

BloodLine 148

Chapter 148 - Part One: Commotion

I examined the storage ring, which is silver with a red pattern. I put it in my storage ring after viewing it for a second. I sighed as I realised there were no more variables on his physique.

Philip, on the other hand, has a look of regret in his eyes. He senses that he is running out of time. His awareness began to diminish gradually. He died owing to extensive bleeding after finally taking his last breath.

Before putting Philip's body in my corpse preserver, I looked into his eyes. This corpse preserver previously held Daniel's body; now it's Philip's turn. I have a feeling things are about to get out of hand. I take a step out of the arena. As far as I can tell, the only thing that stands in my way is a headache.

As the final man standing, Zack emerged victorious. The sensors put above detected life signals.

Philip bled to death there. When the sensors detected this, they instantly declared the outcome. And the entry/exit door opens. I returned my gaze to the battleground after hearing the door open. With the exception of the aftermath of that explosive object and Philip's blood, that is. There's nothing here that would reveal my abilities. I go towards the exit after giving it a quick glance.

...

The announcement of the outcome sparked a tremendous storm in the building.

For a brief while, many of Philip Jensen's students and classmates were stunned.

"How is this possible?" exclaimed one of Philip Jensen's classmates, stunned. Nearby spectators startled as they saw the winner, Zack Lockwood of Advanced Class.

After a brief moment of silence, the communion erupted. "This means that newbie is a Peak level warrior," exclaimed one of the students, stunned. It quickly began to spread like wildfire.

Marcus Moore, in particular, fled Hansen Training Centre after learning of the outcome. He didn't want to meet the Monster Zack since his back was saturated with sweat. He felt terrible about his previous conduct. He intends to hide once the storm passes, and the storm's name is Zack Lockwood.

In the Advance Class room's discussion hall, not everyone is worried. Maria Frazier flashes a defiant grin after seeing the correct result on her SCI-Fi wrist watch. She, like others, confirms her suspicions about Zack. She said to herself, "Zack is a Peak level Warrior." "It's no surprise he was sleeping.

He was certain of this, which is why he recommended a life-or-death duel. We, on the other hand, had no idea." She made a mental statement.

She then clasped her fist in a resolute manner. She screamed to herself, "I need to work harder." She then exited the building. She had planned to close for training instead of meeting Zack. Since she was aware of Zack's strength. She is unconcerned about his safety. On the other side, she now focuses her attention on her own state.

The Spy Luke, on the other hand, stood in the halls, surrounded by people, staring at the Visual Screen. The location where the announcement was made. His face darkens when he sees Zack's name. "So, He's a Peak level Warrior now, there's no mistake about that," Luke reasoned.

He had previously assumed that Zack would be an easy choice. However, after witnessing the outcome of two life-or-death conflicts. If there is a direct confrontation, he is unsure of his ability. After learning that the deceased's name is Philip Jensen, He had a nagging feeling that he wouldn't be able to defeat Zack in a direct fight.

"Since it's a life-or-death situation. "It doesn't matter what approach you use." Luke mumbled under his breath. "Then I have to count up my cards," Luke said that with a savage grin on his face. He was well aware that Masked Man held Zack in high regard.

Luke now understands why the masked man wants to assassinate Zack. By assassinating the opposing faction's intellect, future issues are avoided. Luke's eyes are now filled with greed. He plans to demand massive riches from the Masked Man after killing Zack.

His deal will not be cheaper this time. He, too, exited the building after pondering this. He doesn't want to spend any time now that the drama is gone.

Zack has no idea what's going to happen from now on. Various forces will pay attention to him. Those who oppose the Army Federation faction. They're going to try to kill him. Even those who attempted to assassinate him in the past. As a result, assassination attempts will become more common.

...

The atmosphere is scarier on the top floor of the the building, inside the meeting room, It was depressingly sad. There is a pin drop silence when the result is seen. For the time being, several of the elders are afraid of offending Elder Jensen by exhaling.

