerome of Star University."

"The Dean had told me about you. There are similar camps for Silver Mark and Gold Mark. Since it's your first time here."

"I'm not going to fill your head with information. You will eventually figure out everything by spending days here."

"I'll summon my assistant here. She will show you the place to stay and explain other things," He said.

Hearing that I quickly digested the information. Fortunately, he didn't say everything. Otherwise, it would be shocking.

I'm already taken aback by the charred land outside.

Shortly afterwards,

A black haired warrior walked in. She is an assistant to Supervisor Bobby. Her name is Estella. She is a Silver Mark Warrior. One of the 50 Silver Mark Warriors in the camp.

Supervisor Bobby explained things to her. Then he asked me to follow her. I nodded to him before leaving the room.

"This kid has gained fame recently. I heard he has defeated a Bloodline Warrior. People here are waiting to meet this kid. I hope he can stick here for a long time," he thought.

On the other hand, I started following the Senior Warrior named Estella. She is taking me downstairs. I guess there are other buildings nearby. It must be quarters for the warriors to stay.

Dean Jeroen has given this mission. But he didn't mention any particular time limit. I guess I will stay here unless he asks me to come back.

Soon, we reached the first floor and exited the building.

Then I saw other warriors going around the business. Now, I understand why I didn't find so many warriors in Star University. Everyone is staying in the camps.