Elder Jensen's eyes became swollen and bloodshot. "How could he murder my Grandson?" Elder Jensen screamed, as he couldn't believe what he was seeing. He wanted to rip Zack's body apart with his bare hands. He vanished from his location in an instant. He attempted to sprint to the underground dome arena.

However, poor soul. Even before he could put his plan into action. Elder Thornton has sealed his presence. Soon after, there was a tremendous amount of pressure, the entire room was engulfed by it. The strain was too much for the glass windows to handle. They were, however, manufactured with unique materials.

Those glasses shatter into multiple pieces this time. Those elders who were weaker were pinned to the ground. Elder Alicia's face, on the other hand, turned pale with fear. She was sorry for siding with Elder Jensen. With this event, her meticulous future plans were swept away. Even she couldn't stand up to the pressure. She knelt to relieve some of the pressure. She felt humiliated.

Not only that, but also herself. Those Elders who had previously backed Elder Jensen and those Elders who had benefited from his favours. They were all pinned to the ground.

They didn't have the same status as Elder Alicia. They felt as if they had been slapped across the face. Elder Thornton put his pressure on everyone on purpose. Everyone got what he was getting at. Elder Thornton is trying to make a point. Elder Alicia bit her lower lip in annoyance.

Elder Jensen, on the other hand, was able to handle some of the stress. However, he was unable to think clearly at this time. He had to say goodbye to his beloved grandson. His features began to sag. He was overcome with wrath. He only wants to get his hands on that knucklehead. Observing Elder Jensen's actions. Elder Thornton immediately sent a message to Mr. Arthur Emerson, requesting that Zack to be protected.

After sending it, he looked around at everyone, his focus falling on Elder Alicia and Elder Jensen in particular. " Trust me if someone tries to harm Zack. Forget about yourself; your clan and successors will be extinguished from the face of the world. Their existence will be obliterated." Everyone could hear his tyrannical voice. Hearing that made them visibly shudder.

After hearing his remarks, Elder Alicia's soul shook. She had finally grasped something. Elder Thornton will openly back Zack from now on. It's not like Admiration used to be. He'll stand by Zack. Despite the fact that this represents a significant loss for her, she refused to cross the bottom line. She didn't want to ruffle her family's feathers. Finally, she decides not to get involved in this situation. Others have come to the same conclusion. They don't want to lose their life for a moment's gain.

Elder Jensen, on the other hand, was upset and stated flatly, "You can't always protect him Thornton." Everyone heard what he had to say. In answer, they shook their heads. Elder Thornton appeared in front of him almost instantaneously. Seeing Elder Jensen's startling face. Elder Jensen was knocked unconscious after he slapped his face. Now, he was unconscious, his body fell to the ground.

...

Mr. Arthur Emerson and Ms. Adeline Key, on the other hand, came in front of Zack.

Unlike the prior time, Zack's body is not badly injured this time. They were both perplexed. Mr. Arthur Emerson replied calmly, "This time it's genuinely shocking." But there's still a glimmer of wonder in his eyes. "From now on, it appears that we won't have to worry about you," Ms. Adeline Key said. She complimented Zack. However, she felt comforted on the inside.

Mr. Author's sci-fi watch suddenly vibrates with a notice. When he saw the message, his expression changed dramatically. "Zack, let's go, it's not time for you to depart," he remarked, looking at Zack. Ms. Adeline's key and Zack are then motioned to accompany him. Something must have happened when I heard that. But I didn't inquire of him. Rather, I silently followed both of them.

Zack was escorted to a secret area by Mr. Arthur Emerson. It was in close proximity to the dome arena. When the trio entered the room. Mr. Arthur Emerson was the one who input the code. The door opens by itself. The trio walked into the room. "Do you think it's that serious?" In a sombre tone, I inquired.. As we sat down in our seats.